and pay attention to the pleadings of my lips.
7 Will you speak falsely for God, and speak deceitfully for him?
8 Will you show partiality favoring him?
Will you argue the case for God?
9 Will it turn out well when he examines you?
Can you deceive him as one would deceive a human being?
10 Surely he would rebuke you,
if you show partiality in secret.
11 Will not his majesty terrify you,
and the dread of him fall on you?
12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes, your defenses are defenses of clay.
13 Be quiet, let me speak;
then let come on me what may.
14 Why would I put my flesh in my teeth, and take my life in my own hands?
15 Even if he kills me;
yet I will hope in him.
Nevertheless I defend my ways to his face.
16 This also will be my salvation, for a godless man would not come before him.
17 Listen carefully to my speech, and let my declaration be in your ears.
18 Look now, I have prepared my case;
I know that I am right.
19 Who will contend with me?
For then I would be silent and expire.

20 Only grant me two things,
    then I will not hide myself from your face:
21 withdraw your hand far from me;
    and do not let your terror frighten me.
22 Then call and I will answer;
    let me speak, then you answer me.
23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
    Make me realize my transgression and my sin.
24 Why do you hide your face, and count me as your enemy?
25 Will you terrify a windblown leaf?
    Will you chase dry chaff?
26 For you write bitter things against me,
    and make me inherit the sins of my youth.
27 You put my feet in the stocks, and scrutinize all my paths;
        you brand the soles of my feet.

28 So I waste away like something rotten, like a moth-eaten garment.

DASV: Job 14

1 Man, born of a woman,
    lives only a few days,
        all of which are full of trouble.
2 He sprouts like a flower, then withers;
    and passes like a shadow that does not last.
3 Do you fix your eyes on such a one,
    and bring me into judgment before you?
4 Who can bring something clean out of the unclean?
    No one!
5 Since his days are determined,
    the number of his months is known to you,
        and you have prescribed his limits that he cannot pass.
6 So look away from him and leave him alone, until he finishes his day like a laborer.

7 For there is hope for a tree,
    if it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
        and that its tender shoots will not stop growing.
8 Though its root grows old in the ground, and its stump dies in the dust;
9 yet at the scent of water it will bud, and put forth branches like a new plant.
10 But man dies and is laid low.
    a human expires and where is he?
11 As water evaporates from the sea,
    and a river drains and dries up;
12 so man lies down and does not rise again.
    Until the heavens are no more,
        they will not awake,
        or be roused out of their sleep.

13 Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, that you would conceal me,
        until your wrath has passed,
    that you would appoint a set time for me,
        and then remember me!
14 If a man dies, will he live again?
    All the days of my struggle I will wait, until my renewal comes.
15 You would call, and I would answer you.

16           You would long for the work of your hands.
Surely now you number my steps,
          but then you would not watch for my sin.
17           My offenses would be sealed up in a bag, and you would cover up my sin.

18           But as the mountain falls and crumbles away, and as the rock is removed from its place;
19           as waters erode the stones, and floods wash away the soil of the earth;
          so you destroy human hope.
20           You overpower forever, and he passes away;
          you alter his face, and send him away.
21           If his sons come to honor,
          he does not know about it;
          and if they are brought low,
          he does not perceive it.
22           He feels only the pain of his own flesh, and mourns only for himself."

<sup>2</sup> "Should a wise man answer with such blustery knowledge, and bloat his belly with the east wind?
<sup>3</sup> Should he argue with unprofitable talk,
or with words that have no worth in them?
<sup>4</sup> Are you doing away with the fear of God, and hindering devotion before God.
<sup>5</sup> For your sin informs your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the cunning.
<sup>6</sup> Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup> Are you the first person ever born?
Or were you brought forth before the hills?
<sup>8</sup> Have you listened in on the secret counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
<sup>9</sup> What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand, that we do not?
<sup>10</sup> Both the gray-headed and the aged are on our side, those much older than your father.
<sup>11</sup> Are the consolations of God too small for you, even the word that is gentle toward you?
<sup>12</sup> Why does your heart carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash, <sup>13</sup> when you turn your spirit against God,
and let such words come out of your mouth?

<sup>14</sup> What is man, that he should be pure?
Or he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
<sup>15</sup> He puts no trust in his holy ones;
even the heavens are not pure in his sight, <sup>16</sup> how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, one who drinks down evil like water.

<sup>17</sup> I will show you, listen to me;
what I have seen I will declare, <sup>18</sup> what the wise have declared,
and not concealed from their forefathers, <sup>19</sup> to whom alone the land was given,
when no foreigner passed among them.
<sup>20</sup> The wicked contorts with pain all his days, through the number of years that were stored up for the ruthless.

21 A sound of terrors fill his ears;
while in prosperity, the destroyer will attack him.
22 He does not believe that he will ever return from darkness, and he is destined for the sword.
23 He wanders around for bread, begging, 'Where is it?'
He knows that the day of darkness is already at hand.
24 Distress and anguish terrify him;
they prevail against him, like a king ready to attack, 25 because he stretches out his fist against God, and acts arrogantly against the Almighty.
26 He runs at him defiantly, with a thick, strong shield;
27 because he has covered his face with fat,
and his waist bulges with fat, 28 he dwelt in desolate cities, in houses no one inhabits,
which are ready to become ruins.
29 He will not be rich, and his wealth will not last,
nor will his possessions spread over the earth.
30 He will not escape from darkness.
The flame will dry up his branches, and he will be blown away by the breath of God's mouth.
31 Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
for emptiness will be his reward.
32 It will be paid in full before his time, and his branch will not flourish.
33 He will shake off his unripe grape like the vine, and will cast off his blossom like the olive tree.
34 For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of bribery.
35 They conceive trouble,
and bring forth evil,
and their heart prepares deceit."

<sup>2</sup> "I have heard many such things,
    all of you are such miserable comforters.
<sup>3</sup> Will windy words ever end?
    Or what bothers you that you keep arguing?
<sup>4</sup> I also could speak like you do,
    if you were in my place.
I could heap up words against you,
    and shake my head at you.
<sup>5</sup> But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and comfort from my lips would ease your pain.

<sup>6</sup> Yet when I speak, my pain is not relieved, and if I quit speaking, does the anguish leave me?
<sup>7</sup> But now, O God, you have worn me down, you have devastated my whole family.
<sup>8</sup> You have shriveled me up, which itself is a witness against me,
and my emaciated flesh rises up against me,
    it testifies against my face.
<sup>9</sup> God has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me;
    he has gnashed his teeth at me;
    my enemy locks his eyes on me.
<sup>10</sup> They have ridiculed me with their mouth;
    they have slapped me on the cheek in contempt,
    they have gathered themselves together against me.
<sup>11</sup> God delivers me over to the ungodly, and throws me into the hands of the wicked.
<sup>12</sup> I was at peace, but he has shattered me;
    he has grabbed me by the neck,
    and dashed me to pieces.
He has set me up as his target.
<sup>13</sup> His archers surround me;
he slits open my kidneys, without mercy;
    he pours out my gall on the ground.
<sup>14</sup> He smashes me again and again;
    he charges at me like a warrior.
<sup>15</sup> I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and have buried my horn in the dust.
    and dark shadows are on my eyelids;

17       although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

18       O earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry find no place of rest.

19       Even now, my witness is in heaven, and my advocate is on high.

20       My friends mock me, as my eye pours out tears to God.

21       O that someone would argue the case of a man with God, as a person pleads for his friend!

22       For when just a few years have passed,
              I will go the way from which I will never return.

DASV: Job 17

1 My spirit is broken,
    my days are snuffed out,
    the grave is ready for me.
2 Surely there are mockers with me, and my eye is fixed on their hostility.

3 Give now a pledge for me with yourself.
    Who is there that will put up security for me?
4 Since you have closed their heart to understanding, therefore do not let them extol themselves.
5 Whoever turns his friends in for personal gain, the eyes of his children will fail.
6 But he has made me a byword among the people;
    they spit in my face.
7 My eye has grown dim from sorrow, and my entire shape is but a shadow.
8 The upright are appalled at this,
    the innocent will stir himself up against the godless.
9 Yet the righteous stays the course,
    he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, come back here;
    I cannot find a single wise man among you.
11 My days are past,
    my plans are ripped up,
    even the desires of my heart.
12 They allege that night is day they claim that the light is near the darkness.
13 If I look for Sheol as my house,
    if I make my bed in the darkness,
14 if I have said to the Pit, 'You are my father,'
    to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister,' 15 where then is my hope?
    As for my hope, who can see it?
16 Will it go down to the bars of Sheol?
    Will we descend together into the dust?"

<sup>2</sup> "How long until you stop the speeches?
Think clearly, after that we will talk.
<sup>3</sup> Why are we counted as cattle?
Why are we stupid in your sight?
should the earth be abandoned for your sake?
Or the rock be removed out of its place?

and the flame of his fire will not shine.
<sup>6</sup> The light in his tent will be dark,
and his lamp above him will be put out.
<sup>7</sup> Then his strong steps will be shortened, and his own advice will bring him down.
<sup>8</sup> For his feet send him into a net, and he walks on into its mesh.
<sup>9</sup> A trap grabs him by the heel,
and a snare snags him.
<sup>10</sup> A noose is hidden on the ground for him,
and a trap for him on the path.
<sup>11</sup> Terrors frighten him on every side,
and pursue his every step.
<sup>12</sup> Trouble is hungry for him,
and calamity is ready for his stumbling.
<sup>13</sup> It devours parts of his skin,
the firstborn of death devours his limbs.
<sup>14</sup> He is torn from his tent in which he trusted, he is brought to the king of terrors.
sulfur is scattered on his dwelling.
<sup>16</sup> Below, his roots will be dried up,
he will have no reputation in the land.
<sup>18</sup> He is driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.
<sup>19</sup> He will not have offspring or descendants among his people, nor any survivor where he used to live.
those from the east are seized by horror.

such is the place of him who does not know God."

<sup>1</sup> Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> "How long will you torment me,
and crush me with words?
<sup>3</sup> These ten times you have insulted me.
You are not ashamed to attack me.
<sup>4</sup> Even if I have erred, my error should remain only my concern.
<sup>5</sup> If indeed you exalt yourselves against me,
and use my humiliation as an argument against me, <sup>6</sup> know now that it is God who has wronged me,
and has closed his net around me.

I cry for help, but there is no justice.
<sup>8</sup> He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and has put darkness over my paths.
<sup>9</sup> He has stripped me of my honor, and has taken the crown from my head.
<sup>10</sup> He has torn me down on every side, and I am gone;
and he has uprooted my hope like a tree.
<sup>11</sup> He has also kindled his anger against me,
and has counted me as one of his enemies.
<sup>12</sup> His troops have advanced together,
and have built up a siege ramp against me,
and have encamped surrounding my tent.

<sup>13</sup> He has remove my brothers far from me, and my acquaintances are absolutely estranged from me.
<sup>14</sup> My relatives have failed me, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.
<sup>15</sup> The guests in my house and my maids consider me a stranger;
I have become an alien in their eyes.
<sup>16</sup> I call to my servant, but he does not respond, though I plead to him with my mouth.
<sup>17</sup> My breath is repulsive to my wife, and I am offensive to my own brothers.
<sup>18</sup> Even young children despise me, when I get up, they speak against me.
<sup>19</sup> All my closest friends abhor me,
and those whom I loved have turned against me.
<sup>20</sup> My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

21 Have mercy on me, have mercy on me, my friends;
for the hand of God has struck me.
22 Why do you persecute me like God does?
Will you never be satisfied with my flesh?

23 O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed on a scroll!
24 O that with an iron pen and lead
they would be engraved in a rock forever!

25 But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that he will stand upon the earth in the end.
26 Even after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God.
27 I myself will see him with my own eyes, and not another.
My heart is overwhelmed by the thought.

28 If you say, 'How will we persecute him!'
and 'The root of the problem is his own fault.'
29 You should fear the sword yourselves, for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may realize there is a judgment."

<sup>2</sup> "Therefore my troubled thoughts cause me to answer,
because of the agitation that is within me.
<sup>3</sup> I have heard the scolding that insults me,
but then my understanding prompts me to answer.

since people were placed on earth, <sup>5</sup> that the triumph of the wicked is short,
and the joy of the godless lasts only a moment?
<sup>6</sup> Even though his arrogance reaches up to the heavens, and his head touches the clouds;
<sup>7</sup> yet he will perish forever, like his own excrement.
Those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
<sup>8</sup> He will fly away like a dream, and not be found, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
<sup>9</sup> The eye that saw him will see him no more,
nor will his place see any more of him.
<sup>10</sup> His children will have to make reparations to the poor, and his own hands must return his wealth.
but that vigor will lie down with him in the dust.

and he hides it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup> though he hangs onto it, refusing to let it go,
and keeps it in his mouth;
<sup>14</sup> yet his food turns sour in his stomach, it becomes the venom of snakes within him.
<sup>15</sup> He has swallowed down riches, and he will vomit them up again;
God will make him throw them up out his belly.
<sup>16</sup> He will suck the poison of snakes,
the viper's fangs will slay him.
<sup>17</sup> He will no longer look on the rivers, the flowing streams of honey and butter.
<sup>18</sup> He will have to repay the results of his labor, and will not swallow it down;
the wealth he has acquired,
he will not be able to enjoy.

19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor;
he has seized a house, he did not build.

20 Because he was never satisfied, he will not let anything he delights in go.

21 There was nothing left that he has not consumed;
therefore his prosperity will not last.

22 In the fullness of his sufficiency he will be in distress.
The hand of everyone who is in suffering will come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly,
God will send his fierce wrath on him,
and will rain his blows down on him.

24 When he tries to flee from the iron weapon, a bronze arrow will pierce him through.

25 When he pulls it out and it comes out of his body, the glistening point comes out of his liver, terrors come on him.

26 Complete darkness is laid up for his treasures, an unfanned fire will devour him.
It will consume everything left in his tent.

27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.

28 A flood will carry off the possessions of his house; torrents will rip it away in the day of God's wrath.

29 This is the fate of the wicked from God, and the heritage appointed to him by God."

<sup>2</sup> "Listen carefully to my words;
and let this be your comfort to me.
<sup>3</sup> Bear with me, and I also will speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

<sup>4</sup> As for me, is my complaint with humans?
Why should I not be impatient?
<sup>5</sup> Look at me and be appalled,
put your hand over your mouth.
<sup>6</sup> When I think about it, I am troubled, and trembling takes hold of my flesh.
<sup>7</sup> Why do the wicked live, become old and grow powerful?
<sup>8</sup> Their children are established in their sight, their offspring before their eyes.
<sup>9</sup> Their houses are safe, without fear,
and the rod of God is not on them.
<sup>10</sup> Their bull breeds without fail, their cow calves, and never miscarries.
<sup>11</sup> They send out their little ones like a flock,
They rejoice to the sound of the flute.
<sup>13</sup> They spend their days in prosperity, then go down to the grave in peace.
<sup>14</sup> They say to God, 'Leave us alone.
For we do not desire to know your ways.
<sup>15</sup> Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
What benefit is there if we should pray to him?'
the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

How often does disaster come on them?
How often does God distribute pain to them in his anger?
<sup>18</sup> How often are they like straw blown by the wind, like chaff that the storm carries away?
Rather, let him recompense it to the person himself, that he may experience it himself.

20 Let his own eyes see his destruction, let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
21 For will he care about his house after his death,
when the number of his months is cut off?

22 Can anyone dare to teach God knowledge, seeing he judges those who are on high?
23 One person dies in the prime of his strength, being totally secure and at ease, 24 his body is well nourished, and the marrow of his bones is moist.
25 Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted of good.
26 They both lie down in the dust, and the worm covers both of them.

27 Look, I know what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would harm me.
28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt?'
29 Have you not questioned those who are on the road?
Do you not accept their testimony, 30 that the evil one is spared from the day of disaster, they are delivered from the day of wrath?
31 Who denounces his behavior to his face?
Who will repay him for what he has done?
32 Yet he will be carried to the grave, men will keep watch over their tomb.
33 The clods of the valley will be sweet to him,
all people will follow the procession after him,
as those before him will be innumerable.

34 How then will you comfort me with such futility?
Is there nothing left in your answers but falsehood?"

<sup>1</sup> Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>2</sup> "Can a human be of benefit to God?
Can even one who is wise be of use to him.
<sup>3</sup> Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous?
Is it gain to him, that you make your ways blameless?

<sup>4</sup> Is it because of your piety that he rebukes you,
and brings judgment against you?
<sup>5</sup> Is not your wickedness great?
Are not your iniquities endless?
<sup>6</sup> For you must have exacted pledges from your brothers for no reason, or stripped the naked of their clothing.
<sup>7</sup> You must have not given water to the weary to drink, or have withheld bread from the hungry.
<sup>8</sup> Even though you were a mighty man, possessing land, and an honorable man living on it.
<sup>9</sup> You must have sent widows away empty, or crushed the arms of the fatherless.
<sup>10</sup> Therefore snares surround you,
and sudden fear terrifies you.
<sup>11</sup> That is why you cannot see in the darkness, and why flood waters cover you.

See how high the lofty stars are!
<sup>13</sup> Yet you claim, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?
<sup>14</sup> Thick clouds are his veil, so that he does not see;
while he walks on the vault of heaven.'
<sup>15</sup> Will you keep the old path that wicked men have trod?
<sup>16</sup> Who were snatched away before their time, whose foundation was swept away by a flood, <sup>17</sup> Who said to God, 'Leave us alone.'
And, 'What can the Almighty really do to us?'
<sup>18</sup> Yet he has filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
the innocent laugh at them saying,
and what was left of them was consumed by fire.'

21 Yield to God, and be at peace, this is how good will come to you.
22 Accept instruction from his mouth, and store up his words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you remove injustice far from your tents.
24 If you throw your gold to the dust,
    and gold of Ophir to the stones of the streams, 25 then the Almighty will be your gold,
    and be your precious silver.
26 Surely then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and lift up your face to God.
27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you,
    and you will fulfill your vows.
28 You will decide on something, and it will happen for you;
    and light will shine on your ways.
29 When they are cast down, you will say, 'Lift up;'
    then he will rescue the downcast.
30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, he will be delivered because of the cleanness of your hands."

<sup>2</sup> "Even today my complaint is bitter,
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
<sup>3</sup> If I only knew where I might find him!
Then I might come to his place of dwelling!
<sup>4</sup> I would present my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.
<sup>5</sup> I would anticipate the words he would use to answer me, and understand what he would say to me.
No, he himself would pay attention to me.
<sup>7</sup> There the upright would reason with him, and I would be delivered forever from my judge.

<sup>8</sup> I go east, but he is not there,
and west, but I cannot discover him;
<sup>9</sup> on the north, when he works, I cannot gaze on him, when he turns to the south, I cannot see him.
<sup>10</sup> But he knows the way that I take,
when he has tested me,
I will come forth like gold.
<sup>11</sup> My foot has stayed close to his steps, his way I have kept, and not turned aside.
<sup>12</sup> I have not departed from the command of his lips,
I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily food.

<sup>13</sup> But once he makes his mind up,
who can get him to change?
and whatever he desires,
that's exactly what he does.
<sup>14</sup> For he performs whatever he has prescribed against me, and many such things are with him.
<sup>15</sup> That is why I am terrified at his presence, when I think about it, I am afraid of him.
<sup>16</sup> For God has made my heart faint, the Almighty has terrified me.
<sup>17</sup> Yet I have not been silenced by the darkness, nor by the thick darkness that covers my face.

DASV: Job 24

1 Why are judgment times not set up by the Almighty?
Why do they who know him never see these days?
2 Some remove the boundary markers.
They steal and pasture flocks.
3 They drive away the orphan's donkey.
They take the widow's ox as security on a loan.
4 They push the needy off the path.
The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
5 Like wild donkeys in the desert they go out to their toil, scavenging for food for their young in the wilderness.
6 They reap in a field not their own,
and they glean the vineyard of the wicked.
7 All night they lie naked without clothing, and have no covering from the cold.
8 They are soaked with the mountain showers, and huddle by a rock because of the lack of shelter.
9 There are those who pluck the orphan baby from the breast, and take the infant of the poor for security on a loan.
10 So they go about naked, without clothing, though they carry sheaves,
they themselves go hungry.
11 They make oil between the terrace walls.
They tread the winepresses,
while they suffer thirst.
12 From the city the dying groan, and the wounded cry out,
yet God charges no one with wrong.
13 These are those who rebel against the light;
they do not know its ways,
nor stay on its paths.
14 The murderer rises before daybreak;
he kills the poor and needy;
and in the night he is like a thief.
15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for twilight, Saying, 'No eye will see me.'
and he disguises his face.
16 In the dark they break into houses.
They shut themselves up in the day.
They do not know the light.
17 For the deep darkness is like the morning to all of them;

for they are friends with the terrors of the deep darkness.

- 18 They are like foam swiftly disappearing from the surface of the water.
Their portion is cursed in the earth.
so that no one enters the vineyards.
- 19 Just as the drought and heat consumes the snow waters, so the grave consumes those who have sinned.
- 20 The womb will forget him.
The worm will feed sweetly on him.
He will not be remembered anymore;
and unrighteousness will be broken like a tree.
- 21 He devours the childless woman, and does no good to the widow.
- 22 But God drags off the mighty by his power,
He arises high but has no assurance of life.
- 23 God allows them security, and they rest in it;
but his eyes are on their ways.
- 24 They are exalted only for a little while, and are gone;
they are brought low and gathered up like everyone else,
and are cut off like the heads of grain.
- 25 If this is not so, who could prove I am lying, and make my speech worthless?"

<sup>2</sup> "Dominion and awesomeness belong to God;
he makes peace on his high places.
<sup>3</sup> Can anyone number his armies?
Or on whom does his light not rise?
<sup>4</sup> How then can a human be righteous before God?
Or how can one born of a woman be clean?
<sup>5</sup> Even the moon is not bright,
and the stars are not pure in his sight, <sup>6</sup> how much less man, who is a maggot,
and the son of man, who is a worm!"

<sup>2</sup> "How you have helped one who is powerless!
How you have saved the arm that has no strength!
<sup>3</sup> How you have counseled one who has no wisdom!
What brilliant insight you have offered!
<sup>4</sup> With whose help have you declared these sayings?
Whose inspiration breathed out from you?

<sup>5</sup> They who are deceased tremble,
those beneath the waters and its inhabitants.
and the place of destruction has no covering.
<sup>7</sup> He stretches out the northern skies over empty space, and hangs the earth on nothing.
<sup>8</sup> He binds up the waters in his thick cloud, and the clouds do not burst open under them.
<sup>9</sup> He conceals the face of the full moon, and spreads his clouds over it.
<sup>10</sup> He has drawn the horizon on the face of the waters, at the boundary between light and darkness.
<sup>11</sup> The pillars of the heavens tremble
and by his understanding he strikes down Rahab.
<sup>13</sup> By his breath the heavens are cleared, his hand has pierced the fleeing serpent.
How faint a whisper do we hear of him!
But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

<sup>1</sup> Job continued his wisdom saying,
<sup>2</sup> "As God lives, who has taken away my rights,
and the Almighty, who has soured my soul, <sup>3</sup> for while my breath is still in me,
and the spirit of God is in my nostrils, <sup>4</sup> my lips will not speak evil, nor will my tongue utter deceit.
<sup>5</sup> I will never admit that all of you are right, until I die I will never abandon my integrity.
<sup>6</sup> I hold fast to my righteousness, and will never let it go, my heart will not condemn me for as long as I live.
<sup>7</sup> Let my enemy be like the wicked, and let my adversary be like the unrighteous.

when God takes away his life?
<sup>9</sup> Will God hear his cry,
when trouble comes on him?
<sup>10</sup> Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he call on God at all times?
<sup>11</sup> I will teach you concerning the hand of God, what is happening with the Almighty,
I will not conceal.
<sup>12</sup> But you yourselves have seen it,
why then do you continue all this meaningless blather?

<sup>13</sup> This is the portion of the wicked man with God, and the inheritance the oppressors will receive from the Almighty:
<sup>14</sup> If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
and his offspring will not have enough food to eat.
<sup>15</sup> Those who survive it, the plague will bury,
and his widows will not grieve.
<sup>16</sup> Though he heap up silver like the dust, and pile up clothes like mounds of clay;
<sup>17</sup> He may pile it up, but the righteous will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.
<sup>18</sup> He builds his house fragile like the moth's, and like a booth made by the watchman.
<sup>19</sup> He lies down rich, but he will do so no more;
he opens his eyes, and it is gone.
<sup>20</sup> Terrors overwhelm him like waters;

a whirlwind carries him away in the night.
21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs;
it hurls him out of his place.
22 For it will sweep down on him, with no mercy,
he attempts to flee out of its power.
23 It will clap its hands at him in mockery, and will hiss at him from its place.

DASV: Job 28

1 Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where they refine gold.
2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from stone.
3 Man puts an end to darkness, and searches out, to the farthest regions for ore in deep darkness.
4 He sinks a shaft far from where men inhabit;
they are forgotten by travelers;
far from others they dangle back and forth.
5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread;
but underneath, it is turned up as by fire.
6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, and its dust contains gold.
7 No bird of prey knows that path, nor has the falcon's eye ever seen it.
8 The proud beasts have not walked there,
nor has the fierce lion passed by there.
9 He puts forth his hand to work on the flinty rock;
he overturns the mountains by their base.
10 He cuts out tunnels through the rocks;
and his eye sees every precious thing.
11 He has searched the sources of streams;
and the hidden things he brings out to the light.

12 But where can wisdom be found?
Where is the place of understanding?
13 Humans do not know its value;
nor is it found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says, 'It is not in me';
and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
15 It cannot be gotten for gold, nor can its price be weighed out in silver.
16 It cannot be valued by the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.
17 Gold and glass cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention can be made of coral or crystal, for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia cannot not equal it, nor can it be valued with pure gold.

20 Where then does wisdom come from?
Where is the place of understanding?
21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the birds of the air.
22 Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard a rumor about it with our ears.'
23 God understands the way to it, and he knows its place.
24 For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens.
25 He gave wind its pressure, and measured out how much rain should fall.
26 He made the law for the rain, and made a path for the thunderbolt.
27 Then he saw wisdom, and assessed it;
he established it, and carefully scrutinized it.
28 Then he said to humans,
'The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to turn away from evil is understanding.'"

<sup>1</sup> Job continued his wisdom saying,
<sup>2</sup> "O how I wish it were as in the months now passed,
<sup>3</sup> in the days when God watched over me,
<sup>4</sup> when his lamp shined upon my head,
<sup>6</sup> in the days when I was in my prime,
<sup>7</sup> when the friendship of God was upon my tent;
<sup>8</sup> when the Almighty was still with me,
<sup>9</sup> and my children were gathered around me;
<sup>10</sup> when my steps were bathed with butter,
<sup>13</sup> when I took my seat in the town square,
<sup>14</sup> the young would see me and step aside,
<sup>15</sup> and the aged would respectfully rise and stand;
<sup>18</sup> the voices of the nobles were hushed,
<sup>20</sup> For when an ear heard me, it blessed me;
and when the eye saw me, it approved of me,
because I delivered the poor that cried out,
the orphan too, who had no one to help.
The one ready to perish, blessed me;
and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
I put on righteousness, and it clothed me, my justice was like a robe and a turban.
I was eyes for the blind,
and feet for the lame.
I was a father to the needy,
and I searched out the cause of the stranger.
I broke the fangs of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of his teeth.

<sup>18</sup> Then I said, 'I will die in my nest, <sup>19</sup> and I will multiply my days as the sand, <sup>20</sup> my root will reach to the waters, and the dew will lie on my branches all night long;
my glory will be fresh in me,
and my bow ever new in my hand'.

21 People listened to me, and silently waited for my advice.
22 After my words, they did not talk back;
and my speech refreshingly dropped on them like dew.
23 They waited for me as for the rain;
they opened their mouth as for the spring rain.
24 I smiled on them, and they could hardly believe it;
and the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
25 I chose their way for them, and sat as their chief,
I lived like a king surround by his army,
like one who comforts mourners.

DASV: Job 30

1 But now those who are younger than I am mock me, whose fathers I would have hated to put with my sheep dogs.
2 What use is the strength of their hands to me?
    Men whose strength is gone.
3 They are gaunt from want and hunger;
    they gnaw the dry ground,
    waste and desolate in the night.
4 They pluck herbs by the bushes in the salt marshes;
    and the roots of the broom tree are their food.
5 They are driven out of the community;
    people shout at them as they would a thief;
6 so that they have to live in dreadful valleys, in holes in the ground and in the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they bray;
    under the nettles they huddle together.
8 Sons of fools, children of base men;
    they are driven out of the land by whips.

9 Now I am become their song of jest,
    I am a byword to them.
10 They abhor me and keep their distance from me,
    they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
11 For God has loosed my bowstring and afflicted me;
    they have cast off all restraint in my presence.
12 At my right hand the rabble rises;
    they knock my feet out from under me,
    and build siege ramps against me.
13 They break up my path,
    they promote my calamity,
    without anyone's assistance.
14 As through a wide breach they come, amid the crash they roll on in.
15 Terrors are turned upon me;
    my honor is blown away as by the wind,
    and my welfare has passed away like a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out within me;
    days of affliction have grabbed a hold of me.
17 At night my bones are racked with pain, and the pains that gnaw at me never rest.
18 Forcefully God grabs my garment;

he binds me like the collar of my coat.
19 He has thrown me into the mud, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry out to you, but you do not answer me,
                  I stand up, and you simply gaze at me.
21 You cruelly turn on me;
                  with the might of your hand you persecute me.
22 You pick me up on the wind,
                  you cause me to ride on it;
                  and you toss me around in the storm.
23 For I know that you will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Surely even one who stretches out his hand against the needy, in his calamity he cries for help.
25 Did not I weep for those who were in trouble?
                  Was I not grieved by the needy?
26 But when I expected good, then evil came;
                  and when I waited for light, darkness came.
27 My heart is troubled and in endless turmoil;
                  days of affliction torment me.
28 I go about darkened but not by the sun,
                  I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
29 I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to owls.
30 My skin turns black, and falls off me, and my bones burn with fever.
31 Therefore my harp has turned to a lament, and my pipe to the sound of weeping.

DASV: Job 31

1 I made a covenant with my eyes.
How then could I lustfully look at a virgin?
2 For what is one's portion from God above, and one's inheritance from the Almighty on high?
3 Is it not calamity for the unrighteous, and disaster for the workers of iniquity?
4 Does he not see my ways,
and count all my steps?
5 If I have walked in falsehood, and my foot has hastened to deceit, 6 let him weigh me on a just scale, that God may know that I am blameless.
7 If my step has strayed from the way, and my heart walked after my eyes,
and if any spot has clung to my hands, 8 then let me sow, and another eat my crops;
let the produce of my field be uprooted.
9 If my heart has been seduced by a woman, and I have stalked my neighbor's door;
10 then let my wife grind another man's grain, and let others have sex with her.
11 That would be a heinous crime,
it would be a sin punishable by the judges.
12 For it is a fire that consumes down to Destruction, and would uproot everything that is mine.
13 If I have refused justice for my male or female servants, when they brought a complaint against me;
14 then what will I do when God rises to judge me?
When he intervenes, how will I answer him?
15 Did not he who made me in the womb also make him?
Did not this one fashion both of us in the womb?
16 If I have withheld anything the poor desired, or have caused the hopeful eyes of the widow to fail, 17 or have stingily eaten my morsel alone, or did not share it with orphans-- 18 from my youth I raised the orphan like I was his father, and from my mother's womb I have guided the widow.
19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,

20 or the needy having no coat;
if his loins have not blessed me, 21 and if he has not warmed himself with a fleece from my sheep;
if I have lifted up my hand against the orphan, 22 because I saw I had support in court at the gate, then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder,
and my arm be broken from its socket.
23 For calamity from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his majesty I could never do that.

24 If I have put my confidence in gold, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my security,' 25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
or because my hand had acquired much;
26 if I have looked at the sun when it shone, or the moon moving in its splendor, 27 and my heart had been secretly enticed, and my hand threw them a kiss from my mouth, 28 then this also would be iniquity to be punished by the judges;
for I would have been false to God above.

29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of one who hated me, or celebrated when calamity overtook him,-- 30 I have never allowed by mouth to sin, by asking for his life with a curse-- 31 if those of my tent have not said,
'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?'-- 32 But a sojourner has never lodged in the street;
I have opened my doors to the traveler-- 33 if, like others, I have covered my transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, 34 because I feared the crowd, and the contempt of families terrified me,
so that I kept silent,
and would not outdoors --

35 O that I had one to listen to my case!
Look, here is my signature,
let the Almighty answer me.
O that I had the indictment of my adversary written down!
36 Surely I would display it proudly on my shoulder;
I would wear it like a crown.
37 I would declare to him every one of my steps;

like a prince I would come before him.

38 If my land cried out against me,
and its furrows wept together, 39 if I have eaten its fruits without paying,
or caused its owners to lose their lives, 40 then let thistles grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

DASV: Job 32

<sup>1</sup> So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

<sup>2</sup> Then Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram became furious with Job. He was angry because Job justified himself rather than God.

<sup>3</sup> He was also upset with his three friends, because they were unable to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.

"I am young in years, and you are aged;
that is why I was timid and afraid to tell you my opinion.

<sup>7</sup> I said, 'Days should speak,
and many years ought to teach wisdom.'

<sup>8</sup> But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

<sup>9</sup> It is not those with great age who alone are wise, nor only the aged who understand justice.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I say, 'Listen to me,
I also will tell you what I know.'

<sup>11</sup> Look, I waited for your words,
I listened for your rationale,
while you groped for what to say.

<sup>12</sup> I paid attention to you,
not one of you refuted Job,
or answered his words.

<sup>13</sup> Do not tell me, 'We have found wisdom;
God will blow him away, not man.'

<sup>14</sup> For he has not directed his words against me, nor will I answer him with your speeches.

they don't have a word to say.

<sup>16</sup> Must I continue to wait, since they are done speaking, since they stand there with no answer?

<sup>17</sup> I also will answer with a piece of my mind,
I also will declare my opinion.

<sup>18</sup> For I am full of words;
the spirit within me compels me.

<sup>19</sup> Look, my insides are like wine that has no vent;

like new wine-skins ready to burst.
20 I will speak, so that I may find relief;
I will open my lips and answer.
21 I will not show partiality to anyone,
nor will I flatter anybody.
22 For I do not know how to give flattering titles;
else my Maker would soon take me away.

DASV: Job 33

1 But now, Job, listen to my speech;
pay attention to all my words.
2 Look, I have opened my mouth;
the tongue of my mouth has spoken.
3 My words come from the uprightness of my heart;
and that which my lips know they speak sincerely.
4 The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 Answer me, if you can;
arrange your arguments before me and take your stand.
6 Look, I am the same as you are before God,
I too am formed out of the clay.
7 So no fear of me should terrify you, nor should pressure from me be heavy on you.

8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the sound of your word, saying 9 'I am clean, without transgression;
I am innocent, there is no iniquity in me.
10 God finds occasions to go against me,
He counts me as his enemy.
11 He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.'

12 But I will answer you: in this you are not right, for God is greater than man.
13 Why do you contend against him, that he will not answer any of a man's words?
14 For God speaks once,
then twice, though no one realizes it.
15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on people,
while slumbering on their beds, 16 then he opens the ears of men, and terrifies them with warnings, 17 that he may turn a person from his deeds, and keep him from pride.
18 He keeps back his soul from the pit,
and his life from crossing over Death's River.
19 He is chastened with pain on his bed,
and with continual strife in his bones,

20 so that his life detests bread, and his appetite choice food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight;
and his bones that were unseen, now stick out.
22 His soul draws near to the pit, and his life to those who bring death.

23 If there is an angel by his side, one mediator among a thousand,
to declare to a person that he is right;
24 then God will be gracious to him, and say,
'Rescue him from going down to the pit,
I have found a ransom.'
25 Then his flesh will be fresher than a child's;
he will return to the days of his youth.
26 He will pray to God, and he will be favorable to him, he will see God's face with joy,
and God will repay him for his righteousness.
27 He will sing before men, and say,
'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
and it was not repaid to me.
28 He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit, and my life will see the light.'

29 Indeed God does all these things, twice, three times, with a person, 30 to bring back his soul from the pit,
that he may see the light of the living.

31 Pay attention, Job, listen to me,
be silent, and I will speak.
32 If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I want to justify you.
33 If not, listen to me;
be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

<sup>2</sup> "Hear my words, you wise men,
and give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> For the ear tests words,
as the palate tastes food.
<sup>4</sup> Let us choose what is right,
let us figure out together what is good.

<sup>5</sup> For Job has said, 'I am innocent, and God has taken away my right.
<sup>6</sup> In spite of my being right, I am considered a liar;
my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
<sup>7</sup> What man is like Job, who drinks up scoffing like water?
<sup>8</sup> Who travels in the company of evildoers, and walks with wicked men.
<sup>9</sup> For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself in God.'

<sup>10</sup> Therefore listen to me, you who have understanding, far be it from God, that he should do wickedness,
and the Almighty, that he should do wrong.
<sup>11</sup> For he will repay a person for their deeds, and each one will find consequences resulting from their way.
<sup>12</sup> Surely, God will not act wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice.
<sup>13</sup> Who entrusted him with governance over the earth?
Who put him over whole world?
<sup>14</sup> If he would set his heart on it,
if he would ever gather to himself his spirit and his breath;
<sup>15</sup> all flesh would perish together, and humans would turn back to dust.

<sup>16</sup> If you have understanding, listen to this,
hear what I say.
<sup>17</sup> Could one who hates justice really govern?
Will you condemn the One who is righteous and mighty?
<sup>18</sup> Who says even to a king, 'You are worthless,' and to nobles, 'You are wicked.'
nor does he respect the rich more than the poor;

for they all are the work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die, even at midnight;
the people are shaken and pass away,
and the mighty are taken away without a human hand.

21 For his eyes are on the ways of a man, and he sees a person's each and every step.
22 There is no darkness or deep darkness,
where the evildoers can hide themselves.
23 For he has no need to further consider anyone, that one need come before God in judgment.
24 He shatters the mighty without making an investigation, and sets up others in their place.
25 So he knows their works;
and he overturns them in the night and they are crushed.
26 He strikes them for their wickedness in full view of others, 27 because they turned away from following him,
and had no respect for any of his ways.
28 So they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he hears the cry of the needy.
29 But if he stays silent, who then can condemn him?
When he hides his face, who then can see him,
whether it is by a nation or an individual?
30 He stops the godless man from reigning,
those who ensnare the people.

31 For has anyone said to God,
'I have endured punishment, but I will offend no more;
32 teach me what I cannot see;
if I have done evil, I will do it no more'?
33 Will he repay you on your terms, even when you have rejected this?
For you must choose, and not I,
therefore tell me what you know.
34 Men of understanding say to me,
every wise man that hears me says, 35 'Job speaks without knowledge, and his words are without wisdom.
36 Job should be tested to the limit, because of his answering like wicked men.
37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands dismissing us, and multiplies his words against God."

<sup>2</sup> "Do you think it is right when you say,
    'I am right before God'?
<sup>3</sup> That you should say, 'How does it benefit me, what profit do I get from not sinning?' <sup>4</sup> I will answer you, and your friends with you.
<sup>5</sup> Look up to the heavens and see;
    and look at the skies, which are higher than you.
<sup>6</sup> If you have sinned, how does that impact God?
    If your transgressions are multiplied, what does that do to him?
<sup>7</sup> If you are righteous, what do you give him?
    What does he receive from your hand?
<sup>8</sup> Your wickedness affects only someone like yourself;
    and your righteousness, only other human beings.
<sup>9</sup> Because of the multitude of oppressions people cry out;
    they cry for help because of the oppressing arm of the mighty.
    'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, <sup>11</sup>        who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'
<sup>12</sup> Then they cry out, but no one answers, because of the pride of evil people.
<sup>13</sup> Surely it is an empty accusation, 'God will not hear, neither does the Almighty really care.'
<sup>14</sup> How much less when you claim that you do not see him, your case is before him, and you are waiting for him!
<sup>15</sup> And you continue, 'he does not punish in his anger, and does not deal with great transgression.'
<sup>16</sup> This is how Job opens his mouth in absurdity, he multiplies words without knowledge."

DASV: Job 36

<sup>2</sup> "Be a little more patient with me, and I will show you, for I have something further to say on God's behalf.
<sup>3</sup> I will bring my knowledge from far away,
and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
<sup>4</sup> For truly my words are not false,
one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

<sup>5</sup> God is mighty, and does not despise anyone,
he is mighty with resoluteness of heart.
<sup>6</sup> He does not preserve the life of the wicked, but gives justice to the afflicted.
<sup>7</sup> He does not take his eyes off the righteous, but he seats them on the throne with kings and exalts them forever.
<sup>8</sup> If they are bound in chains, and caught in the cords of affliction;
<sup>9</sup> then he exposes to them what they have done, and their transgressions that they arrogantly committed.
<sup>10</sup> He opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they must turn from evil.
<sup>11</sup> If they listen and serve him,
they will spend their days in prosperity,
and their years in pleasantness.
<sup>12</sup> But if they refuse to listen, they will perish by the sword,
and die without knowledge.

<sup>13</sup> The godless in heart maintain anger, they do not cry for help when he chains them.
<sup>14</sup> They die in their youth,
and their life ends among the male shrine prostitutes.
<sup>15</sup> He delivers the afflicted by means of their affliction, and opens their ear by their suffering.
<sup>16</sup> He has allured you away from distress into a wide open place, where there are no restrictions;
and that which is set on your table is delicious food.
<sup>17</sup> But you are obsessed about the judgment of the wicked, while judgment and justice have taken hold of you.
<sup>18</sup> Be careful you are not seduced by wealth, or let the size of the bribe turn you aside.

19 Did your wealth keep you from distress, even with all your mighty effort?
20 Do not long for the night, when people are cut off from their place.
21 Be careful, do not turn to evil, for because of this you have been tested by affliction.

22 Look, God is exalted in his power, who is a teacher like him?
23 Who has prescribed his way for him?
Who can say to him, 'You have done wrong'?
24 Remember to admire his work, that which people sing praise about.
25 Everyone has seen it;
humanity watches from far off.
26 Certainly, God is great, and we do not know him,
the number of his years is unsearchable.

27 For he draws up the drops of water, which then distills into rain from its mist, 28 which the skies pour down and drop abundantly on humanity.
29 Yes, can anyone understand the spreadings of the clouds, the thunderings of his pavilion?
30 Look at how he scatters his lightning around him, and he covers the depths of the sea.
31 For by these he judges the peoples;
he gives food in abundance.
32 He covers his hands with the lightning, and orders it to strike its target.
33 His thunder proclaims the approaching storm, even the cattle concerning its coming.

DASV: Job 37

1 At this my heart also trembles, and leaps out of its place.
2 Listen, listen to the thunder of his voice, and the rumbling that goes out of his mouth.
3 He lets it loose under the entire heaven, and his lightning flashes to the ends of the earth.
4 After it his voice roars;
he thunders with the voice of his majesty;
and does not restrain the lightning when his voice is heard.
5 God thunders marvelously with his voice;
he does great things that we cannot fathom.
6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
likewise to the rain shower,
the showers of his mighty rain.
7 He forces everyone's hand to stop working,
that all people whom he has made may know it.
8 Then the animals hide in their lairs, and remain in their dens.
9 The storm blasts out of its chamber, and cold from the penetrating winds.
10 By the breath of God ice is given;
and the expanse of waters frozen.
11 He loads the thick cloud with moisture;
he scatters his lightning from clouds.
12 The clouds swirl round and round at his direction, to do whatever he commands them to
on the face of the entire inhabitable world.
13 He brings it on to punish people, or to the benefit of his land,
or to display his steadfast love.
14 Listen to this, Job.
Stand still and consider the wonderful works of God.
15 Do you know how God directs them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
16 Do you know how he balances the clouds,
the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
17 You whose garments are warm, when there is a lull in the earth because of the south wind, 18 can you stretch out the sky with him, which is as hard as a molten metal mirror?

19 Teach us what we should say to him;
for we cannot arrange our case because of darkness.
20 Should he be told that I want to speak?
Or did anyone ever wish to be swallowed up?
21 Now nobody can look at the sun, which is bright in the skies;
but the wind passes and clears the clouds away.
22 Out of the north comes golden splendor, around God is brilliant majesty.
23 We cannot discover the Almighty, he is great in power, in justice and great righteousness, he does not oppress.
24 That is why people fear him, he is not impressed with any who are wise of heart."

DASV: Job 38

<sup>2</sup> "Who is this that darkens counsel, with words without knowledge?
for I will question you, and you answer me.

<sup>4</sup> Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.
<sup>5</sup> Who determined its measurements? Surely you know!
Who stretched the measuring line across it?
<sup>6</sup> Onto what were its foundations sunk, or who laid its cornerstone, <sup>7</sup> when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup> Who shut up the sea with doors,
when it burst forth from the womb;
<sup>9</sup> when I made clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, <sup>10</sup> and prescribed its bounds,
and set its locks and doors, <sup>11</sup> when I said, 'You may come this far, but no further;
and here shall your proud waves be stayed'?

<sup>12</sup> Have you commanded the morning since your days began,
and caused the dawn to know its place, <sup>13</sup> that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it?
<sup>14</sup> It is molded like clay under a seal;
and its brilliant colors like a dyed garment.
<sup>15</sup> Light is withheld from the wicked,
and their arm lifted for violence is broken.

<sup>16</sup> Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
Have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
<sup>17</sup> Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
<sup>18</sup> Have you comprehended the vastness of the earth?
Tell me, if you have any clue.

20 and where is the abode of darkness, that you may take each to its boundaries,
21 and that you may discern the paths to its home?
Certainly you know, for you were born before them,
and the number of your days is so great!

22 Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the storehouses of the hail, 23 that I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?
24 What is the way to the place light is dispersed, or the east wind scattered upon the earth?
25 Who has dug out a channel for the flooding rains, or the way for the thunderbolt; 26 to cause it to rain on a land where no one is,
on the wilderness where there is no human being, 27 to satisfy the waste and desolate ground,
and to cause the tender grass to spring up?
28 Does the rain have a father?
Who has fathered the drops of dew?
29 Out of whose womb did the ice come?
Who gives birth to the frost of heaven?
30 The waters become as hard as rock, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades, or loose the cords of Orion?
32 Can you lead forth the constellations in their season, or guide the Bear with her cubs?
33 Do you know the laws of the heavens?
Can you establish their dominion over the earth?

34 Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that flood waters cover you?
35 Can you send out lightning bolts, so that they come and say to you, 'Here we are'?
36 Who has put wisdom into the heart,
or given understanding to the mind?
37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom, or tilt over the waterskins of heaven, 38 when the dust solidifies into a mass, and the clumps of dirt stick together?

39 Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in the thicket?
41 Who provides for the raven its prey,
when its young ones cry out to God,
and wander around for lack of food?

DASV: Job 39

1 Do you know when the mountain goats give birth?
Have you seen when the wild deer births her fawns?
2 Can you number the months they carry their young to term?
Do you know the time when they give birth?
3 They crouch, they bring forth their young,
they deliver their offspring.
4 Their young ones grow strong,
they grow up in the open field;
they go out,
and do not return.

5 Who has freed the wild donkey?
Who unleashed the ropes of the wild donkey?
6 I have appointed the wilderness for its home,
and the salt land for his dwelling place?
7 It scorns the tumult of the town,
it does not hear the shouts of the driver.
8 It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and searches for anything that is green.

9 Will the wild ox be willing to serve you?
Will it spend the night in your stall?
10 Can you bind the wild ox to the furrow with a rope?
Will it plow the valleys after you?
11 Can you trust him because his strength is great?
Will you leave it to do your labor?
12 Can you rely on it to bring home your grain, and gather the grain to your threshing floor?

13 The wings of the ostrich flap with joy;
but its pinions and plumage is no comparison to the stork's.
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground, and warms them in the dust, 15 then forgets that a foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may trample them.
16 She treats her young abusively, as if they were not hers, though her labor is in vain, she does not care.
17 For God has deprived her of wisdom, and did not grant her understanding.
18 But whenever she springs up to run,
she laughs at the horse and its rider.

19 Have you given the horse its might?
Have you clothed his neck with a flowing mane?
20 Have you made it leap like a locust?
His majestic snorting is terrifying.
21 It paws in the valley, and rejoices in its strength.
It charges out to meet the weapons.
22 It laughs at fear, and is not dismayed;
nor does it turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against it,
the flashing spear and javelin.
24 It swallows the ground with fierceness and rage;
it cannot stand still when the trumpet blows.
25 At the sound of the trumpet it snorts, 'Aha!'
It smells the battle in the distance, the thunder of the captains and the battle cries.

26 Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and spreads its wings toward the south?
27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up,
and makes its nest on high?
28 It lives on the cliff and lodges there,
and on the rocky crag is its stronghold.
29 From there it spies out its prey, its eyes see it from a distance.
30 Its young ones consume blood, and where the slain are, there it is."

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD answered Job,
Let the one who accuses God give him an answer."

How can I answer you?
I lay my hand over my mouth.
<sup>5</sup> Once have I spoken, and I will not answer; twice, but I will proceed no further."

for I will question you, and you answer me.

<sup>8</sup> Will you even discredit my justice?
Will you condemn me so that you may be justified?
<sup>9</sup> Do you have an arm as strong as God?
Can you thunder with a voice like his?
<sup>10</sup> Dress yourself with majesty and dignity;
and clothe yourself with glory and splendor.
<sup>11</sup> Pour out your overflowing anger;
and look on every one who is proud, and bring him down.
<sup>12</sup> Look on every one who is proud, and humble him, trample down the wicked where they stand.
<sup>13</sup> Hide them in the dust together,
imprison them in the hidden world.
<sup>14</sup> Then I also will acknowledge you, that your own right hand can save you.

<sup>15</sup> Look at Behemoth, which I made just as I made you.
It eats grass as an ox.
<sup>16</sup> Look at how its strength is in its loins, and its force is in the muscles of its belly.
<sup>17</sup> It moves its tail like a cedar,
the sinews of its thighs are knit together.
<sup>18</sup> Its bones are tubes of bronze;
its limbs are like bars of iron.
<sup>19</sup> It is a prime example of the works of God, only its Maker can approach it with his sword.
<sup>20</sup> For the mountains offer it food,

where all the wild animals of the field play.
21 It lies under the lotus trees, hidden in the reeds and the swamp.
22 The lotus trees cover it with their shade;
the willows by the brook surround it.
23 If a river turns turbulent, it is not alarmed;
it is confident, though the Jordan River surges against its mouth.
24 Can any capture it when it is watching, or pierce its nose after trapping it?

DASV: Job 41

1 Can you pull up Leviathan with a fishhook, or tie down its tongue with a cord?
2 Can you put a rope in its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook?
3 Will it make pleas to you for mercy, or will it speak soft words to you?
4 Will it make a covenant with you,
that you should accept it as your slave forever?
5 Will you play with him like a bird, or will you put it on a leash for your girls?
6 Will the traders bargain for it?
Will they split it up among the merchants?
7 Can you fill its skin with harpoons, or its head with fishing spears?
8 If you lay your hand on it,
you will remember the battle,
and never do it again.
9 Any hope of capturing it is bogus, will not one attempting it be overwhelmed
even at the sight of it?
10 No one is so fierce that he dares to disturb it.
Who then is able to stand before me?
11 Who has first given something to me, that I am obligated to repay?
Everything under heaven is mine.
12 I will not keep silent concerning his limbs, or his mighty strength,
or his impressive frame.
13 Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can pierce its double coat of armor?
14 Who can pry open the doors of its mouth?
All around its teeth is terror.
15 Its back is made of rows of shields, sealed, tightly closed together.
16 Each one is so close to the other,
that no air can come between them.
17 They are joined to one another;
they stick together, so that they cannot be pried apart.
18 When it sneezes, it flashes forth light, and its eyes are like the crack of dawn.

19     Flames go out of its mouth, and sparks of fire shoot out.
20     Smoke is exhaled from its nostrils, as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
21     Its breath kindles coals, and a flame comes out of its mouth.
22     Strength lodges in its neck, and terror advances before it.
23     The folds of its flesh are joined together, they are firm on it and cannot be moved.
24     His heart is as hard as a rock, hard as a lower millstone.
25     When it raises itself up, the mighty are terrified, when it thrashes around, they withdraw.
26     If one strikes it with the sword, it has no impact, nor do the spear, dart or javelin.
27     It considers iron like straw, and bronze like rotten wood.
28     The arrow cannot make him flee,
          Slingstones bounce off like worthless chaff.
29     Clubs are considered to be straw,
          it laughs at the rattling of the javelin.
30     Its undersides are like sharp potsherds, it leaves a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
31     It makes the deep to bubble like a boiling pot, it makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
32     It makes a shining wake after him,
          one would think the deep had white hair.
33     There is nothing on earth like it,
          a creature with no fear.
34     It looks down on everything that is haughty, it is king over all the proud.

<sup>1</sup> Then Job answered the LORD,
<sup>2</sup> "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
<sup>3</sup> You asked, 'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?'
Therefore I have uttered matters that I did not understand, things too wonderful for me of which I knew nothing.
<sup>4</sup> You said, 'Listen, and I will speak;
I will question you,
and you will answer me.'
<sup>5</sup> I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear;
but now my eye sees you.
<sup>6</sup> Therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My anger burns against you, and against your two friends, because you have not spoken about me what is right, as my servant Job has.

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept his prayer that I not deal with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken about me what is right, as my servant Job has."

<sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD turned Job's fortunes when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

<sup>11</sup> Then all his brothers, sisters and all who had known him before came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him concerning all the tragedy that the LORD had brought on him. Each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the beginning. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys.

<sup>13</sup> He also had seven sons and three daughters.

Digital American Standard Version*BOOK I: Psalms 1-41*DASV: Psalm 1

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the one who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way with sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers.
- <sup>2</sup> But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.
- <sup>3</sup> He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season;
    its leaves do not wither.
    Everything he attempts will prosper.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked are not so,
    but are like the chaff that the wind blows away.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, or sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

DASV: Psalm 2

- <sup>1</sup> Why do the nations rage, and the peoples devise useless plots?
- <sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth take their battle positions and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed.
- <sup>3</sup> "Let us break their chains," they cry,
"and throw off their ropes from us."
- <sup>4</sup> He who is enthroned in the heavens laughs;
the LORD scoffs at them.
- <sup>5</sup> Then he speaks to them in his wrath,
and terrifies them in his fury.
- <sup>6</sup> "I have established my king on Zion, my holy hill."
- <sup>7</sup> I will announce the decree.
The LORD said to me:
"You are my son;
this day have I become your father.
- <sup>8</sup> Ask me, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance, and the ends of the earth as your possession.
- <sup>9</sup> You will break them with a rod of iron;
you will dash them in pieces like a potter's clay pot."
- <sup>10</sup> Now therefore be wise, O kings;
be instructed, O judges of the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
- <sup>12</sup> Kiss the son, lest he become angry,
and you perish in the way,
for his wrath can quickly ignite.
Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

DASV: Psalm 3

A psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, how numerous are my enemies!

Many are rising up against me.

<sup>2</sup> Many are saying about me,

"God will not save him." Selah

<sup>3</sup> But you, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory and the one who lifts up of my head.

<sup>4</sup> I cried out to the LORD,

and he answered me from his holy hill. Selah

<sup>5</sup> I laid down and slept;

I woke up, for the LORD sustains me.

<sup>6</sup> I will not be afraid of thousands of people who have set themselves against me

from every direction.

Save me, O my God!

For you strike all my enemies on the cheek,

you break the teeth of the wicked.

<sup>8</sup> Salvation belongs to the LORD.

May your blessing be on your people.

Selah

For the music director, with stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
When I was in distress, you gave me relief;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup> How long, O sons of men, will my glory be turned into shame?
How long will you love worthless words and pursue lies? Selah
- <sup>3</sup> But know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself;
the LORD will hear when I call to him.
- <sup>4</sup> Fearfully tremble and do not sin;
ponder in your heart when on your beds and be silent. Selah
- <sup>5</sup> Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> There are many who complain,
"Who will show us anything good?"
May the light of your face shine upon us, O LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> You have put gladness in my heart,
more than those who have abundant grain and wine.
- <sup>8</sup> In peace I will lay down and sleep;
for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

DASV: Psalm 5

For the music director, for the flutes. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my groaning.
- <sup>2</sup> Pay attention to my cry for help,
my King and my God,
for I pray to you.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, in the morning you will hear my voice;
in the morning I will bring my case to you,
and eagerly watch.
- <sup>4</sup> For you are not a God who delights in wickedness, evil cannot dwell with you.
- <sup>5</sup> The arrogant cannot stand before your eyes;
you hate all who do evil.
- <sup>6</sup> You will destroy those who speak lies;
the LORD detests those who are violent and deceitful.
- <sup>7</sup> But as for me, by the abundance of your loyal love,
I will enter your house.
I will worship toward your holy temple in reverence of you.
- <sup>8</sup> Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness
because of my enemies;
make your way straight before me.
- <sup>9</sup> For there is no truth in their mouths, their hearts desire destruction, their throats are an open grave,
their tongues speak deceptive flattery.
- <sup>10</sup> Hold them guilty, O God, let them fall by their own schemes;
because of their many sins, throw them out,
for they have rebelled against you.
- <sup>11</sup> But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them always shout for joy.
Spread your protection over them, so that those who love your name may be joyful in you.
- <sup>12</sup> For you will bless the righteous, O LORD;
you will encircle him with favor as with a shield.

DASV: Psalm 6

*For the music director, with stringed instruments; according to the Sheminith.
A psalm of David*

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath.
- <sup>2</sup> Have mercy on me, O LORD,
for I am frail.
O LORD, heal me,
for my bones are troubled in agony.
- <sup>3</sup> My soul is absolutely troubled in anguish, and you, O LORD, how long?
- <sup>4</sup> Return, O LORD, deliver my soul;
save me because of your loyal love.
- <sup>5</sup> For in death there is no remembrance of you,
in the grave, who praises you?
- <sup>6</sup> I am weary with my groaning;
every night I flood my bed with weeping;
I drench my couch with my tears.
- <sup>7</sup> My eyes are blurry because of grief;
they are worn out because of all my adversaries.
- <sup>8</sup> Depart from me, all you workers of evil,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.
- <sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my supplication;
the LORD will accept my prayer.
- <sup>10</sup> All my enemies will be shamed and greatly quake in anguish;
they will turn back and be put to shame in a moment.

DASV: Psalm 7

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjaminite.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD my God, in you I have taken refuge;
save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me, <sup>2</sup> or they will tear me apart like a lion, ripping me to shreds,
while there is no one to rescue me.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD my God, if I have done this,
if there is injustice in my hands, <sup>4</sup> if I have repaid my ally harm, or senselessly plundered my enemy, <sup>5</sup> let the enemy pursue and catch me;
let him trample my life down into the ground, and lay my honor in the dust. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> Arise, O LORD, in your anger; rise up in rage against my enemies;
awake, O my God, order justice.
- <sup>7</sup> The assembly of the peoples surround you;
take your seat over them on high.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD judges the peoples;
judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity, O Exalted One.
- <sup>9</sup> May the evil of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the righteous;
for you, O righteous God, test the minds and hearts.
- <sup>10</sup> God is my shield,
the One who saves the upright in heart.
- <sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge,
a God who is angry every day.
- <sup>12</sup> If a person does not repent,
he will sharpen his sword;
he will bend and prepare his bow.
- <sup>13</sup> He has also readied his deadly weapons;
he prepared his flaming arrows.
- <sup>14</sup> Look, the wicked person conceives evil;
he is pregnant with trouble, and gives birth to lies.

- <sup>15</sup> He digs a pit, clears it out, then falls into the hole he has made.
- <sup>16</sup> His trouble returns upon his own head, and his violence comes back on his own head.
- <sup>17</sup> I will give thanks to the LORD according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

DASV: Psalm 8

For the music director. According to The Gittith. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth;
you have set your glory upon the heavens!
- <sup>2</sup> Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have ordained praise because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.
- <sup>3</sup> When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, that you have put in place,
- <sup>4</sup> what is man, that you are mindful of him,
and the son of man, that you care for him?
- <sup>5</sup> For you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings, and crowned him with glory and honor.
- <sup>6</sup> You have given him rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet,
- <sup>7</sup> all sheep and oxen,
and even the beasts of the field,
- <sup>8</sup> the birds of the heavens,
and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
- <sup>9</sup> O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

DASV: Psalm 9

For the music director, according to Muth-labben. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart;
I will tell of all your marvelous works.

<sup>2</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in you.
I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

<sup>3</sup> When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before you.

<sup>4</sup> For you have maintained my right and my cause;
you sat on the throne judging righteously.

<sup>5</sup> You have rebuked the nations;
you have destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> The enemy has come to an end in everlasting ruins, and you have uprooted their cities,
the very memory of them has perished.

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD sits enthroned forever;
he has established his throne for judgment;

<sup>8</sup> he will judge the world with righteousness;
he will judge the peoples with fairness.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

<sup>10</sup> Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

declare his deeds among the people.

<sup>12</sup> For he who avenges blood remembers the slain;
he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

<sup>13</sup> Have mercy on me, O LORD.

Look at my affliction that I suffer from those who hate me;
you are the one who can lift me up from the gates of death,

<sup>14</sup> that I may recount all your praises, in the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation.

<sup>15</sup> The nations have fallen into the pit they made;
their own foot has been snared in the net they hid.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD has made himself known,

he has executed judgment;
the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion.

Selah

<sup>17</sup> The wicked will be turned back to the grave, all the nations that forget God.

<sup>18</sup> For the needy will not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor dashed forever.

<sup>19</sup> Arise, O LORD, do not let humans prevail;
let the nations be judged before you.

let the nations know that they are merely human. Selah

- <sup>1</sup> Why do you stand so far off, O LORD?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- <sup>2</sup> In arrogance the wicked hunt down the poor.
Let them be caught in the schemes they have plotted.
- <sup>3</sup> For the wicked boasts about his heart's desire, and the greedy one curses and renounces the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> In pride the wicked refuses to seek him, thinking, "He will never find out."
All his thoughts are, "There is no God."
- <sup>5</sup> His ways are always prosperous;
your judgments are far above, out of his sight,
as for all his enemies, he snorts at them.
- <sup>6</sup> He says in his heart, "I will never be moved, to all generations I will never have any trouble."
- <sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of curses, deceit and harm;
under his tongue are mischief and iniquity.
- <sup>8</sup> He crouches in ambush in the villages;
from the secret places he murders the innocent, his eyes stalk the helpless.
- <sup>9</sup> He lurks in secret as a lion in his lair;
he lies in wait ready to pounce on the poor;
he catches the poor and drags him off in his net.
- <sup>10</sup> His victims are crushed, and the helpless fall under his might.
- <sup>11</sup> He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
he has hidden his face;
he will never ever see it."
- <sup>12</sup> Arise, O LORD,
O God, lift up your hand,
do not forget the oppressed.
- <sup>13</sup> Why does the wicked despise God, and say in his heart, "You will not hold me accountable"?
- <sup>14</sup> But you have seen it,
for you are aware of trouble and grief,
that you may take it into your hand.
The helpless commits himself to you;
you have been the orphan's helper.
- <sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked,
and as for the evil man, search out his wickedness until you find none of it left.

- <sup>16</sup> The LORD is King forever and ever,
the nations perish from his land.
- <sup>17</sup> O LORD, you hear the pleas of the oppressed;
you strengthen their heart,
your ear hears their prayer,
- <sup>18</sup> to render justice for the orphan and the oppressed, so that no one on the earth may terrify them any longer.

DASV: Psalm 11

For the music director, of David.

- <sup>1</sup> In the LORD I take refuge.
How can you say to me,
"Flee like a bird to your mountain."
<sup>2</sup> For look, the wicked bend their bow;
they have readied their arrow on the string so that they may shoot in dark at the upright in heart.
<sup>3</sup> If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?

the LORD's throne is in heaven.
His eyes see;
his eyelids examine the children of men.
<sup>5</sup> The LORD examines the righteous and the wicked, and the one who loves violence he hates.
<sup>6</sup> On the wicked he will rain burning coals and sulfur,
and a scorching wind will be the portion of their cup.

<sup>7</sup> For the LORD is righteous, he loves righteousness;
the upright will gaze on his face.

DASV: Psalm 12

For the music director, according to The Sheminith. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Help, O LORD, for anyone who is godly is gone;
the faithful have vanished from the human race.
- <sup>2</sup> Each person tells lies to his neighbor;
they speak with a flattering lip and a deceptive heart.
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD will cut off all flattering lips,
the tongue that speaks boastful things.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who say, "With our tongue we will prevail;
our lips are our own, who is lord over us?"
- <sup>5</sup> "Because of the violence done to the poor, because of the sighing of the needy,
I will arise," says the LORD,
"I will set him in the safety for which he longs."
- <sup>6</sup> The words of the LORD are pure;
as silver fired in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.
- <sup>7</sup> You will keep them, O LORD;
you will protect them from this generation forever.
- <sup>8</sup> The wicked walk around everywhere, when vileness is exalted among humanity.

DASV: Psalm 13

For the music director, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> How long, O LORD, will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
- <sup>2</sup> How long must I struggle with anxiety in my soul, having sorrow in my heart every day?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?
- <sup>3</sup> Look at me and answer me, O LORD my God.
Give light to my eyes, or else I will sleep in death,
- <sup>4</sup> and my enemy will say, "I have prevailed over him," and my foes rejoice at my downfall.
- <sup>5</sup> But I have trusted in your loyal love;
my heart will rejoice in your salvation.
- <sup>6</sup> I will sing to the LORD, because he has vindicated me.

DASV: Psalm 14

For the music director, of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt,
they do detestable deeds;
there is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven on the human race,
to see if there is anyone who is wise,
who seeks after God.
- <sup>3</sup> They all have turned away,
they all have become corrupt;
there is no one who does good, not even one.
- <sup>4</sup> Do the evildoers really not know?
They eat up my people as they eat bread,
and do not call on the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> There they are totally terrified, for God is in the company of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> You would block the plans of the poor,
but the LORD is his refuge.
- <sup>7</sup> O that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD brings back the fortunes of his people,
then Jacob will rejoice,
and Israel will be glad.

DASV: Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, who may sojourn in your sanctuary?
Who may dwell on your holy hill?

<sup>2</sup> The one whose walk is blameless, who does what is right,
and speaks the truth from his heart, <sup>3</sup> who does not slander with his tongue, and does no harm to his friend,
who does not speak disrespectfully about his neighbor;
<sup>4</sup> who despises the vile,
but who honors those who fear the LORD,
one who keeps his promises,
even to his own hurt, and does not renege, <sup>5</sup> one who lends money without charging interest, who does not take a bribe against the innocent.
The one who does these things will never be moved.

DASV: Psalm 16

A Miktam of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Protect me, O God,
for I take refuge in you.
- <sup>2</sup> I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord,
I have no good besides you."
- <sup>3</sup> As for the holy ones who are in the earth, they are the leaders, in whom is all my delight.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who pursue other gods multiply their sorrows;
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, or take their names on my lips.
- <sup>5</sup> LORD you are my allotted portion and my cup;
you hold my lot secure.
- <sup>6</sup> The boundary lines are fallen to me in pleasant places;
I have a beautiful inheritance.
- <sup>7</sup> I will bless the LORD, who has given me guidance;
even in the night my heart instructs me.
- <sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD always before me.
Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices;
my body also will rest in security.
- <sup>10</sup> For you will not leave my soul in Sheol;
or allow your faithful one to experience decay.
- <sup>11</sup> You show me the path of life;
in your presence is abundant joy;
in your right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

DASV: Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear a just cause, O LORD, attend to my cry;
give ear to my prayer offered from lips free of deceit.
- <sup>2</sup> Let my vindication come out from before you;
let your eyes look at what is right.
- <sup>3</sup> You have examined my heart;
you have visited me in the night;
you have tried me, and found nothing;
I have purposed that my mouth should not sin.
- <sup>4</sup> As for the works of other people,
by the word of your lips
I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
- <sup>5</sup> My steps have held fast to your paths;
my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>6</sup> I call upon you, for you will answer me;
O God, turn your ear to me and hear my words.
- <sup>7</sup> Wondrously display your loyal love,
you who save by your right hand,
those who seek refuge in you from their foes.
- <sup>8</sup> Guard me as the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings, <sup>9</sup> from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies who surround me.
- <sup>10</sup> They close their insensitive hearts;
their mouths speak arrogantly.
- <sup>11</sup> They track me down, then they surround me;
they focus their eyes to throw me down to the ground.
- <sup>12</sup> They are like a lion eager for prey, and like a young lion lurking in ambush.
- <sup>13</sup> Arise, O LORD, confront him, cast him down,
deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;
- <sup>14</sup> from men by your hand, O LORD, from men of the world, whose reward is in this life.

May their bellies be filled with what you have stored up for them;
may their children be satisfied with it,
and even have leftovers for their infants.

<sup>15</sup> As for me, I will gaze on your face in righteousness;
when I awake, I will be satisfied by seeing your likeness.

DASV: Psalm 18

For the music director; A psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who sang to the LORD the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

- <sup>1</sup> I love you, O LORD, my strength.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge;
my shield and the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold.
- <sup>3</sup> I called on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
so I was saved from my enemies.
<sup>4</sup> The cords of death surrounded me,
and the floods of destruction overwhelmed me.
<sup>5</sup> The cords of Sheol wrapped around me;
the snares of death trapped me.
<sup>6</sup> In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried for help to my God.
He heard my voice from his temple,
and my cry for help came to his ears.
- <sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the mountains quaked and shook because he was angry.
<sup>8</sup> Smoke went up out of his nostrils, and fire from his mouth devoured, flaming coals were kindled by it.
<sup>9</sup> The heavens bent down as he descended, and thick darkness was under his feet.
<sup>10</sup> He mounted a cherub, and flew;
he soared upon the wings of the wind.
<sup>11</sup> He made darkness his covering;
his canopy around him was dark rain clouds.
<sup>12</sup> From the brightness before him his thick clouds passed by,
with hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>14</sup> He shot his arrows, and scattered them;
he flashed lightning bolts, and routed them.
<sup>15</sup> Then the channels of sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare,

at your rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath from your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup> He reached down from on high, he took hold of me;
he pulled me out of deep waters.

<sup>17</sup> He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me,
for they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup> They attacked me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my support.

<sup>19</sup> He brought me out into the open;
he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD has repaid me according to my righteousness;
according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

<sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>22</sup> For all his regulations were before me, and I have not rejected his statutes.

<sup>23</sup> I was blameless before him,
and I kept myself from sin.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

to the blameless you show yourself blameless;

<sup>26</sup> to the pure you show yourself pure,
and to the twisted you show yourself cunning.

but those with haughty eyes you humble.

<sup>28</sup> For you light my lamp;
the LORD, my God lights up my darkness.

<sup>29</sup> For by you I can attack an army, and by my God I can leap over a wall.

<sup>30</sup> As for God, his way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is tried and true.
He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.

<sup>31</sup> For who is God, except the LORD?
Who is a rock, besides our God?

<sup>32</sup> God equips me with strength, and makes my way perfect.

- <sup>33</sup> He makes my feet like the feet of a deer, and sets me on high places.
- <sup>34</sup> He trains my hands for war,
so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- <sup>35</sup> You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your right hand has held me up,
and your support has made me great.
- <sup>36</sup> You have widened the path for my steps under me,
and my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>37</sup> I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
I did not turn back until they were destroyed.
- <sup>38</sup> I struck them through, so that they were not able to rise;
they fell under my feet.
- <sup>39</sup> For you have equipped me with strength for the battle;
those who rose up against me, you have subdued under me.
- <sup>40</sup> You have made my fleeing enemies turn their backs to me, and I destroyed those who hated me.
- <sup>41</sup> They cried for help, but there was no one to save them;
they cried out to the LORD, but he did not answer them.
- <sup>42</sup> I beat them as fine as the dust blown by the wind;
I swept them out like mud from the streets.
- <sup>43</sup> You have delivered me from people accusing me;
you have made me the head of the nations,
a people whom I did not know serve me.
- <sup>44</sup> As soon as they hear about me, they obey me;
foreigners helplessly cringe before me.
- <sup>45</sup> Foreigners lose their courage, and come trembling out of their fortified enclosures.
- <sup>46</sup> The LORD lives! Blessed be my rock!
May the God of my salvation be exalted.
- <sup>47</sup> It is God who avenges me,
and subdues the people under me.
- <sup>48</sup> He rescues me from my enemies;
yes, you lifted me up above those who rose up against me;
you delivered me from the violent.
- <sup>49</sup> Therefore I will give thanks to you, O LORD,
among the nations,
and will sing praises to your name.
- <sup>50</sup> He gives great victories to his king;
and shows loyal love to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

DASV: Psalm 19

For the music director, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The heavens declare the glory of God;
the sky proclaims his handiwork.
- <sup>2</sup> Day to day utters speech, night to night reveals knowledge.
- <sup>3</sup> There is no speech nor are there words,
their voice is not heard,
- <sup>4</sup> yet their voice is gone out through all the earth,
their words to the end of the world.
In them he has pitched a tent for the sun,
- <sup>5</sup> which is like a bridegroom coming out of his wedding chamber.
It rejoices like a strong man to run a race.
- <sup>6</sup> It rises at one end of the heavens, and proceeds to the other end of it;
there is nothing hid from its heat.
- <sup>7</sup> The precepts of the LORD are right, reviving the soul.
The statutes of the LORD are reliable, making the simple wise.
- <sup>8</sup> The precepts of the LORD are right, bringing joy to the heart.
The commandment of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eyes.
- <sup>9</sup> The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever.
The commands of the LORD are true, and absolutely righteous.
- <sup>10</sup> They are more to be desired than gold,
even much fine gold.
They are sweeter than honey,
even the drippings of the honeycomb.
- <sup>11</sup> Moreover by them is your servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.
- <sup>12</sup> Who can discern his own errors?
Clear me from hidden faults.
- <sup>13</sup> Keep your servant from deliberate sins,
let them not have control over me.
Then I will be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.

<sup>14</sup> May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

DASV: Psalm 20

For the music director, a psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;
the name of the God of Jacob set you secure on high.
- <sup>2</sup> May he send you help from the sanctuary, and support you out of Zion.
- <sup>3</sup> May he remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt offering. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> May he grant you your heart's desire, and cause all your plans to succeed.
- <sup>5</sup> We will shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God set up our banners.
May the LORD give you all your requests.
- <sup>6</sup> Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed;
he will answer him from his holy heaven
by the saving strength of his right hand.
- <sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
- <sup>8</sup> They are bent over and fall,
but we arise and stand upright.
- <sup>9</sup> Save the King, O LORD.
Answer us when we call.

DASV: Psalm 21

For the music director, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, the king rejoices in your strength, how greatly he rejoices in your salvation!
- <sup>2</sup> You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips.     Selah
- <sup>3</sup> For you met him with rich blessings;
you set a crown of pure gold on his head.
- <sup>4</sup> He asked you for life, you gave it to him, even length of days forever and ever.
- <sup>5</sup> By your salvation his glory is great;
you confer honor and majesty on him.
- <sup>6</sup> For you bestow eternal blessings on him;
you make him glad with the joy of your presence.
- <sup>7</sup> For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the loyal love of the Most High he will not be moved.
- <sup>8</sup> Your hand will dominate all your enemies;
your right hand will dominate those who hate you.
- <sup>9</sup> You will burn them up like a fiery furnace when you appear.
The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire will devour them.
- <sup>10</sup> Their offspring you will destroy from the earth, and their descendants from among the human race.
- <sup>11</sup> For although they intend harm against you, while they conceive a scheme, they will not succeed.
- <sup>12</sup> For you will make them turn in retreat;
you will aim your bowstrings at their faces.
- <sup>13</sup> Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength;
we will sing and praise your power.

DASV: Psalm 22

For the music director, according to The Deer of the Dawn, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
    Why are you so far from helping me, so far from the words of my groaning?
- <sup>2</sup> O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer;
    by night, I find no relief.
- <sup>3</sup> Yet you are holy,
    the one enthroned on the praises of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> Our fathers trusted in you;
    they trusted, and you delivered them.
- <sup>5</sup> They cried out to you, and were rescued;
    they trusted in you, and were not disappointed.
- <sup>6</sup> But I am a worm, and not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people.
- <sup>7</sup> All who see me mock me;
    they shoot out the lip;
        they shake their heads, saying,
- <sup>8</sup> "He trusts in to the LORD.
    Let him deliver him;
    let him rescue him,
        seeing he delights in him."
- <sup>9</sup> Yet you are the one who brought me out of the womb;
    you made me trust when I was at my mother's breasts.
- <sup>10</sup> I was cast on you from birth;
    you have been my God since my mother bore me.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not stay far away from me;
    for trouble is near and there is no one to help.
- <sup>12</sup> Many bulls have surrounded me;
    strong bulls of Bashan have hemmed me in.
- <sup>13</sup> They open their mouths wide against me, like a ravening and roaring lion.
- <sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint.
    My heart is like wax;
        it is melted within me.
- <sup>15</sup> My strength is dried up like a piece of pottery,

- and my tongue sticks to my gums, and you lay me in the dust of death.
- <sup>16</sup> For dogs surround me;
a pack of evildoers encircles me,
they pierce my hands and my feet.
- <sup>17</sup> I can count all my bones;
they stare and gloat over me.
- <sup>18</sup> They divide my clothes among them,
and cast lots for my clothes.
- <sup>19</sup> But you, O LORD, do not stay far away!
O my help, come quickly to help me.
- <sup>20</sup> Deliver my soul from the sword, my life from the power of the dog.
- <sup>21</sup> Save me from the lion's mouth;
rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.
- <sup>22</sup> I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the middle of the assembly I will praise you.
- <sup>23</sup> You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you, the seed of Jacob, glorify him;
stand in awe of him, all you the descendants of Israel.
- <sup>24</sup> For he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted;
he did not hide his face from him,
but when he cried out to him, he listened.
- <sup>25</sup> You are the reason for my praise in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.
- <sup>26</sup> The poor will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the LORD will praise him;
may your hearts live forever.
- <sup>27</sup> All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of nations will worship before you.
- <sup>28</sup> For the kingship belongs to the LORD,
he is ruler over the nations.
- <sup>29</sup> All those flourishing on the earth will eat and worship;
all those who go down to the dust will bow before him-- the one who cannot keep himself alive.
- <sup>30</sup> An entire generation will serve him;
it will tell the next generation about the Lord.
- <sup>31</sup> They will come and declare his righteousness to a people who have yet to be born, telling what he has done.

DASV: Psalm 23

A psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
- <sup>2</sup> He makes me to lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside still waters.
- <sup>3</sup> He restores my soul, he guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- <sup>4</sup> Even though, I walk through the darkest valley,
I will fear no harm,
for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- <sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
- <sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

DASV: Psalm 24A psalm of David*

<sup>1</sup> The earth is the LORD's, and everything it contains,
the world, and those who live in it.

<sup>2</sup> For he put its foundation on the seas,
and established it on the rivers.

<sup>3</sup> Who may ascend the mountain of the LORD?
Who may stand in his holy place?

<sup>4</sup> Only one who has clean hands, and a pure heart, who does not worship an idol,
who does not swear deceitfully.

