Metre.

Whereunto is prefixed a discourse declaring not only the lawfullnes, but also the necessity of the heavenly Ordinance of singing Scripture Psalmes in the Churches of God.

Coll. III.

Let the word of God dwell plenteously in you, in all wisdome, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalmes, Himnes, and spirituall Songs, singing to the Lord with grace in your hearts.

James v.

If any be afflicted, let him pray, and if any be merry let him sing psalmes.

The Preface.

THe singing of Psalmes, though it breath forth nothing but holy harmony, and melody: yet such is the subtilty of the enemie, and the enmity of our nature against the Lord, & his ways, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody for. There have been three questions especially stirring concerning singing. First what psalms are to be sung in churches? Whether Davids and oscripture psalmes, or the psalms invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church. Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as English poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing aloe and the rest joynīg in silēce, & in the close sayīg amen.

Touching the first, certainly the singing of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God, not only in his owre, but in succeeding times as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5.13. in Jehosaphats time 2 chron. 20.31. in Ezra his time Ezra 3.10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekiahs time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 chron. 29, 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once, for this commandement was it cerimoniall

monial or morall? some things in it indeed were cerimoniall, as their musicall instruments &c but what cerimony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typicall? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typicall because the cerimony of musicall instruments was joyned with them, then their prayers were alsotypicall, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their musicall instruments. Beside, that which was typicall (as that they were sung with musicall instruments, by the twenty-foure orders of Priests and Levites. 1 Chron 25.9.) must have the morall and spiritual accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests Reu. 1.6. and are the first fruits unto God. Reu. 14. as the Levites were Num. 3.45, with hearts & lippes, in stead of musicall instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously thinke) Reu. 4.4. by twety foure Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 4.1, 2, 3. answering to the twenty foure orders of Priests and Levites 1 chron. 25.9. Therefore not some select members members, but the whole Church is ic ommanded to teach one another in all the special sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by himself מזמרים: psalms, some תחיללים Hymns some שירים: spirituall songs. Soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therfore perpetuall; then wee under the new Testamet are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are expresly commanded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordīary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirtuall Israell; not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end foe their sin is crying before God, who will allow them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in Christian churches obj. 1 If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church 1 Cor. 14, 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of the spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were inabled to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherin learned Paraeus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Commēt on that place vers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinlary gifts of his servant David? there is not the lost foot-step of example, or precept, or colour of reason for such a bold practise.

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporary psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly. Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joynt consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that composeth a psalme, bringth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invētion; for which wee finde no warrant or president in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the sciptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalms psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himselfe ininfintite wisdome hath made to suit all the conditions, necessityes, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as most of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and particularly cleare where fore by this the Lord seemeth to stoppeth mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or sing any other psa•mes (under colour that the ocasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, seing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himselfe hath supplyed us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them those which had extraoridnary gifts to compile new songs on those new ocasions, as Isaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to sing in the words of David and Asaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but those that are wise will easily see; that those set formes of psalmes of Gods owne appointment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were sung in the Spirit by those holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therin to any set formes; and shall set formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be sung in the spirit now, which others did then? Queston. But why may not one copose a psalme & sing it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with him in silence and in the end say Amen? Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to joyne together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for-First. Davids psalmes as hath beene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty foure orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty foure Elders all the members especially of christian Churches Rom 5.8. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other ooder of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospell for their quallification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faithfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Jewish Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing: as in ps. 100, 1, 2, 3. ps 95, 1, 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers 18. & Ex. 15.1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they spake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and deut. 32. (whereto some thinke, John had reference as well as to Ex. 15.1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Reu, 15.3.) this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31.19. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing i. together as well as with their hearts.

Beast

Preface

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new-Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate lost soules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52.8, 9. and Reu. 7.9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expresly commands the singing of Psalmes, Himnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5.19 coll. 3.16. Paule & Silas sang together in private Acts. 16.25. and must the publick heare oly one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us (saith he) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same purpose also Eusebius gives witnes, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyning to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing into

as also that wee are not alway in a sutable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas: men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding?

As for the scruple that some take at the translatio of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter: wee answer- First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Thesau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are sutable to the poetry of the hebrew Language, and not in the common style of such other bookes of the old Testament as are not poeticall; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookes of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into meeter, that soe wee may sing the Lords songs, as in our engoish tongue soe in such verses as are familiar to an english eare which are commonly metricall: and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, soe neither to sing his poeticall verses in english poeticall metre: men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes (and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language: but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; soe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that, but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs, soe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poeticall licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses, noe; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text.

As for other objections taken from the difficulty of Amsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have cause to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translaters of the psalmes into meetre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 chron. 29.30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not seldome and rare, but very frequent and many times needles, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may justly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe iniove other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerin as our chief guide the originall, showing all additions, except such as even the best translators

The

translators of them in prose supply, avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sence. The word which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew, soe somtime (though not very often) it hath been left out, and yet not then, if the sence were not faire without it.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarismes. Synonimaes wee use indifferently: as folk for people, and Lord for Iehovah, and somtime (though seldome) God for Iehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority ps. 14. with 53. Heb. 1.8. with psalme 97.7 Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which (in our owne apprehensiō) is most genuine & edifying:

Somtime wee have contracted, somtime dilated the same hebrew word, both for the sence and the verse sake: which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrasticall addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution: as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods fearers.

Lastly. Because some hebrew words have a more more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth somtime expresse, hence wee have done that somtime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasis of it; as it is mighty God, for God. I humbly blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand truth and faithfullnes for truth. Howbeit, for the verse sake wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee somtime say reioyce for shout for ioye.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speech, they are such as either the hebrew will, unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the sence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our pollishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth out verses with the sweetnes of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english meerre; that soe wee may sing in Sion the Lords songs of prayle according to his owne will; untill hee take us from hence, and wipe away all our teares, & bid us enter into our masters joye to sing eternall Halleluiahs.

PSALME I

- O Blessed man, that in th' advice of wicked doeth not walk: nor stand in sinners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk.

- 4. And all he doth, shall prosper well, the wicked are not so: but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro.
- 5. Therefore shall not ungodly men, rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the sinners with the just, in their assemblie come.

Psalme 10

WHy standst thou Lord a far? why hyd'st thy selfe in times of streight?

2 In pride the wicked persecutes the poore afflicted wight: snare them in their contrived plots.

- 3 For of his hearts desire the wicked boasts, and covetous blesseth, stirring Gods ire.
- 4 The wicked one by reason of his countenances pride will not seek after God: not God so all his thoughts abide.

9 He closely lurks as lion lurks in den, the poore to catch he lurks, & trapping them in 's net th' afflicted poore doth snatch.

10 Downe doth he crowtch, & to the dust humbly he bowes with-all: that so a multitude of poore in his strong pawes may fall.

11 He saith in heart, God hath forgot: he hides his face away, so that he will not see this thing unto eternall aye.

- 12 Jehovah rise thou up, o God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one be out of memory.
- 13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one? he in his heart saith, thou wilt not make inquisition.
- 14 Thou seest, for thou markst wrong, & spight, with thy hand to repay: the poore leavs it to thee, thou art of fatherlesse the stay.
- 15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one. search thou out his impiety, untill thou findest none.

PSALM XXVII.

The Lord is my lifes-strength, of whom should I then be afrayd? 2 When wicked men, mine enemies, and my foes in battel; against mee come, to eate my flesh, themselves stumbled & fell. 3 If that an hosta against mee camp, my heart undaunted is: if war against mee should arise, I am secure in this. 4 One thing of God I asked have, which I will still request: that I may in the house of God, all dayes of my life rest: To see the beauty of the Lord, and in his Temple seeke. 5 For in his tent in th'evill-day, hidden hee will mee keepe: Hee will me hide in secrecy of his pavillion: and will me highly lift upon the rocks-munition. 6 Moreover at this-time my head lifted on high shall bee, above mine enemies, who doe about encompasse mee. Therefore in's tent I'le sacrifice, of joye an offering, into Jehovah, sing will I, yea, I will prayses sing.

God of my health, leave, leave not mee, my helper been thou hast.

Psalme 28.

A psalme of David.

JEHOVAH, unto thee I cry, my Rock, be thou not deafe me fro: lest thou be dumb from mee & I be like them downe to pit that go.

- 2 Heare thou the voyce of my request for grace, when unto thee I cry: when I lift up mine hands unto thine Oracle of Sanctity.
- 3 With ill men draw me not away, with workers of unrighteousnes, that with their neighbours peace doe speak, but in their hands is wickednes.
- 4 Give thou to them like to their works and like the evill of their deeds: give them like to their handy-works, and render unto them their meeds.
- 5 Because unto Jehovahs work they did not wise-attention yeild, neither unto his handy work, them he will wast, but not up-build.
- 6 The Lord be blest, for he hath heard the voyce of my requests for grace.
- 7 God is my strength, my shield, in him my heart did trust, & helpt I was: Therefore my heart will gladnes shew, and with my song I'le him confesse.

Psalme 29

A psalme of David.

the God of glory thundereth, God on great waters is.

4 Jehovahs voyce is powerfull, Gods voyce is glorious,

5 Gods voyce breaks Cedars: yea God breaks Cedars of Lebanus.

- 7 Gods voyce divides the flames of fire.
- 8 Jehovahs voyce doth make the desart shake: the Lord doth cause the Cadesh-desart shake.
- 9 The Lords voyce makes the hindes to calve, and makes the forrest bare: and in his temple every one his glory doth declare.
- 10 The Lord sate on the flouds: the Lord for ever sits as King.

A Psalme & Song, at the dedication of the house of David.

JEHOVAH, I will thee extoll, for thou hast lift up mee; and over mee thou hast not made my foes joyfull to bee.

PSALM XXI.