<sup>5</sup> He will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of his salvation.

<sup>6</sup> Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, O God of Jacob. Selah

<sup>7</sup> Lift up your heads, O gates,
be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

<sup>8</sup> Who is the King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
the LORD mighty in battle.

<sup>9</sup> Lift up your heads, O gates,
be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

<sup>10</sup> Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory. Selah

DASV: Psalm 25Of David*

- <sup>1</sup> To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
<sup>2</sup> O my God, I trust in you;
do not let me be disgraced;
do not let my enemies triumph over me.
<sup>3</sup> Surely no one who waits for you will be put to shame;
they will be disgraced who act treacherously without cause.
- <sup>4</sup> Show me your ways, O LORD, teach me your paths.
<sup>5</sup> Guide me in your truth, and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation,
I expectantly wait for you all day long.
<sup>6</sup> Remember, O LORD, your compassion and your loyal love, for they have existed from ancient times.
<sup>7</sup> Do not remember the sins of my youth, or my acts of rebellion;
according to your loyal love remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.
- <sup>8</sup> Good and upright is the LORD, therefore he instructs sinners in the proper way.
<sup>9</sup> He guides the humble with justice, and teaches them his way.
<sup>10</sup> All the paths of the LORD are loyal love and faithful, to those who keep his covenant and his demands.
<sup>11</sup> For your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
<sup>12</sup> Who is one who fears the LORD?
He will instruct him in the way he should choose.
<sup>13</sup> He will live in prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the land.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD offers advice to those who fear him, and he will show them his covenant.
<sup>15</sup> My eyes are always on the LORD, for he will pluck my feet from the snaring net.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
for I am alone and afflicted.
<sup>17</sup> The troubles of my heart are huge;

- release me from the pressures on me.
- <sup>18</sup> Consider my affliction and my trouble, and forgive all my sins.
- <sup>19</sup> Consider my enemies, for they are many,
and they hate me with a violent hatred.
- <sup>20</sup> Guard my life, and deliver me;
let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
- <sup>21</sup> Let integrity and uprightness protect me, for I expectantly wait for you.
- <sup>22</sup> Redeem Israel, O God, out of all its troubles.

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity;
I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

test my heart and my mind.

<sup>3</sup> For your loyal love is before my eyes;
and I have walked in your truth.

<sup>4</sup> I do not sit with deceitful men, neither will I join with hypocrites.

<sup>5</sup> I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.

<sup>6</sup> I will wash my hands in innocence,
so I will go around your altar, O LORD,

<sup>7</sup> raising my voice in thanksgiving, and telling of all your wondrous works.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD, I love the house where you inhabit, and the place where your glory dwells.

<sup>9</sup> Do not sweep me away with sinners, or condemn my life with men of blood,

<sup>10</sup> in whose hands is wicked scheming, and their right hand is full of bribes.

<sup>11</sup> But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
redeem me and be merciful to me.

<sup>12</sup> My foot stands in a level place,
in the great congregation I will praise the LORD.

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?
- <sup>2</sup> When evildoers attack me to devour my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes stumble and fall.
- <sup>3</sup> Though an army is deployed against me,
my heart will not fear;
though a battle breaks out against me,
even then I will be confident.
- <sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked of the LORD,
this is what I am seeking:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the LORD,
and to inquire in his temple.
- <sup>5</sup> For in the day of trouble he will hide me in his shelter, in the cover of his tabernacle he will hide me;
he will put me high on a secure rock.
- <sup>6</sup> Then I will lift my head up above my enemies who surround me, and I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
I will sing and perform music to the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> Hear, O LORD, when I cry out;
have mercy on me and answer me.
- <sup>8</sup> When you said, "Seek my face."
My heart said to you, "Your face, LORD, I will seek."
- <sup>9</sup> Do not hide your face from me;
do not turn your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Do not desert or abandon me,
O God of my salvation.
- <sup>10</sup> When my father and my mother abandon me, then the LORD will take me in.
- <sup>11</sup> Teach me your way, O LORD;
and lead me in a level path
because of my enemies.
- <sup>12</sup> Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen against me,

they exhale violence.

<sup>13</sup> I am confident of this:

that I will see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup> Wait expectantly for the LORD;

be strong and let your heart take courage and wait expectantly for the LORD.

- <sup>1</sup> Unto you, O LORD, will I call;
my rock, do not refuse to listen to me;
for if you ignore me,
I will become like those who go down into the pit.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear the voice of my plea for mercy when I cry to you,
when I lift up my hands toward your holy sanctuary.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not drag me away with the wicked,
and with the evildoers;
who speak peace with their neighbors,
while plotting harm in their hearts.
- <sup>4</sup> Repay them according to their deeds, according to their evil actions;
repay them according to the work of their hands;
give them back what they deserve.
- <sup>5</sup> Because they have no respect for the works of the LORD, or the actions of his hands,
he will break them down and never rebuild them.
- <sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is my strength and my shield;
in him my heart trusts, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart leaps for joy;
and I will praise him with my song.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD is his strength, and he is a saving refuge for his anointed one.
- <sup>9</sup> Save your people, and bless your inheritance;
be their shepherd, and carry them forever.

DASV: Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, you heavenly beings,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- <sup>2</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name;
worship the LORD in the magnificence of his holiness.
- <sup>3</sup> The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
even the LORD over mighty waters.
- <sup>4</sup> The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
- <sup>5</sup> The voice of the LORD shatters the cedars;
the LORD shatters in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young ox.
- <sup>7</sup> The voice of the LORD strikes with bolts of lightning.
- <sup>8</sup> The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- <sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD twists the oaks, and strips the forests bare.
Everyone in his temple cries, "Glory."
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD sits enthroned over the flood;
the LORD sits enthroned as King forever.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD gives strength to his people;
the LORD blesses his people with peace.

DASV: Psalm 30

A psalm. A song for the dedication of the temple. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, O LORD; for you have lifted me up, and have not let my foes gloat over me.
- <sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, I cried out to you, and you healed me.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, you brought up my soul from Sheol;
you rescued my life from descending into the pit.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing praise to the LORD, his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
- <sup>5</sup> For his anger lasts just a moment,
but his favor lasts a lifetime.
Weeping may persist through the night,
but joy comes in the morning.
- <sup>6</sup> As for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I will never be moved."
- <sup>7</sup> LORD, by your favor you made my mountain stand firm, then you hid your face and I was terrified.
- <sup>8</sup> I cried to you, O LORD, and to the LORD I pleaded for mercy.
- <sup>9</sup> "What benefit is there in my death,
in my going down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you?
Will it declare your faithfulness?"
- <sup>10</sup> Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me, O LORD, be my helper."
- <sup>11</sup> You turned my mourning into dancing.
You took off my sackcloth,
and clothed me with gladness,
- <sup>12</sup> so that my glory may praise you, and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

DASV: Psalm 31

For the music director, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I have sought refuge;
let me never be put to shame;
deliver me in your righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup> Turn your ear toward me;
quickly deliver me.
Be my rock of refuge,
a strong fortress to save me.
- <sup>3</sup> For you are my rock and my fortress,
for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
- <sup>4</sup> Free me from the trap that they secretly laid for me,
for you are my stronghold.
- <sup>5</sup> Into your hand I commit my spirit,
you have redeemed me, O LORD,
for you are a faithful God.
- <sup>6</sup> I hate those clinging to worthless idols,
but I trust in the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in your loyal love;
because you have seen my affliction,
you know the troubles of my soul.
- <sup>8</sup> You have not delivered me over to the hand of the enemy;
you have set my feet in a wide open place.
- <sup>9</sup> Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in distress;
my eye wastes away from grief,
my soul and my body as well.
- <sup>10</sup> For my life is worn out by sorrow,
and my years with sighing.
My strength fails because of my anguish,
and my bones waste away.
- <sup>11</sup> Because of all my enemies I am despised;
even my neighbors dread me fearing my acquaintance.
Those who see me in the street run away from me.
- <sup>12</sup> I am forgotten like a dead man who drops out of mind;
I am discarded like broken pottery.
- <sup>13</sup> For I have heard the gossip of many, whispering,
"Terror on every side,"
while they plotted together against me, they conspire to take away my life.

- <sup>14</sup> But I trust in you, O LORD.
I confess, "You are my God."
- <sup>15</sup> My times are in your hand;
deliver me from the hand of my enemies,
and from those who persecute me.
- <sup>16</sup> Make your face to shine on your servant;
save me by your loyal love.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not let me be put to shame, O LORD, for I have called on you;
let the wicked be put to shame,
let them be silent in Sheol.
- <sup>18</sup> Let the lying lips be silenced, those who speak arrogantly against the righteous, with pride and contempt.
- <sup>19</sup> How great is your goodness, which you store up for those who fear you,
which you have granted to those who take refuge in you,
in the sight of all humanity.
- <sup>20</sup> In the shelter of your presence you hide them from human plotting.
You conceal them in a shelter safe from slanderous tongues.
- <sup>21</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
for he has shown me his marvelous loyal love
when I was trapped in a besieged city.
- <sup>22</sup> As for me, I said in my panic,
"I am cut off from your sight."
But you heard my plea for mercy
when I cried to you for help.
- <sup>23</sup> Love the LORD, all his faithful ones.
The LORD preserves the faithful, and abundantly repays the one who acts proudly.
- <sup>24</sup> Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 32

Of David, a Maskil

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the one to whom the LORD does not impute guilt, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- <sup>3</sup> When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> For day and night your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the parching heat of summer. Selah
- <sup>5</sup> Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and did not try to hide my guilt.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD;"
and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.
Surely when the flood waters rise,
it will not reach him.
- <sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place;
you will protect me from trouble;
you will surround me with shouts of deliverance. Selah
- <sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will advise you with my eye upon you.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be like a horse or mule, which have no understanding,
which must be controlled by a bit and bridle,
otherwise they will not come near you.
- <sup>10</sup> Many sorrows come on the wicked, but one who trusts in the LORD, loyal love surrounds him.
- <sup>11</sup> Be happy in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous;
shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

DASV: Psalm 33

- <sup>1</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous;
praise is fitting for the upright.
- <sup>2</sup> Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre;
play music to him on a harp with ten strings.
- <sup>3</sup> Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully with shouts of joy.
- <sup>4</sup> For the word of the LORD is right, and everything he does is with faithfulness.
- <sup>5</sup> He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the loyal love of the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.
- <sup>7</sup> He gathers the waters of the sea into a heap;
he puts the deep in storehouses.
- <sup>8</sup> Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- <sup>9</sup> For he spoke, and it was done;
he commanded, and it stood firm.
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
he stymies the plans of the peoples.
- <sup>11</sup> The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen for his inheritance.
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven;
he sees the entire human race.
- <sup>14</sup> From the place where he dwells,
he observes all the inhabitants of the earth.
- <sup>15</sup> He fashions the hearts of them all,
he considers all their deeds.
- <sup>16</sup> No king is saved by his great army;
no warrior is delivered by his great strength.
- <sup>17</sup> It is false to trust a horse for victory, for it cannot deliver even by its great strength.
- <sup>18</sup> Look, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his loyal love,
- <sup>19</sup> to deliver their soul from death, and keep them alive in famine.

- <sup>20</sup> Our soul expectantly waits for the LORD;
he is our help and our shield.
- <sup>21</sup> For our heart rejoices in him, because we trust in his holy name.
- <sup>22</sup> Let your loyal love, O LORD, be upon us, just as we expectantly wait for you.

DASV: Psalm 34

Of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, so that he threw him out, and he got away.

- <sup>1</sup> I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise will continually be in my mouth.
- <sup>2</sup> My soul will boast in the LORD;
the oppressed will hear and be glad.
- <sup>3</sup> Magnify the LORD with me;
let us exalt his name together.
- <sup>4</sup> I sought the LORD, and he answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces will never be ashamed.
- <sup>6</sup> This poor man cried out, and the LORD listened, and saved him from all his troubles.
- <sup>7</sup> The angel of the LORD camps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
- <sup>8</sup> Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the one who takes refuge in him.
- <sup>9</sup> Fear the LORD, you his holy ones;
for those who fear him
will not lack anything.
- <sup>10</sup> Even young lions suffer need and hunger, but those who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.
- <sup>11</sup> Come, children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> What person is there who desires life,
and wants a long life to see good?
- <sup>13</sup> Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from telling lies.
- <sup>14</sup> Turn away from evil and do good;
seek peace, and pursue it.
- <sup>15</sup> The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.
- <sup>16</sup> The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off all memory of them from the earth.

- <sup>17</sup> The righteous cry for help and the LORD hears them, and delivers them out of all their troubles.
- <sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to those who are brokenhearted, and saves those whose spirits are crushed.
- <sup>19</sup> Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD rescues him from them all.
- <sup>20</sup> He guards all his bones;
not one of them is broken.
- <sup>21</sup> Evil will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
- <sup>22</sup> The LORD redeems the life of his servants, and none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

- <sup>1</sup> Oppose, O LORD, those who oppose me; fight against those who fight against me.
- <sup>2</sup> Take hold of shield and buckler;
rise up to help me.
- <sup>3</sup> Draw out the spear and javelin against those who pursue me.
Say to my soul, "I am your salvation."
- <sup>4</sup> Let them be put to shame and disgrace who seek my life;
turn them back and humiliate those plotting to harm me.
- <sup>5</sup> Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away.
- <sup>6</sup> Let their way be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
- <sup>7</sup> For no reason they hid their net for me;
for no reason they dug a pit for my life.
- <sup>8</sup> Let destruction come on him by surprise, and let the net he hid snare himself,
with destruction let him fall into the pit.
- <sup>9</sup> Then I will be joyful in the LORD;
I will rejoice in his salvation.
- <sup>10</sup> All my bones will say, "O LORD, who is like you?"
You deliver the poor from the one who is too strong for him, the poor and the needy from the one who attempts to rob him.
- <sup>11</sup> Malicious witnesses rise up;
they accuse me of things that I know nothing about.
- <sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for good;
I am overcome with sorrow.
- <sup>13</sup> But when they were sick, I put on sackcloth;
I afflicted myself with fasting, and I prayed with my head bowed low on my chest.
- <sup>14</sup> I grieved for them as if they had been my friend or my brother;
I bowed down mourning, as one who laments for his own mother.
- <sup>15</sup> But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together against me, attackers I do not even know;
they tear me apart without stopping.
- <sup>16</sup> Like the profane mockers at feasts, they gnash on me with their teeth.
- <sup>17</sup> O Lord, how long will you just look on?

- Rescue me from their devastating attacks;
save my precious life from the lions.
- <sup>18</sup> I will give you thanks in the great assembly;
I will praise you among many people.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not let those who are my treacherous enemies rejoice over me;
do not let those who hate me for no reason wink with the eye.
- <sup>20</sup> For they do not speak peace,
but they devise deceitful words against those who live quietly in the land.
- <sup>21</sup> They open their mouth wide against me;
they say, "Aha, aha, our own eyes have seen him do it."
- <sup>22</sup> You have seen it, O LORD;
do not remain silent, O Lord;
do not stay far away from me.
- <sup>23</sup> Rouse yourself, and wake up for my justice;
defend my cause, my God and my Lord.
- <sup>24</sup> Vindicate me, O LORD my God, according to your righteousness;
do not let them rejoice over me.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not let them say in their heart,
"Aha, we got what we wanted."
Do not let them say,
"We have swallowed him up."
- <sup>26</sup> Let those who rejoice at my harm be put to shame and disgrace;
let those who exalt themselves against me be clothed with shame and dishonor.
- <sup>27</sup> Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause;
let them continually say, "The LORD is great, who delights in the prosperity of his servant."
- <sup>28</sup> My tongue will tell of your righteousness and speak of your praises all day long.

DASV: Psalm 36

For the music director, of David, the servant of the LORD.

- <sup>1</sup> Transgression speaks deep into the heart of the wicked;
there is no fear of God before his eyes.
- <sup>2</sup> He flatters himself in his own eyes, mistakenly believing that his iniquity will not be found out and hated.
- <sup>3</sup> The words of his mouth are trouble and deceit;
he has given up being wise and doing good.
- <sup>4</sup> He devises iniquity on his bed;
he commits himself to a way that is not good;
he does not reject evil.
- <sup>5</sup> Your loyal love, O LORD, extends to heaven, your faithfulness to the skies.
- <sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains;
your justice is like the ocean depths;
O LORD, you preserve both humans and animals.
- <sup>7</sup> How precious is your loyal love, O God!
The human race takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- <sup>8</sup> They are abundantly satisfied with the food from your house;
you let them drink from the river of your delights.
- <sup>9</sup> For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.
- <sup>10</sup> Pour out your loyal love on those who know you, your righteousness on the upright in heart.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not allow the foot of the proud to trample on me, or let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
- <sup>12</sup> There the evildoers lie fallen;
they are knocked down, unable to rise.

- <sup>1</sup> Do not fret yourself because of evildoers, or envy those who do wrong.
- <sup>2</sup> For they will soon wither like the grass, and wilt like a green plant.
- <sup>3</sup> Trust in the LORD and do good;
dwell in the land and pasture securely.
- <sup>4</sup> Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.
- <sup>5</sup> Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him, and he will make it happen.
- <sup>6</sup> He will make your righteousness beam like the light, and your justice like the noonday.
- <sup>7</sup> Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him;
do not fret because of one who prospers in his way, because of one who implements wicked schemes.
- <sup>8</sup> Stop being angry, and forsake wrath;
do not fret, it only leads to evil.
- <sup>9</sup> For evildoers will be cut off, but those who expectantly wait on the LORD will inherit the land.
- <sup>10</sup> In just a little while, the wicked will be no more;
though you look carefully for his place, he will not be there.
- <sup>11</sup> But the meek will inherit the land, and will delight themselves in the abundant prosperity.
- <sup>12</sup> The wicked plots against the just,
and gnashes their teeth at him.
- <sup>13</sup> The Lord will laugh at him,
for he sees that his day is coming.
- <sup>14</sup> The wicked draw the sword,
and bend their bows,
to bring down the poor and needy,
to slaughter those whose way is upright.
- <sup>15</sup> Their sword will pierce their own heart, and their bows will be broken.
- <sup>16</sup> Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked.

- 17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD supports the righteous.
- 18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their inheritance will last forever.
- 19 They will not be shamed in the times of trouble, and in the days of famine they will have plenty.
- 20 But the wicked will perish, and the enemies of the LORD will be like a flourishing pasture that vanishes like smoke.
- 21 The wicked borrows, and does not repay,
but the righteous is generous and gives.
- 22 Those blessed by the LORD will inherit the land, and those who are cursed by him will be cut off.
- 23 The LORD makes a person's steps successful,
when he delights in his way.
- 24 Even if he stumbles, he will not fall headlong, for the LORD holds onto him with his hand.
- 25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken,
or his children begging for bread.
- 26 All day long he is generous and lends,
and his children are blessed.
- 27 Turn away from evil and do good,
then you will live in the land forever.
- 28 For the LORD loves justice;
he never abandons his faithful ones;
they are protected forever,
but the children of the wicked will be cut off.
- 29 The righteous will inherit the land,
and live in it forever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice.
- 31 The law of his God is in his heart;
not one of his steps slip.
- 32 The wicked stalk the righteous, and seek to kill him.
- 33 The LORD will not abandon him into his hand, or let him be condemned when he is judged.
- 34 Wait expectantly for the LORD, and keep his way,
and he will exalt you to inherit the land;

- when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
- <sup>35</sup> I have seen the wicked flourishing, and spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
- <sup>36</sup> But he passed away and was no more;
I searched for him, but he could not be found.
- <sup>37</sup> Observe the blameless, and look carefully at the upright, for there is a future for the person of peace.
- <sup>38</sup> As for transgressors, they will be absolutely destroyed;
the future of the wicked will be cut off.
- <sup>39</sup> But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;
he is their fortress in the time of trouble.
- <sup>40</sup> The LORD helps them, and rescues them;
he rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they seek refuge in him.

DASV: Psalm 38

A psalm of David, for remembrance

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, rebuke me not in your wrath, or discipline me in your rage.
- <sup>2</sup> For your arrows pierce me,
and your hand has come down on me.
- <sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my flesh because of your anger;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
- <sup>4</sup> For my sins overwhelm my head,
as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
- <sup>5</sup> My wounds are infected and stink, because of my foolish sins.
- <sup>6</sup> I am bent over and totally bowed down;
I go around crying all day long.
- <sup>7</sup> For my sides are filled with fever;
there is no soundness in my flesh.
- <sup>8</sup> I am faint and severely bruised;
I groan because of the moaning of my heart.
- <sup>9</sup> Lord, all my desire lies open before you,
and my groaning is not hid from you.
- <sup>10</sup> My heart throbs, my strength fails me;
the light of my eyes is gone from me.
- <sup>11</sup> My loved ones and friends stay away because of my disease, and my close neighbors stand afar off.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who seek my life lay snares for me,
and those who seek my harm speak of ruin,
and plot treachery all the day long.
- <sup>13</sup> But I am like the deaf, who cannot hear;
I am like the mute who cannot speak.
- <sup>14</sup> I am like one who does not hear,
and in whose mouth there is no defense.
- <sup>15</sup> For you, O LORD, I expectantly wait.
You will answer, O Lord my God.
- <sup>16</sup> For I prayed, "Do not let them rejoice over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."
- <sup>17</sup> For I am on the verge of stumbling, and I am in constant pain.
- <sup>18</sup> For I will confess my iniquity;

I am sorry for my sin.

<sup>19</sup> But my enemies are healthy and strong;
those who hate me for no reason are multiplied.

<sup>20</sup> Those who repay evil for good are my opponents, because I pursue the good.

O my God, do not stay far away from me.

<sup>22</sup> Hurry to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

DASV: Psalm 39

For the music director, Jeduthun; a psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> I said, "I will guard my ways, so that I do not sin with my tongue;
I will put a muzzle on my mouth, while the wicked are before me."
- <sup>2</sup> I was speechless with silence;
I held my peace even from saying good things,
and my anguish grew worse.
- <sup>3</sup> My heart became hot within me;
while I pondered, the fire burned,
then I spoke with my tongue.
- <sup>4</sup> O LORD, make me to know my end, and what is the extent of my days;
make me realize how fleeting my life is.
- <sup>5</sup> You have made my days as short as the width of a hand,
and my whole lifetime is nothing to you;
surely everyone is just a breath,
even those who seem to stand secure.     Selah
- <sup>6</sup> Everyone moves about like a mere shadow; surely they make an uproar over nothing;
someone stores up wealth,
not knowing who will get it.
- <sup>7</sup> And now, O Lord, what do I expectantly wait for?
My hope is in you.
- <sup>8</sup> Deliver me from all my transgressions;
do not let me be the mockery of fools.
- <sup>9</sup> I am silent, I do not open my mouth, because you are the one who did it.
- <sup>10</sup> Remove your stroke away from me;
I am consumed by the blows of your hand.
- <sup>11</sup> When your rebuke corrects a person for iniquity, you consume what is precious to him like a moth;
surely everyone is just a breath.     Selah
- <sup>12</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and give ear to my cry;
do not ignore my tears,
for I am your guest,
a sojourner, as all my forefathers were.
- <sup>13</sup> Look away from me, so that I may smile again, before I pass away and am no more.

DASV: Psalm 40

For the music director, of David, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> I waited patiently for the LORD, and he turned to me, and heard my cry.
- <sup>2</sup> He pulls me out of a swirling pit,
out of the muck and mud;
he set my feet upon a rock,
and made my steps secure.
- <sup>3</sup> He has put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our God.
Many will see it and fear,
and trust in the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
and does not turn to the proud,
or turn away after false gods.
- <sup>5</sup> Many, O LORD my God, are the wonderful works you have done,
and your plans toward us;
no one can compare with you.
If I would declare and list them,
they would be too many to count.
- <sup>6</sup> You have no delight in sacrifice and offering;
you have opened my ears,
you have not required burnt offerings and sin offerings.
- <sup>7</sup> Then I said, "Look, I have come;
in the scroll of the book it is written about me,
- <sup>8</sup> "I delight to do your will, O my God;
your law is in my heart."
- <sup>9</sup> I have proclaimed righteousness in the great assembly;
look, I have not restrained my lips, O LORD, as you know.
- <sup>10</sup> I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart;
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation,
I have not concealed your loyal love and your faithfulness from the great assembly.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not withhold your mercies from me, O LORD;
let your loyal love and your faithfulness continually protect me.
- <sup>12</sup> For innumerable troubles surround me;
my sins have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see;

- they are more than the hairs of my head,
and my heart fails me.
- <sup>13</sup> Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
hurry to help me, O LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> Let all those who seek to destroy my life be put to shame and humiliated;
may those who seek my harm be turned back and dishonored.
- <sup>15</sup> Let them be appalled by their shame;
those who say to me, "Aha, he's ours now."
- <sup>16</sup> Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say continually,
"The LORD is great."
- <sup>17</sup> But as for me, I am poor and needy;
may the Lord think about me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
do not delay, O my God.

DASV: Psalm 41

For the music director, a psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the one who looks out for the poor;
the LORD will deliver him in the day of trouble.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive.
He will be blessed in the land.
Do not deliver him over to the will of his enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD supports him on the bed of sickness;
you totally heal him from his bed of illness.
- <sup>4</sup> I said, "O LORD, have mercy on me.
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."
- <sup>5</sup> My enemies taunt me,
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
- <sup>6</sup> When he comes to see me, he speaks lies;
his heart gathers gossip,
when he leaves, he broadcasts it abroad.
- <sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper together against me;
they devise ways to harm me.
- <sup>8</sup> They whisper, "He has contracted a fatal disease, and he will never get up from the bed where he lies."
- <sup>9</sup> Even my close friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.
- <sup>10</sup> But you, O LORD, have mercy on me, raise me up, so that I may repay them.
- <sup>11</sup> By this I know that you are pleased with me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.
- <sup>12</sup> As for me, you uphold me because of my integrity;
you set me in your presence forever.
- <sup>13</sup> Praise the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK II: Psalms 42-72*DASV: Psalm 42

For the music director, a Maskil of the Sons of Korah

- <sup>1</sup> As a deer pants after the water brooks, so my soul pants after you, O God.
- <sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?
- <sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night,
while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"
- <sup>4</sup> These things I remember, as I pour out my soul, how I used to walk with the crowd, leading them to the house of God,
with shouts of joy and thanksgiving,
with the roaring crowd celebrating the festival.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul?
Why are you so disturbed?
Hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my salvation and my God.
- <sup>6</sup> My soul is depressed within me,
therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan, and from Hermon, from Mount Mizar.
- <sup>7</sup> Deep water calls to deep at the rumble of your waterfalls;
all your waves and billows wash over me.
- <sup>8</sup> Yet the LORD commands his loyal love by day;
at night his song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.
- <sup>9</sup> I will say to God my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I walk around mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?"
- <sup>10</sup> As a mortal wound, my adversaries taunt me,
while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"
- <sup>11</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul?
Why are you so disturbed within me?
Hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my salvation and my God.

DASV: Psalm 43

- <sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O God, and plead my case against an ungodly nation;
deliver me from the one who is deceitful and unjust.
- <sup>2</sup> For you are the God of my strength.
Why have you cast me off?
Why must I walk around mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?
- <sup>3</sup> Send out your light and your truth;
let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill,
and to your dwellings.
- <sup>4</sup> Then will I go to the altar of God,
to God, my exceeding joy.
Upon the harp I will praise you, O God, my God.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul?
Why are you so disturbed within me?
Hope in God;
for I will yet praise him,
my salvation and my God.

DASV: Psalm 44

For the music director, of the Sons of Korah, a Maskil

- <sup>1</sup> We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us,
what you did in their days,
in the days of old.
- <sup>2</sup> You drove out the nations with your hand, but you settled them;
you afflicted the peoples,
but you set them free.
- <sup>3</sup> For they did not conquer the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them;
but with your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you favored them.
- <sup>4</sup> You are my King, O God;
order salvation for Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> Through you we push back our foes;
through your name we trample down those rising against us.
- <sup>6</sup> For I do not trust in my bow,
my sword cannot save me.
- <sup>7</sup> But you have saved us from our enemies, and have put to shame those who hate us.
- <sup>8</sup> In God we have boasted all day long;
we will give thanks to your name forever.      Selah
- <sup>9</sup> But now you have rejected and disgraced us, and have not gone out leading our armies.
- <sup>10</sup> You make us retreat before the adversary;
those who hate us plunder us.
- <sup>11</sup> You have made us like sheep to be eaten,
and have scattered us among the nations.
- <sup>12</sup> You sell your people for nothing, and have gotten nothing from the sale of them.
- <sup>13</sup> You make us to be despised by our neighbors,
a scoffing and mockery to those around us.
- <sup>14</sup> You make us a joke among the nations,
a laughingstock among the peoples.
- <sup>15</sup> All day long my dishonor is before me,
shame has covered my face,
- <sup>16</sup> from the voice of the one despising and ridiculing, because of the enemy and the one plotting revenge.

- <sup>17</sup> All this has come upon us,
yet we have not forgotten you,
nor have we violated your covenant.
- <sup>18</sup> Our heart has not turned back,
nor have our steps digressed from your way.
- <sup>19</sup> You have broken us in the place of jackals, and covered us with darkness.
- <sup>20</sup> If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread out our hands to a strange god, <sup>21</sup> would God not figure it out?
He knows the secrets of the heart.
- <sup>22</sup> For your sake are we killed all day long;
we are thought of as sheep for the slaughter.
- <sup>23</sup> Get up! Why do you sleep, O Lord?
Wake up, do not reject us forever.
- <sup>24</sup> Why do you hide your face?
Why do you forget our suffering and oppression?
- <sup>25</sup> For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
our body clings to the ground.
- <sup>26</sup> Rise up, come to our aid;
redeem us because of your loyal love.

DASV: Psalm 45

For the music director, according to Lilies, of the Korahites, a Maskil, a love song

- <sup>1</sup> My heart is stirred with a beautiful theme;
I address my work to the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skillful scribe.
- <sup>2</sup> You are the most handsome of all men;
grace pours from your lips,
therefore God has blessed you forever.
- <sup>3</sup> Strap your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
array yourself with your glory and your majesty.
- <sup>4</sup> In your majesty, ride on victoriously, for the sake of truth, humility and righteousness.
May your right hand perform awesome deeds.
- <sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp;
they pierce the heart of the king's enemies;
the peoples prostrate themselves beneath you.
- <sup>6</sup> Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
a scepter of fairness is the scepter of your kingdom.
- <sup>7</sup> You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.
- <sup>8</sup> Your royal robes are scented with myrrh, aloes and cassia;
out of ivory palaces stringed instruments make you glad.
- <sup>9</sup> Kings' daughters are among your honored women;
at your right hand stands the queen decked in gold from Ophir.
- <sup>10</sup> Listen, O daughter, consider, and incline your ear; forget your own people, and your father's house.
- <sup>11</sup> For the king desires your beauty;
since he is your lord, bow before him.
- <sup>12</sup> The daughter of Tyre will present a gift before you;
the richest nation will seek your favor.
- <sup>13</sup> The presence of the princess is absolutely stunning;
her gown is interwoven with gold.
- <sup>14</sup> She is led to the king in embroidered robes;
her virgin companions attend her and are brought to you.
- <sup>15</sup> With gladness and joy they are led,
as they enter into the king's palace.
- <sup>16</sup> Your sons will succeed your fathers, whom you will make rulers in all the earth.

<sup>17</sup> I will cause your name to be remembered through all generations, so the nations will praise you forever and ever.

DASV: Psalm 46

For the music director, of the Sons of Korah, according to Alamoth, a song

- <sup>1</sup> God is our refuge and strength, always there to help in trouble.
- <sup>2</sup> Therefore we will not fear,
    though the earth shakes,
    and though the mountains tumble
    into the heart of the seas; <sup>3</sup> though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble from the crashing sea.   Selah
- <sup>4</sup> There is a river, the streams of which make glad the city of God, the holy dwelling of the Most High.
- <sup>5</sup> God is in the midst of her;
    she will not be moved;
    God will help her as the morning dawns.
- <sup>6</sup> The nations rage, kingdoms are shaken;
    he raises his voice, the earth melts.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us;
    the God of Jacob is our refuge.   Selah
- <sup>8</sup> Come and see the wonderful works of the LORD, what devastations he has brought on the earth.
- <sup>9</sup> He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth;
    he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
    he burns the shields with the fire.
- <sup>10</sup> Be still, and know that I am God;
    I will be exalted over the nations;
    I will be exalted over the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us;
    the God of Jacob is our refuge.   Selah

DASV: Psalm 47

For the music director, of the Sons of Korah, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with the voice of triumph.
- <sup>2</sup> For the LORD Most High is awesome;
he is a great King over all the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> He subdues peoples under us,
and nations under our feet.
- <sup>4</sup> He chose our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob whom he loves.       Selah
- <sup>5</sup> God has ascended with a shouts of triumph, the LORD is enthroned with the sound of a trumpet.
- <sup>6</sup> Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.
- <sup>7</sup> For God is the King of all the earth;
sing praises with a skillful psalm.
- <sup>8</sup> God reigns over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.
- <sup>9</sup> The princes of the peoples are gathered together with the people of the God of Abraham.
For the rulers of the earth belong to God;
he is highly exalted.

DASV: Psalm 48

A Song, a psalm of the Sons of Korah

- <sup>1</sup> Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God on his holy mountain.
- <sup>2</sup> It is high and beautiful,
the joy of the whole earth.
Mount Zion is like the peaks of Mount Zaphon, the city of the great King.
- <sup>3</sup> God is within her citadels;
he has shown himself to be its defender.
- <sup>4</sup> The kings assembled,
they invaded together.
- <sup>5</sup> When they saw it, they were amazed;
they were terrified and ran away.
- <sup>6</sup> Trembling took hold of them there,
like the pain of a woman in labor,
- <sup>7</sup> like you shatter the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.
- <sup>8</sup> As we have heard, now we have seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God.
God will establish it forever. Selah
- <sup>9</sup> We have thought about your loyal love, O God, in the midst of your temple.
- <sup>10</sup> Like your name, O God, your praise extends to the ends of the earth;
your right hand is full of righteousness.
- <sup>11</sup> Let Mount Zion be glad, let the towns of Judah rejoice because of your judgments.
- <sup>12</sup> Walk around Zion, go all the way around it,
number its towers,
- <sup>13</sup> mark well her fortified walls,
pass by its fortresses,
that you may tell it to the next generation.
- <sup>14</sup> For this God is our God forever and ever;
he will be our guide even to death.

DASV: Psalm 49

For the music director, a psalm of the Sons of Korah

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this, all you peoples;
    give ear, all you inhabitants of the world, <sup>2</sup> both low and high,
    rich and poor together.
<sup>3</sup> My mouth will speak wisdom, and the meditation of my heart will disclose understanding.
<sup>4</sup> I will incline my ear to a proverb;
    I will solve my riddle with the harp.
- <sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in the days of trouble, when iniquity of deceivers surrounds me;
<sup>6</sup> they who trust in their wealth;
    and boast in their abundant riches?
<sup>7</sup> No one can redeem his brother's life or pay to God a ransom sufficient for him; <sup>8</sup> for the redemption price of their life is costly, and no one would ever have enough, <sup>9</sup> that one could live forever and never see the grave.
- <sup>10</sup> For they see that a wise person dies;
    just like the fool and stupid they perish,
    and leave their wealth to others.
<sup>11</sup> Their graves are their houses forever, their dwelling places to all generations,
    though they name their lands after themselves.
<sup>12</sup> But humans, even though wealthy, will not last;
    they are like the beasts that perish.
<sup>13</sup> This the destiny of a fool;
    yet those after them approve of their sayings.     Selah <sup>14</sup> They are led like sheep to the grave;
    death will be their shepherd;
    the upright will rule over them in the morning;
    their body will be consumed by the grave with no more mansions to live in.
<sup>15</sup> But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol, for he will take me away.     Selah <sup>16</sup> Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, when the magnificence of his house increases.

- <sup>17</sup> For when he dies he can carry nothing away;
his wealth cannot descend with him.
- <sup>18</sup> Though when he lived he counted himself blessed,
for people praise you when you prosper,
- <sup>19</sup> he will go to the generation of his fathers who will never again see the light.
- <sup>20</sup> A wealthy person who does not understand is like the beasts that perish.

DASV: Psalm 50A psalm of Asaph*

- <sup>1</sup> The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks;
    he summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
- <sup>2</sup> Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.
- <sup>3</sup> Our God comes, and is not silent,
    a fire devours before him,
        and a furious storm surrounds him.
- <sup>4</sup> He calls in the heavens above and on the earth,
    that he may judge his people:
- <sup>5</sup> "Gather my faithful ones together to me,
    those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge.           Selah
- <sup>7</sup> "Listen, O my people, and I will speak,
    O Israel, and I will testify against you:
        I am God, your God.
- <sup>8</sup> I am not rebuking you for your sacrifices, or your burnt offerings that are continually before me.
- <sup>9</sup> I do not need a bull from your house,
    or goats from your folds,
- <sup>10</sup> for every animal of the forest is mine,
    and the cattle upon a thousand hills.
- <sup>11</sup> I know every bird in the mountains;
    everything that moves in the field is mine.
- <sup>12</sup> If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
    for the world and everything in it is mine.
- <sup>13</sup> Do I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
- <sup>14</sup> Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and keep your vows to the Most High.
- <sup>15</sup> Call on me in the day of trouble;
    I will deliver you, and you will glorify me."
- <sup>16</sup> But to the wicked God says,
    "What right do you have to declare my statutes, or to talk about my covenant with your mouth?"
- <sup>17</sup> You hate instruction, and throw away my words behind you?

- <sup>18</sup> When you see a thief, you join in with him, and associate with adulterers.
- <sup>19</sup> You give your mouth to evil,
and your tongue to join in the deceit.
- <sup>20</sup> You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.
- <sup>21</sup> These things you have done, and I kept silent;
you assumed that I was someone just like yourself,
but now I will rebuke you,
and lay the charges before your eyes.
- <sup>22</sup> Now consider this, you who forget God,
or I will tear you apart,
and there will be no one to rescue you.
- <sup>23</sup> Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving honors me;
and to one who follows the right way,
I will show the salvation of God."

DASV: Psalm 51

For the music director, a psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba

- <sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, because of your loyal love; because of your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
- <sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
- <sup>3</sup> For I realize my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.
- <sup>4</sup> Against you, you only, have I sinned,
and done what is evil in your sight,
that you may be justified in your verdict,
and blameless when you render judgment.
- <sup>5</sup> For I was born in iniquity, and a sinner from when my mother conceived me.
- <sup>6</sup> Look, you desire truth in the inner parts, and you teach me wisdom in the inner recesses.
- <sup>7</sup> Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
- <sup>8</sup> Allow me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones you have broken may rejoice.
- <sup>9</sup> Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.
- <sup>10</sup> Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a loyal spirit within me.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your Holy Spirit from me.
- <sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.
- <sup>13</sup> Then will I teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn to you.
- <sup>14</sup> Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed,
O God, God of my salvation;
and my tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness.
- <sup>15</sup> O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
- <sup>16</sup> For you do not delight in sacrifice, else would I give it.

You have no pleasure in burnt offerings.

<sup>17</sup> The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart, O God,
you will not despise.

<sup>18</sup> Do good in your special favor to Zion;
build the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> Then you will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings;
then they will offer bulls on your altar.

DASV: Psalm 52

For the music director, a Maskil of David, when Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech"

- <sup>1</sup> Why do you boast in trouble, O mighty one?
The loyal love of God lasts all day long.
- <sup>2</sup> Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, it executes deception.
- <sup>3</sup> You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking what is right. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> You love all words that devour, by a deceitful tongue.
- <sup>5</sup> God will tear you down forever;
he will snatch and tear you away from your tent;
he will uproot you out of the land of the living. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> The righteous will see it, and fear, and will laugh at him, saying,
- <sup>7</sup> "Look, here is the person who would not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself by destroying."
- <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am like a flourishing olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the loyal love of God forever and ever.
- <sup>9</sup> I will give thanks to you forever, for what you have done;
I will hope in your name, for you are good, in the presence of your faithful ones.

DASV: Psalm 53

For the music director, according to Mahalath, a Maskil of David

- <sup>1</sup> The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt;
they do detestable deeds;
there is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven on the human race
to see if there is anyone who is wise,
who seeks after God.
- <sup>3</sup> They all have turned away;
they all have become corrupt;
there is no one who does good, not even one.
- <sup>4</sup> Do the evildoers really not know?
They eat up my people as they eat bread,
and do not call on God.
- <sup>5</sup> There they are totally terrified, where there was no terror;
for God will scatter the bones of the one who camps against you.
You will put them to shame,
because God has rejected them.
- <sup>7</sup> O that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back the fortunes of his people,
then Jacob will rejoice,
and Israel will be glad.

DASV: Psalm 54

For the music director, on stringed instruments, a Maskil of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Is not David hiding among us?"

- <sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, by your name, and vindicate me by your might.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, O God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>3</sup> For strangers are risen up against me,
and the ruthless are seeking my life;
they have not set God before them.       Selah
- <sup>4</sup> Look, God is my helper;
the Lord is the sustainer of my life.
- <sup>5</sup> He will repay the evil of my enemies;
destroy them in your promised faithfulness.
- <sup>6</sup> With a freewill offering will I sacrifice to you;
I will give thanks to your name, O LORD, for it is good.
- <sup>7</sup> For he has delivered me out of all trouble, and my eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

DASV: Psalm 55

For the music director, with stringed instruments, a Maskil of David

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to my prayer, O God;
do not hide yourself from my plea for mercy.
- <sup>2</sup> Pay attention to me, and answer me;
I am disturbed in my complaint,
and I am troubled,
- <sup>3</sup> because of the threats of the enemy,
because of the oppression of the wicked;
they heap trouble on me,
and in anger they persecute me.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart pounds within me;
the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
- <sup>5</sup> Fear and trembling have overcome me,
horror has overwhelmed me.
- <sup>6</sup> I said, "O that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and be at rest.
- <sup>7</sup> Then I would flee far away;
I would remain in the wilderness.                   Selah
- <sup>8</sup> I would quickly find a place of refuge from the raging gusts and wind."
- <sup>9</sup> Confuse them, O Lord, thwart their tongues, for I see violence and strife in the city.
- <sup>10</sup> Day and night they circle its walls;
trouble and distress are within it.
- <sup>11</sup> Disaster is in its midst; oppression and treachery do not leave its streets.
- <sup>12</sup> But it is not an enemy who insults me;
I could bear that;
it is not one hating me who arrogantly belittles me;
I could have hid myself from him;
- <sup>13</sup> but it was you, a person like me,
my companion and my close friend.
- <sup>14</sup> Together we shared such sweet conversation;
we walked in the house of God with the crowds.
- <sup>15</sup> Let death come suddenly upon them;
let them go down alive into the grave;

for wickedness is in their homes and in their midst.

<sup>16</sup> As for me, I will call upon God, and the LORD will save me.

<sup>17</sup> Evening, morning and noon,
I will express my complaint, and moan,
and he will hear my voice.

<sup>18</sup> He will ransom me in safety from the battle waged against me, even though many are against me.

<sup>19</sup> God who sits enthroned will hear, and humble them, Selah
because they never change, and do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup> My companion lays his hands on those who were at peace with him;
he violates his covenant promises.

<sup>21</sup> His mouth is as smooth as butter,
but his heart is at war;
his words were softer than olive oil,
but they were really drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup> Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you;
he will never allow the righteous to be moved.

<sup>23</sup> But you, O God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction;
the bloodthirsty and deceitful will not live out half their days.

But I will trust in you.

DASV: Psalm 56

For the music director, according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths, a Miktam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath

- <sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, for people are trampling on me;
    all day long the one attacking oppresses me.
- <sup>2</sup> My enemies trample me all day long;
    for there are many attacking me, O Exalted One.
- <sup>3</sup> When I am afraid,
    I put my trust in you.
- <sup>4</sup> In God, I will praise his word,
    in God, I put my trust.
    I will not be afraid.
    What can flesh do to me?
- <sup>5</sup> All day long they twist my words;
    all their plotting is to harm me.
- <sup>6</sup> They stalk and hide in ambush;
    they mark my steps,
    expectantly waiting to take my life.
- <sup>7</sup> Because of their wickedness do not let them escape;
    in anger cast down these peoples, O God.
- <sup>8</sup> You keep track of my wanderings;
    you put my tears into your bottle.
    Are not they recorded in your scroll?
- <sup>9</sup> Then my enemies will turn back in the day when I call for help;
    this I know, that God is for me.
- <sup>10</sup> In God, whose word I praise,
    in the LORD, whose word I praise.
- <sup>11</sup> In God I trust;
    I will not be afraid.
    What can mere humans do to me?
- <sup>12</sup> I will fulfill my vows to you, O God;
    I will present thank offerings to you.
- <sup>13</sup> For you have delivered my life from death;
    and my feet from stumbling,
    so that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

DASV: Psalm 57

For the music director, according to Do Not Destroy, a Miktam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave

- <sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me.
For my soul takes refuge in you;
in the shadow of your wings I take refuge, until troubles pass by.
- <sup>2</sup> I will cry to God Most High,
to God who completes his plan for me.
- <sup>3</sup> He will send from heaven and save me, putting to shame the one who would trample on me. Selah
God will send forth his loyal love and faithfulness.
- <sup>4</sup> My soul is surrounded by lions;
I lie down among those who devour humans, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and their tongue a sharp sword.
- <sup>5</sup> Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> They set a net to trap my steps;
my soul is bent over with distress.
They dug a pit in front of me;
but they have fallen into it themselves. Selah
- <sup>7</sup> My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and I will sing praises.
- <sup>8</sup> Wake up, my glory.
Wake up, O harp and lyre.
I myself will wake the dawn.
- <sup>9</sup> I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
- <sup>10</sup> For your loyal love is great unto the heavens, and your faithfulness to the skies.
- <sup>11</sup> Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
let your glory be above all the earth.

DASV: Psalm 58

For the music director, according to Do Not Destroy, a Miktam of David

- <sup>1</sup> Do you rulers really speak righteousness?
Do you judge people fairly?
- <sup>2</sup> No, in your heart you devise wickedness;
you dole out the violence of your hands on earth.
- <sup>3</sup> The wicked turn astray even from the womb;
they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
- <sup>4</sup> Their venom is like the venom of a serpent, like a deaf adder that has shut its ear,
- <sup>5</sup> which does not listen to the voice of a snake whisperer, or to a skilled snake charmer.
- <sup>6</sup> O God, break their teeth in their mouth;
rip open the jawbones of these young lions, O LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> Let them disappear like water that runs away;
let them wither like trampled grass.
- <sup>8</sup> Let them be like a snail which squishes as it moves along, like a miscarried baby which never gets to see the sun.
- <sup>9</sup> Quicker than your pots can feel heat of thorns, whether green or burning, may he be swept away.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> So that people will say,
"Surely, there is a reward for the righteous;
surely there is a God that judges on earth."

DASV: Psalm 59

For the music director, according to Do Not Destroy, a Miktam of David, when Saul ordered his house to be watched in order to kill him

- <sup>1</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
set me on high defending me from those who rise up against me.
- <sup>2</sup> Deliver me from the workers of evil,
and save me from those who shed blood.
- <sup>3</sup> Look how they lie in wait to ambush my life;
the mighty conspire against me,
but not because of my transgression or my sin, O LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> They prepare to attack me,
though I have done nothing wrong;
awake and come to my aid and see.
- <sup>5</sup> You, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, arise to punish all the nations;
have no mercy on all of these evil traitors. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> They return at evening,
they growl like a dog,
and prowl around the city.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, they belch out with their mouths;
swords are in their lips,
for they assume, "who will hear it?"
- <sup>8</sup> But you, O LORD, will laugh at them;
you will ridicule all the nations.
- <sup>9</sup> O my strength, I will watch for you,
for God is my secure refuge.
- <sup>10</sup> My God with his loyal love will meet me;
God will let me see victory over my enemies.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not just kill them or my people will forget;
make them totter by your power,
and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
- <sup>12</sup> For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips,
may they be trapped in their pride, and for cursing and lying which they have spoken.
- <sup>13</sup> Consume them in wrath;
absolutely consume them until they are no more,
and let them know that God rules in Jacob,
to the ends of the earth. Selah

- <sup>14</sup> They return at evening,
    they growl like a dog,
        and prowl around the city.
- <sup>15</sup> They will wander around for food,
    but go to sleep hungry.
- <sup>16</sup> But I will sing of your strength;
    yes, I will sing aloud of your loyal love in the morning;
    for you have been my high tower,
    and a refuge in the day of my distress.
- <sup>17</sup> Unto you, O my strength, I will sing praises;
    for God is my high tower,
        the God guaranteeing me loyal love.

DASV: Psalm 60

For the music director, according to the Lily of the Covenant, a Miktam of David, for instruction; when he fought with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and when Joab on his return struck down 12,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt

- <sup>1</sup> O God you have rejected us,
    you have broken us down,
        you have been angry;
    restore us again.
- <sup>2</sup> You have made the earth to quake;
    you have torn it open;
        seal its cracks,
    for it is shaking.
- <sup>3</sup> You have shown your people hard things;
    you have made us to drink wine causing us to stagger.
- <sup>4</sup> You have given a banner to those who fear you, that they may rally to it, out of the range of the bow.   Selah
- <sup>5</sup> Deliver your beloved;
    save by your right hand and answer us.
- <sup>6</sup> God has spoken in his sanctuary;
    "I will triumph,
    I will divide up Shechem,
        and measure out the valley of Succoth.
- <sup>7</sup> Gilead is mine,
    Manasseh is mine;
    Ephraim also is my helmet;
        Judah is my scepter.
- <sup>8</sup> Moab is my washbasin;
    I will throw my shoe at Edom;
        I will shout in triumph over Philistia."
- <sup>9</sup> Who will bring me into the fortified city?
    Who has led me to Edom?
- <sup>10</sup> Have you not abandoned us, O God?
    You no longer go out with our armies, O God.
- <sup>11</sup> Give us help against the foe,
    for human help is useless.
- <sup>12</sup> With God we will be victorious, for he will trample down our foes.

DASV: Psalm 61

For the music director, with stringed instruments, of David

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my cry, O God;
listen to my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup> From the end of the earth I will call to you,
when my heart is overwhelmed;
lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
- <sup>3</sup> For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.
- <sup>4</sup> I will dwell in your tent forever;
I will take refuge under the shelter of your wings.      Selah
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O God, have heard my vows;
you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
- <sup>6</sup> You will prolong the king's life;
his years will last for many generations.
- <sup>7</sup> May he reign before God forever;
may loyal love and faithfulness be appointed to protect him.
- <sup>8</sup> So I will sing praise to your name forever, as I daily complete my vows.

DASV: Psalm 62

For the music director, for Jeduthun, a psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> My soul waits in silence for God alone;
from him comes my salvation.
- <sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress;
I will not be shaken.
- <sup>3</sup> How long will you attack a person?
All of you will kill him,
like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence.
- <sup>4</sup> They plan to knock down a person of prominence;
they delight in lies.
They bless with their mouth,
but inwardly they curse. Selah
- <sup>5</sup> My soul waits in silence for God alone,
for my hope is from him.
- <sup>6</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress;
I will not be shaken.
- <sup>7</sup> My salvation and my honor rely upon God;
my strong rock and my refuge is in God.
- <sup>8</sup> Trust in him at all times, you people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah
- <sup>9</sup> Surely humans are but a breath, human beings are a delusion;
when weighed on the balances they tip up;
together they are lighter than breath.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not trust in oppression, or put confidence in robbery;
if your wealth increases,
do not set your heart on it.
- <sup>11</sup> Once God has spoken, twice I have heard this,
that power belongs to God.
- <sup>12</sup> Also to you, O Lord, belongs loyal love;
you repay each person according to his work.

DASV: Psalm 63

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah

- <sup>1</sup> O God, you are my God;
I long for you;
my soul thirsts for you,
my flesh craves for you,
in a dry and weary land,
where there is no water.
- <sup>2</sup> So I have gazed on you in the sanctuary, to see your power and your glory.
- <sup>3</sup> Because your loyal love is better than life,
my lips will praise you.
- <sup>4</sup> So I will bless you while I live;
I will lift up my hands in honor of your name.
- <sup>5</sup> My soul will be satisfied as with the tastiest food;
my mouth will praise you with joyful lips.
- <sup>6</sup> I remember you upon my bed,
and meditate on you in the night watches,
- <sup>7</sup> for you have been my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
- <sup>8</sup> My soul clings to you;
your right hand upholds me.
- <sup>9</sup> But those that seek to destroy my life, will descend into the depths of the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> They will be given over to the power of the sword;
they will be prey for jackals.
- <sup>11</sup> But the king will rejoice in God;
every one who swears by him will praise him,
for the mouths of liars will be shut.

DASV: Psalm 64

For the music director, a psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to my voice, O God, in my complaint; preserve my life from terror of the enemy.
- <sup>2</sup> Hide me from the secret plots of the evil,
    from the mob of evildoers;
- <sup>3</sup> who sharpen their tongues like a sword,
    and aim bitter words like their arrows,
- <sup>4</sup> that they may shoot from camouflage at the blameless;
    suddenly they shoot at him with no fear.
- <sup>5</sup> They incite themselves in their evil purpose;
    they conspire to lay secret snares;
        they boast, "Who will see them?"
- <sup>6</sup> They search for injustice;
    they claim, "We have come up with the perfect plan," for the human heart and thought are deep.
- <sup>7</sup> But God will shoot an arrow at them;
    suddenly they will be wounded.
- <sup>8</sup> Their own tongues will bring about their demise;
    all who see them will shake their heads in horror.
- <sup>9</sup> Then everyone will fear;
    they will declare what God has done,
        and wisely reflect on his mighty deeds.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous one will rejoice in the LORD, and he will take refuge in him;
        all the upright in heart will praise him.

DASV: Psalm 65

For the music director, a psalm of David, a song

- <sup>1</sup> Praise is due you, O God, in Zion;
to you vows will be completed.
- <sup>2</sup> O you who hears prayer,
to you all flesh will come.
- <sup>3</sup> When issues of sin prevail against me,
you forgive our rebellions.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the one you choose and bring near that he may dwell in your courts.
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.
- <sup>5</sup> With incredible righteous deeds you answer us,
God of our salvation;
you are the hope of all the ends of the earth and the distant seas.
- <sup>6</sup> By your strength you established the mountains, having clothed yourself with might.
- <sup>7</sup> You still the raging seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the rumble of the peoples.
- <sup>8</sup> Even those who dwell in the remotest regions are awed by your wondrous deeds;
from where the sun rises to where it sets
you cause shouts of amazement.
- <sup>9</sup> You visit the earth and water it;
you greatly enrich it.
The river of God is full of water;
you provide them with grain,
for this is the way you have ordered it.
- <sup>10</sup> You abundantly water its plowed furrows;
you level its ridges;
you soften it with showers;
you bless its sprouts.
- <sup>11</sup> You crown the year with your goodness;
your worn paths overflow with bounty.
- <sup>12</sup> The pastures of the wilderness drip;
the hills are dressed with joy.
- <sup>13</sup> The meadows are clothed with flocks;

the valleys also are covered with grain;
they shout for joy, yes they sing.

DASV: Psalm 66

For the music director, a song, a psalm

make his praise glorious.

<sup>3</sup> Say to God, "How awesome are your works!
Because of the greatness of your power your enemies cringe before you.

<sup>4</sup> All the earth worships you,
and sings praise to you;
they sing praise to your name." Selah

<sup>5</sup> Come, and see the works of God, his awesome acts on behalf of human beings.

<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land;
they crossed the river on foot;
let us rejoice there in him.

<sup>7</sup> He rules by his power forever;
his eyes observe the nations;
do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

<sup>8</sup> Bless our God, you peoples, let the voice of his praise be heard;

<sup>9</sup> who keeps us among the living, and does not allow our feet to slip.

<sup>10</sup> For you, O God, have tested us;
you have refined us as silver.

<sup>11</sup> You trapped us in your net;
you laid a heavy burden on our backs.

<sup>12</sup> You let men ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us out into a place of plenty.

<sup>13</sup> I will come into your house with burnt offerings;
I will pay you my vows,

<sup>14</sup> those my lips uttered, and my mouth pledged when I was in trouble.

<sup>15</sup> I will offer fattened animals as burnt offerings to you, with the smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats. Selah

- <sup>16</sup> Come, and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what he has done for me.
- <sup>17</sup> I cried out to him with my mouth,
and praise was on my tongue.
- <sup>18</sup> If I had harbored sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
- <sup>19</sup> But in fact, God has listened,
he has heard the voice of my prayer.
- <sup>20</sup> Praise God, who has not rejected my prayer, or removed his loyal love from me.

DASV: Psalm 67

For the music director, with stringed instruments, a psalm, a song

<sup>1</sup> May God be gracious to us, and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us;      Selah <sup>2</sup> then your way will be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

<sup>3</sup> Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
<sup>4</sup> Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity,
and govern the nations upon earth.      Selah

<sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.

<sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its produce;
God, even our God, will bless us.
<sup>7</sup> God will bless us, so that all the ends of the earth will fear him.

DASV: Psalm 68

For the music director, of David, a psalm, a song

- <sup>1</sup> Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered;
let those who hate him flee before him.
- <sup>2</sup> Blow them away like smoke, like wax melting before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- <sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be glad;
let them rejoice before God;
let them rejoice with gladness.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing to God, sing praises to his name;
exalt the one who rides on the clouds;
his name is the LORD,
and rejoice before him.
- <sup>5</sup> A father for the fatherless, and an advocate for the widows,
is God in his holy habitation.
- <sup>6</sup> God puts the lonely in families;
he brings out the prisoners to prosperity,
but the rebellious dwell in a scorched desert.
- <sup>7</sup> O God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the desert, Selah
- <sup>8</sup> the earth quaked, the heavens poured rain at the presence of God,
the God of Sinai,
at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- <sup>9</sup> You, O God, sent plentiful rain;
you refreshed your inheritance when it was weary.
- <sup>10</sup> Your creatures settled in it;
you provided your goodness for the poor, O God.
- <sup>11</sup> The Lord gives the word, and a great army proclaims the news.
- <sup>12</sup> Kings of armies flee, they flee,
while the women at home divide the spoil.
- <sup>13</sup> When you lie among the sheepfolds,
the wings of a dove are covered with silver,
her wings with glittering gold.
- <sup>14</sup> When the Almighty scattered kings there, it was like snow falling on Mount Zalmon.

- <sup>15</sup> The mighty mountain of Bashan, a mountain with many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.
- <sup>16</sup> Why do you look with envy, O many-peaked mountain, at the mountain God has desired for his abode?
Yes, the LORD will dwell there forever.
- <sup>17</sup> The countless thousands of God's chariots,
the Lord comes from Sinai into his holy place.
- <sup>18</sup> You have ascended on high;
you have led away captives;
you have received gifts from men,
even the rebellious,
now the LORD God dwells there.
- <sup>19</sup> Praise the Lord, who daily carries our burden;
God is our salvation. Selah
- <sup>20</sup> Our God is a God who delivers;
the LORD, the sovereign Lord, rescues from death.
- <sup>21</sup> But God will shatter the head of his enemies, the hairy crown of the one who walks on in his guilty way.
- <sup>22</sup> The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea,
- <sup>23</sup> so that you may trample your foot in their blood, that the tongue of your dogs may get a piece of your enemies."
- <sup>24</sup> They see your processions, O God, even the processions of my God,
my King, into the sanctuary.
- <sup>25</sup> The singers walk before,
the musicians follow behind,
in the middle the young women play the tambourines.
- <sup>26</sup> Praise God in the congregation, the Lord, in the multitude of Israel.
- <sup>27</sup> There is little Benjamin as their leader,
the princes of Judah in their throng,
the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.
- <sup>28</sup> Summon your power, O God;
show your strength, O God,
just as you did for us before.
- <sup>29</sup> Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings will bring tribute to you.
- <sup>30</sup> Rebuke the wild beasts that live in the reeds,

- the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.
Trample underfoot those who bring silver tribute;
scatter the peoples that delight in war.
- <sup>31</sup> Ambassadors will come out of Egypt;
Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands to God.
- <sup>32</sup> Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
sing praises to the Lord. Selah
- <sup>33</sup> To him who rides through the sky from ancient times;
he utters his voice, a mighty thunder.
- <sup>34</sup> Ascribe strength to God;
his majesty is over Israel,
and his power is in the skies.
- <sup>35</sup> O God, you are awesome emerging from your sanctuary;
the God of Israel, gives strength and power to his people.
Praise be to God.

DASV: Psalm 69

For the music director, according to Lilies, of David

- <sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, for the waters have reached up to my neck.
- <sup>2</sup> I sink in deep mire, where there is no solid foothold;
I am in deep waters, where the floods wash over me.
- <sup>3</sup> I am weary from crying for help;
my throat is dry;
my eyes fail from waiting for my God.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without a cause are more numerous than the hairs of my head;
those who want to deceitfully destroy me,
my enemies, are many;
I am forced to repay what I did not steal.
- <sup>5</sup> O God, you know my foolishness;
my sins are not hidden from you.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not allow those who hope in you to be put to shame because of me,
O Lord God of hosts.
Do not allow those who seek you be dishonored because of me,
O God of Israel.
- <sup>7</sup> Because for your sake I have borne insults;
shame has covered my face.
- <sup>8</sup> I am treated like a stranger by my own brothers, and an alien by my mother's children.
- <sup>9</sup> For the zeal of your house has consumed me;
the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.
- <sup>10</sup> I weep with fasting,
yet they insult me.
- <sup>11</sup> When I wear sackcloth,
I have become a standing joke to them.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who sit in the city gate slander me;
I have become the song of the drunkards.
- <sup>13</sup> But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD, hoping for a time of your favor;
O God, in the greatness of your loyal love, answer me with your faithful salvation.
- <sup>14</sup> Save me from the mire, and do let me sink;
deliver me from those who hate me,
and from the deep waters.

- <sup>15</sup> Do not allow the floods to sweep over me, or the deep to shallow me up,
or the pit to shut its mouth over me.
- <sup>16</sup> Answer me, O LORD;
your loyal love is good;
according to the greatness of your mercy, turn toward me.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not hide your face from your servant;
I am in trouble;
answer me quickly.
- <sup>18</sup> Draw near to me, and redeem me;
pay the ransom for me because of my enemies.
- <sup>19</sup> You know my reproach, my shame and my dishonor;
my foes are before your face.
- <sup>20</sup> Insults have broken my heart
so that I am in despair;
I looked for someone to show pity,
but there was no one,
for comforters,
but found none.
- <sup>21</sup> They put bitter gall in my food;
for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- <sup>22</sup> Let their dining table before them become a snare, and their prosperity become a trap.
- <sup>23</sup> Let their eyes go blind, so that they cannot see,
and make their loins shake continually.
- <sup>24</sup> Pour out your indignation on them, and let your raging anger overtake them.
- <sup>25</sup> Let their camp be desolate, with no one dwelling in their tents.
- <sup>26</sup> For they persecute him whom you have punished;
they recount the pain of those you have wounded.
- <sup>27</sup> Add punishment onto their punishment;
do not let them enter your vindication.
- <sup>28</sup> Let them be blotted out of the book of life,
and not be listed with the righteous.
- <sup>29</sup> I am oppressed and suffering;
let your salvation, O God, set me on high.
- <sup>30</sup> I will praise the name of God with song, and magnify him with thanksgiving.
- <sup>31</sup> This will please the LORD more than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hooves.

- <sup>32</sup> Let the oppressed see it and be glad;
you who seek after God, let your hearts revive.
- <sup>33</sup> For the LORD hears the needy, and does not despise his imprisoned people.
- <sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves in them.
- <sup>35</sup> For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah, his people will again live there and take possession of it.
- <sup>36</sup> The children of his servants will inherit it;
those who love his name will dwell in it.

DASV: Psalm 70

For the music director, of David, for a memorial

<sup>1</sup> O God, hurry to rescue me;
make haste to help me, O LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Let those who seek my life be ashamed and confused;
let those who delight in harming me be turned back in disgrace.

<sup>3</sup> Let those who say "Aha, he got what he deserved," be turned back by their own shame.

<sup>4</sup> Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say continually,
"God is great."

<sup>5</sup> But I am poor and needy;
hurry to help to me, O God;
You are my helper and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

DASV: Psalm 71

- <sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
- <sup>2</sup> In your righteousness deliver and rescue me;
turn your ear to me, and save me.
- <sup>3</sup> Be a rock of refuge for me,
a place I can always go;
you have given the order to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.
- <sup>4</sup> Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the clutches of the cruel and unjust.
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O Lord, are my hope;
O LORD, you have been my confidence since my childhood.
- <sup>6</sup> I have depended on you from birth;
you took me from my mother's womb;
my praise of you is continual.
- <sup>7</sup> I have become a portent to many,
but you are my strong refuge.
- <sup>8</sup> My mouth will be filled with your praise, and with your glory all day long.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not throw me aside in my old age;
do not abandon me when my strength fails.
- <sup>10</sup> For my enemies speak against me,
and those who stalk my life plot together,
- <sup>11</sup> saying, "God has forsaken him.
Pursue and seize him,
for there is no one to rescue him."
- <sup>12</sup> O God, do not stay far from me,
O my God, hurry to help me.
- <sup>13</sup> Let my accusers be put to shame and consumed;
let those who seek to harm me be covered with insults and disgrace.
- <sup>14</sup> But I will hope continually, and will praise you yet more and more.
- <sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell of your righteousness, and of your salvation all day long,
though I cannot fathom its totality.
- <sup>16</sup> I will come proclaiming your mighty deeds, O Lord God;

- I will recount your righteousness, yours alone.
- <sup>17</sup> O God, you have taught me from my youth;
I am still declaring your wonderful works.
- <sup>18</sup> Yes, even when I am old and grayheaded, O God,
do not abandon me,
until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your power to everyone who is to come.
- <sup>19</sup> Your righteousness, O God, reaches the skies.
You have done great things, O God, who is like to you?
- <sup>20</sup> You, who have made me see many troubles and much distress, but you will revive and bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
- <sup>21</sup> You will increase my greatness and surround me with compassion.
- <sup>22</sup> I will also praise you with the harp, for your faithfulness, O my God;
to you I will sing praises with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you,
and my soul also, which you have ransomed.
- <sup>24</sup> My tongue will tell of your righteousness all day long;
for they are put to shame,
for they are confused,
who sought to harm me.

DASV: Psalm 72

Of Solomon

- <sup>1</sup> Give to the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son.
- <sup>2</sup> May he judge your people with righteousness, and your oppressed with justice.
- <sup>3</sup> May the mountains bring peace to the people;
and the hills bring righteousness.
- <sup>4</sup> May he defend the poor of the people, may he save the children of the needy,
and crush the oppressor.
- <sup>5</sup> May they fear you as long as the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
- <sup>6</sup> May the king's reign descend like rain on mown grass, like showers that water the earth.
- <sup>7</sup> In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace increase until the moon is no more.
- <sup>8</sup> May he have dominion also from sea to sea,
and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
- <sup>9</sup> May those who dwell in the wilderness bow before him, and his enemies lick the dust.
- <sup>10</sup> May the kings of Tarshish and distant regions render him tribute;
the kings of Sheba and Seba offer him gifts.
- <sup>11</sup> May all kings fall down before him,
all nations serve him.
- <sup>12</sup> For he delivers the needy when they cry for help, and the poor who have no helper.
- <sup>13</sup> He will have pity on the poor and needy, and he will save the lives of the needy.
- <sup>14</sup> He will redeem them from oppression and violence, and their blood will be precious in his sight.
- <sup>15</sup> May he live long;
may he be given the gold of Sheba.
May they pray for him continually, and bless him all day long.
- <sup>16</sup> May there be abundance of grain in the land;
may it wave on the top of the mountains;

- may its fruit trees flourish like those of Lebanon.
May the people of the city increase like grass of the earth.
- <sup>17</sup> May his name endure forever;
may his name last as long as the sun.
May all nations be blessed through him;
may they regard him as blessed.
- <sup>18</sup> Praise be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does such awesome deeds.
- <sup>19</sup> Blessed be his glorious name forever;
may the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen.
- <sup>20</sup> The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK III: Psalms 73-89*DASV: Psalm 73A psalm of Asaph*

- <sup>1</sup> Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
- <sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my steps almost slid out from under me.
- <sup>3</sup> For I was envious of the proud,
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- <sup>4</sup> For they have no pains, their bodies are strong and healthy.
- <sup>5</sup> They do not have trouble like other people;
neither do they suffer like others do.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore pride is their necklace;
violence covers them as a garment.
- <sup>7</sup> Their eyes bulge from fatness;
they have more than their heart could wish for.
- <sup>8</sup> They scoff and speak with malice;
they arrogantly speak about oppression.
- <sup>9</sup> Their mouth boasts against the heavens, and their tongue parades through the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Therefore the people turn to them,
and drink full of their words.
- <sup>11</sup> They ask, "Does God really know?
Is the Most High really aware?"
- <sup>12</sup> Look, these are the wicked, always at ease as they increase in wealth.
- <sup>13</sup> Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure, and washed my hands in innocence.
- <sup>14</sup> For all day long I suffer;
I'm punished every morning.
- <sup>15</sup> If I had said, "I will speak like this;"
I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
- <sup>16</sup> When I tried to figure this out,
it was too troubling to me;
- <sup>17</sup> until I went into the sanctuary of God,
then I understood the fate of the wicked.
- <sup>18</sup> Surely you set them in slippery places;

you make them fall down into destruction.

<sup>19</sup> How they are destroyed in a moment, totally swept away by terrors.

<sup>20</sup> As a dream when one awakes,
O Lord, when you wake you will despise them as fleeting images.

<sup>21</sup> When my soul was grieved, and I was pricked in my heart,

<sup>22</sup> I was stupid and ignorant;
I was like an irrational beast before you.

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, I am continually with you;
you hold my right hand.

<sup>24</sup> You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

<sup>25</sup> Whom do I have in heaven but you?
There is nothing on earth that I desire besides you.

<sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

<sup>27</sup> For those who are far from you will perish;
you destroy everyone who is unfaithful to you.

<sup>28</sup> But it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have made the Lord God my refuge, that I may recount all your works.

DASV: Psalm 74A Maskil of Asaph*

- <sup>1</sup> O God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
- <sup>2</sup> Remember your congregation, which you have acquired long ago, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance, and Mount Zion, where you dwell.
- <sup>3</sup> Turn your steps to the perpetual heap of rubble, all the damage that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
- <sup>4</sup> Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly place;
there they have set up their battle streamers.
- <sup>5</sup> They seemed like those who swing axes in a thicket of trees.
- <sup>6</sup> Now they have torn down all its carved work with hatchets and hammers.
- <sup>7</sup> They have set your sanctuary on fire;
they have profaned the dwelling place of your name
by throwing it to the ground.
- <sup>8</sup> They said to themselves,
"Let us totally crush them."
They have burned up all of God's meeting places in the land.
- <sup>9</sup> We do not see any signs of deliverance;
there are no more prophets;
neither is there anyone among us who knows how long it will last.
- <sup>10</sup> How long, O God, will the adversary insult you?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
- <sup>11</sup> Why do you withhold your hand, even your right hand?
Pull it out of your pocket and destroy them.
- <sup>12</sup> Yet God is my King from ages past, working salvation in the earth.
- <sup>13</sup> You divided the sea by your strength;
you broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
- <sup>14</sup> You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces;
you gave him as food for the desert animals.
- <sup>15</sup> You split open the springs and streams;
you dried up perpetual rivers.
- <sup>16</sup> Both day and night are yours;
you have fixed the sun and moon in place.

- <sup>17</sup> You have set all the boundaries of the earth;
you made summer and winter.
- <sup>18</sup> Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy insulted you,
and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not deliver the life of your turtledove to the wild beasts;
do not forget the life of your oppressed forever.
- <sup>20</sup> Have respect for the covenant, for the dark places of the earth are full of the dwellings of violence.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not let the oppressed return ashamed;
let the poor and needy praise your name.
- <sup>22</sup> Arise, O God, plead your own cause;
remember how the fools have insulted you all day long.
- <sup>23</sup> Do not forget the sneers of your adversaries, the uproar of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

DASV: Psalm 75

For the music director, according to Do Not Destroy, a psalm of Asaph, a song

- <sup>1</sup> We give thanks to you, O God;
    we give thanks, for your name is near;
        people tell of your wondrous works.
- <sup>2</sup> God says, "At the set time, I will judge with equity.
- <sup>3</sup> The earth and all its inhabitants quake;
    I have set up its pillars securely.   Selah
- <sup>4</sup> I said to the boastful,
    'Do not boast;
    and to the wicked,
        'Do lift not up your horns.
- <sup>5</sup> do not lift up your horn on high;
    do not speak with a haughty neck."
- <sup>6</sup> For not from the east, or from the west,
    or from the wilderness,
    comes lifting up in success.
- <sup>7</sup> But God is the judge.
    He puts down one,
        and lifts up another.
- <sup>8</sup> For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup with foaming wine;
    it is mixed with spices;
    when he pours it out,
        all the wicked of the earth will drink it down to the dregs.
- <sup>9</sup> But as for me, I will declare it forever;
    I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>10</sup> God says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up."

DASV: Psalm 76

For the music director, with stringed instruments, a psalm of Asaph, a song

- <sup>1</sup> In Judah is God known;
his name is great in Israel.
- <sup>2</sup> In Salem is his abode, and his dwelling place in Zion.
- <sup>3</sup> There he broke the flaming arrows, the shield,
the sword and weapons of war. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> You are glorious, more majestic than the mountains covered with prey.
- <sup>5</sup> The valiant of heart were plundered;
they have fallen into their sleep;
none of the warriors was able to lift a hand.
- <sup>6</sup> At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both chariot and horse lay still.
- <sup>7</sup> You yourself are to be feared.
Who can stand before you once your anger is roused?
- <sup>8</sup> From heaven your judgment was heard.
The earth feared and was silent
- <sup>9</sup> when God arose for judgment, to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah
- <sup>10</sup> Surely your wrath upon men will praise you;
with the remnant of wrath you gird yourself.
- <sup>11</sup> Make vows to the LORD your God and keep them;
let all who are around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.
- <sup>12</sup> He will cut off the spirit of princes;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

DASV: Psalm 77

For the music director, according to Jeduthun, of Asaph, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> I cry out to God,
I cry out to God,
that he would listen to me.
- <sup>2</sup> In the day of my trouble, I sought the Lord;
my hand was stretched out throughout the night without going numb;
my soul refused to be comforted.
- <sup>3</sup> I remember God, contemplate and meditate until my spirit grows faint. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> You keep my eyelids from closing;
I am so troubled I cannot speak.
- <sup>5</sup> I contemplate the days of old,
the years of ancient times.
- <sup>6</sup> I remember my song in the night;
I meditate within my own heart,
and search deep into my own spirit.
- <sup>7</sup> Will the Lord reject me forever?
Will he never again be favorable?
- <sup>8</sup> Is his loyal love gone forever?
Has his promise failed from generation to generation?
- <sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has he in anger withdrawn his compassion? Selah
- <sup>10</sup> Then I concluded, "This thought pierces me that the favor of the right hand of the Most High has changed."
- <sup>11</sup> I will remember the deeds of the LORD;
yes, I will remember your wonders of old.
- <sup>12</sup> I will meditate on all your work,
and muse on your deeds.
- <sup>13</sup> Your way, O God, is holy;
who is a great god like our God?
- <sup>14</sup> You are the God who does wonders;
you make known your power among the peoples.
- <sup>15</sup> With your strong arm you redeemed your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

- <sup>16</sup> The waters saw you, O God;
the waters saw you, they were afraid;
even the depths of the sea trembled.
- <sup>17</sup> The clouds poured down rain;
the dark clouds thundered;
your arrows flashed all around.
- <sup>18</sup> The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
the lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.
- <sup>19</sup> Your way was through the sea,
and your paths through the great waters,
though your footprints could not be detected.
- <sup>20</sup> You led your people like a flock,
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

DASV: Psalm 78A Maskil of Asaph*

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my instruction, O my people; incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>2</sup> I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter insightful secrets from the past,
- <sup>3</sup> which we have heard and known,
and our fathers have told us about.
- <sup>4</sup> We will not hide them from their children.
We will tell the next generation of the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his power and wondrous works that he has done.
- <sup>5</sup> For he established a testimony in Jacob,
and appointed a law in Israel.
He commanded our fathers,
that they should teach them to their children,
- <sup>6</sup> so that the next generation might know them,
even the children not yet born,
who should rise and tell them to their children.
- <sup>7</sup> Then they will set their hope in God and not forget the works of God,
but keep his commandments,
- <sup>8</sup> so that they might not be like their forefathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose heart was not committed,
and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
- <sup>9</sup> The Ephraimites were armed with bows,
but they turned back in the day of battle.
- <sup>10</sup> They did not keep the covenant of God, and refused to walk according to his law;
- <sup>11</sup> they forgot his doings,
and his wondrous works that he had shown them.
- <sup>12</sup> He performed wonders in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- <sup>13</sup> He split the sea, and caused them to pass through;
he made the waters to stand in a heap.
- <sup>14</sup> In the daytime he led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire.
- <sup>15</sup> He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as the ocean depths.
- <sup>16</sup> He brought streams out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

- 17 Yet they still continued to sin against him, to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
- 18 They tested God in their heart by demanding food to satisfy their appetite.
- 19 They spoke against God;
They said, "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?"
- 20 Yes, he struck a rock so that waters gushed out,
and streams overflowed.
Can he also give bread?
Can he provide meat for his people?"
- 21 When the LORD heard it, he was enraged;
a fire was kindled against Jacob,
and anger flared up against Israel,
- 22 because they did not believe in God,
and did not trust in his salvation.
- 23 Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;
- 24 he rained down manna for them to eat,
and gave them grain from heaven.
- 25 Humans ate the bread of the angels;
he sent them food until they were full.
- 26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens;
by his power he guided the south wind.
- 27 He rained meat on them as the dust, and winged birds as numerous as the sand of the seas;
- 28 he had them fall in the middle of their camp,
all around their tents.
- 29 They ate until they were gorged;
he gave them what they craved.
- 30 While they had not yet satisfied their craving, while their food was still in their mouths,
- 31 the anger of God rose up against them,
and slew the strongest of them,
and struck down the young men of Israel.
- 32 In spite of all this, they continued sinning, and did not believe in his wondrous works.
- 33 So he made their days vanish like a vapor and their years in terror.
- 34 When he slew them, then they sought after him, and repented and desired God.
- 35 They remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God was their redeemer.

36 But they flattered him with their mouths,
and lied to him with their tongues.
37 For their heart was not committed to him,
nor were they faithful to his covenant.
38 Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them;
many times he held back his anger,
and did not stir up all his wrath.
39 He remembered that they were but flesh,
a breeze that blows by never to return.

40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!
41 They turned again and tested God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember his powerful hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the enemy;
43 when he performed his miraculous signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the fields of Zoan.
44 He turned their rivers into blood, so that they could not drink from their streams.
45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which bit them;
and frogs, which ruined them.
46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar, and the produce of their toil to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
and their sycamore-fig trees with frost.
48 He rained hail on their cattle, and shot thunderbolts on their flocks.
49 He unleashed his fierce anger on them, wrath, indignation and trouble,
as messengers of disaster.
50 He made a path for his anger;
he did not spare them from death,
but gave their life over to the plague.
51 He struck down all the firstborn in Egypt,
the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52 Then he led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 He kept them safe, so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54 He brought them to the border of his holy land, to this mountain which his right hand had won.

55 He drove out the nations before them,
and allotted them for an inheritance by lot,
and made the tribes of Israel to settle in their tents.

56 Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God.
They did not keep his decrees, 57 but turned back and acted treacherously like their forefathers had,
as unreliable as a defective bow.
58 They provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their idols.
59 When God heard this, he got angry, and totally rejected Israel.
60 He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
the tent where he settled among humans.
61 He delivered the ark of his power into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.
62 He gave his people over to the sword, and was angry with his inheritance.
63 Fire devoured their young men;
their young women had no wedding songs.
64 Their priests fell by the sword;
their widows did not grieve.

65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a warrior in a drunken rage.
66 He drove his adversaries back;
he put them to perpetual shame.
67 He rejected the tent of Joseph, and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, 68 but he chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which he loved.
69 He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth he founded it forever.
70 He chose his servant David,
and took him from the sheepfolds;
71 from following mother sheep with their young,
he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob,
and his inheritance Israel.
72 He cared for them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them with skillful hands.

DASV: Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance;
they have defiled your holy temple;
they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.
- <sup>2</sup> The bodies of your servants they have given to the birds of the air for food, the flesh of your faithful to the beasts of the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.
- <sup>4</sup> We have become a mockery to our neighbors,
a scoffing and derision to those around us.
- <sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD?
Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy burn like fire?
- <sup>6</sup> Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you,
and on the kingdoms that call not on your name.
- <sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob,
and laid waste his dwelling.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not hold the sins of our forefathers against us;
let your compassion quickly come to us,
for we are brought very low.
- <sup>9</sup> Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; deliver us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.
- <sup>10</sup> Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"
Before our eyes avenge the blood of your servants which was shed,
let it be known among the nations.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the groans of the prisoner come before you;
according to the greatness of your power spare those who are appointed to death.
- <sup>12</sup> Repay our neighbors sevenfold into their lap;
insult them the way they have insulted you, O Lord.
- <sup>13</sup> So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will give you thanks forever,
from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

DASV: Psalm 80

For the music director, according to Lilies, a covenant, of Asaph, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock;
        you who sit enthroned above the cherubim, shine forth.
- <sup>2</sup> Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might,
        come to save us.
- <sup>3</sup> Restore us, O God;
    let your face shine,
        and we will be saved.
- <sup>4</sup> O LORD God of hosts, how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
- <sup>5</sup> You have fed them with the bread of tears,
    and given them tears to drink by the gallon.
- <sup>6</sup> You make our neighbors quarrel with us;
    our enemies laugh at us.
- <sup>7</sup> Restore us, O God of hosts;
    let your face shine,
        and we will be saved.
- <sup>8</sup> You brought a vine out of Egypt;
    you drove out the nations,
        and planted it.
- <sup>9</sup> You prepared ground for it,
    and it took deep root,
        and filled the land.
- <sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered with its shadow, and its branches were like mighty cedars.
- <sup>11</sup> It spread its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the Euphrates River.
- <sup>12</sup> Why have you broken down its walls,
    so that all who pass by on the path pluck its fruit?
- <sup>13</sup> The forest boars ravage it,
    and the wild beasts of the field feed on it.
- <sup>14</sup> Turn back, O God of hosts;
    look down from heaven and see,
        and tend to this vine,
- <sup>15</sup> the stock which your right hand planted, your son whom you made strong for yourself.

- <sup>16</sup> It is cut down,
it is burned with fire;
they perish at the frown of your face.
- <sup>17</sup> Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, upon the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
- <sup>18</sup> Then we will never turn away from you;
revive us and we will call on your name.
- <sup>19</sup> Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
let your face shine,
and we will be saved.

DASV: Psalm 81

For the music director, according to the Gittith, of Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> Sing with joy to God our strength;
shout aloud to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> Raise a song,
and play the tambourine,
the melodic lyre with the harp.
- <sup>3</sup> Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
at the full moon, on the day of our feast.
- <sup>4</sup> For it is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> He appointed it to Joseph as a regulation
when he went out through the land of Egypt, there I heard a voice that I did not recognize.
- <sup>6</sup> "I removed the burden from his shoulder;
his hands were freed from the basket.
- <sup>7</sup> When you were in trouble you called, and I delivered you;
I answered you from the dark thundercloud;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
- <sup>8</sup> Hear, O my people, while I give you a warning;
O Israel, if you would just listen to me!
- <sup>9</sup> No strange god should be among you;
do not worship any foreign god.
- <sup>10</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt;
open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- <sup>11</sup> But my people did not listen to my voice, and Israel refused to submit to me.
- <sup>12</sup> So I gave them over to their own stubborn hearts,
so that they would walk in their own plans.
- <sup>13</sup> O that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!
- <sup>14</sup> Then I would have quickly subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.
- <sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him;
their doomed destiny would endure forever.
- <sup>16</sup> But I would feed you with the finest of the wheat;
with honey out of the rock I would satisfy you.

DASV: Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> God stands in the divine council;
he renders justice among the heavenly beings.
- <sup>2</sup> Saying, "How long will you judge unjustly, and favor the wicked? Selah
- <sup>3</sup> Defend the poor and orphan;
give justice to the oppressed and destitute.
- <sup>4</sup> Rescue the poor and needy;
deliver them from the hand of the wicked.
- <sup>5</sup> They do not know or understand;
they walk around in darkness;
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- <sup>6</sup> I said, 'You are gods,
all of you are sons of the Most High.
- <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless you will die like men, and fall just like other rulers.'"
- <sup>8</sup> Arise, O God, judge the earth,
for all nations belong to you.

DASV: Psalm 83

A song, a psalm of Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> O God, do not stay silent;
do not hold your peace or be still, O God.
- <sup>2</sup> For see what a commotion your enemies are making,
and those who hate you have cocked their heads.
- <sup>3</sup> They plot crafty plans against your people, and collude against those you cherish.
- <sup>4</sup> They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more."
- <sup>5</sup> For they conspire together with one mind;
they make a pack against you--
- <sup>6</sup> the tents of Edom and Ishmaelites, Moab, and the Hagrites,
- <sup>7</sup> Gebal, Ammon and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.
- <sup>8</sup> Assyria also has joined them;
they have aided the children of Lot.      Selah
- <sup>9</sup> Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and Jabin by the Kishon River, <sup>10</sup> who perished at Endor, who became like manure for the soil.
- <sup>11</sup> Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna;
<sup>12</sup> who said, "Let us take the pastures of God for our possession."
- <sup>13</sup> O my God, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff blown away by the wind.
- <sup>14</sup> Like the fire that burns down a forest and like the flame that ignites the mountains with fire, <sup>15</sup> pursue them with your storm, terrify them with your tempest.
- <sup>16</sup> Fill their faces with shame,
so that they may seek your name, O LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever;
let them be humiliated and perish.
- <sup>18</sup> Let them know that you alone,
whose name is the LORD,
are the Most High over all the earth.

DASV: Psalm 84

For the music director, according to the Gittith, of the Sons of Korah, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts!
- <sup>2</sup> My soul longs, yes, even faints for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh cry out to the living God.
- <sup>3</sup> Even, the sparrow has found her house,
and the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young, by your altars,
O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed are those who live in your house, continually singing your praise. Selah
- <sup>5</sup> Blessed is the one whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the paths of pilgrimage to Zion.
- <sup>6</sup> Passing through the valley of Bacca, they make it a place of springs;
the early rains of autumn cover it with pools.
- <sup>7</sup> They go from strong to stronger;
every one of them appears before God in Zion.
- <sup>8</sup> O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah
- <sup>9</sup> Look favorably, O God, our shield, and look on the face of your anointed one.
- <sup>10</sup> For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
- <sup>11</sup> For the LORD God is a sun and a shield;
he gives grace and glory;
no good thing will the LORD withhold from those who walk with integrity.
- <sup>12</sup> O LORD of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you.

DASV: Psalm 85

For the music director, of the Sons of Korah, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, you have been favorable to your land;
you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> You have forgiven the iniquity of your people;
you have covered all their sin. Selah
- <sup>3</sup> You have withdrawn all your wrath;
you have turned from the fierceness of your fury.
- <sup>4</sup> Restore us, O God of our salvation, and put away your rage against us.
- <sup>5</sup> Will you be angry with us forever?
Will your anger continue to all generations?
- <sup>6</sup> Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?
- <sup>7</sup> Show us your loyal love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.
- <sup>8</sup> I will listen to what God the LORD will speak;
he will speak peace to his people, and to his faithful ones;
they must not turn back to folly.
- <sup>9</sup> Surely his salvation is near those who fear him,
that glory may dwell in our land.
- <sup>10</sup> Loyal love and truth have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed.
- <sup>11</sup> Truth springs out of the earth;
righteousness looks down from heaven.
- <sup>12</sup> Yes, the LORD will give that which is good;
our land will yield its increase.
- <sup>13</sup> Righteousness will go before him,
and prepare a path for his steps.

DASV: Psalm 86

A prayer of David

- <sup>1</sup> Bend down your ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.
- <sup>2</sup> Protect my life, for I am loyal to you;
you who are my God,
save your servant who trusts in you.
- <sup>3</sup> Have mercy on me, O Lord,
for I cry out to you all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> Make the soul of your servant glad,
for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abundant in loyal love to all those who call on you.
- <sup>6</sup> Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
listen to the voice of my cry for help.
- <sup>7</sup> In the day of my trouble I will call upon you,
for you will answer me.
- <sup>8</sup> There is no one like you among the gods, O Lord;
nor can any match your magnificent deeds.
- <sup>9</sup> All nations whom you made will come and worship before you, O Lord;
they will glorify your name.
- <sup>10</sup> For you are great, and do wondrous works;
you are God alone.

- <sup>11</sup> Teach me your way, O LORD,
so that I may walk in your truth;
grant me a focused heart to fear your name.
- <sup>12</sup> I will praise you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;
I will glorify your name forever.
- <sup>13</sup> For great is your loyal love toward me;
you have delivered my life from the depths of Sheol.
- <sup>14</sup> O God, the arrogant are risen up against me,
and a gang of violent men have sought my life;
there is no respect of you before them.
- <sup>15</sup> But you, O Lord, are a God of compassion and grace, slow to anger, abundant in loyal love and faithfulness.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn to me and have mercy on me;
give your strength to your servant,
and save the son of your handmaid.
- <sup>17</sup> Show me a sign of your goodness, so that those who hate me may see it and be put to shame, because you, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

DASV: Psalm 87

A psalm of the sons of Korah, a song

- <sup>1</sup> He has laid the foundations of his city on the holy mountains.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
- <sup>3</sup> Glorious things are spoken about you, O city of God. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> I will remind Egypt and Babylon-- as those who have known me, Philistia, Tyre, along with Ethiopia:
"This one was born there."
- <sup>5</sup> Yes, of Zion it will be said,
"This one and that one was born in her;"
the Most High himself will establish her.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD will write when he takes a census of the peoples,
"This one was born there." Selah
- <sup>7</sup> Those who sing and dance will exclaim,
"All my springs of delight are in you."

DASV: Psalm 88

A song, a psalm of the Korahites, for the music director, according to Mahalath Leannoth, a Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, the God of my salvation, by day I cry out and by night I come before you.
- <sup>2</sup> Let my prayer come before you;
incline your ear to my cry.
- <sup>3</sup> For my soul is full of troubles,
and my life draws near to the grave.
- <sup>4</sup> I am counted with those who go down into the pit;
I am as a person who has no strength,
- <sup>5</sup> abandoned among the dead,
like the slain that lie in the grave,
whom you remember no more,
they are cut off from your hand.
- <sup>6</sup> You have laid me in the bottom of the pit,
in darkness of the depths.
- <sup>7</sup> Your wrath presses hard on me,
you have afflicted me with all your waves. Selah
- <sup>8</sup> You have moved those who know me far away;
you have made me revolting to them;
I am closed in and cannot get out.
- <sup>9</sup> My eyes grow blurry from grief;
I have called daily on you, O LORD;
I have spread out my hands to you.
- <sup>10</sup> Will you perform wonders for the dead?
Will the departed spirits rise up and praise you? Selah
- <sup>11</sup> Will your loyal love be recorded in the grave, or your faithfulness in the place of Destruction?
- <sup>12</sup> Are your wonders known in the regions of darkness, your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
- <sup>13</sup> But to you, O LORD, I cry out;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
- <sup>14</sup> O LORD, why do you throw away my life?
Why do you hide your face from me?
- <sup>15</sup> I am oppressed and near death from my youth up;
I suffer your terrors yet I am helpless.
- <sup>16</sup> Your fierce wrath has swept over me;

your terrors have put an end to me.

<sup>17</sup> They encircle me like water all day long;
they have totally engulfed me.

<sup>18</sup> Both lover and friend you have moved far from me, with darkness as my closest friend.

DASV: Psalm 89

A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of the loyal love of the LORD forever;
with my mouth will I make known your faithfulness to all generations.
- <sup>2</sup> For I said, "Loyal love is built to last forever;
in the heavens you established your faithfulness."
- <sup>3</sup> For the LORD said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have made a promise to David my servant.
- <sup>4</sup> Your descendants I will establish forever, and build your throne to last for all generations." Selah
- <sup>5</sup> The heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones.
- <sup>6</sup> For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD?
- <sup>7</sup> God is greatly revered in the council of the holy ones, more awesome than all those who surround him.
- <sup>8</sup> O LORD God of hosts, who is a mighty one, like you, O LORD?
Your faithfulness surrounds you.
- <sup>9</sup> You rule the swelling of the sea;
when its waves surge, you calm them.
- <sup>10</sup> You crushed Rahab as one who is slain;
you have scattered your enemies with your strong arm.
- <sup>11</sup> The heavens are yours, the earth is also yours;
the world and everything in it, you founded it all.
- <sup>12</sup> The north and the south, you have created them;
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
- <sup>13</sup> You have a mighty arm; strong is your hand,
and high is your right hand.
- <sup>14</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
loyal love and faithfulness go before your face.
- <sup>15</sup> Blessed is the people that know the joyful shout, those who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face.
- <sup>16</sup> In your name they rejoice all day;
in your righteousness they are exalted.
- <sup>17</sup> For you are the glory of their strength;
through your favor our horn is exalted.
- <sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to the LORD;
our king to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> Then you spoke in a vision to your devoted ones, you declared, "I give help to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen among the people.

<sup>20</sup> I have found David my servant;
with my holy oil I have anointed him.

<sup>21</sup> My hand will establish him;
my arm also will strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup> The enemy will not exact tribute from him;
the wicked will not oppress him.

<sup>23</sup> I will crush his adversaries before him, and strike down the ones who hate him.

<sup>24</sup> But my faithfulness and my loyal love will be with him;
in my name his horn will be exalted.

<sup>25</sup> I will set his hand over the sea, and his right hand over the rivers.

<sup>26</sup> He will cry out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'

<sup>27</sup> I also will make him my firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.

<sup>28</sup> I will retain my loyal love for him forever;
my covenant with him will never cease.

<sup>29</sup> His descendants I will make to last forever, and his throne as long as the days of heaven.

<sup>30</sup> If his children forsake my law,
and refuse to walk in my regulations;

<sup>31</sup> if they break my statutes, and do not keep my commands;

<sup>32</sup> then I will visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with lashes.

<sup>33</sup> But your loyal love I will not totally remove from him, or betray my faithful promise.

<sup>34</sup> I will not break my covenant, or alter the promise that has gone out of my lips.

<sup>35</sup> Once and for all I have promised by my holiness;
I will not lie to David.

<sup>36</sup> His descendants will endure forever,
and his throne as the sun before me.

<sup>37</sup> It will be established forever as the moon, and as the faithful witness in the sky."

Selah

<sup>38</sup> But you have abandoned and rejected him;

- you are furious with your anointed one.
- <sup>39</sup> You have abhorred the covenant of your servant;
you have defiled his crown in the dirt.
- <sup>40</sup> You have broken down all his hedges;
you have brought down his strongholds to ruins.
- <sup>41</sup> All who pass by the way plunder him;
he has become a laughingstock to his neighbors.
- <sup>42</sup> You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
you have made all his enemies rejoice.
- <sup>43</sup> Yes, you turned back the edge of his sword, and have not made him victorious in the battle.
- <sup>44</sup> You have made his splendor to cease, and have thrown down his throne to the ground.
- <sup>45</sup> The days of his youth you have cut short;
you have covered him with shame. Selah
- <sup>46</sup> How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself, forever?
How long will your wrath burn like fire?
- <sup>47</sup> Remember how brief my life is;
for what emptiness you have created all human beings!
- <sup>48</sup> What person is there that will live and not experience death?
Who can deliver his own life from the power of Sheol? Selah
- <sup>49</sup> Lord, where is your former loyal love, which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
- <sup>50</sup> Remember, Lord, the disgrace of your servants, how I bear in my heart the insults of so many peoples,
- <sup>51</sup> by which your enemies have insulted, O LORD, by which they have insulted the footsteps of your anointed one.
- <sup>52</sup> Praise be the LORD forever.
Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV: Psalms 90-106*DASV: Psalm 90

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, you have been our dwelling place through all generations.
- <sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were brought forth, before you formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
- <sup>3</sup> You turn people back into dust, and order, "Turn back into dust, O human beings."
- <sup>4</sup> For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or like a brief shift in the night.
- <sup>5</sup> You fade them away like a dream that disappears.
They are like grass which sprouts in the morning;
- <sup>6</sup> in the morning it flourishes and grows;
in the evening it dries up and withers away.
- <sup>7</sup> We are consumed by your anger, and overwhelmed by your wrath.
- <sup>8</sup> You have laid out our iniquities before you, our secret sins are exposed by the light of your face.
- <sup>9</sup> For all our days pass under your wrath;
we finish our years with a sigh.
- <sup>10</sup> The days of our life are seventy years, or possibly by reason of strength eighty years;
yet even at their best they are but toil and trouble;
for they are soon gone, and we fly away.
- <sup>11</sup> Who really knows the power of your anger?
Your wrath is suited for the fear that is due to you.
- <sup>12</sup> So teach us to number our days,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
- <sup>13</sup> Return, O LORD.
How long?
Have pity on your servants.
- <sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with your loyal love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
- <sup>15</sup> Make us happy in proportion to the days you have afflicted us, and for the years wherein we have seen trouble.
- <sup>16</sup> Let your mighty deeds be seen by your servants, and your glorious power by their children.

<sup>17</sup> Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us, and prosper the work of our hands for us;
yes, the work of our hands make it prosper.

DASV: Psalm 91

- <sup>1</sup> He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
- <sup>2</sup> I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
- <sup>3</sup> For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.
- <sup>4</sup> He will cover you with his wings, and under his wings you will take refuge;
his truth is a shield and a protective wall.
- <sup>5</sup> You will not be afraid of the terror by night, or of the arrow that flies by day, <sup>6</sup> of the pestilence that comes in darkness, or of the destruction that ravages at noon.
- <sup>7</sup> A thousand will fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
- <sup>8</sup> You will look on it with your own eyes, and see the punishment of the wicked.
- <sup>9</sup> For you, O LORD, are my refuge!
You have made the Most High your shelter;
- <sup>10</sup> no evil will happen to you,
nor will any plague come near your tent.
- <sup>11</sup> For he will order his angels concerning you,
to keep you in all your ways.
- <sup>12</sup> They will pick you up in their hands,
so that you do not dash your foot against a stone.
- <sup>13</sup> You will tread upon a lion and snake;
a young lion and serpent you will trample under foot.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD says, "Because he has fixed his love on me,
I will rescue him;
I will protect him on high,
because he was loyal to my name.
- <sup>15</sup> He will call on me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver and honor him.
- <sup>16</sup> I will satisfy him with long life,
and show him my salvation."

DASV: Psalm 92

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath

- <sup>1</sup> It is a good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High, <sup>2</sup> to show forth your loyal love in the morning, your faithfulness at night, <sup>3</sup> with a ten-stringed harp,
and the melody of a lyre.
- <sup>4</sup> For you, O LORD, have made me glad through your work;
I will sing for joy because of the works of your hands.
<sup>5</sup> How great are your works, O LORD!
Your thoughts are very deep.
- <sup>6</sup> A brutish person cannot know, nor does a fool understand this,
<sup>7</sup> when the wicked spring up as the grass, and when all the evildoers flourish;
it is so they may be destroyed forever.
- <sup>8</sup> But you, O LORD, are exalted forever.
- <sup>9</sup> For your enemies, O LORD, will perish;
all the evildoers will be scattered.
- <sup>10</sup> But my horn you have exalted like the horn of a wild ox;
I am anointed with fresh oil.
- <sup>11</sup> My eyes have seen the demise of my enemies;
my ears have heard the fall of the evil-doers who have risen against me.
- <sup>12</sup> The righteous will flourish like a palm tree;
he will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
- <sup>13</sup> They are planted in the house of the LORD;
they flourish in the courts of our God.
- <sup>14</sup> They will still bring forth fruit in old age;
they will be full of sap and stay green,
- <sup>15</sup> to declare that the LORD is upright;
he is my rock, and there is no injustice in him.

DASV: Psalm 93

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns;
    he is robed with majesty;
    the LORD is clothed with strength;
    the world is established so it cannot be moved.
- <sup>2</sup> Your throne is established from of old;
    you are from everlasting.
- <sup>3</sup> The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
    the floods have lifted up their voice;
    the floods lift up their waves.
- <sup>4</sup> More powerful than the rumble of many waters, than the mighty breakers of the sea,
    the LORD on high is mighty.
- <sup>5</sup> Your testimonies are very sure;
    holiness befits your house, O LORD, for perpetual days.

DASV: Psalm 94

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, God of vengeance, you God of vengeance, shine forth.
- <sup>2</sup> Lift up yourself, you judge of the earth;
    repay the proud with what they deserve.
- <sup>3</sup> LORD, how long will the wicked,
    how long will the wicked celebrate?
- <sup>4</sup> They pour out their arrogant words;
    all the evildoers boast.
- <sup>5</sup> They crush your people, O LORD, and oppress your heritage.
- <sup>6</sup> They slay the widow and the foreigner, and murder the orphan.
- <sup>7</sup> They claim, "The LORD does not see, the God of Jacob is not aware."
- <sup>8</sup> Be aware of this, you stupid people;
    and you fools, when will you wise up?
- <sup>9</sup> He who planted the ear, does he not hear?
    He who formed the eye, does he not see?
- <sup>10</sup> Does he who punishes nations not punish?
    Does he who teaches human beings have no knowledge?
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD even knows people's thoughts, that they are useless.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed is the one whom you discipline, O LORD,
    and teach from your law;
- <sup>13</sup> you may give him rest from days of adversity, until a pit is dug for the wicked.
- <sup>14</sup> For the LORD will not forsake his people, nor will he desert his inheritance.
- <sup>15</sup> For judgment will again be done with righteousness;
    all the upright in heart will follow it.
- <sup>16</sup> Who will rise up to defend me against the wicked?
    Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?
- <sup>17</sup> Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul would soon dwell in the silence of the grave.
- <sup>18</sup> When I said, "My foot is slipping," your loyal love, O LORD, sustained me.
- <sup>19</sup> When anxious thoughts multiplied within me, your comfort cheered my soul.

- <sup>20</sup> Will a corrupt throne be your ally,
those who devise oppressive laws?
- <sup>21</sup> They conspire against the life of the righteous, and condemn the innocent to death.
- <sup>22</sup> But the LORD has been my high tower, and my God the rock providing me refuge.
- <sup>23</sup> He has brought back on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness;
the LORD our God will destroy them.

DASV: Psalm 95

- <sup>1</sup> Come, let us sing to the LORD;
let us shout aloud to the rock of our salvation.
- <sup>2</sup> Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
let us shout joyfully to him in songs.
- <sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
- <sup>4</sup> In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains also are his.
- <sup>5</sup> The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
- <sup>6</sup> Come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- <sup>7</sup> For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand.
O that today you would listen to his voice!
- <sup>8</sup> Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,
- <sup>9</sup> when your fathers tested me, proved me, and saw my work.
- <sup>10</sup> I was grieved with that generation for forty years, and said, "They are a people that go astray in their heart, they have not known my ways."
- <sup>11</sup> So I swore in my wrath:
"They will never enter my rest."

DASV: Psalm 96

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD, praise his name;
proclaim his salvation from day to day.
- <sup>3</sup> Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.
- <sup>4</sup> For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
he is to be feared above all gods.
- <sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
- <sup>6</sup> Honor and majesty are before him;
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- <sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- <sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name;
bring an offering, and enter his courts.
- <sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in his holy splendor;
tremble before him, all the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Declare among the nations, "The LORD reigns;"
the world is solidly established so that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples fairly.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad,
and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar, and everything in it;
- <sup>12</sup> let the fields celebrate, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the forest will shout for joy
- <sup>13</sup> before the LORD; for he comes,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with his truth.

DASV: Psalm 97

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns;
let the earth rejoice;
let the distant coasts be glad.
- <sup>2</sup> Clouds and darkness surround him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- <sup>3</sup> A fire goes before him,
and burns up his adversaries on all sides.
- <sup>4</sup> His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens declare his righteousness,
and all the peoples see his glory.
- <sup>7</sup> All those who serve idols are put to shame,
those who boast about worthless idols;
worship him, all you gods.
- <sup>8</sup> Zion hears and is glad,
and the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of your judgments, O LORD.
- <sup>9</sup> For you, LORD, are most high above all the earth;
you are exalted far above all gods.
- <sup>10</sup> You who love the LORD, hate evil;
he protects the lives of his saints;
he delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> Light shines on the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
- <sup>12</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,
and give thanks to his holy name.

DASV: Psalm 98A psalm*

- <sup>1</sup> O sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand, and his holy arm,
have won him the victory.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD has made known his salvation;
his righteousness he has revealed in the sight of the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> He has remembered his loyal love and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- <sup>4</sup> Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth;
break out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises.
- <sup>5</sup> Sing praises to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of music.
- <sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the sound of a ram's horn, shout joyfully before the King, the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> Let the sea roar, and everything in it,
the world, and those who live in it.
- <sup>8</sup> Let the floods clap their hands;
let the hills sing together for joy
- <sup>9</sup> before the LORD.
For he comes to judge the earth;
he will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with fairness.

DASV: Psalm 99

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns,
let the peoples tremble;
he sits enthroned above the cherubim,
let the earth quiver.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is great in Zion;
he is exalted above all the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> Let them praise your great and awesome name.
He is holy.
- <sup>4</sup> The strong king, who loves justice,
you have established fairness;
you have acted with justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> Exalt the LORD our God,
and worship at his footstool.
He is holy.
- <sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among his priests, and Samuel among the ones who called on his name;
they called on the LORD,
and he answered them.
- <sup>7</sup> He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;
they kept his regulations,
and the decrees he gave them.
- <sup>8</sup> You answered them, O LORD our God;
you were a God who forgave them,
though you punished their evil doings.
- <sup>9</sup> Exalt the LORD our God,
and worship at his holy hill;
for the LORD our God is holy.

DASV: Psalm 100

A psalm of thanksgiving

- <sup>1</sup> Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all the earth.
- <sup>2</sup> Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before his presence with singing.
- <sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD, he is God;
it is he who has made us,
and we are his;
we are his people,
and the sheep of his pasture.
- <sup>4</sup> Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him,
and bless his name.
- <sup>5</sup> For the LORD is good;
his loyal love endures forever,
and his faithfulness to all generations.

DASV: Psalm 101

Of David, a psalm

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of loyal love and justice;
to you, O LORD, I will sing praises.
- <sup>2</sup> I will carefully maintain the way of integrity.
When will you come to me?
I will walk within my house with a heart of integrity.
- <sup>3</sup> I will not set any worthless thing before my eyes;
I hate the work of those who are crooked;
it will not cling to me.
- <sup>4</sup> A perverse heart will leave me;
I will not condone anything evil.
- <sup>5</sup> Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
I will destroy;
the one who has a haughty look and a proud heart, I will not tolerate.
- <sup>6</sup> My eyes of favor will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me;
whoever walks in the way of integrity will serve me.
- <sup>7</sup> No one doing deceit will dwell in my house;
whoever speaks lies will not be established in my presence.
- <sup>8</sup> Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land, to cut off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 102

A prayer of the afflicted, when he is faint and pours out his lament before the LORD

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and let my cry for help come to you.
- <sup>2</sup> Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress;
bend down your ear to me;
in the day when I call, answer me quickly.
- <sup>3</sup> For my days fade away like smoke,
and my bones are burned like charred coals.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart is mowed down, withered like grass;
I forget even to eat my food.
- <sup>5</sup> Because of the sound of my groaning;
my bones protrude from my flesh.
- <sup>6</sup> I am like an owl of the wilderness;
I am become like a small owl of the waste places.
- <sup>7</sup> I lie awake;
I am like a solitary bird alone on the roof top.
- <sup>8</sup> My enemies insult me all day long;
those who taunt me use my name as a curse.
- <sup>9</sup> I have eaten ashes like it was bread, and mixed my drink with my tears,
- <sup>10</sup> because of your anger and your wrath,
for you have picked me up and thrown me away.
- <sup>11</sup> My days are like an evening shadow that passes;
I am withered like grass.
- <sup>12</sup> But you, O LORD, are enthroned forever;
your reputation is known to all generations.
- <sup>13</sup> You will arise, and have mercy on Zion, for it is time to have pity on her;
yes, the appointed time has come.
- <sup>14</sup> For your servants delight in her stones, and favor even her dust.
- <sup>15</sup> The nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth your glory.
- <sup>16</sup> For the LORD will rebuild Zion;
he will appear in his glory.
- <sup>17</sup> He has regarded the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer.

- <sup>18</sup> Let this be written for the generation to come,
so that a people not yet born will praise the LORD.
- <sup>19</sup> "For he will look down from the height of his sanctuary;
from heaven the LORD looks down on the earth, <sup>20</sup> to hear the moans of the prisoner, to set free those who are condemned to die.
- <sup>21</sup> So that the name of the LORD may be declared in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem, <sup>22</sup> when the peoples are assembled together and the kingdoms,
to worship the LORD.
- <sup>23</sup> He has broken my strength in midlife;
he has shortened my days.
- <sup>24</sup> I said, "O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days;
yet your years continue through all generations.
- <sup>25</sup> Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth;
the heavens are the work of your hands.
- <sup>26</sup> They will perish, but you will endure;
yes, all of them will wear out like a garment;
you will change them like clothes and shed them.
- <sup>27</sup> But you are the same,
your years will never end.
- <sup>28</sup> The children of your servants will live on,
and their descendants will be established in your presence."

DASV: Psalm 103Of David*

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, O my soul;
    all that is within me,
        praise his holy name.
- <sup>2</sup> Praise the LORD, O my soul,
    and forget not all his benefits--
- <sup>3</sup> who forgives all your iniquities;
    who heals all your diseases;
- <sup>4</sup> who redeems your life from destruction;
    who crowns you with loyal love and tender mercies;
- <sup>5</sup> who satisfies your desire with good things,
    so that your youth is renewed like the eagle.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.
- <sup>7</sup> He made known his ways to Moses,
    his deeds to the children of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in loyal love.
- <sup>9</sup> He will not always accuse, nor will he stay angry forever.
- <sup>10</sup> He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve, nor repaid us according to our iniquities.
- <sup>11</sup> For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loyal love toward those who fear him.
- <sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west,
    so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
- <sup>13</sup> Like a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.
- <sup>14</sup> For he knows what we are made from;
    he remembers that we are dust.
- <sup>15</sup> A human life is like grass;
    it flourishes like a flower of the field;
- <sup>16</sup> then the wind blows over it, and it is gone;
    even the place where it grew no longer recognizes where it was.
- <sup>17</sup> But the loyal love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him,
    and his righteousness to their children's children;
- <sup>18</sup> to those who keep his covenant, and who remember to do his precepts.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

<sup>20</sup> Praise the LORD, you his angels, who are mighty in strength carrying out his word, obedient to the voice of his word.

<sup>21</sup> Praise the LORD, all his heavenly armies, you his servants who do his pleasure.

<sup>22</sup> Praise the LORD, all his works, everywhere he rules.
Praise the LORD, O my soul.

DASV: Psalm 104

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, you are very great;
you are clothed with honor and majesty.
- <sup>2</sup> He covers himself with light as with a garment;
he stretches out the heavens like a tent curtain.
- <sup>3</sup> He sets the rafters of his palace in the rain clouds;
he makes the clouds his chariot;
he rides on the wings of the wind.
- <sup>4</sup> He makes the winds his messengers; flames of fire are his attendants.
- <sup>5</sup> He laid the foundations of the earth,
so that it will never move.
- <sup>6</sup> You cover it with the deep as with a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.
- <sup>7</sup> At your rebuke they fled;
at the sound of your thunder they hurry away.
- <sup>8</sup> The mountains rose, the valleys sank down, to the place you had determined for them.
- <sup>9</sup> You have set a boundary that they may not cross over,
so that they would never again cover the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> He makes springs stream into the valleys;
they flow between the mountains.
- <sup>11</sup> They give drink to all the animals of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- <sup>12</sup> Beside the streams the birds of the heavens make their nests;
they sing among the branches.
- <sup>13</sup> He waters the mountains from his heavenly chambers;
the earth is filled with the fruit of his work.
- <sup>14</sup> He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for the people to cultivate,
so that he may bring food out of the earth,
- <sup>15</sup> and wine that makes glad the human heart, oil to make his face to shine,
and bread to strengthen his heart.
- <sup>16</sup> The trees of the LORD are well cared for,
the cedars of Lebanon that he planted,
- <sup>17</sup> where the birds make their nests,
and the stork makes its nest in the fir trees.
- <sup>18</sup> The high mountains are for the wild goats;

the rocks are a refuge for the rock badger.

- <sup>19</sup> He appointed the moon for seasons;
the sun knows when it's time to set.
- <sup>20</sup> You make darkness, and it is night, when all the animals of the forest prowl around.
- <sup>21</sup> The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.
- <sup>22</sup> The sun rises, they retire,
and lay down in their dens.
- <sup>23</sup> A person goes out to his work and to his labor until evening.
- <sup>24</sup> O LORD, how many things you have made!
In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- <sup>25</sup> Over there is the sea, great and wide,
with innumerable moving creatures,
both small and great.
- <sup>26</sup> There ships sail back and forth; Leviathan, whom you made to play there.
- <sup>27</sup> These all depend on you,
to give them their food at the right time.
- <sup>28</sup> You give to them,
they gather;
you open your hand,
and they are satisfied with good.
- <sup>29</sup> You hide your face, and they are troubled;
you take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.
- <sup>30</sup> You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
you replenish the face of the ground.
- <sup>31</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works.
- <sup>32</sup> He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
he touches the mountains, and they smoke.
- <sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I am alive.

- <sup>34</sup> May my thoughts be pleasing to him, for I will rejoice in the LORD.
- <sup>35</sup> Let sinners be consumed from the earth.
Let the wicked be no more.
Praise the LORD, O my soul.
Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 105

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to him, sing praises to him;
talk of all his marvelous works.
- <sup>3</sup> Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
- <sup>4</sup> Seek the LORD and his strength;
seek his face continually.
- <sup>5</sup> Remember his marvelous works that he has done,
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
- <sup>6</sup> O descendants of his servant Abraham,
you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
- <sup>7</sup> He is the LORD our God;
his judgments are in all the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> He has remembered his covenant forever,
the word that he commanded to a thousand generations,
- <sup>9</sup> the covenant that he made with Abraham, and his oath he promised to Isaac.
- <sup>10</sup> He confirmed the same to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
- <sup>11</sup> saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, as the portion of your inheritance."
- <sup>12</sup> When they were but few in number,
yes, very few, and strangers in it,
- <sup>13</sup> they wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people.
- <sup>14</sup> He suffered no one to do them wrong;
yes, he even rebuked kings for their sakes,
- <sup>15</sup> saying, "Do not touch my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm."
- <sup>16</sup> He called for a famine on the land;
he broke the whole supply of food.
- <sup>17</sup> He sent a man before them;
Joseph was sold as a slave.
- <sup>18</sup> His feet they hurt with shackles;
his neck was put in an iron collar,
- <sup>19</sup> until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him.
- <sup>20</sup> The king sent and loosed him;

- the ruler of peoples released him.
21 He made him lord of his house,
and ruler of all his possessions, 22 to instruct his princes as he wished and teach his elders wisdom.
- 23 Then Israel came to Egypt;
Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
24 He increased his people greatly,
and made them stronger than their enemies.
25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal deceitfully with his servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 They performed his signs among them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness and it became dark-- did they not rebel against his words?
29 He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.
30 Their land swarmed with frogs, which even got into their king's chambers.
31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
then gnats in their whole territory.
32 He gave them hail for rain, and flashes of lightning throughout their land.
33 He destroyed their vines and their fig trees, and broke the trees in their territory.
34 He spoke, and the locust came,
and countless grasshoppers.
35 They ate all the vegetation in their land, and ate up the fruit of their ground.
36 He struck down all the firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.
37 He brought them out with silver and gold;
there was not one who stumbled among his tribes.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they left,
for the fear of them had fallen on them.
39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light at night.
40 They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

<sup>41</sup> He opened the rock, and waters gushed out;
it flowed like a stream in the desert.

<sup>42</sup> For he remembered his sacred promise, and Abraham his servant.

<sup>43</sup> He brought out his people with joy, and his chosen with singing.

<sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of the nations;
they took the wealth other peoples had produced,

<sup>45</sup> that they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 106

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.
    O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
        his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Who can fully declare the mighty acts of the LORD, or publish all his praise?
- <sup>3</sup> Blessed are those who promote justice, and who do what is right at all times.
- <sup>4</sup> Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people;
        help me when you rescue them,
- <sup>5</sup> so that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may give glory with the rest of your inheritance.
- <sup>6</sup> We have sinned along with our forefathers;
    we have done wrong;
        we have behaved wickedly.
- <sup>7</sup> Our forefathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt;
    they did not remember the greatness of your loyal love, but rebelled at the sea, at the Red Sea.
- <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, so that he might make his mighty power known.
- <sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea, and it was dried up;
    he led them through the depths as through a desert.
- <sup>10</sup> He saved them from the hand of one who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
- <sup>11</sup> The waters covered their adversaries;
    not one of them was left.
- <sup>12</sup> Then they believed his words;
    they sang his praise.
- <sup>13</sup> Soon they forgot his works;
    they refused to wait for his advice,
- <sup>14</sup> but in the wilderness their appetite was insatiable, and tested God in the desert.
- <sup>15</sup> He gave them what they requested,
    but sent a plague among them.
- <sup>16</sup> They were jealous of Moses in the camp, and Aaron the holy priest of the LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,

- and covered the coterie of Abiram.
18 A fire ignited among their faction;
the flame burned up the wicked.
- 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped a cast metal image.
20 They traded their glorious God, for the image of a bull that eats grass.
21 They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
23 Therefore he threatened to destroy them, had not Moses, his chosen, stood before him in the gap,
to turn back his wrath from destroying them.
- 24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land;
they refused to believe his promise, 25 but complained in their tents,
and refused to listen to the voice of the LORD.
26 Therefore he swore to them that he would destroy them in the desert, 27 that he would exile their descendants among the nations, and scatter them among the lands.
28 They also joined in the worship of Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.
29 So they provoked him to anger by their actions;
the plague broke out on them.
30 Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment, and the plague was stopped.
31 So it was reckoned to him for righteousness, to all generations forever.
- 32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,
so that even Moses suffered the consequences for their sakes; 33 because they embittered his spirit,
he spoke rashly with his lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the nations,
as the LORD had commanded them, 35 but mingled with the nations,
and learned their ways.
36 They served their idols,

- which became a snare to them.
- <sup>37</sup> Yes, they even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
- <sup>38</sup> They shed innocent blood,
even the blood of their sons and daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
and the land was polluted with blood.
- <sup>39</sup> Thus they were defiled by their actions, and prostituted themselves by their practices.
- <sup>40</sup> Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he abhorred the people of his inheritance.
- <sup>41</sup> He handed them over to the nations,
and those who hated them ruled over them.
- <sup>42</sup> Their enemies also oppressed them,
and brought them into subjection under their hand.
- <sup>43</sup> Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their counsel, and brought low by their sin.
- <sup>44</sup> Nevertheless he saw their distress, and heard their cry.
- <sup>45</sup> He remembered his covenant with them, and relented according to the greatness of his loyal love.
- <sup>46</sup> He caused them to be pitied
by all those who had taken them captive.
- <sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD our God, and regather us from among the nations,
to give thanks to your holy name,
and to glory in your praise.
- <sup>48</sup> Praise the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, "Amen."
Praise the LORD.

BOOK V: Psalms 107-150*DASV: Psalm 107

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD speak up, those whom he has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, <sup>3</sup> and gathered out of foreign lands, from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- <sup>4</sup> They wandered in the desert wasteland;
they found no way to an inhabited city.
- <sup>5</sup> Hungry and thirsty, their lives fainted within them.
- <sup>6</sup> Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them out of their distress.
- <sup>7</sup> He led them by a straight way, that they might go to an inhabited city.
- <sup>8</sup> Let them praise the LORD for his loyal love,
and for his wonderful works for the children of humanity!
- <sup>9</sup> For he satisfies the one who thirsts,
he fills the hungry with good food.
- <sup>10</sup> Some sat in darkness even total darkness, bound in misery and iron chains, <sup>11</sup> because they rebelled against the words of God, and despised the counsel of the Most High.
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore he humbled their hearts with labor;
they fell down and there was no one to help them up.
- <sup>13</sup> Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he rescued them out of their distress.
- <sup>14</sup> He brought them out of darkness even total darkness, and broke their chains apart.
- <sup>15</sup> Let them praise the LORD for his loyal love,
and for his wonderful works for the children of humanity!
- <sup>16</sup> He has broken the gates of bronze, and cut the bars of iron in two.
- <sup>17</sup> Fools, because of their rebellion, and because of their sins, they were afflicted.
- <sup>18</sup> They detested all kinds of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.

19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he rescued them out of their distress.
20 He sent his word and healed them,
and delivered them from their destruction.
21 Let them praise the LORD for his loyal love,
and for his wonderful works for the children of humanity!
22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his deeds with singing.

23 Those going down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters;
24 these see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.
25 For he spoke and raised a stormy wind, which stirred up the waves of the sea.
26 They rose up to the heavens;
they drop down to the depths;
their courage melted away because of the danger.
27 They teetered to and fro, and staggered like a drunk,
and were at their wits' end.
28 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.
29 He calmed the storm,
so that its waves were silenced.
30 Then the sailors were glad because of the calm,
so he brought them to their desired haven.
31 Let them praise the LORD for his loyal love,
and for his wonderful works for the children of humanity!
32 Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people, and praise him in the forum of the elders.

33 He turns streams into a desert,
and springs of water into thirsty ground, 34 a fruitful land into a salty wasteland, because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
35 He turns a wilderness into a pool of water, and a dry land into springs of water.
36 There he made the hungry to settle,
so that they prepared a city to live in, 37 and sowed fields and planted vineyards, and gathered a fruitful harvest.

- <sup>38</sup> He blessed them so that they multiplied greatly,
and he did not allow their cattle to decrease.
- <sup>39</sup> When they were diminished and brought low through oppression, trouble, and sorrow, <sup>40</sup> he poured contempt on princes, and caused them to wander in roadless wastelands.
- <sup>41</sup> Yet he rescues the needy from affliction, and makes families as numerous as a flock.
- <sup>42</sup> The upright will see it and be glad,
and all injustice will shut its mouth.
- <sup>43</sup> Whoever is wise let him give careful attention to these things;
and consider the loyal love of the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 108

A song, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> My heart is firmly set, O God;
I will sing and praise with my whole being.
- <sup>2</sup> Awake, O harp and lyre,
I will wake up the dawn.
- <sup>3</sup> I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples, and I will sing praises to you among the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> For your loyal love is great above the heavens, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
- <sup>5</sup> Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and may your glory be over the entire earth.
- <sup>6</sup> That your beloved may be rescued,
save with you right hand and answer us.
- <sup>7</sup> God has spoken in his sanctuary,
"I will triumph when I divide Shechem,
and measure out the valley of Succoth.
- <sup>8</sup> Gilead is mine, so is Manasseh;
Ephraim is a helmet for my head,
Judah is my scepter.
- <sup>9</sup> Moab is my washbasin,
on Edom will I throw my sandal;
over Philistia I will shout in triumph."
- <sup>10</sup> Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- <sup>11</sup> Have you not rejected us, O God?
You do not go out to battle, O God,
with our armies.
- <sup>12</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is useless.
- <sup>13</sup> With God we get the victory;
he will stomp on our enemies.

DASV: Psalm 109

For the music director. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O God of my praise, do not be silent.
- <sup>2</sup> For the mouth of the wicked and treacherous is opened against me;
they have spoken against me with lying tongues.
- <sup>3</sup> They surround me with hateful words, and fight against me for no reason.
- <sup>4</sup> In return for my love they accuse me,
but I continue to pray.
- <sup>5</sup> They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
- <sup>6</sup> Set a wicked person against him;
let a prosecuting attorney stand at his right hand.
- <sup>7</sup> When he is judged, let him be found guilty;
let his prayer be reckoned as sin.
- <sup>8</sup> Let his days be few;
let someone else take over his position.
- <sup>9</sup> Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
- <sup>10</sup> Let his children wander around begging;
let them seek food from the ruins they inhabit.
- <sup>11</sup> Let creditors seize all that he has;
let strangers plunder the product of his labor.
- <sup>12</sup> Let there be no one to show him kindness;
let there be no one take pity on his fatherless children.
- <sup>13</sup> Let his posterity be cut off;
let their name be blotted out from the next generation.
- <sup>14</sup> Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the LORD;
let the sin of his mother not be blotted out.
- <sup>15</sup> Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> Because he did not think to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy,
and pursued the broken in heart to their death.
- <sup>17</sup> He loved cursing,
so let it come back on him.
He did not delight in blessing,
so let blessings be far from him.

- <sup>18</sup> He clothed himself with cursing as with his coat;
let it enter his belly like water,
and like oil into his bones.
- <sup>19</sup> Let his curse cover him like a cloak,
or a belt he wears continually.
- <sup>20</sup> Let this be the reward of my enemies from the LORD, and those who speak evil against my life.
- <sup>21</sup> But deal with me, O sovereign LORD,
for your name's sake,
because your loyal love is good,
deliver me.
- <sup>22</sup> For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
- <sup>23</sup> I am fading like a shadow at dusk;
I am brushed off like a locust.
- <sup>24</sup> My knees are weak from not eating;
my flesh wastes away to nothing.
- <sup>25</sup> I am an object of ridicule to them;
when they see me, they shake their heads.
- <sup>26</sup> Help me, O LORD my God!
Save me according to your loyal love.
- <sup>27</sup> Let them know that this is your hand, that you, O LORD, have done it.
- <sup>28</sup> Let them curse, but may you bless.
When they arise, they will be put to shame,
but your servant will rejoice.
- <sup>29</sup> Let my enemies be clothed with dishonor;
let them be covered with their own shame as with a robe.
- <sup>30</sup> I will give great thanks to the LORD with my mouth;
I will praise him in the midst of the crowd.
- <sup>31</sup> For he stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who would pass judgment on his life.

DASV: Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD said to my Lord,
    "Sit at my right hand,
        until I make your enemies your footstool."
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD will stretch out your mighty ruling scepter from Zion.
    Rule in the midst of your enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your people will volunteer themselves willingly in the day of your battle, in holy splendor
    from the womb of the morning renewed like the dew of your youth.
- <sup>4</sup> The LORD has sworn,
    and will not change his mind:
        "You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek."
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord is at your right hand;
    he will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
- <sup>6</sup> He will judge among the nations.
    He will fill the land with corpses.
        He will shatter the heads over the broad battlefield.
- <sup>7</sup> He will drink from the brook by the way,
    so he will lift his head high.

DASV: Psalm 111

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the council of the upright and in the congregation.

<sup>2</sup> The works of the LORD are great, carefully studied by all those who delight in them.

<sup>3</sup> His work is splendid and majestic,
and his righteousness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup> He has made his wonderful works to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and merciful.

<sup>5</sup> He has given food to those who fear him.
He will always remember his covenant.

<sup>6</sup> He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the property of the nations.

<sup>7</sup> The works of his hands are truth and justice, all his precepts are trustworthy.

<sup>8</sup> They are established forever and ever;
they are to be performed in faithfulness and uprightness.

<sup>9</sup> He has sent redemption to his people;
he has decreed his covenant forever-- holy and awesome is his name.

<sup>10</sup> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice his precepts gain good understanding.

His praise endures forever.

DASV: Psalm 112

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Blessed is the one who fears the LORD, who finds great delight in his commandments.

<sup>2</sup> His descendants will be mighty on earth;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup> Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

for those who are gracious, merciful and righteous.

<sup>5</sup> It goes well for the person who graciously lends,
he conducts his business with justice,

<sup>6</sup> for he will never be shaken.
The righteous will be remembered forever.

<sup>7</sup> He will not be afraid of bad news;
his heart is securely focused,
trusting in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> His heart is secure,
he will not be afraid,
he will look with triumph over his enemies.

<sup>9</sup> He has given generously,
he has given to the needy;
his righteousness endures forever;
his reputation will be exalted with honor.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked will see it and be upset, he will gnash his teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked will perish.

DASV: Psalm 113

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Praise, O you servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed be the name of the LORD
from now and forevermore.

<sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun to its going down, the LORD's name is to be praised.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Who is like the LORD our God, who is enthroned on high,

<sup>6</sup> who bends down to look on the heaven and the earth?

<sup>7</sup> He raises up the poor out of the dust,
and lifts up the needy from the trash heap,

<sup>8</sup> that he may put them with princes, with the princes of his people.

<sup>9</sup> He gives the barren woman a home, making her a glad mother of children.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 114

- <sup>1</sup> When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of a foreign language, <sup>2</sup> Judah became God's sanctuary, Israel, his kingdom.
- <sup>3</sup> The sea looked and fled,
the Jordan turned back.
- <sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.
- <sup>5</sup> Why was it, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?
- <sup>6</sup> Why, O mountains, did you skip like rams, O hills, like lambs?
- <sup>7</sup> Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob, <sup>8</sup> who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a fountain of waters.

DASV: Psalm 115

- <sup>1</sup> Not to us, O LORD, not to us,
but to your name give glory,
for your loyal love and faithfulness.
- <sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
- <sup>3</sup> But our God is in heaven,
he does whatever he pleases.
- <sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.
- <sup>5</sup> They have mouths, but cannot speak,
they have eyes, but cannot see.
- <sup>6</sup> They have ears, but cannot hear,
they have noses, but cannot smell.
- <sup>7</sup> They have hands, but cannot feel,
they have feet, but cannot walk.
Their throat cannot even make a sound.
- <sup>8</sup> Everyone who makes them will become like them, so will everyone who trusts in them.
- <sup>9</sup> O Israel, trust in the LORD;
he is their help and shield.
- <sup>10</sup> O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
he is their help and shield.
- <sup>11</sup> All you who fear the LORD,
trust in the LORD,
he is their help and shield.
- <sup>12</sup> The LORD has been mindful of us and will bless us;
he will bless the house of Israel,
he will bless the house of Aaron.
- <sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear the LORD,
both small and great.
- <sup>14</sup> May the LORD increase you,
both you and your children.
- <sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.
- <sup>16</sup> The heavens are the LORD's,
but he has given the earth to human beings.
- <sup>17</sup> The dead cannot praise the LORD, nor do any who go down into silence.

<sup>18</sup> But we will praise the LORD
from now and forevermore.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 116

- <sup>1</sup> I love the LORD, because he heard my voice and my pleas for mercy.
- <sup>2</sup> Because he has turned his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
- <sup>3</sup> The cords of death tied me up,
the pains of Sheol seized me;
I suffered trouble and sorrow.
- <sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of the LORD,
"O LORD, please save my life."
- <sup>5</sup> Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
our God is merciful.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and he saved me.
- <sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, O my soul,
for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
- <sup>8</sup> For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.
- <sup>9</sup> I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.
- <sup>10</sup> I believed even when I said,
"I am severely afflicted."
- <sup>11</sup> I said in my apprehension,
"All men are liars."
- <sup>12</sup> What shall I give back to the LORD, for all his benefits to me?
- <sup>13</sup> I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD,
in the presence of all his people.
- <sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.
- <sup>16</sup> O LORD, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid;
you have loosed my shackles.
- <sup>17</sup> I will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to you, and will call on the name of the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD,

in the presence of all his people,
<sup>19</sup> In the courts of the LORD's house, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 117

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, all you nations;
    give him praise, all you peoples.
- <sup>2</sup> For his loyal love for us is strong,
    and the faithfulness of the LORD lasts forever.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 118

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his loyal love lasts forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Let Israel now declare,
"His loyal love lasts forever."
- <sup>3</sup> Let the house of Aaron declare,
"His loyal love lasts forever."
- <sup>4</sup> Let those who fear the LORD declare,
"His loyal love lasts forever."
- <sup>5</sup> Out of my distress I called on the LORD;
the LORD answered me
and set me loose in a wide open place.
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.
What can humans do to me?
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is with me as my helper.
I will triumphantly look on those who hate me.
- <sup>8</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to trust in humans.
- <sup>9</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to trust in princes.
- <sup>10</sup> All nations surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD I will cut them down.
- <sup>11</sup> They surrounded me, yes, they absolutely surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD I will cut them down.
- <sup>12</sup> They swarmed around me like bees,
they are extinguished as quickly as a fire of thorns;
in the name of the LORD I will cut them down.
- <sup>13</sup> You shoved me hard to make me fall, but the LORD helped me.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD is my strength and song, and he has become my salvation.
- <sup>15</sup> The sound of rejoicing and salvation
exude from the tents of the righteous.
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
- <sup>16</sup> The right hand of the LORD is held high in victory.
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
- <sup>17</sup> I will not die, but live,
and I will recount the deeds of the LORD.

- <sup>18</sup> The LORD has severely punished, but he has not given me over to death.
- <sup>19</sup> Open the gates of righteousness for me;
I will enter through them,
and I will give thanks to the LORD.
- <sup>20</sup> This is the gate of the LORD,
the righteous will enter in through it.
- <sup>21</sup> I give thanks to you,
for you have answered me,
and have become my salvation.
- <sup>22</sup> The stone which the builders rejected, has become the chief of the cornerstone.
- <sup>23</sup> This is the LORD's doing, it is marvelous in our eyes.
- <sup>24</sup> This is the day that the LORD has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.
- <sup>25</sup> Save now, we pray, O LORD;
O LORD, we pray, please give us success.
- <sup>26</sup> Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD.
We bless you from the house of the LORD.
- <sup>27</sup> The LORD is God and has given us light.
Bind the festival sacrifice with ropes to the horns of the altar.
- <sup>28</sup> You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God, I will praise you.
- <sup>29</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his loyal love lasts forever.

DASV: Psalm 120A song of ascents*

- <sup>1</sup> In my distress I cried out to the LORD,
and he answered me.
- <sup>2</sup> Deliver me, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.
- <sup>3</sup> O deceitful tongue, what will be given to you?
What more will be done to you?
- <sup>4</sup> Sharp arrows of a warrior, with burning coals of a broom tree.
- <sup>5</sup> Woe is me, because I am exiled sojourning in Meshech, that I live among the tents of Kedar!
- <sup>6</sup> For too long I have had my dwelling with those who hate peace.
- <sup>7</sup> I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

DASV: Psalm 121A song of ascents*

- <sup>1</sup> I will lift up my eyes to the hills, from where does my help come?
- <sup>2</sup> My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.
- <sup>3</sup> He will not allow your foot to stumble;
he who watches over you will not slumber.
- <sup>4</sup> Look, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD is the one watching over you;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
- <sup>6</sup> The sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD will protect you from all evil,
he will watch over you.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD will watch over your going out and your coming in
from now and forevermore.

DASV: Psalm 122

A song of ascents, of David

- <sup>1</sup> I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
<sup>2</sup> Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> Jerusalem, is built as a city that is tightly compacted together.
<sup>4</sup> It is where the tribes go up,
even the tribes of the LORD.
This is place where it was decreed for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> There the thrones for judgment are set,
the thrones of the house of David.
- <sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem;
may those who love her prosper.
<sup>7</sup> Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your towers.
<sup>8</sup> For my brothers and friends I now say,
"Peace be within you."
<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek your good.

DASV: Psalm 123

A song of ascents

- <sup>1</sup> To you I lift up my eyes,
    O you who are enthroned in the heavens.
- <sup>2</sup> As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes will look to the LORD our God,
    until he has mercy on us.
- <sup>3</sup> Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us, for we are absolutely filled with contempt.
- <sup>4</sup> We have had our fill of scoffing from those who are at ease, and with contempt from the proud.

DASV: Psalm 124

A song of ascents, of David

- <sup>1</sup> If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
let Israel now say,
<sup>2</sup> if it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
when people rose up against us, <sup>3</sup> they would have swallowed us alive,
when their anger burned against us.
<sup>4</sup> Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
the stream swept over us, <sup>5</sup> then the raging waters would have inundated us.
- <sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
<sup>7</sup> We have escaped like a bird out of the trap of the hunter;
the snare is broken, and we escaped.
<sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

- <sup>1</sup> Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people
from now and forevermore.
- <sup>3</sup> For the scepter of wickedness will not rule over the allotted land of the righteous;
so that the righteous will not reach out their hands to do what is wrong.
- <sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
and to those who are upright in heart.
- <sup>5</sup> But those who turn aside to their own crooked ways, may the LORD exile them with the workers of iniquity.
Peace be on Israel.

- <sup>1</sup> When the LORD brought back the exiles to Zion, we were like those having a dream.
- <sup>2</sup> Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy.
Then they said among the nations,
“The LORD has done great things for them.”
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD has done great things for us.
We are glad.
- <sup>4</sup> Restore again our fortunes, O LORD,
as the streams in the Negev desert.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
- <sup>6</sup> The one who goes out weeping, carrying his seed for sowing,
will come home with shouts of joy, carrying his harvest of sheaves.

DASV: Psalm 127

A song of ascents, of Solomon

- <sup>1</sup> Unless the LORD builds the house, those building it labor in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the city,
the watchman stands guard in vain.
- <sup>2</sup> It is vain for you to rise up early,
or to go to bed late,
working hard for food to eat;
for he gives his beloved sleep.
- <sup>3</sup> Children are a heritage from the LORD,
the fruit of the womb is his reward.
- <sup>4</sup> Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.
- <sup>5</sup> Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
they will not be put to shame
when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways.
- <sup>2</sup> For you will eat what your hands have worked for;
    you will be happy and it will go well with you.
- <sup>3</sup> Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house,
    your children like olive shoots around your table.
- <sup>4</sup> Yes, that is how the one who fears the LORD will be blessed.
- <sup>5</sup> May the LORD bless you from Zion;
    may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
- <sup>6</sup> May you see your grandchildren.
    May peace be upon Israel.

DASV: Psalm 129A song of ascents*

- <sup>1</sup> "Many times they have attacked me from my youth up,"
let Israel now say,
- <sup>2</sup> "Many times they have attacked me from my youth up,
yet they have never defeated me.
- <sup>3</sup> The plowers plowed on my back,
they made their furrows long.
- <sup>4</sup> The LORD is righteous, he has cut the cords of the wicked."
- <sup>5</sup> May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward.
- <sup>6</sup> May they be like the grass on the rooftops, which withers before it has a chance to grow up.
- <sup>7</sup> May the reaper be unable to fill his hand with it,
or gather enough grain into his arms.
- <sup>8</sup> May those who go by not say,
"May the blessing of the LORD be on you;
we bless you in the name of the LORD."

DASV: Psalm 130A song of ascents*

- <sup>1</sup> Out of the depths I cried to you, O LORD.
- <sup>2</sup> Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for help.
- <sup>3</sup> If you, O LORD, were to keep a record of sins,
O Lord, who could stand?
- <sup>4</sup> But there is forgiveness with you,
so you ought to be feared.
- <sup>5</sup> I wait for the LORD,
my soul expectantly waits,
and I put my hope in his word.
- <sup>6</sup> I long for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning,
yes, more than watchmen for the morning.
- <sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD,
for with the LORD there is loyal love,
and with him is abundant redemption.
- <sup>8</sup> He will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

DASV: Psalm 131

A song of ascents, of David

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, my heart is not proud,
nor my eyes haughty;
I do not concern myself with issues too great or with matters too wonderful for me.
- <sup>2</sup> To the contrary, I have calmed and quieted myself;
like a weaned child with its mother,
my soul is like a weaned child within me.
- <sup>3</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD
from now and forevermore.

DASV: Psalm 132

A song of ascents

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, remember David and all his affliction.
- <sup>2</sup> How he swore an oath to the LORD, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob.
- <sup>3</sup> "I will not enter into my house, or get into my bed.
- <sup>4</sup> I will not give sleep to my eyes,
or slumber to my eyelids,
- <sup>5</sup> until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."
- <sup>6</sup> We heard of it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.
- <sup>7</sup> We will go to his dwelling place;
we will worship at his footstool.
- <sup>8</sup> Arise, O LORD, enter your resting place,
you and the ark of your strength.
- <sup>9</sup> Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your saints shout for joy.
- <sup>10</sup> For your servant David's sake, do not turn away the face of your anointed.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD has made a promise to David,
a solemn promise from which he will not turn back:
"I will set one of the offspring of your body on your throne.
- <sup>12</sup> If your sons keep my covenant and decrees that I will teach them, their sons also will sit on your throne forever."
- <sup>13</sup> For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his home.
- <sup>14</sup> "This is my resting place forever;
I will dwell here,
for it's what I wanted.
- <sup>15</sup> I will bless her with provisions,
I will satisfy her poor with food.
- <sup>16</sup> Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy.
- <sup>17</sup> There I will make the horn of David sprout;
I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.
- <sup>18</sup> His enemies I will clothe with shame,
but his crown will shine.

DASV: Psalm 133

A song of ascents, of David

- <sup>1</sup> How good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity!
- <sup>2</sup> It is like the precious oil on the head,
that runs down on the beard, on Aaron's beard,
then flowed down over the edge his garments.
- <sup>3</sup> It is like the dew of Mount Hermon that flows down on the mountains of Zion.
For there the LORD commanded the blessing, life forevermore.

DASV: Psalm 134

A song of ascents

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand at night in the house of the LORD.
- <sup>2</sup> Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the LORD.
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD bless you from Zion,
    he who made heaven and earth.

DASV: Psalm 135

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Praise the name of the LORD,
Praise him, you servants of the LORD, <sup>2</sup> you who stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.

<sup>3</sup> Praise the LORD,
for the LORD is good.
Sing praises to his name,
for it is lovely.

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel for his special treasure.

<sup>5</sup> For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is greater than all gods.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD does whatever he pleases,
in heaven and on earth,
in the seas and all their depths.

<sup>7</sup> He causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth;
he makes lightning bolts for the rain;
he unleashes the wind out of his storehouses.

<sup>8</sup> He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both man and beast.

<sup>9</sup> He sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

<sup>10</sup> He struck down many nations and killed mighty kings,

<sup>11</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

<sup>12</sup> He gave their land as an inheritance, as an inheritance to his people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Your name, O LORD, endures forever, your reputation, O LORD, throughout all generations.

<sup>14</sup> For the LORD will render justice for his people, and have compassion on his servants.

<sup>15</sup> The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the product of human hands.

<sup>16</sup> They have mouths, but they do not speak;

they have eyes, but they do not see.

<sup>17</sup> They have ears, but they do not hear;
nor is there any breath in their mouths.

<sup>18</sup> Those who make them are destined to become like them, so is everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>19</sup> O house of Israel, praise the LORD;
O house of Aaron, praise the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> O house of Levi, praise the LORD;
you who fear the LORD, praise the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> May the LORD be praised from Zion;
he is the one who dwells in Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 136

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Give thanks to the God of gods,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>3</sup> Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>4</sup> to the one who alone does great wonders,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>5</sup> who by understanding skillfully made the heavens,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>6</sup> who spread out the earth on the waters,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>7</sup> who made great lights,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>8</sup> the sun to rule by day;
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>9</sup> the moon and stars to rule by night;
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>10</sup> to the one who struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>11</sup> and brought out Israel from among them,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>12</sup> with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>13</sup> who split the Red Sea in two,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>14</sup> and made Israel pass through the midst of it,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>15</sup> but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>16</sup> who led his people through the wilderness,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>17</sup> to the one who struck down great kings,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>18</sup> and killed famous kings,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>19</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites,
for his loyal love endures forever.

- <sup>20</sup> and Og king of Bashan,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>21</sup> and gave their land for an inheritance,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>22</sup> as an inheritance to his servant Israel,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>23</sup> he remembered us in our low estate,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>24</sup> and delivered us from our enemies,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>25</sup> to the one who gives food to all flesh,
for his loyal love endures forever.
- <sup>26</sup> Give thanks to the God of heaven,
for his loyal love endures forever.

DASV: Psalm 137

- <sup>1</sup> By the rivers of Babylon,
we sat down and wept,
when we remembered Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> On the poplars in her midst,
we hung up our harps.
- <sup>3</sup> For there our captors demanded songs from us,
our tormentors pressed for a joyful song:
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
- <sup>4</sup> How can we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land?
- <sup>5</sup> If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.
- <sup>6</sup> Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my greatest joy.
- <sup>7</sup> Remember, O LORD, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell;
they screamed, "Tear it down, tear it down, to its foundation."
- <sup>8</sup> O daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed, happy is the one who repays you for what you did to us.
- <sup>9</sup> Happy will be the one who takes and dashes your little ones against the rocks.

DASV: Psalm 138Of David*

- <sup>1</sup> I will give you thanks with my whole heart;
before the heavenly beings will I sing praises to you.
- <sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your name for your loyal love and for your truth.
For you have exalted your word and your name above all.
- <sup>3</sup> In the day that I called, you answered me;
you encouraged and strengthened me.
- <sup>4</sup> All the kings of the earth will give thanks to you, O LORD, for they have heard the words of your mouth.
- <sup>5</sup> They will sing of the ways of the LORD, for great is the glory of the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> For though the LORD is high, yet he respects the lowly,
but the haughty he knows from a distance.
- <sup>7</sup> Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
you will preserve my life;
you stretch out your hand against my enemies' rage,
your right hand will rescue me.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD will complete his purpose for me.
Your loyal love, O LORD, endures forever;
do not forsake the works of your hands.

DASV: Psalm 139

For the music director. A psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, you have searched me, and known me.
- <sup>2</sup> You know when I sit down and when I get up;
you understand my thoughts even at a distance.
- <sup>3</sup> You sift through my every path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
- <sup>4</sup> Even before a word is on my tongue,
O LORD, you know it entirely.
- <sup>5</sup> You have protectively hemmed me in from behind and before,
and laid your hand on me.
- <sup>6</sup> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is so high I cannot grasp it.
- <sup>7</sup> Where can I go to avoid your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
- <sup>8</sup> If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
- <sup>9</sup> If I take the wings of the morning,
and lodge in the remotest part of the sea,
- <sup>10</sup> even there your hand will guide me,
and your right hand will keep hold of me.
- <sup>11</sup> If I say, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will be night around me,"
- <sup>12</sup> even the darkness is not really dark for you, but the night shines like the day,
the darkness and the light are both the same to you.
- <sup>13</sup> For you formed my inward parts;
you wove me together in my mother's womb.
- <sup>14</sup> I will give thanks to you,
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
wonderful are your works,
and I know that full well.
- <sup>15</sup> My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in secret, and skillfully woven in the depths of the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> Your eyes could see my unformed embryo,
and in your book were written all the days ordained for me, when as yet, none of them existed.

- <sup>17</sup> How precious are your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
- <sup>18</sup> If I tried to count them, they are more numerous than the sand.
When I awake, I am still with you.
- <sup>19</sup> If only you would slay the wicked, O God.
Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men.
- <sup>20</sup> For they wickedly speak against you;
your enemies take your name in vain.
- <sup>21</sup> Do I not hate those who hate you O LORD?
Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
- <sup>22</sup> I hate them with an absolute hatred,
they have become my enemies.
- <sup>23</sup> Search me, O God, and know my heart;
try me and know my thoughts.
- <sup>24</sup> See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

DASV: Psalm 140

For the music director. A psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil people;
protect me from the violent, <sup>2</sup> who devise evil in their heart, who continually stir up wars.
<sup>3</sup> They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
the viper's venom is on their lips. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
protect me from the violent
who have plotted to trip me up.
<sup>5</sup> The proud have hid a snare for me, and they have spread the cords of a net;
by the path they have set their traps for me. Selah
- <sup>6</sup> I said to the LORD, "You are my God.
Give ear to the voice of my pleas for help, O LORD."
<sup>7</sup> O sovereign LORD, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup> Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
do not let their evil schemes succeed or they will become arrogant. Selah
- <sup>9</sup> As for the head of those who surround me, let the damage plotted by their own lips overwhelm them.
<sup>10</sup> Let burning coals fall on them.
Let them be cast into the fire,
into deep pits from which they will rise no more.
<sup>11</sup> Do not allow a slanderer to be established in the earth;
let disaster quickly hunt down the violent.
<sup>12</sup> I know that the LORD will render justice for the needy, and defend the rights of the poor.
<sup>13</sup> Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name;
the upright will dwell in your presence.

DASV: Psalm 141A psalm of David*

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, I call out to you, come quickly to me.
    Listen to my voice,
    when I call out to you.
- <sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be accepted, as incense before you,
    my lifted hands, as an evening sacrifice.
- <sup>3</sup> Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
    put surveillance over the door of my lips.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not turn my heart to anything evil, to participate in wicked deeds with those who work iniquity;
    let me not eat their delicacies.
- <sup>5</sup> Let the righteous strike me, it will be a kindness;
    let him correct me,
    that will be like refreshing oil on the head;
    let my head not refuse it.
    I pray continually against the deeds of the wicked.
- <sup>6</sup> When their judges are thrown off a cliff, then they will hear my words, for they are pleasant.
- <sup>7</sup> As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
- <sup>8</sup> For my eyes are focused on you, O sovereign LORD;
    in you do I take refuge;
    do not leave me helpless.
- <sup>9</sup> Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me,
    and from the traps of evildoers.
- <sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I myself escape.

DASV: Psalm 142

A Maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A prayer.

- <sup>1</sup> I cry with my voice to the LORD, with my voice to the LORD I make a plea for help.
- <sup>2</sup> I pour out my complaint before him;
I declare my trouble before him.
- <sup>3</sup> When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
you know my path.
In the path where I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.
- <sup>4</sup> Look on my right hand and see,
for no one recognizes me.
There is no refuge left for me;
no one cares about me.
- <sup>5</sup> I cried out to you, O LORD,
I said, "You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living."
- <sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry,
for I have been brought down.
Deliver me from my persecutors,
for they are stronger than I am.
- <sup>7</sup> Bring me out of prison,
so that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will surround me,
for you will deal bountifully with me.

DASV: Psalm 143

A psalm of David

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD,
listen to my cry for help.
In your faithfulness answer me,
in your righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup> Do not enter into judgment with your servant,
for no one living is righteous in your sight.
- <sup>3</sup> For the enemy has pursued me,
he has crushed my life into the ground.
He has made me live in dark places, like those who are long dead.
- <sup>4</sup> Therefore my spirit is faint within me,
my heart within me is appalled.
- <sup>5</sup> I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all your deeds;
I ponder the work of your hands.
- <sup>6</sup> I stretch out my hands to you;
my soul thirsts after you like a parched land.     Selah
- <sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, O LORD, my spirit fails.
Do not hide your face from me,
or I will be like those who go down into the pit.
- <sup>8</sup> Let me hear your loyal love in the morning, for in you do I trust.
Let me know the way that I should walk,
for I lift up myself to you.
- <sup>9</sup> Deliver me, O LORD from my enemies;
I take refuge in you.
- <sup>10</sup> Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.
Your Spirit is good;
lead me on level ground.
- <sup>11</sup> Revive me, O LORD, for your name's sake;
in your righteousness bring me out of trouble.
- <sup>12</sup> In your loyal love cut off my enemies;
and destroy all my enemies,
for I am your servant.

DASV: Psalm 144Of David*

- <sup>1</sup> Praise be the LORD my rock.
He trains my hands for war,
and my fingers for battle.
- <sup>2</sup> He is my loyal love and my fortress,
my strong tower, and my deliverer,
my shield, and the one in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, what is man, that you notice him, or the son of man, that you think of him?
- <sup>4</sup> Humans are like a breath of air;
their days are like a passing shadow.
- <sup>5</sup> Stretch out your heavens, O LORD, and come down, touch the mountains, so that they will smoke.
- <sup>6</sup> Flash lightning bolts, and scatter them;
send out your arrows and rout them.
- <sup>7</sup> Reach down your hand from above;
rescue me and snatch me out of deep waters,
from the hand of foreigners
- <sup>8</sup> whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand makes false promises.
- <sup>9</sup> I will sing a new song to you, O God;
on a ten-stringed harp I will sing praises to you.
- <sup>10</sup> You are the one who grants deliverance to kings, who rescues David his servant from the fatal sword.
- <sup>11</sup> Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of foreigners whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand makes false promises.
- <sup>12</sup> May our sons be like plants full grown while in their youth, and our daughters be like corner pillars carved for display in a palace.
- <sup>13</sup> May our barns be full, providing all kinds of produce, and our sheep multiply by thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
- <sup>14</sup> May our oxen be loaded with produce;
may there be no breaking in our walls,
or going out into exile,
or cry of desperation in our streets.
- <sup>15</sup> Blessed are the people who are in such a situation;
blessed are the people whose God is the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 145

A Song of Praise. Of David

- <sup>1</sup> I will extol you, my God and King;
I will praise your name forever and ever.
- <sup>2</sup> Every day I will praise you;
I will praise your name forever and ever.
- <sup>3</sup> Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
no one can grasp the extent of his greatness.
- <sup>4</sup> One generation will praise your works to another, and will declare your mighty deeds.
- <sup>5</sup> On your glorious and majestic splendor, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.
- <sup>6</sup> They will speak of the might of your awesome acts, and I will declare your greatness.
- <sup>7</sup> They will broadcast the memory of your great goodness, and sing of your righteousness.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and full of loyal love.
- <sup>9</sup> The LORD is good to all,
and his compassion is over all his works.
- <sup>10</sup> All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and your faithful ones will praise you.
- <sup>11</sup> They will proclaim the glory of your kingdom,
and tell of your power;
- <sup>12</sup> to make known to the sons of men his mighty deeds, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.
- <sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your rule endures through all generations.
- The LORD is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all he does.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD supports all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.
- <sup>15</sup> The eyes of all expectantly look to you,
and you give them their food in due season.
- <sup>16</sup> You open your hand, and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
- <sup>17</sup> The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and manifests love in all his works.

- <sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to all those who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.
- <sup>19</sup> He fulfills the desire of those who fear him;
he will hear their cry and will save them.
- <sup>20</sup> The LORD protects all those who love him, but he will destroy all the wicked.
- <sup>21</sup> My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh praise his holy name forever and ever.

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD, O my soul.

<sup>2</sup> I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I am alive.

<sup>3</sup> Do not put your trust in princes, or in humans, in whom there is no help.

<sup>4</sup> His breath expires,
he returns to the earth;
in that very day his plans perish.

<sup>5</sup> Blessed is the one who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God,

<sup>6</sup> who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them.

He stays faithful forever.

<sup>7</sup> He executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD releases the prisoners.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
The LORD raises up those who are bowed down.
The LORD loves the righteous.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD protects the foreigners.
He supports the fatherless and widow,
but he thwarts the way of the wicked.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 147

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

For it is good to sing praises to our God;
for it is pleasant, and praise is fitting.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers together the exiles of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.

<sup>4</sup> He counts the number of the stars;
he calls all of them by name.

<sup>5</sup> Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
his understanding is limitless.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD lifts up the oppressed;
he throws the wicked down to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
sing praises to our God accompanied by a harp.

<sup>8</sup> He covers the heavens with clouds;
he prepares rain for the earth;
he makes grass to grow on the hills.

<sup>9</sup> He gives food to the animals, and to the young ravens when they twitter.

<sup>10</sup> He does not delight in the strength of the horse, nor does he delight in the strength of human legs.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD delights in those who fear him, in those that hope in his loyal love.

<sup>12</sup> Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion.

<sup>13</sup> For he has strengthened the bars of your gates;
he has blessed your children within you.

<sup>14</sup> He brings peace to your borders;
he fills you with the finest wheat.

<sup>15</sup> He sends out his command on earth;
his word runs swiftly.

<sup>16</sup> He sends snow like wool;
he scatters the frost like ashes.

<sup>17</sup> He hurls down his hail like crumbs;
who can stand before his cold?

<sup>18</sup> He sends out his word, and melts them;
he causes his wind to blow and the waters flow.

- <sup>19</sup> He declares his word to Jacob, his statutes and regulations to Israel.
- <sup>20</sup> He has not done this with any other nation;
they do not know his regulations.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 148

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.

<sup>2</sup> Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his heavenly hosts.

<sup>3</sup> Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.

<sup>4</sup> Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Let them praise the name of the LORD, for he commanded, and they were created.

<sup>6</sup> He established them forever and ever;
he gave a decree that will not pass away.

<sup>7</sup> Praise the LORD from the earth,
you immense sea creatures and all depths of the sea,

<sup>8</sup> fire and hail, snow and vapor, stormy wind, perform his word,

<sup>9</sup> mountains and all hills, fruitful trees and all cedars,

<sup>10</sup> beasts and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds,

<sup>11</sup> kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all judges of the earth,

<sup>12</sup> young men and virgins, the old and the young.

<sup>13</sup> Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted;
his glory is over the earth and the heavens.

<sup>14</sup> He has raised up the horn of his people, providing the praise for all his faithful ones,
for the descendants of Israel, a people near to him.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 149

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the godly.

<sup>2</sup> Let Israel rejoice in its Maker;
let the children of Zion rejoice in their King.

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise his name in the dance;
let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp.

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD takes pleasure in his people;
he will adorn the meek with victory.

<sup>5</sup> Let the godly exult in glory;
let them sing for joy on their beds.

<sup>6</sup> Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
and a two-edged sword in their hand,

<sup>7</sup> to execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples,

<sup>8</sup> to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with shackles of iron,

<sup>9</sup> to execute the judgment written against them.
This is glory for all his godly ones.

Praise the LORD.

DASV: Psalm 150

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD.

Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty heaven.

<sup>2</sup> Praise him for his powerful acts;
praise him according to his unmatched greatness.

<sup>3</sup> Praise him with the sound of the trumpet;
praise him with harp and lyre.

<sup>4</sup> Praise him with the tambourine and dance;
praise him with stringed instruments and flute.

<sup>5</sup> Praise him with crashing cymbals;
praise him with clanging cymbals.

<sup>6</sup> Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD.