IN thee, o Lord, I put my trust, let me be shamed never: according to thy righteousnes o doe thou mee deliver. 2 Bow downe to mee thine eare, with speed let mee deliverance have: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence mee to save. 3 Because thou unto mee a rock and my fortresse wilt bee: therefore for thy names sake doe thou, leade mee & guide thou mee. 4 Doe thou mee pull out of the net, which they have for mee layd so privily: because that thou art to mee a sure ayd. 5 Into thy hands my spirit I reposing doe commit: Jehovah God of verity, thou hast redeemed it. 6 I hated them that have regard to lying vanity: 7 but I in God trust. I'le be glad, and joy in thy mercy: Because thou hast considered my afflicting distresse; thou hast my soule acknowledged in painfull anguishes; 8 And thou hast not inclosed mee

9 Have mercy upon mee, o Lord, for in distresse am I, with grief mine eye consumed is, my soule & my belly.

10 For my life with grief & my years with sighs are consumed: because of my sin, my strength failes, and my bones are wasted.

11 To all my foes I was a scorne, chiefly my neighbours to; a feare to freinds: they that saw mee

12 I am forgot as a dead man that's out of memory: and like a vessel that is broke ev'n such a one am I.

13 Because that I of many men the slandering did heare, round about me on every side there was exceeding feare: While as that they did against mee counsell together take, they craftily have purposed my life away to make.

14 But o Iehovah, I in thee my confidence have put 15 I sayd thou art my God. My times within thy hand are shut:

From the hands of mine enemies for cal'd on thee I have:

let wicked men be sham'd, let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let lying lips be silenced, that against men upright doe speak such things as greivous are; in pride, & in despight.

19 How great 's thy goodnes, thou for the that feare thee hast hidden: which thou work'st for them that thee trust, before the Sonnes of men.

20 Thou in the secret of thy face, shalt hide them from mans pride:

in a pavillion, from the strife of tongues, thou wilt them hide.

21 O let Iehovah blessed be; for he hath shewed mee his loving kindnes wonderfull in a fenced-cittie.

22 For I in hast sayd, I am cast from the sight of thine eyes: yet thou hearest the voyce of my suit,

Psalme 36.

To the chief Musician a psalme of David, the servant of the Lord.

THe trespasse of the wicked one saith in assured-wise: within my heart, the feare of God is not before his eyes.

- 2 For in his eyes he sooths himselfe: his sin is found meane while
- 3 hatefull. The words of his mouth are iniquity & guile:

He to be wise, to doe good leaves.

4 He mischief plotts on's bed, he sets himselfe in way not good: he hath not ill hated.

(2)

- 5 Thy mercy (Lord) in heaven is, to clouds thy faithfullnes.
- 6 Thy judgements a great deep, like great mountains thy righteousnes:

Thou savest man & beast, o Lord.

7 How pretious is thy grace, therefore in shadow of thy wings mens sonnes their trust doe place.

PSALME XXXVI, XXXVII.

- 10 To them that know thee stretch thy grace; to right in heart thy right.
- 11 Let no proud foot against me come, nor wicked hand move mee.
- 12 Wrong doers there are fal'n cast downe, and rays'd they cannot bee,

37 A Psalme of David.

- FRet not thy selfe because of those that evill workers bee, nor envious bee against the men that work iniquitie.
- 2 For like unto the grasse they shall be cut downe, suddenly: and like unto the tender herb they withering shall dye.
- 3 Vpon the Lord put thou thy trust, and bee thou doing good, so shalt thou dwell within the land, and sure thou shalt have food.
- 4 Sew that thou set thy hearts delight also upon the Lord, and the desyers of thy heart to thee he will afford.
- 5 Trust in the Lord: & hee'l it work, to him commit thy way.

6 As

PSALM XXXVII.

6 As light thy justice hee'l bring forth, thy judgement as noone day.

7 Rest in Jehovah, & for him with patience doe thou stay:
fret not thy selfe because of him who prospers in his way,
Nor at the man, who brings to passe the crafts he doth devise.

8 Cease ire, & wrath leave: to doe ill thy selfe fret in no wife.

9 For evil doers shall be made by cutting downe to fall: but those that wayt upon the Lord, the land inherit shall.

10 For yet a litle while, & then the wicked shall not bee: yea, thou shalt diligently mark his place, & it not see.

11 But meek ones the inheritance shall of the earth possesse: also they shall themselves delight in multitude of peace.

12 The wicked plotts against the just, gnashing at him his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him: because his day coming he seeth.

14 The wicked have drawne out their sword, & bent their bowe have they, to cast the poor & needy downe, to kill th'upright in way.

- 18 The Lord doth know upright mens dayes: and their lot is for aye.
- 19 Neither shall they ashamed bee in any time of ill: and when the dayes of famine come,
- 20 But wicked, & foes of the Lord as lambs fat shall decay: they shall consume: yea into smoake they shall consume away.

they then shall have their fill.

(3)

- 21 The man ungodly borroweth, but he doth not repay: but he that righteous is doth shew mercy, & gives away.
- 22 For such as of him blessed bee, the earth inherit shall, and they that of him cursed are, by cutting downe shall fall.
- 23 The foot-steps of a godly man they are by Iehovah established: & also hee delighteth in his way.
- 24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be utterly downe cast:

because

PSALME XXXVII.

because Jehovah with his hand doth underprop him fast.

25 I have been young & now am old; yet have I never seen the just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

- 26 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.
- 27 Depart from evill, & doe good: and ever dwell at rest.
- 28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forsakes not hee; kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.
- 29 The just inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.
- 30 The just mans mouth wisdome doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.
- 31The law of his God is in's heart: none of his steps slideth.
- 32 The wicked watcheth for the just, and him to slay seeketh.
- 33 Jehovah will not such a one relinquish in his hand, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.

PSALME XXXVII, XXXVIII.

36 Neverthelesse he past away, and loe, then was not hee; moreover I did seek for him, but found hee could not bee.

37 Take notice of the perfect man, and the upright attend: because that unto such a man peace is his latter end.

38 But such men that transgressors are together perish shall:
the latter end shall be cut off the latter end shall be cut off of the ungodly all,

39 But the salvation of the just doth of Jehovah come:

he is their strength to them in times that are most troublesome.

40 Yea, help & free them will the Lord: he shall deliver them from wiced men, because that they doe put their trust in him.

Psalme 38

A psalme of David, to bring to remembrance.

PSALM XXXVIII.

- 4 Because that mine iniquityes ascended are above my head: like as an heavy burden, they to heavy upon me are layd.
- 5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be: my foolishnes doth make it so.
- 6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe; all the day long I mourning goe.
- 7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd: & in my flesh is no soundnes.
- 8 I'me weak & broken sore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlessnes.
- 9 All my desire's before thee, Lord; nor is my groaning hid from thee.
 10 My heart doth pant, my strength me fails: & mine eye sight is gone from mee.

12 And they lay snares that seek my life, that seek my hurt, they mischief speak, And all day long imagin guile, 13 But as one deafe, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.
14 Thus was I as man that heares not,

& in whose mouth reproofes none were.

PSALME XXXVIII.

15 Because o Lord, in thee I hope: o Lord my God, thou wilt mee heare 16 For sayd I, left or'e me they joy: when my foot slips, they vaaunt the more 17 themselves 'gainst me. For I to halt am neere, my grief's still mee before. 18 For my transgression I'le declare; I for my sins will sorry bee. 19 But yet my lively foes are strong, who falsly hate me, multiplie. 20 Moreover they that doe repay evill in stead of good to mee, because I follow what is good, to mee they adversaryes bee. 21 Jehovah, doe not mee forsake: my God o doe not farre depart 22 from mee. Psalme 39

To the chief musician, even to Jeduthun, a Psalme of David.

I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue:
I'le keep my mouth with bit, while I the wicked am among.

With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.

Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,
inkindled

PSALM XXXIX.

inkindled in me was the fire;
then spake I with my tongue.
4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne;
that what a momentany thing I am I may discerne.
5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a spanning.

5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span, mine age as nought to thee: surely each man at's best estate, is wholly vanity. Selah.

6 Sure in a vaine show walketh man; sure stir'd in vaine they are: he heaps up riches, & knows not who shall the same gather.

- 7 And now, o Lord what wayt I for? my hope is upon thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses: the fooles scorne make not mee.
- 9 I was dumb nor opned my mouth, this done because thou hast.
- 10 Remove thy stroke away from mee: by thy hands blow I wast.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity;

thou blast's his beauty like a moth: sure each man 's vanity. Selah.

- 3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto: many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.
- 4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide: nor doth the proud respect, nor such to lies as turne aside.
- 5 O thou Jehovah, thou my God, hast many a wonder wrought: and likewise towards us thou hast conceived many a thought.

Their summe cannot be reck'ned up, in order unto thee:

would I declare & speak of them, beyond account they bee.

PSALM XL.

6 Thou sacrifice & offering wouldst not; thou boar'st mine eare: burnt offring, & sin offering thou neither didst requere.

7 Then sayd I: loe, I come: ith books rolle it is writt of mee.

8 To doe thy will, God, I delight, thy laws in my beart bee.

9 In the great congregation thy righteousnes I show: loe, I have not refraynd my lips, Jehovah, thou dost know.

10 I have not hid thy righteousnes within my heart alone:

I have declar'd thy faithfullnes and thy salvation:

Thy mercy nor thy truth have I from the great Church conceald.

11 Let not thy tender mercyes bee from mee o Lord with-held.

Let both thy kindnes & thy truth keep me my life throughout.

12 Because innumerable ills have compast mee about:
My sins have caught me so that I not able am to see:
more are they then hairs of my head,

ore are they then hairs of my head, therefore my heart fails mee

14 At once abasht & sham'd let bee who seek my soule to waste:

Let them be driven back, & sham'd, that wish me misery.

15 Let them be waste, to quit their shame, that say to me, fy fy.

16 Let all be glad, & joy in thee, that seek thee: let them say who thy salvation love, the Lord be magnifyde alway.

17 I both distrest & needy am, the Lord yet thinks on mee: my help & my deliverer thou my God, doe not tarry.

Psalme 41

To the chief musician, a psalme of David.

BLessed is hee that wisely doth unto the poore attend:
the Lord will him deliverance in time of trouble send.

2 Him God will keep, & make to live, on earth hee blest shall be, nor doe thou him unto the will give of his enemie.

3 Vpon the bed of languishing, the Lord will strengthen him: thou also wilt make all his bed within his sicknes time.

4 I sayd, Jehouah, o be thou mercifull unto mee; heale thou my soule, because that I have sinned against thee.

5 Those men that be mine enemies, with evill mee defame:
when will the time come hee shall dye,
and perish shall his name?

6 And if he come to see mee, hee speaks vanity: his heart sin to it selfe heaps, when hee goes forth hee doth it impart.

(2) 7 All that me hate, against mee they together whisper still: against me they imagin doe to mee malicious ill. 8 Thus doe they say some ill disease, unto him cleaveth sore: and seing now he lyeth downe, he shall rise up noe more. 9 Moreover my familiar freind, on whom my trust I set, his heele against mee lifted up, who of my bread did eat. 10 But Lord me pitty, & mee rayse, that I may them requite. 11 By this I know assuredly, in mee thou dost delight: For o're mee triumphs not my foe, 12 And mee, thou dost mee stay,

in mine integrity; & set'st

The SECOND BOOKE.

PSALME 42 To the chief musician, Maschil, for the Sonnes of Korah.

LIke as the Hart panting doth bray after the water brooks, even in such wise o God, my soule, after thee panting looks. 2 For God, even for the living God, my soule it thirsteth sore: oh when shall I come & appeare, the face of God before. 3 My teares have been unto mee meat, by night also by day, while all the day they unto mee where is thy God doe say. 4 When as I doe in minde record these things, then me upon I doe my soule out poure, for I with multitude had gone: With them unto Gods house I went with voyce of joy & prayse:

I with

PSALM XLII.

I with a multitude did goe that did keepe-holy-days.5 My soule why art cast downe? & act stirr'd in mee: thy hope place in God, for yet him prayse I shall for the help of his face.

6 My God, my soule in mee's cast downe, therefore thee minde I will from Iordanes & Hermonites land, and from the litle hill.

7 At the noyse of thy water spouts deep unto deep doth call: thy waves they are gone over mee, also thy billowes all.

8 His loving kindnes yet the Lord command will in the day: and in the night his song with mee, to my lifes God I'le pray.

9 I unto God will say, my Rock why hast thou forgot mee? why goe I sad, by reason of pressure of th' enemie.

10 As with a sword within my bones my foes reproach mee do: while all the day, where is thy God? they doe say mee unto.

11 My soule o wherefore dost thou bowe thy selfe downe heavily; and wherefore in mee makest thou a stirr tumultuously?

Hope

PSALM XLI, XLIII.

Hope thou in God, because I shall with prayse him yet advance: who is my God, also he is health of my countenance.

Psalme 43.

JUdge me, o God, & plead my cause from nation mercylesse; from the guilefull & man unjust, o send thou me redresse. 2 For of my strength thou art the God, why cast's thou mee thee fro: why goe I mourning for the sore oppression of the foe? 3 Thy light o send out & thy truth, let them lead, & bring mee, unto thy holy hill, & where thy tabernacles bee. 4 Then will I to Gods Altar goe, to God my joyes gladnes: upon the Harp o God my God I will thy prayse expresse. 5 My soule o wherfore dost thou howe thy selfe downe heavily; and wherefore in mee makest thou a stirre tumultuously? Hope thou in God, because I shall with prayse him yet advance: who is my God, also he is health of my countenance.

Psalme 44

To the chief musician, for the sonnes of Korah.

PSAL.

PSALM XLIV.

WEE with our eares have heard, o God, our fathers have us told, what works thou diddest in their dayes, in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drave the heathen out, and them thou planted hast; how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword the lands possession, neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:

But thy right hand, thine arme also, thy countenances light;

because that of thine owne good will thou didst in them delight.

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the same indure: doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a horne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have, upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou sav'd, and put our foes to shame.

8 In God wee boast all the day long,

and PSALME XLIV.

and for aye prayse thy name. Selah.

9 But thou hast cast us off away, thou makest us also to be asham'd; neither dost thou forth with our armies goe.

10 Vs from before the enemy thou makest back recoyle: likewise they which our haters bee, for themselves us doe spoyle.

11 Thou hast us given like to sheep to slaughter that belong: also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.

12 Thou dost thy people set to sale whereby no wealth doth rise: neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.

13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou doest us expose, a scorne we are & mocking stock, to them that us inclose.

14 Among the heathen people thou a by word dost us make: also among the nations, at us their heads they shake.

15 Before me my confusion it is continually, and of my countenance the shame hath over covered mee.

16 Because of his voyce that doth scorne,

and

PSALM XLIV.

and scoffingly despight: by reason of the enemy, and selfe revenging wight.

(3)

- 17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee: neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.
- 18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;
- 19 Though us thou brake in dragons place, and hid us in deaths shade.
- 20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretcht to a strange God our hands:
- 21 Shall not God search this out? for hee hearts secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd: counted as sheep to slay.
- 23 Awake, why sleepst thou, Lord? arise, cast us not off for aye.
- 24 Thy countenance away from us o wherefore dost thou hide?

of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.

- 25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust: to earth cleaves our belly.
- 26 Rise for our help, & us redeeme, because of thy mercy.

Psalme 45

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim, for the sonnes of Korah, Maschil a song of loves.

PSALME XLV.

- MY heart good mater boyleth forth, my works touching the King I speak: my tongue is as the pen of Scribe swiftly writing.

 2 Fairer thou art then sonnes of men, grace in thy lips is shed: because of this the Lord hath thee for evermore blessed.

 3 Thy wasting sword o mighty one gird thou upon thy thigh: thy glorious-magnificence, and comely majesty.
- 4 Ride forth upon the word of truth, meeknes & righteousnes: and thy right hand shall lead thee forth in works of dreadfulnes.
- 5 Within the heart of the kings foes thine arrows piercing bee: whereby the people overcome, shall fall downe under thee.
- 6 Thy throne o God, for ever is, the scepter of thy state
- 7 right scepter is. Justice thou lov'st, but wickednes dost hate:
 Because of this, God ev'n thy God hee hath annoynted thee, with oyle of gladnes above them, that thy companions bee.
- 8 Myrths, Aloes, and Cassias smell, all of thy garments had: out of the yvory pallaces whereby

PSALM XLV.

wherby they made thee glad. 9 Amongst thine honourable maids kings daughters present were, the Queen is set at thy right hand in fine gold of Ophir.

10 Harken o daughter, & behold, doe thou incline thine eare: doe thou forget thine owne people, and house of thy father.

11 So shall the king delighting-rest himselfe in thy beautie: and bowing downe worship thou him, because thy Lord is hee.

12 Then shall be present with a gift the daughter there of Tyre: the wealthy ones of the people thy favour shall desire.

13 The daughter of the king she is all glorious within:

and with imbroderies of gold, her garments wrought have been.

14 She is led in unto the king in robes with needle wrought: the virgins that doe follow her shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought forth with gladnes, also with rejoycing, so shall they entrance have into the Pallace of the king.

16 Thy children shall in stead of those that were thy fathers bee:

whom

PSALME XLV, XLVI.

whom thou mayst place in all the earth in princely diginty.

17 Thy name remembred I will make through generations all: therefore for ever & for aye the people prayse thee shall.

Psalme 46

To the chief musician, for the sonnes of Korah, a song upon Alemoth.

GOD is our refuge, strength, & help in troubles very neere.

2 Therefore we will not be afrayd, though th'earth removed were.

Though mountaines move to midst of seas

- Though waters roaring make and troubled be, at whose swellings although the mountaines shake. Selah.
- 4 There is a river streames whereof shall rejoyce Gods city:

the holy place the tent wherin abideth the most high.

5 God is within the midst of her, moved shee shall not bee:

God shall be unto her an help, in the morning early.

6 The nations made tumultuous noyse, the kingdomes moved were:

he did give forth his thundering voyce the earth did melt with feare.

7 The God of Armies is with us th'eternall Jehovah:

the

PSALM XLVI, XLVII.

the God of Jacob is for us a refuge high. Selah. 8 O come yee forth behold the works which Jehovah hath wrought, the fearfull desolations, which on the earth he brought. 9 Vnto the utmost ends of th'earth warres into peace hee turnes: the speare he cuts, the bowe he breaks, in fire the chariots burnes. 10 Be still, & know that I am God, exalted be will I among the heathen: through the earth I 'le be exalted hye. 11 The God of armyes is with us, th'eternall Jehovah: the God of Jacob is for us a refuge high. Selah.

Psalme 47.

To the chief musician: a psalme for the Sonnes of Korah.

CLap hands all people, shout for joy, to God with voyce of singing mirth:

- 2 For high Jehovah fearfull is, a great King over all the earth.
- 3 People to us he doth subdue, and nations under our feet lay.
- 4 For us our heritage he chose, his deare Iacobs glory. Selah.
- 5 God is ascended with a shout: Jehovah with the trumpets noyse.

6 Sing

PSALM XLVII, XLVIII.

6 Sing psalmes to God, sing psalmes, sing-psalmes unto our King with singing voyce.

7 For God is King of all the earth, sing yee psalmes of instruction:

8 Over the heathen God will reigne God fits his holy throne upon.

9 To the people of Abrahams-God Princes of peoples gathered bee, for shields of th'earth to God belong: he is exalted mightylie.