Digital American Standard Version
DASV: Proverbs 1

- <sup>1</sup> The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel.
- <sup>2</sup> For learning wisdom and discipline,
for understanding insightful words;
- <sup>3</sup> for gaining instruction in doing what is wise,
righteous, just and fair;
- <sup>4</sup> for giving prudence to the simple,
to the young knowledge and discretion;
- <sup>5</sup> let the wise listen, and increase learning, and let those with understanding gain guidance;
- <sup>6</sup> for understanding proverbs, and parables,
the words of the wise, and their riddles.
- <sup>7</sup> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.
- <sup>8</sup> My son, listen to the instruction of your father,
and do not forsake your mother's teaching;
- <sup>9</sup> for they will be a crown of grace for your head,
and chains to adorn your neck.
- <sup>10</sup> My son, if sinners entice you,
do not consent.
- <sup>11</sup> If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait to shed blood, let us ambush the innocent for no reason.
- <sup>12</sup> Let us swallow them alive like the grave,
gulping them down whole,
as those who go down into the pit.
- <sup>13</sup> We will get all sorts of precious possessions, we will pile our houses full of plunder.
- <sup>14</sup> Throw in your lot with us,
we will all share one purse."

- <sup>15</sup> My son, do not walk in their way,
do not set your foot on their path;
<sup>16</sup> for their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to shed blood.
<sup>17</sup> For it is futile to spread a net in the sight of any bird.
<sup>18</sup> Yet these set a trap for their own blood, they ambush only themselves.
<sup>19</sup> Such are the ways of every one who is greedy for gain, unjust gain robs the life of its possessors.
- <sup>20</sup> Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the public squares she raises her voice.
<sup>21</sup> She cries out on main street, at the entrance of the city gates she proclaims her words:
<sup>22</sup> “How long will you simple ones love simplicity?
How long will you mockers delight in mocking?
How long will you fools hate knowledge?
<sup>23</sup> If you had turned at my reproof,
I would have poured out my spirit upon you;
I would have made my words known to you.
<sup>24</sup> Because I called and you refused,
I stretched out my hand, and no one paid attention;
<sup>25</sup> because you have ignored all my counsel, and rejected my reproof;
<sup>26</sup> I will laugh at your calamity,
I will mock when terror overtakes you.
<sup>27</sup> When panic attacks you like a storm, and disaster devastates you like a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish come upon you, <sup>28</sup> then will they call upon me, but I will not answer, they will diligently seek me, but they will not find me.
- <sup>29</sup> For they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD.
<sup>30</sup> For they rejected my counsel, they despised all my reproof.

- <sup>31</sup> Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and have their fill of their own schemes;
- <sup>32</sup> for the turning away of the simple will slay them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them.
- <sup>33</sup> But whoever listens to me will live in security, and will be at ease with no fear of harm."

DASV: Proverbs 2

- <sup>1</sup> My son, if you receive my words, and store up my commandments within you;
<sup>2</sup> turning your ear to wisdom, and applying your heart to understanding; <sup>3</sup> yes, if you cry out for discernment, and raise your voice for understanding;
<sup>4</sup> if you seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures;
<sup>5</sup> then you will understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.
- <sup>6</sup> For the LORD gives wisdom, out of his mouth come knowledge and understanding.
<sup>7</sup> He reserves sound wisdom for the upright, he is a shield to those who walk with integrity; <sup>8</sup> he guards the paths of the just,
and preserves the way of those faithful to him.
- <sup>9</sup> Then you will understand what is right and just,
and fair, yes, every good path.
<sup>10</sup> For wisdom will enter into your heart, and knowledge will bring joy to your soul;
<sup>11</sup> Discretion will watch over you,
and understanding will protect you.
- <sup>12</sup> Wisdom will save you from the way of evil, from those who speak perverted words;
<sup>13</sup> who abandon the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;
<sup>14</sup> who delight to do wrong,
and enjoy the perverseness of evil;
<sup>15</sup> who are crooked in their ways, and devious in their paths.
- <sup>16</sup> Wisdom will save you from the immoral woman,

- from the flattering words of the adulteress; <sup>17</sup> who has abandoned the partner of her youth, and forgotten the covenant made before God.
<sup>18</sup> For her house leads down to death, and her paths to the dead.
<sup>19</sup> None who go to her ever return, nor will they regain the paths of life.
- <sup>20</sup> But you will walk in the way of good men, and keep on the paths of the righteous.
<sup>21</sup> For the upright will live in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it; <sup>22</sup> but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

DASV: Proverbs 3

- <sup>1</sup> My son, never forget my instruction,
but keep my commands in your heart;
<sup>2</sup> for length of days and years of life, and peace they will add to you.
- <sup>3</sup> Never let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you,
bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart;
<sup>4</sup> then you will find favor and a good reputation in the sight of God and man.
- <sup>5</sup> Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not depend on your own understanding; <sup>6</sup> in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.
- <sup>7</sup> Do not be wise in your own eyes, fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.
<sup>8</sup> This will bring health to your body, and strength to your bones.
- <sup>9</sup> Honor the LORD with your wealth, and with the first fruits of all your crops; <sup>10</sup> then your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow with wine.
- <sup>11</sup> My son do not despise the LORD's chastening, or grow weary of his correction;
<sup>12</sup> because those the LORD loves, he reproveth, just as a father the son he delights in.
- <sup>13</sup> Happy is the one who finds wisdom,
the one who gets understanding;
<sup>14</sup> for gaining her is better than the acquiring of silver, and her benefits are more profitable than fine gold.

- <sup>15</sup> She is more precious than rubies, and nothing you desire compares with her.
- <sup>16</sup> Long life is in her right hand,
in her left are riches and honor.
- <sup>17</sup> Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.
- <sup>18</sup> She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and happy is every one who grasps her.
- <sup>19</sup> By wisdom the LORD founded the earth,
by understanding he established the heavens.
- <sup>20</sup> By his knowledge the watery depths sprung open,
and the clouds drop down the dew.
- <sup>21</sup> My son, do not lose sight of them,
hold on to common sense and discretion;
- <sup>22</sup> they will be life to your soul,
and a lovely ornament to adorn your neck.
- <sup>23</sup> Then you will walk on your way securely, and your foot will not stumble;
- <sup>24</sup> when you lie down, you will not be afraid;
you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not be afraid of sudden disaster, or the destruction that overtakes the wicked;
- <sup>26</sup> for the LORD will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.
- <sup>27</sup> Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when you have the ability to do it.
- <sup>28</sup> Do not say to your neighbor, “Go away, come back tomorrow and I will give it to you”
when you have it with you.
- <sup>29</sup> Do not plot evil against your neighbor, for the one who lives next to you trusts you.

- <sup>30</sup> Do not pick a fight with anyone without a reason, when he has done you no harm.
- <sup>31</sup> Do not envy the violent,
or choose any of their ways;
- <sup>32</sup> for the LORD detests the devious, but his friendship is offered to the upright.
- <sup>33</sup> The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the righteous.
- <sup>34</sup> Surely he mocks at the mockers,
but gives grace to the humble.
- <sup>35</sup> The wise will inherit honor,
but fools only shame.

DASV: Proverbs 4

- <sup>1</sup> Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction, and pay attention so that you may gain insight;
- <sup>2</sup> for I give you good guidance,
do not forsake my teaching.
- <sup>3</sup> For I was once a son to my father, dearly loved as an only child of my mother;
- <sup>4</sup> he taught me, and said to me, “Let your heart grasp my words, keep my commandments, and live.
- <sup>5</sup> Get wisdom, get insight,
do not forget or reject the words of my mouth.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not forsake her, and she will protect you;
love her, and she will watch over you.
- <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is the first principle, therefore get wisdom, whatever else you obtain get understanding.
- <sup>8</sup> Prize her, and she will promote you,
she will honor you, if you embrace her.
- <sup>9</sup> She will put a lovely wreath on your head, she will present you with a beautiful crown.”
- <sup>10</sup> Listen, my son, and accept my sayings, and the years of your life will be many.
- <sup>11</sup> I teach you the way of wisdom,
I lead you in paths of uprightness.
- <sup>12</sup> When you walk your steps will not be hampered,
and when you run, you will not stumble.
- <sup>13</sup> Hang on to instruction,
do not let her not go;
guard her, for she is your life.
- <sup>14</sup> Do not set foot on the path of the wicked, or walk in the way of evil doers.
- <sup>15</sup> Avoid it, do not go there, turn from it, and move on.
- <sup>16</sup> For they cannot sleep until they do evil, and they are robbed of slumber until they cause someone to stumble.

<sup>17</sup> For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

<sup>18</sup> But the path of the righteous is like the first light of dawn, it shines brighter until the full daylight arrives.

<sup>19</sup> The way of the wicked is like darkness, they do not know what they stumble over.

<sup>20</sup> My son, pay attention to my words, bend your ear to my sayings.

<sup>21</sup> Do not let them out of your sight, keep them deep in your heart.

<sup>22</sup> For they are life to those who find them, and fitness to all their flesh.

<sup>23</sup> Carefully guard your heart, for out of it flow the decisions of life.

<sup>24</sup> Put away perverted speech from your mouth, corrupt talk far from your lips.

<sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look straight ahead, focus your gaze on what is before you.

<sup>26</sup> Set a straight path for your feet, stay on the sure ways.

<sup>27</sup> Do not swerve to the right or to the left,
keep your foot from evil.

DASV: Proverbs 5

- <sup>1</sup> My son, pay attention to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding;
<sup>2</sup> so that you may preserve discretion, and your lips may maintain knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil; <sup>4</sup> but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.
<sup>5</sup> Her feet go down to death,
her steps lead straight to the grave;
<sup>6</sup> for she does not care about the path of life, her ways wander, and she does not know it.
- <sup>7</sup> Now my sons, listen to me,
and do not turn from the words of my mouth.
<sup>8</sup> Keep your way far from her,
and do not go near the door of her house.
<sup>9</sup> Lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel;
<sup>10</sup> lest strangers devour your wealth, and your labors go to the house of another man.
<sup>11</sup> At the end of your life you will groan, when your flesh and your body are consumed;
<sup>12</sup> and will you say, “How I hated discipline, and my heart despised being corrected.
<sup>13</sup> I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, or inclined mine ear to my instructors.
<sup>14</sup> Now I am at the point of utter ruin, in front of the public assembly.”
- <sup>15</sup> Drink water from your own cistern, and running water from your own well.
<sup>16</sup> Should your springs be spilled everywhere, and your streams of water, in the streets?
<sup>17</sup> Let them be yours alone, and not shared with strangers.

- <sup>18</sup> Let your fountain be blessed,
and rejoice in the wife of your youth.
- <sup>19</sup> She is like a lovely deer and a graceful doe.
May her breasts satisfy you always,
may you always be intoxicated by her love.
- <sup>20</sup> Why should you, my son, be intoxicated with an immoral woman, and embrace the bosom of an adulteress?
- <sup>21</sup> For a man's ways are seen by the eyes of the LORD, and he examines all his paths.
- <sup>22</sup> The iniquities of the wicked will trap him, and he will be bound by the ropes of his sin.
- <sup>23</sup> He will die for lack of discipline, and be led astray by his own great folly.

DASV: Proverbs 6

- <sup>1</sup> My son, if you have put up collateral for your neighbor's debt, if you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger, <sup>2</sup> if you are snared by what you have said, caught by the words of your mouth, <sup>3</sup> do this now, my son, and save yourself, since you have fallen under obligation to your neighbor, go, humble yourself, and plead with your neighbor.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not give sleep to your eyes, or slumber to your eyelids.
- <sup>5</sup> Save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, and like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
- <sup>6</sup> Go to the ant, you sluggard;
consider its ways, and be wise.
- <sup>7</sup> It has no chief, governor, or ruler, <sup>8</sup> yet it prepares its provisions in the summer, and gathers its food in the harvest.
- <sup>9</sup> How long will you sleep, O sluggard?
When will you wake up from your sleep?
- <sup>10</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest;
<sup>11</sup> and poverty will assail you like a robber, and scarcity will attack you like an armed bandit.
- <sup>12</sup> A worthless person, a wicked man, walks around with a crooked mouth.
- <sup>13</sup> He winks with his eyes, and signals with his feet, and makes signs with his fingers.
- <sup>14</sup> Whose perverted heart plots evil continually, who constantly sows discord.
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore disaster will destroy him suddenly,
he will be broken in an instant beyond repair.
- <sup>16</sup> There are six things the LORD hates,
seven that are detestable to him:

17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that plots wicked plans,
feet that run to do evil, 19 a false witness who propagates lies,
and he who sows discord among brothers.

20 My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake your mother's instruction.

21 Bind them always upon your heart, fasten them around your neck.

22 When you walk, they will guide you, when you sleep, they will watch over you,
and when you wake up, they will talk to you.

23 For the command is a lamp, and the instruction is a light,
and the reproofs of discipline are the way to life,

24 to keep you from the immoral woman, from the smooth tongue of the adulteress.

25 Do not lust after her beauty in your heart, or let her seduce you with her eyelashes.

26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread, and the adulteress preys upon your precious life.

27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
and his clothes not be burned?

28 Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?

29 So is he who sleeps with his neighbor's wife, no one who touches her will go unpunished.

30 Men do not despise a thief,
if he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.

31 Yet if he is caught, he must repay seven times what he stole, even if it costs him all the goods of his house.

32 He who commits adultery lacks sense,
he destroys his own soul.

33 He will get wounds and dishonor, and his disgrace will never be erased.

<sup>34</sup> For jealousy sparks a husband's fury,
and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

<sup>35</sup> He will not accept any compensation, or be satisfied with a bribe of any size.

DASV: Proverbs 7

- <sup>1</sup> My son, keep my words,
and treasure my commandments with you.
- <sup>2</sup> Keep my commandments and live, guard my instruction as the apple of your eye.
- <sup>3</sup> Bind them upon your fingers,
write them upon the tablet of your heart.
- <sup>4</sup> Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” and call understanding your closest relative;
- <sup>5</sup> that they may keep you from the immoral woman, from the promiscuous woman with her flattering words.
- <sup>6</sup> At the window of my house I looked out through my lattice.
- <sup>7</sup> I saw among the simple,
I observed among the youths,
a young man lacking sense,
- <sup>8</sup> going through the street near her corner,
and walking down the path to her house,
- <sup>9</sup> in the twilight, in the evening,
as the dark of the night set in.
- <sup>10</sup> Then a woman came out to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and sly of heart.
- <sup>11</sup> She was loud and rebellious,
her feet do not stay at home;
- <sup>12</sup> now in the streets, now in the squares,
she lurks at every corner.
- <sup>13</sup> She grabbed him, and kissed him,
and with brazen face she said to him,
- <sup>14</sup> “I have offered my peace-offerings,
today I have fulfilled my vows.
- <sup>15</sup> So I came out to meet you,
to eagerly seek your face,
and now I have found you.
- <sup>16</sup> I have spread my bed with colored sheets, with a beautiful bedspread from Egypt.

- <sup>17</sup> I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- <sup>18</sup> Come, let us drink deeply of love until the morning, let us delight ourselves with love.
- <sup>19</sup> For my husband is not at home,
He is gone on a long trip.
- <sup>20</sup> He has taken a bag full of money,
he will not come home until the full moon.”
- <sup>21</sup> With her seductive speech she persuaded him, with her flattering lips she enticed him.
- <sup>22</sup> Suddenly he went after her,
like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a deer caught in a trap,
- <sup>23</sup> awaiting the deadly arrow that would pierce its liver, he is like a bird darting into a snare, not knowing that it would cost him his life.
- <sup>24</sup> Now my sons, listen to me,
and pay attention to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not let your heart wander into her ways, do not stray into her paths.
- <sup>26</sup> For she has brought down many victims,
she has slain many casualties.
- <sup>27</sup> Her house is the way to the grave, descending to the chambers of death.

DASV: Proverbs 8

- <sup>1</sup> Does not wisdom call?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
- <sup>2</sup> On the heights beside the way,
where the paths meet, she stands;
- <sup>3</sup> beside the gates into the city,
at the entrance road she cries aloud,
- <sup>4</sup> “To you, O people, I call out,
and I raise my voice to everyone.
- <sup>5</sup> You who are simple learn prudence,
you fools acquire understanding.
- <sup>6</sup> Listen for I speak significant things, and my lips say what is right.
- <sup>7</sup> My mouth speaks the truth, and my lips detest wickedness.
- <sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth are just,
there is nothing crooked or perverted in them.
- <sup>9</sup> They are plain to one with understanding, and right to one who finds knowledge.
- <sup>10</sup> Choose my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold,
- <sup>11</sup> for wisdom is better than rubies,
and anything you desire can not compare with it.
- <sup>12</sup> I wisdom dwell with prudence,
I know how to find knowledge and discretion.
- <sup>13</sup> The fear of the LORD is to hate evil,
I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way and the perverse mouth.
- <sup>14</sup> Counsel and sound wisdom are mine,
I have insight and strength.
- <sup>15</sup> By me kings reign,
and rulers make just decrees.
- <sup>16</sup> By me rulers rule, and nobles judge righteously.

- <sup>17</sup> I love those who love me,
and those who diligently seek me, find me.
- <sup>18</sup> Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and prosperity.
- <sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold,
and my wages better than choice silver.
- <sup>20</sup> I walk in the way of righteousness,
in paths of justice,
- <sup>21</sup> granting wealth to those who love me,
and filling their treasuries.
- <sup>22</sup> The LORD created me in the beginning,
the first of his works of old.
- <sup>23</sup> I was set up from everlasting,
from the beginning,
before the earth was.
- <sup>24</sup> When there were no ocean depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.
- <sup>25</sup> Before the mountains were settled, before the hills I was born;
- <sup>26</sup> before he made the earth and its fields,
or the first dust of the world.
- <sup>27</sup> I was there when he established the heavens, when he drew the horizon on the face of the deep,
- <sup>28</sup> when he set the skies above,
when the fountains of the deep were fixed,
- <sup>29</sup> when he set the boundary of the sea,
so the waters would not surge beyond his commandment,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth;
- <sup>30</sup> then I was a master craftsman,
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him,
- <sup>31</sup> rejoicing in his whole world,
and delighting in all humankind.
- <sup>32</sup> Now therefore, my sons, listen to me,
for blessed are those who keep my ways.

- <sup>33</sup> Listen to my instruction and be wise, and do not reject it.
- <sup>34</sup> Blessed is the one who listens to me,
watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doorway.
- <sup>35</sup> For whoever finds me, finds life, and obtains favor from the LORD.
- <sup>36</sup> But whoever misses me hurts himself, all those who hate me, love death.”

DASV: Proverbs 9

- <sup>1</sup> Wisdom has built her house,
she has carved out her seven pillars.
- <sup>2</sup> She has prepared her meat,
she has mixed her wine,
she has set her table.
- <sup>3</sup> She has sent out her maidens,
she calls out from the highest parts of the city,
- <sup>4</sup> “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!”
To the one who lacks understanding, she says,
- <sup>5</sup> “Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have mixed.
- <sup>6</sup> Leave your simple ways, and live, and walk in the way of understanding.”
- <sup>7</sup> Whoever corrects a mocker will get insulted, and one who rebukes the wicked will get hurt.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not rebuke a mocker, or he will hate you, rebuke the wise, and he will love you.
- <sup>9</sup> Instruct the wise, and he will become even wiser, teach the righteous, and he will increase in learning.
- <sup>10</sup> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- <sup>11</sup> For by me your days will be multiplied, and years added to your life.
- <sup>12</sup> If you are wise, your wisdom will benefit you,
and if you mock, you alone will suffer.
- <sup>13</sup> The woman Folly is loud,
She is ignorant, and knows nothing.
- <sup>14</sup> She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places of the city,
- <sup>15</sup> calling out to those who pass by,
who go straight on their way,
- <sup>16</sup> “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here,”
and to the one who lacks sense, she says,

- <sup>17</sup> “Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.”
- <sup>18</sup> But they do not know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

and not serve under common folks.

DASV: Proverbs 23

- <sup>1</sup> When you sit to eat with a ruler, pay attention to what is put before you,

    if you are one given to gluttony.
<sup>3</sup> Do not desire his delicacies, for that is deceptive food.

    and your ears to the words of knowledge.
- <sup>13</sup> Do not withhold discipline from a child, then my heart will be glad;

- <sup>16</sup> yes, my heart will rejoice,
    when your lips speak right things.

    and guide your heart in the right way.
- <sup>20</sup> Do not join in with winebibbers, and increases the unfaithful among men.

- <sup>29</sup> Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has fights?
    Who is always complaining? Who has unnecessary bruises?

those who seek out mixed drinks.
- <sup>31</sup> Do not look at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.

and stings like a viper.
- <sup>33</sup> Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will say crazy things.
- <sup>34</sup> You will be like one lying down in the midst of the sea, or swaying like one lying on the top of a mast.
- <sup>35</sup> “They hit me,” you will say, “but I am not hurt.
They beat me, but I do not feel it.
When will I wake up so I can have another drink?”

DASV: Proverbs 24

- <sup>1</sup> Do not be jealous of evil people, or desire to be with them, <sup>2</sup> for their heart plots violence, and their lips talk of trouble.

he does not open his mouth in the city gate.
- <sup>8</sup> One who plots evil, people will call him a trouble-maker.
- <sup>9</sup> The schemes of the foolish are sin, and people detest a mocker.

your strength is small.
- <sup>11</sup> Rescue those who are taken away to death, and hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter.
- <sup>12</sup> If you say, “Look, we knew nothing about it,” does not he who weighs the hearts perceive it?
Does not he who keeps your life know it?
And will he not render to every one according to their deeds?
- <sup>13</sup> My son, eat honey, for it is good,
and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste,
<sup>14</sup> so is wisdom to your soul,
if you find it, you will have a future,

and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>15</sup> Do not lie in wait like the wicked, against the house of the righteous,
do not destroy his home,

<sup>16</sup> for the righteous will fall seven times, yet rise up again, but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

<sup>17</sup> Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he is overthrown,

<sup>18</sup> Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he will turn his wrath away from him.

<sup>19</sup> Do not fret because of evil-doers, or be envious of the wicked,

<sup>20</sup> for there the evil have no future,
the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

from the LORD and the king.

<sup>23</sup> These also are sayings of the wise:

to show favoritism in judgment is not good.

<sup>24</sup> Whoever says to the wicked, "You are innocent,"
many people will curse him and nations abhor him,

<sup>25</sup> but those who convict the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them.

and then afterwards build your house.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

<sup>29</sup> Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me,
I will repay him for what he has done.”

<sup>30</sup> I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of a person lacking sense,

<sup>31</sup> And, look, it was all grown over with thorns, the ground was covered with weeds,
and its stone wall was broken down.

<sup>32</sup> Then I saw, I thought about it,
I looked and received instruction:

<sup>33</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep;

<sup>34</sup> and poverty will come on you like a robber, and scarcity like an armed thug.

<sup>1</sup> These are more proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search it out.

<sup>3</sup> As the heavens are high, and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

<sup>4</sup> Take away dross from the silver, and the vessel is ready for the silversmith.

<sup>5</sup> Take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established by righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> Do not push yourself into the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of great men,

<sup>7</sup> for it is better to be told, "Come up here," than that you should be humiliated in the presence of a noble.

What your eyes have seen

<sup>8</sup> do not bring quickly to court, for what will you do in the end,
when your neighbor puts you to shame?

<sup>9</sup> Argue your case directly with your neighbor, and do not disclose another's secret;

<sup>10</sup> or he who hears it will shame you, and your bad reputation will never end.

<sup>11</sup> A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a silver basket.

so is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.

<sup>13</sup> Like a cool snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
he refreshes the soul of his masters.

<sup>14</sup> Like clouds and wind without rain, so is one who boasts of a gift never given.

<sup>15</sup> By patience a ruler can be persuaded,
and a soft tongue can break the bone.

eat only as much as is sufficient for you,
or you will have too much and vomit it up.

<sup>17</sup> Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house, or he will grow weary of you and hate you.

<sup>18</sup> One who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club, a sword or a sharp arrow.

<sup>19</sup> Relying on an unfaithful person in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a lame foot.

<sup>20</sup> Like one who takes away a coat in cold weather, or pours vinegar on soda,
so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

<sup>21</sup> If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

<sup>22</sup> for you will heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD will reward you.

<sup>23</sup> As the north wind brings rain, so a backbiting tongue brings an angry look.

<sup>24</sup> It is better to live in the corner of a housetop, than with a contentious wife in a spacious house.

<sup>25</sup> Like cold waters to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.

<sup>26</sup> Like a muddied fountain and a polluted spring, so is a righteous person who gives in to the wicked.

<sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat much honey, or to seek honor for oneself.

<sup>28</sup> One who lacks self-control is like a city broken into and without walls.

DASV: Proverbs 26

so honor is not fitting for a fool.
- <sup>2</sup> Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, so an undeserved curse will not land on the innocent.
- <sup>3</sup> A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.

so a sluggard turns upon his bed.
- <sup>15</sup> The sluggard buries his hand in the dish, he is too exhausted to bring it back to his mouth.
- <sup>16</sup> The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who can answer sensibly.

<sup>19</sup> so is one who deceives his neighbor, and says "I was just joking."

for there are seven abominations concealed in his heart.
- <sup>26</sup> Though his hatred is covered with guile, his wickedness will be openly exposed before the assembly.

and the one who rolls a stone down on someone,
it will roll back upon him.

The man declared: "I am weary, O God,
I am weary, O God, and worn out."

<sup>2</sup> Surely I am too stupid to be human, and I do not have human understanding.

<sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom, nor do I have human knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup> Who has ever ascended to heaven, and come back down?
Who has grasped the wind in his fists?
Who has wrapped up the waters in his garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name?
Surely you know!

<sup>5</sup> Every word of God proves true,
he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup> Do not add to his words, or he will rebuke you, and expose you as a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things have I asked from you, do not deny them to me before I die:

<sup>8</sup> remove falsehood and lies far from me;
give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me just the food I need.

<sup>9</sup> For if I am full,
I may deny you and say, "Who is the LORD?"
or if I am poor,
I may steal and dishonor the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you and you will pay for it.

<sup>11</sup> There are those who curse their father, and do not bless their mother.

<sup>12</sup> There are those who are pure in their own eyes, and yet are not cleansed from their filthiness.

<sup>13</sup> There are those--oh how arrogant are their eyes, and how their eyelids look with disdain.

<sup>14</sup> There are those whose teeth are swords, and their fangs are knives, devouring the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among humankind.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters, crying, "Give, give."

There are three things that are never satisfied,
yes, four that never say, "Enough":

<sup>16</sup> the grave,
the barren womb,
the earth that is never satisfied with water,
and the fire which never says "Enough".

<sup>17</sup> The eye that mocks a father, or scorns to obey a mother, will be plucked out by the ravens of the valley,
and be eaten by vultures.

<sup>18</sup> There are three things that are too wonderful for me, yes, four I do not understand:

<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a serpent upon a rock,
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
and the way of a man with a woman.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulterous woman:

she eats, wipes her mouth,
and says, "I have done nothing wrong."

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot endure:

<sup>22</sup> a servant who becomes king,
a fool who is full of food;

<sup>23</sup> an unloved woman when she gets married, and a handmaid who supplants her mistress.

<sup>24</sup> There are four things that are little on the earth, yet they are exceedingly wise:
<sup>25</sup> the ants are creatures not very strong,
yet they store up their food in the summer; <sup>26</sup> the rock badgers are feeble, yet they make their homes in the rocks;
<sup>27</sup> the locusts have no king, yet they all march forth in ranks;
<sup>28</sup> the lizard can easily be caught by hand, yet they are found in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup> There are three things that are stately in their stride, yes, four that strut out:
<sup>30</sup> the lion, which is mightiest among beasts, and does not retreat for anything; <sup>31</sup> the strutting rooster;
the male goat;
and the king leading his army.

<sup>32</sup> If you have foolishly lifted yourself up, or if you have plotted evil,
put your hand over your mouth.
<sup>33</sup> For as the churning of milk produces butter, and punching the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

DASV: Proverbs 31

- <sup>1</sup> The words of king Lemuel, an oracle his mother taught him.
- <sup>2</sup> “O my son! O son of my womb! O son of my vows!
<sup>3</sup> Do not give your strength to women, or your ways to those who destroy kings.
- <sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, not for princes to crave strong drink.
- <sup>5</sup> Lest they drink, and forget the law,
and pervert justice for the oppressed.
- <sup>6</sup> Give strong drink to one who is perishing, and wine to one in bitter distress.
- <sup>7</sup> Let them drink, and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.
- <sup>8</sup> Speak up for those who cannot,
for the rights of all who are destitute.
- <sup>9</sup> Speak up, judge righteously, and make sure the poor and needy get justice.”
- <sup>10</sup> A virtuous woman who can find?
For her price is far above rubies.
- <sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.
- <sup>12</sup> She does him good and not evil
all the days of her life.
- <sup>13</sup> She seeks wool and flax,
and works willingly with her hands.
- <sup>14</sup> She is like merchant ships, she brings her food from far away.
- <sup>15</sup> She gets up while it is still night,
and prepares food for her household,
and portions for her servant girls.
- <sup>16</sup> She considers a field, and buys it, with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

- <sup>17</sup> She clothes herself with strength, and strengthens her arms.
- <sup>18</sup> She makes sure that her trading is profitable;
her lamp does not go out at night.
- <sup>19</sup> Her hands grasp the distaff, and her fingers hold the spindle.
- <sup>20</sup> She stretches out her hand to the poor,
she reaches out to the needy.
- <sup>21</sup> She is not afraid for her household because of the snow, for they are clothed with scarlet.
- <sup>22</sup> She makes her own bedspreads, her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- <sup>23</sup> Her husband is known in the city gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
- <sup>24</sup> She makes linen garments and sells them, and delivers sashes to the merchants.
- <sup>25</sup> Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the future.
- <sup>26</sup> She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and kind instruction is on her tongue.
- <sup>27</sup> She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of laziness.
- <sup>28</sup> Her children rise up, and call her blessed,
her husband also praises her, saying:
- <sup>29</sup> “Many daughters are virtuous, but you have surpassed them all.”
- <sup>30</sup> Charm is deceitful, and beauty fades, but a woman who fears the LORD,
she will be praised.
- <sup>31</sup> Reward her from the work of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Ecclesiastes 1

- <sup>1</sup> The words of the Teacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
<sup>2</sup> "Vanity of vanities," says the Teacher [Qohelet].
    "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."
- <sup>3</sup> What benefit does one get from all his effort at which he toils under the sun?
<sup>4</sup> A generation comes, a generation goes,
    but the earth remains forever.
<sup>5</sup> The sun rises, the sun sets, and hurries back to the place where it rises again.
<sup>6</sup> The wind blows to the south, and turns around to the north;
    it goes round and round,
    continually circling back around.
<sup>7</sup> All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full.
    To the place where the rivers flow,
    there they go again.
<sup>8</sup> All things are full of weariness, more than one can ever say.
    The eye is never satisfied with seeing,
    or the ear filled with hearing.
<sup>9</sup> That which has been is exactly that which will be;
    what has already been done,
    is what will be done again.
    There is nothing new under the sun.
<sup>10</sup> Is there anything of which it may be said,
    "Look, here is something new?"
    It has already been done long ago, in the ages before our time.
<sup>11</sup> No one remembers what happened in the past;
    nor will anyone remember the things that are coming,
    by those who come after them.
<sup>12</sup> I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> I dedicated my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven. It is an onerous burden that God has laid on human beings to be busy about.

<sup>14</sup> I have seen all the accomplishments that are done under the sun; and conclude, all is vanity, as futile as chasing the wind.

<sup>15</sup> What is crooked cannot be made straight, what is missing cannot be counted.

<sup>16</sup> I said to myself, "I have achieved great wisdom beyond all who ruled Jerusalem before me." My mind has carefully observed wisdom and knowledge.

<sup>17</sup> I devoted my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I realized that this, too, was as futile as chasing the wind.

the one who increases knowledge, increases sorrow.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 2

<sup>1</sup> I said to myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy yourself." But this also was futile.

<sup>2</sup> I said of laughter, "It is madness," and of pleasure, "What does it accomplish?"

<sup>3</sup> I searched in my heart attempting to cheer myself with wine--my heart still guiding me with wisdom--and grasping folly, so I might discover what was good for people to do under heaven during the few days of their life.

<sup>4</sup> I attempted great projects. I built palaces and planted vineyards for myself.

<sup>7</sup> I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, beyond all who were before me in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> I accumulated silver and gold and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers for myself, and a harem full of concubines, every sensual delight a man could want.

<sup>9</sup> So I was great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever my eyes desired I did not deny them. I did not restrain my heart from any pleasure. So my heart rejoiced because of all my pursuits; and this was my reward for all my labor.

<sup>11</sup> Then I considered everything my hands had accomplished, and on the labor that I had expended to achieve it, and yet all was futility and a mere chasing after the wind. There was nothing gained under the sun.

<sup>12</sup> So I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness and folly. For what more can the one who succeeds the king do? It has already been done.

<sup>13</sup> Then I realized, "Wisdom is better than folly, just as light is better than darkness.

<sup>14</sup> The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness." Yet I perceived that a similar fate happens to them all.

<sup>15</sup> Then said I to myself, "The same fate that happens to a fool, will also happen to me, so what was the benefit for me being wise?" Then I said to myself, "This too is futile."

<sup>16</sup> For the wise just like the fool will not be remembered for long; seeing that in the days to come everything will be forgotten. Tragically, the wise man dies just like the fool!

<sup>17</sup> So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. Everything is futile, a chasing after wind.

<sup>18</sup> I hated all my labor wherein I toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the one who succeeds me.

<sup>19</sup> Who knows whether he will be wise or foolish? Yet he will control everything I have labored so hard for using my wisdom under the sun. This also is futile.

<sup>20</sup> So I turned and resigned my heart to despair concerning all the toil that I had labored under the sun.

<sup>21</sup> For some people labor with wisdom, knowledge and skill and yet they must leave it to someone who has not worked for it. This also is a frustrating futility and a great tragedy.

<sup>22</sup> For what does a person get for all his labor and anxious struggle of his heart, with which he toils under the sun?

<sup>23</sup> For all his days are full of sorrow, and his toil full of grief. Even in the night his heart cannot rest. This also is futile.

<sup>24</sup> There is nothing better for a person than that he should eat and drink, and find enjoyment in his labor. I realized this too comes from the hand of God.

<sup>26</sup> For to the one who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and accumulating wealth only so that he may hand it over to the one who pleases God. This, too, is futile, a mere chasing after wind.

<sup>1</sup> For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
<sup>2</sup> a time to be born,
and a time to die;
a time to plant,
and a time to pull up what has been planted;
<sup>3</sup> a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up;
<sup>4</sup> a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
<sup>5</sup> a time to scatter stones, and a time to gather stones;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
<sup>6</sup> a time to seek,
and a time to give up searching;
a time to keep,
and a time to throw away;
<sup>7</sup> a time to tear,
and a time to sew;
a time to be silent,
and a time to speak;
<sup>8</sup> a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time for war,
and a time for peace.

<sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time, he has put eternity in their heart, yet people cannot fathom the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end.

<sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy, and to enjoy themselves as long as they live, <sup>13</sup> and also that everyone should eat and drink, and find enjoyment in all his labor, for this is the gift of God.

<sup>14</sup> I know that whatever God does will last forever; nothing can be added to it, nor can anything be taken away from it. God has done this so that humans will fear him.

<sup>15</sup> Whatever is has already been;
so also whatever will be has already been;
for God will seek to do again what has already happened before.

<sup>16</sup> Furthermore, I observed under the sun:
in the place of justice,
wickedness was there;
in the place of righteousness,
wickedness was there.

<sup>17</sup> I said in my heart,
"God will judge the righteous and the wicked;
for there is a time of accounting for every matter and for every deed."

<sup>18</sup> I said in my heart, "With regard to human beings, God tests them to prove to them that they are like the animals."

<sup>19</sup> For that which happens to humans also happens to the animals; the same thing happens to both; as the one dies, so the other dies; they both have the same breath. Humans have no advantage over the animals; for all is futile.

<sup>20</sup> All go to the same place; all come from the dust, and all return to dust.

<sup>21</sup> Who knows if the human spirit goes upward, and the spirit of the animals goes downward into the earth?

<sup>22</sup> So I realized that there is nothing better, than that a person should rejoice in his work; for that is his lot. Who can show him what the future will be after he is gone?

DASV: Ecclesiastes 4

- <sup>1</sup> Then I looked again at all the oppressions that are done under the sun.
Look, the tears of oppressed,
but they had none to comfort them.
Power was on the side of their oppressors;
but they had none to comfort them.
- <sup>2</sup> So I thought the dead who are already dead are more fortunate than those living, who are still alive.
- <sup>3</sup> Even better than both of them is one who has not yet been born, who has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.
- <sup>4</sup> Then I saw all toil and skilful work was done because one person envied his neighbor.
This also is futile and a chasing after the wind.
- <sup>5</sup> The fool folds his hands together, and eats his own flesh.
- <sup>6</sup> Better is a handful with quietness, than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind.
- <sup>7</sup> Again I saw futility under the sun:
<sup>8</sup> There is one who is all alone,
he has neither son or brother;
yet there is no end to his toil,
and his eyes are never satisfied with riches.
"For whom then," he asks, "am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?"
This also is futile,
it is a pathetic business.
- <sup>9</sup> Two are better than one,
because they have a good reward for their toil.
- <sup>10</sup> For if one falls,
the other will help his friend up;
but pity the one who is alone when he falls,
and has no one to help him up.
- <sup>11</sup> Again, if two lie down together,
they can keep each other warm.

But how can someone who is alone stay warm?

<sup>12</sup> Although a person may prevail against one who is alone, two will be able to withstand him.

A rope of three cords is not quickly broken.

<sup>13</sup> It is better to be a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who does not know how to accept advice anymore.

<sup>14</sup> For the youth got out of prison to become king; even though he was born poor in his kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> I saw all the living who walk under the sun, follow the youth who replaced the king.

<sup>16</sup> There was no end of all the people over whom he rules, yet those who come after will not be happy with him. Surely this also is futile, a chasing after the wind.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 5

- <sup>1</sup> Guard you steps when you go to the house of God;
for it is better to draw near to listen,
than to offer the sacrifice of fools,
for they know not that they do evil.
- <sup>2</sup> Do not be rash with your mouth,
do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God;
for God is in heaven,
and you are on earth,
therefore let your words be few.
- <sup>3</sup> For just as dreams come with many cares,
so a fool's voice comes with many words.
- <sup>4</sup> When you make a vow to God,
do not delay to fulfill it;
for he has no pleasure in fools, fulfill what you have vowed.
- <sup>5</sup> It is better that you not vow,
than that you make a vow and not fulfill it.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not allow your mouth to cause you to sin;
do not tell the temple messenger,
"It was a mistake."
Why should God be angry at your voice, and so destroy the work of your hands?
- <sup>7</sup> For with many dreams there is futility,
so too with many words,
rather fear God.
- <sup>8</sup> If you see in a province the oppression of the poor, and violence exploiting justice and righteousness,
do not be astonished by it,
for a high official is monitored by a higher one;
and there are ones even higher over them.
- <sup>9</sup> The produce of the land benefits everyone, even the king is served by the field.
- <sup>10</sup> He who loves money will never be satisfied with money;
nor he who loves wealth with his wages.
This also is futile.
- <sup>11</sup> When goods increase,
so do those who consume them;
so what advantage is it for its owner, except he gets to gaze on them with his own eyes?

<sup>12</sup> The sleep of a hard worker is sweet, whether he eats little or much;
but the wealth of the rich,
will not let him sleep.

<sup>13</sup> There is a great misfortune I have seen under the sun, riches hoarded by its owner,
to his own demise.

<sup>14</sup> Those riches lost by a bad endeavor,
even though he has a son,
there will be nothing left to give him.

<sup>15</sup> As naked as one comes from his mother's womb, so he will depart again, naked as he came.
He can take away nothing for all his toil,
that he may carry it away in his hand.

<sup>16</sup> This also is a great misfortune, just as he came, so he will depart.
What gain does he get from toiling for the wind?

<sup>17</sup> Also all his days he eats in darkness, terribly frustrated, sick and angry.

<sup>18</sup> This is what I have discovered to be good and appropriate: to eat and drink, and find enjoyment in all one's laborious toil under the sun, all the days of his life God has given him, for this is his lot in life.

<sup>19</sup> Also everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, he also has given him ability to eat them, to accept his lot, and to find enjoyment in his toil--this is the gift of God.

<sup>20</sup> For he does not constantly reflect back on the days of his life; because God keeps him occupied with the present joy of his heart.

<sup>2</sup> God give a person riches, wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing that his heart desires, but God does not enable him to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys it instead. This is futility and a great misfortune.

<sup>3</sup> If a man has a hundred children and lives many years, however many the days his years are, if he does not enjoy life's benefits, and he has no decent burial; I conclude that a stillborn child is better off than he is.

<sup>4</sup> For though the stillborn entered in futility, and departed into darkness, and its name was shrouded in darkness;

<sup>5</sup> even though it had never seen the sun or known anything, this one has rest rather than that unhappy man.

<sup>6</sup> Even if he lives a thousand years twice over, yet does not enjoy any good, do not all go to the same place?

<sup>7</sup> All human toil is for the mouth, and yet the appetite is never satisfied.

<sup>8</sup> For what advantage does the wise person have over the fool?
What benefit is there for the poor,
who know how to conduct themselves before the living?

<sup>9</sup> Better to be content with what the eyes see,
than the wandering of the desire for more.
This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever has been, it was named long ago;
and it was known what man is;
neither can anyone argue with God about it for there is no one stronger than he is.

<sup>11</sup> The more words, the more futility,
How does it benefit anyone?

<sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for a person while he lives all the days of his brief life. He passes by like a shadow. For who can tell someone what will happen after him under the sun?

DASV: Ecclesiastes 7

- <sup>1</sup> A good name is better than precious perfume, and the day of death better than the day of one's birth.
- <sup>2</sup> It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of every one,
and the living should take this to heart.
- <sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter, for a sad face is good for the heart.
- <sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of merriment.
- <sup>5</sup> It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than to hear the song of fools.
- <sup>6</sup> For like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool,
this also is meaningless.
- <sup>7</sup> Surely extortion makes the wise foolish, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- <sup>8</sup> Better is the end of a thing than its beginning, the patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.
- <sup>9</sup> Be not quick in your spirit to be angry,
for anger resides in the belly of fools.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not ask, "Why were the good old days better than these days?"
for it is not wise to ask this.
- <sup>11</sup> Wisdom is as good as an inheritance,
it benefits those who see the sun.
- <sup>12</sup> For wisdom protects, just like money protects;
but the benefit of knowledge is,
that wisdom preserves the life of the one who has it.
- <sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God;
for who can make straight,
what he has made crooked?
- <sup>14</sup> In times of prosperity be joyful, and in times of trouble consider;
God has made the one as well as the other,
so that a person cannot discover anything that comes after him.
- <sup>15</sup> I have seen many things in my futile days:
a righteous person who perishes in his righteousness, and a wicked person who lives long in his evildoing.
- <sup>16</sup> Do not be overly righteous,

- or attempt to be overly wise;
why should you destroy yourself?
- <sup>17</sup> Be not overly wicked,
and do not be a fool;
why should you die before your time?
- <sup>18</sup> It is good that you should take hold of this, without letting go of the other,
for the one who fears God shall avoid all of these extremes.
- <sup>19</sup> Wisdom gives strength to the wise man more than ten rulers in a city.
- <sup>20</sup> Surely there is not a righteous person on earth, who only does good and never sins.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not obsess over everything people say, lest you hear your servant curse you,
- <sup>22</sup> for you know in your own heart
how many times you yourself have cursed others.
- <sup>23</sup> All this I have tested by wisdom,
I said, "I will be wise,"
but it was far from me.
- <sup>24</sup> That which exists, is far off and exceeding deep,
who can figure it out?
- <sup>25</sup> I focused my heart to know and to search out,
and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things,
and to understand how wickedness is folly,
and how foolishness is madness.
- <sup>26</sup> I find more bitter than death,
the woman who is a snare,
and whose heart is a trap,
whose hands are like chains.
Whoever pleases God will escape from her,
but the sinner will be caught by her.
- <sup>27</sup> Look, this is what I have discovered, says the Teacher, adding one thing to another attempting to figure out the scheme of things,
- <sup>28</sup> which my soul continually sought,
but I have not found.
I found only one upright man out of a thousand,
but I have not found a single upright woman among them all.
- <sup>29</sup> This is the only thing I have discovered:

God made man upright;
but they have sought out many schemes.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 8

- <sup>1</sup> Who is like the wise?
Who knows the interpretation of a thing?
Wisdom makes a person's face to shine,
and softens the stern hardness of his face.
- <sup>2</sup> Obey the king's command, because you took an oath of loyalty before God.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not be too quick to leave his presence, do not stand up for an evil cause, for he can do whatever he wants to.
- <sup>4</sup> For the king's word has authority,
who can say to him,
"What are you doing?"
- <sup>5</sup> Whoever obeys a command will experience no harm,
a wise heart knows the right time and solution.
- <sup>6</sup> For every issue has its right time and solution, even though the misery of man weighs heavy on him.
- <sup>7</sup> For no one knows what will be,
so who can tell him what will happen?
- <sup>8</sup> There is no one with the power to restrain the wind, neither does anyone have power over the day of death,
and there is no one discharged in time of war,
neither can wickedness rescue anyone who practices it.
- <sup>9</sup> All this have I seen, as I applied my heart to everything that is done under the sun; sometimes one person dominates another to his own hurt.
- <sup>10</sup> So too I saw the wicked honorably buried and those who used to go in and out of the holy place and are now praised in the city for what they have done. This also is futility.
- <sup>11</sup> When a sentence against a crime is not executed quickly, the human heart will be encouraged to do evil.
- <sup>12</sup> Even though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and still lives a long life, yet surely I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they stand before him in fear.
- <sup>13</sup> But it will not go well for the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow; because he does not stand in fear before God.
- <sup>14</sup> Here is another futility that happens on earth: there are righteous people who get what wicked deserve; similarly, there are wicked men who get what the righteous deserve. I said that this too is futility.

<sup>15</sup> So I commend enjoyment, because there is nothing better for a person under the sun, than to eat, drink and to be happy, for this will stick with a person in his toil all the days of his life that God has given him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup> When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the toil that is done on the earth, for people's eyes do not get any sleep day or night, <sup>17</sup> then I saw all the work of God, that one cannot figure out what is happening under the sun. However much a person strives to search it out, yet he cannot discover its meaning; even though the wise thinks he knows, yet he really cannot understand it.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 9

<sup>1</sup> So I thought about this, examining it all. The righteous and the wise along with their deeds, are in the hand of God. Whether it is love or hate, no one knows which is ahead of them.

<sup>2</sup> Everyone shares the same fate,
the righteous and the wicked,
the good and the bad,
the ceremonially clean and unclean,
the one who sacrifices and the one who does not.

What happens to the good,
also happens to the sinner;
and the same for one who makes a vow,
as the one who afraid to make a vow.

<sup>3</sup> This is a calamity in all that is done under the sun, that the same fate happens to all. The heart of everyone is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, after that they too go to the dead.

<sup>4</sup> For whoever is joined with the living has hope;
for a live dog is better than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing.
They have no more reward,
for even the memory of them fades.

<sup>6</sup> Their love,
as well as their hatred and envy have already perished;
never again will they have part in anything that happens under the sun.

<sup>7</sup> Go your way, eat your bread with joy,
and drink your wine with a happy heart,
for God has already approved of what you do.

<sup>8</sup> Let your garments always be white, and let not your head lack oil.

<sup>9</sup> Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your futile life that God has given you under the sun, all your futile days. For that is your lot in life and your laborious vocation under the sun.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for there is neither work or planning, or knowledge, or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

<sup>11</sup> I again observed under the sun:
the race is not to the swift,
or the battle to the strong,
or bread to the wise,

or wealth to the intelligent,
or yet favor to the skillful;
but time and chance happen to all.

<sup>12</sup> For no one knows when his time will come:
Like fish caught in a fatal net,
or birds trapped in a snare,
so are humans snared by evil times,
when it suddenly falls on them.

<sup>13</sup> I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed significant to me.

<sup>14</sup> There was a little city, with few people in it. A great king came against it, and besieged it, and built great siege works against it.

<sup>15</sup> Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he delivered the city by his wisdom; yet no one remembered that poor man.

<sup>16</sup> So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength."

But a poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not listened to.

<sup>17</sup> Better are the words of the wise heard in quiet than the shouts of him who rules over fools.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much good.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 10

- <sup>1</sup> As dead flies cause the perfumer's ointment to stink, so too a little folly can spoil much wisdom and honor.
- <sup>2</sup> A wise heart guides to the right, but a fool's heart misguides to the left.
- <sup>3</sup> Even when the fool walks down the road, he lacks sense, and declares to everyone how foolish he really is.
- <sup>4</sup> If the ruler's anger flares up against you,
do not abandon your post;
for calmness can undo big mistakes.
- <sup>5</sup> There is an evil that I have seen under the sun,
it is the type of error a ruler makes:
- <sup>6</sup> fools are set in many high positions,
and the rich sit in lowly positions.
- <sup>7</sup> I have seen slaves riding on horses, and princes walking on foot like slaves.
- <sup>8</sup> Whoever digs a pit may fall into it, and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.
- <sup>9</sup> Whoever hews out stones may be hurt by them,
and whoever splits wood may be endangered by it.
- <sup>10</sup> If an iron ax is blunt,
and one does not sharpen the blade,
then he must exert more strength,
but wisdom helps one succeed.
- <sup>11</sup> If a serpent bites before it is charmed, then is there no benefit for the charmer.
- <sup>12</sup> The words of a wise man's mouth win him favor, but a fool is consumed by his own lips.
- <sup>13</sup> The words of his mouth begin with foolishness, and his talk ends with destructive madness.
- <sup>14</sup> A fool multiplies words,
even though no one knows what will happen;
and who can tell what future awaits him?
- <sup>15</sup> The fool's work wears them out,
for he does not even know the way to town.
- <sup>16</sup> Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

<sup>17</sup> Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobleman, and your princes feast at the proper time,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!

<sup>18</sup> By laziness the roof sags,
and because of idle hands the house leaks.

<sup>19</sup> A feast is made for laughter, wine makes life happy,
and money is the answer for everything.

<sup>20</sup> Do not curse the king, even in your thoughts, or curse the rich even in your bedroom,
for a bird of the air may carry your voice,
and something with wings may report the matter.

- <sup>1</sup> Send your bread across the sea, for after many days you may gain a return from it.
- <sup>2</sup> Divide your investments seven ways, or even eight,
for you do not know what disaster may happen on earth.
- <sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full of rain,
they empty themselves on the earth,
if a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.
- <sup>4</sup> Whoever holds out for the perfect wind will not sow, and whoever watches the clouds will not reap.
- <sup>5</sup> Just as you do not know the way of the wind, or how the bones grow in a mother's womb, even so you do not know the work of God who makes everything.
- <sup>6</sup> In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not stop working,
for you do not know which will prosper, whether this one or that one,
or whether both will be equally profitable.
- <sup>7</sup> Light is sweet, and it is a pleasure for the eyes to see the sun.
- <sup>8</sup> If a person lives many years,
let him rejoice in them all;
but let him also remember the days of darkness,
for they will be many.
All that comes is futility.
- <sup>9</sup> Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Follow in the ways of your heart,
and the desires of your eyes;
but be aware that for all these things
God will bring you into judgment.
- <sup>10</sup> Banish worry from your heart, and put away pain from your flesh, for childhood and youth are fleeting.

DASV: Ecclesiastes 12

- <sup>1</sup> Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of bodily trouble come,
and the years draw nigh,
when you will lament, "I have no pleasure in them;"
- <sup>2</sup> before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars are darkened,
and the clouds return after the rain;
- <sup>3</sup> in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent over,
and the grinders cease because they are few,
and those who look through windows grow dark;
- <sup>4</sup> and the doors to the street are shut;
when the sound of the grinding fades,
and one rises early with the sound of a bird,
yet all their songs are faint;
- <sup>5</sup> when one becomes afraid of heights, and terrors lurk in the street;
and the almond tree blossoms,
and the grasshopper drags itself along,
and desire fails;
because man goes to his everlasting home,
and the mourners go about the streets;
- <sup>6</sup> before the silver cord is snapped,
and the golden bowl is broken,
and the pitcher is broken at the fountain,
and the wheel broken at the cistern,
- <sup>7</sup> and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
- <sup>8</sup> Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher [Qohelet];
all is vanity.
- <sup>9</sup> Besides being wise, the Teacher also taught the people knowledge; he pondered, and searched out, and arranged many proverbs.
- <sup>10</sup> The Teacher searched to find delightful words, and write true sayings precisely.
- <sup>11</sup> The words of the wise are like goads;
like nails firmly fixed in collected sayings,
given from one shepherd.
- <sup>12</sup> Beware of anything beyond them, my son, of the making many books there is no end;
and much study wearies the body.
- <sup>13</sup> Now that all has been heard,

here is the conclusion:

    fear God, and keep his commandments;
    for this is the whole duty of man.

<sup>14</sup> For God will bring every deed into judgment, including everything that is hidden,
    whether it is good or bad.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Song of Songs 1

<sup>1</sup> The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Beloved Woman

<sup>2</sup> Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your love is better than wine.

<sup>3</sup> Your anointing oils have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is like fragrant oil poured out,
and that is why the young women love you.

<sup>4</sup> Take me away with you, let's hurry.
The king has brought me into his bedroom.

Women of Jerusalem

We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will praise your love more than wine.

Beloved woman

How right they are to love you.

<sup>5</sup> I am black, but beautiful,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
dark like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup> Do not look on me, because I am dark,
because the sun has burned me.
My mother's sons were angry at me,
so they made me keeper of the vineyards.
But my own vineyard have I not taken care of.

<sup>7</sup> Tell me, O you whom my heart loves, where do you pasture your flock?
Where do you have your sheep rest at noon?
Why should I be like a woman who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Man in love

<sup>8</sup> If you do not know, O most beautiful among women, then follow the tracks of the flock,
and feed your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

<sup>9</sup> I have compared you, O my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot stallions.

- <sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are lovely, adorned with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.
<sup>11</sup> We will make you ornaments of gold studded with silver.

Beloved Woman

- <sup>12</sup> While the king reclined on his couch, a waft of my perfume gave forth its fragrance.
<sup>13</sup> My beloved is to me like a pouch of fragrant myrrh, that lies between my breasts.
<sup>14</sup> My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna blossoms, in the vineyards of En-gedi.

Man in love

- <sup>15</sup> O how beautiful you are, my love, O how beautiful you are,
your eyes are like doves.

Beloved woman

- <sup>16</sup> You are handsome, my beloved, absolutely delightful.
our bed is like lush green grass.
<sup>17</sup> The beams of our house are cedars, our rafters are pine.

DASV: Song of Songs 2Beloved woman*

<sup>1</sup> I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

<sup>2</sup> Like a lily among thorns, so is my love among the young women.

Beloved woman

<sup>3</sup> Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, so is my beloved among the young men.
I sit down under his shadow with great delight,
and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

<sup>4</sup> He escorts me to the banquet hall, his banner over me declares his love.

<sup>5</sup> Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples,
for I am faint with love.

<sup>6</sup> His left hand is under my head,
and his right hand fondles me.

by the gazelles and young does of the field,
do not stir or awaken love until it is ready.

<sup>8</sup> Listen! It is the voice of my beloved!
Look! He is coming, Leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

<sup>9</sup> My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag
Look! He is standing behind our wall,
He gazes in through the windows,
he peers in through the lattice.

<sup>10</sup> My beloved invites me saying,
"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away with me.

<sup>11</sup> Look! The winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.

<sup>12</sup> The flowers are sprouting on the earth, the season of song birds has come,
the cooing of the turtledove is heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup> The fig tree is budding with green figs,
the vines are blossoming, giving off their fragrance.

Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away with me.

<sup>14</sup> O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the hidden crannies of the cliff,
let me see your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.
<sup>15</sup> Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards,
for our vineyards are in bloom.

Beloved woman

<sup>16</sup> My lover is mine, and I am his,
he grazes among the lilies.
<sup>17</sup> Until the day dawns and the shadows flee away, turn, my lover,
be like a gazelle or a young stag on the cleavage of the mountains.

DASV: Song of Songs 3Beloved woman*

- <sup>1</sup> By night on my bed I longed for him whom my soul loves,
I longed for him, but did not find him.
- <sup>2</sup> I will get up now and go around town, in the streets and in the squares.
I will search for him whom my soul loves.
So I searched for him, but did not find him.
- <sup>3</sup> The watchmen found me as they made their rounds,
"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
- <sup>4</sup> Scarcely had I passed from them,
when I found him whom my soul loves.
I held him and would not let him go,
until I had brought him into my mother's house,
into the bedroom of her who conceived me.
- <sup>5</sup> I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and young does of the field,
do not stir or awaken love until it is ready.

Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>6</sup> Who is this coming up from the wilderness, like a column of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all kinds of fragrant powders from the merchant?
- <sup>7</sup> Look, it is Solomon's carriage, with sixty valiant warriors around it,
the mighty men of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> All of them wearing the swords,
they are expert in war.
Every man has his sword strapped on his thigh, ready for the terrors of the night.
- <sup>9</sup> King Solomon made a carriage for himself made of wood imported from Lebanon.
- <sup>10</sup> He made its posts of silver,
its back of gold,
its seat of purple,
its interior inlaid with love,
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Beloved woman

- <sup>11</sup> Go out, O daughters of Zion, gaze on king Solomon, with the crown with which his mother crowned him,

on his wedding day,
the day his heart was happy.

DASV: Song of Songs 4Man in love*

- <sup>1</sup> You are so beautiful, my love, how absolutely beautiful.
 Your eyes are like doves behind your veil.
     Your hair is like a flock of goats,
         descending down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
- <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of freshly shorn sheep, coming up from the washing,
     each of them has a matching twin,
     not one of them is missing.
- <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon,
     your mouth is lovely.
     Your cheeks are as rosy as pomegranates behind your veil.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like the tower of David elegantly built with rows of stone, with a thousand shields adorning it,
     all the shields of the mighty warriors.
- <sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns twins of a gazelle grazing among the lilies.
- <sup>6</sup> Until the day dawns and the shadows flee away,
     I will ascend the mountain of myrrh,
         and go to the hill of frankincense.
- <sup>7</sup> You are absolutely beautiful, my love,
     there is not a single flaw in you.
- <sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon,
     Descend from the peak of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon,
     from the lions' dens,
     from the mountains of the leopards.
- <sup>9</sup> You have captured my heart, my sister, my bride, you have captured my heart with one glance of your eyes,
         with one jewel of your necklace.
- <sup>10</sup> How charming is your love, my sister, my bride,
     how much better is your love than wine,
         and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice!
- <sup>11</sup> Your lips, O my bride, drip nectar, honey and milk are under your tongue,
     the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

- <sup>12</sup> You are like a locked garden my sister, my bride, an enclosed spring, a sealed fountain.
- <sup>13</sup> Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits,
henna with nard plants,
- <sup>14</sup> nard and saffron,
calamus and cinnamon,
with all the trees of frankincense,
myrrh and aloes,
with all the finest spices.
- <sup>15</sup> You are a garden fountain,
a well of fresh flowing water, and streams flowing down from Lebanon.

Beloved woman

- <sup>16</sup> Awake, O north wind,
come, O south wind,
Blow upon my garden, that its fragrant spices may spread around.
Let my beloved come into his garden,
and eat its choice fruits.

DASV: Song of Songs 5Man in love*

<sup>1</sup> I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.
 I have gathered my myrrh with my spice,
 I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey,
 I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Women of Jerusalem

Eat, friends;
 drink your fill, O lovers.

Beloved woman

<sup>2</sup> I slept, but my heart was awake.
 Listen, it is sound of my beloved knocking,
 "Open up to me, my sister, my love,
 my dove, my perfect one,
 for my head is soaked with dew,
 my locks with the dampness of the night."
<sup>3</sup> I have taken off my clothes, must I put them on again?
 I have washed my feet,
 must I get them dirty again?
<sup>4</sup> My beloved put his hand in through the hole, my heart pounded for him.
<sup>5</sup> I arose to open for my beloved, my hands dripped with myrrh,
 my fingers with liquid myrrh,
 upon the handles of the bolt.
<sup>6</sup> I opened for my beloved,
 but my beloved had withdrawn and was gone.
 My soul sank when he departed,
 I searched for him, but I could not find him,
 I called to him, but he did not answer me.
<sup>7</sup> The watchmen making their rounds in the town found me.
 They beat me, they hurt me,
 the keepers of the walls stripped off my cloak.
<sup>8</sup> I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 If you find my beloved,
 tell him I am sick with love.

Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>9</sup> Why is your beloved any better than others,
    O most beautiful among women?
    Why is your beloved any better than others,
    that you would adjure us so?

Beloved woman

- <sup>10</sup> My beloved is radiant and tanned, more distinguished than ten thousand others.
- <sup>11</sup> His head is the finest gold,
    his hair is curly,
        black as a raven.
- <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves beside the streams of water, washed with milk,
    and set like jewels.
- <sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like beds of spices as banks of sweet smelling herbs.
    His lips are like lilies,
    dipping liquid myrrh.
- <sup>14</sup> His arms are like rods of gold set with jewels.
    His body is like polished ivory inlaid with sapphires.
- <sup>15</sup> His legs are like marble pillars, set on bases of pure gold.
    His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.
- <sup>16</sup> His mouth is most sweet;
    Yes, he is totally lovely.
    This is my beloved,
    and this is my friend,
    O daughters of Jerusalem.

DASV: Song of Songs 6Women of Jerusalem*

<sup>1</sup> Where has your beloved gone,
     O most beautiful among women?
 Where has your beloved turned,
     so that we may help you search for him?

Beloved woman

<sup>2</sup> My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,
 to graze in the gardens,
     and to gather lilies.
<sup>3</sup> I am my beloved's,
     and my beloved is mine,
     he grazes among the lilies.

Man in love

<sup>4</sup> You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my love, as lovely as Jerusalem,
     as impressive as an army with banners.
<sup>5</sup> Turn away your eyes from me, for they overwhelm me.
 Your hair is like a flock of goats,
     descending down the slopes of Gilead.
<sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of sheep,
     coming up from the washing,
     each of them has a matching twin,
     not one of them is missing.
<sup>7</sup> Your cheeks are as rosy as pomegranates behind your veil.
<sup>8</sup> There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines,
     and young women without number.
<sup>9</sup> My dove, my perfect one, is the only one;
     she is her mother's special daughter.
     She is the favorite of her that bore her.
 The daughters saw her and praise her,
     even the queens and the concubines admire her.
<sup>10</sup> Who is she who rises like the dawn,
     as fair as the moon,
     as bright as the sun,
     as impressive as an army with waving banners?

Beloved woman

<sup>11</sup> I went down into the orchard of nuts, to look for the blossoms of the valley,
to see whether the vines had budded,
and the pomegranates were in bloom.

<sup>12</sup> Before I was aware of it,
I found myself among the royal chariots of my people.

<sup>13</sup> Return, return, O Shulammitte;
Return, return, that we may gaze on you.

Man in love

Why do you stare at the Shulammitte, as on the dance of two companies of dancers?

DASV: Song of Songs 7Man in love*

- <sup>1</sup> How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O prince's daughter!
Your shapely thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a skilful artisan.
- <sup>2</sup> Your navel is like a round goblet, never lacking mixed wine.
Your waist is like a mound of wheat encircled with lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns,
two twin fawns of a gazelle.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like an ivory tower,
your eyes are like the pools of Heshbon,
by the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking toward Damascus.
- <sup>5</sup> Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel, your flowing locks are like royal tapestries;
the king is held captive in its tresses.
- <sup>6</sup> How beautiful and pleasant you are,
O love, with all your charms!
- <sup>7</sup> Your stature is like a palm tree,
your breasts are like clusters of fruit.
- <sup>8</sup> I said, "I will climb up the palm tree,
I will take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples,
- <sup>9</sup> and your mouth like the best wine,
that goes down smoothly for my beloved,
gliding gently over lips and teeth.

Woman in love

- <sup>10</sup> I am my beloved's
and his desire is for me.
- <sup>11</sup> Come, my beloved, let us go out into the fields;
let us spend the night in the villages.
- <sup>12</sup> Let us get up early to go to the vineyards, let us see whether the vine has budded,
and its blossoms have opened,
and the pomegranates are in bloom;
there will I give you my love.

<sup>13</sup> The mandrakes send out fragrance, and at our doors are all kinds of choice fruits,
both new and old,
which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

DASV: Song of Songs 8Beloved woman*

- <sup>1</sup> Oh that you were my baby brother, who sucked the breasts of my mother!
 Then if I found you outside, I could kiss you;
     Yes, and no one would despise me.
- <sup>2</sup> I would lead you, and bring you to my mother's house,
     she who taught me;
 I would give you spiced wine to drink,
     the juice of my pomegranates.
- <sup>3</sup> His left hand would be under my head,
     his right hand would fondle me.
- <sup>4</sup> I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
     do not stir or awaken love until it is ready.

Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>5</sup> Who is this that comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

Beloved woman

- Under the apple tree I awakened you,
     there your mother was in labor with you,
     there she who was in pain gave birth to you.
- <sup>6</sup> Set me like a seal on your heart,
     like a seal on your arm.
 For love is strong as death,
     its jealousy is as unremitting as the grave,
 It burns like a raging fire,
     like a blazing flame.
- <sup>7</sup> Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it,
 if one would give all the wealth of his house for love,
     it would be utterly scorned.

Women of Jerusalem

- <sup>8</sup> We have a little sister,
     she has no breasts.
 What shall we do for our sister,
     on the day when she is spoken for?
- <sup>9</sup> If she is a wall,
     we will build a silver tower on her.
 if she is a door,

we will enclose her with cedar boards.

Beloved woman

<sup>10</sup> I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers.

Then I was in his eyes as one who brings fulfillment.

he rented out the vineyard to tenant farmers, each one pays a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.

<sup>12</sup> My vineyard, my very own, is at my disposal, the thousand pieces of silver belong to you, O Solomon, but those that care for its fruit receive two hundred.

Man in love

<sup>13</sup> You who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice.

let me hear it.

Beloved woman

<sup>14</sup> Come quickly, my beloved, be like a gazelle

or a young stag

on the mountains of spices.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Isaiah 1

for the LORD has spoken:

"I have reared children and brought them up,
but they have rebelled against me.

<sup>3</sup> The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's feeding trough,
but Israel does not know,
my people do not consider."

<sup>4</sup> O sinful nation, a people loaded down with iniquity,
an offspring of evildoers, children who act corruptly!
They have forsaken the LORD;
they have despised the Holy One of Israel;
they have turned their backs on him.

<sup>5</sup> Why should you be beaten anymore?
Why do you just rebel more and more?
The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.

<sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot to the top of the head
there is nowhere that is undamaged in it.
There are wounds, welts, and open sores;
they have not been cleansed,
or bandaged up,
or softened with olive oil.

<sup>7</sup> Your country is desolate;
your cities are burned with fire;
foreigners are devouring your land right in front of you,
and it is desolate, as when overthrown by foreigners.

<sup>8</sup> The daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a watchman's shelter in a field of cucumbers, like a besieged city.

<sup>9</sup> Unless the LORD of hosts had left us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom,
we would have become like Gomorrah.

- <sup>10</sup> Listen to the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom;
hear the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah.
- <sup>11</sup> "What do your many sacrifices mean to me?" says the LORD.
"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of well fed cattle;
I delight not in the blood of bulls, lambs, and goats.
- <sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before me, who has required this from your hand,
this trampling of my courts?
- <sup>13</sup> Do not bring any more worthless offerings;
your incense is detestable to me.
New moons and Sabbaths, the calling of assemblies,
-- I cannot stand such sinful assemblies.
- <sup>14</sup> Your new moons and your appointed feasts I hate;
they have become a burden to me;
I am tired of putting up with them.
- <sup>15</sup> When you spread out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you.
Yes, when you make many prayers,
I will not listen,
for your hands are full of blood.
- <sup>16</sup> Wash yourselves,
make yourselves clean;
put away the evil deeds from before my eyes;
stop doing evil.
- <sup>17</sup> Learn to do good.
Seek justice,
rescue the oppressed,
defend the orphan,
plead for the widow."
- <sup>18</sup> "Come now, and let us reason together," says the LORD.
"Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall be like wool.
- <sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good of the land.
- <sup>20</sup> But if you refuse and rebel,
you will be devoured with the sword,"
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.
- <sup>21</sup> How the faithful city has become a whore!

- She was once full of justice, righteousness inhabited her,
but now only murderers.
- <sup>22</sup> Your silver has become dross, your wine diluted with water.
- <sup>23</sup> Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves.
Everyone loves bribes,
and chases after payoffs.
They refuse to defend the orphan,
and the widow's cause does not come before them.
- <sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, says,
"I will take vengeance on my enemies,
and avenge myself on my foes.
- <sup>25</sup> I will turn my hand on you,
and skim off your dross,
and will remove all your impurities.
- <sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning.
Afterward you will be called,
'the City of Righteousness,'
'a Faithful Town.'
- <sup>27</sup> Zion will be redeemed with justice, and her repentant ones with righteousness.
- <sup>28</sup> But the rebellious and sinners will be crushed, and those who forsake the LORD will be consumed.
- <sup>29</sup> For you will be ashamed of the sacred oaks in which you delighted, and you will be embarrassed for the gardens that you have chosen.
- <sup>30</sup> For you will be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden that has no water.
- <sup>31</sup> The strong will be like tinder,
and his work like a spark.
They will both burn together, with no one able to extinguish the fire."

DASV: Isaiah 2

the mountain of the LORD's house will be established as the highest of the mountains;
it will be exalted above the hills,
and all nations will flow unto it.

<sup>3</sup> Many peoples will come and say,
"Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."

For out of Zion the law will go forth,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations, and will settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation;
they will not train for war anymore.

<sup>5</sup> O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> For you have rejected your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with fortunetellers from the east, and soothsayers like the Philistines,
and they shake hands in agreement with foreigners.

<sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold;
there is no end to their treasures.
Their land is full of horses;
there is no end of their chariots.

<sup>8</sup> Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the work of their own hands,
that which their own fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup> So the people are humbled, each one is brought low.
Do not forgive them.

<sup>10</sup> Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust
from the terror of the LORD

- and from the glory of his majesty.
- <sup>11</sup> The arrogant looks of humans will be brought low,
and the haughtiness of people will be humbled,
and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
- <sup>12</sup> For there will be a day of the LORD of hosts against all the proud and haughty, and against all that is lifted up,
and they will be brought low,
- <sup>13</sup> against all the cedars of Lebanon,
that are high and lifted up, against all the oaks of Bashan,
- <sup>14</sup> against all the high mountains, against all the high hills,
- <sup>15</sup> against every lofty tower, against every fortified wall,
- <sup>16</sup> against all the ships of Tarshish, and against every beautiful boat.
- <sup>17</sup> People's pride will be humbled, and human haughtiness will be brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
- <sup>18</sup> Idols will completely vanish.
- <sup>19</sup> They will enter the caves of the rocks and into the holes in the ground from the terror of LORD
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he arises to terrify the earth.
- <sup>20</sup> In that day people will throw away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold,
which they made for themselves to worship,
to the moles and to the bats.
- <sup>21</sup> They will enter the caverns of the rocks, and into the crevices of the rocky cliffs,
from the terror of the LORD
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he arises to terrify the earth.
- <sup>22</sup> Stop trusting in human beings, whose breath is in their nostrils.
For why would you even give them a thought?

DASV: Isaiah 3

- <sup>1</sup> For look, the sovereign LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and supply,
every piece of bread and drop of water,
- <sup>2</sup> the mighty man and the warrior,
the judge and the prophet,
the diviner and the elder,
- <sup>3</sup> the captain of fifty and the honorable person,
the counselor and the expert craftsman,
and the skilful enchanter.
- <sup>4</sup> I will make the young to be their princes, and infants will rule over them.
- <sup>5</sup> The people will be oppressed, everyone by another,
and everyone by his neighbor.
The young will behave proudly against the old,
and the base against the honorable.
- <sup>6</sup> A person will even grab hold of his brother in his father's house, saying,
"You have clothing,
come you be our ruler,
and let this ruin be under your rule."
- <sup>7</sup> In that day he will cry out,
"I cannot cure this;
for there is neither bread or clothing in my house,
you must not make me ruler of the people."
- <sup>8</sup> For Jerusalem has stumbled,
and Judah has fallen;
because their words and their deeds are against the LORD, defying his glorious watchfulness.
- <sup>9</sup> The look on their face witnesses against them;
they flaunt their sin like Sodom;
they do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!
They have brought disaster on themselves.
- <sup>10</sup> Tell the righteous, that it will go well with them, for they will eat the fruit of their labors.
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to the wicked! Disaster!
For exactly what their hands have done will be done back to them.

- <sup>12</sup> As for my people, children oppress them, women rule over them.
O my people, those leading you mislead you,
and confuse the direction of your paths.
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD rises to make the accusation;
he stands to judge the peoples.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD comes to pronounce judgment on the elders and on the princes of his people.
"It is you who have ruined the vineyard;
the plunder stolen from the poor is in your houses.
- <sup>15</sup> Why do you crush my people, and grind the faces of the poor?"
says the sovereign LORD of hosts.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD says, "The daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and seductive eyes, walking with dainty little steps as they go,
and jingling with their feet.
- <sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord will strike with scabs
the top of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will make them bald."
- <sup>18</sup> In that day the Lord will take away their beautiful anklets, the headbands, and the crescent necklaces, <sup>19</sup> the earrings, bracelets, and veils, <sup>20</sup> the headdresses, the ankle bracelets, the sashes,
the perfume boxes, and amulets,
<sup>21</sup> the rings and nose rings,
<sup>22</sup> the party dresses, robes, shawls and purses, <sup>23</sup> the hand mirrors, fine linen garments, the turbans and shawls.
- <sup>24</sup> Instead of sweet perfumes there will be a rotten stench;
and instead of a sash, a rope;
instead of a beautiful hairdo, baldness;
instead of a rich robe, sackcloth;
a slave branding instead of beauty.
- <sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword, and your warriors in the war.
- <sup>26</sup> Her gates will lament and mourn;
deserted she will sit on the ground.

DASV: Isaiah 4

<sup>1</sup> Seven women will take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own food, and wear our own clothes, just let us be called by your name; take away our shame."

<sup>2</sup> In that day the branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and beauty of the survivors of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Anyone who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is recorded as among those living in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Then the Lord will wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will purge the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of fire.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD will create over the entirety of Mount Zion, and over her sites of assembly, a cloud and smoke by day, and a glowing flaming fire by night; over all the glory will be a canopy.

<sup>6</sup> There will be a shelter for shade in the day from the heat, and a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

DASV: Isaiah 5

- <sup>1</sup> Let me sing for my beloved a song about his vineyard.
My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.
- <sup>2</sup> He cultivated it, cleared out its stones, and planted it with the choicest vine.
He built a tower in the midst of it,
and also hewed out a winepress in it.
He expected that it would produce grapes,
but it yielded only sour grapes.
- <sup>3</sup> Now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard.
- <sup>4</sup> What more could I have done to my vineyard than I have not already done for it?
When I expected that it would produce grapes,
why did it yield only sour grapes?
- <sup>5</sup> Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be eaten up;
I will break down its wall,
and it will be trampled down.
- <sup>6</sup> I will make it a wasteland;
it will not be pruned or hoed;
instead, briars and thorns will come up.
I will also command the clouds that they not shower any rain on it.
- <sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah is his cherished plant.
He expected justice,
but got only oppression;
hoped for righteousness,
but heard only cries for help.
- <sup>8</sup> Woe to those who accumulate house after house, that acquire field after field until there is no room left, until you are left to dwell alone in the midst of the land!
- <sup>9</sup> In my ears the LORD of hosts said,
"Of a truth many houses will be desolate,

- even large and beautiful mansions will be left without inhabitant."
- <sup>10</sup> For ten acres of vineyard will produce only six gallons of wine, and six bushels of seed will produce less than a bushel of grain.
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to those who rise up early in the morning so that they may pursue strong drink;
who stay up late into the night,
until they are inflamed with wine!
- <sup>12</sup> Their parties have the harp and lute,
the tambourine, flute, and wine.
They have no respect for the deeds of the LORD, or consider the work of his hands.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore my people will go into exile for lack of knowledge;
their nobles will lack food,
and their crowds parched with thirst.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore Sheol has enlarged its throat and opened its mouth without limit.
Their famous ones and their multitude,
with their boisterous revelers will descend into it.
- <sup>15</sup> Each person will be on their face,
each one brought down,
and the haughty eyes humbled.
- <sup>16</sup> But the LORD of hosts will be exalted by justice, and God the Holy One will demonstrate his holiness by righteousness.
- <sup>17</sup> Then will the lambs feed as in their own pasture, and the fatlings graze among the ruins.
- <sup>18</sup> Woe to those who drag iniquity with cords of falsehood, and sin along like with a cart rope.
- <sup>19</sup> Who say, "Make him hurry up, let him do his work quickly,
so that we may see it.
Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel happen soon,
so that we may experience it!"
- <sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good,
and good evil;
who turn darkness to light,
and light to darkness;
who swap bitter for sweet,
and sweet for bitter!
- <sup>21</sup> Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,

- and shrewd in their own sight!
22 Woe to those who are champions at drinking wine, and valiant at mixing strong drinks, 23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe,
and deny the innocent justice!
- 24 Therefore, just as the tongue of fire devours straw, and as the dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their root will become rotten and their blossom will blow away like dust, because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
25 Therefore the anger of the LORD burns against his people;
he has stretched out his hand against them,
and has struck them.
The mountains tremble,
and their corpses are strewn like garbage in the streets.
After all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is still stretched out.
- 26 He will send the signal to a distant nation, and will whistle for them to come from the ends of the earth.
Look, they come with speed and swiftness.
27 None of them are tired or stumble;
none will slumber or sleep;
not a belt will be loosed,
not a thong of their sandals will be broken.
- 28 Their arrows are sharp,
and all their bows bent.
Their horses' hoofs are like flint,
and their wheels like a whirlwind.
- 29 Their roaring is like a lion,
they roar like young lions.
They growl, seize their prey,
and haul it off,
and there is no one to rescue.
- 30 They will roar over them in that day like the roaring of the sea.
If one looks at the land,
there is darkness and distress;
even the light is darkened by clouds.

DASV: Isaiah 6

<sup>1</sup> In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of his robe filled the temple.

"Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory!"

<sup>5</sup> Then said I, "Woe is me! For I am doomed; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live in the midst of a people of unclean lips. My eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts."

<sup>6</sup> Then a seraphim flew to me, having a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from the altar.

<sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it, and said,

"Look, this has touched your lips;
your iniquity is taken away,
and your sin forgiven."

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying,

"Whom will I send,
and who will go for us?"

I replied, "I am here. Send me."

<sup>9</sup> He said, "Go, and tell this people:

Keep on listening, but do not understand;
keep on looking, but do not perceive.

<sup>10</sup> Make the heart of this people insensitive, and make their ears deaf,

and shut their eyes;
so that they may not see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and repent and be healed."

<sup>11</sup> Then I asked, "Lord, how long?" He answered,

"Until cities are destroyed without inhabitant, and houses uninhabited,
and the land become absolutely devastated,

<sup>12</sup> and the LORD has sent everyone far away, and the midst of the land is abandoned.