Psalme 48

To the chief musician, a song & psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

GReat is Jehovah, & he is to be praysed greatly within the city of our God, in his mountaine holy.

2 For situation beautifull, the joy of the whole earth mount Sion; the great Kings city on the sides of the north.

3 God in her pallaces is knowne to be a refuge high.

4 For loe, the kings assembled were: they past together by.

5 They saw, & so they merveiled, were troubled, fled for feare.

6 Trembling seiz'd on them there & paine like her that childe doth beare.

7 The navies that of Tarshish are in pieces thou breakest:

even

PSALM XLVIII.

ev'n with a very blast of winde coming out of the east.

8 As we heard, so we saw within the Lord of hoasts citty, in our Gods citty, God will it stablish eternally.

Selah.

9 O God we have had thoughts upon thy free benignity, within the very midle part of thy temple holy,

10 According to thy name, o God so is thy prayse unto the ends of earth: thy right hand 's full of righteousnes also.

11 Let the mountaine Sion rejoyce, and triumph let them make who are the daughters of Iudah, ev'n for thy judgements sake.

12 About the hill of Sion walk, and goe about her yee, and doe yee reckon up thereof the tow'rs that therein bee.

13 Doe yee full well her bulwarks mark, her Pallaces view well, that to the generation to come yee may it tell.

14 For this same God he is our God for ever & for aye: likewise untothe very death he guides us in our way.

PSALM

PSALME XLIX.

Psalme 49

To the chief musician a psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

HEare this all people, all give eare that dwell the world all o're.

2 Sonnes both of low, & higher men, joyntly both rich & poore.

3 My mouth it shall variety of wisdome be speaking: and my hearts meditation shall be of understanding.

4 Vnto a speech proverbiall I will mine eare incline; I will also upon the Harp open my dark doctrine.

5 Why should I be at all afrayd in dayes that evill bee: when that my heeles iniquity about shall compasse mee.

& ever ceaseth it.

6 Those men that make their great estates their stay to trust unto, who in the plenty of their wealth themselves doe boast also:
7 Ther 's not a man of them that can by any meanes redeeme his brother, nor give unto God enough to ransome him.
8 So deare their soules redemption is

9 That

PSALM XLIX.

9 That he should still for ever live and never see the pit.

10 For he doth see that wise man dye, the foole and brutish too to perish, & their rich estate to others leave they doo.

11 They think their houses are for aye to generations all their dwelling places, & their lands by their owne names they call.

12 Neverthelesse, in honour man, abideth not a night: become he is just like unto the beasts that perish quite.

13 This their owne way their folly is; yet whatsoe're they say, their successors that follow them doe well approve. Selah.

14 Like sheep so are they layd in grave, death shall them feed upon;

& th' upright over them in mom shall have dominion.

And from the place where they doe dwell, the beauty which they have, shall utterly consume away in the devouring grave.

(3)

15 But surely God redemption unto my soule will give, even from the power of the grave, for he will me receive. Selah.

16 Be

PSALME XLIX, L.

16 Be not afrayd when as a man in wealth is made to grow, and when the glory of his house abundantly doth flow.

17 Because he shall carry away nothing when he doth dye: neither shall after him descend ought of his dignity.

18 And albeit that he his soule in time of his life blest, and men will prayse thee, when as thou much of thy selfe makest.

19 He shall goe to his fathers race, they never shall see light.

20 Man in honour, & know'th not, is like beasts that perish quite.

Psalme 50.

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God, the Lord hath spoke, and he the earth doth call, from the uprising of the Sun, thereof unto the fall.

2 The mighty God hath clearely shyn'd out of the mount Sion, which is of beauty excellent the full perfection.

3 Our God shall come, and not be still fire shall waste in his sight; and round about him shall be rays'd a storme of vehement might.

4 His folk to judge he from above calls

PSALM L.

calls heavens, & earth likewise,
5 Bring mee my Saints, that cov'nant make with mee by sacrifice.
6 And the heavens shall his righteousnes shew forth apparentlie:
because the mighty God himselfe a righteous judge will bee. Selah.

7 Heare, o my people, & I will speake, I will testify also to thee o Israell, I even thy God am I.

8 As for thy sacrifices I will finde no fault with thee, or thy burnt offrings, which have been at all times before mee.

9 Ile take no bullocks, nor he-goates from house, or foldes of thine.

10 For sorrest beasts, & cattell all on thousand hills are mine.

11 The flying foules of the mountaines all of them doe I know: and every wilde beast of the field it is with mee also.12 If I were hungry I would not it unto thee declare:

for mine the habitable world, and fullnes of it are.

13 Of bullocks eate the flesh, or drink the blood of goates will I?

14 Thanks offer unto God, & pay thy

thy vowes to the most high.

15 And in the day of trouble sore doe thou unto mee cry, and I will thee deliver, and thou mee shalt glorify.

(3)

16 But to the wicked God sayth, why dost thou the mention make of my statutes, why in thy mouth should'st thou my cov'nant take?

17 Sith thou dost hate teaching and dost my words behinde thee cast.

18 When thou didst see a thief, then thou with him consented hast;

And likewise with adulterers thy part hath been the same.

19 Thy mouth to evill thou dost give, and guile thy tongue doth frame, Thou sittest, thou dost speake against the man that is thy brother:

and thou dost slaunder him that is the sonne of thine owne mother.

21 These things hast thou committed, and in silence I kept close: that I was altogether like thy selfe, thou didst suppose, I'le thee reprove, & in order before thine eyes them set.

22 O therefore now consider this yee that doe God forget:

Lest I you teare, & there be not any any deliverer.

23 He glorifieth mee that doth prayse unto mee offer.

24 And hee that doth order aright his conversation, to him will I give that hee may see Gods salvation.

Psalme 51.

To the chief musician, a psalme of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in unto Bathsheba.

HAve mercy upon mee o God, in thy loving kyndnes: in multitude of thy mercyes blot out my trespasses.

2 From mine iniquity doe thou wash mee most perfectly, and also from this sin of mine doe thou mee purify.

3 Because, of my transgressions my selfe doe take notice, and sin that I committed have before mee ever is.

4 Gainst thee, thee only I have sin'd this ill done thee before: when thou speakst just thou art, & cleare when thou dost judge therfore.

5 Behold, how in iniquity
I did my shape receive:
also my mother *that mee bare*in sin did mee conceive.

6 Behold

PSALME LI.

6 Behold, thou dost desire the truth within the inward part: and thou shalt make mee wisdome know in secret of my heart. 7 With hysope doe me purify, I shall be cleansed so: doe thou mee wash, & then I shall be whiter then the snow. 8 Of joy & of gladnes doe thou make me to heare the voyce: that so the bones which thou hast broke may cheerfully rejoyce. 9 From the beholding of my sin hide thou away thy face: also all mine iniquityes doe utterly deface.

(2)

10 A cleane heart (Lord) in me create, also a spirit right
11 in me renew. O cast not mee away out of thy sight;
Nor from me take thy holy spirit.
12 Restore the joy to mee

12 Restore the joy to mee of thy salvation, & uphold me with thy spirit free.

13 Then will I teach thy wayes to those that work iniquirie: and by this meanes shall sinners bee converted unto thee.

14 O God, God of my health, set mee free from bloud guiltines,

and

PSALM LI.

and so my tongue shall joyfully sing of thy righteousnes. 15 O Lord-my-stay, let thou my lips by thee be opened, and by my mouth thy prayses shall be openly shewed. 16 For thou desir'st not sacrifice, it would I freely bring: neither dost thou contentment take in a whole burnt offring. 17 The sacrifices of the Lord they are a broken spirite: God, thou wilt not despise a heart that's broken, & contrite. 18 In thy good pleasure o doe thou doe good to Sion hill: the walles of thy Jerusalem o doe thou build up still. 19 The sacrifice of justice shall please thee, with burnt offring, and whole burnt offring; then they shall calves to thine Altar bring.

Another of the same. O GOD, have mercy upon mee, according to thy kindenes deare: and as thy mercyes many bee, quite doe thou my transgressions cleare. 2 From my perversnes mee wash through, and from my sin mee purify. 3 For my transgressions I doe know, before

PSALME LI.

before mee is my sin dayly.

- 4 Gainst thee, thee only sin'd have I, & done this evill in thy sight: that when thou speakst thee justify men may, and judging cleare thee quite.
- 5 Loe, in injustice shape't I was: in sin my mother conceav'd mee.
- 6 Loe, thou in th'inwards truth lov'd haz and made mee wise in secrecie.
- 7 Purge me with hyssope, & I cleare shall be; mee wash, & then the snow
- 8 I shall be whiter. Make me heare Joy & gladnes, the bones which so Thou broken hast joy cheerly shall.
- 9 Hyde from my sins thy face away blot thou iniquityes out all which are upon mee any way.

- 10 Create in mee cleane heart at last God: a right spirit in me new make.
- 11 Nor from thy presence quite me cast, thy holy spright nor from me take.
- 12 Mee thy salvations joy restore, and stay me with thy spirit free.
- 13 I wil, transgressors teach thy lore, and sinners shall be turnd to thee.
- 14 Deliver mee from guilt of bloud, o God, God of my health-saving, which if thou shalt vouchsafe, aloud thy righteousnes my tongue shall sing.
- 15 My lips doe thou, o Lord, unclose,

PSALM LI.

and thy prayse shall my mouth forth show 16 For sacrifice thou hast not chose, that I should it on thee bestow:

Thou joy'st not in burnt sacrifice.