<sup>13</sup> Even if a tenth remains in it,

it will be destroyed again.
Just like a terebinth and an oak whose stump remains when they are cut down;
so the holy seed will be its stump.

DASV: Isaiah 7

<sup>1</sup> In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to attack Jerusalem, but could not prevail against it.

<sup>2</sup> It was reported to the house of David, "Syria has allied itself with Ephraim." His heart and the heart of his people were shaken, as the trees of the forest tremble in the wind.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub [a remnant will return], at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the road to the Laundry Washing Field.

<sup>4</sup> Tell him, 'Be careful, be quiet, and don't be afraid. Do not be timid, because of these two stubs of smoldering sticks, because of the fierce anger of Rezin, Aram, and the son of Remaliah.

<sup>6</sup> "Let us go up against Judah, terrorize it, and rip it apart and divide it up for ourselves. Let us set up a king, the son of Tabeel, over it."

<sup>7</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says:

"It will not stand,

and it will not happen,

<sup>8</sup> for the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin.

Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered in pieces, so that it will not be a people.

<sup>9</sup> The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

If you will not faithfully stand firm,

then you will not stand at all."

<sup>10</sup> Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying,

<sup>11</sup> "Request a sign from the LORD your God; ask it either in the depths of Sheol, or in the height of heaven."

<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said, "I will not ask. I will not test the LORD."

<sup>13</sup> Then Isaiah said, "Listen now, O house of David. Is it too small a thing for you try the patience of humans, that you want to try the patience of my God too?

<sup>14</sup> Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, a virgin will conceive, and give birth to a son, and you will call him Immanuel [God with us].

<sup>15</sup> He will eat curds and honey when he knows enough to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

<sup>16</sup> For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted.

<sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring on you, your people, and your father's house days that have never been since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah -- the king of Assyria.

<sup>18</sup> In that day, the LORD will whistle for the flies from the remotest part of the rivers of Egypt and for the bees from the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> They will come, and will settle in the ravines between cliffs and in the crevices of the rocks, and on all thorn bushes and at all the watering holes.

<sup>20</sup> In that day the Lord will shave with a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates River-- with the king of Assyria--the head and leg hair; along with the beard too.

<sup>21</sup> In that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and a couple goats.

<sup>22</sup> From the abundance of milk they will produce he will eat curds; for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.

<sup>23</sup> In that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines worth a thousand shekels, it will be overgrown with briers and thorns.

<sup>24</sup> With bow and arrows one will hunt there, because all the land will be full of briers and thorns.

<sup>25</sup> All the hills that used to be dug with a hoe, you will not go there for fear of briers and thorns. It will be a place for cattle to graze and for sheep to trample.

DASV: Isaiah 8

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Take a large tablet, and inscribe on it with an ordinary stylus: Belonging to Maher-shalal-hash-baz [quick to the plunder, swift to the spoil].

<sup>2</sup> I will have it verified by faithful witnesses, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

<sup>3</sup> So I had relations with the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz."

<sup>4</sup> For before the child knows to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria."

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD spoke to me again, saying,

<sup>6</sup> "Because this people has refused the gently flowing waters of Shiloah, and rejoices over what will happen to Rezin and Remaliah's son, <sup>7</sup> therefore the Lord will bring up against them the strong floodwaters of the Euphrates River, the king of Assyria and all his glory.

It will overflow all its channels,
 and overrun all its banks.

<sup>8</sup> It will sweep on into Judah, flooding and pouring through.
 It will reach even to the neck, and the stretching out of its wings filling the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

<sup>9</sup> Be broken, O nations, and be shattered in pieces.
 Listen all you distant countries.
                   Gear up for battle,
                                   but you will be shattered;
                   gear up for battle,
                                   but you will be shattered.

<sup>10</sup> Devise a plan,
                   but it will achieve nothing.
 Issue orders,
                   but they will never happen,
                   for God is with us."

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD told me this with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 "Do not make allegation of a conspiracy;
concerning everything this people calls a conspiracy,
do not be afraid of what they fear,
or be in dread of it.

13 The LORD of hosts is the one you must recognize as holy,
and let him be your fear,
and let him be your dread.

14 He will be a sanctuary;
a rock one trips over and a stone of stumbling for both the houses of Israel.

He will be a trap
and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 Many will stumble over them.
They will fall and be broken, snared and taken captive."

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the teaching among my disciples.

17 I will wait expectantly for the LORD, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, but I will put my hope in him.

18 Look, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and harbingers in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

19 When they say to you, "Consult with mediums and spiritists, who chirp and mutter," should not a people consult with their God? Should they really ask the dead on behalf of the living?

20 Rather consult the law and the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, surely there is no dawn for them.

21 They will wander through the land distressed and hungry. When they get hungry, they will be enraged, and curse their king and their God, as they turn their faces upward.

22 They will look to the earth, and see only distress and darkness, gloom and anguish; they will be driven away into the darkness.

DASV: Isaiah 9

<sup>1</sup> But there will be no gloom to her who was in anguish. In the former times he treated the land of Zebulun and Naphtali with contempt, but in the latter time he will make glorious Galilee of the nations, from the way of the sea to the region beyond the Jordan.

<sup>2</sup> The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light;
those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,
on them the light has shined.

<sup>3</sup> You have multiplied the nation;
you have increased their joy;
they joy before you like the joy during harvest,
like warriors rejoice when they split up the spoil.

<sup>4</sup> For the yoke of their oppression, and the bar on their shoulder,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as in the day of Midian's defeat.

<sup>5</sup> For every boot of the marching warriors, and every garment drenched in blood,
will be for burning, fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup> For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given,
and the government will be upon his shoulders:
and his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end.
He will rule on the throne of David,
and over his kingdom,
to establish it,
and to uphold it with justice
and with righteousness from this time forth forever.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

and it has fallen on Israel.

<sup>9</sup> All the people will know it, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who in pride and in arrogance of heart, say,

<sup>10</sup> "The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with carefully crafted stone;
the sycamores are cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars."

- <sup>11</sup> Therefore the LORD has raised their adversaries against them, and has stirred up his enemies, <sup>12</sup> Aram on the east, and the Philistines on the west;
they will gobble up Israel with an open mouth.
Even after all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- <sup>13</sup> Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail,
palm branch and reed in just one day.
- <sup>15</sup> The elder and the dignitaries, are the head;
the prophets who teach lies, are the tail.
- <sup>16</sup> For those who lead this people have led them astray;
those who are led by them are destroyed.
- <sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord is not pleased with their young men, nor will he have compassion on their orphans and widows;
for everyone is godless and an evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.
Even after all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- <sup>18</sup> For wickedness burns like fire;
it devours the briars and thorns;
it also burns the thickets of the forest,
so that they go up in smoke.
- <sup>19</sup> Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is burnt up and the people are like the fuel for the fire;
no one spares even his brother.
- <sup>20</sup> They devoured on the right, but were still hungry;
he ate on the left, but they were not be satisfied.
They will all eat the flesh of their own children.
- <sup>21</sup> Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh;
both will fight against Judah.
Even after all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

DASV: Isaiah 10

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who make unjust decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive laws; <sup>2</sup> to turn aside the needy from justice, and to rob the poor of my people of their rights,
that widows may be their spoil,
and that they may make the orphans their prey!
<sup>3</sup> What will you do in the day of punishment, when devastation comes from far away?
To whom will you flee for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?
<sup>4</sup> Nothing is left but to huddle down with the prisoners, or fall among the slain.
Even after all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- <sup>5</sup> "Woe to Assyria, the rod of my anger,
the club in their hands is my rage!
<sup>6</sup> I am sending him against a godless nation, and against the people of my wrath.
I will give him an order,
to take the spoil,
to seize the plunder,
and to stomp them down
like the mud in the streets.
<sup>7</sup> Yet this is not what he intends, nor is this what his heart is planning;
it is in his heart to destroy,
and to cut off many nations.
<sup>8</sup> For he boasts, "Are not my princes all kings?"
<sup>9</sup> Is not Calno like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Samaria like Damascus?
<sup>10</sup> As my hand has reached the kingdoms of the idols, whose images excel those of Jerusalem and of Samaria, <sup>11</sup> shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols, exactly as I have done to Samaria and her idols?"
- <sup>12</sup> When the Lord has finished his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem,
he will say,
"I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the haughty of look of his eyes.

- <sup>13</sup> For he says, 'By the strength of my hand I have done it,
and by my wisdom;
for I have understanding.
I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures, and like a powerful conqueror I have brought down those who sat on thrones.
- <sup>14</sup> My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a bird's nest;
like one gathers eggs that are abandoned,
I have gathered all the earth.
There was not one that flapped a wing, or that opened its mouth, or chirped.'"
- <sup>15</sup> Does the axe boast against the one who wields it?
Does the saw extol itself over the one who saws with it?
As if a rod should wave the one who lifts it up, or as if a staff should lift up the one not made of wood.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore the sovereign LORD of hosts will send among his burly warriors emaciation;
his glory will be incinerated like the burning of fire.
- <sup>17</sup> The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame.
It will burn and devour in just one day his thorns and his briers.
- <sup>18</sup> He will consume the grandeur of his forest,
and his fruitful field,
both body and soul.
It will be like when a sick person wastes away.
- <sup>19</sup> There will be so few surviving trees in his forest, that even a child could write them down.
- <sup>20</sup> In that day the remnant of Israel, and those who survive from the house of Jacob,
will no longer depend on the one who struck them,
but they will rely on the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
- <sup>21</sup> A remnant will return,
the remnant of Jacob to the mighty God.
- <sup>22</sup> For though your people, Israel,
be as the sand of the sea,
only a remnant of them will return;
a destruction is decreed,

- overflowing with righteousness.
- <sup>23</sup> For the sovereign LORD of hosts will execute complete destruction, in the midst of the whole land.
- <sup>24</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD of hosts says,
"O my people who live in Zion,
do not be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strikes you with the rod,
and lifts up his club against you,
just as Egypt did.
- <sup>25</sup> For in a few moments my fury will be over,
then my anger will be directed to their destruction.
- <sup>26</sup> The LORD of hosts will beat them with a whip, just like he struck Midian at the rock of Oreb.
He will lift his rod over the sea,
just as he did in Egypt.
- <sup>27</sup> In that day his burden will be removed from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck,
and the yoke will be broken because you will be so brawny.
- <sup>28</sup> He has come to Aiath;
he has passed through Migron;
at Michmash he stores his baggage.
- <sup>29</sup> They are gone over the pass;
they have taken up their lodging at Geba;
Ramah trembles;
Gibeah of Saul has fled.
- <sup>30</sup> Shriek, O daughter of Gallim!
Listen, O Laishah!
O poor Anathoth!
- <sup>31</sup> Madmenah flees;
the inhabitants of Gebim run for cover.
- <sup>32</sup> This very day he will halt at Nob;
he shakes his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.
- <sup>33</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD of hosts, will lop off the boughs with an awful crash.
The tallest trees will be cut down,
and the lofty brought low.
- <sup>34</sup> He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an iron axe, and Lebanon in its majesty will fall.

DASV: Isaiah 11

- <sup>1</sup> There will grow up a shoot out of the stump of Jesse,
and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.
- <sup>2</sup> The Spirit of the LORD will rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.
- <sup>3</sup> His delight will be in the fear of the LORD.
He will not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears.
- <sup>4</sup> But he will judge the poor with righteousness, and decide for the oppressed of the earth with equity.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;
with the breath of his lips, he will kill the wicked.
- <sup>5</sup> Righteousness will be the belt around his hips,
and faithfulness the belt around his waist.
- <sup>6</sup> The wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat;
the calf, the young lion, and the fattened cow will lie down together;
and a little child will lead them.
- <sup>7</sup> The cow and the bear will graze together;
their young ones will lie down together;
the lion will eat straw like an ox.
- <sup>8</sup> The nursing child will play near the hole of the asp, and the weaned child will put his hand into the viper's hole.
- <sup>9</sup> They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD
as the waters cover the sea.
- <sup>10</sup> In that day the root of Jesse will be raised for a sign of the peoples;
the nations will seek guidance from him;
his resting place will be glorious.
- <sup>11</sup> In that day the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people that remains, from Assyria and from Egypt,
from Pathros and from Cush,
from Elam, and from Shinar,
from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
- <sup>12</sup> Then he will set up a signal flag for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

- <sup>13</sup> The jealousy of Ephraim will depart;
those hostile to Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, and Judah will not be hostile to Ephraim.
- <sup>14</sup> They will swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines on the west;
together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will put forth their hand on Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will obey them.
- <sup>15</sup> The LORD will divide the gulf of the Egyptian sea;
with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River.
He will split it up into seven streams, and enable people to cross over in sandals.
- <sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that remain from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that they came up out of the land of Egypt.

DASV: Isaiah 12

- <sup>1</sup> In that day you will say,
    "I will give thanks to you, O LORD;
        for though you were angry with me, but now your anger is turned away and you comfort me.
- <sup>2</sup> God is my salvation;
    I will trust and not be afraid;
    for the LORD, yes the LORD,
        is my strength and song;
        he has become my salvation."
- <sup>3</sup> Joyfully you will draw water from the wells of salvation.
- <sup>4</sup> In that day you will say,
    "Give thanks to the LORD,
        call on his name;
    declare his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.
- <sup>5</sup> Sing to the LORD, for he has done wonderful things;
        let this be known in all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> Shout out and cheer, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

DASV: Isaiah 13

- <sup>1</sup> The oracle about Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.
- <sup>2</sup> Set up a signal flag on the bare mountain top.
    Shout out to them,
        wave your hand
    for them to enter into the gates of the nobles.
- <sup>3</sup> I have commanded my special forces;
    I have called my warriors to execute my anger,
        those who rejoice in my victorious exaltation.
- <sup>4</sup> The tumult resounds on the mountains,
    like that of a great many people!
    There is an uproar among the kingdoms,
        like nations assembling together!
    The LORD of hosts is mustering the troops for the battle.
- <sup>5</sup> They come from a far country,
    as far as the distant horizons.
    It is the LORD and the weapons of his anger,
        to destroy the whole land.
- <sup>6</sup> Wail for the day of the LORD is near.
    It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore all hands will hang limp,
    and every human heart will melt.
- <sup>8</sup> They will be terrified.
    Pangs and agony will seize hold of them;
        they will be in pain like a woman in labor.
    They will look aghast at each other;
        their faces will be aflame.
- <sup>9</sup> The day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger;
    to make the land desolate,
        and to destroy its sinners out of it.
- <sup>10</sup> For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not give their light.
    The sun will be darkened as it rises,
        and the moon will not shine.
- <sup>11</sup> I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity.
    I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and bring down the haughtiness of the ruthless.
- <sup>12</sup> I will make human beings more rare than fine gold, people than the gold of Ophir.

- <sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place,
at the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.
- <sup>14</sup> Like a startled gazelle, and like sheep with no one to gather them,
they will return each one to their own people,
and will flee to their own land.
- <sup>15</sup> Everyone who is caught will be thrust through;
everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.
- <sup>16</sup> Their infants also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
their houses will be plundered,
and their wives raped.
- <sup>17</sup> Look, I will stir up the Medes against them, who do not care about silver and have no pleasure in gold.
- <sup>18</sup> Their bows will cut the young men to pieces;
they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
their eyes will not spare even the children.
- <sup>19</sup> Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
the splendor of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
- <sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited, from generation to generation.
Not even the bedouins will pitch their tent there;
nor will shepherds make their flocks to lie down there.
- <sup>21</sup> But wild beasts of the desert will lie down there,
and their houses will be the haunts of howling creatures.
Ostriches will dwell there,
and wild goats will frolic there.
- <sup>22</sup> Wolves will cry in their former fortresses, and jackals in the luxurious palaces.
Its time is near,
and its days will not be prolonged.

DASV: Isaiah 14

- <sup>1</sup> But the LORD will have compassion on Jacob, and will again choose Israel,
and set them in their own land.
The foreigners will join with them,
and they will attach themselves to the house of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> The nations will take them,
and bring them to their place;
the house of Israel will possess them for servants and for handmaids in the land of the LORD.
They will take captive those who were their captors, and they will rule over their oppressors.
- <sup>3</sup> On the day the LORD will give relief from your sorrow,
and from your trouble,
and from the hard labor you were forced to serve,
- <sup>4</sup> you should take up this taunt against the king of Babylon, and say, 'How the oppressor has ended!
How his fury has ceased!'
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers,
- <sup>6</sup> that struck down the peoples in wrath
with relentless blows, that ruled the nations in anger,
with unrestrained aggression.
- <sup>7</sup> The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
they break forth into singing.
- <sup>8</sup> The cypress trees rejoice over you,
the cedars of Lebanon, saying,
"Since you were laid low,
no woodcutter comes up against us."
- <sup>9</sup> Sheol from beneath is excited to meet you at your coming;
it rouses the spirits of the dead to greet you,
all the leaders of the earth.
It raises up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.
- <sup>10</sup> They all will respond and say,
"You too have become weak as we are!
You have become like us!"

- <sup>11</sup> Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, so also the sound of your harps,
the maggots spread like a bed under you,
and worms cover you.
- <sup>12</sup> How you are fallen from heaven, O shining star, son of the morning!
How you are cut down to the ground,
you who laid the nations low!
- <sup>13</sup> You said in your heart,
"I will ascend into heaven;
I will raise my throne above the stars of God.
I will sit on the mount of the assembly,
on the distant slopes of Mount Zaphon.
- <sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High."
- <sup>15</sup> Yet you will be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.
- <sup>16</sup> Those who see you will gape at you;
they will ponder over you, saying,
"Is this the one who made the earth tremble,
and shook kingdoms,
- <sup>17</sup> who made the world like a desert,
and overthrew its cities,
who would not release his prisoners to go home?"
- <sup>18</sup> All the kings of the nations,
all of them rest in glory,
each one in his own tomb.
- <sup>19</sup> But you are thrown out of your own sepulcher like a deplorable branch, clothed with the slain who were thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit;
like a corpse trampled underfoot.
- <sup>20</sup> You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land,
you have killed your people.
The descendants of evildoers will never be mentioned again.
- <sup>21</sup> Get ready to slaughter his children for the sins of their fathers.
They must never rise up, and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities.

- <sup>22</sup> "I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts,
"and cut off the memory of Babylon and its survivors, its offspring and posterity," says the LORD.
- <sup>23</sup> "I will turn it into a possession of owls,
and pools of marshy water;
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," declares the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>24</sup> The LORD of hosts has sworn,
"Surely, just as I have intended, so it will be;
just as I have planned, it will happen.
- <sup>25</sup> I will break the Assyrian in my land,
and on my mountains trample him under foot.
Then his yoke will be removed from off my people,
and his burden pulled off their shoulders.
- <sup>26</sup> This is the plan devised against the whole earth;
this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
- <sup>27</sup> For the LORD of hosts has planned, who can annul it?
His hand is stretched out,
who can turn it back?
- <sup>28</sup> In the year that King Ahaz died this oracle was given.
- <sup>29</sup> Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, because the rod that struck you is broken;
for out of that serpent's root will come a more poisonous viper,
and his fruit will be a fiery serpent.
- <sup>30</sup> The firstborn of the poor will graze in pasture, and the needy will lie down in safety.
But I will kill your root with famine, it will slay even your remnant which survived.
- <sup>31</sup> Wail, O gate!
Cry, O city!
You are melted away, O Philistia, all of you;
for out of the north comes smoke,
and there is not a single straggler in its ranks.
- <sup>32</sup> What will one answer the messengers of this nation?
"The LORD has founded Zion, and in her the oppressed of his people will find refuge."

DASV: Isaiah 15

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about Moab.
In a single night Ar of Moab is devastated and destroyed;
in a single night Kir of Moab is devastated and destroyed.
- <sup>2</sup> Dibon goes up to the temple,
to the high places to grieve.
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba;
all their heads are shaved,
every beard is cut off.
- <sup>3</sup> In their streets they wear sackcloth;
on their housetops and in town squares,
every one wails falling down with weeping.
- <sup>4</sup> Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voice is heard even to Jahaz.
Therefore the armed warriors of Moab cry aloud;
their souls tremble.
- <sup>5</sup> My heart cries out for Moab;
her nobles flee to Zoar, even to Eglath-shelishiyah.
They weep as they go up the Ascent of Luhith;
in the way of Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction.
- <sup>6</sup> For the waters of Nimrim are gone;
the grass is withered,
the new shoots fail,
there is nothing green.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore the abundance they have acquired,
and that which they have saved up,
they will carry away over the Wadi of the Willows.
- <sup>8</sup> The cry echoes around the territory of Moab;
their wailing reaches to Eglaim, their wailing reaches to Beer Elim.
- <sup>9</sup> For the waters of Dimon are full of blood;
yet I will bring even more on Dimon,
a lion will attack those of Moab who escape,
even the remnant, those left in the land.

DASV: Isaiah 16

- <sup>1</sup> Send lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah, through the desert to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> Like birds hovering around,
after being pushed from the nest,
so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.
- <sup>3</sup> "Give counsel, make a decision;
make your shade like night at noon;
hide the outcasts;
do not betray the fugitive.
- <sup>4</sup> Let the fugitives of Moab settle with you;
be a hiding place for them from the destroyer."
For the oppressor has ended, destruction has ceased,
those trampling others have vanished from the land.
- <sup>5</sup> The throne will be established by loyal love;
he will sit on it in truth in the tent of David,
judging, seeking justice,
and quick to execute righteousness.
- <sup>6</sup> We have heard about the pride of Moab,
how proud;
his arrogance, pride, and insolence;
his boastings are bogus.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore let Moab wail for Moab, everyone of them will wail.
Absolutely devastated,
mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.
- <sup>8</sup> For the fields of Heshbon waste away,
even the vines of Sibmah.
The lords of the nations have broken off its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer,
which spread into the wilderness.
Its shoots were spread abroad,
they crossed over the sea.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore I will weep with those weeping from Jazer for the vine of Sibmah.
I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh;
for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the shouts of joy have ceased.

<sup>10</sup> Gladness and joy are removed from the fruitful field;
there is no more singing in the vineyards,
or shouts of joy.

No treader treads out wine in the presses;
I have put an end to those shouts.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore my heart groans like a harp for Moab, and my inner being for Kir Hareseth.

<sup>12</sup> When Moab presents himself for worship, when he wearies himself on the high place,
and comes to his sanctuary to pray,
it will not be effective.

<sup>13</sup> This is the word that the LORD spoke about Moab in the past.

<sup>14</sup> But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be despised, with his entire population; and the survivors will be few and insignificant."

DASV: Isaiah 17

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about Damascus.
"Look, Damascus will cease to be a city,
it will be a heap of ruins.
- <sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
they will be places for flocks to lie down,
and no one will make them afraid.
- <sup>3</sup> The fortified town of Ephraim will disappear, along with the kingdom of Damascus.
The remnant of Syria:
they will end up like the glory of the children of Israel,"
says the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>4</sup> "In that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low,
and the fatness of his flesh will become thin.
- <sup>5</sup> It will be as when harvesters gather the standing grain, and his arm reaps the ears of grain;
like one gleaning ears of grain in the valley of Rephaim.
- <sup>6</sup> Yet there will be some leftover gleanings in it, like when an olive tree is harvested by beating,
two or three olives remain in the top branches, four or five in the most fruitful branches," says the LORD, the God of Israel.
- <sup>7</sup> In that day a person will look to their Maker, and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands;
neither will they look to what their fingers have made,
the Asherah poles or incense altars.
- <sup>9</sup> In that day their refuge cities will be like the forsaken forests of the Amorites, which were abandoned because of the children of Israel.
There will be desolation.
- <sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the Rock, your refuge.
So you plant beautiful plants,
and plant special foreign vines.
- <sup>11</sup> In the day you plant it, you fence it in,
and in the morning you cause your seed to germinate;
but the harvest vanishes

in the day of disease and incurable pain.

- <sup>12</sup> Woe, the uproar of many peoples, that roar like the roaring of the sea,
and the roar of nations,
like the roar of the crashing of mighty waves!
- <sup>13</sup> Though the nations roar like the roar of many waters,
he will rebuke them,
and they will flee far away,
chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm.
- <sup>14</sup> In the evening, look, terror!
Before the morning, they are gone.
This is the plight of those who plunder us,
and the lot of those who loot us.

DASV: Isaiah 18

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the land of buzzing wings
beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; <sup>2</sup> that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in papyrus vessels on the waters.
Go, you swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth,
to a people feared far and wide,
a nation strong and conquering,
whose land is divided by rivers.
- <sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world,
and you dwellers on the earth,
when a signal flag is lifted on the mountains, look;
when the trumpet is blown, listen.
- <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD said to me,
"I will quietly watch from my dwelling place, like heat shimmers in sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."
- <sup>5</sup> For before the harvest,
when the blossom is over,
and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
he will prune off the shoots with pruning shears,
and cut off and remove the spreading branches.
- <sup>6</sup> They will be left together for the mountain vultures, and for the beasts of the earth;
the birds of prey will spend summer feeding on them,
and all the beasts of the earth will spend winter eating them.
- <sup>7</sup> In that time a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, to people feared far and wide,
a nation strong and conquering,
whose land is divided by rivers.
to the place of the name of LORD of hosts, to Mount Zion.

DASV: Isaiah 19

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about Egypt.
Look, the LORD rides on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble at his presence;
the hearts of Egyptians melt within them.
- <sup>2</sup> "I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians;
each one will fight against his brother,
each person against his neighbor,
city against city,
and kingdom against kingdom.
- <sup>3</sup> The spirit of Egypt will be demoralized within them;
I will make their plans ineffective.
They will seek guidance from idols,
and from spirits of the dead,
along with mediums and sorcerers.
- <sup>4</sup> I will hand the Egyptians over to the hand of a cruel master, and a fierce king will rule over them,"
says the sovereign LORD of hosts.
- <sup>5</sup> The waters from the sea will be dried up, and the Nile river will be waterless and dry.
- <sup>6</sup> The rivers will become foul;
the streams of Egypt will be depleted and dried up;
the reeds and rushes will wither away.
- <sup>7</sup> The bulrushes by the Nile,
by the mouth of the Nile,
and all the sown fields by the Nile, will wither, be blown away and gone.
- <sup>8</sup> The fishermen will lament,
all those who cast hooks into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will waste away.
- <sup>9</sup> Those who work in combed flax will despair and those who weave white cloth will grow pale.
- <sup>10</sup> The weavers will be crushed;
all those who work for wages will be grieved.
- <sup>11</sup> The princes of Zoan are absolutely foolish;
the Pharaoh's wise counselors give stupid advice.
How do you dare say to Pharaoh,
"I am a sage,

- a student of the ancient kings?"
- <sup>12</sup> Where now are your wise men?
Let them tell you now and make known what the LORD of hosts has planned concerning Egypt.
- <sup>13</sup> The officials of Zoan have become fools,
the officials of Memphis are deceived;
they have caused Egypt to go astray,
those who were the cornerstones of her tribes.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD has poured a spirit of distortion into her;
they have caused Egypt to go astray in everything she does,
like a drunkard staggering around in his own vomit.
- <sup>15</sup> Egypt can do nothing about it,
head or tail,
palm branch or reed.
- <sup>16</sup> In that day the Egyptians will be like fearful women; they will tremble and fear because the LORD of hosts waves his fist; he shakes it against them.
- <sup>17</sup> The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt; everyone who hears mention of it will be terrified, because of what the counsel of the LORD of hosts advises against it.
- <sup>18</sup> In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear allegiance to LORD of hosts. One will be called the City of Sun.
- <sup>19</sup> In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar dedicated to the LORD at its border.
- <sup>20</sup> It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. They will cry out to the LORD because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender who will deliver them.
- <sup>21</sup> The LORD will reveal himself to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make a vow to the LORD and keep it.
- <sup>22</sup> The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and then healing them. They will return to the LORD, and he will listen to their prayers and heal them.
- <sup>23</sup> In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyrians will come to Egypt, and the Egyptians will go to Assyria. Egyptians will worship with Assyrians.
- <sup>24</sup> In that day Israel will be a third member with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth.
- <sup>25</sup> For the LORD of hosts has blessed them, saying,
"Blessed be Egypt my people,
Assyria the work of my hands,
and Israel my inheritance."

DASV: Isaiah 20

<sup>2</sup> At that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and take off the sackcloth from your waist, and remove your sandals from your feet." So he did it, walking naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, "Just like my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a harbinger against Egypt and Ethiopia, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, both young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks bared, to the shame of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> They will be dismayed and ashamed because Ethiopia was their hope, and Egypt their boast.

<sup>6</sup> In that day the inhabitants of this coastland will say, 'Look at what happened to our hope, to those we fled to for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How will we ever escape?'"

DASV: Isaiah 21

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about the Wilderness by the Sea.
Like whirlwinds in the Negev sweep through,
it comes from the wilderness,
from a terrifying land.
- <sup>2</sup> A harsh vision was told to me;
the treacherous man deals treacherously,
and the destroyer destroys.
Go up, O Elam;
lay siege, O Media;
all the sighing she has caused
I will bring to an end.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore my loins are filled with anguish;
pangs have seized hold of me,
like the pangs of a woman in labor.
I am so bewildered by what I hear,
troubled by what I see.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart flutters, horror has frightened me;
the twilight that I desired has brought me only trembling.
- <sup>5</sup> They prepare the table,
they lay the carpet,
they eat, they drink.
Get up, you commanders,
oil the shields.
- <sup>6</sup> For this is what the Lord says to me,
"Go, post a lookout,
let him report what he observes.
- <sup>7</sup> When he sees chariots with pairs of horses, riders on donkeys,
riders on camels,
let him be vigilant, very vigilant.
- <sup>8</sup> Then he cried out,
"O Lord, I stand constantly on the watchtower in the day,
and am stationed at my post every night.
- <sup>9</sup> Look, here comes a man on a chariot with a pair of horses."
He announces,
"Babylon is fallen, fallen;
and all the carved images of her gods are smashed into the ground."
- <sup>10</sup> O my people, threshed and beaten on my threshing floor!

I have reported to you what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> An oracle about Dumah.

Someone calls to me from Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"

<sup>12</sup> The watchman replied,

"The morning is coming, then also the night.
If you want to ask, then ask; come back again."

<sup>13</sup> An oracle about Arabia.

In the thickets in Arabia you will lodge,
O caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup> Bring water for the thirsty;

O inhabitants of the land of Tema meet the fugitives with bread.

<sup>15</sup> For they have fled from the swords,

from the drawn sword,
from the bent bow,
and from the pressure of the battle.

<sup>16</sup> For this is what the Lord said to me, "Within a year, according to the years counted by a hired hand, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end.

<sup>17</sup> The surviving archers, and warriors of Kedar, will be few," for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

DASV: Isaiah 22

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about the Valley of Vision.
What is the problem now,
causing all of you to go up to the rooftops?
- <sup>2</sup> The city is full of pandemonium,
the town full of revelry.
Your slain are not killed by the sword,
nor do they die in battle.
- <sup>3</sup> All your rulers together have fled;
they were captured without even a bow shot.
All who were found were captured together,
even though they fled far away.
- <sup>4</sup> Therefore I said, "Don't look at me,
while I weep bitterly;
don't try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."
- <sup>5</sup> For it is a day of panic, defeat, and confusion, from the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
in the Valley of Vision.
It is a day of battering down of the walls, and cries for help to the mountains.
- <sup>6</sup> Elam picked up the quiver, coming with chariots and horsemen;
Kir uncovered its shield.
- <sup>7</sup> Your key valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen took up fixed positions at the city gate.
- <sup>8</sup> He stripped back the defenses of Judah.
- In that day you looked for the weapons in the House of the Forest armory.
- <sup>9</sup> You saw the many breaches in the walls of the city of David.
You collected water in the lower pool.
- <sup>10</sup> You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and tore down houses in order to fortify the wall.
- <sup>11</sup> You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool.
But you did not look to him who had done this,
or respect him who planned it long ago.
- <sup>12</sup> In that day the Lord, the LORD of hosts called for weeping and mourning,
for heads to be shaved,

- and for sackcloth to be put on.
- <sup>13</sup> But instead there was joy and gladness, celebratory slaying of oxen and slaughtering of sheep, eating meat and drinking wine.
"Let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we die," you exclaim.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts revealed himself in my ears,
"Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven until you die,"
says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord says, the LORD of hosts,
"Go to Shebna, the palace manager, and say,
- <sup>16</sup> What are you doing here?
What relatives of yours are buried here?
Why have you hewed out a sepulcher here for yourself?
He cut out a sepulcher on this high place, craving a tomb for himself in the rock.
- <sup>17</sup> Look, the LORD, will hurl you away violently; O warrior.
Yes, he will seize hold of you firmly.
- <sup>18</sup> He will roll you up tightly like a ball tossing you into a large country.
There you will die,
and there your marvelous chariots will lie.
You are a disgrace to your master's house.
- <sup>19</sup> I will drive you out of your office;
and you will be pulled down from your exalted position.
- <sup>20</sup> In that day, I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah.
- <sup>21</sup> I will cloth him with your robe, and lash your sash on him. I will transfer your authority into his hand. He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
- <sup>22</sup> The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder. What he opens, no one will be able to shut; what he shuts, and no one will be able to open.
- <sup>23</sup> I will fasten him like a peg in a secure place; he will become a throne of glory to his father's house.
- <sup>24</sup> They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the descendants and offspring, every small vessel, from the cups to all the jugs.
- <sup>25</sup> In that day," says the LORD of hosts, "the peg that was fastened in a secure place will give way. It will be cut down and fall. The load that was hanging on it will fall down," for the LORD has spoken.

DASV: Isaiah 23

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about Tyre.
Wail, you ships of Tarshish.
Tyre is destroyed without house and harbor;
from the land of Cyprus it is reported to them.
- <sup>2</sup> Be still, you inhabitants of the coast,
you merchants of Sidon,
your messengers sail through the sea.
- <sup>3</sup> Over the great waters
they come with grain of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile was her revenue.
She was the market of the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, O Sidon;
for the sea has spoken,
the stronghold of the sea, saying,
"I have not been in labor,
or given birth,
I have not reared young men,
or brought up daughters."
- <sup>5</sup> When the news gets to Egypt,
they will be sorely pained at the report about Tyre.
- <sup>6</sup> Travel to Tarshish;
wail, you inhabitants of the coast.
- <sup>7</sup> Is this your joyous city, whose origin is from ancient days,
whose feet have carried her to settle far away?
- <sup>8</sup> Who has planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose merchants are princes,
whose traders are honored around the world?
- <sup>9</sup> The LORD of hosts has planned it,
to defile the pride of all glory,
to bring to shame all the honored of the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Cross through your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish;
there is no harbor any more.
- <sup>11</sup> He has stretched out his hand over the sea;
he has shaken the kingdoms.
The LORD has given commands concerning Canaan to destroy its fortresses.

<sup>12</sup> He said, "You will not celebrate any more,
O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise, pass over to Cyprus;
even there you will have no rest."

<sup>13</sup> Look at the land of the Chaldeans;
this is a people who were not;
the Assyrians established it as a place for desert animals;
they set up their siege towers;
they stripped bare its palaces;
they reduced it to a ruin.

your fortress is destroyed.

<sup>15</sup> In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, for the days of a single king.
Then at the end of seventy years, Tyre will come back as in the song about the prostitute.

<sup>16</sup> "Take a harp, go about the city,
O forgotten whore;
make sweet melody,
sing many songs,
so that you may be remembered."

<sup>17</sup> After the seventy years, the LORD will restore Tyre, and she will return to her hire, and will prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.

<sup>18</sup> Her merchandise and her wages will be consecrated to the LORD. It will not be stored up or hoarded; her merchandise will be for them who live in the LORD's presence, supplying plenty of food and beautiful clothes.

DASV: Isaiah 24

- <sup>1</sup> Look, the LORD lays waste to the earth, makes it desolate,
twists its surface,
and scatters its inhabitants.
- <sup>2</sup> It will hit the priest just like the people,
the master just like the servant,
the mistress just like the maid,
the seller just like the buyer,
the borrower just like the lender,
the debtor just like the creditor.
- <sup>3</sup> The earth will be absolutely devastated,
and completely plundered;
the LORD has spoken this word.
- <sup>4</sup> The earth dries up and withers,
the world languishes and withers,
the people of prominence of the earth languish.
- <sup>5</sup> The earth is defiled by its inhabitants;
because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants are found guilty.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned,
and few people are left.
- <sup>7</sup> The new wine dries up,
the vine languishes,
all the merry-hearted groan.
- <sup>8</sup> The celebration with tambourines ceases,
the revelry of those who rejoice stops,
the joy of the harp halts.
- <sup>9</sup> No longer will they drink wine with a song;
strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.
- <sup>10</sup> The wasted city is broken down;
every house is locked down
so that no one can enter.
- <sup>11</sup> There is crying in the streets for wine;
all joy has turned to gloom,
the gladness of the land is banished.
- <sup>12</sup> The city is left desolate, and the gate is beaten into pieces.

- <sup>13</sup> This is how it will be throughout the earth
among the nations,
like when an olive tree is beaten in harvest,
like the gleanings left when the grape harvest is over.
- <sup>14</sup> They will lift up their voices,
they will shout for joy;
the majesty of the LORD
they will proclaim from the west.
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore glorify the LORD in the east,
even the name of the LORD,
in the islands of the sea,
the God of Israel.
- <sup>16</sup> From the ends of the earth we hear songs:
"Glory to the Righteous One."
But I said, "I am wasting away,
I am wasting away, woe is me!
For the deceivers have acted deceitfully;
the deceivers have acted very deceitfully."
- <sup>17</sup> Terror, the pit, and the snare, are upon you,
O inhabitant of the earth.
- <sup>18</sup> Whoever flees from the sound of terror
will fall into the pit;
whoever comes up out of the midst of the pit will be caught in the snare.
For the windows of heaven are opened,
and the foundations of the earth tremble.
- <sup>19</sup> The earth is totally broken up,
the earth is ripped apart,
the earth is violently shaken.
- <sup>20</sup> The earth will stagger like a drunkard,
it will sway like a hut in a storm;
its transgression will be heavy on it,
it will fall and not get up again.
- <sup>21</sup> In that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven in heaven, and the kings of the earth on the earth.
- <sup>22</sup> They will be gathered together,
as prisoners gathered in a pit.
They will be locked up in the prison;
after many days they will be punished.
- <sup>23</sup> Then the moon will blush,

and the sun will be ashamed;
for the LORD of hosts will reign in Mount Zion, in Jerusalem and before his elders with glory.

DASV: Isaiah 25

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, you are my God;
I will exalt you,
I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
plans shaped of old in absolute faithfulness.
- <sup>2</sup> For you have made a city a heap,
a fortified town a ruin,
a fortress for strangers is no longer a city;
it will never be rebuilt.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore strong peoples will respect you;
a city of ruthless nations will fear you.
- <sup>4</sup> For you have been a refuge for the poor,
a stronghold to the needy in their distress,
a shelter from the storm,
a shade from the heat.
For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm battering against the wall, <sup>5</sup> like heat in a parched place.
You will silence the uproar of foreigners;
like the heat subsiding from the shade of clouds,
the song of the ruthless will be silenced.
- <sup>6</sup> In this mountain the LORD of hosts will make a lavish banquet for all peoples, a feast of well aged wines and choice meats,
of the finest wines well strained.
- <sup>7</sup> He will swallow up on this mountain
the shroud that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations.
- <sup>8</sup> He will swallow up death forever;
and the sovereign LORD will wipe away tears from off all faces;
the disgrace of his people,
he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken it.
- <sup>9</sup> It will be said in that day,
"Look, here is our God;
we have waited for him,
and he will save us.
This is the LORD;
we have waited for him,

let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

- <sup>10</sup> For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain;
Moab will be trampled down in his place, just like straw is trampled down in the water of a manure pit.
- <sup>11</sup> Moab will spread out its hands in the midst of it, like one who swims spreads out his hands to swim;
but the LORD will lay low their pride together with the spreading out of their hands.
- <sup>12</sup> Your impregnable walled fortress he will bring down, laid low, torn down to the dusty ground.

DASV: Isaiah 26

- <sup>1</sup> In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
    We have a strong city;
    God has set up salvation like walls and ramparts.
- <sup>2</sup> Open the gates, so that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter.
- <sup>3</sup> You will keep in perfect peace,
    those whose minds are steadfast,
        because they trust in you.
- <sup>4</sup> Trust in the LORD forever;
    for in the LORD, yes the LORD,
        you have an everlasting rock.
- <sup>5</sup> For he has brought down those who dwell on high,
    the lofty city;
    he lays it low,
        he lays it low even to the ground;
        he throws it down into the dust.
- <sup>6</sup> Feet will trample it down;
    even the feet of the poor,
        the steps of the needy.
- <sup>7</sup> The way of the righteous is straight,
    you level the path of the righteous.
- <sup>8</sup> Yes, in the path of your judgments, O LORD,
    we wait for you;
    the desire of our soul is for your name for your memory.
- <sup>9</sup> My soul longs for you in the night;
    yes, my spirit within me desires you.
    For when your judgments are seen in the earth,
        the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
- <sup>10</sup> When favor is shown to the wicked,
    they will not learn righteousness;
    in the land of uprightness they will act unjustly, and will not see the majesty of the LORD.
- <sup>11</sup> O LORD, your hand is lifted up,
    yet they do not see it.
    Let them see your zeal for your people,
        and be put to shame;
    yes, fire will consume your adversaries.

- <sup>12</sup> O LORD, you will establish peace for us;
for all our works you have actually done for us.
- <sup>13</sup> O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us,
but your name alone we will keep in remembrance.
- <sup>14</sup> The dead do not come back to life;
the spirits of the dead do not rise;
because you have punished and destroyed them,
and erased all memory of them.
- <sup>15</sup> You have increased the nation, O LORD;
you have increased the nation.
You are glorified;
you have enlarged all the borders of the land.
- <sup>16</sup> O LORD, in trouble they have searched for you;
they poured out a prayer when your discipline was on them.
- <sup>17</sup> Like a woman with child, who nears the time of her delivery,
with writhing and cries in her labor pains,
so we have been before you, O LORD.
- <sup>18</sup> We were pregnant,
we were in pain,
but we gave birth only to the wind.
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth;
nor have the inhabitants of the world been born.
- <sup>19</sup> Your dead will live;
your dead bodies will rise.
Wake up and sing, you who dwell in the dust.
For your dew is like the morning dew, and the earth will give birth to those who were dead.
- <sup>20</sup> Go, my people, enter into your rooms.
Shut your doors behind you.
Hide yourself for a little while,
until his anger is passed.
- <sup>21</sup> For look, the LORD comes out of his dwelling place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their sin.
The earth also will reveal the bloodshed on her,
and will no longer cover her slain.

DASV: Isaiah 27

- <sup>1</sup> In that day the LORD with his terrible, great and strong sword will punish leviathan the swift serpent, leviathan the twisting serpent;
he will slay the sea monster.
- <sup>2</sup> In that day sing about the delightful vineyard.
- <sup>3</sup> I, the LORD, am its keeper;
I will water it all the time.
I will guard it day and night
so that no one can harm it.
- <sup>4</sup> I am not angry;
if it gives me briers and thorns
I will wage war on them!
I would burn them up.
- <sup>5</sup> Let them take hold of my protection,
that they may make peace with me;
yes, let them make peace with me.
- <sup>6</sup> In days to come Jacob will take root;
Israel will bud and blossom,
and fill the entire world with fruit.
- <sup>7</sup> Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them?
Or have they been killed as those who killed them were killed?
- <sup>8</sup> You contend with them by expulsion and exile;
he has blown them away with his fierce wind
as in the day of the east wind.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore by this Jacob's iniquity will be forgiven, and this will be the full fruit of taking away his sin:
When he makes all the stones of the altar like crushed limestone, with no Asherah poles and incense altars left standing.
- <sup>10</sup> For the fortified city is solitary,
a habitat deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness.
There the calf feeds,
and there it will lie down,
and consume its branches.
- <sup>11</sup> When its branches are withered,
they are broken off;
women come and make a fire with them.
For it is a people with no understanding, therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no mercy.

<sup>12</sup> In that day, the LORD will thresh grain, from the Euphrates River to the Brook of Egypt; you will be gathered one by one, O Israelites.

<sup>13</sup> In that day, a great trumpet will be blown; those lost in the land of Assyria will come, along with those who were refugees in the land of Egypt; they will worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

DASV: Isaiah 28

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim,
and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, located at the head of the fertile valley of those overcome with wine!
- <sup>2</sup> Look, the Lord has one who is mighty and strong;
like a hail storm or a destroying windstorm,
like a torrential rainstorm flooding,
he will throw their crown down to the earth with his hand.
- <sup>3</sup> The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot.
- <sup>4</sup> The fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is at the head of the fertile valley,
will be like the first-ripe fig before the harvest;
whoever spots it,
gobbles it up soon as he can get his hand on it.
- <sup>5</sup> In that day the LORD of hosts will become a crown of glory, and a beautiful diadem to the remnant of his people;
- <sup>6</sup> a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment, and strength to those who repel the attack at the gate.
- <sup>7</sup> Even these reel from wine, and stagger from strong drink;
the priest and the prophet reel from strong drink,
they are swallowed up because of wine,
they stagger with strong drink;
they teeter when seeing visions,
they stumble when offering judgments.
- <sup>8</sup> For all tables are full of filthy vomit,
there is nowhere that is clean.
- <sup>9</sup> They complain,
"Who does he think he is trying to teach knowledge?
Who will he make to explain the message?
Those who are weaned from the milk,
those just taken from their mother's breasts?"
- <sup>10</sup> For he repeats the same precept on precept, precept on precept again and again;
line on line, line on line;
here a little, there a little."
- <sup>11</sup> So with stammering lips and with foreign tongues

- he will speak to this people;
12 to whom he said,
"This is the rest, give rest to the one who is weary;"
and "This is a place of refreshment."
Yet they would not listen.
- 13 Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them precept repeated upon precept, precept upon precept;
line upon line, line upon line;
here a little, there a little;
so that they may go and fall over backward,
and be broken, snared, and taken captive.
- 14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD
you scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem:
15 because you have said,
"We have made a covenant with death,
and we have an agreement with Sheol;
when the overflowing whip passes through,
it will not come to us;
for we have made lies our refuge, and hid ourselves under deception."
- 16 Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says,
"Look, I am laying in Zion a foundation stone,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone,
a sure foundation.
One who believes will not panic.
- 17 I will make justice the measuring line,
and righteousness the plum line.
Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
and the waters will overflow the hiding place.
- 18 Your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not last;
when the overflowing whip passes through,
you will be beaten down by it.
- 19 As often as it passes through, it will take you;
for morning by morning it will pass through,
by day and by night;"
when the message is understood,
it will cause sheer terror.
- 20 For the bed is too short for one to stretch out on;
the blanket too narrow for one to wrap around oneself.
- 21 For the LORD will rise up as he did on Mount Perazim,

- he will stir himself up as he did in the valley of Gibeon;
so that he may perform his deed,
his extraordinary deed,
and bring to pass his work,
his unusual work.
- <sup>22</sup> Now therefore do not mock,
lest your bonds be made stronger;
for I have heard from the sovereign LORD of hosts a decree of destruction against the whole earth.
- <sup>23</sup> Listen, and hear my voice.
Pay attention and hear what I am saying.
- <sup>24</sup> Does one plowing in order to plant plow continually?
Does one continually cultivate and break up his ground?
- <sup>25</sup> When he has leveled its surface,
does he not spread the seed of caraway,
and scatter the cumin,
putting the wheat in rows,
and the barley in its designated place,
and the spelt along its border?
- <sup>26</sup> For his God correctly instructs him, and teaches him how.
- <sup>27</sup> For caraway is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over the cumin;
caraway is beaten out with a stick,
and the cumin with a rod.
- <sup>28</sup> Grain for bread must be ground;
one will not keep threshing it forever;
the wheel of one's cart rolls over it,
but one does not use horses to crush it.
- <sup>29</sup> This also comes from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel,
and excellent in wisdom.

DASV: Isaiah 29

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city where David laid siege!
Year after year you celebrate the annual cycle of feasts.
- <sup>2</sup> I will bring distress on Ariel,
there will be mourning and lamenting;
she will be to me like Ariel [an altar hearth].
- <sup>3</sup> I will lay siege against you all around.
I will besiege you with towers,
and I will raise siege works against you.
- <sup>4</sup> You will be brought down,
you will speak from the ground;
your speech will come from the dust where you lie.
Your voice will be like one who has a familiar spirit,
coming out of the ground,
and your speech will whisper out of the dust.
- <sup>5</sup> But your foes will be as plentiful as dust, and your many tyrants will be blown away like chaff;
it will happen suddenly, in an instant.
- <sup>6</sup> She will be punished by the LORD of hosts with thunder, with earthquake and great noise,
with whirlwind and storm,
and the flame of a devouring fire.
- <sup>7</sup> It will be like a vanishing dream,
or a vision in the night;
the horde of all the nations will fight against Ariel,
all those who fight against her and her stronghold,
and those who distress her.
- <sup>8</sup> It will be like when a hungry person dreams,
and he eats,
but then he wakes up with an empty stomach.
Or like when a thirsty person dreams,
and he drinks;
but then he wakes up he is still faint from thirst.
So it will be with the horde of all the nations, that fight against Mount Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> Be shocked and awed.
Blind yourself and be blind.
They are drunk,
but not from wine;
they stagger,
but not from strong drink.
- <sup>10</sup> For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, O prophets, and covered your heads, O seers.

<sup>11</sup> To you this entire vision is like the words of a sealed scroll, which is given to one who can read, saying, "Read this," but he replies, "I cannot, because it is sealed."

<sup>12</sup> Then the scroll is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," but he replies, "I can't read."

<sup>13</sup> The Lord says,

These people draw near to me with their mouth and with their lips they honor me, but their heart is removed far from me,
and their fear of me is merely human commands which they have been taught.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore I will again do an astonishing work among this people, a truly amazing work;
the wisdom of their wise will perish,
and the understanding of their prudent will disappear.

<sup>15</sup> Woe to those who attempt to hide their plans from the LORD, and whose deeds are done in the dark,
and who boast,
"Who can see us?"
and "Who knows what we're up to?"

<sup>16</sup> You turn things upside down!
Should the potter be thought of as no better than the clay.
Should the thing made say to him who made it,
"He didn't make me."
Should the thing formed say of him who formed it,
"He has no understanding"?

<sup>17</sup> In just a little while will Lebanon not be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be thought of as a forest?

<sup>18</sup> In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and the eyes of the blind will see out of their gloom and darkness.

<sup>19</sup> The oppressed also will again rejoice in the LORD, and the poorest people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> For the tyrant will vanish,
and the scoffer will be gone,
and all those who are keen on doing wrong will be cut off,

<sup>21</sup> those who convict a person based on a false testimony, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and denies justice to the innocent.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says about the house of Jacob:

Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face grow pale.

<sup>23</sup> But when he sees his children,
the work of my hands among them,
they will sanctify my name;

yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> They also whose spirit goes astray will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction.

DASV: Isaiah 30

- <sup>1</sup> "Woe to the rebellious children," declares the LORD,
"who execute plans that are not mine,
and who make alliances but not by my Spirit,
so compounding sin on sin;
- <sup>2</sup> who set out to go down to Egypt,
and have not asked for my guidance;
to find refuge under Pharaoh's protection,
and seek safety under Egypt's shade!
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore Pharaoh's protection will bring you shame, and the safety of Egypt's shade will be your disgrace.
- <sup>4</sup> For their officials are at Zoan, and their envoys have come to Hanes.
- <sup>5</sup> They will all be ashamed because of a people who cannot benefit them, who cannot give them help or profit, but only shame and disgrace."
- <sup>6</sup> An oracle about the animals of the Negev.
Through the land of trouble and anguish,
of the lioness and roaring lion,
of the viper and fiery darting serpent,
they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys,
and their treasures upon the humps of camels,
to a people who cannot help.
- <sup>7</sup> For Egypt's help is worthless and futile.
Therefore have I called her "Rahab-who-just-sits-there."
- <sup>8</sup> Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it on a scroll, that it may be preserved as a witness for the future forever.
- <sup>9</sup> For they are a rebellious people, deceptive children,
children that will not obey the law of the LORD.
- <sup>10</sup> They tell the seers, "Stop seeing visions," and to the prophets, "Stop prophesying to us about what is right, tell us pleasantries, prophesy illusions.
- <sup>11</sup> Get out of the way,
turn aside from the path,
let us hear no more of the Holy One of Israel."
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says,

- "Because you despise this word,
and trust and rely on oppression and deception;
<sup>13</sup> therefore this iniquity will be to you like a cracked and bulging wall ready to fall, that topples suddenly, in an instant.
<sup>14</sup> He will smash it like a potter's clay pot, shattering it into pieces without mercy;
so that not a shard of it can be found among its pieces for taking fire from the hearth, or to dipping up water out of a cistern."
- <sup>15</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel says,
"In returning and rest you will be delivered;
quietness and trust will be your strength,
but you rejected it.
<sup>16</sup> You say, 'No, we will flee on horses;'
therefore you will flee.
and, 'We will ride on swift horses;'
therefore those who pursue you will be swift.
<sup>17</sup> One thousand of you will flee at the threat of one of them;
at the threat of five all of you will flee, until you are left as a lone flagpole on the top of a mountain, and as a signal flag on a hill."
<sup>18</sup> Therefore the LORD patiently waits, so that he may be gracious to you.
Therefore he will rise up,
so that he may have mercy on you.
For the LORD is a God of justice.
Blessed are all those who wait for him.
- <sup>19</sup> For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
you will weep no more.
He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry for help;
when he hears, he will answer you.
<sup>20</sup> Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not be hidden anymore,
but your eyes will see your Teacher.
<sup>21</sup> Your ears will hear a word behind you, saying,
"This is the way, walk in it;"
when you turn to the right hand, or when you turn to the left.

- <sup>22</sup> Then you will defile your silver-coated carved images, and your gold-plated metal idols.
You will throw them away like a menstrual rag;
you will say to them, "Get out of here."
- <sup>23</sup> Then he will give the rain for your seed, which you sow in the ground.
Food from the produce of the ground will be rich and plenteous.
In that day your cattle will feed in large pastures.
- <sup>24</sup> The oxen and the donkeys that till the ground will eat savory fodder which has been winnowed with the shovel and pitchfork.
- <sup>25</sup> There on every lofty mountain,
and on every high hill,
there will be brooks of flowing water, in the day of the great slaughter,
when the towers fall.
- <sup>26</sup> Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the injuries of his people and heals the wound he has inflicted.
- <sup>27</sup> Look, the name of the LORD comes from far away, burning with his anger,
and in thick rising smoke.
His lips are full of fury,
and his tongue is like a consuming fire.
- <sup>28</sup> His breath is like a flooding river, that reaches even to one's neck.
He shakes the nations in the sieve of destruction.
He puts a bridle in the jaws of the peoples to lead them to ruin.
- <sup>29</sup> You will sing a song as in the night when the holy feast is kept;
have gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.
- <sup>30</sup> The LORD will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show his arm swinging down,
with the fury of his anger,
and the flame of a consuming fire,
with a cloudburst, storm, and hailstones.
- <sup>31</sup> The Assyrians will be terrified at the voice of the LORD;

when he strikes them down with his rod.

<sup>32</sup> Every stroke of the rod of punishment which the LORD will lay on him, will be to the sound of tambourines and harps;
in battles with the waving of his arm,
he will fight with them.

<sup>33</sup> For Topheth has been prepared for a long time;
yes, made ready for the king;
he has made its pyre deep and wide with firewood piled high;
the breath of the LORD,
like a stream of burning sulfur, sets it on fire.

DASV: Isaiah 31

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help,
and rely on horses,
and trust in their many chariots,
and in horsemen because they are strong, but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, or seek the LORD!
- <sup>2</sup> Yet he too is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not go back on his words.
He will rise against the house of the evildoers, and against the helpers of those who do wrong.
- <sup>3</sup> Now the Egyptians are merely human, and not God;
their horses only flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD will stretch out his hand, both he who helps will stumble,
and he who is helped will fall.
They all will perish together.
- <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says to me,
"When a lion or a young lion growls over its prey,
if a group of shepherds is called out against him,
will it not be frightened at their voice,
or intimidated from their noise.
So will the LORD of hosts come down to fight on Mount Zion, and on its hill.
- <sup>5</sup> Like birds hovering overhead,
so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem;
he will protect and deliver it,
he will pass over and rescue it.
- <sup>6</sup> Return to him from whom you have deeply rebelled, O children of Israel.
- <sup>7</sup> For in that day each one of you will cast away your idols of silver,
and your idols of gold,
which your own hands have sinfully made for you.
- <sup>8</sup> Assyrians will fall by the sword, but not a human one;
the sword, but not of humankind, will devour them.
They will flee from the sword,
and their young men will be forced into hard labor.
- <sup>9</sup> Their rock will pass away in terror, and their officers will panic when they see the signal flag," says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

DASV: Isaiah 32

- <sup>1</sup> Look, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.
- <sup>2</sup> Each of them will be like a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the storm,
like streams in the desert,
like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.
- <sup>3</sup> The eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- <sup>4</sup> The heart of the rash will be able to discern knowledge, and the tongue of those who stutter will be articulate and speak clearly.
- <sup>5</sup> The fool will no longer be called noble,
nor the rascal considered honorable.
- <sup>6</sup> For a fool speaks folly, and his heart plots wrongdoing,
They practice ungodliness and speak error concerning the LORD, to leave the soul of the hungry unsatisfied,
and to deprive the thirsty of water.
- <sup>7</sup> The rascal's schemes are evil;
he devises evil schemes to destroy the poor with lies,
even when the plea of needy is right.
- <sup>8</sup> But the noble plans noble actions;
by noble actions he stands secure.
- <sup>9</sup> Get up, you women who are at ease;
hear my voice, you complacent daughters;
give ear to my speech.
- <sup>10</sup> For in just about a year you will shudder,
you complacent ones;
for the grape harvest will fail,
the fruit harvest will not come.
- <sup>11</sup> Tremble, you women who are at ease;
shudder, you complacent ones;
strip down, and expose yourselves,
and put sackcloth on your waists.
- <sup>12</sup> Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
- <sup>13</sup> For the land of my people will be overgrown with thorns and thistles;
yes, over all the houses of joy in the city of carousing.

- <sup>14</sup> For the palace will be forsaken;
the populous city deserted;
the Ophel and the watchtower will be caves forever,
the joy of wild donkeys,
and a pasture for flocks;
- <sup>15</sup> until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field considered a forest.
- <sup>16</sup> Then justice will dwell in the wilderness;
righteousness will reside in the fruitful field.
- <sup>17</sup> The produce of righteousness will be peace;
the result of righteousness,
quietness and confidence forever.
- <sup>18</sup> My people will live in peaceable dwellings,
in safe homes,
and in secure resting places.
- <sup>19</sup> Even if hail destroys the forest and the city is totally leveled;
- <sup>20</sup> blessed are you who plant beside every stream, who let the feet of the ox and the donkey graze freely.

DASV: Isaiah 33

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to you who destroy,
    but you have not been destroyed;
and you traitor,
    but they have not betrayed you!
When you finish destroying,
    you yourself will be destroyed.
When you have finished betraying,
    they will betray you.
- <sup>2</sup> O LORD, be gracious to us;
    we have waited for you.
Be our strong arm every morning,
    our salvation in the time of trouble.
- <sup>3</sup> At the roar of a crowd, the peoples flee;
    when you rise up the nations scatter.
- <sup>4</sup> Your spoil is gathered like the caterpillar gathers;
    like locusts leaping so they will leap on the loot.
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD is exalted,
    for he dwells on high.
He fills Zion with justice and righteousness.
- <sup>6</sup> He will be stability in your times,
    abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The fear of the LORD produces this treasure.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, their heroes cry in the streets;
    the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
- <sup>8</sup> The highways are vacant,
    the travelers are gone.
The enemy has broken its treaties, its witnesses are despised,
    he respects no one.
- <sup>9</sup> The land mourns and withers;
    Lebanon withers with shame.
The fertile plain of Sharon has become like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel lose their rich foliage.
- <sup>10</sup> "Now I will rise," says the LORD,
    "now I will lift up myself,
    now I will be exalted.
- <sup>11</sup> You will conceive chaff,
    you will give birth to stubble;

- your breath is a fire that will devour you.
- <sup>12</sup> The peoples will be completely burned to lime, like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire."
- <sup>13</sup> Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
you who are near, acknowledge my might.
- <sup>14</sup> The sinners in Zion are afraid, trembling has seized the godless, who say:
"Who among us can live with the consuming fire?
Who among us can live with everlasting burnings?"
- <sup>15</sup> The one who walks righteously and speaks straight;
who despises the profit from oppression, whose hands wave away a bribe,
who plugs his ears from murderous plots,
and shuts his eyes from looking at evil.
- <sup>16</sup> This one will dwell on high,
his place of refuge will be the fortresses of rocks;
his food will be provided;
his water guaranteed.
- <sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in his beauty;
they will survey a land that stretches far away.
- <sup>18</sup> Your heart will obsess about former terrors:
"Where is the sage?
Where is the one who weighs the tribute?
Where is the one who counts the towers?"
- <sup>19</sup> You will not see these fierce people,
a people whose obscure language you cannot comprehend, whose stammering tongue you cannot understand.
- <sup>20</sup> Look on Zion, the city of our festivals;
your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful home,
a tent that will not be removed;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
neither will any of its ropes be broken.
- <sup>21</sup> But there the LORD will be with us in splendor.
It will be a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley of warships with oars may enter,
nor will splendid ships sail through.
- <sup>22</sup> For the LORD is our judge,
the LORD is our lawgiver,
the LORD is our king;

he will save us.

<sup>23</sup> Your rigging is loosed;
they could not secure their mast,
they could not spread the sail.
Then the prey of a great spoil will be divided;
even the lame will haul the plunder away.

<sup>24</sup> The resident of Zion will not say,
"I am sick."
The people who live there will have their sin forgiven.

DASV: Isaiah 34

- <sup>1</sup> Come near, O nations, to hear;
listen, O peoples.
Let the earth and everything in it hear,
the world and all things that come from it.
- <sup>2</sup> For the LORD is angry against all the nations, and furious against all their armies.
He will totally destroy them,
he has delivered them up to slaughter.
- <sup>3</sup> Their slain will be cast out,
and the stench of their corpses will stink;
the mountains will flow with their blood.
- <sup>4</sup> All the host of heaven will be dissolved, and the heavens will be rolled up like a scroll;
all their hosts will fall,
like a withered leaf from a vine,
or like a shriveled fig from a fig tree.
- <sup>5</sup> For my sword has drunk its fill in heaven;
look, it will come down on Edom,
and on the people doomed to destruction.
- <sup>6</sup> The sword of the LORD is filled with blood;
it is covered with fat,
with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has made a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- <sup>7</sup> The wild oxen will fall with them, and young bulls with the mighty bulls;
their land will be soaked with blood,
and their soil made fertile with fat.
- <sup>8</sup> For the LORD has a day of vengeance,
a year of pay back for the cause of Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch, and its dust into sulfur,
and its land will become burning pitch.
- <sup>10</sup> It will not be extinguished day or night;
its smoke will go up forever;
from generation to generation it will lie waste;
no one will pass through it forever and ever.
- <sup>11</sup> But the desert owl and the screech owl will possess it;

- the owl and the raven will live there.
He will stretch over it the measuring line of chaos, and the plum line of emptiness.
- <sup>12</sup> Her nobles will have nothing to call a kingdom, all its princes will be gone.
- <sup>13</sup> Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses.
It will become a home of jackals,
a haunt of owls.
- <sup>14</sup> The wild beasts of the desert will meet with the hyenas, and the wild goats will bleat to one another;
yes, the night creatures will settle there,
and find there a place of rest.
- <sup>15</sup> There the owl will make her nest,
and lay eggs, hatch, and protect them;
yes, there the buzzards will be gathered,
each one with her mate.
- <sup>16</sup> Seek out and read of the scroll of the LORD:
Not one of these animals will be missing,
not one will lack a mate,
for the mouth of the LORD has commanded it,
and his Spirit has gathered them.
- <sup>17</sup> He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has split it up to them with a measuring line.
They will possess it forever;
from generation to generation they will settle there.

DASV: Isaiah 35

- <sup>1</sup> The wilderness and the dry land will be glad;
the desert will rejoice,
and blossom like the crocus.
- <sup>2</sup> It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing;
the glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Mount Carmel and the Sharon plain.
They will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.
- <sup>3</sup> Strengthen the weak hands, and steady the shaky knees.
- <sup>4</sup> Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
"Be strong, do not be afraid.
Look, your God will come with vengeance, and with the avenging recompense of God;
he will come and save you."
- <sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.
- <sup>6</sup> Then the lame will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing for joy;
for in the wilderness waters will gush forth,
and streams in the desert.
- <sup>7</sup> The scorched land will become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water.
In the lairs of jackals,
will be a marsh with grass, reeds and papyrus.
- <sup>8</sup> A highway will be there, and it will be called "The Way of Holiness;"
the unclean will not travel on it;
but it will be reserved for those who walk that way;
fools will never stray onto it.
- <sup>9</sup> No lion will be there,
nor will any ravenous beast go up on it;
they will not be found there;
but the redeemed will walk there.
- <sup>10</sup> Those ransomed by the LORD will return,
and come with singing to Zion;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.
They will find joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

<sup>3</sup> Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him.

<sup>4</sup> Then Rabshakeh said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, This is what the great king, the king of Assyria says, 'What is the basis of your confidence?

<sup>5</sup> I tell you, your strategy and strength for the war are mere empty words. Now in whom are you trusting, that you have rebelled against me?

<sup>6</sup> Look, you are trusting in Egypt that staff is a broken reed, if someone leans on it, it will pierce his hand. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

<sup>7</sup> But if you tell me, "We trust in the LORD our God." Isn't he the one, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar?'

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, make a bet with my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find enough riders to put on them.

<sup>9</sup> How then can you repulse even one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>10</sup> In fact, did I come up against this land to destroy it without the LORD? The LORD told me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the Assyrian commander, "Please speak, to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it. Do not speak to us in the Judean language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>12</sup> But the Assyrian commander replied, "Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Has he not sent me to those on the wall, who, like you, will end up eating their own excrement and drinking their own urine?"

<sup>13</sup> Then the Assyrian commander stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Judean language, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

<sup>14</sup> This is what the king says, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to rescue you.'

<sup>15</sup> Do not let Hezekiah trick you into trusting in the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will surely rescue us. This city will not fall into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

<sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah. For this is what the king of Assyria says, 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then everyone will eat from his own vine, and everyone from his own fig tree, and everyone will drink waters from his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

<sup>18</sup> Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, "The LORD will rescue us." Has any of the gods of the nations been able to deliver his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

<sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did any of them deliver Samaria out of my hand?

<sup>20</sup> Who among all the gods of these countries, were able to deliver their country out of my hand? So how can the LORD deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

<sup>21</sup> But they remained silent, and did not answer him a word, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."

<sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Assyrian commander.

DASV: Isaiah 37

<sup>1</sup> When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, clothed with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup> They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says, 'This day is a day of trouble, insults, and of disgrace. It is like when children are at the point of birth, but there is no strength left to deliver them.

<sup>4</sup> It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of the Assyrian commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. So lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still left here."

<sup>6</sup> Then Isaiah said to them, "This is what you are to tell your master, 'This is what the LORD says, Do not afraid of the words that you have heard, by which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

<sup>7</sup> Look, I will put a spirit in him, he will hear rumors, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>8</sup> So the Assyrian commander returned, and found the king of Assyria attacking Libnah, for he heard that he had left Lachish.

<sup>9</sup> He heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He is come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

<sup>10</sup> "This is what you will say to Hezekiah king of Judah, "Let not your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, 'Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

<sup>11</sup> Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by totally destroying them, and do you really think that you will be rescued?

<sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my predecessors destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar?

<sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the kings of the cities of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iwah?"

<sup>14</sup> After Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; he went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> "O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, who sits enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made heaven and earth.

<sup>17</sup> Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear! Open your eyes, O LORD, and see! Hear all the words that Sennacherib has sent to defy the living God.

<sup>18</sup> It is true, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries and their land.

<sup>19</sup> They have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were no gods at all but only the work of human hands, merely wood and stone. Therefore the Assyrians have destroyed them.

<sup>20</sup> Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD."

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is the word which the LORD has spoken about him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs at you.

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head as you flee.

<sup>23</sup> Whom have you defied and insulted?

Against whom have you lifted your voice and arrogantly lifted up your eyes?

Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> By your servants have you defied the Lord, and have said,

"With my many chariots I have climbed to the mountains tops, to the remote parts of Lebanon.

I cut down its tall cedars,
and its choice cypresses.

I have penetrated its remotest heights, its thickest forests.

<sup>25</sup> I dug and drank water,
and with the sole of my feet

I dried up all the rivers of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> Have you not heard how I have determined it long ago?

I planned it from ancient times.

Now I have brought it to pass,
that you should crush fortified cities into piles of ruins.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore their inhabitants were powerless, they were dismayed and put to shame.

They were like the grass of the field,
and like green plants,
like the grass on the rooftops, scorched before it is grown up.

<sup>28</sup> But I know your sitting down, and your going out,

and your coming in,
and your raging against me.

<sup>29</sup> Because of your raging against me and your arrogance has reached my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose,

- and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back by the way that you came.
- <sup>30</sup> This will be a sign for you, Hezekiah:
This year you will eat whatever grows by itself,
and in the second year whatever springs up from that.
In the third year you will sow, reap, plant vineyards,
and eat its fruit.
- <sup>31</sup> The remnant that escaped from the house of Judah will again take root below and bear fruit above.
- <sup>32</sup> For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a group of survivors.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.
- <sup>33</sup> "Therefore this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:
He will not come to this city,
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield, or cast up a siege ramp against it.
- <sup>34</sup> By the same way that he came, he will leave, and he will not come into this city,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>35</sup> "For I will defend this city to save it,
for my own sake,
and for the sake of my servant David."
- <sup>36</sup> Then the angel of LORD went out, and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. When they got up early in the morning, there were all dead bodies.
- <sup>37</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria left, and went and returned home, and lived in Nineveh.
- <sup>38</sup> As he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, killed him with the sword. They escaped into the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

DASV: Isaiah 38

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah became sick almost to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "This is what the LORD says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, and will not live.'"

<sup>3</sup> "Remember now, O LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you faithfully and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah,

<sup>5</sup> "Go, and say to Hezekiah, 'This is what the LORD, the God of David your father says, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Look, I will add fifteen years to your life.

<sup>6</sup> I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.'"

<sup>7</sup> "This will be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has spoken:

<sup>8</sup> I will cause the shadow on the steps, which is gone down on the dial of Ahaz from the sun, to go backwards ten steps." So the sun went back ten steps on the dial on which it had gone down.

<sup>9</sup> The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, but had recovered from his sickness.

<sup>10</sup> I said, "In the prime of my days I must enter the gates of Sheol,
I am deprived of the rest of my years."

<sup>11</sup> I said, "I will no longer see the LORD in the land of the living.
I will no longer see human beings among the inhabitants of the world.

<sup>12</sup> My dwelling place is removed,
and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver,
when he cuts me off like cloth from the loom.

Day and night you make an end of me.

<sup>13</sup> I cry out until morning;
he breaks all my bones like a lion.
Day and night you make an end of me.

<sup>14</sup> Like a swallow or a crane, I squawk;
I moan like a dove;
my eyes are weary from looking upward.
O Lord, I am oppressed, help me!

<sup>15</sup> What can I say?
For he has spoken to me,
and he himself has done it.
I will walk slowly all my years

- because of the bitterness of my soul.
- <sup>16</sup> O Lord, by these things people live;
the life of my spirit is wholly bound up in these.
Restore me,
and let me live.
- <sup>17</sup> Look, this great bitterness was for my welfare, but in love you have rescued my soul from the pit of corruption;
you have thrown all my sins behind you.
- <sup>18</sup> For Sheol cannot thank you,
death cannot praise you.
Those who go down into the pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.
- <sup>19</sup> The living, yes, the living,
they are the ones who praise you,
even as I do this day.
The father of children will make known your faithfulness.
- <sup>20</sup> The LORD is ready to save me.
Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup> Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take an ointment of figs, and apply it to the boil, and he will recover."
- <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah also had asked, "What sign will confirm that I will go up to the house of the LORD?"

DASV: Isaiah 39

<sup>1</sup> At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah welcomed the envoys, and showed them the treasury, including the silver, gold, spices, and the precious oil, along with the whole armory, and everything found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace, or in his entire kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>3</sup> Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say?" Where did they come from?" Hezekiah replied, "They came from a far country to me, from Babylon."

<sup>4</sup> Then Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your palace?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything that is in my palace. There is nothing among my treasuries that I have not showed them."

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

<sup>6</sup> 'Look, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and everything that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Some of your sons that will be born to you, will be taken away and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>8</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my days."

DASV: Isaiah 40

- <sup>1</sup> Comfort, comfort my people,
says your God.
- <sup>2</sup> Speak kindly to Jerusalem; announce to her that her warfare is over,
that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.
- <sup>3</sup> The voice of one crying out,
"Prepare in the wilderness the way of the LORD;
make level in the desert a highway for our God.
- <sup>4</sup> Every valley will be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill will be made low;
the uneven ground will be leveled,
and the rough places made smooth.
- <sup>5</sup> Then the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together;
the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."
- <sup>6</sup> A voice said, "Cry out."
So I asked, "What should I cry out?"
"All people are like grass, and all their beauty fades like the flowers of the field.
- <sup>7</sup> The grass withers,
the flower fades,
because the breath of the LORD blows on it;
surely people are like grass.
- <sup>8</sup> The grass withers,
the flower fades,
but the word of our God will stand forever."
- <sup>9</sup> Get up on a high mountain, O Zion, messenger of good tidings.
You who announce good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength;
do not be afraid.
Announce to the towns of Judah,
"Here is your God!"
- <sup>10</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD will come with might,
he will rule with his strong arm;
his reward is with him,
and his prize goes before him.

- <sup>11</sup> He will feed his flock like a shepherd;
he will gather the lambs in his arms,
and carry them in his bosom,
he will gently lead those sheep with young.
- <sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured out heaven with the span of his hand,
and measured out the dust of the earth by the basketful, and weighed the mountains in scales,
and the hills on a balance?
- <sup>13</sup> Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or instructed him as his mentor?
- <sup>14</sup> With whom did he consult to enlighten him?
Who taught him the path of justice?
Who taught him knowledge,
or showed to him the way of understanding?
- <sup>15</sup> Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded like dust on the scales;
he picks up the islands like fine dust.
- <sup>16</sup> Lebanon is not enough to burn for sacrificial fire, nor are its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.
- <sup>17</sup> All the nations are as nothing before him;
they are accounted by him as less than nothing and worthless.
- <sup>18</sup> To whom then will you compare God?
What image will you equate him to?
- <sup>19</sup> An idol? A workman casts it in a mold, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold,
and fashions silver chains for it.
- <sup>20</sup> Or if someone is too poor for such a sacrifice they may choose wood that will not rot and then find a skilful craftsman to set up a carved idol that will not topple.
- <sup>21</sup> Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
Have you not been told from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
- <sup>22</sup> He sits above the circle of the earth;
its inhabitants are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to live in.
- <sup>23</sup> He reduces rulers to nothing,

- and makes the judges of the earth worthless.
- <sup>24</sup> Scarcely are they planted, scarcely are they sown,
scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth,
when he blows on them,
and they wither,
and the whirlwind blows them away like stubble.
- <sup>25</sup> "To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal?" says the Holy One.
- <sup>26</sup> Lift up your eyes on high and see.
Who has created these?
He brings them out in ranks by number;
he calls each one of them by name.
Because of the greatness of his might,
and because of his strong power,
not one of them is missing.
- <sup>27</sup> Why do you say, O Jacob,
and claim, O Israel,
"My way is hid from the LORD, and the justice due me is ignored by my God?"
- <sup>28</sup> Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
the Creator of the ends of the earth,
He does not faint or get tired;
his understanding is unfathomable.
- <sup>29</sup> He gives strength to the weary;
to the weak he increases strength.
- <sup>30</sup> Even youths will faint and grow weary,
and vigorous young men fall exhausted,
- <sup>31</sup> but those who wait for the LORD will renew their strength;
they will mount up with wings like eagles;
they will run, and not grow weary;
they will walk, and not faint.

DASV: Isaiah 41

- <sup>1</sup> "Be silent before me, O islands.
Let the peoples renew their strength;
let them come near;
let them speak;
let us come together for judgment.
- <sup>2</sup> Who has roused up one from the east?
Who calls him in righteousness into his service?
He gives nations to him,
and enables him to subdue kings.
He makes them like the dust by his sword,
like the windblown stubble by his bow.
- <sup>3</sup> He pursues them, passing on in safety,
by a path that his feet have never traveled.
- <sup>4</sup> Who has performed and done it, summoning each generation from the beginning?
I, the LORD, am the first,
and will be with the last of them, I am the one."
- <sup>5</sup> The coastlands have seen, and fear;
the ends of the earth tremble;
they draw near and come.
- <sup>6</sup> They help each other;
each says to his brother, "Be strong."
- <sup>7</sup> So the craftsman encourages the goldsmith, the one who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the welding, "It is good."
Then he fastens it down with nails so that it will not tip over.
- <sup>8</sup> "But you, Israel, my servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
the seed of Abraham my friend,
- <sup>9</sup> you whom I am bringing back from the ends of the earth, and summoned you from its remotest corners,
and told you, 'You are my servant,
I have chosen you and not cast you away.'
- <sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid,
for I am with you;
do not be troubled,

- for I am your God.
I will strengthen you;
yes, I will help you;
yes, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
- <sup>11</sup> Look, all those who are angry with you will be put to shame and disgrace.
Those who dispute with you will come to nothing and perish.
- <sup>12</sup> You will look for your opponents,
but not find them.
Those who attack you will come to nothing at all.
- <sup>13</sup> For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you,
"Don't be afraid;
I will help you.
- <sup>14</sup> Do not be afraid, O Jacob, you worm.
You men of Israel,
I will help you,"
says the LORD;
your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup> "Look, I will make you to be a new sharp threshing instrument having many teeth.
You will thresh the mountains,
crush them and make the hills like chaff.
- <sup>16</sup> You will winnow them and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them.
Then you will rejoice in the LORD;
you will glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup> The poor and needy seek water,
but there is none.
Their tongue fails for thirst;
I, the LORD, will answer them,
I, the God of Israel, will not abandon them.
- <sup>18</sup> I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the midst of the valleys.
I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.
- <sup>19</sup> I will grow in the wilderness the cedar, acacia, myrtle, and olive trees.
I will set in the desert the cypress,

- fir, and pine tree together."
20 This is done so they may see, know, consider,
and understand together,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- 21 "Present your case,"
says the LORD.
"Put forth your best arguments," says the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let them bring in their idols.
Tell us what is going to happen.
Declare what things happened in the past,
what they were,
so that we may consider them,
and check whether they actually happened or tell us what things are to come.
- 23 Predict the things that are to come in the future, that we may prove that you are gods.
Yes, do good, or do evil,
so that we may be frightened and be in awe.
- 24 Look, you are nothing, and your work is nothing at all.
The one who chooses you is an abomination.
- 25 I have stirred up one from the north,
and he is coming,
from the rising of the sun one who calls on my name.
He will trample on rulers like mud, and like the potter treads clay.
- 26 Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know?
Who has announced ahead of time,
that we may say, "This one is right"?
Yes, none of them has predicted it,
yes, there is none of them who have proclaimed it,
yes, there is none of them who heard your words.
- 27 I first declared to Zion,
'Look, here they are,'
I gave Jerusalem a messenger bringing good tidings.
- 28 I look but there is no one.
There is no sage among them,
that I might ask them and receive an answer.

<sup>29</sup> Look, all of them are nothing.
Their deeds are empty.
Their metal images are nothing but an empty wind."

DASV: Isaiah 42

- <sup>1</sup> "Look, my servant, whom I support;
my chosen, in whom my soul delights.
I have put my Spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> He will not cry out,
or raise his voice,
or make his voice heard in the street.
- <sup>3</sup> A bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick will he not extinguish.
He will bring forth justice with faithfulness.
- <sup>4</sup> He will not grow faint or be discouraged until he has established justice on earth;
the coastlands will expectantly wait for his teaching."
- <sup>5</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says,
he who created the heavens,
and stretched them out;
who spread out the earth and everything that lives on it;
who gives breath to the people upon it,
and spirit to those who walk in it.
- <sup>6</sup> "I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness;
I will take you by the hand and protect you.
I will give you as a covenant for the people,
and a light for the nations,
- <sup>7</sup> to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.
- <sup>8</sup> I am the LORD, that is my name;
and my glory I will not give to another,
or my praise to carved idols.
- <sup>9</sup> Look, the earlier predictions have come to pass, and now I prophesy new things;
before they spring forth I tell you about them."
- <sup>10</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song,
and his praise from the end of the earth.
You who go down to the sea,
and all that is in it,

- the distant coastlands and those who live there.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the desert and its towns lift up their voices, the villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing;
let them shout from the mountain tops.
- <sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the coastal regions.
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD goes out like a war hero;
he will stir up his zeal like a warrior.
He gives the battle cry, yes, he shouts out loud;
he shows his might against his enemies.
- <sup>14</sup> I have held my peace for a long time;
I have been still, and restrained myself.
Now I will cry out like a woman in labor;
I will gasp and pant.
- <sup>15</sup> I will lay waste mountains and hills,
and dry up all their vegetation.
I will turn rivers into islands,
and dry up the pools.
- <sup>16</sup> I will lead the blind by a way they do not know;
in unknown paths I will guide them.
I will turn the darkness into light before them,
and level the rough places.
These things I will do,
and I will not forsake them.
- <sup>17</sup> Those who trust in carved idols,
will be turned back,
and be utterly put to shame;
those who say to metal images,
"You are our gods."
- <sup>18</sup> Listen, you who are deaf;
look, you who are blind,
that you may see.
- <sup>19</sup> Who is blind but my servant?
Who is deaf but my messenger who I send?
Who is blind as my covenant partner, and blind like the LORD's servant?
- <sup>20</sup> You see many things, but you do not comprehend them;
your ears are open,
but you do not hear.

- <sup>21</sup> It pleased the LORD for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law and make it glorious.
- <sup>22</sup> But this is a people robbed and plundered;
they are all trapped in holes,
and hid in prisons.
They have become plunder with no one to rescue them, carried off as spoil with no one to say, "Bring them back."
- <sup>23</sup> Who is there among you who will listen to this?
Who will pay attention and hear in the time to come?
- <sup>24</sup> Who gave Jacob up for spoil, and Israel to the robbers?
Was it not the LORD
against whom we have sinned?
In whose ways they refused to walk, and whose law they would not obey.
- <sup>25</sup> Therefore he poured on them his fierce anger, and the fierceness of battle.
It surrounded them with fire,
yet they did not understand;
it burned them up,
yet they did not take it to heart.

DASV: Isaiah 43

- <sup>1</sup> But now this is what the LORD says, the one who created you, O Jacob,
he who formed you, O Israel:
"Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name;
you are mine.
- <sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and cross through the rivers,
they will not overwhelm you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be burned,
nor will the flame consume you.
- <sup>3</sup> For I am the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I have given Egypt as your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in return for you.
- <sup>4</sup> Since you have been precious and special in my sight, and I love you,
therefore I will give other people in return for you,
and nations instead of your life.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid,
for I am with you.
I will bring your descendants from the east,
and gather you from the west.
- <sup>6</sup> I will tell the north, 'Give them up,' and to the south, 'Do not keep any of them back;'
bring my sons from afar,
and my daughters from the end of the earth,
- <sup>7</sup> everyone who is called by my name,
and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed,
yes, whom I have made."
- <sup>8</sup> Bring out the people who have blind eyes, and those deaf who have ears.
- <sup>9</sup> Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples assemble.
Who among them reported this?
Who foretold us earlier things?
Let them bring in their witnesses,

- so that they may be proven right.
and let them hear and confirm, "It is truth."
<sup>10</sup> "You are my witnesses," declares the LORD,
"my servant whom I have chosen,
that you may know and believe me,
and understand that I am he.
Before me there was no other God formed, neither will there be after me.
<sup>11</sup> I, even I, am the LORD, besides me there is no savior.
<sup>12</sup> I have declared, delivered, and proclaimed;
and there was no foreign god among you.
You are my witnesses," says the LORD,
"that I am God.
<sup>13</sup> Yes, from eternity I am he.
There is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
I act and who can undo it?"

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon, and I will force them to become as fugitives;
the Chaldean's shouts of celebration will be turned to mourning.
<sup>15</sup> I am the LORD, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King."

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says,
who makes a way in the sea,
and a path in the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup> who brings forth the chariot and horse,
the army and the warrior.
They lie down,
they cannot rise.
They are extinguished,
snuffed out like a wick.
<sup>18</sup> "Do not remember the former things, or focus on the past.
<sup>19</sup> Look, I will do a new thing.
Now it springs forth.
Can't you see it?
I will even make a way in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.

- <sup>20</sup> The wild animals of the fields will honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
because I provided waters in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert,
to give drink to my people, my chosen, <sup>21</sup> the people I formed for myself, that they might declare my praise.
- <sup>22</sup> But you did not call upon me, O Jacob;
you have grown tired of me, O Israel.
- <sup>23</sup> You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you demanding frankincense.
- <sup>24</sup> You have bought me no sweet cane with money, nor have you satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened me with your sins,
you have wearied me with your iniquities.
- <sup>25</sup> I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake;
I will not remember your sins.
- <sup>26</sup> Remind me;
let us argue this out in court;
present your case,
so that you may prove your innocence.
- <sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned, and your spokespersons have rebelled against me.
- <sup>28</sup> Therefore I defiled your princes of the sanctuary;
I delivered Jacob over to destruction,
and Israel to insults.

DASV: Isaiah 44

- <sup>1</sup> Now listen, O Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.
- <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says who made you,
and formed you from the womb,
who will help you:
"Do not be afraid, O Jacob, my servant,
Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
- <sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty land,
and streams on the dry ground.
I will pour my Spirit upon your descendants, and my blessing upon your offspring.
- <sup>4</sup> They will spring up among the grass, like willows by flowing streams.
- <sup>5</sup> One will say, 'I am the LORD's;
another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
yet another will write on his hand 'The LORD's,'
and take the name 'Israel' as his own."
- <sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts says,
"I am the first,
and I am the last;
besides me there is no other God.
- <sup>7</sup> Who is like me?
Let them announce it,
and let them declare it and set it before me,
since I established an ancient people.
Let them predict future things to come,
and let them explain what will come to pass.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not tremble, or be afraid.
Have I not announced and foretold long ago?
You are my witnesses.
Is there any God besides me?
There is no other Rock;
I know of none.
- <sup>9</sup> All those who make idols are nothing;
the things that they delight in are worthless;
their own witnesses cannot see or know,
so they are put to shame.
- <sup>10</sup> Who has fashioned a god, or cast a metal idol that is of any benefit?

- <sup>11</sup> Look, all his companions will be put to shame;
its craftsmen are mere humans.
Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up.
They will be terrified and put to shame.
- <sup>12</sup> The blacksmith makes it with his tools, and shapes it in the coals.
He fashions it with hammers, and forges it with his strong arm.
He gets hungry and his strength weakens;
he drinks no water and he becomes faint.
- <sup>13</sup> The carpenter stretches out a line;
he traces out its form with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes,
and he marks its outline with a compass.
He shapes it in the form of a human,
according to human beauty,
to dwell in a shrine.
- <sup>14</sup> He cuts down cedars, or chooses a cypress and an oak.
He let it grow strong among the trees of the forest.
He plants a cedar,
and the rain nourishes it.
- <sup>15</sup> Then he uses it to make a fire;
he takes some of it and warms himself;
yes, he kindles a fire with it and bakes bread.
Then he makes a god and worships it;
he makes it into a carved idol and falls down in worship before it.
- <sup>16</sup> Half of it he burns in the fire;
with this half he cooks meat;
he roasts it and is satisfied.
He also warms himself, and says,
'Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire.'
- <sup>17</sup> With the rest he makes a god,
even his carved idol;
he falls down in worship before it,
and prays to it, and says,
'Rescue me, for you are my god.'
- <sup>18</sup> They do not know or understand,
for their eyes are shut,
so that they cannot see;

- their hearts closed,
so that they cannot understand.
- <sup>19</sup> No one calls to mind,
nor is there knowledge or understanding to say,
'I have burned half of it in the fire;
with its coals I have baked bread and roasted meat and ate it.
Should I make an abomination with the rest of it?
Should I fall down and worship a block of wood?
- <sup>20</sup> He feeds on ashes;
a deceived mind has led him astray.
He cannot save himself, or say, 'Is not this idol I hold in my right hand a lie?'
- <sup>21</sup> Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant.
I have formed you;
you are my servant, O Israel,
I will not forget you.
- <sup>22</sup> I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like a mist;
return to me, for I have redeemed you."
- <sup>23</sup> Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it;
shout, you lower parts of the earth.
Break forth into singing, O mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it.
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and will reveal his glory in Israel.
- <sup>24</sup> This is what the LORD says, your Redeemer, he who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD, who makes all things,
who stretches forth the heavens alone,
who by myself spread out the earth,
- <sup>25</sup> who frustrates the omens of the liars,
and makes fools of fortune-tellers, who reverses the advice of the wise,
and makes their knowledge foolish;
- <sup>26</sup> who fulfills the prophetic word of his servant,
and performs the prediction of his messengers,
who says of Jerusalem,
'She will be inhabited,'

and of the towns of Judah,
    'They will be rebuilt, and I will raise up her ruins,' <sup>27</sup> who says to the deep,
    'Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers,' <sup>28</sup> who says of Cyrus,
    'He is my shepherd, and will carry out all my plans,' even saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

DASV: Isaiah 45

- <sup>1</sup> "This is what the LORD says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held,
to subdue nations before him,
and to strip kings of their war belts;
to open the doors before him,
and the gates will not be shut:
- <sup>2</sup> I will go before you,
and level the rough places.
I will break the doors of bronze in pieces,
and cut through the bars of iron.
- <sup>3</sup> I will give you the treasures of darkness, and riches hidden in secret places,
that you may know that it is I, the LORD,
who call you by your name,
even the God of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> For Jacob my servant's sake,
and Israel my chosen,
I call you by your name.
I am giving you a special title,
though you do not know me.
- <sup>5</sup> I am the LORD, and there is no one else;
besides me there is no God.
I will prepare you for battle,
though you do not know me;
- <sup>6</sup> so that they may know from the rising of the eastern sun,
to its setting in the west,
that there is no one besides me,
I am the LORD, there is no other.
- <sup>7</sup> I form the light and create darkness;
I make peace and create calamity.
I am the LORD who does all these things.
- <sup>8</sup> Rain, O heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness;
let the earth open,
so that salvation and righteousness may sprout up;
I, the LORD, have created it."
- <sup>9</sup> Woe to him who argues with his Maker!
He who is a mere potsherd among the potsherds of the earth!
Does the clay say to the one who shapes it,
'What do you think you are doing?'

- or the work of your hands complain,
 'He has no skill in his hands?'
- <sup>10</sup> Woe to him who says to a father,
 'What is it you are trying to father?'
 or to a woman,
 'What is it you are in labor for?'"
- <sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD says,
 the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker.
 "Ask me about things to come!
 Will you really question me concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands?"
- <sup>12</sup> I made the earth, and created people on it.
 My own hands stretched out the heavens,
 and to all their host I gave orders.
- <sup>13</sup> I raised him up in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight.
 He will rebuild my city,
 and he will let my exiles go free, not for price or reward,"
 says the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says,
 "The labor of Egypt,
 and the commerce of Cush,
 and the Sabeans who are tall of stature,
 will come over to you,
 and they will be yours;
 they will follow you,
 in chains they will come over,
 and they will bow down to you.
 They will plead with you,
 "Surely God is with you;
 and there is no other,
 there is no God besides him."
- <sup>15</sup> Truly you are a God who hides himself,
 O God of Israel, Savior.
- <sup>16</sup> They will all be put to shame,
 and humiliated;
 they who make idols
 will go away disgraced.
- <sup>17</sup> But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation;

 you will never be put to shame or humiliated.

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says
 who created the heavens,
 the God who formed the earth and made it,
 who established it and created it not chaotic, who formed it to be inhabited.

"I am the LORD; there is no other.

<sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret,
 in the land of darkness;
 I did not tell Jacob's descendants,
 'Seek me in vain.'
 I, the LORD, speak righteousness,
 I declare things that are right.

<sup>20</sup> Assemble yourselves and come;
 come together, you fugitives of the nations.
 They have no knowledge
 those who carry the wood of their carved idols, and pray to a god who cannot save.

<sup>21</sup> Declare and present your evidence;
 let them take counsel together.
 Who predicted this long ago?
 Who has declared this in the past?
 Have not I, the LORD?
 There is no other God besides me, a righteous God and a Savior;
 there is no one besides me.

<sup>22</sup> Look to me, and be saved,
 all the ends of the earth;
 for I am God, and there is no other.

<sup>23</sup> I have solemnly sworn by myself,
 the word gone forth from my mouth is righteous, and cannot be revoked.
 Every knee will bow before me,
 every tongue will swear loyalty to me.

<sup>24</sup> 'Only in the LORD,' it is said of me,
 'is righteousness and strength.'
 All who were angry against him will come to him and be put to shame.

<sup>25</sup> In the LORD will all the descendants of Israel be vindicated and will boast in him.

DASV: Isaiah 46

- <sup>1</sup> Bel bows down, Nebo stoops;
their idols are carried on beasts and cattle.
The images you carry around are a burden to the weary animals.
- <sup>2</sup> They stoop,
    they bow down together.
They could not save these burdens,
    but they themselves are taken into captivity.
- <sup>3</sup> "Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel,
you who have been born by me since birth,
    I have supported you from your conception.
- <sup>4</sup> Even to your old age, I am he;
    even when your hair turns grey I will carry you.
I have made you,
    and I will support you;
I will carry you,
    and will deliver you.
- <sup>5</sup> To whom will you compare me or make my equal?
    Who do you think is like me?
- <sup>6</sup> Those who pour gold out of the bag, and weigh silver on the balance scales.
They hire a goldsmith,
    and he makes it into a god.
Then they fall down,
    and worship it.
- <sup>7</sup> They haul it on their shoulders;
    they carry it.
They set it in its place,
    and there it stays;
    it does not move from its place.
If someone cries out to it,
    it cannot answer,
    nor is it able to save anyone out of their trouble.
- <sup>8</sup> Remember this and be assured;
    bring it again to mind, O rebels.
- <sup>9</sup> Remember the former things of old;
    for I am God, and there is no other;

- I am God, and there is no one like me.
- <sup>10</sup> I declare the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that have not yet happened;
saying, "My purpose will stand,
and I will fulfill what I have planned."
- <sup>11</sup> I call a bird of prey from the east,
a person to carry out my plan from a far country.
Yes, I have spoken,
I will also bring it to pass.
I have planned it;
I will also accomplish it.
- <sup>12</sup> Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted,
you who are far from righteousness.
- <sup>13</sup> I bring near my righteousness,
it is not far off.
My salvation will not delay.
I will put salvation in Zion,
for Israel my glory.

DASV: Isaiah 47

- <sup>1</sup> Come down, and sit in the dust,
    O virgin daughter of Babylon;
    sit on the ground without a throne,
    O daughter of the Chaldeans.
For you will no more be called tender and delicate.
- <sup>2</sup> Take the millstones, and grind grain;
    remove your veil,
    strip off your robe;
    uncover your legs,
    pass through the rivers.
- <sup>3</sup> Your nakedness will be uncovered,
    yes, your shame will be exposed.
I will take vengeance,
    and I will spare no one.
- <sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name,
    the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>5</sup> Sit silent, and hide in the darkness,
    O daughter of the Chaldeans.
For you will no longer be called
    "The Queen of Kingdoms."
- <sup>6</sup> I was angry with my people,
    I defiled my inheritance,
    and gave them into your hand.
You showed them no mercy;
    even on the elderly you laid your heavy yoke.
- <sup>7</sup> You claimed, "I will be Queen forever."
    So you did not think about these things in your heart, nor did you reflect on the consequences.
- <sup>8</sup> Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely,
    who says in your heart,
    'I am, and there is no one else besides me.
    I will never sit as a widow,
    nor will I experience the loss of children.'
- <sup>9</sup> But these two things will come on you in a moment in one day:
    the loss of children and widowhood.
They will come on you with full force,

- in spite of your many sorceries,
and your numerous spells.
- <sup>10</sup> For you have trusted in your wickedness;
you thought, 'No one can see me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge have misled you,
and you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else besides me.'
- <sup>11</sup> Therefore evil will come on you;
you will not know how to charm it away.
Disaster will fall on you;
you will not be able to get rid of it for a price.
Calamity will come on you suddenly,
which you know nothing about.
- <sup>12</sup> Stand firm trusting your enchantments, and the multitude of your sorceries,
in which you have labored from your youth.
Maybe you will succeed,
maybe you will scare someone.
- <sup>13</sup> You are tired out from all the advice;
let now the astrologers, the star-gazers,
the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save you from the things that will come on you.
- <sup>14</sup> Look, they will be as stubble;
the fire will burn them up.
They will not be able to save themselves from the heat of the flames.
It will not be a mere coal to warm by,
or a bond fire to sit by.
- <sup>15</sup> Such will be those with whom you have labored, and have dealt with you since your youth.
They will wander off everyone in his own direction;
there is no one who can save you.

DASV: Isaiah 48

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel,
    and born from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the LORD,
    and invoke the God of Israel,
    but not in truth or righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup> For they call themselves after the holy city, and depend on the God of Israel.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- <sup>3</sup> I have predicted things beforehand from long ago;
    yes, they went out of my mouth,
    and I proclaimed them.
Suddenly I did them,
    and they came to pass.
- <sup>4</sup> I know how obstinate you are;
    and your neck muscles are like iron,
    and your forehead like bronze.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore I predicted it to you long ago;
    I announced it to you before it came to pass;
so you could not say,
    'My idol did this,
    and my carved image,
    and my metal idol commanded them.'
- <sup>6</sup> You have heard my predictions;
    now look at all this.
Will you not acknowledge it?
- From now on I am showing you new things, hidden things which you have not previously known.
- <sup>7</sup> They are happening now, not in the past;
    before today you never heard of them;
so you cannot boast,
    'Look, I knew them already.'
- <sup>8</sup> You never heard;
    yes, you never knew;
    yes, from long ago your ear was not opened to it;
    for I knew that you would act treacherously, and that from birth you were called a rebel.
- <sup>9</sup> For my name's sake I will defer my anger, and for my praise I will restrain it for you,
    so that I do not destroy you.

- <sup>10</sup> Look, I have refined you, but not like silver;
I chose to refine you in the furnace of affliction.
- <sup>11</sup> For my own sake,
for my own sake, I will do it.
For how can I allow my name to be profaned?
My glory I will not give to another.
- <sup>12</sup> Listen to me, Jacob,
and Israel, my called ones:
I am he;
I am the first,
and I am the last.
- <sup>13</sup> Yes, my hands laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;
when I call to them,
they stand up together.
- <sup>14</sup> Assemble yourselves, all you, and listen.
Who among them has predicted these things?
He whom the LORD loves will perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.
- <sup>15</sup> I, even I, have spoken;
yes, I have called him.
I brought him,
and his course of action will be successful.
- <sup>16</sup> Come near to me,
listen to this.
"From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
when it happens I am there."
So now the sovereign LORD has sent me, along with his Spirit.
- <sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD says,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is good,
who leads you in the way you should go.
- <sup>18</sup> O that you had obeyed my commandments!
Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea.
- <sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been like the sand, and your offspring like grains of sand.
Their name would not be cut off or destroyed from before me."

- <sup>20</sup> Leave Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans.
Announce it with a shout for joy, proclaim it to the ends of the earth.
Say, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob."
- <sup>21</sup> They were not thirsty when he led them through the deserts;
he caused waters to flow out of the rock for them;
he even split the rock and water gushed out.
- <sup>22</sup> "There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

DASV: Isaiah 49

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to me, O coastlands, and pay attention, O distant nations;
the LORD has called me from the womb;
from the belly of my mother he has mentioned my name.
- <sup>2</sup> He made my mouth like a sharp sword;
he hid me in the shadow of his hand.
He made me a polished arrow;
he has tucked me away in his quiver.
- <sup>3</sup> He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, through whom I will be glorified."
- <sup>4</sup> But I said, "I have labored in vain;
I have spent my strength for nothing, only futility.
yet surely the justice due me is with the LORD, and my reward is with my God."
- <sup>5</sup> And now the LORD speaks who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
that Israel might be regathered to him for I will be honored in the eyes of the LORD, my God is my strength.
- <sup>6</sup> He said, "It is too insignificant that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the survivors of Israel.
I will also make you a light to the nations, that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth."
- <sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD says,
the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one who is despised,
to one whom the nations abhor,
to one who is a servant of rulers:
"Kings will see and rise up in respect.
Princes will bow down because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel,
has chosen you."
- <sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"In the time of my favor, I answered you;
and in a day of salvation, I helped you.
I will protect you,

- I will give you as a covenant for the people,
to restore the land,
to reestablish their desolate inheritances.
- <sup>9</sup> I will say to the prisoners,
'You're free;'
to those hidden in the darkness,
'Show yourselves.'
They will feed along the road ways, and all bare heights will be their pasture.
- <sup>10</sup> They will not hunger or thirst, neither will the heat or sun strike them down;
for he who has mercy on them will lead them;
he will lead them beside springs of water.
- <sup>11</sup> I will make all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be raised up.
- <sup>12</sup> Look, these will come from far away.
Look, these come from the north and from the west;
these from the southern land of Syene."
- <sup>13</sup> Sing, O heavens, and be joyful, O earth.
Break out into singing, O mountains;
for the LORD has comforted his people,
and will have compassion upon his afflicted.
- <sup>14</sup> But Zion said,
"The LORD has forsaken me,
the Lord has forgotten me.
- <sup>15</sup> Can a woman forget her nursing child?
Will she have no compassion on the son of her womb?
Even if these might forget,
I could never forget you.
- <sup>16</sup> Look, I have inscribed you on the palms of my hands;
your walls are continually before me.
- <sup>17</sup> Your children hurry to return;
those who destroyed and laid you waste will leave you.
- <sup>18</sup> Lift up your eyes and look around;
all these gather themselves together and come home to you.
"As I live," says the LORD,
"you will surely wear all of them like jewelry,

and adorn yourself with them,
like a bride.

- <sup>19</sup> For though your waste and your desolate places, and your land has been destroyed,
but now you will be too crowded for your inhabitants, and they who swallowed you up will be far away.
- <sup>20</sup> The children of your bereavement will yet say in your ears,
'This place is too cramped for me;
give me more room where I can live.'
- <sup>21</sup> Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has given birth to all these for me?
For I have been bereaved of my children and barren,
exiled and divorced,
so who has reared these children?
Look, I was left all alone,
so where did these come from?'"
- <sup>22</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says,
"Look, I will raise up my hand to signal the nations,
and set up my signal flag to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.
- <sup>23</sup> Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.
They will bow their faces to the ground before you,
and lick the dust of your feet.
You will know that I am the LORD, and they who expectantly wait for me will not be put to shame."
- <sup>24</sup> Can plunder be taken away from a warrior, or captives be rescued from a tyrant?
- <sup>25</sup> But this is what the LORD says,
"Even the captives will be taken away from the mighty,
and the plunder of the tyrant will be rescued.
I will attack those who attack you,
and I will save your children.
- <sup>26</sup> I will force those who oppress you to eat their own flesh;
they will get drunk with their own blood,
as with wine.
Then everyone will know that I am the LORD,
your Savior and your Redeemer,

the Mighty One of Jacob."

DASV: Isaiah 50

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says,
    "Where is your mother's divorce certificate,
        by which I have put her away?
    Or to which of my creditors have I sold you?
    Look, you were sold because of your sins,
        and for your transgressions your mother was put away.
- <sup>2</sup> Why was no one there when I came?
    Why did no one answer when I called?
    Is my hand so weak that it cannot redeem?
    Do I have no power to deliver?
    Look, at my rebuke I can dry up the sea,
        I can make the rivers into a desert;
            their dead fish stink because there is no water,
            and they die of thirst.
- <sup>3</sup> I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering."
- <sup>4</sup> The sovereign LORD has given me the tongue of a teacher, so that I may know how to sustain those who are weary with words.
    Morning by morning he wakes me up,
        he wakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.
- <sup>5</sup> The sovereign LORD has opened my ear,
    and I was not rebellious,
        nor did I turn back.
- <sup>6</sup> I gave my back to those who beat me,
    and my cheeks to those who ripped out my beard;
    I did not hide my face from insults and spitting.
- <sup>7</sup> For the sovereign LORD will help me;
    I will not be disgraced.
    Therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I will not be put to shame.
- <sup>8</sup> The one who vindicates me is near.
    Who will make accusations against me?
    Let us confront each other.
    Who is my adversary?
    Let him come near to challenge me.
- <sup>9</sup> The sovereign LORD helps me.
    Who is he who will condemn me?
    Look, they all will wear out like a garment,
        the moth will eat them up.

- <sup>10</sup> Who among you fears the LORD?
Who obeys the voice of his servant?
Anyone who walks in darkness,
and has no light,
let them trust in the name of the LORD,
and rely upon his God.
- <sup>11</sup> Look, all you who light a fire, that equip yourselves with burning torches;
walk in the light of your fire,
and among the torches that you have ignited.
This is what you will have from my hand;
you will lie down in torment.

DASV: Isaiah 51

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD.
Look to the rock you were chiseled out of,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.
- <sup>2</sup> Look to Abraham your father,
and to Sarah who bore you;
for he was only one person when I called him,
but I blessed him, and made him many.
- <sup>3</sup> For the LORD will comfort Zion,
he will comfort all her ruins.
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
and her desert like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of music.
- <sup>4</sup> Listen to me, my people;
give ear to me, my nation;
for a law will be issued from me,
and I will establish my justice
as a light of the peoples.
- <sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near,
my salvation is gone out,
and my arms will judge the peoples.
The coastlands will expectantly wait for me,
and they will hope on my arm.
- <sup>6</sup> Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath;
the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
and the earth wear out like an old garment.
They who live there will die like gnats;
but my salvation will last forever;
and my righteousness will never end.
- <sup>7</sup> Listen to me, you who know righteousness,
the people who have my law in their heart.
Do not be afraid of the insults of men,
nor fear their mocking.
- <sup>8</sup> For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will devour them like wool.
But my righteousness will last forever, and my salvation to all generations.

- <sup>9</sup> Wake up, wake up, put on strength, O arm of the LORD.
Awake, as in the days of old,
the generations of ancient times.
Was it not you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the sea monster?
- <sup>10</sup> Was it not you who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made the depths of the sea
a way for the redeemed to cross over?
- <sup>11</sup> The ransomed of the LORD will return,
and come with singing to Zion.
Everlasting joy will be upon their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.
- <sup>12</sup> I, even I, am he who comforts you.
So why are you afraid of mere mortals, and of the son of man who is as fleeting as grass?
- <sup>13</sup> You have forgotten the LORD your Maker, who stretched out the heavens,
and laid the foundations of the earth.
Why are you continually afraid because of the fury of the oppressor, who is determined to destroy?
Where is the fury of the oppressor?
- <sup>14</sup> The captive exiles will soon be released;
he will not die and go down into the pit,
neither will he lack bread.
- <sup>15</sup> For I am the LORD your God,
who stirs up the sea,
so that its waves roar.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- <sup>16</sup> I have put my words in your mouth,
and have covered you in the shadow of my hand.
I am the one who established the heavens, who laid the foundations of the earth, and who says to Zion, "You are my people."
- <sup>17</sup> Wake up, wake up, stand up, O Jerusalem, you who drunk at the hand of the LORD
the cup of his wrath;
you have drunk dry the bowl that causes staggering.

- <sup>18</sup> There is no one to guide her among all the children she has borne;
neither is there any who takes her by the hand among all the children she has brought up.
- <sup>19</sup> These two things have happened to you:
desolation and destruction,
famine and the sword.
Who will grieve with you?
Who will comfort you?
- <sup>20</sup> Your children have fainted;
they lie at the head of every street,
like an antelope caught in a net;
they are full of the wrath of the LORD,
the rebuke of your God.
- <sup>21</sup> Therefore hear this, you afflicted, you who are drunk, but not from wine.
- <sup>22</sup> This is what your sovereign LORD says, and your God who pleads the cause of his people,
"Look, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering,
the bowl of my wrath;
you will never drink it again.
- <sup>23</sup> Instead I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who have told you, 'Bow down, that we may walk over you.'
You have laid your back like the ground, and like the street for them to walk over."

DASV: Isaiah 52

- <sup>1</sup> Wake up, wake up, clothe yourself with strength, O Zion.
    Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city;
    no longer will the uncircumcised and the unclean enter you.
- <sup>2</sup> Shake off the dust from yourself;
    get up, sit on your throne, O Jerusalem.
Lose yourself from the chains on your neck,
    O captive daughter of Zion.
- <sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
    "You were sold for nothing;
    you will be redeemed without money."
- <sup>4</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says,
    "At first my people went down into Egypt to live there, recently Assyria has oppressed them for no reason."
- <sup>5</sup> "Now therefore, what do I have here," says the LORD,
    "seeing that my people are taken away for nothing?
    Those who rule over them shout a taunt at them," says the LORD,
    "and my name is continually blasphemed.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore my people will know my name;
    in that day then they will know that I am the one who speaks; look, it is I."
- <sup>7</sup> How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that brings good tidings, who announces peace,
    who brings good news,
    who publishes salvation,
    who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"
- <sup>8</sup> Your watchmen lift their voices, together they shout for joy;
    they will see with their own eyes,
    when LORD returns to Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> Break out into joyful singing,
    you ruins of Jerusalem;
    for the LORD has comforted his people,
    he has redeemed Jerusalem.
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD has bared his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations.
    All the ends of the earth

will see the salvation of our God.

- <sup>11</sup> Depart, depart, get out of here, touch nothing unclean.
Get out of the midst of her;
purify yourselves,
you who bear the sacred vessels of the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> For you will not leave quickly,
nor will you go fleeing for your lives;
for the LORD will go before you;
the God of Israel will watch your back.
- <sup>13</sup> Look, my servant will deal wisely;
he will be exalted and lifted up,
and will be greatly exalted.
- <sup>14</sup> Just as many were astonished at him, his disfigured face was marred more than any other,
and his form beyond other human beings.
- <sup>15</sup> So he will sprinkle many nations;
kings will shut their mouths before him.
For that which they had not been told,
they will see;
and that which they had not heard,
they will understand.

DASV: Isaiah 53

- <sup>1</sup> Who has believed our message?
To whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?
- <sup>2</sup> For he grew up before him like a tender plant, and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no impressive form or beauty to attract us to him;
there was nothing about his appearance that we should desire him.
- <sup>3</sup> He was despised and rejected;
a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.
Like one from whom people hide their face
he was despised,
and we thought nothing of him.
- <sup>4</sup> Surely he has borne our griefs,
and carried our sorrows;
yet we thought he was being punished,
smitten by God and afflicted.
- <sup>5</sup> But he was wounded for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that made us whole was upon him,
and by his stripes we are healed.
- <sup>6</sup> All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned everyone to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him the sin of us all.
- <sup>7</sup> He was oppressed, yet when he was treated harshly he did not open his mouth;
like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
- <sup>8</sup> By oppression and judgment he was taken away.
But from his generation who even cared?
He was cut off out of the land of the living;
for the rebellion of my people he was struck down.
- <sup>9</sup> They made his grave with the wicked,
and with the rich in his death;
although he had done no violence,
nor was there any deceit in his mouth.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet it was the LORD's good pleasure to bruise him and to cause him grief.

When his life is made an offering for sin,
he will see his offspring.
He will prolong his days,
and the pleasure of the LORD will be successful in his hand.
<sup>11</sup> As a result of the anguish of his soul,
he will see and be satisfied.
By his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many,
and he will bear their sins.
<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will assign him a portion with the great, and he will divide the spoil with the strong,
because he poured out himself to death,
and was numbered with the transgressors.
Yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

DASV: Isaiah 54

- <sup>1</sup> "Sing, O barren one who has never given birth.
Break out into singing and shouts of joy,
you who have never been in labor.
For there are more children from the desolate than there are children from the married woman,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>2</sup> "Enlarge the place of your tent,
and stretch out the tent curtains of your dwellings.
Spare nothing,
lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes.
- <sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right and to the left;
your descendants will possess the nations and resettle the deserted cities.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not be afraid,
for you will not be put to shame.
Do not be embarrassed,
for you will not be humiliated.
You will forget the shame of your youth and will no longer remember the disgrace of your widowhood.
- <sup>5</sup> For your Maker is your husband;
the LORD of hosts is his name.
The Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer.
He will be called 'the God of the entire earth.'
- <sup>6</sup> For the LORD has called you back as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, like a wife who married young and was rejected,"
says your God.
- <sup>7</sup> "For a brief moment I abandoned you,
but with great compassion I will regather you.
- <sup>8</sup> In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment, but with everlasting love I will have mercy on you," says the LORD your Redeemer.
- <sup>9</sup> "For this is like in the days of Noah to me;
for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah would never flood the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.
- <sup>10</sup> For the mountains may be moved,
and the hills shaken,
but my loyal love will never leave you,

nor will my covenant of peace ever be broken," says the LORD who has compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup> "O afflicted one, tossed by storm and not comforted, look, I will rebuild your stones with jewels,
and lay your foundations with lapis lazuli.

<sup>12</sup> I will make your pinnacles of rubies, and your gates of sparkling gems,
and all your walls of precious stones.

<sup>13</sup> All your children will be taught by the LORD, and your children will enjoy prosperity.

<sup>14</sup> In righteousness you will be established;
you will be far from oppression,
for you will not fear,
for terror will not come near you.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone attacks you,
it will not be from me;
whoever will assemble against you will be defeated because of you.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I have created the blacksmith who blows the fire of coals and produces a weapon perfect for its work.
I have created the destroyer to bring destruction.

<sup>17</sup> No weapon that is formed against you will be successful.
You will refute every tongue that makes accusations against you.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their vindication is from me,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Isaiah 55

- <sup>1</sup> "Everyone who is thirsty, come to the waters.
You who have no money, come buy and eat.
Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and free of charge.
- <sup>2</sup> Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your wages for that which does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me,
and eat what is good,
and delight yourselves in the finest cuisine.
- <sup>3</sup> Incline your ear and come to me;
listen, so you may live.
I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
just like my loyal covenant made to David.
- <sup>4</sup> Look, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.
- <sup>5</sup> Look, you will summon nations you did not know;
nations that did not know you will run to you,
because of the LORD your God,
and for the Holy One of Israel,
for he has glorified you.
- <sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD while he may be found;
call upon him while he is near.
- <sup>7</sup> Let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous his thoughts.
Let them return to the LORD,
and he will have mercy on him,
and to our God,
for he will abundantly pardon.
- <sup>8</sup> For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>9</sup> "For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so my ways are higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- <sup>10</sup> For as the rain comes down and the snow from heaven, and does not return there without watering the earth, making it produce and sprout,
giving seed to the sower,
and bread to the eater;
- <sup>11</sup> so will my word be that goes forth out of my mouth;

it will not return to me empty,
but it will accomplish what I desire it to,
and it will succeed in the matter for which I sent it.

<sup>12</sup> For you will go out with joy, and be led forth with peace;
the mountains and the hills will break out in singing before you,
and all the trees of the fields will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup> Instead of thorns, cypress trees will grow, and instead of briers, myrtle trees will sprout up.
It will be a memorial for the LORD,
for an everlasting sign that will never be cut off.

DASV: Isaiah 56

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"Be just, and do what is right,
for my salvation will come soon,
and my righteousness is ready to be revealed.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the one who does this,
the one who holds it tight,
who keeps the Sabbath and does not defile it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil."
- <sup>3</sup> Do not let a foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD, say,
"The LORD will surely exclude me from his people," nor let the eunuch say,
"Look, I am just a withered tree."
- <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me,
and hold on tight to my covenant,
- <sup>5</sup> to them I will give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than sons and daughters.
I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.
- <sup>6</sup> Also the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD,
to serve him,
and to love the name of the LORD,
to be his servants,
everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not defile it,
and holds on tight to my covenant;
- <sup>7</sup> I will bring them to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;
for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples."
- <sup>8</sup> The sovereign LORD, who gathers the dispersed of Israel, says,
"I will gather others to them, besides those who are already gathered."
- <sup>9</sup> All you animals of the field, come to devour, yes, all you beasts in the forest.
- <sup>10</sup> Their watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge;
they are all silent watchdogs, who cannot bark;
dreaming and lying down,
how they love to sleep.

- <sup>11</sup> Yes, the dogs have big appetites;
they can never get enough.
These are shepherds who have no understanding;
they have all turned to their own way, every last one of them is out for his own personal gain.
- <sup>12</sup> "Come," they say,
"I will get some wine.
Let's get drunk with strong drink;
Tomorrow will be just like today,
only better."

DASV: Isaiah 57

- <sup>1</sup> "The righteous perishes, and no one takes it to heart;
the devout are taken away, with no one giving it a thought;
the righteous are taken away sparing them from the evil to come.
- <sup>2</sup> Such a one enters into peace;
those who walk in uprightness rest on their death beds.
- <sup>3</sup> But come here, you sons of a sorceress,
the offspring of an adulterer and a prostitute.
- <sup>4</sup> At whom are you making fun?
At whom are you making faces,
and sticking out your tongue?
Are you not children of sin,
an offspring of liars,
- <sup>5</sup> you who are inflamed with lust among the oaks,
under every green tree;
who slay children in the valleys
under the rocky cliffs?
- <sup>6</sup> Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion;
they, they are the gods you have chosen.
To them you have poured out a drink offering,
you have offered a grain offering.
Should I be appeased with these things going on?
- <sup>7</sup> Upon a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed;
that's where you went up to offer sacrifices.
- <sup>8</sup> Behind the doors and the posts you have set up your memorial;
deserting me you have exposed yourself and jumped into bed with them.
You have expanded your bed,
and made a covenant with them;
you loved their bed
and to gaze on their nakedness.
- <sup>9</sup> You went to Molech with olive oil, and increased your perfumes.
You sent your ambassadors far off,
and sent them even down into Sheol.
- <sup>10</sup> You were wearied by the length of your journey;
yet you never said,
"It is worthless."
Instead you are energized;
therefore you do not faint.

- <sup>11</sup> Whom were you afraid of and in fear of so that you lied,
and have not remembered me,
or give me a thought?
Was it because I held my peace for a long time
that you do not fear me?
- <sup>12</sup> I will expose your "righteousness;"
as for your works, they will not help you.
- <sup>13</sup> When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you;
but the wind will blow them away,
a breath will carry them all away.
But the one who takes refuge in me will possess the land,
and will inherit my holy mountain.
- <sup>14</sup> He will say,
"Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove the stumbling blocks out of the way of my people."
- <sup>15</sup> For this is what the high and lofty One says, who inhabits eternity,
whose name is Holy:
"I live in the high and holy place,
with the contrite and humble of spirit,
to revive the spirit of the humble,
and to revive the heart of the contrite.
- <sup>16</sup> For I will not make accusations forever, nor will I always be angry;
for then they would expire before me,
even the breath of life that I have made.
- <sup>17</sup> I was angry because of their unjust greed, and struck them;
I hid my face in anger,
yet they kept turning back to the way of their own hearts.
- <sup>18</sup> I have seen their ways,
but I will heal.
I will lead him,
and restore comfort to those who mourn,
creating praise on their lips.
- <sup>19</sup> Peace, peace, to those who are far off and to those who are near,"
says the LORD,
"and I will heal them."
- <sup>20</sup> But the wicked are like the raging sea;

for it cannot rest,
and its waters churn up muck and mire.
<sup>21</sup> "There is no peace," says my God,
"for the wicked."

DASV: Isaiah 58

- <sup>1</sup> Shout out loud, do not hold back;
 lift up your voice like a trumpet, declare to my people their transgression,
 and to the house of Jacob their sins.
- <sup>2</sup> Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways,
 as if they were a nation that did righteousness,
 and has not rejected the ordinance of their God.
 They ask me for righteous judgments;
 they delight to draw near to God.
- <sup>3</sup> 'Why have we fasted,' they complain,
 'but you did not see it?
 Why have we humbled ourselves,
 but you take no knowledge of it?'
- In the day of your fast you pursue your own pleasure, and oppress all your workers.
- <sup>4</sup> Your fasting leads to quarreling and arguments, and to wicked fistfights.
 The fasting you do this day will not result in your voice being heard on high.
- <sup>5</sup> Is this really the fast that I have chosen?
 Is it a day just for a person to humble themselves?
 Is it merely to bow down one's head like a reed,
 or to lie on sackcloth and ashes?
 Is that what you call a fast,
 and an acceptable day to the LORD?
- <sup>6</sup> Is not this the fast that I have chosen:
 to loose the bonds of wickedness,
 to tear off the ropes of the yoke,
 and to let the oppressed go free,
 and to break every yoke?
- <sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and provide shelter for the homeless?
 Is it not when you see the naked, to cover them,
 and not to hide yourself from your own relatives?
- <sup>8</sup> Then will your light break forth like the dawn,
 and your healing will quickly spring up;
 your righteousness will go before you;
 the glory of the LORD will guard your back.

- <sup>9</sup> Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
you will cry for help, and he will say, "Here I am.
If you remove from the midst of you the yoke of oppression,
the pointing fingers, and speaking wickedly, <sup>10</sup> and if you give yourself to help the hungry, and to satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in darkness,
and your darkness will become like the noonday.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your desire even in parched places and make your bones strong.
You will be like a watered garden,
and like a spring of water whose waters never fail.
- <sup>12</sup> They who will be from you will rebuild the old ruins;
you will raise up the foundations of many generations;
you will be called "The Repairer of the Broken Walls,"
"The Restorer of Streets to Live in."
- <sup>13</sup> If you keep your foot from violating the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day;
but call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy day of the LORD honorable,
and if you honor it,
not going your own ways,
or pursuing your own pleasure,
or speaking your own idle words,
- <sup>14</sup> then you will delight yourself in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the high places of the earth, and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father."
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

DASV: Isaiah 59

- <sup>1</sup> Look, the LORD's hand is not too short, that it cannot save,
nor is his ear so deaf, that it cannot hear.
- <sup>2</sup> But your iniquities have separated you from your God,
and your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he will not hear.
- <sup>3</sup> For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity;
your lips have spoken lies;
your tongue mutters wickedness.
- <sup>4</sup> No one cares about justice, or pleads their case with honesty.
They trust in empty words, and speak lies;
they conceive trouble,
and give birth to sin.
- <sup>5</sup> They hatch the eggs of deadly snakes,
and weave the spider's web.
Whoever eats their eggs dies;
and if one is crushed,
it hatches into a viper.
- <sup>6</sup> Their webs cannot be used as clothes,
nor will they cover themselves with their works.
Their works are works of iniquity,
and the acts of violence are in their hands.
- <sup>7</sup> Their feet run to do evil,
and they are quick to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
devastation and destruction follow in their tracks.
- <sup>8</sup> The way of peace they do not know;
there is no justice in their paths.
They have made their paths crooked;
whoever walks in them does not know peace.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not overtake us.
We look for light, but see only darkness,
for brightness, but we walk in utter darkness.
- <sup>10</sup> We grope along the wall like the blind;
we grope as those who have no eyes.
We stumble at noonday just like it was twilight;
among the living we are like dead men.
- <sup>11</sup> We all growl like bears, and moan sadly like doves.

 We look for justice,
 but there is none;
 for salvation,
 but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup> For our transgressions are multiplied before you,
 and our sins testify against us.

Our transgressions are with us,
 and as for our iniquities,
 we are well aware of them:

<sup>13</sup> rebelling and denying the LORD, turning away from following our God, talking about oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering lies from the heart.

<sup>14</sup> Justice is turned back,
 and righteousness stands far off;
 truth has stumbled in the street,
 and uprightness cannot even enter.

<sup>15</sup> Truth is lacking;
 anyone who rejects evil makes themselves a target.

The LORD saw it,
 and the fact that there was no justice displeased him.

<sup>16</sup> He saw that there was no vindicator, and was amazed that there was no one to intervene.
 Therefore his own arm brought salvation to him;
 his righteousness supported him.

<sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head.
 He put on garments of vengeance,
 and was clothed with zeal as a robe.

<sup>18</sup> According to their deeds, so he will repay;
 wrath to his adversaries,
 and punishment to his enemies;
 even to the distant coastlands he will repay them.

<sup>19</sup> So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west, and revere his glory from the rising of the sun.
 For he will come like a rushing stream, that the wind of the LORD drives on.

<sup>20</sup> "A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn from their sin,"
 says the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD,
"my Spirit that is on you,
and my words which I have put in your mouth,
will not depart out of your mouth,
nor out of the mouths of your children,
nor out of the mouth of your children's children," says the LORD, "from now to forever."

DASV: Isaiah 60

- <sup>1</sup> "Arise, shine; for your light is come,
and the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.
- <sup>2</sup> For, look, darkness covers the earth, and deep darkness the peoples,
but the LORD arises on you and his glory is seen over you.
- <sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your radiance.
- <sup>4</sup> Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together and come to you;
your sons will come from far away,
and your daughters will be carried on the hip.
- <sup>5</sup> Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and rejoice;
because the abundance of the sea will be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations will come to you.
- <sup>6</sup> The multitude of camels will cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba will come;
they will bring gold and frankincense,
and will proclaim the praises of the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will be brought to you for sacrifices.
They will go up as acceptable on my altar,
and I will beautify my glorious temple.
- <sup>8</sup> Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?
- <sup>9</sup> For the coastlands will expectantly wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish will arrive first,
to bring your children from afar,
along with their silver and their gold.
They will honor the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
because he has glorified you.
- <sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls,
and their kings will serve you.
For though in my wrath I struck you,
yet in my favor I have had mercy on you.

- <sup>11</sup> Your gates also will be open continually;
they will never be shut day or night,
so that people may bring to you the wealth of the nations,
with their kings leading the procession.
- <sup>12</sup> For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish;
those nations will be totally destroyed.
- <sup>13</sup> "The glory of Lebanon will come to you,
the cypress, fir, and pine trees,
to beautify the place of my sanctuary;
and I will make the place of my feet glorious.
- <sup>14</sup> The descendants of your oppressors will come bowing before you;
all those who despised you will bow down
at your feet,
and they will call you 'The City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.'
- <sup>15</sup> Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through you,
I will make you majestic forever,
a joy for many generations.
- <sup>16</sup> You will also suck the milk of the nations, and will suck at regal breasts.
You will know that I, the LORD,
am your Savior, your Redeemer,
the Mighty One of Jacob.
- <sup>17</sup> Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver,
and instead wood, bronze;
and instead stones, iron.
I will also make peace your overseer, and righteousness your ruler.
- <sup>18</sup> Violence will no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls 'Salvation,' and your gates 'Praise.'
- <sup>19</sup> The sun will no longer be your light by day;
nor for brightness will the moon give light to you;
for the LORD will be an everlasting light for you, and your God will be your glory.
- <sup>20</sup> Your sun will no more go down, or your moon withdraw;
for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be over.

<sup>21</sup> Your people also will all be righteous;
they will possess the land forever.

I will plant them like a shoot,
the work of my hands,
that I may be glorified.

<sup>22</sup> The little one will become a thousand,
and the small one a strong nation.

I, the LORD, will, in its time, accomplish this quickly."

DASV: Isaiah 61

- <sup>1</sup> The Spirit of the sovereign LORD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me.
He sent me to preach good news to the poor,
to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and freedom to prisoners,
- <sup>2</sup> to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,
- <sup>3</sup> to support those who mourn in Zion,
to give to them a garland instead of ashes,
the oil of joy instead of mourning,
the garment of praise instead of the spirit of despondency.
They may be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of the LORD to glorify him.
- <sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore what was formerly destroyed;
and they will repair the wrecked cities, devastated for many generations.
- <sup>5</sup> Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and strangers will be your farmers and your vinedressers.
- <sup>6</sup> But you will be called 'the priests of the LORD';
people will call you 'the ministers of our God.'
You will eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory you will boast.
- <sup>7</sup> Instead of your shame, you will receive a double portion;
and instead of dishonor, they will rejoice in their land inheritance.
Therefore in their land they will possess double,
and have everlasting joy.
- <sup>8</sup> "For I, the LORD, love justice,
I hate robbery and wrongdoing.
I will faithfully repay them,
and make an everlasting covenant with them.
- <sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples;
all who see them will realize, that they are the people the LORD has blessed."
- <sup>10</sup> I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,

my soul will be joyful in my God.

For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom wears a turban like a priest,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup> For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as the garden causes things planted to sprout, so the sovereign LORD will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

DASV: Isaiah 62

- <sup>1</sup> For Zion's sake I will not stay silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep quiet, until her vindication brightly shines forth,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
- <sup>2</sup> The nations will see your vindication,
and all kings your glory,
and you will be called by a new name,
that the mouth of LORD will give you.
- <sup>3</sup> You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
- <sup>4</sup> You will no longer be called "Forsaken;"
neither will your land any more be labeled "Desolate."
Instead you will be called Hephzibah [My delight is in her],
and your land Beulah [Married];
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land will be married.
- <sup>5</sup> For like a young man marries a virgin,
so your sons will marry you;
and like the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so will your God rejoice over you.
- <sup>6</sup> I have put watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
they will never be silent day or night.
You who remind the LORD, take no rest.
- <sup>7</sup> Give him no rest, until he reestablishes Jerusalem, and makes her a praise in the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD has sworn by his right hand,
and by his mighty arm,
"I will never give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners will not drink your new wine for which you have labored.
- <sup>9</sup> But those who harvest it will eat it,
and praise the LORD,
and those who gather it will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."
- <sup>10</sup> Go through, go through the gates;
prepare the way for the people.
Build it, build the highway;
remove the stones;
lift up the signal flag for the peoples.

- <sup>11</sup> Look, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth,
"Tell the daughter of Zion,
    'Look, your salvation comes;
    look, his reward is with him,
    and his recompense before him.'" <sup>12</sup> They will call them, "The holy people,"
    "The Redeemed of the LORD," and you will be called "Sought After, A City Not Forsaken."

DASV: Isaiah 63

- <sup>1</sup> Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah with stained red garments?
Who is this wearing splendid apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength?
"It is I, who announces vindication, mighty to save."
- <sup>2</sup> Why are your clothes red, and your garments like one who treads grapes
in the wine press?
- <sup>3</sup> I have stomped in the winepress alone;
and none of the peoples joined with me.
I stomped them in my anger,
and trampled them in my wrath.
Their juice splattered on my garments,
and all my clothes are stained.
- <sup>4</sup> For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come.
- <sup>5</sup> I looked, but there was no one to help;
I was shocked that there was no one to lend support.
Therefore my own arm brought me salvation,
and my wrath sustained me.
- <sup>6</sup> I trampled down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk with my wrath,
and I spilled their lifeblood on the ground."
- <sup>7</sup> I will recall the loyal love of the LORD, and the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD,
because of all the LORD has done for us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
that he did for them according to his mercies,
and according to his great loyal love.
- <sup>8</sup> For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children that will not betray me."
So he became their Savior.
- <sup>9</sup> In all their suffering, he also suffered,
and the angel of his presence saved them.
In his love and in his pity he redeemed them;
he picked them up,
and carried them all the days of old.
- <sup>10</sup> But they rebelled, and grieved his Holy Spirit.

- Therefore he turned into their enemy, and he himself fought against them.
- <sup>11</sup> Then they remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people,
Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among them, who caused his glorious arm to be at the right hand of Moses?
Where is he who divided the waters before them,
to make himself an everlasting name?
Where is he who led them through the watery depths?
Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.
Like cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD provided them rest.
This is the way you led your people,
to make your name glorious.
- <sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven,
and look down from your holy and glorious home.
Where is your zeal and your mighty acts?
The yearning of your heart and compassion are withheld from me.
- <sup>16</sup> For you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us,
and Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are our Father;
our Redeemer, your reputation is from ancient times.
- <sup>17</sup> Why, O LORD, do you make us wander from your ways, and harden our heart so we do not fear you?
Return for your servants' sake,
the tribes of your inheritance.
- <sup>18</sup> Your holy people possessed for a little while,
but now our adversaries have trampled down your sanctuary.
- <sup>19</sup> We have long been like those over whom you never ruled,
like those who were not called by your name.

DASV: Isaiah 64

- <sup>1</sup> O that you would rip open the heavens and come down!
The mountains would quake at your presence.
- <sup>2</sup> As when fire burns the brushwood, and fire causes water to boil;
may your adversaries know your name,
may the nations tremble at your presence!
- <sup>3</sup> When you did awesome deeds that we were not expecting,
you came down and the mountains quaked at your presence.
- <sup>4</sup> For from of old no one has ever heard,
or ear perceived,
neither has any eye seen a God besides you,
who works on behalf of the one who waits for him.
- <sup>5</sup> You meet those who gladly do what is right,
those who remember you in your ways.
Look, you were angry because we sinned;
we have persisted in our sins a long time.
Can we really be saved?
- <sup>6</sup> For we are all like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags.
We all wither like a leaf,
and our sins carry us away like the wind.
- <sup>7</sup> Yet there is no one who calls on your name, or endeavors to take hold of you;
for you have hid your face from us,
and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.
- <sup>8</sup> But now, O LORD, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are the potter;
and we all are the work of your hand.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be furious, O LORD, neither remember our iniquity forever.
Please look at us, we are all your people.
- <sup>10</sup> Your holy cities have become a desert,
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
- <sup>11</sup> Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you,
is burned with fire,
and all our pleasant places have become ruins.
- <sup>12</sup> After all this, how can you restrain yourself, O LORD?

How can you keep silent and punish us so severely?

DASV: Isaiah 65

- <sup>1</sup> "I made myself available to those who did not ask for me;
I was found by those who did not seek me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am,'
to a nation that did not call on my name.
- <sup>2</sup> I have spread out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good,
following their own imaginations.
- <sup>3</sup> These people provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens,
and burning incense upon pagan brick altars;
- <sup>4</sup> who sit among the tombs,
and spend their night in the secret places;
who eat the flesh of pigs,
with broth made from abominable things in their pots.
- <sup>5</sup> They say, 'Keep your distance.
Do not come near me,
for I am holier than you are.'
These are smoke in my nose,
a fire that burns all day long.
- <sup>6</sup> "Look, it is written before me:
I will not keep silent, but will repay,
yes, I will repay dropping it right into their laps
- <sup>7</sup> both your own sins and the sins of your fathers," says the LORD,
"Because they have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills;
therefore I will pay them back in full dropping it right into their laps."
- <sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"When juice is found in a grape cluster, people say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for my servants' sake;
I will not destroy them all.
- <sup>9</sup> But I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah those who will inherit my mountains;
and my chosen will inherit it,
and my servants will live there.
- <sup>10</sup> The plain of Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,
for my people who have sought me.
- <sup>11</sup> But you who forsake the LORD,

- who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,
and who fill up mixed wine for Destiny;
- <sup>12</sup> I will destine you to the sword,
and you will all kneel down to be slaughtered;
because when I called, you did not answer,
when I spoke, you did not listen;
you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose what I did not delight in."
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says,
"My servants will eat,
but you will be hungry;
my servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty;
my servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame;
- <sup>14</sup> my servants will sing for joy of heart,
but you will cry for sorrow of heart,
and will wail from a broken spirit.
- <sup>15</sup> You will leave your name for a curse for my chosen to use;
and the sovereign LORD will slay you;
but he will give his servants another name.
- <sup>16</sup> Whoever blesses himself in the earth will bless himself by the God of truth.
For one who takes an oath in the earth will swear by the God of truth;
The former troubles will be forgotten,
and they will be hidden from my eyes.
- <sup>17</sup> For, look, I will create new heavens and a new earth;
the former things will not be remembered,
or even come to mind.
- <sup>18</sup> But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create.
For, look, I create Jerusalem for rejoicing, and her people as a delight.
- <sup>19</sup> I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people;
there will no longer be heard in her the sound of weeping or the sound of crying.
- <sup>20</sup> There will no longer be an infant who lives just a few days, or an old person who does not live out their full days;

for the child will die at hundred years old, and anyone failing to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.

<sup>21</sup> They will build houses, and inhabit them;
they will plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup> They will not build and another inhabit it;
they will not plant and another eat it;
for as the days of a tree so will be the days of my people, and my chosen will live long enough to enjoy the work of their hands.

<sup>23</sup> They will not labor in vain, or bring forth children destined for disaster.
For they are the offspring blessed by the LORD,
and their descendants with them.

<sup>24</sup> Before they call, I will answer;
while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox;
dust will be the serpent's food.
They will not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Isaiah 66

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
What kind of house could you build for me?
Where is the place that I may rest?"
- <sup>2</sup> For all these things my hand has made, that is how all these things came to be," says the LORD.
"But this is the one to whom I will look,
even to the one who is humble and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word.
- <sup>3</sup> To them the one who kills an ox is just like one who kills a human for sacrifice;
one who sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog's neck;
one who offers a grain offering is like one who offers pig's blood;
one who burns frankincense is like one who blesses an idol.
Yes, they have chosen their own ways,
and their soul delights in their abominations.
- <sup>4</sup> I also will choose their punishment,
and will bring their fears upon them;
because when I called,
no one answered;
when I spoke,
they did not hear;
they did that which was evil in my eyes,
and chose what did not please me."
- <sup>5</sup> Hear the word of the LORD,
you who tremble at his word:
"Your own countrymen who hate you,
and throw you out for my name's sake, mock,
'Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy;'
but it is they who will be put to shame.
- <sup>6</sup> Listen, a sound of uproar from the city,
a sound from the temple!
It is the voice of the LORD, rendering to his enemies what they deserve.
- <sup>7</sup> Before her labor pains began,
she gave birth;
before her pain came,
she delivered a boy.

- <sup>8</sup> Who has heard of such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Can a country be born in a single day?
Will a nation be born in a second?
Yet as soon as Zion went into labor,
she gave birth to her children.
- <sup>9</sup> Would I ever bring a baby to the point of birth and not deliver it?" says the LORD.
Would I who deliver ever force the womb shut?" says your God.
- <sup>10</sup> Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her,
all you who love her.
Rejoice with her in joy,
all you who mourn over her.
- <sup>11</sup> For you will nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breasts;
you will suck and be delighted with her bountiful breasts.
- <sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
"Look, I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream.
You will nurse and be carried on her side,
and will be dandled on her knees.
- <sup>13</sup> As a mother comforts her child,
so I will comfort you;
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem."
- <sup>14</sup> You will see it, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will flourish like the fresh grass.
The hand of the LORD will be known to his servants, and his fury to his enemies.
- <sup>15</sup> For, look, the LORD will come with fire, and his chariots will be like a whirlwind.
He will manifest his anger with fury,
and his rebuke with flames of fire.
- <sup>16</sup> For by fire and his sword
the LORD will execute judgment on all flesh, and many will be slain by the LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> "Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves by going into the pagan gardens, as followers of the idolatrous one in their midst, eating the flesh of pigs, disgusting creatures, and rats, they will perish together," says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> "For I know their works and their thoughts; the time is coming when I will gather all nations and languages; and they will come and see my glory.

<sup>19</sup> I will perform a sign among them, and I will send their survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, famous for drawing the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off, that have never heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will declare my glory among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> They will bring all your kindred out of all the nations for an offering to the LORD, on horses, in chariots and wagons, on mules and camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "just as the Israelites bring their offerings in clean containers into the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> Some of them I will select for priests and Levites," says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, will remain before me," says the LORD, "so your descendants and name will remain.

<sup>23</sup> From one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all humanity will come to worship before me," says the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> "They will go out, and look on the corpses of those who have rebelled against me; for their worms will not die, neither will their fire be extinguished. They will be abhorred by all humanity."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Jeremiah 1

<sup>2</sup> The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

<sup>3</sup> It also came in the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, when Jerusalem was carried away into exile.

<sup>4</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup> "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you came out of the womb I consecrated you;
I appointed you as a prophet to the nations."

<sup>6</sup> Then I replied, "O, sovereign LORD! I don't know how to speak, for I am too young."

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD answered me, "Do not say 'I am too young;' for you will go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I tell you to.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth. The LORD said to me, "Look, I have put my words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup> See, today I have appointed you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen accurately, for I am watching over my word to perform it."

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north evil will break out on all the inhabitants of this land.

<sup>15</sup> For I am about to call all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD;

"They will come, and they will all set their thrones at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all the walls that surround it and against all the cities of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> I will declare my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness in forsaking me.
They have burned incense to other gods,
and worshipped the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup> But prepare yourself for action, stand up, and tell them everything that I command you. Do not be afraid of them, or I myself will make you afraid before them.

<sup>18</sup> For I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.

<sup>19</sup> They will fight against you but they will not overcome you, because I am with you," says the LORD, "to rescue you."

DASV: Jeremiah 2

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Go and proclaim in the ears of the people of Jerusalem, saying, 'This is what the LORD says,
I remember the devotion of your youth,
you loved me as a young bride does;
you followed me in the wilderness,
in a land that was not sown.
<sup>3</sup> Israel was holy to the LORD,
the firstfruits of his harvest.
All who devoured them were held guilty;
disaster will come on them,'" says the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:
<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"What did your fathers find wrong with me,
that they strayed so far from me?
They have walked after worthless idols,
and they themselves became worthless.
<sup>6</sup> They never asked, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness,
a land of deserts and pits,
a land of drought and deep darkness,
a land that no one travels through,
and where no one lives?'
<sup>7</sup> I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and goodness.
But when you entered it,
you defiled my land,
and made my heritage an abomination.
<sup>8</sup> The priests never asked, 'Where is the LORD?'
Those who handled the law did not know me.
The rulers also rebelled against me;
the prophets prophesied by Baal,
and followed idols that do not profit.
<sup>9</sup> So once again I will make my accusation against you,"
says the LORD,
"and I will even bring charges against your grandchildren.

- <sup>10</sup> Cross over to the shores of Cyprus, and see.
Send someone to Kedar and carefully search;
see if such a thing has ever happened.
- <sup>11</sup> Has a nation ever changed its gods,
even though they are not gods at all?
But my people have changed their Glory for idols that are worthless.
- <sup>12</sup> Be appalled at this, O heavens, and shocked with horror,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> "For my people have committed two evils:
they have forsaken me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug out cisterns,
broken cisterns that can hold no water.
- <sup>14</sup> Is Israel a slave?
Was he born a slave?
Why then has he been carried off as plunder?
- <sup>15</sup> The young lions have roared against him;
they have roared loudly.
They have made his land a wasteland; his cities are burned up, without inhabitant.
- <sup>16</sup> Even the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of your head.
- <sup>17</sup> Did you not bring this on yourself by forsaking the LORD your God, when he led you on the way?
- <sup>18</sup> Now what have you really gained by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Nile?
Or what have you gained by going to Assyria, to drink the waters of the Euphrates?
- <sup>19</sup> Your own wickedness will bring on you punishment, and your apostasy will result in your being disciplined.
Know, therefore and realize that it is an evil thing and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God, and the fear of me is not in you,"
says the sovereign LORD of hosts.
- <sup>20</sup> "For long ago I broke your yoke,
and burst your chains;
you said, 'I will not serve you.'
For on every high hill and under every green tree you lay yourself down like a whore.

- <sup>21</sup> Yet I planted you like a choice vine, from the best stock.
How then did you turn into degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?
- <sup>22</sup> For though you wash yourself with detergent, and use a lot of soap,
yet the stain of your guilt is before me,"
says the sovereign LORD.
- <sup>23</sup> "How can you claim, 'I am not defiled,
I have not gone after the Baals?'
Just look at how you acted in the valley;
realize what you have done.
You are a restless camel running here and there.
- <sup>24</sup> A wild female donkey at home in the wilderness, that in her heat sniffs at the wind.
Who can restrain her when she is in heat?
No one who seeks her need weary themselves;
for at her mating time they will easily find her.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not chase other gods until your shoes are worn out, and your throat becomes parched.
But you said, 'It is useless,
for I love foreign gods,
and I want to pursue them.'
- <sup>26</sup> As the thief is ashamed when he is caught, so the house of Israel will be shamed-- they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets.
- <sup>27</sup> They say to a piece of wood, 'You are my father;'
and to a block of stone, 'You have given me birth.'
For they have turned their backs to me,
and not their faces.
But when they get in trouble they will plead,
'Come and save us.'
- <sup>28</sup> But where are your gods that you have made?
Let them rise up and save you in your time of trouble, if they can.
For you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.
- <sup>29</sup> Why will you argue with me?
You all have rebelled against me,"

says the LORD.

- <sup>30</sup> "It was useless to have smitten your children;
they do not respond to correction.
Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a ferocious lion.
- <sup>31</sup> You of this generation, look at the word of the LORD.
Have I been a wilderness to Israel?
Have I been like a land of deep darkness?
Why do my people say,
'We are free, we will no longer come to you?'
- <sup>32</sup> Does a young woman forget about her jewelry, or a bride her wedding attire?
Yet my people have forgotten me,
days without number.
- <sup>33</sup> How good you have become at chasing lovers!
Even a prostitute could learn a lesson from you.
- <sup>34</sup> Also in your skirts is found the blood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking into your house.
Yet in spite of all these things,
- <sup>35</sup> you still claim, 'I am innocent;
surely he's not angry with me anymore.'
Look, I am rendering judgment on you, because you claim, 'I have not sinned.'
- <sup>36</sup> Why do you flit about changing your ways?
You will be put to shame by Egypt,
just as you were put to shame by Assyria.
- <sup>37</sup> You will be led away there with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not be helped by them.

DASV: Jeremiah 3

- <sup>1</sup> "If a man divorces his wife, and she leaves him,
and becomes another man's wife,
can he get back together with her again?
Would that not totally pollute the land?
But you have played the prostitute with many lovers, yet you expect to return to me?"
says the LORD.
- <sup>2</sup> "Lift up your eyes to the bare hilltops, and see.
Where have you not committed adultery with other gods?
By the roadways you have sat waiting for them,
as an Arab in the desert.
You have polluted the land with your whoring and with your wickedness.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no spring rain.
Yet you have the defiant look of a prostitute,
you refuse to be ashamed.
- <sup>4</sup> Even now you call out to me,
'My Father, you have been my guide since my youth.
- <sup>5</sup> Will you retain your anger forever?
Will you stay mad to the end?'
This is what you say,
yet you have done all the evil you could."
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has prostituted herself.
- <sup>7</sup> I thought, 'After she had done all these things, surely she will return to me. But she has not returned and her faithless sister Judah saw it.
- <sup>8</sup> She saw that for the adultery of Israel I sent her away and gave her a bill of divorce, yet her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid; she also went and became a prostitute.
- <sup>9</sup> Because she took her whoring so lightly, the land was polluted, since she committed adultery with wood and stone.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet after all this her treacherous sister Judah has not returned to me with her whole heart, but has only pretended to do so," says the LORD.
- <sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel has shown herself to be more righteous than treacherous Judah.
- <sup>12</sup> Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say,
'Return, faithless Israel, says the LORD.
I will not look on you with anger,

- for I am merciful, says the LORD,
I will not be angry forever.
- <sup>13</sup> Just acknowledge your sin, that you have rebelled against the LORD your God, and have scattered your favors to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice," says the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> "Come back, O faithless children," says the LORD; "for I am your master and I will bring you back, one from a city, and two from a clan, I will bring you to Zion.
- <sup>15</sup> I will give you shepherds after my own heart who will shepherd you with knowledge and understanding.
- <sup>16</sup> It will come to pass, when your numbers have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says the LORD, "they will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' It will not even come to mind or be remembered. It will not be missed and another one will not be made.
- <sup>17</sup> At that time they will call Jerusalem 'The Throne of the LORD,' and all the nations will be gathered to Jerusalem to honor the name of the LORD. They will no longer follow after the stubbornness of their own evil hearts.
- <sup>18</sup> In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will both return from the land of the north to the land that I gave your forefathers for an inheritance."
- <sup>19</sup> Then I said,
"How I would love to treat you like one of my own children and give you a pleasant land,
a beautiful heritage of all the nations!
Then I thought, 'You would call me My Father,' and would not turn away from following me.
- <sup>20</sup> But as an unfaithful wife leaves her husband, so you have been unfaithful to me, O house of Israel,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup> A voice is heard on the bare hilltops, the weeping and pleading of the children of Israel,
because they have perverted their way;
they have forgotten the LORD their God.
- <sup>22</sup> Return, O faithless children;
I will heal your unfaithfulness.
'Look, we are coming to you,
for you are the LORD our God.
- <sup>23</sup> We realize the hills are a delusion,
the sacred orgies on the mountains.
Truly the salvation of Israel is in the LORD our God.

- <sup>24</sup> But from our youth the shameful idolatrous thing has devoured all that our fathers had labored for, their flocks and herds,
their sons and daughters.
- <sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame,
and let our disgrace cover us;
for we have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our forefathers,
from our youth even to this day.
We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

<sup>10</sup> Then I said, "Ah, sovereign LORD, surely you have deceived this people and Jerusalem, when you say, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throat.

<sup>11</sup> At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A blistering wind comes from the bare heights in the desert toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow or to cleanse.

<sup>12</sup> A wind too strong for that comes from me. Now I will also announce judgments against them."

<sup>13</sup> "Look, He comes up like clouds, and his chariots like a whirlwind.

His horses are swifter than eagles.

Woe to us! For we are ruined."

<sup>14</sup> "O Jerusalem, wash the wickedness from your heart that you may be saved.

How long will you retain evil thoughts within you?

<sup>15</sup> For a voice declares from Dan,
and publishes disaster from the hills of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup> Announce it to the nations;
publish it against Jerusalem,
'the one besieging is coming from a far country,
and raising the battle cry against the towns of Judah.'

<sup>17</sup> They have surrounded her like watchmen guarding a field, because she has been rebellious against me," says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> "Your behavior and actions have brought these things on you;
this is your bitter punishment,
for it has penetrated into your heart."

<sup>19</sup> My anguish, my anguish!
I writhe in pain,
O how my heart hurts;
my heart throbs within me;
I cannot be quiet,
because I have heard the sound of the war trumpet,
the alarm of war.

<sup>20</sup> One destruction on top of another;
the whole land lies in rubble.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed,
my curtains torn down in a moment.

<sup>21</sup> How long will I see the battle flags, and hear the sound of the war trumpet?

<sup>22</sup> "My people are foolish;

they do not know me.
They are senseless children,
and they have no understanding.
They are skillful at doing evil,
but they have no knowledge of how to do good."

- <sup>23</sup> I looked at the earth;
it was formless and empty;
and at the heavens,
they had no light.
- <sup>24</sup> I looked at the mountains;
they trembled;
all the hills moved back and forth.
- <sup>25</sup> I looked and there were no human beings;
all the birds of the heavens had fled.
- <sup>26</sup> I looked, the fruitful field had become a desert;
all its cities were turned to rubble at the presence of the LORD, and before his fierce anger.
- <sup>27</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
"The whole land will be desolate, yet I will not totally destroy it.
- <sup>28</sup> Because of this the earth will mourn,
and the heavens above grow dark;
because I have spoken it,
I have purposed it,
and I have not changed my mind,
and I will not turn back.
- <sup>29</sup> Every city flees from the roar of the horsemen and bowmen;
they hide in the bushes,
and climb up on the rocks.
Every city is abandoned,
and no one will live in them.
- <sup>30</sup> When you are made desolate, what will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with scarlet,
though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,
though you enlarge your eyes with eye shadow,
in vain you attempt to make yourself beautiful;
your lovers despise you,
they seek your life.
- <sup>31</sup> For I have heard a cry like a woman in labor, anguish, like one giving birth to her first child,

the cry of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath, reaching out her hands for help, saying,
"Woe is me! My life fades away before these murderers."

DASV: Jeremiah 5

- <sup>1</sup> "Search up and down the streets of Jerusalem, look around and know,
inspect its squares,
see if you can find one person who acts justly and seeks truth, and I will pardon the city.
- <sup>2</sup> Though they say, 'As the LORD lives;'
in fact they are swearing falsely."
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, do not your eyes look for truth?
You have struck them,
but they felt no pain.
You have consumed them,
but they refused to be corrected.
They have made their faces harder than a rock;
they have refused to repent.
- <sup>4</sup> Then I said, "Surely these are just the poor;
they are foolish,
for they do not know the way of LORD,
or the law of their God.
- <sup>5</sup> I will go to the leaders and will speak to them, for these know the way of the LORD,
and the law of their God."
But these, to a person, have broken the yoke of God's law, and burst the bonds.
- <sup>6</sup> So a lion out of the forest will slay them,
a desert wolf will destroy them,
a leopard will lurk outside their cities and every one that goes out will be torn in pieces, because their rebellions are many and their unfaithfulness has increased.
- <sup>7</sup> "How can I pardon you?
Even your children have forsaken me,
and sworn by those who are not gods.
When I had fed them to their full,
then they committed adultery,
and flocked to the houses of harlots.
- <sup>8</sup> They were like well-fed stallions running wild, every one neighing after his neighbor's wife.

- <sup>9</sup> Will I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"Should I not be avenged on such a nation as this?"
- <sup>10</sup> Go through her vineyards and destroy, but do not totally destroy them.
Strip away her branches,
for they are not LORD's.
- <sup>11</sup> For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been absolutely unfaithful to me,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> They have denied what the LORD says,
by saying, "He won't do anything.
No disaster will come on us;
we will not see the sword or famine.
- <sup>13</sup> The prophets are mere blustering wind, and the word of God is not in them.
Let those threats happen to them."
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says,
the God of hosts,
"Because you talk like this,
I will make my words a fire in your mouth,
and this people will be consumed like wood.
- <sup>15</sup> I will bring a nation on you from far away, O house of Israel,"
says the LORD.
"It is an ancient nation that has endured,
a nation whose language you do not know,
you cannot understand what they say.
- <sup>16</sup> Their quiver is like an open tomb;
they are all mighty warriors.
- <sup>17</sup> They will eat up your harvest and food;
they will devour your sons and daughters.
They will eat up your flocks and herds;
they will eat up your vines and fig trees.
They will decimate your fortified cities with the sword, those you trusted in.
- <sup>18</sup> But even in those days," says the LORD,
"I will not totally destroy you.
- <sup>19</sup> When you ask,
'Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?'
Then you will say to them,
'It is because they have abandoned me,
and served foreign gods in your land,

- so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'
- <sup>20</sup> Declare this in the house of Jacob,
and proclaim it in Judah:
- <sup>21</sup> Hear this, O foolish people who lack understanding, who have eyes, but do not see;
who have ears, but do not hear.
- <sup>22</sup> Do you not fear me?" says the LORD.
"Will you not tremble at my presence?
I placed the sand for the boundary of the sea,
a permanent barrier that it cannot pass.
Even though the waves toss themselves against it,
yet they cannot prevail.
Even though they roar,
yet they cannot pass over it.
- <sup>23</sup> But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart;
they have turned aside and left.
- <sup>24</sup> They do not say in their heart,
'Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives the autumn and spring rains at the right time,
who guarantees for us the appointed weeks of the harvest.
- <sup>25</sup> Your iniquities have stopped these things, your sins have deprived you of good.
- <sup>26</sup> For the wicked are found among my people;
they watch like bird catchers who hide,
only they set traps to catch people.
- <sup>27</sup> Like a cage full of birds,
so their houses are full of deceit;
therefore they have become great,
and grown rich.
- <sup>28</sup> They have grown fat and sleek.
Their deeds of wickedness know no limit;
they do not plead the cause of the fatherless that they may prosper,
and do not defend the rights of the needy.
- <sup>29</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?"
says the LORD;
"Should I not be avenged on such a nation as this?"
- <sup>30</sup> A shocking and horrible thing has happened in the land:
- <sup>31</sup> The prophets prophesy falsely,
and the priests rule by their own authority,
and my people love it that way.
But what will you do when the end comes?"

DASV: Jeremiah 6

- <sup>1</sup> "Flee for safety, O people of Benjamin!
 Get out of Jerusalem!
 Blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
 and send out a signal from Beth-haccherem!
 For disaster is emerging from the north,
 and great destruction.
- <sup>2</sup> The lovely and delicate one,
 the daughter of Zion I will destroy.
- <sup>3</sup> Kings like shepherds with their flocks will come against her;
 they will pitch their tents surrounding her.
 They each will feed in their assigned place.
- <sup>4</sup> They will say, 'Prepare for battle against her;
 get up and let us attack at noon.'
 Later, 'Woe to us! For the day is fading, for the shadows of the evening are lengthening.
- <sup>5</sup> Get up, and let us attack at night, and let us destroy her palaces."
- <sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
 "Cut down trees,
 and cast up a siege ramp against Jerusalem.
 This is the city to be punished.
 There is nothing but oppression in her midst.
- <sup>7</sup> As a well pours out its waters,
 so she pours out her wickedness.
 Violence and destruction is heard in her;
 her sickness and wounds are continually before me.
- <sup>8</sup> Be warned, O Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you in disgust;
 I will turn you into a ruin,
 a land not inhabited."
- <sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says,
 "They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine.
 Go over it again, your hand as a grape gatherer into the branches.
- <sup>10</sup> To whom can I speak and offer a warning?
 Look, their ears are closed,
 they cannot hear.
 Look, the word of the LORD has become a joke to them;
 they have no delight in it.

- <sup>11</sup> But I am full of the wrath of the LORD;
I am weary from holding it in.
"Pour it out on the children in the street,
and upon the assembly of young men as well;
both husband and wife will be taken,
the aged and those well along in years.
- <sup>12</sup> Their houses will be turned over to others, as well as their fields and their wives;
I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> "For from the least to the greatest of them every one is greedy for dishonest gain.
From the prophet even to the priest,
they all practice deceit.
- <sup>14</sup> They have treated the wound of my people
as if it were only superficial, saying, 'Peace, peace;'
when there is no peace.
- <sup>15</sup> Are they ashamed that they have committed such detestable things?
No, they were not ashamed at all;
they cannot even blush.
Therefore they will fall among those who have fallen dead.
At the time I will punish them,
they will be knocked down," says the LORD.
- <sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"Stand at the crossroads and look,
ask for the old paths,
where the good way is,
and walk in it,
and you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, 'We will not walk that way.'
- <sup>17</sup> I set up watchmen over you, saying,
'Listen for the sound of the trumpet.'
But they said, 'We won't listen.'
- <sup>18</sup> Therefore listen, you nations, realize, O congregation, what is going to happen to them.
- <sup>19</sup> Listen, O earth:
I will bring disaster on this people,
which is the fruit of their schemes,
because they have not paid attention to my words;
they have rejected my law.