- 17 Gods sacrifices are a sp'ryte broken; o God, thou'lt not despise, a heart that's broken & contrite.
- 18 In thy good will doe thou bestow on Sion goodnes bounteouslie:
 Jerusalems walles that lye so low doe thou vouchsafe to edifie.
- 19 Then shalt thou please to entertaine the sacrifices with content of righteousnes, the offrings slaine, which unto thee wee shall present,

Together with the offerings such as in fire whole burned are: and then they shall thei• bullocks bring, offrings to be on thine altar.

Psalme 52

To the chief musician, Maschil. a psalme of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saule, & sayd unto him, Dauid is come to the house of Ahimilech.

O man of might, wherefore dost thou thus boast thy selfe in ill? the goodnes of the mighty God endureth ever still.

2 Thy tongue presumptuously doth mischievous things devise: it is like to a razor sharp, working

PSALME LII, LIII.

working deceitfull lies.

- 3 Thou lovest evil more then good, more to speak lies then right.
- 4 O guilefull tongue, thou dost in all devouring words delight.
- 5 God shall likewise for evermore destroying thee deface, he shall take thee away, & pluck thee from thy dwelling place,

- And also root thee out from off the land of the living. Shelah.
- 6 The righteous also shall it see and feare, at him laughing.
- 7 Loe, this the man that made not God his strength: but trusted in his store of wealth, himselfe made strong in his mischievous sin.
- 8 But in the house of God am I like a greene Olive-tree:
 I trust for ever & for aye, in Gods benignitie.
- 9 Thee will I prayse for evermore, because thou host done this: and I'le wayt on thy name, for good, before thy Saints that is.

Psalme 53.

To the chief musician upon Mahalath, Maschil. A psalme of David.

THe foo'e in's heart saith, there's no God, they are corrupt, have done abominable practises;

that

PSALM LIII, LIV.

that doth good there is none.

2 The Lord from heaven looked downe on sonnes of men, to see if any that doth understand, that seeketh God there bee.

3 All are gone back, together they ev'n filthy are become: and there is none that doeth good,

4 The workers of iniquityes have they noe knowledge all? who eate my people: they eate bread; and on God doe not call.

noe not so much as one.

5 Greatly they fear'd, where noe feare was, 'gainst thee in camp that lyes his bones God scattered; & them sham'd for God doth them despise.

6 Who Israells health from Sion gives? his folks captivitie when God shall turne: Jacob shall joye glad Israell shall bee.

Psalme 54

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, a psalm: of David, when the Ziphims came & sayd to Saul, doth not David hide himselfe with us?

PReserve mee, by thy name, o God,
& by thy strength judge mee.

2 O God, my pray'r heare, give eare to words in my mouth that bee.

3 For strangers up against me rise, and who oppresse me sore,

pursue

PSALME LIIII, LV.

pursue my soule; neither have they set God themselves before. Selah.

4 Loe, God helps mee, the Lord's with them that doe my soule sustaine.

5 He shall reward ill to my foes: them in thy truth restrayne.

6 Vnto thee sacrifice will I, with voluntarines; Lord, to thy name I will give prayse, because of thy goodnes.

7 For he hath mee delivered, out of all miseryes: and its desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemyes.

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, a psalme of David.

O GOD, doe thou give eare unto my supplication:
and doe not hide thy selfe away from my petition.

2 Bee thou attentive unto mee, and answer mee returne,
I in my meditation doe make a noyse & mourne.

3 Because of th'enemies voyce, because the wicked haue opprest, for they injustice on mee cast and in wrath mee detest.

4 My heart in mee is payn'd, on mee deaths terrors fallen bee.

5. Trembling

PSALM LV.

5 Trembling & feare are on mee come, horrour hath covered mee.

6 Then did I say, o who to mee wings of a dove will give; that I might flie away & might in quiet dwelling live.

7 Loe, I would wander farre away, and in the desart rest. Selah, 8 Soone would I scape from windy storm•, from violent tempest.

9 Lord bring on them destruction, doe thou their tongues divide; for strife & violence I within the city have espy'd.

10 About it on the walles thereof, they doe walk night & day: mischief also & sorrow doe in middest of it stay.

11 In midst thereof there's wickednes; deceitfullnes also, and out of the broad streets thereof

PSALME LXIX, LXX.

34 Let heav'n, earth, seas & all the in that moves, his prayses sound.
35 For God will Judahs cittyes build, and Sion he will save: that they may dwell therin, & may it in possession have.
36 The seed also of his servants inherit shall the same: also therin inhabit shall they that doe love his name.

Psalme 70

To the chief musician, a psalme to bring to remembrance.

O GOD, to rescue mee, Lord, to mine help, make hast. 2 Let them that after my soule seek asham'd be, & abasht: Turnd back & shamd let them that in my hurt delight. 3 Turnd back let them ha, ha, that say, their shame for to requite. 4 Let all those that thee seek joy, & be glad in thee: let such as love thy health say still, magnifyde let God bee. 5 Make hast to me Lord, for I poore am & needy: thou art mine ayd, & my helper o Lord; doe not tarry.

Psalme 71

Psalm

PSALM LXXI.

JEHOVAH, I for safety doe betake my selfe to thee: o let me not at any time put to confusion bee. 2 Me rescue in thy righteousnes, let me deliverance have: to me doe thou incline thine eare, also doe thou me save. 3 Be thou my dwelling Rock, whereto I alwayes may resort: thou gav'st commandment me to save, for thou my Rock & Fort. 4 Out of the hand of the wicked my God, deliver mee, out of the hand of the unjust, leaven'd with crueltie. 5 For thou o God, Jehovah art mine expectation: and thou art hee whom from my youth my trust is set upon: 6 Thou hast upheld mee from the womb, thou art he that tookst mee out of my mothers belly; still my prayse shall be of thee.

7 To many I a wonder am but thou my refuge strong.
8 Let my mouth fill'd be with thy prayse,
& honour all day long.
9 Within the time of elder age
o cast me not away,

and PSALME LXXI.

and doe not thou abandon me when my strength doth decay.

10 Because they that be enemyes to me, against me spake, and they that for my soule lay-wayt, counsell together take.

11 Saying, God hath forgotten him: doe yee him now pursue, and apprehend him, for there is not one him to rescue.

12 Depart not farre from mee, o Go•, my God hast to helpe mee.

13 The adversaryes of my soule, let them ashamed bee:
Let them consumed be, let them be also covered,
both with reproach & dishonour, that for my hurt wayted.

(3)

14 But I with patience will wayt on thee continuallee, and I will adde yet more & more to all the prayse of thee.
15 My mouth forth shall thy righteousnes, and thy salvation show from day to day, for of the same no number doe I know.
16 In the strong might of God the Lord goe on a long will I:
I'le mention make of thy justice, yea ev'n of thine only.

17 from

PSALM LXXI.

17 From my youth up o mighty God, thou hast instructed mee: and hitherto I have declar'd the wonders wrought by thee.

18 And now unto mine elder age, and hoary head, o God, doe not forsake mee: till I have thy power showne abroad, Vnto this generation, and unto every one that shall hereafter be to come, thy strong dominion.

(4)

- 19 Thy righteousnes o God, it doth reach up on high also, great are the things which thou hast done; Lord who's like thee unto?

 20 Thou who hast caused mee to see afflictions great & sore, shalt mee revive, & me againe from depths of earth restore.
- 21 Thou shalt my greatnes multiply & comfort me alwayes.
- 22 Also with tuned Psaltery
 I will shew forth thy prayse,
 O thou my God, I will sing forth to thee mine Harp upon,
 thy verity & faithfullnes,
 o Israels Holy-one.
- 23 My lips with shouting shall rejoyce when I shall sing to thee:

PSALME LXXI, LXXII.

my soule also, which freely thou hast brought to liberty.

24 Likewise my tongue shall utter forth thy justice all day long:
for they confounded are, & brought to shame, that seek my wrong.

Psalme 72

A psalme for Solomon.

- O GOD, thy judgements give the King, & thy justice to the Kings Sonne.
- 2 He shall thy folk with justice judge, & to thy poore see judgement done,
- 3 The mountaines shall abundantly unto the people bring forth peace: the little hills shall bring the same, by executing righteousnes.
- 4 Poore of the people he shall judge, and children of the needy save;
 - & he in peeces shall break downe each one that them oppressed have.
- 5 They shall thee feare, while Sun & moon endure through generations all.
- 6 Like raine on mowne grasse he shall come: as showres on earth distilling-fall.
- 7 The just shall flourish in his dayes, & store of peace till no moone bee.
- 8 And from the sea unto the sea, from floud to lands end reigne shall hee.
- 9 They that within the wildernes doe dwell, before him bow they must: and they who are his enemies

they they verily shall lick the dust.

(2)

- 10 Vpon him presents shall bestow of Tarshish, & the Iles, the Kings, Shebahs, & Sebahs Kings also, shall unto him give offerings.
- 11 Yea to him all the kings shall fall, & serve him every nation:
- 12 For needy crying save he shall, the poore, & helper that hath none.
- 13 The poore & needy he shall spare; and the soules of the needy save.
- 14 Their soules from fraud & violence by him shall free redemption have: And pretious in his sight shall be
- 15 the bloud of them. And he shall live, and unto him shall every one of purest gold of Shebah give:

Also each one their humble prayr in his behalfe shall make alwayes: and every one his blessednes shall dayly celebrate with prayse.

(3)

16 Of corne an handfull there shall be ith land the mountains tops upon, the fruit whereof shall moving shake like to the trees of Lebanon:

And they that of the citty be like grasse on earth shall flourish all.

17 His name for ever shall indure as long as Sun continue shall:

So shall his name continued be, and men in him themselves shall blesse, and all the nations of the world shall him the blessed one professe.

- 18 O let Iehovah blessed be, the God, the God of Israell, hee worketh by himselfe alone such things whereat men may marvell.
- 19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever, let the whole earth be fill'd full with glory of the same, Amen, also Amen say wee.

This. After the common tunes.