- <sup>20</sup> Do I care when they offer frankincense from Sheba, and sweet smelling calamus from a far country?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable;
your sacrifices are not pleasing to me."
- <sup>21</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says,
"Look, I will lay stumbling blocks in front of this people;
the fathers and sons both will stumble over them.
Friends and neighbors will perish."
- <sup>22</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"Look, a people is coming from the north country;
a great nation is being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.
- <sup>23</sup> They lay hold on bows and spears;
they are cruel and have no mercy;
their voice roars like the sea,
as they ride out on horses.
Every one is set in battle formation as a unit coming to the battle, against you,
O daughter of Zion.
- <sup>24</sup> They will say, 'We have heard the report about them.
Our hands fall limp,
anguish has taken hold of us,
like the pain of a woman in labor.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not go out into the field,
or walk by the road;
because of the sword of the enemy,
terror is on every side.'
- <sup>26</sup> O daughter of my people, dress in sackcloth,
grovel in ashes.
Grieve as you would for an only son,
with bitter weeping,
for the destroyer will come on us suddenly.
- <sup>27</sup> I have made you, Jeremiah, a tester and a fortress among my people, that you may know and test their ways.
- <sup>28</sup> They are all stubborn rebels, going around peddling slander.
They are bronze and iron;
they all act corruptly.
- <sup>29</sup> The refining bellows blow fiercely;
the lead is consumed by the fire.

In vain they attempt to refine;
the wicked are not removed.
<sup>30</sup> They are called 'rejected silver', for the LORD has rejected them."

<sup>2</sup> "Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim this word there, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah, who enter through these gates to worship the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Improve your ways and your actions, and I will let you stay in this place.

<sup>4</sup> Do not trust in lying words, that claim, 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.'

<sup>5</sup> For if you truly improve your ways and your actions, if you truly practice justice between each other,

<sup>6</sup> if you do not oppress the foreigners, fatherless, and widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and do not follow after other gods to your own peril, <sup>7</sup> then I will allow you to stay in this place, in the land that I gave to your forefathers, forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup> Look, you trust in lying words that cannot benefit you.

<sup>9</sup> Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and follow after other gods that you have not known,

<sup>10</sup> and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and claim, 'We are safe;' only to continue doing all these disgusting things?

<sup>11</sup> Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Look, I myself have seen everything," says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> "Go now to my place that was in Shiloh where I first caused my name to dwell, and discover what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Now because you have done all these things," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you about it repeatedly, but you did not listen; I called you, but you did not answer, <sup>14</sup> therefore I will do to this house, which is called by my name, that you trust in, the place that I gave to you and to your forefathers, just as I did to Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup> I will drive you out of my sight, just as I drove into exile all your relatives, even the entire offspring of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore do not pray for this people, Jeremiah, do not lift up a cry, prayer for them, or make intercession to me, for I will not listen to you.

<sup>17</sup> Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>18</sup> The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods, just so they may provoke me to anger.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: "My anger and wrath will be poured out on this place, on human beings, animals, trees of the field, and the fruit of the ground. It will burn and not be extinguished."

<sup>22</sup> For I did not speak to your forefathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt just about burnt offerings or sacrifices.

<sup>23</sup> This is what I commanded them, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you will be my people; walk completely in the way that I command you, so that it may go well with you.'

<sup>24</sup> But they did not listen or incline their ears. Instead they followed the stubborn counsels of their own evil hearts, and went backward and not forward.

<sup>25</sup> Since the day that your forefathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you my servants the prophets, repeatedly rising early and sending them.

<sup>26</sup> Yet they did not listen to me, or incline their ears, but stiffened their stubborn necks even worse than their forefathers did.

<sup>27</sup> Tell them all these words; but they will not listen to you. Now you will call to them, but they will not answer you.

<sup>28</sup> Tell them, 'this is the nation that has not obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, or accepted correction. Truth has perished; it is banished from their mouths.

<sup>29</sup> Cut off your hair and throw it away, take up a lamentation on the barren hilltops, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation that has provoked his wrath.

<sup>30</sup> The people of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD. They have set up their disgusting idols in the house that is called by my name to defile it.

<sup>31</sup> They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of Ben Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; something I never commanded nor did such a thing ever enter my mind.

<sup>32</sup> Therefore, the days are coming, says the LORD, that it will no more be called Topheth, or the valley of Ben Hinnom, but The Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury their dead in Topheth until there is no room left.

<sup>33</sup> The dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth, and no one will frighten them away.

<sup>34</sup> Then I will bring to an end the sound of joy and gladness of brides and grooms in the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become a wasteland."

DASV: Jeremiah 8

<sup>1</sup> "At that time," says the LORD, "they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah and his officials, and the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will be exhumed out of their graves.

<sup>2</sup> They will spread them before the sun, moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, which they have followed after, sought, and worshipped. They will not be respectfully gathered or be reburied, but they will be spread like manure on the face of the ground.

<sup>3</sup> Death will be preferred to life by all the survivors who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup> You are to tell them, "This is what the LORD says:

'When people fall, do they not get up again?

Will one turn away and not return?

<sup>5</sup> Why then do these people of Jerusalem turn away with perpetual apostasy?

They hold tightly to deceit;

they refuse to return.

<sup>6</sup> I have listened carefully, but they do not speak honestly.

No one repents of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done?"

Each one turns back to his own course, like a horse charging into battle.

<sup>7</sup> Yes, the stork in the heavens knows her appointed times;

and the turtledove, swallow and the crane observe the time for their migration.

But my people do not know what the LORD requires.

<sup>8</sup> How can you say, "We are wise, the law of the LORD is with us?"

The false pen of the scribes have turned it into a lie.

<sup>9</sup> The sages will be put to shame;

they are dismayed and caught in their own trap.

Since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what type of wisdom is in them?

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who conquer them, because everyone from the least to the greatest is dominated by greed;

from the prophet to the priest, everyone acts deceptively.

<sup>11</sup> They have treated the wound of my people

as if it were only superficial,

saying, "Peace, peace;" when there is no peace.

- <sup>12</sup> Are they ashamed they had committed such an abomination?
No, they are not ashamed at all.
They do not even know how to blush.
Therefore they will fall among those who have fallen dead;
in the time of their punishment they will be brought down,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> "I will totally consume them," says the LORD.
"There will be no grapes left on the vine,
or figs on the fig tree,
even the leaves will fade.
The things that I have given them will be taken away from them."
- <sup>14</sup> They say, "Why do we sit still?
Assemble together, let us enter into the fortified cities and let us die there.
For the LORD our God has condemned us to death, and given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.
- <sup>15</sup> We looked for peace,
but no good comes our way.
We hoped for a time of healing,
but instead, only terror."
- <sup>16</sup> "The snorting of his warhorses is heard from Dan, at the sound of the neighing of his strong stallions
the whole earth quakes.
They are coming to devour the land and all that is in it;
the city and those who live there.
- <sup>17</sup> Look, I am sending an enemy like serpents among you, like vipers that cannot be charmed,
and they will bite you," says the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup> I said, "My grief is beyond cure!
My heart is faint within me.
- <sup>19</sup> Look, the voice of the cry of my people from a land that is very far off:
Is not the LORD in Zion?
Is her King not in her?"
- "Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with foreign idols?"

<sup>20</sup> "The harvest is past,
the summer is ended,
and we are not saved," they lament.

<sup>21</sup> For I am broken because of the brokenness of my people;
I mourn; dismay has taken hold of me.

<sup>22</sup> Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why has the wound of my people not been healed?

DASV: Jeremiah 9

- <sup>1</sup> "O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!
- <sup>2</sup> O that I had a lodge for travelers in the wilderness, that I might leave my people and go away from them!
For they are all adulterers,
a gang of traitors.
- <sup>3</sup> They bend their tongue like a bow ready to shoot out lies.
They have grown strong in the land,
but not for the cause of truth;
for they proceed from one evil to the next,
and they do not know me," says the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> "Let each one beware of his neighbor, and do not trust any brother.
For every brother will supplant by deception,
and every neighbor will go around as a slanderer.
- <sup>5</sup> Everyone will deceive his neighbor, and no one tells the truth.
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
they wear themselves out trying to commit sin.
- <sup>6</sup> Your home is in the midst of one lie on top of another.
They refuse to know me," says the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says,
"I will refine and test them,
for what else can I do with my people?
- <sup>8</sup> Their tongue is a deadly arrow;
it speaks deceit.
Each one speaks friendly words to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he sets up an ambush for him.
- <sup>9</sup> Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"Shall I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?"
- <sup>10</sup> For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness I will lament, because they are so scorched,
no one passes through them.
They cannot hear the sound of the cattle there.

Both the birds of the air and the beasts have fled and gone.

<sup>11</sup> I will make Jerusalem into a heap of rubble, a haunt of jackals;

I will make the cities of Judah an uninhabitable wasteland.

<sup>12</sup> Who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken so that he may explain it? Why is the land devastated and scorched like a wilderness so that no one passes through it?

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said, "This happened because they have forsaken my law that I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, or walked according to it, <sup>14</sup> but have followed after their own stubborn hearts. They pursued the Baals, just as their parents taught them."

<sup>15</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, "Look, I will feed this people with bitter food and give them poisoned water to drink.

<sup>16</sup> I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. I will send the sword after them until I have destroyed them."

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says,

"Consider, and call for the mourning women to come;
send for those most skilled at it.

<sup>18</sup> Let them hurry and wail for us, that our eyes may stream with tears and our eyelids overflow with water.

<sup>19</sup> For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion,
'O how we are ruined!

We are absolutely shamed;
we have had to forsake the land,
because they have torn down our homes."

<sup>20</sup> Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth;
teach your daughters to wail,
and everyone her neighbor a lament.

<sup>21</sup> For death has climbed in through our windows;
it has entered into our palaces, to cut off the children in the streets and the young from the town squares.

<sup>22</sup> Say, This is what the LORD says,
"The corpses will fall like manure spread on the open field, and like grain fallen behind the reaper with no one to pick it up."

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD says,

"Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, or the mighty boast in their might;
do not let the rich boast in their riches, <sup>24</sup> but let the one who boasts boast in this;
that they understand and know me, that I am the LORD who acts with loyal love, justice, and righteousness, in the earth,
for these are the things I delight in," says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> "The days are coming," says the LORD, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised only in their flesh,

<sup>26</sup> Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, and Moab, and all who live in the desert in remote places. For all these nations are uncircumcised, along with all the house of Israel who is also uncircumcised in heart."

DASV: Jeremiah 10

- <sup>1</sup> Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel:
<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:
    "Do not learn the way of the nations, or be intrigued by the signs of heaven,
        for the nations are intrigued with them.
<sup>3</sup> For the religious customs of the peoples are worthless;
        one cuts a tree out of the forest, shaped by the hands of a craftsman with his tools.
<sup>4</sup> They decorate it with silver and with gold;
        they fasten it down with hammers and nails
            so that it will not topple over.
<sup>5</sup> Their idols are like a scarecrow in a cucumber patch, they cannot speak;
        they need to be carried because they cannot even walk.
    Do not be afraid of them;
        they cannot do any harm,
        nor do they have the ability to do good.

<sup>6</sup> There is no one like you, O LORD;
        you are great,
            and your name is great in power.
<sup>7</sup> Who should not fear you, O King of the nations?
        This is what you deserve.
        For among all the wise men of the nations,
        and in all their kingdoms,
            there is no one like you.
<sup>8</sup> But they are both stupid and foolish;
        the instruction of wooden idols is worthless.
<sup>9</sup> They bring finely hammered silver for plating from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz,
        the work of an artisan and the hands of a goldsmith;
        blue and purple for their clothing,
            they are all the work of a skilled craftsmen.
<sup>10</sup> But the LORD is the true God;
        he is the living God and everlasting King.
        The earth trembles at his wrath,
        and the nations cannot withstand his fury.

<sup>11</sup> This is what you should say to them,
        "The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth,
            these will perish from the earth,

- and from under the heavens.
- <sup>12</sup> The LORD made the earth by his power;
he has established the world by his wisdom,
and by his understanding he has stretched out the heavens.
- <sup>13</sup> When his voice thunders,
the rain roars from the heavens.
He causes the clouds to ascend from the ends of the earth;
he makes lightning in the rain,
and brings the wind out of his storehouses.
- <sup>14</sup> Everyone is ignorant and without knowledge.
Every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols,
for his image is bogus;
there is no breath in them.
- <sup>15</sup> They are worthless,
a work of delusion;
in the time of their punishment, they will perish.
- <sup>16</sup> He who is the portion of Jacob is not like these,
for he is the creator of all things.
Israel is the tribe of his inheritance:
the LORD of hosts is his name.
- <sup>17</sup> Gather your possessions in preparation for leaving the land,
O you inhabitants under siege.
- <sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
"Look, I will hurl out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress on them so they may feel it."
- <sup>19</sup> Woe is me because of my injury!
My wound is serious,
but I said, "Truly this is a sickness and I must bear it."
- <sup>20</sup> My tent is destroyed, and all my tent cords are broken.
My children are gone from me,
never to be seen again.
There is none to spread my tent any more,
or to set up my tent curtains.
- <sup>21</sup> For the shepherds are become stupid,
and have not inquired of the LORD.
Therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered.
- <sup>22</sup> Listen, the news is coming,
and a great commotion out of the north country,
to turn the cities of Judah into a wasteland,

a lair of jackals.

<sup>23</sup> O LORD, I know that people do not control their own way;
it is not in mortals who walk to determine their own steps.

<sup>24</sup> O LORD, correct me but with justice;
not in your anger or you will reduce me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup> Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you,
and on the peoples that do not call on your name.

For they have devoured Jacob;
they have devoured and consumed him,
and have laid waste his home.

<sup>2</sup> "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Tell them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: "Cursed is the person who does not obey the words of this covenant,

<sup>4</sup> which I commanded your forefathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace,' saying, 'Obey my voice, and do everything that I command you then you will be my people, and I will be your God,

<sup>5</sup> so that I may keep the promise that I swore to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,'" the very land you have this day.'" Then I answered, and said, "Amen, may it be so, LORD."

<sup>6</sup> The LORD told me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Listen to the words of this covenant, and do them.

<sup>7</sup> For I solemnly warned your forefathers when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, repeatedly warning them, "Obey my voice."

<sup>8</sup> Yet they did not listen or incline their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of their own evil hearts. So I brought on them all the words contained in this covenant which I commanded them to do, but they did not do them."

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "A conspiracy has been exposed among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> They have turned back to the sins of their forefathers, who refused to obey my words. They have pursued other gods and worshipped them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant that I made with their forefathers.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says, 'I will bring disaster on them, which they will not be able to escape. They will cry out to me, but I will not listen to them.

<sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to which they made offerings, but they will never save them in the time of their trouble.

<sup>13</sup> You have as many gods as you have cities, O Judah. You have as many altars devoted to shameful things as you have streets in Jerusalem. There are even altars for burning incense to Baal."

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore do not pray for this people, Jeremiah, or lift up a cry or prayer for them, for I will not listen to them when they cry to me in their trouble.

<sup>15</sup> What right do my beloved people have to be in my house, seeing they have committed such vile deeds?

Can sacrificial meat really spare you of punishment,
when you do evil then celebrate it?"

<sup>16</sup> The LORD called your name, A flourishing olive tree, beautiful with good fruit.

But with the roar of a blazing fire
he will set it on fire, with its branches burned off.

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced disaster against you, because of the evil the house of Israel and Judah have done. They have provoked me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD gave me knowledge of their plots, and I understood it. Then you showed me what they were doing.

<sup>19</sup> But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; and I did not realize that they were devising plans against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living so that his name may be remembered no more."

<sup>20</sup> But, O LORD of hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind,

I will see your vengeance on them,
for I have committed my situation to you.

seek your life, saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hands."

<sup>22</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says, "Look, I will punish them. The young men will die by the sword; their sons and daughters will die by famine.

<sup>23</sup> There will be no survivors, for I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth, in the year of their punishment."

DASV: Jeremiah 12

- <sup>1</sup> You are righteous, O LORD,
when I bring my complaint to you,
so let me bring this case to you.
Why is the way of the wicked prosperous?
Why do all who are dishonest have such cushy lives?
- <sup>2</sup> You have planted them,
they have taken root;
they grow and produce fruit.
You are always on their lips,
but far from their hearts.
- <sup>3</sup> Yet you know me O LORD;
you see me and test my heart's commitment to you.
Drag them away like sheep for the slaughter.
Set them aside for the day of slaughter.
- <sup>4</sup> How long will the land mourn,
and the herbs of the entire countryside wither,
for the wickedness of those who live there?
The birds and animals have been swept away, because they said, "God does not see our destiny."
- <sup>5</sup> "If you have run against human runners and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble in a safe open land, yet how will you do in the thickets along the Jordan River?"
- <sup>6</sup> For even your brothers and family have dealt treacherously with you.
They have cried aloud against you.
Do not believe them
when they say flattering things to you.
- <sup>7</sup> I have forsaken my house,
I have abandoned my heritage;
I have given the beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.
- <sup>8</sup> My heritage has become like a lion in the forest to me.
She has roared against me;
therefore I have hated her.
- <sup>9</sup> Is my heritage like a speckled bird of prey that is surrounded and attacked by vultures?
Go, gather all the wild animals of the field;
bring them to devour my people.

- <sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard;
they have trampled down my portion;
they have made my pleasant vineyard a desolate wilderness.
- <sup>11</sup> They have turned it into a wasteland.
It mourns to me, being desolate.
The whole land is desolate,
because no one really cares.
- <sup>12</sup> Destroyers are come on all the bare hilltops in the wilderness, for the sword of the LORD devours from the one end of the land to the other end.
Nobody will be safe.
- <sup>13</sup> They have planted wheat,
but have reaped thorns.
They have worked themselves to exhaustion,
and have profited nothing.
They will be ashamed of their harvests,
because of the fierce anger of the LORD."
- <sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says against all my evil neighbors, who grab the inheritance which I have given my people Israel to inherit. "Look, I will uproot them from their own land and will uproot the house of Judah from among them.
- <sup>15</sup> After I have uprooted them, I will again have compassion on them; I will bring them back again, each to their own heritage, and every one to their own land.
- <sup>16</sup> If they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear oaths by my name, 'As the LORD lives;' just like they taught my people to swear oaths by Baal; then they will be built up in the midst of my people.
- <sup>17</sup> But if they will not listen, then I will uproot that nation, plucking it up and destroying it," says the LORD.

DASV: Jeremiah 13

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said to me, "Go and buy linen shorts, and put them on your waist, but do not put them in water."

<sup>2</sup> So I bought shorts according to the word of the LORD, and put them on my waist.

<sup>3</sup> The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

<sup>4</sup> "Take the shorts that you have bought, that are on your waist, and get up and go to the Euphrates River, and hide them there in a crevice of the rock."

<sup>5</sup> So I went and hid them by the Euphrates, as the LORD told me to.

<sup>6</sup> After many days, the LORD said to me, "Get up, go to the Euphrates, and retrieve the shorts that I told you to hide there."

<sup>7</sup> So I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and retrieved the shorts from the place where I had hid them. The shorts were ruined, they were good for nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup> "This is what the LORD says,

'In this same way I will ruin the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, that follow the stubbornness of their own heart,
and pursued other gods to serve and worship them,
they will be just like these shorts,
which are good for nothing.

<sup>11</sup> For as the shorts cling to the waist of a person, so I have caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,"

says the LORD.

"so that they would have been a special people to me,
for my fame, honor, and glory.
But they would not listen."

<sup>12</sup> "Therefore you tell them this word: 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, May every jar be filled with wine.' And they will reply, 'Obviously, do you think we don't know that every jar should be filled with wine?'

<sup>13</sup> Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD says, Look, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land with drunkenness--the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> I will slam them against each other, both the parents and the children,'" says the LORD. "I will not let pity, mercy, or compassion deter me from destroying them."

Do not be arrogant,
for the LORD has spoken.

- <sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God, before he causes it to become dark,
and before your feet stumble on the darkening mountains.
While you look for light,
he will turn it into deep darkness and gloom.
- <sup>17</sup> But if you refuse to hear it,
my soul will weep in secret for your pride;
my eyes will weep bitterly with tears streaming, because the LORD's flock will be taken into exile.
- <sup>18</sup> Tell the king and the queen-mother,
"Humble yourselves, take a lowly seat, for your beautiful crowns will fall from your heads."
- <sup>19</sup> The towns of the Negev will be locked down,
and no one will be able to open them.
All Judah will be carried away into exile,
it will be totally carried off into exile.
- <sup>20</sup> Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock?
- <sup>21</sup> What will you say, when the LORD sets as head over you those whom you have enlisted to be your allies?
Will not sorrows take hold of you,
like those of a woman in labor?
- <sup>22</sup> Perhaps you will ask yourself,
'Why have these things happened to me?'
It is because of the greatness of your sin that your skirts will be stripped off, and your genitals violated.
- <sup>23</sup> Can an Ethiopian change his skin,
or the leopard its spots?
How then can you do good,
who are so accustomed to doing evil?
- <sup>24</sup> "I will scatter them, like stubble that is blown away
by the desert wind.
- <sup>25</sup> This is your lot,
the portion measured to you from me,"
says the LORD;
"because you have forgotten me,
and trusted in false idols.
- <sup>26</sup> Therefore I will also pull your skirts up over your face, and your shame will be exposed.

<sup>27</sup> I have seen your abominations, your adulteries and your lustful pursuits,
your shameless prostitution on the hills of the fields.
Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
How long before you are made clean?"

DASV: Jeremiah 14

and her city gates languish.
They lie on the ground in grief;
a cry of distress goes up from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Their nobles send their servants for water.
They come to the cisterns but find no water.
They return with their containers empty.
They are dismayed and humiliated,
and cover their heads.

<sup>4</sup> Because the ground is cracked, because there is no rain in the land,
the farmers also are dismayed,
and cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup> Even the doe in the field forsakes her fawn because there is no grass.

<sup>6</sup> The wild donkeys stand on the bare hilltops, they pant for breath like jackals;
their eyes fail because there is no vegetation.

<sup>7</sup> Though our sins testify against us, get involved for your name's sake, O LORD;
for our backslidings are many;
we have sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup> O hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why are you like a stranger in the land?
Why are you like a traveler who turns in for just one night?

<sup>9</sup> Why should you be like a person startled, like a mighty warrior who cannot save?
Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name.
Do not abandon us."

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD says to this people,
"Even still they love to go astray;
they have not refrained their feet.
Therefore the LORD does not accept them;
now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish their sins."

<sup>12</sup> Even though they fast, I will not hear their cry; when they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead I will consume them by the sword, famine, and pestilence."

<sup>13</sup> Then I said, "Ah, sovereign LORD! The prophets tell them, 'You will not see the sword, or experience a famine; but I will give you a guarantee of peace in this place.'"

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name. I did not send them, nor have I commanded them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a phony vision, worthless revelations, and the deceptions of their own hearts.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, who I have not sent, yet they say, 'Sword and famine will not come on this land.' Those prophets themselves will be consumed by sword and famine.

<sup>16</sup> The people to whom they prophesy will be cast out into the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and the sword. They will have no one to bury them -- including their wives, their sons, and their daughters. I will pour their wickedness upon them.

<sup>17</sup> Tell them this message,

'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day,
and let them not cease;
for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach,
with a very grievous wound.

<sup>18</sup> If I go out into the field, look, those slain by the sword!
If I enter into the city, look, those who are sick from famine!
For both the prophet and the priest go around in the land, having no knowledge."

<sup>19</sup> Have you completely rejected Judah?

Do you really detest Zion?

Why have you smitten us with no chance of healing?

We looked for peace, but no good came of it;
for a time of healing, but found only terror!

<sup>20</sup> We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the wrongs of our forefathers,

for we too have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup> Do not despise us, for your name's sake;
do not disgrace the throne of your glory.

Remember and do not break your covenant with us.

Can the heavens themselves give showers?

Is it not from you, O LORD our God?

Therefore we will hope in you, because you do all these things.

DASV: Jeremiah 15

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me, my heart would not turn toward this people. Get them out of my sight, and get them out of here.

<sup>2</sup> When they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD says,

Those destined for death, to death;
those destined for the sword, to the sword;
those destined for the famine, to the famine;
and those destined for captivity, to captivity."

<sup>3</sup> "I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers," says the LORD, "the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth to devour and to destroy.

<sup>4</sup> I will make them an object of horror among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of what Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Who will grieve for you?
Who will even turn to ask how you are doing?

<sup>6</sup> You have rejected me," says the LORD,
"you have gone back on me.
Therefore I have stretched out my hand against you,
and destroyed you.

I am tired of giving you another chance.

<sup>7</sup> I will winnow them with a winnowing fork in the gates of the land;
I will bereave them of their children,
I will destroy my people,
for they did not turn from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> Their widows will be to me more numerous than the sand of the seas.
I will bring against the mother of their young men a destroyer at noon.

I will cause anguish and terrors to fall on them suddenly.

<sup>9</sup> She who has borne seven will grow weak;
she will gasp for her last breath.
Her sun will go down while it is yet day;
she will be put to shame and disgrace.
Any survivors I will deliver to the sword before their enemies," says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> Woe is me, my mother, that you ever gave me birth, a man of strife and a man arguing with the whole earth!
I have not lent to anyone,

nor have I borrowed from anyone;
yet all of them curse me.

- <sup>11</sup> The LORD said,
"Surely I will keep you free for good;
surely I will cause the enemy to plead with you in the time of disaster and affliction.
- <sup>12</sup> Can one break iron, especially iron from the north or bronze?
- <sup>13</sup> Your substance and your treasures I will give for plunder, free of charge for all your sins,
even in all your territory.
- <sup>14</sup> I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for a fire is kindled in my anger that will burn against you."
- <sup>15</sup> O LORD, you know my situation;
remember me and visit me.
Avenge me on those who have persecuted me.
Do not take me away in light of your patience.
Know that for your sake I have suffered insults.
- <sup>16</sup> When your words were found, I ate them;
they were my joy
and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts.
- <sup>17</sup> I did not sit in the company partiers, and laugh;
I sat alone because of your hand;
you have filled me with indignation.
- <sup>18</sup> Why is my pain perpetual,
and my wound incurable,
unable to be healed?
You are like a deceitful brook to me, like springs that have dried up.
- <sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says,
"If you return, then I will bring you back again
so that you may stand before me.
If you speak what is valuable and not what is worthless,
you will be like my mouth.
They will turn to you,
but you should not turn to them.
- <sup>20</sup> I will make you to this people like a fortified bronze wall;
they will fight against you,

but they will not prevail against you,
for I am with you to save and rescue you," says the LORD.
<sup>21</sup> "I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the grip of the ruthless."

DASV: Jeremiah 16

<sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning the sons and daughters that have been born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and their fathers that fathered them in this land:

<sup>4</sup> "They will die of deadly diseases. No one will grieve for them. They will not be buried but will be like manure spread on the surface of the ground. They will be consumed by the sword and famine. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the earth."

<sup>5</sup> For this is what the LORD says, "Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament, or grieve for them, for I have taken away my peace from this people," says the LORD, "even my loyal love and compassion."

<sup>6</sup> Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried. No one will lament for them or cut themselves for them, or shave their heads for them.

<sup>7</sup> No one will bring food to those who are in mourning in order to comfort them for the dead. No one will give them the cup to drink in order to console them for the loss of their father or mother."

<sup>9</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says, "Before your eyes and in your lifetime, I will eliminate from this place the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bride and bridegroom."

<sup>10</sup> When you will show this people all these words, they will ask you, 'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?'

<sup>11</sup> Then tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says the LORD, 'and have followed after other gods, and have served and worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law.'

<sup>12</sup> You have done more evil than your forefathers did. Each one of you walks after the stubbornness of your own evil heart, refusing to listen to me.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore I will throw you out of this land into the land that neither you nor your forefathers have known. There you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor."

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that it will no longer be said, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the Israelites out of the land of Egypt;'

<sup>15</sup> but rather, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the Israelites from the land of the north, and from all the countries to which he had exiled them.' For I will bring them back again into their land that I gave to their forefathers."

<sup>16</sup> "I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they will catch them. Then after that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down from every mountain and hill, and out of the caves in the rocks.

<sup>17</sup> For my eyes are on all their ways. They are not hid from my face, and their sin is not concealed from my eyes.

<sup>18</sup> First I will repay double their iniquity and sin, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

<sup>19</sup> O LORD, my strength, and my stronghold, my refuge in the day of trouble, to you the nations will come from the ends of the earth, and confess,
"Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies,
worthless idols which were of no use at all.

<sup>20</sup> Will humans make for themselves gods?
These are not really gods at all?"

<sup>21</sup> "Therefore, I will have them know, this time I will make them realize my hand and my might.
Then they will acknowledge that my name is the LORD."

DASV: Jeremiah 17

- <sup>1</sup> "The sin of Judah is written with an iron implement, and inscribed with the point of a diamond on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of their altars.
- <sup>2</sup> Even their children think about their altars and their Asherim
by the green trees on the high hills,
- <sup>3</sup> on the mountains and in the open fields.
I will give your wealth and all your treasures for plunder, including your high places,
because of the sin that permeates all your territory.
- <sup>4</sup> You yourself will lose your heritage that I gave you;
I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land that you do not know.
For you have kindled a fire in my anger that will burn forever.
- <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, and makes human flesh his strength,
and whose heart turns away from the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> For he will be like a bush in the desert, and will not see good even when it comes,
but will inhabit parched places in the desert,
an uninhabited salt land.
- <sup>7</sup> Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
and whose confidence is the LORD.
- <sup>8</sup> That one will be like a tree planted by the waters,
that spreads out its roots by the river.
It will not fear when heat comes,
but its leaf will remain green.
It will not be concerned in the year of drought;
it will not fail to produce fruit.
- <sup>9</sup> The heart is deceitful above all things, and incurably sick.
Who can understand it?
- <sup>10</sup> I, the LORD, search the mind,
and test the heart,
to give everyone according to their ways,
according to the fruit of their actions.

- <sup>11</sup> As the partridge that sits on eggs she did not lay,
so is one who gets riches unjustly.
In mid-life they will desert him, and at the end of his life he will be a fool."
- <sup>12</sup> A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning,
so is the place of our sanctuary.
- <sup>13</sup> O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be put to shame.
They who depart from you will be recorded in the dust,
because they have forsaken the LORD,
the fountain of living water.
- <sup>14</sup> Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for you are my praise.
- <sup>15</sup> See how they say to me,
"Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it happen now."
- <sup>16</sup> As for me, I have not hurried away from being your shepherd;
neither have I desired the day of disaster.
You know everything that came from my lips,
it was before your face.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not be a terror to me;
you are my refuge in the day of disaster.
- <sup>18</sup> Let them be put to shame who persecute me, but may I not be put to shame.
Let them be dismayed,
but may I not be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of disaster, and destroy them with double destruction.
- <sup>19</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: "Go, and stand in the gate of the people, by which the kings of Judah enter and leave, and in all the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>20</sup> Tell them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.
- <sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD says, 'Be careful not to carry a load of goods on the Sabbath day or bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>22</sup> Do not carry a load of goods out of your houses on the Sabbath or do any work.
But keep the Sabbath holy, as I commanded your forefathers.
- <sup>23</sup> But they did not listen or pay attention, but became stiff necked, and refused to listen, or receive instruction.

<sup>24</sup> If you listen carefully to me," says the LORD, "and do not bring any load of goods through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath holy, by not doing any work on it;

<sup>25</sup> then kings and princes sitting on the throne of David will enter in by the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses--they, their officials, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. This city will remain forever.

<sup>26</sup> They will come from the towns of Judah and places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, and from the Shephelah western foothills and the hill-country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, frankincense, and thank offerings to the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> But if you will not listen to me to keep the Sabbath holy, and not carry loads of goods entering at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath, then I will kindle a fire in its gates and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem and it will not be extinguished."

DASV: Jeremiah 18

<sup>2</sup> "Get up and go down to the potter's house, and I will tell you my message there."
<sup>3</sup> So I went down to the potter's house, where he was working at his wheel.
<sup>4</sup> When the pot that he was molding was spoiled in the hand of the potter, he reworked it into another pot, that was more to the potter's liking.

<sup>5</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>6</sup> "O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter did?" says the LORD.
"Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so you are in my hand, O house of Israel.
<sup>7</sup> Sometimes I may announce concerning a nation or a kingdom, to uproot, tear down or destroy it.

<sup>8</sup> But if that nation, concerning which I have announced, turns from their evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I was intending to do to it.
<sup>9</sup> Sometimes I may announce concerning a nation or kingdom, to build and plant it.

<sup>10</sup> But if they do what is evil in my sight, refusing to obey my voice, then I will change my mind about the good I was intending to do to it.

<sup>11</sup> Now tell the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says:

I am preparing a disaster against you,
and devising a plan against you.
So turn now everyone from his evil way,
and improve your ways and your actions.'

<sup>12</sup> But they will say, 'It is useless; for we want to follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of our own evil hearts.'"

<sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:

"Ask now among the nations:
Who has ever heard of such a thing?

The virgin of Israel has done a horrendous thing.

Do the cold waters that flow down from those distant mountains ever dry up?

<sup>15</sup> But my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods;
they have been made to stumble in their ways,
in the ancient roads,
to walk in paths on trails that are not even built.

<sup>16</sup> Their land will become desolate, a thing resulting in perpetual scornful hissing;
everyone who passes by will be astounded and shake their head in disgust.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them before their enemy like an east wind;
I will show them my back and not my face,
in the day of their calamity."

<sup>18</sup> Then they replied, "Come, and let us devise plots against Jeremiah; for the law will not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us bring charges against him, and let us ignore all of his words."

<sup>19</sup> Pay attention to me, O LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

<sup>20</sup> Will evil be repaid for good?
Yet they have dug a pit for my life.
Remember how I stood before you pleading on their behalf, to turn your wrath away from them.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore give their children up to famine;
turn them over to be cut down by the sword.
Let their wives become childless and widows;
let their adults die from the plague, and their young men be killed by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let screams be heard from their houses
when you bring raiders suddenly upon them, for they have dug a pit to trap me and hid snares for my feet.

<sup>23</sup> Yet, you know, O LORD, all their plots to kill me.
Do not forgive their iniquity, or blot out their sin from your sight;
let them be overthrown before you.
Deal with them while you are angry.

DASV: Jeremiah 19

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says, "Go and buy a potter's clay jar, and take some of the elders of the people and priests.

<sup>2</sup> Go out into the Ben Hinnom Valley, through the entrance of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I will tell you.

<sup>3</sup> Say, "Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, 'I will bring disaster on this place that will make the ears of whoever hears it tingle.

<sup>4</sup> Because they have forsaken me, and have defiled this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, which neither they, nor their fathers or kings of Judah have known, they have filled this place with the blood of innocent children.

<sup>5</sup> They have built the high places to Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal. I never commanded or told them to do that, in fact, such a thing never even crossed my mind."

<sup>6</sup> "So the days will come," says the LORD, "this place will no more be called Topheth, nor The Ben Hinnom Valley, but The Valley of Slaughter.

<sup>7</sup> For I will thwart the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. Their dead bodies I will give as food for the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>8</sup> I will make this city an object of astonishment, and a place of ridicule; every one that passes by will be astonished and ridicule it because of all its disasters.

<sup>9</sup> I will cause them to eat the flesh of their own sons and daughters. Everyone will eat the flesh of his friend, in the siege and distress by which their enemies and those who seek their lives will afflict them."

<sup>10</sup> Now smash the clay jar in the sight of the those who are with you,

<sup>11</sup> and tell them, "This is what the LORD of hosts says, Just like this I will shatter this people and this city, as one shatters a potter's vessel, so that it is impossible to repair. So they will bury people in Topheth until there be no place left to bury them.

<sup>12</sup> This is what I will do to this place," says the LORD, "and to its inhabitants, even making this city a garbage dump like Topheth.

<sup>13</sup> The houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, will be like Topheth, even all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense to all the stars of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods."

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people:

<sup>15</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, 'I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the disaster that I have pronounced against it, because they have stubbornly stiffened their neck refusing to listen to my words.'"

DASV: Jeremiah 20

<sup>1</sup> Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

<sup>2</sup> Then Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were at the upper Benjamin Gate, which was in the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> The next day when Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD has not called you 'Pashhur,' but 'Terror on every side.'

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says, 'I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies and your eyes will see it. I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive to Babylon or kill them with the sword.

<sup>5</sup> I will give all the wealth of this city, all its produce and all its precious jewels, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies. They will seize it as plunder and carry it off with them to Babylon.

<sup>6</sup> You, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied falsely."

<sup>7</sup> O LORD, you have intimidated me, and I was intimidated,
for you are stronger than I am,
and you have prevailed.
I have become a laughingstock all the day;
everyone mocks me.

<sup>8</sup> For whenever I speak, I have to cry out;
I have to proclaim, "Violence and destruction!"
The word of the LORD has made me an object of insult and derision all the day long.

<sup>9</sup> If I say, "I will not make mention of him, or speak any more in his name,"
then his word becomes in my heart like a burning fire locked up in my bones.
I am exhausted trying to hold it in;
truly, I cannot contain it.

<sup>10</sup> For I have heard the slanderous whispering of many,
"Terror on every side,
denounce him,
let us denounce him,"
so say all my close friends.

They expectantly hope for my downfall, saying,
"Perhaps he can be trapped,
and we can prevail against him,

then we can get our revenge on him."

- <sup>11</sup> But the LORD is with me as a dreaded warrior;
therefore my persecutors will stumble,
and they will not prevail.
They will be put to absolute shame, because they did not succeed;
an everlasting dishonor
that will never be forgotten.
- <sup>12</sup> But, O LORD of hosts, you test the righteous, you see into the heart and mind.
Let me see your vengeance on them;
for to you I have committed my cause.
- <sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD;
he has rescued the life of the needy from the hand of evildoers.
- <sup>14</sup> Cursed be the day on which I was born;
let not the day when my mother bore me be blessed.
- <sup>15</sup> Cursed be the man who announced to my father,
"It's a baby boy,"
making him very glad.
- <sup>16</sup> Let that man be like the cities that the LORD overthrew without mercy.
Let him hear a cry in the morning,
and battle cry at noon,
- <sup>17</sup> because he did not kill me in the womb;
and so my mother would have been my grave,
and her womb pregnant forever.
- <sup>18</sup> Why did I come out of the womb
just to see toil and sorrow, and spend my days in shame?

DASV: Jeremiah 21

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent Pashhur the son of Malchiah and the priest Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah to him, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Please inquire of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us. Perhaps the LORD will perform one of his wonderful works for us so that he may withdraw from attacking us."

<sup>4</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, I will make your weapons of war that you are using to fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls, ineffective in your hands. I will gather those troops right in the middle of this city.

<sup>5</sup> I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a mighty arm, in anger, fury, and great rage.

<sup>6</sup> I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both human and animals. They will die of a horrible plague."

<sup>7</sup> "Afterward," says the LORD, "I will deliver up Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people who are left in this city from the plague, the sword, and famine. I will give them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, their enemies, and to those seeking their lives. He will strike them down with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them, or have pity or compassion on them."

<sup>9</sup> The one who stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague; those who go out and surrender to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live, and will at least escape with their lives as booty."

<sup>10</sup> "For I have set my face against this city to bring disaster and not good," says the LORD. "It will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire."

<sup>11</sup> To the house of the king of Judah,

"Listen to the word of LORD:

<sup>12</sup> O house of David, this is what the LORD says,

Execute justice in the morning.

Deliver those who are robbed from their oppressors,
or my wrath will flare up like fire, and burn so that no one will be able to extinguish it,

because of your evil actions.

<sup>13</sup> I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley,

O rock of the plain," says the LORD.

You who ask, 'Who can come down against us?

Who can break into our refuge?'

<sup>14</sup> I will punish you according to the fruit of your actions,"
says the LORD.

"I will kindle a fire in your forests, and it will devour everything around you."

DASV: Jeremiah 22

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word there, <sup>2</sup> say: Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David-- you, your servants, and your people who enter by these gates.

Execute justice and righteousness.

Deliver those who are robbed from their oppressors.

Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, fatherless, or the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place.

<sup>4</sup> For if you do this then there will enter through the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses,--he, his servants, and his people.

<sup>5</sup> But if you refuse to obey these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house will become a heap of rubble."

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning the house of the king of Judah:

"You are like Gilead to me,
and the heights of Lebanon;
yet I swear I will make you a desert, whose towns are uninhabited.

<sup>7</sup> I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons;
they will cut down your choice cedars, and throw them into the fire."

<sup>8</sup> Many nations will pass by this city, and they will ask each other, "Why has the LORD done this to this great city?"

<sup>9</sup> Then they will reply, "Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them."

<sup>10</sup> Do not weep for the dead king, neither grieve for him;
but weep bitterly for the one who goes away;
for that one will never return,
or ever see his native country again.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning Shallum [Jehoahaz] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who was exiled from this place: "He will never return here.

<sup>12</sup> But in the place where they have led him captive, there he will die, and he will never see this land again."

- <sup>13</sup> "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms by injustice,
who uses forced labor,
and gives his workers no wages for their labor.
- <sup>14</sup> Who brags, 'I will build a large palace with spacious upper rooms.
He cuts out windows and panels it with cedar,
and paints it red.
- <sup>15</sup> Were you made king, because you have the most cedar?
Did not your father have enough to eat and drink?
Yet he did what was just and right.
That is why it went well for him.
- <sup>16</sup> He judged the cause of the poor and needy, then it was well.
Is not this what it is to know me? says the LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> But your eyes and your heart only think about dishonest gain, shedding innocent blood, imposing oppression and committing violence."
- <sup>18</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:
"They will not lament for him, saying,
'Too bad for my brother!'
or, 'Too bad for my sister!'
They will not lament for him, saying,
'Too bad for my lord!'
or, 'Too bad for his majesty!'
- <sup>19</sup> He will be buried with the burial of a donkey, dragged off and dumped outside the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>20</sup> Go up to Lebanon, and cry;
lift up your voice in Bashan,
and cry from Abarim,
for all your lovers are crushed.
- <sup>21</sup> I warned you in your prosperity,
but you said, 'I will not listen.'
This has been your response from your youth, for you have not obeyed my voice.
- <sup>22</sup> The wind will feed all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into exile.
Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated from all your wickedness.
- <sup>23</sup> O inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars,

how greatly you will groan
when the pains of punishment come on you, pain like a woman in labor!"

<sup>24</sup> "As I live," swears the LORD, "even if Jehoiachin the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet ring on my right hand, I would pull you off from there.

<sup>25</sup> I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those you are afraid of, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

<sup>26</sup> I will throw you and your mother who bore you out into another country, where you were not born and there you will die.

Is he a pot no one wants?

Why are he and his descendants thrown out, cast into the land that they do not know?

<sup>29</sup> O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD:

<sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"Record this man childless,
a man who will not be successful in his lifetime;
for none of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David, or rule over Judah."

<sup>2</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds that rule my people: "You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not taken care of them. So I will take care of you for your evil actions," says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> "I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them back again to their folds. There they will be fruitful and multiply.

<sup>4</sup> I will set up shepherds over them, who will take care of them; they will not be afraid anymore or terrified. None of them will be missing," says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> "The days are coming," says the LORD,
     "that I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he will reign as king
     and will act with wisdom, justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6</sup> In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell in safety;
     and this is his name by which he will be called:
     'The LORD is our righteousness.'"

<sup>7</sup> "So, look, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that they will no more say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.'

<sup>8</sup> But instead, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up and who led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had exiled them. Then they will live in their own land.'"

     My heart is broken within me,
         all my bones shake;
     I am like a drunken person,
         and like a person overcome with wine,
     because of the LORD,
         and because of his holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers;
     for because of the curse the land mourns;
     the pastures of the wilderness are dried up.

    For the course on which they run is evil,
     and they use their power abusively;
<sup>11</sup> for both prophet and priest are ungodly;
     even in my house I have found their wickedness,"

says the LORD.

- <sup>12</sup> "Therefore their paths will be like slippery places in the darkness.
They will be chased and fall there.
For I will bring disaster on them, even in the year of their punishment," says the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> "I have seen something disgusting among the prophets of Samaria:
They prophesied by Baal,
and led my people Israel astray.
- <sup>14</sup> Among the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen something horrible:
They commit adultery and walk in lies;
they strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that no one turns from his wickedness.
They have all become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah."
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says concerning the prophets:
"I will feed them with bitterness, and make them drink poison.
For it is from the prophets of Jerusalem that ungodliness has spread through the entire land."
- <sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says,
"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They fill you with empty delusions.
They speak visions from their own heart,
and not from the mouth of the LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> They say continually to those who despise me,
'The LORD has said, You will have peace.'
To everyone who follows their own stubborn heart, they say,
'No harm will happen to you.'
- <sup>18</sup> For who has stood in the council of the LORD that he should perceive and hear his word?
Who has paid attention to my word and listened to it?
- <sup>19</sup> Look, the LORD's wrath will sweep in like a storm.
Like a raging tempest it will swirl down on the head of the wicked.
- <sup>20</sup> The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed
and performed the purposes of his heart.
In the latter days you will understand it clearly.
- <sup>21</sup> I did not send these prophets,
yet they ran around claiming to have a message.
I did not speak to them,

yet they prophesied.

<sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people,
and they would have turned them from their evil way and from their evil actions."

<sup>23</sup> "Am I only a God nearby," says the LORD,
"and not also a God afar away?"

<sup>24</sup> "Can anyone hide in secret places so that I will not see him?" says the LORD.
"Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> "I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, claiming, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed.'

<sup>26</sup> How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, who prophesy the fantasies of their own minds?

<sup>27</sup> They intend to make my people forget my name by their dreams which they tell each other, just as when their forefathers forgot my name because of Baal.

<sup>28</sup> The prophet that has a dream, let him tell a dream. Let the one who has my word, speak my word faithfully. What does straw have in common with wheat?"
says the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> "Is not my word like fire?" says the LORD, "and like a hammer that smashes a rock in pieces?"

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore, I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal my words from each other."

<sup>31</sup> "I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who use their tongues, and claim,
'The LORD says.'

<sup>32</sup> I am against those who prophesy lying dreams," says the LORD, "and report them, and lead my people to astray by their lies and recklessness. Yet I did not send them, or commission them, so they are of no benefit to this people at all,"
says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> When this people, prophet, or priest, asks you, "What is the burden message of the LORD?" Then tell them, "You are the burden and I will cast you off," says the LORD."

<sup>34</sup> As for the prophet, priest, or people, who says, "The burden message of the LORD," I will punish that person and their family.

<sup>35</sup> This is what each of you shall ask their neighbor and relative, "What did the LORD answer?" and, "What did the LORD say?"

is what he is claiming is his burden. This is how you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts, our God.

<sup>37</sup> This is what you will say to the prophet, "What did the LORD answer you?" and, "What did the LORD say?"

<sup>38</sup> But if you claim, "The burden message of the LORD." This is what the LORD actually says: "You say this phrase, 'The burden message of the LORD,' even though I told you, "You should not say, 'The burden of the LORD.'"

<sup>39</sup> Therefore, I will absolutely forget you and I will cast you from my presence, including the city that I gave to you and your forefathers.

<sup>40</sup> I will bring everlasting disgrace on you and perpetual shame, which will never be forgotten."

DASV: Jeremiah 24

<sup>1</sup> The LORD showed me two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jehoiachin the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah, along with the craftsmen and metal workers from Jerusalem, and brought them to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, that were so bad they could not be eaten.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I replied, "Figs, the good figs, look very good; and the bad ones look very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten."

<sup>4</sup> The word of LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: Like these good figs, so I will regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans. These I consider good.

<sup>6</sup> For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back again to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down. I will plant them, and not uproot them.

<sup>7</sup> I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with their whole heart."

<sup>8</sup> Now concerning the bad figs, which were so bad they cannot be eaten, this is what the LORD says, "This is the way I will treat Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his officials, and those left in Jerusalem, who remain in this land, as well as those who live in the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth; a reproach and an epithet, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them.

<sup>10</sup> I will send the sword, famine, and the plague among them until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their forefathers."

DASV: Jeremiah 25

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. It was the same as the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

<sup>3</sup> "For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me. I have spoken to you repeatedly, but you have not listened.

<sup>5</sup> They said, 'Turn now everyone from his evil way, from the evil actions, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your forefathers forever and forever.

<sup>6</sup> Do not go after other gods to serve or worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands, then I will do you no harm."

<sup>7</sup> "Yet you have not listened to me," says the LORD, "you have provoked me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm."

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts says: "Because you have not listened to my words, <sup>9</sup> I will send and gather all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, led by Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all the surrounding nations. I will utterly destroy them and make them an object of horror, a hissing ridicule, and a perpetual ruin.

<sup>10</sup> Moreover I will remove from them the voice of laughter and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the bride, the sound of the millstones and the night lights of the lamps in their homes.

<sup>11</sup> This whole land will become a desolate wasteland and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup> When seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, because of their iniquity," says the LORD, "I will make the land of the Chaldeans desolate forever.

<sup>13</sup> I will bring on that land all my words that I have pronounced against it, everything that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.

<sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings will enslave them, and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the work of their hands."

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to me: "Take this cup of the wine of wrath from my hand and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

<sup>16</sup> They will drink, stagger, and then go crazy, because of the sword that I will send among them."

<sup>17</sup> So I took the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD had sent me drink it:

<sup>18</sup> Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings and officials, to make them a desolation, an object of horror, a hissing ridicule, and a curse, as it is this day;

<sup>20</sup> along with all the foreigners there, and all the kings of the land of Uz; and all the kings of the Philistines, that is, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

<sup>22</sup> as well as all the kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the kings of the coastland which is across the sea;

<sup>23</sup> Dedan, Tema, and Buz, and all those who are in distant regions;

<sup>24</sup> all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the various groups that live in the desert;

<sup>26</sup> and all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another; in short, all the kingdoms of the world that are upon the face of the earth. Finally, even the king of Sheshach will drink.

<sup>27</sup> "You will say to them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: Drink, get drunk, and vomit, then fall and rise no more, because of the sword that I will send among you.'

<sup>28</sup> But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you will say to them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: You have to drink it.

<sup>29</sup> For, look, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name. How then can you avoid being punished? You will not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth,'" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them,

"The LORD will roar from on high,
and utter his voice from his holy habitation;
he will roar mightily against his fold;
he will give a shout,
as they that tread grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> A clamor will resound to the ends of the earth;
for the LORD has a controversy with the nations.

He will enter into judgment with all flesh;
as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword," says the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says,

"Look, disaster will spread from nation to nation, and a tremendous storm will arise from the distant regions of the earth."

<sup>33</sup> Those slain by the LORD on that day will be from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be grieved over, or gathered, or buried. They will be like manure spread on the face of the ground.

<sup>34</sup> Wail, you shepherds, and cry;
wallow in ashes, you leaders of the flock;
for the days of your slaughter have fully come and you will fall like precious pottery.

<sup>35</sup> The shepherds will have nowhere to flee to, or the leaders of the flock to escape to.

<sup>36</sup> A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the leaders of the flock,
for the LORD is laying waste their pasture.

<sup>37</sup> The peaceable dwellings will be laid waste
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>38</sup> Like a lion he has come out of his lair;
for their land is become a wasteland,
because of the fierceness of the oppressor's sword,
and because of his fierce anger.

DASV: Jeremiah 26

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD says: 'Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, that come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not miss a single word.

<sup>3</sup> It may be they will listen, and each one turn from his evil way; then I may change my mind about the disaster that I planned to do to them because of the evil they have been doing.'

<sup>4</sup> You will say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, that I have set before you,

<sup>5</sup> to pay attention to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have repeatedly sent to you--but you have not listened to them--

<sup>6</sup> then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city to be used by all the nations of the earth as a curse.'"

<sup>7</sup> Then the priests, prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> When Jeremiah finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to all the people, the priests, prophets then all the people seized him, saying, "You should surely die.

<sup>9</sup> Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying,

'This house will be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?'"

So all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD; and they sat in the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.

<sup>13</sup> Now therefore improve your ways and actions, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will change his mind about the disaster that he has pronounced against you.

<sup>15</sup> Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, this city, and on its inhabitants; for, in fact, the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets: "This man does not deserve to die, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

<sup>17</sup> Then there arose some of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

<sup>18</sup> "Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says:
Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins,
and the Temple Mount like a hill overgrown with brush.'

<sup>19</sup> Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD, and entreat the favor of the LORD, and the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he had announced against them? So should we commit this great harm against ourselves."

<sup>20</sup> Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land using the same words that Jeremiah has used.

<sup>21</sup> When King Jehoiakim with all his mighty warriors, and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, fled, and went to Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and some men with him to Egypt.

<sup>23</sup> They brought back Uriah out of Egypt, and presented him to King Jehoiakim, who killed him with the sword, and threw his corpse into the burial place of the common people.

<sup>24</sup> But Ahikam the son of Shaphan helped Jeremiah, so that they would not give him into the hand of the people in order to put him to death.

DASV: Jeremiah 27

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD said to me: Make a yoke of leather straps and wooden crossbars, and put them on your neck.

<sup>4</sup> Give them a message for their masters, saying, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, This is what you will tell your masters:

<sup>5</sup> I have made the earth, people and animals that are on the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and I give it to whomever I want.

<sup>6</sup> Now I have given all these lands to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; as well as the wild animals of the field to serve him.

<sup>7</sup> All the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes to an end. Then many nations and great kings will make him their slave.

<sup>8</sup> The nation and the kingdom which will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that nation, says the LORD, with the sword, famine, and plague, until I have consumed them by his hand.

<sup>9</sup> But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, diviners, dreams, soothsayers, or your sorcerers, that speak to you, saying, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon.'

<sup>10</sup> For they prophesy lies to you, that will result in removing you far from your land, so that I should drive you out and you will perish.

<sup>11</sup> But the nation that will bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will allow to remain in their own land," says the LORD, "and they will farm it and live there."

<sup>12</sup> I told King Zedekiah of Judah all these same words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people and live.

<sup>13</sup> Why would you want to die, you and your people, by the sword, famine, and plague, as the LORD has spoken concerning the nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon?

<sup>14</sup> Do not listen to the words of the prophets who claim, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying a lie to you.

<sup>15</sup> 'For I have not sent them,' says the LORD, 'but they are prophesying lies in my name; resulting in my driving you out and you will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.'"

<sup>16</sup> I also spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying,

'Look, the sacred vessels of the LORD's house will be brought back again from Babylon soon,' for they are prophesying a lie to you.

<sup>17</sup> Do not listen to them, rather serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a ruin?

<sup>18</sup> But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the sacred vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem not go to Babylon.

<sup>20</sup> which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he exiled Jehoiachin the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> Yes, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, concerning the sacred vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem:

<sup>22</sup> 'They will be carried to Babylon. They will stay there, until the day that I punish them,' says the LORD, 'then will I bring them back, and restore them to this place.'"

DASV: Jeremiah 28

<sup>1</sup> The same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year of his reign, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

<sup>3</sup> Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the sacred vessels of LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from this place and carried off to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> I will bring back to this place Jehoiachin the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who were exiled to Babylon,' says the LORD; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and all the people who stood in the house of LORD.

<sup>6</sup> The prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: may the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill your words which you have prophesied, to bring back to this place the sacred vessels of LORD's house and all those carried off into exile to Babylon.

<sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, listen now to this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people:

<sup>8</sup> The prophets who have been long before you and me prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms, about war, disaster, and plague.

<sup>9</sup> The prophet who prophesied about peace, when the word of the prophet comes true, then it can be determined that the LORD has truly sent that prophet."

<sup>11</sup> Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "This is what the LORD says: Just like this I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two years from off the neck of all the nations." Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke taking it off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>13</sup> "Go, tell Hananiah, "This is what the LORD says: You have broken a yoke of wood; but you get an iron yoke in its place.

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, so that they will serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him and I have even given him the animals of the field."

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you; but you are making this people to trust in a lie.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says, I will send you off the face of the earth. This year you will die, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD."

<sup>17</sup> So Hananiah the prophet died that same year in the seventh month.

DASV: Jeremiah 29

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders in exile, and to priests, prophets, and all the people, Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>3</sup> The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah had sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. The letter said:

<sup>4</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to all the exiles, whom I had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon:

<sup>5</sup>     Build houses,
                  and live in them;
           plant gardens,
                  and eat their produce.

          and have sons and daughters;
take wives for your sons,
          and give your daughters to husbands, that they may have sons and daughters;
          multiply there,
          and do not decrease.

<sup>7</sup> Seek the welfare of the city where I have had you carried away as exiles, and pray to the LORD for it;
      for when it prospers,
          you also will prosper."

<sup>8</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: "Let not your prophets and diviners that are in your midst, deceive you; do not listen to the dreams you are prompting them to dream.

<sup>9</sup> They prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them," says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> For this is what the LORD says, "After seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you, and fulfill my promise to you by bringing you back to this place.

<sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you," says the LORD, "plans to prosper you, and not to harm you, to give you a future and a hope.

<sup>12</sup> You will call on me and you will come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

<sup>13</sup> You will seek me and find me, when you search for me with all your heart.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will be found by you," says the LORD, "and I will restore your fortunes and regather you from all the nations, and from all the places I have exiled you," says the LORD; "and I will bring you back to the place from where I exiled you into captivity."

<sup>15</sup> Because you claim, "The LORD has raised up prophets in Babylon for us."

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and all the people that live in this city, your relatives who have not gone with you into exile:

<sup>17</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says, "I will send on them the sword, famine, and plague, and will make them like rotten figs, that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

<sup>18</sup> I will pursue after them with the sword, famine, and plague, and I will make the kingdoms of the earth appalled at what happens to them. They will be used when people want to curse others, a terror, an object of ridicule hissing and contempt among all the nations where I have driven them.

<sup>19</sup> For they have not listened to my words," says the LORD, "when I repeatedly sent to them my servants the prophets, but you would not listen," says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> So listen to the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have deported from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: "I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he will kill them before your eyes.

<sup>22</sup> Their situation will be taken up as a curse by all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, 'May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.'

<sup>23</sup> For they have preformed folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lies in my name, which I never ordered them to say. I am aware of what they have done and am a witness to it," says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says, You have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

<sup>26</sup> 'The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, so that there may be officers in the house of the LORD, so that anyone who acts crazy and pretends to be a prophet you should put in the stocks with an iron neck-collar.'

<sup>27</sup> Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who pretends to be your prophet?

<sup>28</sup> He has sent a message to us in Babylon, saying, 'The exile will last a long time.

Build houses,
and live in them;
plant gardens,
and eat their produce.'"

<sup>30</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>31</sup> Send to all the exiles, saying, "This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite. Since Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup> therefore this is what the LORD says, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his descendants. None of his descendants will live among this people, nor will he see the good that I will do to my people," says the LORD, "because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD."

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says, 'Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book.

<sup>3</sup> For the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD. 'I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their forefathers and they will possess it.'"

<sup>4</sup> These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.

<sup>5</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

"We have heard cries of terror,
fear, and not peace.

<sup>6</sup> Ask now, and see:

Can a man give birth to a child?

Why do I see every man with his hands holding his stomach,
like a woman in labor,
and all faces have turned pale?

<sup>7</sup> Alas, that day is so great that there has never been one like it.

It is the time of Jacob's trouble;
but he will be saved out of it."

<sup>8</sup> "In that day," says the LORD of hosts,

"I will break the oppressor's yoke from off your neck,
and will snap your bonds.

Foreigners will no more make him their slave.

<sup>9</sup> But they will serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up for them."

<sup>10</sup> "Therefore do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant,"

says the LORD,

"do not be dismayed, O Israel,
for I will save you from a land far off,
and your seed from the land of their exile;
and Jacob will return,
and will enjoy peace and quiet,
and no one will make him afraid.

<sup>11</sup> For I am with you," says the LORD,

"to save you,

for I will totally destroy all the nations
where I have scattered you,

but I will not totally destroy you;

but I will discipline you with due measure, and will in no way allow you to go unpunished."

- <sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
    "Your wound is incurable, and your injury is severe.
- <sup>13</sup> There is no one to plead your cause,
    no cure for your wound,
        no healing for you.
- <sup>14</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you;
    they do not care about you.
    I have wounded you like an enemy would,
        with the punishment of a cruel foe,
    because your iniquity is great,
        because your sins are so numerous.
- <sup>15</sup> Why do you cry about your injuries?
    Your pain is incurable,
    because your iniquity is great,
        because your sins are so numerous,
    I have done these things to you.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore all those who devour you will be devoured.
    All your adversaries, every last one of them,
        will go into exile.
    They who have plundered you will be plundered, and all who prey on you I will give up for prey.
- <sup>17</sup> For I will restore your health, and I will heal your wounds, says the LORD;
    because they have called you an outcast, mocking, "It is Zion, whom no one cares about."
- <sup>18</sup> This is what the LORD says:
    "I will bring back Jacob's tents from captivity, and have compassion on his dwellings;
    the city will be rebuilt on its own hill,
        and the palace will be set in its rightful place.
- <sup>19</sup> Out of them will proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those having fun.
    I will multiply them,
        and they will not be few.
    I will also honor them,
        and they will not be despised.
- <sup>20</sup> Their children also will be just like it was long ago,
    and their congregation will be established before me;
    I will punish all who oppress them.
- <sup>21</sup> They will have their own prince,
    and their ruler will come from the midst of them;

I will bring him near,
and he will approach me.
For who would dare to approach me otherwise?"
says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> "You will be my people, and I will be your God."

<sup>23</sup> Look, the storm of the LORD,
His wrath has broken out.
Like a swirling tempest,
it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

<sup>24</sup> The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back,
until he has executed,
and completed everything his heart intended.
In the latter days you will understand it.

DASV: Jeremiah 31

<sup>1</sup> "At that time," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says,
    "The people who survive death by the sword will find favor in the wilderness, when Israel goes to find its rest.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD appeared to them far away, saying,
    "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love;
        therefore with loyal love I have drawn you.

<sup>4</sup> Again I will build you, and you will be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel.
    Again you will take up your tambourine, and will join in with the dances of those who are rejoicing.

<sup>5</sup> Again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria;
    the planters will plant,
        and will enjoy its fruit.

<sup>6</sup> For there will come a day when the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim will call out,
    'Get up, let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God.'"

<sup>7</sup> For this is what the LORD says,
    "Sing with gladness for Jacob,
        and shout for the chief of the nations.
    Proclaim and praise, saying,
    'O LORD, rescue your people,
        the remnant of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the ends of the earth,
    along with them will be the blind and the lame, both the woman with child and she who is in labor;
    a huge crowd will return here.

<sup>9</sup> They will come with weeping;
    and with prayerful pleadings I will bring them back.
    I will lead them beside streams of waters, in smooth ways where they will not stumble,
    for I am Israel's father, and Ephraim is my firstborn."

<sup>10</sup> "Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands afar off;
    say, 'He who scattered Israel will regather him,
    and keep him as a shepherd protectively cares for his flock.

- <sup>11</sup> For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than him.'
- <sup>12</sup> They will come and sing on the heights of Zion, and will be radiant over the goodness of the LORD,
over the grain, new wine, and olive oil and the young of the flock and the herd.
Their lives will become like a watered garden;
they will never again wither away.
- <sup>13</sup> Then the young women will joyfully dance, and the young men and the old will celebrate.
For I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them
giving them joy for their sorrow.
- <sup>14</sup> I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and my people will be satisfied with my benefits,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.
Rachel weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more."
- <sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"Restrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from shedding tears,
for your work will be rewarded,"
says the LORD;
"and they will return from the land of the enemy."
- <sup>17</sup> "There is hope for your future," says the LORD;
"your children will come back to their own territory.
- <sup>18</sup> I have surely heard Ephraim grieving,
'You have disciplined me,
and I was disciplined,
like a calf untrained with a yoke.
Bring me back,
and I will return;
for you are the LORD my God.
- <sup>19</sup> For after I had turned away, I repented;
after I was instructed, I slapped my thigh;
I was ashamed and humiliated,

- when I realized the disgrace of my youth.'
- <sup>20</sup> Is Ephraim my dear son?
Is he a delightful child?
For as often as I rebuke him,
yet I still remember him.
Therefore my heart yearns for him;
I will surely have mercy on him," says the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup> "Set up road markers, make guide-posts;
set your heart to consider the highway,
even the road you took.
Return, O virgin of Israel, return again to these your cities.
- <sup>22</sup> How long will you waver, O faithless daughter?
for the LORD will create something as new in the earth;
as a woman protecting a man."
- <sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says, "When I bring them back from their captivity, once again they will say this in the land of Judah and in its towns: 'The LORD bless you, O dwelling of righteousness, O mountain of holiness.'
- <sup>24</sup> Judah and all its towns will live there together, both the farmers, and those who follow their flocks.
- <sup>25</sup> For I will satisfy the weary soul and refresh everyone who is faint."
- <sup>26</sup> After this I woke up and looked. My sleep was sweet to me.
- <sup>27</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and animals.
- <sup>28</sup> Then just as I have watched over them to uproot, tear down, overthrow, destroy and afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," says the LORD.
- <sup>29</sup> "In those days they will no longer say,
'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge.'
- <sup>30</sup> But everyone will die for his own sin;
then, everyone who eats sour grapes,
their own teeth will be set on edge."
- <sup>31</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel,
and with the house of Judah.
- <sup>32</sup> But it will not be like the covenant that I made with their forefathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt;

for they broke my covenant,
although I was their husband," says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days," says the LORD.

"I will put my law within them;
I will write it in their hearts.

I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup> Each person will no longer have to teach his neighbor, or each one his brother, saying,
'Know the LORD.'

For they will all know me, from the least to the greatest of them," says the LORD.

"For I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more."

<sup>35</sup> This is what the LORD says,
who gives the sun for a light by day,
and orders the moon and the stars for lights by night,
who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar.
the LORD of hosts is his name.

<sup>36</sup> "As likely for this order to cease from before me," says the LORD,
"it would be for the seed of Israel to cease from being a nation before me forever."

<sup>37</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"If heaven above can be measured,
and the foundations of the earth beneath searched out, then I would also reject all the descendants of Israel for all that they have done," says the LORD.

<sup>38</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that the city will be rebuilt to the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

<sup>39</sup> The measuring line will be stretched straight to the hill Gareb, and will turn to Goah.

<sup>40</sup> The whole valley of the dead bodies and ashes, and all the fields to the brook
Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, will be holy to the LORD.
It will not be uprooted or torn down anymore forever."

DASV: Jeremiah 32

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, that was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>2</sup> Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; Jeremiah the prophet was locked up in the courtyard of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah.

<sup>3</sup> For Zedekiah king of Judah had incarcerated him, saying, "Why do you prophesy, and say, 'This is what the LORD says, Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

<sup>4</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face, and look him straight in the eye.

<sup>5</sup> He will bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will be there until I have taken care of him, says the LORD. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed?"

<sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>7</sup> Look, Hanamel the son of your uncle Shallum will come to you, saying, 'Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for you have the right of redemption to buy it.'"

<sup>8</sup> So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the courtyard of the guard just as the word of the LORD had told me. He said "Please buy my field, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin, for you have the right of possession and redemption to it. Purchase it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> So I bought the field that was in Anathoth from Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed out the money for him, seventeen shekels of silver.

<sup>10</sup> I signed the bill of sale and sealed it, had witnesses, and then weighed the money on the scales for him.

<sup>11</sup> So I took the bill of sale, both the one that was sealed, having the terms and conditions, and the other copy that was open.

<sup>12</sup> I delivered the bill of sale to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who had signed the bill of sale, before all the Jews who sat in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>13</sup> Then I told Baruch before them, saying,

<sup>14</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: Take both these bills of sale, the sealed as well as the open one, and put them in a clay pot that they may be preserved for a long time.

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: Houses, fields and vineyards will be bought again in this land."

<sup>16</sup> Now after I had delivered the bill of sale to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>17</sup> "Ah sovereign LORD! You have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm. There is nothing too hard for you.

<sup>18</sup> You show loyal love to thousands, and repay the sins of the fathers into the lap of their children after them, O great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

<sup>19</sup> You are great in wisdom and mighty in deed. Your eyes are open on all the ways of human beings, to reward everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his actions.

<sup>20</sup> You did signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, still talked about to this day both in Israel and among all nations. You have made a name for yourself that remains to this day.

<sup>21</sup> You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, and with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm and with great terror.

<sup>22</sup> You gave them this land that you promised to their forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>23</sup> They entered and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice, neither walked in your law. They did nothing of all that you commanded them to do. Therefore you have caused all this disaster to come on them.

<sup>24</sup> Look, the siege ramps are come against the city to capture it. The city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. You are using the sword, famine, and plague; just as you said would happen, as you now can see that it is.

<sup>26</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>27</sup> "I am the LORD, the God of all flesh.

Is there anything too hard for me?

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

<sup>29</sup> The Chaldeans who are attacking this city will come and set this city on fire, and burn it, along with the houses on whose roofs they previously offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger.

<sup>30</sup> For the people of Israel and Judah have done only what was evil in my sight from their youth up. For the children of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> For this city has provoked my anger and wrath from the day that it was built until this day. So I am committed to removing it from my sight, <sup>32</sup> because of all the evil of the people of Israel and Judah have done to provoke me to anger--they, their kings, officials, priests and prophets, along with the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> They have turned their backs to me and not their faces. Though I repeatedly taught them, yet they did not listen or accept correction.

<sup>34</sup> But they set up their abominable idols in the house that is called by my name and defiled it.

<sup>35</sup> They built the high places of Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, in order to cause their sons and daughters to pass through the fire in sacrifice to Molech. I never commanded them to do that, nor did it ever come into my mind that they should do this abomination, causing Judah to sin."

<sup>36</sup> "Now therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says concerning this city, as you have been saying, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague.'

<sup>37</sup> Look, I will gather them out of all the countries where I have driven them in my anger, fury and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them to live in safety.

<sup>38</sup> They will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>39</sup> I will give them one heart and one path that they may fear me forever, for their good and the good of their children after them.

<sup>40</sup> I will make an everlasting covenant with them. I will never cease doing good to them. I will put my fear in their hearts, so that they will never turn aside from me.

<sup>41</sup> Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land with the faithfulness of my whole heart and soul.

<sup>42</sup> For this is what the LORD says: Just as I brought all this great disaster on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them.

<sup>43</sup> Fields will be bought in this land of which you are saying, 'It is desolate, uninhabitable by humans or animals. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.'

<sup>44</sup> People will buy fields for money, and sign and seal deeds before witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, and in the towns of the hill country, and in the towns of the Shephelah foothills, and in the towns of the Negev. For I will restore their fortunes," says the LORD.

DASV: Jeremiah 33

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still incarcerated in the courtyard of the guard:

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD says who does these things, the LORD who plans it and makes it happen; the LORD is his name:

<sup>3</sup> Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and incredible things that you have no clue about.

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city, and the palaces of the kings of Judah, which were torn down to make defensive structures against the siege ramps and the sword.

<sup>5</sup> The troops will go out to fight against the Chaldeans, but the houses will be filled with corpses that I have slain in my anger and wrath for I have hid my face from this city because of all their wickedness.

<sup>6</sup> I will bring it health and healing, and I will cure them and reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth.

<sup>7</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and will rebuild them as they were at first.

<sup>8</sup> I will cleanse them from all their sin whereby they have sinned against me. I will pardon all their sins by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have rebelled against me.

<sup>9</sup> This city will bring me joy, praise and glory before all the nations of the earth that will hear all the good that I do for them, and they will fear and tremble for all the good and peace that I provide for it.

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD says: 'Yet again there will be heard in this place, where you say, 'It is a wasteland, without humans or animals.' Yet even in the towns of Judah and streets of Jerusalem that are now desolate, without humans, inhabitants and animals,

<sup>11</sup> there will be the sounds of joy and gladness, the jubilant voice of the bridegroom and bride, and the voice of those who say,

'Give thanks to the LORD of hosts,
for the LORD is good,

for his loyal love endures forever;'

along with those bringing thanksgiving offerings to the house of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes of the land as it was at the first," says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Yet again there will be in this place, which is now a wasteland, without humans and animals, and in all its towns, pastures for shepherds where their flocks may rest.

<sup>13</sup> In the towns of the hill country, in the towns of the Shephelah foothills, and in the towns of the Negev, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them," says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that I will perform the good promise that I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> In those days, and at that time,
I will cause a righteous Branch to sprout up for David;
he will execute justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell in safety.

She will be called by this name:
'the LORD our righteousness.'"

<sup>17</sup> For this is what the LORD says: "David will never lack a successor to sit on the throne of the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> The Levitical priests also will not lack a person before me to offer burnt offerings and to burn grain offerings and to offer the daily sacrifices."

<sup>20</sup> "This is what the LORD says: If you could break my covenant with the day, and my covenant with the night, so that there would not be day or night in their assigned times;

<sup>21</sup> only then could my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he would not have a son to reign on his throne, as well as my covenant with the Levitical priests, my ministers.

<sup>22</sup> As the stars of the sky cannot be numbered, or the sand of the sea measured so I will multiply the seed of David my servant and the Levites who minister before me."

<sup>23</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>24</sup> "Have you not noticed what this people have alleged, 'the two families the LORD chose, he has rejected'? They so despise my people, that they no longer considered them to be a nation.

<sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD says: 'If my covenant ordering the arrival of day and night does not stand, if I have not instituted the laws ordering the heaven and earth,

<sup>26</sup> then I also will reject the descendants of Jacob and of David my servant, so that I not choose his descendants to be rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and will have mercy on them.'"

DASV: Jeremiah 34

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his entire army from all the kingdoms and peoples of the earth that were under his rule, were fighting against Jerusalem and all its towns, saying:

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says, Go, speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

<sup>3</sup> You will not escape out of his hand, but will surely be captured and delivered into his hand. You will look the king of Babylon straight in the eye, and he will speak with you face to face, and you will go to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: This is what the LORD says concerning you, you will not die by the sword.

<sup>5</sup> You will die in peace, and just as people burned incense for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will burn incense at your burial. They will grieve for you saying, 'Alas, Lord!' For I have given you my word, says the LORD."

<sup>8</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people that were in Jerusalem to make a proclamation of liberty freeing all slaves.

<sup>9</sup> Everyone was to set free his male and female Hebrew slaves, so that no one was to keep a fellow Jew in slavery.

<sup>10</sup> All the officials and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant that everyone would let his male and female slaves go free, so that none of them would have slaves anymore. They obeyed, and released them.

<sup>11</sup> But afterwards they changed their minds, and forced the male and female slaves whom they had released, back into slavery again.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

<sup>13</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: I made a covenant with your forefathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying,

<sup>14</sup> 'At the end of seven years you must release any fellow Hebrew who has been sold to you, and has served you for six years. You must set them free. But your fathers did not obey me or listen to me.

<sup>15</sup> You recently turned and did what was right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty to each other. You made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name.

<sup>16</sup> But now you have turned and profaned my name, by everyone forcing his male and female servants, whom you had set free at their wishes, back into slavery again as male and female slaves.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says. You have not obeyed me by granting freedom, each one to his brother and countryman. So I grant you freedom to die by the sword, famine and plague, says the LORD. I will make what happens to you to be seen as a horror among all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>18</sup> This is what I will give those who have violated my covenant and not kept the terms of the covenant that they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts, <sup>19</sup> including the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf.

<sup>20</sup> I will hand them over to their enemies, and to those who are seeking their lives. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the heavens and the animals of the earth.

<sup>21</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials I will hand over to their enemies, to those seeking their lives. I will deliver them over to the king of Babylon's army that has withdrawn from you.

<sup>22</sup> Look, I will issue a command, says the LORD, and bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture and burn it with fire. I will also make the towns of Judah a desolation without inhabitant."

DASV: Jeremiah 35

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

<sup>3</sup> So I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

<sup>4</sup> I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room appointed to the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God. It was by the room of the temple officials, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the gatekeeper.

<sup>5</sup> I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine and cups, and I said to them, "Drink wine."

<sup>6</sup> But they said, "We will not drink wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You should not drink wine, neither you, nor your children, forever.

<sup>7</sup> Furthermore you should not build houses, or sow seed, or plant a vineyard, or even own one; but all your days you should live in tents, so that you may live many days in the land where you sojourn.'

<sup>8</sup> We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in everything that he has ordered us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters.

<sup>9</sup> We have not built houses to live in; nor do we own a vineyard, field, or seed.

<sup>10</sup> We have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done everything that Jonadab our forefather commanded us.

<sup>11</sup> But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Arameans, which is why we are living in Jerusalem.'

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>13</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'Will you not receive instruction and obey my words?' says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, when he commanded his descendants not to drink wine, are followed to this day. They do not drink, for they obey their father's commandment. But I have repeatedly spoken to you, and you have not obeyed me.

<sup>15</sup> I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them over and over, saying, "Turn now everyone from their evil way, and change your behavior, and go not after other gods to serve them, and you will dwell in the land I have given to you and to your forefathers. But you refused to pay attention or listen to me.

<sup>16</sup> But the descendants of Jonadab the son of Rechab have carried out the command their forefather gave them, but this people refuses to obey me.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel says: 'I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them, because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened. I have called to them, but they have not answered.'

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: 'You have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done everything that he commanded you.'"

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says: 'Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to serve me forever.'"

DASV: Jeremiah 36

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Get a scroll, and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, Judah, and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until this day.

<sup>3</sup> It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the disaster I plan on doing to them and turn everyone from their evil way so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

<sup>4</sup> So Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah and Baruch wrote on the scroll all the words Jeremiah dictated that the LORD had spoken to him.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am banned from entering into the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore go, and read from the scroll that you have written from my dictation of the words of the LORD. Read it to the people in the LORD's house on the fast day. Read them to all the people of Judah who come from their towns.

<sup>7</sup> It may be they will present their pleas before the LORD, and will turn each one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

<sup>8</sup> So Baruch the son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet told him to do, reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

<sup>9</sup> Now in the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, all the people in Jerusalem and all who came from the towns of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> Then Baruch read in the hearing of all the people from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

<sup>11</sup> When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, <sup>12</sup> he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room and all the officials were sitting there, including Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Bring in your hand the scroll that you have read to the people, and come here." So Baruch the son of Neriah brought the scroll in his hand and came to them.

<sup>15</sup> They told him, "Sit down now and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

<sup>16</sup> When they had heard all the words, they turned toward each other in panic, and said to Baruch, "We must certainly report all these words to the king."

<sup>17</sup> So they asked Baruch, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? Was this a dictation taken from Jeremiah's mouth?"

<sup>20</sup> Then they went to the king in the court, but they left the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. They reported all the words to the king.

<sup>21</sup> So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the scroll. He took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials that stood beside the king.

<sup>22</sup> Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month. There was a fire in the firepot before him.