19 And aye be blest his glorious name, also let the earth all be filled with his glorious fame, Amen, & so it shall.

20 The prayers of David, the Son of Jesse, are ended.

THE THIRD BOOKE.

Psalme 73 A psalme of Asaph.

TRuly to Israell God is good; to men of a cleane heart. 2 But my feet almost slipt, my step• aside did well nigh start.

3 For I was envious at the fooles, in peace to see the ill.

4 For in their death no bands there are, but firme their strength is still.

5 Like other meane men they are not in toylesome misery, nor are they stricken with like plagues as other mortals bee.

6 Therefore doth pride like to a chaine encompasse them about, and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughout.

7 Within the fatnes which they have extended are their eyes: greater prosperity they have then their hearts can devise.

8 Corrupt they are, & wickedly speak guile proudly they talk.

9 Against the heav'ns they set their mouth; their tongue through th'earth doth walk.

10 There-

(2)

10 Therefore his people unto them have hither turned in, and waters out of a full cup wrung out to them have been.

11 And they have sayd, how can it be that God this thing should know,

& is there in the highest one knowledge hereof also?

12 Loe, these are the ungodly ones who have tranquillity: within the world they doe increase in rich ability.

13 Surely in vaine in purity cleansed my heart have I.

14 And hands in innocence have washt, for plagu'd am I dayly:

And every morning chastened.

15 If I think thus to say, thy childrens generation loe then I should betray;

16 And when this poynt to understand casting I did devise, the matter too laborious appeared in mine eyes.

17 Vntill unto the sanctuary of God I went, & then I prudently did understand the last end of these men.

(3)

18 Surely in places slippery these

these men thou placed hast: and into desolations thou dost them downward cast.

19 As in a moment, how are they brought to destruction?
how are they utterly consum'd with sad confusion?
20 Like to a dreame when as a man awaking doth arise, so thou o God, when thou awakst their Image shalt despise.
21 My heart thus was leaven'd with grief, prickt were my reins by mee:
22 So foolish was I, & knew not, like a beast before thee.

(4) 23 Neverthelesse continually before thee I doe stand: thou hast upheld mee stedfastly also by my right hand. 24 Thou with thy prudent counsell shalt guidance unto mee give: up afterward also thou shalt to glory mee receive. 25 In heavn above but thee alone who is it that I have? and there is nothing upon earth besides thee that I crave. 26 This flesh of mine, my heart also doth faile me altogether: but God the strength is of my heart, and

and portion mine for ever.

27 For loe, they that are far from thee utterly perish shall:
those who a whoring goe from thee thou hast destroyed all.

28 But as for mee, for mee it's good neere God for to repaire:
in God the Lord I put my trust, all thy works to declare

Psalme 74

Maschil of Asaph.

- O GOD, why hast thou cast us off, why doth thy rage indure? for ever smoaking out against the sheep of thy pasture?

 2 Thy congregation call to minde of old by thee purchast: the rod of thine inheritance which thou redeemed hast,

 This mount Sion wherin thou dwelst.
- 3 Lift up thy foot on hye,unto the desolationsof perpetuity:Thy foe within the Sanctuary
 - hath done all lewd designes.
- 4 Amidst thy Church thy foes doe roare: their Banners set for signes.
- 5 The man that axes on thick trees did lift up had renowne:
- 6 But now with axe & maules at once, her carv'd works they beat downe.

7 Thy

PSALME LXXIV.

7 Thy sanctuaryes into fire they cast, the dwelling place of thy name downe unto the ground prophanely they did raze. 8 Let us together them destroy, thus in their hearts they sayd: Gods Synagogues throughout the land all in the flames they layd.

9 Our signes we see not, there's no more a Prophet us among: nor with us any to be found that understands how long. 10 How long shall the oppressing foe o mighty God, defame? thine enemy for evermore shall he blaspheme thy n•me? 11 Why dost thou thus withdraw •hine hand, the right hand of thy strength? out of thy bosom o doe thou draw it forth to the length.

12 Because the mighty God hath been from ancient time my King, in middest of the earth he is salvation working.

13 Thou diddest by thy mighty powre devide the sea asunder:

the Dragons heads in peeces thou didst break the waters under.

14 The heads of the Leviathan thou into peeces brake:

PSALME LXXIV.

to people that in desarts dwell for meat thou didst him make.

15 Thou clav'st the fountain & the floud, thou dri'dst up flouds of might.

16 Thine is the day, & night is thine:
thou Sun prepar'st, & light.

17 Thou all the borders of the earth hast constituted fast:
the summer & the winter cold

the same thou formed hast.

(3)
18 Remember this, the enemy reproachfully doth blame, o Lord, also the foolish folk blasphemed have thy name.
19 O doe not to the multitude thy turtles soule deliver: the congregation of thy poore forget not thou for ever.
20 Vnto thy cov'nant have respect: because the dark places of th'earth with habitations are full of furiousnes.

21 O let not the oppressed one returne away with shame: o let the poor & needy one give prayse unto thy name.

22 Arise o God, plead thine owne cause: have thou in memorie how day by day the foolish man with scorne reproacheth thee.

23 Thine

PSALME LXXIV, LXXV.

23 Thine enemyes voyce forget not thou: the loud tumult of those continually on high ascends that rise thee to oppose.

Psalme 75

To the chief musician Altaschith, psalme or song of Asaph.

- O GOD, to thee doe we give thanks, thanks give we unto thee:
 - & that thy name is neere at hand; thy wonders shew to bee.
- 2 When I th'assembly shall receive uprightly judge I will.
- 2 Th'earth & its dwellers all do melt: I stay its pillars still,
- 4 I did unto the foolish say, deale not so foolishly: also unto the wicked ones,
- lift not the horne on hye.
 5 Lift yee not up your horne on high:
- with stiffned neck speak not, 6 For neither from East, West, nor South,
- promotion can be got.7 But God is judge: he sets up one, another downe doth tread.
- 8 For in the Lords hand is a cup, also the wine is red:

It's full of mixture, & thereout he poures: but on earth all the wicked ones the dregs therof both strein, & drink them shall.

9 But as for me I will declare,

for PSALME LXXV, LXXVI.

for evermore I will sing prayses unto him that is the God of Jacob still.

10 Of men ungodly all the hornes also cut off will I: but the hornes of the righteous, shall be exalted high.

Psalme 76

To the chief musician, on Neginoth, a psalm or song of Asaph.

IN Iudah God is knowne: his name is great in Israell.2 In Salem also is his tent:

3 There brake he th'arrows of the bow, the shield, sword, & battell. Selah.

4 Illustrious thou art, thou dost the mounts of prey excell.

in Sion he doth dwell,

5 They that are stout of heart are spoyld, they slept their sleep profound: and of the men of might there is none that their hands have found.

6 Of Iacob o thou mighty God, as thy rebuke our past, the chariot also, & the horse in a dead sleepe are cast.

7 Thou ev'n thou art to be feared, and who is it before thy presence that can stand, when as that thou art angry sore?8 Thou diddest cause for to be heard ind judgement from heav'n above: the earth exceedingly did feare, also it did not move.

- 9 When as the mighty God arose, to th'execution
 - of judgement, to save all the meek that are the earth upon. Selah.
- 10 Assuredly unto thy prayse, shall turne the wrath of man:
 - & the remainder of the earth also thou shalt restraine.
- 11 Vow, & pay to the Lord your God; that him surround all yee, and bring ye presents unto him, that feared ought to bee.
- 12 The spirit that in Princes is, asunder cut he shall: unto the Kings on earth that be, dreadfull he is withall.

Psalme 77

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, a psalme of Asaph.

TO GOD I cryed with my voyce:
yea with my voyce I have cryed unto the mighty God;
and eare to mee he gave.
2 In my distresse I sought the Lord:

- my sore ran in the night,
 - & ceased not: also my soule refused comfort quite.
- 3 I did remember God, also disqui-

disquieted was I: I did complaine, & my spirit o'rewhelmd was heavily. Selah. 4 Awaking thou dost hold mine eyes: I cannot speak for feares. 5 I have considered dayes of old, of ancient times the yeares.

(2)

6 To my remembrance I doe call the song in night I had: I commun'd with my heart, also strict search my spirit made. 7 For ever will the Lord cast off? & pleasd will he not bee? 8 His tender mercy is it ceast to perpetuitee? His promise doth it, faile for aye? Hath God forgot likewise gracious to be? hath he shut up in wrath his deare mercyes? Selah. 10 Then did I say, within my selfe, tis mine infirmity: the yeares of the right hand I will think on of the most high.

(3)

11 I will unto remembrance call the actions of the Lord: thy wondrous works of ancient time surely I will record. 12 I'le muse also of all thy works, & of thy doings talk.

13 with-

13 Within the temple is thy way, o God, where thou dost walk.
What god so great as our God is?
14 Works wonderfull that are thou God hast done; among the folk thou dost thy strength declare.
15 Those that thy people are thou hast with thine owne arme set free, of Jacob also of Joseph the childeren that bee. Selah.

(4)

16 Thee did the waters see, o God, thee did the waters see: they were afraid, the deeps also could not but troubled bee. 17 With waters were the clouds pour'd forth, the skies a sound out sent: also thine arrows on each side abroad dispersed went. 18 Thy thunders voyce in heaven was: the world illuminate thy lightnings did, the earth also trembled & shook hereat. 19 Thy wayes ith sea, thy paths & steps unkowne, are in the deep. 20 By Moses & by Arons hand thou ledst thy folk like sheep.

Psalme 78

Maschil of Asaph.

GIve listning eare unto my law, yee people that are mine, unto unto the sayings of my mouth doe yee your eare incline.

- 2 My mouth I'le ope in parables, I'le speak hid things of old:
- 3 Which we have heard & knowne: & which our fathers have us told.
- 4 Them from their children wee'l not hide, to th'after age showing
 - the Lords prayses: his strength, & works of his wondrous doing.
- 5 In Jacob he a witnesse set, & put in Israell
 - a law, which he our fathers charg'd, they should their children tell:
- 6 That th'age to come & children which are to be borne might know; that they might rise up & the same unto their children show.
- 7 That they upon the mighty God their confidence might set: and Gods works & his commandment might keep & not forget,
- 8 And might not like their fathers be, a stiffe, stout race; a race that set not right their hearts: nor firme with God their spirit was.

9 The armed sonnes of Ephraim, that went out with their bowe, did turne their backs in the day when they did to battell goe.

10 Gods

- 10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk in his law they denyde.
- 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot, that he to them descryde.
- 12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers sight:
 - in Egipts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
- 13 He did devide the sea, also he caus'd them through to passe:
 - & he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
- 14 With cloud by day, with fire all night
- 15 he led them; Rocks he clave in wildernes, as from great deep• drink unto them he gave.
- 16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock streames he did bring also,
 - & caused water to run downe like as the rivers do.

(3)

- 17 Moreover they did adde yet more against him for to sin:
 - by their provoaking the most high the wildernes within.
- 18 And also they within their heart did tempt the God of might:
 - by asking earnestly for meat for their soules appetite:
- 19 Moreover they against God spake: they sayd can God be able within within the desart wildernes to furnish us a table.

20 Loe, he the rock smote, thence gusht out waters, & streames did flow: for his folk can he flesh provide, can he give bread also?

21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this, so kindled was a fire

'gainst Iacob: & 'gainst Israell there came up wrathfull ire.

- 22 For they in God believed not: nor in his health did hope:
- 23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds: & doores of heav'n set ope:

(4)

- 24 Manna to eate he raind on them; & gave them the heavns wheat.
- 25 Each man of them ate Angells food: to th'full he sent them meate.
- 26 Ith heav'ns he made the East-winde blow: brought South-winde by his powre.
- 27 He flesh on them like dust: wing'd foules like the seas sand did showre.
- 28 And in the middest of their camp he caused it to fall, ev'n round about on every side
- their dwelling places all.

 29 So they did eate, they filled were abundantly also:

for that which was their owne desire he did on them bestow:

30 How-

30 Howbeit they were not estrang'd from their lustfull desire: but while their meat was in their mouths, 31 Vpon them came Gods ire, And slew their fat ones: & smote downe of Israell the choise men.

32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.

(5)

- 33 Therefore he did in vanity the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearfull end.
- 34 When he them slew, then after him they sought with their desire: and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
- 35 Likewise that God was their strong rock they cal'd to memoree: and that the mighty God most high, was their Redeemer free.
- 36 Yet with their mouth they flattred him: and to him their tongues lyde.
- 37 For right their heart was not in them: nor did in's cov'nant byde.
- 38 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not; yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor rays'd all's anger hot.
- 39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh, and as it were a winde

that that passeth, & comes not againe, recalled unto minde.

- 40 How oft in desart vext they him: and made him there to moane?
- 41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint Isr'ells holy one.
- 42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance: wherein he from the enemy gave them deliverance:
- 43 And how his signes miraculous in Egipt he had showne: and his most fearfull prodigies within the field of Zoan:
- 44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
 - & (that they could not drink therof) the waters of their floud.
- 45 Amongst them, which did them devoure, he sent forth divers flies:
 - & them amongst, which them destroyd, he sent forth frogs likewise.
- 46 He gave their fruit to th'Caterpillar: their labour to th'Locust.
- 47 He did their Vines destroy with hailes: their Sycamores with frost.
- 48 Also unto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast: likewise their heards of cattell to the fiery thunder blast,

49 He

49 He cast on them fierce ire, & wrath, & indignation,& sore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.

(7)

50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave,51 He within Egipt land also all the first borne did smite: those that within the tents of Ham were chiefest of their might.

52 But he made like a flock of sheep his owne folk forth to go: like to a flock ith wildernes he guided them also.

53 And he in safety did them lead so that they did not dread: within the sea their enemies he also covered.

54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place: unto this mountaine which he did by his right hand purchase.

55 Fore them he cast the heathen out, their lot he did devide by line: & Isr'ells tribes he made in their tents to abide.

(8)

56 Yet they tempted the most high God, and & griev'd him bitterly: also his testimonyes they kept not attentively:

57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did show:

they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.

- 58 For they to anger did provoake him with their places hye:
 - & with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.
- 59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Isr'ell with hatred great:
- 60 So Shiloh s tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set,
- 61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:

also into the enemies hand his beautifull glory.

- 62 To th'sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.
- 63 Fire their young men devour'd: their maides none gave to marriage.
- 64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.
- 65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:

Like a strong man that after wine

66 doth shout. He also smote his foes behinde: & so he gave them an eternall blot.

67 Then

PSALM LXXVIII, LXXIX.

(9)

Then he did Josephs tent refuse: nor Ephr'ims tribe approv'd.

- 68 But he the tribe of Judah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
- 69 And he his Sanctuary built like unto places high: like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.
- 70 Of David also his servant election he did make, and from the place of folding up the sheep he did him take.
- 71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance; to feed Jacob his folk, also Isr'ell his heritance.
- 72 So he according to his hearts integrity them fed: and by the wise disrcetion of his hands he them led.

Psalme 79

A psalme of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen entred have thine heritance, & defylde thine holy temple: they on heaps Jerusalem have pylde.

2 The dead bodyes of thy servants they given have for meate to th' fowles of heav'n: flesh of thy Saints for beasts of earth to eat,

3 Their like unto waters: & there was none for to bury them.

4 To those that neere unto us dwell reproach become are wee:

a scoffing & a scorne to them that round about us bee.

5 How long, Jehovah, wilt thou still continue in thine ire, for ever? shall thy jealousie burne like as doth the fire?

6 Vpon the heathen poure thy wrath which never did thee know, upon the kingdomes that have not cal'd on thy name also.

7 Because they Iacob have devour'd: his habitation they also wondrously have brought to desolation.

8 Minde not against us former sins, let thy mercies make hast us to prevent: because we are neere utterly layd waste.

9 God of our safety, help thou us for thy names glory make, us free also, & purge away our sin for thy names sake.

- 11 Before thee let the prisoners sighs come up, accordingly as is thy mighty arme: save those that are design'd to dye,
- 12 And to our neighbours seven fold, into their bosome pay, that their reproach, with which o Lord, reproached thee have they.
- 13 So we thy folk & pasture sheepe, will give thee thanks always: and unto generations all. wee will shew forth thy prayse.

Psalme 80

To the chief musician upon Shoshammim Eduth, a psalme of Asaph.

- O Isr'ells shepheard, give thou eare; that Ioseph leadst about like as a flock: that dwelst betweene the Cherubims, shine out.
- 2 Before Ephraim & Benjamin, Manasseh s tribe also, doe thou stir up thy strength, & come, and to us safety show.
- 3 O God returne thou us againe, and cause thy countenance to shine forth upon us; so wee shall have deliverance.
- 4 Lord God of hoasts, how long wilt thou be wroth at thy folks prayrs?

- 6 A strife unto our neighbours us thou dost also expose: and scornefully amongst themselves laugh at us doe our foes.

- 8 Thou hast brought out of Egipt land a Vine, thou diddest cast the heathen people forth, also this vine thou planted hast.
- 9 Before it thou prepared hast a roome where it might stand: deep root thou didst cause it to take and it did fill the land.
- 10 Her shade hid hills, & her boughs did like Cedars great extend.
- 11 Her boughs to th'sea, & her branches she to the floud did send.
- 12 Why hast thou then her hedge made quite broken downe to lye, so that all those doe pluck at her that in the way passe by?

14 Wee doe beseech thee to returne o God of hoasts, incline to look from heaven. & behould. & visit thou this vine. 15 The vineyard which thou hast also with thy right hand set fast, that branch likewise which for thy selfe strongly confirm'd thou hast. 16 It is consumed with the fire and utterly cut downe, perish they doe, & that because thy countenance doth frowne. 17 Vpon the man of thy right hand let thine hand present bee: upon the son of man whom thou hast made so strong for thee 18 So then from henceforth wee will not from thee goe back at all: o doe thou quicken us, & wee upon thy name will call. 19 Lord God of hoasts, turne us againe, and cause thy countenance to shine forth upon us, so wee shall have deliverance.

2 Take up a psalme of melodie, and bring the Timbrel hither:
the Harp which soundes so pleasantly with Psaltery together.

- 3 As in the time of the new moone with Trumpet sound on high: in the appoynted time & day of our solemnity.
- 4 Because that unto Israell this thing a statute was; and by the God of Iacob this did for a judgement pass.
- 5 This witnesse he in Ioseph set when as through Egipt land he went: I there a language heard I did not understand.
- 6 I from the burden which he bare his shoulder did set free: his hands also were from the pots delivered by mee.

8 Heare o my people, & I will testifie unto thee:
o Israell, if that thou wilt attention give to mee.
9 Any strange god there shall not be in midst of thee at all: nor unto any forrein god thou bowing downe shalt fall. 10 I am the Lord thy God who thee from land of Egipt led: thy mouth ope wide, & thou by me• with plenty shalt be fed. 11 My people yet would not give eare unto the voyce I spake: and Israell would not in mee, quiet contentment take. 12 So in the hardnes of their heart, I did them send away, in their owne consultations likewise then walked they.

(3)

13 O that my people unto mee obedient had bin: and o that Israell he had walked my wayes within. 14 I should within a little time have pulled downe their foes: I should have turn'd my hand upon such as did them oppose. 15 The haters of the Lord to him obedience should have faynd: but unto perpetuity their time should have remaind. 16 And with the finest of the wheat have nourisht them should hee: with honie of the rock I should have

Psalme 82

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God doth stand within th'assemblie of the strong: and he it is that righteously doth judge the gods among.

- 2 How long a time is it that yee will judge unrighteouslie?
 - & will accept the countenance of those that wicked bee?
- 3 See that yee doe defend the poore, also the fatherlesse: unto the needy justice doe, and that are in distresse.
- 4 The wasted poore, & those that are needy deliver yee; and them redeeme out of the hand of such as wicked bee.

- 5 They know not, nor will understand, in darknes they walk on: all the foundations of the earth quite out of course are gone.
- 6 I sayd that yee are gods, & sonnes of th'highest yee are all.
- 7 But yee shall dye like men, & like one of the princes fall.
- 8 That thou mayst judge the earth o God, doe thou thy selfe advance; for thou shalt have the nations for thine inheritance.

PSALM LXXXIII

Psalme 83

A psalme or song of Asaph,

- O GOD, doe not thou silence keep: o doe not thou refraine thy selfe from speaking, & o God. doe not thou dumb remaine.
- 2 For loe, thine enemies that be doe rage tumultuously:
 - & they that haters be of thee have lift the head on hye.
- 3 Against those that thy people be they crafty counsell take; also against thy hidden ones they consultation make.
- 4 They sayd, lest they a nation be, let's cut them downe therefore, that in remembrance Isr'elss name may not be any more.
- 5 For they together taken have counsell with one consent, and in confederation against thee they are bent.
- 6 The tabernacles of Edom and of the Ishmaelites: the people of the Haggarens & of the Moabites.

Psalme 88

A song or psalme for the sons of Korah, to the chief musician upō Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

- LORD God of my salvation, before thee day & night cryde I.
- 2 Before thee o let my pray'r come: incline thine eare unto my cry.
- 3 Because my soule is troubled so: and my life draws nigh to the grave.
- 4 Counted with them to'th pit that go: I'me as a man that no strength have.
- 5 Free among those men that be dead, like slaine which in the grave are shut; by thee noe more remembered: and by thy hand off are they cut.
- 6 Thou hast mee layd i'th pit most low in dakrnesses, within deep caves.
- 7 Hard on mee lyes thy wrath, & thou dost mee afflict with all thy waves. Selah.

- 15 I'me poore afflicted, & to dye am ready, from my youthfull yeares, I am sore troubled doubtfully while I doe beare thy horrid feares.

PSALME LXXXIX.

THe mercyes of Jehovah sing for evermore will I:
I'le with my mouth thy truth make known to all posterity.

2 For I have sayd that mercy shall for ever be up built; establish in the very heav'ns thy faithfullnes thou wilt.

3 With him that is my chosen one I made a covenant:

& by an oath have sworne unto David mine owne servant.

4 To perpetuity thy seed establish-sure I will: also to generations all thy throne I'le build up still. Selah.

5 Also the heavens thy wonders Lord, they shall with prayse confess; in the assemblie of the Saints, also thy faithfullnes.

14 Justice & judgement of thy throne are the prepared place: mercy & truth preventing shall goe forth before thy face.

15 O blessed are the people that the joyfull sound doe know, Lord, in thy countenances light they up & downe shall goe:

O LORD, thou hast been unto us from generation, to generation, a place of fixed mansion.

3 Thou dost unto destruction turne miserable men: and then thou sayst yee sonnes of men doe yee returne agen.

4 For why o Lord, a thousand yeares are but within thy sight as yesterday when it is past:

- 8 Mine enemies daily mee reproach: 'gainst mee they rage, 'gainst mee they sweare:
- 9 That I doe ashes eate for bread: & mixe my drink with weeping-teare.
- 10 By reason of thy fervent wrath & of thy vehement-disdaine: for thou hast high advanced mee, & thou hast cast mee downe againe.

(2) 10 Such as in darknes' and within the shade of death abide; who are in sore affliction, also in yron tyde: 11 By reason that against the words of God they did rebell; also of him that is most high contemned the counsell. 12 Therefore with molestation hee did bring downe their heart: downe did they fall, & none their was could help to them impart. 13 Then did they to Jehovah cry when they were in distress: who did them set at liberty out of their anguishes. 14 He did them out of darknes bring, as for the bands that they were in he did them break asunder.

15 O that men would Iehovah prayse for his great goodnes then:
and for his workings wonderfull

16 For he hath all to shivers broke the gates that were of brasse:
& hee asunder cut each barre

19 Then did they to Jehovah cry when they were in distress, who did them set at liberty out of their anguishes.

20 He, sent his word, & therewithall healing to them he gave: from out of their destructions he did them also save.

 Downe goe they to the depths againe, their soule with ill doth quaile.

34 A fruitfull soyle to barrennes; for their sin there that dwell.

35 The desart to a poole he turnes; and dry ground to a spring.

36 Seates there the hungry; who prepare their towne of habiting,

37 Vineyards there also for to plant, also to sow the field; which may unto them fruitfull things, of much revenue yield.

38 Also he blesseth them, so that they greatly are increast: and for to be diminished he suffers not their beast.

39 Againe they are diminished & they are brought downe low, by reason of their pressing-streights, affliction & sorrow.

40 On Princes he contempt doth powre; and causeth them to stray i'th solitary wildernes, wherin there is no way.

Psalme 108.

A song or psalme of David.

- O GOD, my heart's fixt, I'le sing; prayse sing ev'n with my glory.
- 2 Awake thou Psaltery & Harp; I will awake early.
- 3 O thou Iehovah, thee will I the people prayse among: within the midst of nations thee will I prayse with song.
- 4 For o're the heav'ns thy mercys great; to'th skyes thy truth doth mount.
- 5 Or'e heav'ns o God, be lift, all earth let thy glory surmount:
- 6 That thy beloved people may be set at libertee: with thy right hand salvation give, & doe thou answer mee.

Psalme 109.

To the chief musician, a psalme of David.

GOD of my prayse, hold not thy peace,
For mouth of the wicked,
& mouth of the deceitfull are against mee opened:
Gainst mee they speake with lying tongue.
3 And compasse mee about with words of hate;
& mee against without a cause they fought.

4 They for my love mine enemies are:

17 As he did cursing love, so let cursing unto him come: as he did not in blessing joy, so be it far him from. 18 With cursing like a robe as hee cloath'd him: so let it go like water to his bowels, and like oyle his bones into. 19 Garment like let it to him be, himselfe for to aray: and for a girdle, wherewith hee may gird himselfe alway. 20 Thus let mine adversaryes bee rewarded from the Lord: also of them against my soule that speak an evil word.

- 26 Help mee, o Lord my God: after thy mercy save thou mee:

Psalme 141.

A psalme of David.

- O GOD, my Lord, on thee I call, doe thou make hast to mee: and harken thou unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.
- 2 And let my pray'r directed be as incense in thy sight: and the up-lifting of my hands as sacrifice at night.

For yet my prayr's ev'n in their woes.

psalm

PSALM CXLII.

VNto Iehovah with my voice, I did unto him cry: unto Iehovah with my voice my sute for grace made I. 2 I did poure out before his face my meditation: before his face I did declare the trouble mee upon. 3 O'rewhelm'd in mee when was my spirit, then thou didst know my way: I'th way I walkt, a snare for mee they privily did lay. 4 On my right hand I lookt, & saw, but no man would mee know, all refuge faild mee: for my soule none any care did show. 5 Then to thee Lord, I cryde, & sayd, my hope thou art alone: & in the land of living ones thou art my portion. 6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry: from my pursuers save thou mee, which stronger bee then I. 7 That I thy Name may praise, my soule from prison oh bring out: when thou shalt mee reward, the just shall compasse mee about.

Psalme 143.

A psalme of David.

PSALME CXLIII.

LORD, heare my prayr, give eare when I doe supplicate to thee: in thy truth, in thy righteousnes; make answer unto mee.

2 And into judgement enter not with him that serveth thee; for in thy sight no man that lives can justified bee.

3 For th'enemie hath pursude my soule, my life to'th ground hath throwne:

& made mee dwell i'th dark like them that dead are long agone.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmd perplexedly in mee: my heart also within mee is made desolate to bee.

5 I call to minde the dayes of old,

I meditation use on all thy words: upon the work of thy hands I doe muse.

6 [Moreover] I doe unto thee reach mine out-stretched hands: so after thee my soule doth thirst as doe the thristy lands. Selah.

7 Hast, Lord, heare mee, my spirit doth faile, hide not thy face mee fro: lest I become like one of them that downe to pit doe go.
8 Let mee thy mercy heare i'th morne, for I doe on thee stay, wherin

wherin that I should walk cause mee to understand the way: For unto thee I lift my soule.

9 O Lord deliver mee from all mine enemies; I doe flye to hide my selfe with thee.

10 Because thou art my God, thy will oh teach thou mee to doe, thy spirit is good: of uprightnes lead mee the land into 11 Jehovah, mee o quicken thou ev'n for thine owne Names sake; And for thy righteousnes my soule from out of trouble take.

12 Doe thou also mine enemies cut off in thy mercy, destroy them that afflict my soule: for thy servant am I.

Psalme 144.

A psalme of David.

O Let Jehovah blessed be

FINIS

An admonition to the Reader.

THe verses of these psalmes may be reduced to six kindes, the first wherof may be sung in very neere fourty common tunes; as they are collected, out of our chief musicians, by Tho. Ravens-croft.

The second kinde may be sung in three tunes as Ps,. 25, 50. & 67. in our english psalm books. The third, may be sung indifferently, as ps. the 51. 100. & ten cōmandements, in our english psalme books, which three tunes aforesaid, comprehend almost all this whole book of psalms, as being tunes most familiar to us.

The fourth. as ps. 148. of which there are but about five.

The fift. as ps. 112. or the Pater noster, of which there are but two. viz. 85. & 138.