<sup>23</sup> When Jehudi would finish reading three or four columns, then the king would cut it off with a knife, and throw it into the fire that was in the firepot, until the whole scroll was burned up in the fire that was in the firepot.

<sup>24</sup> The king and his servants who heard the words were not frightened and did not tear their clothes.

<sup>25</sup> Although Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king that he not burn the scroll, yet he refused to listen to them.

<sup>26</sup> The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

<sup>27</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned up the scroll, and the words that Baruch wrote from Jeremiah's dictation, saying, <sup>28</sup> "Get another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned up.

<sup>29</sup> Now concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say: This is what the LORD says: You have burned up this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and will eliminate it, the people and animals?'

<sup>30</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: 'None of his heirs will sit on the throne of David. His corpse will be thrown out enduring the heat of day and the frost at night.

<sup>31</sup> I will punish him and his descendants and his servants for their iniquity. I will bring on them, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah, all the disasters that I have pronounced against them.'" But they still refused to listen.

<sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it all the words Jeremiah dictated from the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned up in the fire. They added to it many similar messages as well.

DASV: Jeremiah 37

<sup>1</sup> Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Jehoiachin the son of Jehoiakim. He was appointed king of the land of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

<sup>3</sup> King Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

<sup>4</sup> Now Jeremiah could come and go as he pleased among the people for they had not yet put him in prison.

<sup>5</sup> Meanwhile Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they withdrew from their attack of Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>7</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: This is what you will tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of me: Pharaoh's army, which had come here to help you, will return back to their own land, to Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans will come back and attack this city. They will capture it and burn it down.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says, Do not deceive yourselves, saying, 'The Chaldeans will certainly withdraw from us;' for they will not go away.

<sup>10</sup> For even if you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who had attacked you, so that there would be only wounded men among them, yet they still would get up each one of them from his tent and burn this city down."

<sup>12</sup> then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his share of property there among the people.

<sup>13</sup> When he was passing through the Benjamin Gate, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah. He arrested Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans."

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah said, "That's a lie; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But he refused to listen to him. So Irijah arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

<sup>15</sup> The officials were angry with Jeremiah and beat him, then put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had converted it into a prison.

<sup>16</sup> Jeremiah was put in prison into a cistern cell and was kept there a long time.

<sup>17</sup> Then King Zedekiah sent and brought him out. The king secretly asked him in his palace, "Is there any word from the LORD?" Jeremiah replied, "There is," then he said, "you will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah complained to King Zedekiah, "What have I done wrong against you or against your servants or this people, that you have put me in prison?"

<sup>19</sup> Where are your prophets now who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?'

<sup>20</sup> So now hear, I beg you, O my lord the king, please let my pleading come before you, that you do not return me to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will end up dying there."

<sup>21</sup> Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they confined Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. They gave him a loaf of bread daily out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

DASV: Jeremiah 38

<sup>1</sup> Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD says, 'Anyone who stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague; but anyone who surrenders to the Chaldeans will live, and their lives will be their reward and they will live.'"

<sup>3</sup> "This is what the LORD says, 'This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon and he will capture it.'"

<sup>4</sup> Then the princes said to the king, "Please, let this man be put to death; because he is demoralizing the soldiers and all the people who remain in this city by telling them such things, for this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their harm."

<sup>6</sup> So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the courtyard of the guard. They let down Jeremiah with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud and Jeremiah sank into the muck.

<sup>7</sup> Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. While the king was sitting in the gate of Benjamin,

<sup>8</sup> Ebed-melech went out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying,

<sup>9</sup> "My lord the king, these men were wrong in what they did to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the cistern. He is likely to die of hunger there because there is no food left in the city."

<sup>11</sup> So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went into the palace of the king under the treasury, and got some old rags and worn out clothes, and let them down by ropes into the cistern to Jeremiah.

<sup>12</sup> Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put these rags and worn out clothes under your armpits to cushion the ropes." So Jeremiah did it.

<sup>13</sup> Then they drew up Jeremiah with the ropes, and pulled him up out of the cistern but Jeremiah still was confined to the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>14</sup> Then Zedekiah the king sent and brought Jeremiah the prophet to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, "I want to ask you something don't hide anything from me."

<sup>15</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, won't you kill me? If I give you advice, you will not listen to me anyway."

<sup>16</sup> So Zedekiah the king secretly swore to Jeremiah, "As the LORD lives, who gives us breath, I will not put you to death, nor I will hand you over to these men who are seeking your life."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you will surrender to the king of Babylon's officials, then your life will be spared, and this city will not be burned down; both you and your family will live.'

<sup>18</sup> But if you refuse to surrender to the king of Babylon's officials, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it down, and you will not escape from their hand."

<sup>19</sup> Zedekiah the king responded to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans, lest the Chaldeans deliver me into their hands, and they torture me."

<sup>20</sup> But Jeremiah said, "They will not hand you over to them. Please obey the voice of the LORD, in what I just told you so that it may go well for you, and your life may be spared."

<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has showed me:

<sup>22</sup> All the women that are left in the king of Judah's palace will be brought out to the king of Babylon's officials, and those women will say, 'Your trusted friends have betrayed you and have overcome you. Now your feet are stuck in the mire, they have abandoned you.'

<sup>23</sup> They will bring out all your wives and children to the Chaldeans. You will not escape out of their hand, but you will be captured by the king of Babylon and this city will be burned down."

<sup>24</sup> Then said Zedekiah to Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know about this conversation, and you will not die."

<sup>25</sup> But if the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and demand from you, 'Tell us now what you have told the king. Don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death. Also tell us what the king said to you.'

<sup>26</sup> Then just tell them, 'I presented my pleas before the king, so that he would not force me to return to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

<sup>27</sup> Then all the officials did in fact come to Jeremiah and ask him, but he told them exactly what the king had told him to. So they stopped questioning him for they were unaware of what was said.

<sup>28</sup> So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was captured.

DASV: Jeremiah 39

<sup>1</sup> When Jerusalem was captured, in the tenth month of the ninth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it.

<sup>2</sup> In the ninth day of fourth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, a breach was made in the city wall.

<sup>4</sup> When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled leaving the city at night by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls. They headed toward the Arabah.

<sup>5</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. After they had captured him, they brought him up to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath. He rendered judgment on him there.

<sup>6</sup> Then the king of Babylon executed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also executed all the nobles of Judah.

<sup>7</sup> Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in chains and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans burned down the king's palace, and the houses of the people, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard deported to Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the rest of the people who remained.

<sup>12</sup> "Take him, and look after him. Don't harm him. Do for him whatever he tells you to."

<sup>14</sup> sent and took Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the guard, and turned him over to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, so that he could take him back home. So he continued to live among the people.

<sup>15</sup> Now the word of LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was incarcerated in the courtyard of the guard, saying,

<sup>16</sup> "Go, and tell Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Look, I am going to carry out my words on this city for evil, and not for good. In that day they will be accomplished before you.

<sup>17</sup> But I will deliver you in that day,' says the LORD; 'and you will not be turned over to the men you are afraid of.

<sup>18</sup> For I will certainly save you, and you will not fall by the sword, but your life will be spared as a war prize for you, because you put your trust in me,'" says the LORD.

DASV: Jeremiah 40

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah. He had taken him there bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being deported to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, "The LORD your God pronounced disaster on this place.

<sup>3</sup> Now the LORD has brought it about and has done just as he said he would, because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this disaster has happened to you.

<sup>4</sup> Now, look I am releasing you this day from the chains that are on your hands. If you want, come with me to Babylon and I will take good care of you; but if you don't want to come with me into Babylon, you don't have to. Look, all the land is before you; go wherever it seems good and right to you."

<sup>5</sup> Now before he turned to leave, he said, "Go back then to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed governor over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people or go wherever you want to." So the captain of the guard gave him food and a gift and let him go

<sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup> Now when all the military commanders who were in the fields and their troops, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had given him authority over the men, women, children, and the poorest of the land who had not been deported as exiles to Babylon, <sup>8</sup> they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These included Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

<sup>9</sup> Now Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon and it will go well for you.

<sup>10</sup> As for me, I will live at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans that will come to us. But you may gather wine, summer fruits and olive oil, and put them in your containers, and live in the towns you have taken over."

<sup>11</sup> Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and in all the other countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of people to stay in Judah, and that he had set Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to govern them;

<sup>12</sup> then all the Judeans began to return out of all places where they had been driven. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah and gathered a great harvest of wine and summer fruit.

<sup>13</sup> Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the military commanders who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, <sup>14</sup> and said to him, "Are you aware that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to assassinate you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

<sup>15</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke privately with Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will ever know about it. Why should he kill you resulting in all the Jews who are gathered to you being scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?"

<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam told to Johanan the son of Kareah, "Do not do such a thing; for what you are saying about Ishmael is a lie."

DASV: Jeremiah 41

<sup>1</sup> Now it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, along with ten men, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah. There they ate bread together in Mizpah.

<sup>2</sup> Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan killing him with the sword. He was the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

<sup>3</sup> Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, including the Chaldeans soldiers who happened to be there.

<sup>4</sup> The next day after he had assassinated Gedaliah, before anyone knew it,

<sup>6</sup> Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out of Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. As he met them he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam."

<sup>7</sup> When they entered the middle of the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him, slaughtered them and threw their corpses into a cistern.

<sup>8</sup> But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey hidden in a field." So he spared them and did not kill them along with their companions.

<sup>9</sup> Now the cistern in which Ishmael had thrown all the dead bodies of those he had slain, along with Gedaliah, was the one that King Asa had built as a defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who had been killed.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, including the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to go over to the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the military commanders who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>12</sup> they took all the men, and went to attack Ishmael the son of Nethaniah. They found him by the great pool in Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup> When all the people that were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the military commanders who were with him, they were glad.

<sup>14</sup> So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and went over joining Johanan the son of Kareah.

<sup>16</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah took all the military commanders that were with him, all those left of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had assassinated Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, including the soldiers, women, children, and the eunuchs whom Johanan brought back from Gibeon.

<sup>18</sup> They were afraid of what the Chaldeans would do when they found out that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had assassinated Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

DASV: Jeremiah 42

<sup>1</sup> Then all the military commanders, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached <sup>2</sup> and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please hear our pleas and pray to the LORD your God for us, even for all this remnant; for there are only a few of us left out of many, as your eyes can clearly see.

<sup>3</sup> May the LORD your God show us the way we should go, and what we should do."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. I will pray to the LORD your God as you have requested; whatever the LORD answers you, I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you."

<sup>5</sup> Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not do everything that the LORD your God sends you to tell us.

<sup>6</sup> Whether it be good or bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well for us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

<sup>8</sup> Then he summoned Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the military commanders that were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest.

<sup>9</sup> Then he told them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your request to him, says:

<sup>10</sup> 'If you will stay in this land, then I will build you up, and not pull you down. I will plant you, and not uproot you; for I am sorry for the disaster that I have inflicted on you.

<sup>11</sup> Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you are now afraid of. Do not be afraid of him, says the LORD, for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

<sup>12</sup> I will grant you mercy, so that he will have mercy on you and let you to return to your own land.'

<sup>13</sup> But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land;' thereby disobeying the voice of the LORD your God,

<sup>14</sup> saying, 'No, we will go to the land of Egypt and live there, where we will not experience war, hear the war trumpets, or be hungry for bread.'

<sup>15</sup> Now listen to the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: if you are determined to enter Egypt, and go to settle there;

<sup>16</sup> then the sword that you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt. The famine that you are afraid of will follow you right down into Egypt which is where you will die.

<sup>17</sup> So everyone who is determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by the sword, famine, and plague. None of them will survive or escape from the disaster that I will bring on them.'

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and wrath have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you, when you enter into Egypt. You will be an execration, and an object of horror, a curse, and a mockery and you will never again see this place.'

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has told you, O remnant of Judah, 'do not go down into Egypt.' Know for sure that I have warned you today.

<sup>20</sup> For you have made a fatal mistake; for you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and whatever the LORD our God says, tell us and we will do it.'

<sup>21</sup> This day I have told you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God by doing anything that he sent me to tell you.

<sup>22</sup> Now therefore know for certain that you will die by the sword, famine, and plague in the place you want to go to settle."

DASV: Jeremiah 43

<sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them,

<sup>2</sup> then Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men said to Jeremiah, "You are lying. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'You should not go to Egypt to settle there.'

<sup>3</sup> It is Baruch the son of Neriah who is inciting you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death and deport us to Babylon."

<sup>4</sup> So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the military commanders, and all the people, refused to obey the voice of the LORD to stay in the land of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the military commanders, took with them all the remnant of Judah who had returned to settle in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been driven,

<sup>6</sup> including the men, women, children, the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, along with Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

<sup>7</sup> They went to the land of Egypt, for they refused to obey the voice of the LORD and so they came to Tahpanhes.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

<sup>10</sup> Say to them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Look, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hid. He will spread his royal canopy over them.

<sup>11</sup> He will come and attack the land of Egypt. Those who are destined for death will die. Those who are destined for captivity will go into captivity. Those who are destined for the sword will die by the sword.

<sup>12</sup> I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; he will burn them, and carry them away captive. He will pick Egypt as clean as a shepherd picking fleas from his cloak. He will leave there safely.

<sup>13</sup> He will also break the pillars of house of the sun in the land of Egypt and the houses of the gods of Egypt he will burn down."

DASV: Jeremiah 44

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in the land of Egypt, at Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis, and in the region of southern Egypt, saying,

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "You have seen all the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah. Look, even today they are still in ruins and uninhabited.

<sup>3</sup> This is because of their wickedness which they have done provoking me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and serve other gods, that neither they, nor you, nor your forefathers knew.

<sup>4</sup> Yet I repeatedly sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, 'Please do not do this disgusting thing that I hate.'

<sup>5</sup> But they refused to listen, or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness and to stop burning incense to other gods.

<sup>6</sup> So my wrath and anger was poured out, and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. They became the desolate wasteland that they are to this day.

<sup>8</sup> Why provoke me to anger with the idolatrous works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have settled? You will be destroyed and become an example used to curse and ridicule among all the nations of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness done by your forefathers, the kings of Judah and their wives, and even your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>10</sup> They have shown no contrition even to this day. They have not feared or walked in my law, or in my statutes, that I set before you and before your forefathers.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Look, I am determined to bring disaster against you, even to destroy Judah completely.

<sup>12</sup> I will take the remnant of Judah, who have determined to go to the land of Egypt and to settle there, and they will all be consumed. In the land of Egypt they will fall and die by the sword or famine. They will die from the least to the greatest by the sword or famine. They will become an object of execration, horror, cursing and ridicule.

<sup>13</sup> I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, just as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, famine, and plague.

<sup>14</sup> None of the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to settle there, will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah. Even though they have a desire to return to live there, none will return except a few refugees."

<sup>15</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, and all the women who were present, a great assembly of all the people who lived in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>16</sup> "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you.

<sup>17</sup> But we will do everything that we have vowed. We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven, and pour out drink offerings to her, just as we, our forefathers, our kings and our officials have done in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, were well-off, and had no trouble.

<sup>18</sup> But since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven, and pouring out drink-offerings to her, we have lacked everything, and have been consumed by the sword and famine."

<sup>19</sup> The women continued, "When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did our husbands not know that we were making cakes to worship her, and pouring out drink offerings to her?"

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, even to all the people who had replied to him, saying,

<sup>21</sup> "The incense that you, your forefathers, your kings and officials and the people of the land burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, did not the LORD remember it? Did it not come into his mind?

<sup>22</sup> At last the LORD could no longer bear your evil deeds and the disgusting things that you were doing; that is the reason your land become desolate, an object of horror, and a curse, uninhabited, as it is to this day.

<sup>23</sup> Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, or walked in his law, statutes or testimonies, therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is to this day."

<sup>24</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, especially to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who are in the land of Egypt:

<sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says, You and your wives have done what your mouths have promised when you said, 'We will certainly perform our vows that we have made to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her.' Alright then, keep your promises and perform your vows.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: 'Look, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name will no longer be invoked by the mouth of anyone from Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the sovereign LORD lives.'

<sup>28</sup> Those who manage to escape the sword, and return from the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, will be few in number. All the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to settle there will know whose word will stand, mine or theirs.

<sup>29</sup> This will be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words will surely stand against you to bring disaster.

<sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says, 'Look, I will give Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those seeking his life; just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life.'

DASV: Jeremiah 45

<sup>1</sup> The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of King Josiah of Judah, saying,

<sup>3</sup> You said, 'Woe is me! For the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary from groaning and can't find any rest.'

<sup>4</sup> This is what you will say to him, This is what the LORD says:

Look, that which I have built

I will break down,

and that which I have planted

I will uproot.

This is what I will do throughout the entire land.

<sup>5</sup> Are you seeking great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for, look, I will bring disaster on all flesh, says the LORD; but your life I will give you as a war prize wherever you go."

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> About Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt, which was camped by the Euphrates River at Carchemish. Now King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated this army in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.
- <sup>3</sup> "Prepare your buckler and shield, and get ready for battle.
- <sup>4</sup> Harness the horses,
mount your steeds.
Take your positions with your helmets,
sharpen your spears.
Put on your armor.
- <sup>5</sup> What do I see?
They are terrified and retreating.
Their warriors are defeated,
and quickly fleeing without looking back.
Terror is on every side," says the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> "Even the quickest cannot get away,
nor can the mighty warrior escape.
In the north by the Euphrates River they have stumbled and fallen.
- <sup>7</sup> Who is this that rises up like the Nile, like rivers whose flooding waters surge?
- <sup>8</sup> Egypt rises up like the Nile,
like the flood waters of surging rivers.
He says, 'I will rise up,
I will cover the earth;
I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.'
- <sup>9</sup> Go ahead, you horses;
and charge, you chariots.
Let the warriors move out;
Cush and Put, that carry the shields, and the soldiers of Lydia skilled with the bow.
- <sup>10</sup> For this is the day of the Lord, the LORD of hosts, a day of vengeance that he will avenge himself on his enemies.
The sword will devour until it is satisfied,
it will drink its fill of their blood.
For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, holds a sacrifice in the north country by the Euphrates River.

- <sup>11</sup> Go up into Gilead and get medicinal balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt.
It is worthless to use so many medicines;
for there is no healing for you.
- <sup>12</sup> The nations have heard of your shame,
and the earth is full of your outcry;
one mighty warrior has stumbled over another,
they both have fallen together."
- <sup>13</sup> The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and attack the land of Egypt.
- <sup>14</sup> "Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol,
and declare it in Memphis and Tahpanhes.
Take your position and prepare for battle;
the sword will devour those around you.
- <sup>15</sup> Why are your soldiers lying face down?
They cannot stand,
because I, the LORD have knocked them down.
- <sup>16</sup> He will make many stumble,
yes, they will fall on top of one another.
They will say, 'Get up, let's go back to our own people,
and to the land of our birth,
away from the sword of the oppressor.'
- <sup>17</sup> Call Pharaoh king of Egypt
'A blustery noise who has missed his opportunity.'
- <sup>18</sup> As surely as I live," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, a conqueror is coming as impressive as Mount Tabor among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea.
- <sup>19</sup> Pack your bags for deportation,
O daughter who lives in Egypt,
for Memphis will become a wasteland, and a ruin, without inhabitant.
- <sup>20</sup> Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a horsefly is coming from the north-- it is coming.
- <sup>21</sup> Also her mercenaries in her midst are like fattened calves;
they too will turn and run,
they will not stand their ground;
for the day of their disaster is come on them,
the time of their punishment.
- <sup>22</sup> Egypt's sound will be like a serpent slithering away;

for the enemy troops march in,
and come against her with axes,

like those who chop down trees.

<sup>23</sup> They will cut down her forest," says the LORD,

"though it is impenetrable;

because they are more numerous than the locusts, absolutely innumerable.

<sup>24</sup> The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame;

she will be delivered into the hand of the people of the north."

<sup>25</sup> The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Look, I will punish Amon the god of Thebes, Pharaoh, and Egypt, along with her gods and her kings, even Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

<sup>26</sup> I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his army. Afterward, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in the days of old," says the LORD.

or troubled, O Israel;

for I will save you from distance lands, and your descendants from the land of their captivity.

Jacob will return and will be quiet and relaxed,

and no one will make them afraid.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant," says the LORD;

"for I am with you.

For I will totally destroy all the nations

where I have driven you.

But I will not totally destroy you,

but I will discipline you fairly,

and I will by no means let you go unpunished."

DASV: Jeremiah 47

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD says:

Look, waters are rising out of the north,
and it will become an overflowing flood.

It will overflow the land and everything in it,
the city and those who live there.

The people will cry out,
and all the inhabitants of the land will wail,

<sup>3</sup> at the noise of the stomping of their stallions hoofs, at the rushing of their chariots,
at the rumbling of their wheels.

Even parents will not look back to their children because their hands fall helplessly limp.

<sup>4</sup> For the day is coming that will destroy all the Philistines, and cut off from Tyre and Sidon every ally who is left.

For the LORD will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the island of Crete.

<sup>5</sup> Gaza will shave its head in despair;

Ashkelon will be silenced.

O remnant of their coastal plain,
how long will you slash yourself?

<sup>6</sup> O sword of the LORD,

how long will it be until you are quieted?

Put yourself back into your sheath;
rest and be still.

<sup>7</sup> How can you be quiet,

seeing the LORD has given you an order?

He has assigned it, against Ashkelon and against the seacoast."

DASV: Jeremiah 48

- <sup>1</sup> About Moab.
"This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says:
    Woe to Nebo! For it is laid waste.
        Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is captured;
        the fortress is put to shame and torn down.
- <sup>2</sup> Moab will be famous no more;
    in Heshbon they have plotted evil against her:
        'Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation.'
    O Town of Madmen you will be silenced, the sword will pursue you.
- <sup>3</sup> The cries of despair from Horonaim are:
    'Devastation and great destruction!'
- <sup>4</sup> Moab is destroyed;
    her little ones will cry out.
- <sup>5</sup> For going up the Ascent of Luhith,
    there will be continual weeping;
    for at the Descent of Horonaim cries of distress will be heard because of the destruction.
- <sup>6</sup> Flee, save your lives,
    like a sole surviving juniper bush in the desert.
- <sup>7</sup> Because you trusted in your achievements and treasures, you also will be taken captive.
    Your god Chemosh will go into captivity too,
        along with its priests and attendants.
- <sup>8</sup> The destroyer will come on every town,
    and no town will escape;
    the valley also will perish,
    and the plain will be destroyed,
        just as the LORD has said.
- <sup>9</sup> Give wings to Moab,
    so that he may fly and get away.
    Her towns will become ruins, without anyone to live in them.
- <sup>10</sup> Cursed be one who is slack in doing the work of the LORD;
    cursed be the one who restrains his sword from bloodshed.
- <sup>11</sup> Moab has been at ease from his youth, like wine left to settle on its dregs,
        it has not been poured from flask to flask,
    neither has he gone into exile.
    Therefore it retains its flavor,

- and its aroma is unchanged.
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"that I will send to him those who pour it out,
and they will pour him off;
and they will empty it out,
then break their jars in pieces.
- <sup>13</sup> Then Moab will be ashamed of their god Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.
- <sup>14</sup> How can you claim, 'We are heroes, valiant warriors?'
- <sup>15</sup> Moab will be destroyed, and they will scale into its cities.
His chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>16</sup> "The disaster of Moab is coming near,
and its doom quickly approaches.
- <sup>17</sup> All you who are around him, mourn for him,
and all you who know his name, say,
'How is the strong scepter broken,
the splendid staff!'
- <sup>18</sup> Come down from your glory,
sit on the parched ground,
O daughter dwelling in Dibon.
For the destroyer of Moab is come up against you,
he has destroyed your strongholds.
- <sup>19</sup> O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the road and watch.
Ask the man who flees,
and the woman who escapes;
'What happened?'
- <sup>20</sup> Moab is put to shame,
for it is broken down.
Wail and cry out.
Proclaim it by the Wadi Arnon,
'Moab has been destroyed.'
- <sup>21</sup> Judgment has come on the towns of the plain,
<sup>24</sup> on Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon, on Kerioth, and Bozrah, and on all the towns of the land of Moab, far and near.
- <sup>25</sup> The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says the LORD.

- <sup>26</sup> "Get him drunk,
for he has exalted himself against the LORD.
Let Moab wallow in his own vomit, and become a laughingstock.
- <sup>27</sup> For was not Israel a laughingstock to you?
Was he caught among thieves that whenever you spoke of him,
you scornfully shook your head?
- <sup>28</sup> O inhabitants of Moab, leave your towns, dwell in the rocks;
be like a dove that makes her nest on the cliffs of a gorge.
- <sup>29</sup> We have heard of the pride of Moab;
indeed, he is very proud.
His conceitedness, pride, arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart are obvious.
- <sup>30</sup> I know his insolence," says the LORD,
his bragging is empty;
his boastings accomplish nothing.
- <sup>31</sup> Therefore I will wail for Moab;
yes, I will cry out for all Moab;
for the people of Kir-heres I will mourn.
- <sup>32</sup> More than Jazer weeps,
I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah.
Your branches extended to the Dead Sea,
they reach even to the town of Jazer, even on your summer fruits and on your grape harvest the destroyer is fallen.
- <sup>33</sup> Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful orchards of the land of Moab.
I have dried up wine from the winepresses;
no one will tread them with shouts of joy;
there will be shouting,
but it will not be shouts of joy.
- <sup>34</sup> The cries of Heshbon to Elealeh can be heard,
as far as Jahaz they utter their voice,
from Zoar all the way to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim will become a wasteland.
- <sup>35</sup> I will make an end of Moab," says the LORD,
"those who sacrifice on the high places,
and those who burn incense to their gods.
- <sup>36</sup> Therefore my heart grieves for Moab like the dirge of a flute, and like pipes mourning for the men of Kir-heres.
Therefore the wealth they have gotten is gone.

- <sup>37</sup> For every head is shaved bald, and every beard cut off,
on all the hands are slashings,
and around their waists is sackcloth.
- <sup>38</sup> On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation everywhere; for I have broken Moab like an unwanted jar,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>39</sup> "How it shattered!
O how they wail!
How Moab has turned away in shame!
So Moab has become an object of ridicule and horror to all who are around him."
- <sup>40</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
"Look, he will swoop down like an eagle,
and will spread his wings over Moab.
- <sup>41</sup> Kerioth will be captured, and the strongholds seized.
The hearts of the warriors of Moab on that day will be like the heart of a woman having labor pains.
- <sup>42</sup> Moab will be destroyed as a people, because he has exalted himself against the LORD.
- <sup>43</sup> Terror, the pit, and the snare, is your destiny, O inhabitant of Moab," says the LORD.
- <sup>44</sup> "The one who flees from fear
will fall into the pit;
the one who climbs out of the pit will be taken by the snare.
For I will bring on him, even on Moab,
the year of their punishment," says the LORD.
- <sup>45</sup> "They who fled stand exhausted under the shadow of Heshbon;
for a fire is gone out of Heshbon,
and a flame from the hometown of Sihon.
It will burn the forehead of Moab, and the skulls of the riotous rebels.
- <sup>46</sup> Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of the god Chemosh are undone.
For your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into exile.
- <sup>47</sup> Yet I will bring back the exiles of Moab in the latter days," says the LORD.
This is the end of the judgment on Moab.

DASV: Jeremiah 49

- <sup>1</sup> About the Ammonites.
 This is what the LORD says:
 "Does Israel have no sons?
 Does he have no heirs?
 Why then do those who worship Milcom dispossess Gad, and its people live in its towns?"
- <sup>2</sup> Therefore, the days are coming," says the LORD,
 "that I will cause the battle cry to be heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites;
 it will become a heap of rubble,
 and her villages will be burned down.
 Then Israel will take back possession from those who dispossessed her,"
 says the LORD.
- <sup>3</sup> "Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai of the Ammonites is destroyed;
 cry, you villages around Rabbah;
 clothe yourself with sackcloth and lament,
 rush back and forth inside the walls;
 for Milcom will go into captivity,
 along with its priests and attendants.
- <sup>4</sup> Why do you brag about your valleys, your flowing valleys, O faithless daughter?
 Who trusted in her treasures, boasting,
 'Who can attack me?'
- <sup>5</sup> Look, I will bring a terror on you,"
 says the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
 "From all your neighbors around you,
 you will be driven out each one of you,
 and there will be no one to gather the fugitives.
- <sup>6</sup> But afterward, I will bring back the exiles of the Ammonites,"
 says the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> About Edom.
 This is what the LORD of hosts, says:
 "Is wisdom no more in Teman?
 Has counsel perished from the prudent?
 Has their wisdom vanished?"
- <sup>8</sup> Flee, turn back, hide in the depths,
 O inhabitants of Dedan;
 I will bring the disaster of Esau on him.
 At that time I will punish him.

- <sup>9</sup> If grape-gatherers came to you,
    would they not leave some grapes behind?
    If thieves came at night,
    would they not pillage until they had enough?
- <sup>10</sup> But I have stripped Esau bare,
    I have uncovered his hiding places,
    and he will not be able to hide himself.
    His descendants are destroyed,
    along with his relatives and his neighbors.
    Edom itself will be no more.
- <sup>11</sup> Leave your orphans;
    I will keep them alive;
    and let your widows trust in me."
- <sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink from the cup still must drink it, how can you imagine that you will go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but will surely drink it.
- <sup>13</sup> For I have sworn by myself," says the LORD, "that Bozrah will become an object of horror, a ridicule, a heap of rubble, and a curse. All its towns will be perpetual ruins.
- <sup>14</sup> I have heard a message from the LORD, and an ambassador has been sent among the nations, announcing,
'Gather yourselves together.
    Come attack her.
    Prepare for battle.
- <sup>15</sup> For I have made you small among the nations, and despised among all people.
- <sup>16</sup> For the terror you cause,
    and the pride of your heart have deceived you,
    O you who live in the rocky cliffs,
    who hold the heights of the hill.
    Though you make your nest as high as the eagle, from there I will bring you down," says the LORD.
- <sup>17</sup> "Edom will become an object of horror;
    every one who passes by will be astonished,
    and will be appalled at all its wounds.
- <sup>18</sup> Just like when Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown and its neighboring towns," says the LORD,
    "no one will live there,
    neither will anybody settle there.
- <sup>19</sup> He will come up like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan against the perennial pastureland;
    for I will suddenly chase them back away from it.

Then I will appoint over it whomever I choose.

For who is like me?

Who will call me into court?

Who is the shepherd who can stand in opposition to me?"

<sup>20</sup> Therefore hear the plan of the LORD, that he has made against Edom.

These are his purposes that he intends to carry out against the inhabitants of Teman.

They will drag them away,
even the little sheep of the flock;
their own pasture will be completely destroyed.

<sup>21</sup> The earth will tremble at the crash of their downfall;
their cry will echo to the Red Sea.

<sup>22</sup> He will soar and fly like the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah.
The heart of the warriors of Edom in that day will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

<sup>23</sup> About Damascus.

"Hamath and Arpad are distressed, for they have heard the bad news.

Their courage melts away;
they are troubled like the raging sea,
that cannot be calmed.

<sup>24</sup> Damascus has become feeble,
she has turned herself to flee,
and trembling has seized her,
anguish and sorrows have grabbed a hold of her,
like a woman in labor.

<sup>25</sup> How is the famous city forsaken,
the city formerly filled with joy?

<sup>26</sup> Her young men will fall in her city squares,
and all her warriors will be silenced in that day,"
says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>27</sup> "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad."

<sup>28</sup> About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon conquered.

This is what the LORD says:

"Arise, go up to attack Kedar, and destroy the people of the east.

<sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks, they will take away;

they will carry away their curtains, goods, and camels;
and observers will cry to them,

'Terror on every side!'

<sup>30</sup> "Flee, get out of there, hide in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor," says the LORD;
"for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon plans to attack you,
and has definite intentions against you.

<sup>31</sup> Arise, get up against a nation that is at ease, that lives securely," says the LORD;
"that has neither gates nor bars, but dwells alone.

<sup>32</sup> Their camels will be booty, and the multitude of their cattle spoil.

I will scatter to all the winds those who have cut the corners of their foreheads.

I will bring disaster on them from every direction," says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> Then Hazor will be a dwelling place for jackals, a wasteland forever.

No one will dwell there,
neither will anybody settle there."

<sup>34</sup> The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, saying,

<sup>35</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says:

"Look, I will break the bow of Elam, the main source of their might.

<sup>36</sup> On Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them to all those winds.

The fugitives of Elam will flee and they will be scattered into every nation.

<sup>37</sup> I will cause Elam to be terrified before their enemies, and before those who seek their life.

I will bring disaster on them,
even my fierce anger," says the LORD.

"I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.

<sup>38</sup> I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy their king and officials from there,"
says the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> "But in the latter days,
I will bring back the exiles of Elam,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Jeremiah 50

- <sup>1</sup> The word that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans,
by Jeremiah the prophet.
- <sup>2</sup> "Declare among the nations and proclaim,
and set up a signal flag.
Proclaim it and do not conceal, say,
'Babylon will be taken captive;
her god Bel is put to shame,
Marduk is dismayed.
Her images are put to shame,
her idols are dismayed.
- <sup>3</sup> For out of the north a nation will come to attack her.
It will turn her land into a wasteland,
and no one will dwell there.
Both humans and animals have fled.'
- <sup>4</sup> In those days and at that time," says the LORD,
"the people of Israel will come,
they and the people of Judah together.
They will go on their way weeping, and will seek the LORD their God.
- <sup>5</sup> They will ask the way to Zion with their faces toward it.
They will come and join themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant
that will never be forgotten.
- <sup>6</sup> My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray.
They have turned them loose on the mountains.
They have wandered from mountain to hill.
They have forgotten their way back to their resting place.
- <sup>7</sup> All who found them devoured them;
their enemies said, 'We are not guilty,
because they have sinned against the LORD,
the habitation of righteousness,
even the LORD, the hope of their forefathers.'
- <sup>8</sup> Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and get out of the land of the Chaldeans,
and be like male goats leading the flocks.
- <sup>9</sup> For I will stir up and bring up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country.
They will draw up their battle lines against her;

- from there she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like those of a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.
- <sup>10</sup> Chaldea will be plundered.
All who loot her will be satisfied," says the LORD.
- <sup>11</sup> "Be glad and rejoice,
O you who plundered my inheritance, you romp around like a heifer that treads out the grain,
and neigh like a stallion.
- <sup>12</sup> Your mother will be totally shamed;
she who bore you will be disgraced.
She will be the least significant of the nations,
a wilderness, a parched and desert land.
- <sup>13</sup> Because of the wrath of the LORD
she will uninhabited.
She will be a deserted wasteland;
everyone who goes by Babylon will be appalled, and hiss in ridicule at all her wounds.
- <sup>14</sup> Take up your battle position against Babylon, all you who bend the bow.
Shoot at her,
spare no arrows;
she has sinned against the LORD.
- <sup>15</sup> Shout a battle cry against her from all sides.
She surrenders.
Her bulwarks have fallen,
her walls are torn down.
For this is the vengeance of the LORD;
take vengeance on her.
As she has done to others,
do to her.
- <sup>16</sup> Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who swings the sickle in the time of harvest.
For fear of the oppressing sword they all will return to their own people, and all will flee to their homelands.
- <sup>17</sup> Israel is like sheep the lions have scattered.
First, the king of Assyria devoured them;
and now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has gnawed on his bones."
- <sup>18</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says:
"I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,

- as I have already punished the king of Assyria.
- <sup>19</sup> Then I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his appetite will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.
- <sup>20</sup> In those days and at that time," says the LORD,
"the sin of Israel will be sought for,
but there will be none,
and the sins of Judah,
but they will not be found.
For I will pardon those I have left as a remnant.
- <sup>21</sup> Go up against the land of Merathaim, go against it, attack the inhabitants of Pekod;
kill and totally destroy them," says the LORD,
"Do everything I have commanded you.
- <sup>22</sup> The din of battle is in the land,
and great destruction.
- <sup>23</sup> How is the hammer of the whole earth cut down and broken!
How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations!
- <sup>24</sup> I have set a snare for you, and you are trapped before you even knew it, O Babylon.
You were discovered and caught,
because you have opposed the LORD.
- <sup>25</sup> The LORD has opened his armory, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation;
for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a mission to accomplish in the land of the Chaldeans.
- <sup>26</sup> Come against her from far way;
open up her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain, and totally destroy her,
let nothing be left of her.
- <sup>27</sup> Slay all her young bulls, let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!
For their day has come,
the time of their punishment.
- <sup>28</sup> The sound of fugitives and refugees come from the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, revenge for what was done to his temple.

- <sup>29</sup> Call for the archers to come against Babylon, all those who bend the bow.
Set up camp surrounding her;
let none of them escape.
Repay her according to her deeds;
do to her, just as she has done.
She has haughtily defied the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>30</sup> Therefore her young men will fall in her squares,
and all her warriors will be silenced in that day,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>31</sup> "I am against you, O arrogant one,"
says the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
"for your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.
- <sup>32</sup> The proud one will stumble and fall,
and no one will help you up.
I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will burn up everything around him."
- <sup>33</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, says:
"The people of Israel are oppressed, along with the people of Judah.
All those who took them captive hold them;
they refuse to let them go.
- <sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong;
the LORD of hosts is his name.
He will thoroughly plead their cause,
that he may give rest to the earth,
while the inhabitants of Babylon will face turmoil.
- <sup>35</sup> A sword is against the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and against the inhabitants of Babylon,
and against her officials and sages.
- <sup>36</sup> A sword is against her diviners, and they will become fools.
A sword is against her warriors,
and they will be seized by terror.
- <sup>37</sup> A sword is against their horses, and against their chariots,
and against all the foreign troops in her midst.
They will become like women.
A sword is against her treasures,
and they will be plundered.

- <sup>38</sup> A drought is against her waters,
and they will be dried up.
For it is a land of carved images, and they go mad,
terrified of their idols.
- <sup>39</sup> Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves will dwell there,
Ostriches will dwell there.
It will be uninhabited forever;
no one will dwell there from generation to generation.
- <sup>40</sup> As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighboring cities," says the LORD,
"So no one will dwell there,
neither will any human being settle there.
- <sup>41</sup> A people is coming from the north;
and a great nation and many kings are stirring from the end of the earth.
- <sup>42</sup> They take hold of bow and spear;
they are cruel and have no mercy.
Their voices roar like the sea;
they ride on horses,
every one lined up like a warrior in battle formation.
They are coming against you, O daughter of Babylon.
- <sup>43</sup> The king of Babylon has heard the report of them,
and his hands hang limp;
anguish has taken hold of him,
and pain like a woman in labor.
- <sup>44</sup> I will come up like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan against the perennial pasture.
I will suddenly chase them away from her;
I will appoint over him whomever I choose.
Who is like me?
Who will call me into court?
Who is the shepherd who can stand in opposition to me?"
- <sup>45</sup> Therefore hear the plan of the LORD, that he has made against Babylon.
These are his purposes that he intends to carry out against the land of the Chaldeans.
They will drag them away,
even the little sheep of the flock;
their own pasture will be completely destroyed.
- <sup>46</sup> At the sound of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and its cry will be heard among the nations.

DASV: Jeremiah 51

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:
    "Look, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who live in Leb-Kamai,
            a destroying wind.
- <sup>2</sup> I will send foreigners to Babylon, who will winnow, blowing her away like chaff.
    They will empty her land.
    For in the day of trouble they will attack her
    from every direction.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not let the archer bend his bow, or let him put on his armor.
    Do not spare her young men;
    totally destroy her army.
- <sup>4</sup> They will fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and be run through by a sword in her streets.
- <sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken,
    by their God, the LORD of hosts, though their land is full of guilt
    against the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>6</sup> Get out of Babylon, each person should save their own life,
    Do not be destroyed in the punishment of her iniquity.
    For it is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
    he will pay her back for what she has done.
- <sup>7</sup> Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunk.
    The nations have drunk of her wine;
    resulting in the nations going mad.
- <sup>8</sup> Babylon will suddenly fall and be destroyed.
    Wail for her, get medicinal balm for her pain,
    if there is a chance that she may be healed.
- <sup>9</sup> 'We tried to heal Babylon, but she could not be healed.
    Abandon her,
    and let each one of us go back to his own country;
    for her judgment reaches to heaven,
    and is lifted up even to the skies.'
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD has brought about our vindication; come, and let us declare in Zion
    the work of the LORD our God.
- <sup>11</sup> Sharpen the arrows;

fill the quivers.

The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his plan against Babylon is to destroy it, for it is the vengeance of the LORD, vengeance for his temple.

<sup>12</sup> Raise the flag signaling the attack of the walls of Babylon, reinforce the watchmen,
post the guards,
prepare the ambushes.

For the LORD has planned and done what he has spoken concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> O you who dwell along many waters, abundant in treasures,
your end is come,
the thread of your life is cut.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself, saying,
"Surely I will fill you with soldiers,
like a swarm of locusts;
they will lift up victory shouts over you."

<sup>15</sup> He has made the earth by his power;
he has established the world by his wisdom,
and by his understanding has stretched out the heavens.

<sup>16</sup> When he utters his voice,
the waters in the heavens roar.
He causes the clouds to ascend from the ends of the earth;
he makes lightning accompany the rain,
and brings the wind out of his storehouses.

<sup>17</sup> Everyone is stupid and without knowledge;
every goldsmith will be put to shame by his idols;
for his cast images are a delusion,
and there is no breath in them.

a total mockery.
In the time of their punishment, they perish.

<sup>19</sup> The Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for he is the one who formed all things.
Israel is the tribe of his inheritance,
the LORD of hosts is his name.

<sup>20</sup> You are my war-club, and weapon for battle.
With you I will smash the nations;
with you I will destroy kingdoms.

- <sup>21</sup> With you I will smash to pieces the horse and his rider;
<sup>22</sup> with you I will smash to pieces the chariot and its rider.
    With you I will smash to pieces man and woman, and with you I will smash to pieces the old and the young.
        and with you I will smash to pieces the young man and woman, <sup>23</sup> and with you I will smash to pieces the shepherd and his flock, and with you I will smash to pieces the farmer and his team of oxen, and with you I will smash to pieces governors and rulers.
<sup>24</sup> I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all the damage they have done in Zion before your eyes," says the LORD.
<sup>25</sup> "I am against you, O destroying mountain," says the LORD,
    "you who destroy all the earth.
    I will stretch out my hand against you,
        and roll you down off cliffs,
        and will make you like a burnt mountain.
<sup>26</sup> They will not take one of your stones for a cornerstone, or a rock for foundations;
    you will be a heap of ruins forever," says the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> "Set up a signal flag in the land!
    Blow the war trumpet among the nations!
    Prepare the nations for war against her;
        summon the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz against her;
        appoint a commander-in-chief against her;
        cause the horses to come up like a swarm of locusts.
<sup>28</sup> Prepare the nations against her,
    the kings of the Medes and its governors,
    and all its rulers, and all the countries they rule.
<sup>29</sup> The land trembles and writhes in pain.
    For the purposes of the LORD against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon desolate without inhabitant.
<sup>30</sup> The warriors of Babylon have given up fighting;
    they remain in their strongholds.
    Their strength has failed;
        they have become weak as women.
    Her houses are set on fire;
        the bars of her gates are broken.
<sup>31</sup> One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to the next,
    to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken from one end to the other.
<sup>32</sup> The river fords have been captured, and the marshes have been set on fire,

and the warriors are terrified."

<sup>33</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says:
"The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it has been trampled out;
yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.

<sup>34</sup> "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me,
he has made us like an empty jar,
like a sea monster he has swallowed me up,
he has filled his belly with my delicacies;
he has spit me out.

<sup>35</sup> May the violence done to me and to my relatives be repaid on Babylon," the inhabitants of Zion will say.
"May my blood be avenged on the inhabitants of Chaldea," Jerusalem will say.

<sup>36</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:
"I will plead your case,
and will avenge you.
I will dry up her sea,
and make her fountain dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a heap of rubble,
a dwelling-place for jackals,
an object of horror,
and ridicule hissing, without inhabitant.

<sup>38</sup> They will roar together like young lions;
they will growl like lion cubs.

<sup>39</sup> When they are excited, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and fall into a perpetual sleep never to wake up,"
says the LORD.

<sup>40</sup> "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and male goats.

The praise of the whole earth seized!
How has Babylon become an object of horror
among the nations!

<sup>42</sup> The sea has flooded over Babylon;
she has been covered by its roaring billows.

<sup>43</sup> Her cities have become an object of horror,

- a desert wasteland,
a land wherein no one lives, neither does anybody even pass by.
- <sup>44</sup> I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will make him vomit up what he has swallowed down.
The nations will not flow into him anymore;
the wall of Babylon will fall.
- <sup>45</sup> My people, get out of her.
Each of you save yourselves from the fierce anger of the LORD.
- <sup>46</sup> Do not lose heart, neither fear the rumor heard in the land;
for rumors will come one year,
and then another the next year.
There will be violence in the land,
ruler against ruler.
- <sup>47</sup> Therefore the days will come,
when I will execute judgment on the carved images of Babylon.
Her whole land will be disgraced;
and all her slain will fall in the midst of her.
- <sup>48</sup> Then the heavens and the earth,
and all who are in them,
will shout for joy over Babylon.
For the destroyers will attack her from the north," says the LORD.
- <sup>49</sup> Babylon will fall for the slain of Israel who have fallen, just as the slain of all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.
- <sup>50</sup> You who have escaped the sword, leave, do not stick around.
Remember the LORD from a distant land, and let Jerusalem come to mind.
- <sup>51</sup> We are disgraced, because we have heard the insults;
shame has covered our faces,
for foreigners have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.
- <sup>52</sup> "Therefore, the days are coming," says the LORD, that I will execute judgment on her carved images.
The wounded throughout her land will groan.
- <sup>53</sup> Though Babylon attempts to climb up to heaven, and though she fortifies the towering heights, yet from me destroyers will come against her," says the LORD.

- <sup>54</sup> The sound of cries come from Babylon, and the uproar of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!
- <sup>55</sup> For the LORD is laying Babylon waste, and silencing her loud noise.
Their waves roar like many waters;
the noise of their voice resounds.
- <sup>56</sup> For the destroyer is come against her,
even against Babylon.
Her warriors are captured,
their bows are broken in pieces.
For the LORD is a God who punishes fairly;
he will surely repay in full.
- <sup>57</sup> "I will make her officials and wise men drunk, also her governors, rulers, and her warriors.
They will fall into a perpetual sleep never to wake up,"
says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>58</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says:
"The broad walls of Babylon will be totally demolished.
Her high gates will be burned.
The peoples toil for nothing, and the nations weary themselves only for the fire."
- <sup>59</sup> The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was a chief of staff.
- <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah wrote on a scroll all the disasters that were to come on Babylon--all these words that are written concerning Babylon.
- <sup>61</sup> Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, make sure you read all these words,
- <sup>62</sup> and say, 'O LORD, you have spoken concerning this place, to destroy it, so that no one will live there, neither human nor animal, but it will be desolate forever.'
- <sup>63</sup> When you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it, and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River.
- <sup>64</sup> Then say, 'This is how Babylon will sink, and will never rise again because of the disaster I will bring on her, and they will be exhausted.'"

These end the words of Jeremiah.

DASV: Jeremiah 52

<sup>1</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

<sup>2</sup> He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

<sup>6</sup> In the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no food for the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> Then a breach was made in the city wall, and all the warriors fled. They went out of the city at night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. Now the Chaldeans had the city surrounded, nevertheless they escaped toward the Arabah.

<sup>8</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army scattered, deserting him.

<sup>9</sup> Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath where he rendered judgment on him.

<sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon executed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed the officials of Judah in Riblah.

<sup>11</sup> Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

<sup>12</sup> Now in tenth day of the fifth month of the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, an official of the king of Babylon came into Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> He burned the temple of the LORD, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every great house he burned down.

<sup>14</sup> Then all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls surrounding Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard deported some of the poorest of the people, the rest of the people who were left in the city, and traitors who deserted to the king of Babylon, along with the rest of the craftsmen.

<sup>17</sup> The pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke into pieces, and carried off all the bronze to Babylon.

<sup>18</sup> They also took the pots, shovels, lamp snuffers, basins, and the ladles, and all the vessels of bronze that were used by priests in the temple service.

<sup>19</sup> The captain of the guard also took away all the cups, firepans, basins, pots, lampstands, ladles and cups and any other things made of gold or silver.

<sup>20</sup> The two pillars, the one sea with the twelve bronze oxen supporting it and the carts that King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD--the bronze of all these items was beyond weighing.

<sup>22</sup> A capital of bronze on top of it was seven and a half feet tall, with latticework and pomegranate ornamentation around the capital, all in bronze. The second pillar was also the same with similar decorative pomegranates.

<sup>23</sup> There were 96 pomegranates on the sides and there were 100 pomegranates on the latticework.

<sup>25</sup> From the city he took an officer who was over the soldiers, and seven men who were the king's advisers, who were found in the city. The secretary of the commander-in-chief, who mustered the people of the land, and 60 men of the people of the land who were found inside the city.

<sup>27</sup> The king of Babylon struck them down, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was deported into exile out of his land.

<sup>31</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, graciously released King Jehoiachin of Judah and brought him out of prison.

<sup>32</sup> He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne higher than the throne of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

<sup>34</sup> For his allowance, there was a daily allowance given him by the king of Babylon as long as he lived until the day of his death.

filthy refuse among them.
- <sup>18</sup> ו The LORD is righteous,
but I have rebelled against his command.
Please listen, all you peoples, and see my sorrow.
My young women and my young men have gone into exile.
- <sup>19</sup> ו I called for my lovers,
but they deceived me.
My priests and elders perished in the city while they searched for food to stay alive.
- <sup>20</sup> ו Look, O LORD, for I am in distress.
My stomach churns,
my heart is disturbed within me,
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside the sword bereaves;
at home there is only death.
- <sup>21</sup> ו They have heard that I was groaning, yet there was no one to comfort me.
All my enemies heard of my trouble;
they are glad that you have done it.
Bring on the day that you have announced,
let them become like me.

<sup>22</sup> ¶ Let all their wickedness come before you;
do to them,
as you have done to me because of all my sin,
for my moans are many,
and my heart is faint.

DASV: Lamentations 2 [Alphabetic Acrostic]

- <sup>1</sup> א How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a dark cloud in his anger!
He has thrown down from heaven to the earth
the beauty of Israel.
He has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.
- <sup>2</sup> ב The Lord has swallowed up without mercy
all the habitations of Jacob,
He has torn down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah in his wrath.
He has brought down to the ground,
dishonoring the kingdom and its officials.
- <sup>3</sup> ג He has cut off in fierce anger
all the might of Israel.
He has drawn back his right hand precisely when the enemy attacked.
He has burned up Jacob like a blazing fire that devours everything around it.
- <sup>4</sup> ד He has bent his bow like an enemy,
with his right hand ready to shoot like a foe.
He has slain all our impressive youth.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion
he has poured out his wrath like fire.
- <sup>5</sup> ה The Lord has become like an enemy,
he has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
he has destroyed her strongholds.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.
- <sup>6</sup> ו He has violently destroyed his temple,
like it was a mere garden hut.
He has destroyed his place of sacred assembly.
The LORD has abolished the festivals and Sabbath in Zion.
He has despised in his fierce rage,
the king and the priest.
- <sup>7</sup> ז The Lord has rejected his altar,
he has despised his sanctuary.
He has given up into the hands of the enemy
the walls of her palaces.
The foe has shouted in the house of the LORD,

- as if it were a festival day.
- <sup>8</sup> ¶ The LORD was determined to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
He stretched out the measuring line,
he did not withdraw his hand from destroying it.
He has made the rampart and wall lament;
they both crumbled.
- <sup>9</sup> ʘ Her gates are driven into the ground;
he has destroyed and broken the bars of her gates.
Her king and officials are exiled among the nations.
There is no more instruction;
her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.
- <sup>10</sup> ʘ The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have throw dust on their heads.
They have clothed themselves with sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads down to the ground.
- <sup>11</sup> ʘ My eyes fail because of the tears,
my stomach churns.
My heart is poured out on the ground,
because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and infants faint in the city streets.
- <sup>12</sup> ʘ They say to their mothers,
"Where is bread and wine?"
when they faint as the wounded in the city streets, as their life is fades away
in their mothers' arms.
- <sup>13</sup> ʘ What can I tell you?
To what can I compare you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
What can I liken you to,
so that I might comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your demise is as deep as the sea.
Who can heal you?
- <sup>14</sup> ʘ Your prophets have seen false and foolish visions for you.
They have not exposed your sin,
to turn you from captivity,
but have seen false and misleading oracles for you.

- 15 o All who pass by clap their hands to mock you.
 They hiss and wag their head
 at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
 "Is this the city that people called
 'The perfection of beauty,
 The joy of the whole earth?'"
- 16 o All your enemies gape at you.
 They hiss and gnash their teeth.
 They brag, "We have swallowed her up.
 We've waited a long time for this day.
 Now we have finally found it,
 we have actually gotten see it."
- 17 y The LORD has done what he purposed;
 he has fulfilled his word that he commanded
 in the days of old.
 He has thrown down without mercy.
 He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you.
 He has strengthened the might of your foes.
- 18 y Their heart cried out to the Lord:
 O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night.
 Give yourself no respite;
 let your eyes not rest.
- 19 p Get up, cry out in the night,
 at the beginning of the night watches.
 Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.
 Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, who faint from hunger
 at the head of every street.
- 20 r Look, O LORD, and think about it!
 Whom have you ever done this to!
 Should women eat their offspring, children whom they have cared for?
 Should the priest and the prophet be slain in the temple of the Lord?
- 21 w The youth and the old man are strewn on the ground in the streets.
 My young women and men are killed by the sword.

You have slain them
in the day of your anger.
You have slaughtered them
without mercy.
<sup>22</sup> ¶ You summoned my terrors on every side,
as if it were a feast day.
No one escaped or survived on the day of the LORD's anger.
Those whom I cared for and brought up,
my enemy has finished off.

DASV: Lamentations 3 [Alphabetic Acrostic]

- <sup>1</sup> א I am one who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
- <sup>2</sup> ב He has driven me away and caused me to walk in darkness and not in light.
- <sup>3</sup> ג Surely he has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> ד He has worn out my flesh and skin;
he has broken my bones.
- <sup>5</sup> ה He has besieged me,
and surrounded me with poverty and hardship.
- <sup>6</sup> ו He has made me to dwell in darkness, like those who have been long dead.
- <sup>7</sup> ז He has walled me in so that I cannot get out.
He has made my chains heavy.
- <sup>8</sup> ח Though I cry out and call for help,
he shuts out my prayer.
- <sup>9</sup> ט He has blocked up my ways with cut stone;
he has made my paths crooked.
- <sup>10</sup> י He is like a bear lying in wait for me,
like a lion in an ambush.
- <sup>11</sup> יא He has pulled me off my paths,
and tore me in pieces.
He has left me ravaged.
- <sup>12</sup> יב He has bent his bow, and set me as a target for the arrow.
- <sup>13</sup> יג He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my heart.
- <sup>14</sup> יד I have become a laughingstock to all my people, and their mocking song all day long.
- <sup>15</sup> יה He has filled me with bitterness;
he has made me drunk with bitter wormwood.
- <sup>16</sup> יו He has ground my teeth with gravel;
he has covered me with ashes.
- <sup>17</sup> יז You have removed peace from my soul;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
- <sup>18</sup> יח I said, "My strength is gone, including what I hoped for from the LORD."
- <sup>19</sup> יט Remember my poverty and homelessness, the bitter wormwood and the poison gall.

- 20 † My soul continually remembers it,
 and is depressed within me.
- 21 † But this is what I call to mind and therefore have I hope:
- 22 † The loyal love of the LORD never fails, because his compassions never end.
- 23 † They are fresh every morning;
 great is your faithfulness.
- 24 † "The LORD is my portion," I tell myself;
 "therefore I will hope in him."
- 25 † The LORD is good to those who expectantly wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
- 26 † It is good that a person should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
- 27 † It is good for a person to bear the yoke in his youth.
- 28 † Let a person sit alone in silence, because the LORD has laid it on him.
- 29 † Let him put his mouth in the dust,
 for then there may be hope.
- 30 † Let him offer his cheek to the one slapping him;
 let him be filled full of insults.
- 31 † For the Lord will not cast us away forever.
- 32 † For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion
 according to the abundance of his loyal love.
- 33 † For he does not willingly afflict people or grieve anyone.
- 34 † To crush underfoot
 all the prisoners of the earth,
- 35 † to deprive a person of justice in the presence of the Most High,
- 36 † to defraud a person in his lawsuit-- does the Lord not see it?
- 37 † Who can speak and have it come to pass
 when the Lord has not ordained it?
- 38 † From the mouth of the Most High does not come both good and bad?
- 39 † Why should anyone living complain over the punishment for sins?
- 40 † Let us inspect and test our ways,
 and return to the LORD.
- 41 † Let us lift up our heart

along with our hands to God in heaven.
42 ו We have sinned and rebelled, yet you have not forgiven.
43 ב You have wrapped yourself with anger and pursued us;
you have killed without pity.
44 ב You have wrapped yourself with a cloud,
so that no prayer can get through.
45 ב You have made us scum and rubbish
among the peoples.
46 פ All our enemies have opened their mouths wide against us.
47 פ Panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction.
48 פ My eyes flow with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
49 ע My eyes flow without ceasing, without stopping,
50 ע until the LORD looks down,
and sees from heaven.
51 ע My eyes bring me grief,
because of all the daughters of my city.
52 צ They have hunted me like a bird,
those who were my enemies without cause.
53 צ They sought to put an end of me in the pit,
and threw stones at me.
54 צ Waters flowed over my head;
I thought, "I'm done for."
55 ק I called upon your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit.
56 ק You heard my voice:
"Do not close your ears to my cry for help."
57 ק You came near on the day I called on you;
you said, "Do not be afraid."
58 ר O Lord, you have pleaded my case;
you have redeemed my life.
59 ר O LORD, you have seen the wrong I have suffered;
judge my case.
60 ר You have seen all their vindictiveness,
all their plots against me.
61 ש You have heard their insults, O LORD,
all their plots against me,
62 ש the lips of my assailants whisper and murmur against me all day long.

- <sup>63</sup> ʘ Whether they are sitting or standing, see;
I am the object of their ridiculing songs.
- <sup>64</sup> ʘ Pay them back, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.
- <sup>65</sup> ʘ Give them an insolent hard heart, let your curse come on them.
- <sup>66</sup> ʘ Pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the LORD's heaven.

DASV: Lamentations 4 [Alphabetic Acrostic]

- <sup>1</sup> א How has gold lost its luster, how is the pure gold changed!
The sacred stones are scattered
at the head of every street.
- <sup>2</sup> ב The precious sons of Zion, are worth their weight in gold.
How they are treated like clay pots,
the work of the hands of the potter!
- <sup>3</sup> ג Even jackals provide their breasts to nurse their infants.
The daughter of my people has become cruel, like ostriches in the desert.
- <sup>4</sup> ד The infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth due to thirst.
The young children beg for bread,
but no one gives them a piece.
- <sup>5</sup> ה Those who used to feast on delicacies now are starved in the streets.
Those who were brought up in scarlet claw through the rubbish heaps.
- <sup>6</sup> ו For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown in a moment,
and no helping hand offered to her.
- <sup>7</sup> ז Our consecrated ones were purer than snow;
they were whiter than milk.
They were more ruddy than coral,
their beauty like precious stones.
- <sup>8</sup> ח Now their faces are blacker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin clings to their bones;
it has withered like a dry stick.
- <sup>9</sup> ט Those who die by the sword are better than those who die from hunger.
For these waste away,
because of the lack of produce from the field.
- <sup>10</sup> י The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children.
They became their food
when the daughter of my people was destroyed.
- <sup>11</sup> כ The LORD has expended his wrath;

- he has poured out his fierce anger.
 He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has consumed its foundations.
- <sup>12</sup> ל The kings of the earth did not believe,
 nor all the inhabitants of the world, that the foe and the enemy could ever enter the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> מ It was because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, who have shed the blood of the just in her midst.
- <sup>14</sup> נ They wander like the blind through the streets;
 they are so defiled with blood that no one would risk touching their garments.
- <sup>15</sup> ס "Get away! Unclean!" people shout at them, "Get away! Get away! Don't touch us!"
 So they fled away and wandered.
 But the people among the nations say,
 "They can't stay here anymore."
- <sup>16</sup> פ The anger of the LORD has scattered them;
 he protects them no more.
 They did not honor the priests,
 or show favor to the elders.
- <sup>17</sup> צ Our eyes failed futilely looking for help;
 from our watchtowers we were expectantly watching for a nation that could not really save us.
- <sup>18</sup> ק They hunted down our steps,
 so that we cannot walk in our streets.
 Our end was near,
 our days were numbered,
 for our end has come.
- <sup>19</sup> ר Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the sky.
 They chased us on the mountains,
 they set ambushes for us in the desert.
- <sup>20</sup> ש The very life breath of our nostrils,
 the LORD's anointed king,
 was caught in their pits.
 Of whom we thought,
 "Under his protective shadow
 we shall live among the nations."
- <sup>21</sup> ת Rejoice and be glad,
 O daughter of Edom,

you who lives in the land of Uz.
The cup will be passed to you too;
you will get drunk and be stripped naked.
<sup>22</sup> ה The punishment of your iniquity is completed,
O daughter of Zion.
He will no longer keep you in exile.
He will punish your sin,
O daughter of Edom.
He will expose your sins.

DASV: Lamentations 5

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, remember what has happened to us.
Look and see our disgrace.
- <sup>2</sup> Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.
- <sup>3</sup> We have become like fatherless orphans;
our mothers have become like widows.
- <sup>4</sup> We must pay to drink our own water;
we are forced to buy our own wood.
- <sup>5</sup> Our pursuers are breathing down our necks;
we are exhausted but have no rest.
- <sup>6</sup> We have made an agreement with the Egyptians, and with the Assyrians in order to secure food.
- <sup>7</sup> Our fathers sinned and are gone;
we have suffered for their sins.
- <sup>8</sup> Servants rule over us;
there is no one to rescue us from their hands.
- <sup>9</sup> We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because the sword dominates the wilderness.
- <sup>10</sup> Our skin is black as an oven, because of the burning fever of famine.
- <sup>11</sup> They raped the women in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.
- <sup>12</sup> Officials were hung up by their hands;
the elders were disrespected.
- <sup>13</sup> The young men were forced to grind at the mill;
the children stumbled under loads of wood.
- <sup>14</sup> The elders have deserted the city gate;
the young men abandoned their music.
- <sup>15</sup> The joy of our heart has ceased;
our dance has turned to mourning.
- <sup>16</sup> The crown has fallen from our heads.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
- <sup>17</sup> Because of this our hearts are faint, for these things our eyes dim with tears.
- <sup>18</sup> The mountain of Zion is deserted;
the jackals prowl around in it.
- <sup>19</sup> But you, O LORD, reign forever;
your throne lasts from generation to generation.
- <sup>20</sup> Why do you always forget us?
Why have you forsaken us for so long?
- <sup>21</sup> Restore us to yourself, O LORD, and we will come back.

Renew our days as of old.

<sup>22</sup> But you have totally rejected us,
you are still very angry with us.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version
DASV: Ezekiel 1

<sup>1</sup> In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, as I was among the exiles by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

<sup>2</sup> On the fifth day of the month, in the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, <sup>3</sup> the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar River; and the hand of the LORD was on him there.

<sup>4</sup> As I looked, a windstorm came up out of the north, a huge cloud with lightning flashing, enveloped by a bright light, and in the middle of the fire was what appeared to be gleaming amber.

<sup>5</sup> In the middle of it was something that looked like four living creatures. This is a description of their appearance: they had a human form.

<sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight; and the soles of their feet were like a calf's hoof; and they shined like burnished bronze.

<sup>8</sup> They had human hands under each of their wings on their four sides. Each of the four of them had four faces and four wings.

<sup>9</sup> Their wings touched one another. They did not turn when they moved, but each went straight forward.

<sup>11</sup> Such were their faces. They each had two wings spread out above them touching each other, and the other two covered their bodies.

<sup>12</sup> They each went straight forward. Wherever the spirit would go, they went too, without turning as they went.

<sup>13</sup> In the middle of the living creatures was something like blazing coals of fire, like torches. The fire moved back and forth among the living creatures. It was bright and lightning flashed out of the fire.

<sup>15</sup> Now as I looked at the living creatures, I saw one wheel on the ground beside each of the four living creatures.

<sup>16</sup> The appearance of the wheels and their construction was like gleaming beryl. They all looked alike. Their construction was like a wheel within a wheel.

<sup>17</sup> When they moved in any of the four directions they faced, they did not turn as they moved.

<sup>18</sup> The wheel rims were tall and impressive, and the rims of all four were full of eyes all the way around.

<sup>19</sup> When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures lifted off the ground, the wheels rose too.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit would go, they went also, and the wheels lifted off with them, because the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>21</sup> When they moved, the wheels moved; and when they stopped, the wheels stopped; and when they lifted off the earth, the wheels lifted off with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup> Now over the head of the living creatures there was something that looked like a surface made of shining crystal, stretched out over their heads.

<sup>23</sup> Under the surface their wings were spread, each one toward the other. Each one had two wings covering its body.

<sup>24</sup> When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of rushing water, like the voice of the Almighty, a sound of an uproar like an army. When they stood, they let their wings down.

<sup>25</sup> There was a voice above the surface over their heads; whenever they stood still, they let their wings down.

<sup>26</sup> Above the surface that was over their heads was something like a throne, that looked like a blue sapphire. Above what looked like the throne was someone who had the appearance of a human being.

<sup>27</sup> I saw like glowing amber, like a fire around him from his waist up. From his waist down I saw what looked like fire, and a bright splendor surrounded him.

<sup>28</sup> Like a rainbow on a cloudy day after a rain shower is what the brightness around him looked like. It looked like the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of someone speaking.

DASV: Ezekiel 2

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet, and I will speak to you."

<sup>2</sup> When he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet and I heard him talking to me.

<sup>3</sup> He told me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a nation that is rebellious, who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have revolted against me to this very day.

<sup>4</sup> The descendants are also obstinate and hard-hearted. I am sending you to them and you will tell them, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says.'

<sup>5</sup> Whether they listen or not – for they are a rebellious house – they will realize that there has been a prophet among them.

<sup>6</sup> And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them. Do not be afraid of their words, though you are surrounded by thorns and thistles, and you have to live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or be terrified by their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>7</sup> You must speak my words to them, whether they will listen or not, for they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup> But you, son of man, listen to what I tell you. Do not rebel like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you."

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked and saw a hand was stretched out toward me and in it was a written scroll.

<sup>10</sup> He unrolled it in front of me and it was written on the front and back; and there were written on it laments, mourning and woe.

DASV: Ezekiel 3

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you find here. Eat this scroll, then go, speak to the house of Israel.”

<sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth and he gave me the scroll to eat.

<sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll I am giving to you.” So I ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Then he told me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and tell them my words.

<sup>5</sup> For you are not sent to a people of an unintelligible speech or a difficult language, but to the house of Israel—

<sup>6</sup> not to many peoples of an unintelligible speech or a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you.

<sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel will not listen to you because they will not even listen to me. For the entire house of Israel is hard-headed and stubborn hearted.

<sup>8</sup> Look, I have made your face as hard as their faces, and made you as hard-headed as they are.

<sup>9</sup> I have made your head harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them, or terrified by their looks, for they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup> Then he said, “Son of man, all my words that I will tell you take to your heart and listen carefully.

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound a loud rumbling as the glory of the LORD rose from its place.

<sup>13</sup> It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they brushed against one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them producing a great rumbling sound.

<sup>14</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away. I went with bitterness and fury in my spirit; and the hand of the LORD was firm on me.

<sup>15</sup> Then I came to the exiles at Tel-Aviv, who lived by Kebar River. I just sat there for seven days among them totally overwhelmed.

<sup>16</sup> At the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me saying:

<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word at my mouth, give them a warning from me.

<sup>18</sup> If I tell the wicked, ‘You will surely die,’ and you give him no warning, or do not speak out to warn the wicked to turn from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked person will die in his sin; and I will hold you responsible for his blood.

<sup>20</sup> If a righteous person turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and I put a stumbling block in front of him, he will die; because you have not warned him, he will die in his sin, and the righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered. I will hold you responsible for his blood.

<sup>21</sup> If, however, you warn the righteous person, so that the righteous person does not sin, he will surely live, because he accepted the warning; and you will have saved your own life.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the hand of the LORD was on me; and he said to me, “Get up, go out into the valley, and I will speak with you there.”

<sup>23</sup> So I got up, and went out into the valley and the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory that I saw by the Kebar River; and I fell on my face.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said, “Go, shut yourself up inside your house.

<sup>25</sup> But as for you, son of man, they will put ropes on you, and will tie you up, and you will not be able to go out among them.

<sup>26</sup> I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, so that you will be speechless and unable to rebuke them; for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>27</sup> But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says.’ The one who hears, let him hear; and the one who refuses to listen, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>3</sup> Take an iron griddle, and set it up as an iron wall between you and the city. Focus your face on it, for it will be besieged. You yourself are to lay siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Then lie on your left side, and place the sins of the house of Israel on yourself. You will bear their sin for as many days as you lie on your side.

<sup>5</sup> For I have assigned you the number of days equal to the number of the years of their sin, 390 days. This is how you will bear the sin of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> When you have accomplished this, you will lie down on your right side, and you are to bear the sin of the house of Judah. I have assigned to you forty days, one day for each year.

<sup>7</sup> Set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and with your arm bared, prophesy against it.

<sup>8</sup> Look, I will lash you down with ropes so that you will not be able to turn from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup> Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and spelt; and put them in one container, and make bread from it. During the 390 days that you lie on your side you will eat it.

<sup>10</sup> Your food that you will eat will be rationed out eight ounces a day and you shall eat it at the set times.

<sup>14</sup> Then I said, “Sovereign LORD! Look, I have never been defiled from my youth up even until now. I have never eaten anything that had died by itself, or was torn by animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to me, “Alright, I will let you use cow's manure instead of human excrement on which to prepare your bread.”

<sup>16</sup> Then he told me, “Son of man, I will break the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by ration and with fear. They will drink water by measure and in terror, <sup>17</sup> because they will lack bread and water. They will look at each other appalled as they waste away because of their punishment.”

DASV: Ezekiel 5

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, get a sharp sword and use it as a barber's razor. Shave your head and beard with it. Then get a scale and divide the hair.

<sup>2</sup> Burn a third of it inside the city, when the days of the siege are completed. Take a third of it, and strike it with the sword around the city. Scatter a third of it to the wind, for I will draw out a sword after them.

<sup>3</sup> Take from those a few strands, and tie them on the edge of your robe.

<sup>4</sup> Then take a few of these and cast them into the fire and burn them. From there a fire will spread into all the house of Israel.”

<sup>6</sup> But she has rebelled against my regulations and statutes by becoming more wicked than the nations and the countries that are around her. For they have rejected my regulations and have not followed my statutes.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you are more rebellious than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes or kept my regulations, you have not even lived up to the standards of the nations that are around you.

<sup>9</sup> I will do to you that which I have never done before, and will never ever do anything like it again, because of all your abominations.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore fathers will eat their own sons in your midst, and the sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you; and any of your survivors I will scatter to the winds.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, as I live, says the sovereign LORD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable idols and with all your abominations. Therefore I will withdraw; my eye will not spare and I will have no pity.

<sup>12</sup> A third of you will die of the plague and famine among you. A third will fall by the sword around you; and a third I will scatter to all the winds and will draw out a sword after them.

<sup>13</sup> Then my anger will be finished, and my vented wrath will be appeased. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy, when I have vented my wrath on them.

<sup>14</sup> I will make you desolate, and an object of ridicule among surrounding nations, and in the sight of all who pass by.

<sup>15</sup> So you will be an object of ridicule and insults, a warning and a horror to the surrounding nations, when I execute judgments on you in anger, wrath, and with furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>16</sup> When I will unleash against them the deadly destructive arrows of famine, I will shoot them to destroy you. I will escalate the severity of the famine on you, and will cut off your supply of bread.

<sup>17</sup> I will send famine and wild animals against you, and they will take your children from you. The plague and bloodshed will pass through you; and I will bring the sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

DASV: Ezekiel 6

<sup>3</sup> and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the sovereign LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: Look, I, myself will bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

<sup>4</sup> Your altars will be destroyed, and your incense burners broken; and I will drop your dead right in front of your idols.

<sup>5</sup> I will cast the corpses of the Israelites in front of their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

<sup>6</sup> Wherever you dwell, the towns will be laid waste and the high places destroyed. Your altars will be laid waste and ruined, your idols will be shattered and abolished, your incense altars knocked down, and your works smashed to pieces.

<sup>7</sup> The slain will fall in your midst, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> Yet will I spare a remnant. A few of you will escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered to other countries.

<sup>9</sup> Those of you who manage to escape will remember me among the nations where they are carried away captive. They will realize how hurt I was by their adulterous heart that turned away from me, and by their eyes, which went lusting after their idols. They will despise themselves for the evils they have committed in all their abominations.

<sup>10</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD. It was not an empty threat that I made that I would inflict this disaster on them.

<sup>11</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and cry out, ‘Alas!’ because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they will fall by the sword, famine and plague.

<sup>12</sup> The one who is far away will die by the plague. The one who is near will fall by the sword. The one who survives and is spared will die by famine. This is how I will vent my wrath on them.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when their dead are scattered among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, the very places where they offered pleasing aromas to all their idols.

<sup>14</sup> I will stretch out my hand against them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness to Riblah, everywhere that they live. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, this is what the sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel, The end! The end has come on the four corners of the land.

<sup>3</sup> Now the end is upon you, and I will unleash my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will punish you for all your abominations.

<sup>4</sup> My eye will not pity you, nor will I spare you. But I will repay you for your ways and the consequences of your abominations will be in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> An end has come! The end has come! It ends its slumber rousing itself against you. Look, it is coming.

<sup>7</sup> Your doom has come for you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult not joyful shouting echoing from the mountains.

<sup>8</sup> Soon I will pour out my wrath on you, and completely vent my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will punish you for all your abominations.

<sup>9</sup> My eye will not pity you, nor will I spare you. But I will repay you for your ways and the consequences of your abominations will be in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD, who is striking you.

<sup>10</sup> See, the day! Look, it comes! Your doom has sprung up. The rod has blossomed, pride has bloomed.

<sup>11</sup> Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them will be left, none of their crowd, neither their wealth nor anything of distinction among them.

<sup>12</sup> The time is come, the day draws near. Let not the buyer rejoice, or the seller mourn, for wrath has come on this entire crowd.

<sup>13</sup> For the seller will not regain what was sold, as long as they are still alive. For the vision about its whole crowd will not be revoked, because of their sins they will not be able to preserve their lives.

<sup>14</sup> They have blown the war trumpet, and have gotten everything ready; but no one goes to the battle, for my wrath is on the entire crowd.

<sup>15</sup> The sword is outside, and the plague and the famine are within. The one who is in the field will die by the sword. The one who is in the city, famine and plague will consume.

<sup>16</sup> But if any survivors do escape, they will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all moaning each one for his own sin.

<sup>18</sup> They will clothe themselves with sackcloth, horror will cover them. Shame will be on all their faces, and all their heads will be shaved bald.

<sup>19</sup> They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be treated as an unclean thing. Their silver and gold will not be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They will not satisfy their appetites, nor fill their stomachs. For their wealth was the stumbling block that caused them to sin.

<sup>20</sup> As for the beautiful ornaments in which they took pride, that they made into abominable idols and their detestable things, now I have made it an unclean thing for them.

<sup>21</sup> I will give it into the hands of the foreigners as plunder, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they will defile it.

<sup>22</sup> I will turn my face from them, and they will profane my treasured place; and robbers will enter into it and desecrate it.

<sup>23</sup> Make chains, because the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore I will bring in the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will put an end to the pride of the strongholds; and their holy places will be profaned.

<sup>25</sup> Terror is coming; and they will seek peace, but there will be none.

<sup>26</sup> Disaster upon disaster will come, one rumor after another; and they will seek a vision from the prophet; but the instruction will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

<sup>27</sup> The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with horror, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will do unto them according to their patterns of behavior. I will judge them by their own standards. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 8

<sup>1</sup> On the fifth day of the sixth month of the sixth year, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the hand of the sovereign LORD fell on me there.

<sup>2</sup> Then I looked, and saw a form that appeared to be a man. From what appeared to be his waist down was fire; and from his waist up looked bright, like glowing amber.

<sup>3</sup> He reached out what appeared to be a hand, and grabbed a hold of me by a lock of the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me by the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where the seat of the idol that provokes to jealousy was.

<sup>4</sup> Then I saw there the glory of the God of Israel, like the vision that I saw in the valley.

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and there north of the gate of the altar was this idol of jealousy in the entrance.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel is committing here, driving me far from my own sanctuary? But you will see even greater abominations."

<sup>7</sup> He brought me to the entrance of the court. Then I looked and saw a hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup> He told me, "Son of man, dig into the wall." When I had dug into the wall, there was an entrance.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here."

<sup>10</sup> So I went in and saw there was engraved on the wall every kind of creeping thing, and detestable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> There stood before them seventy elders of the house of Israel; and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each one had his censer in his hand with a fragrant cloud of incense wafting upward.

<sup>12</sup> Then said he to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each one in his room of images? For they say, 'The LORD doesn't see us; the LORD has forsaken the land.'"

<sup>13</sup> He told me, "You will see them do even great abominations."

<sup>14</sup> Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of LORD's house. There sat the women weeping for the god Tammuz.

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see even greater abominations than these."

<sup>16</sup> He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there at the entrance of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, with their faces toward the east. They were worshipping the sun toward the east.

<sup>17</sup> Then he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it a trivial issue to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations here? Should they also have filled the land with violence, and further provoked me to anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore I will also deal with them in wrath; my eye will not spare or have pity on them. Even though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not listen to them."

DASV: Ezekiel 9

<sup>1</sup> Then he shouted in my ears, “Come here those who have charge over the city, each one with his weapon of destruction in his hand.”

<sup>2</sup> Six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each one with his smashing weapon in his hand. One in the midst of them was clothed in linen, with a writer's case by his side. They entered and stood beside the brazen altar.

<sup>3</sup> Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from the cherub, where it was by the threshold of the temple. He called to the one clothed in linen, who had the writer's case by his side.

<sup>4</sup> And LORD said to him, “Go through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the people who grieve and groan over all the abominations that are done in it.”

<sup>5</sup> To the others he said in my hearing, “Go through the city after him, and kill; do not let your eye spare or have pity.

<sup>6</sup> Wipe out the old men, the young men and girls, and little children and women; but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary.” Then they began with the old men who were in front of the temple.

<sup>7</sup> Then he said unto them, “Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out.” So they went out slaughtering throughout the city.

<sup>8</sup> While they were killing, and I was left alone, I fell upon my face, and cried, “Ah sovereign LORD! Will you destroy all the remnant of Israel when you pour out of your wrath upon Jerusalem?”

<sup>9</sup> Then he told me, “The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is very great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of injustice, for they claim, ‘The LORD has abandoned the land, and the LORD does not see.’

<sup>10</sup> So as for me, my eye will not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will repay them bringing back their deeds upon their heads.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case by his side, reported the matter, saying, “I have done as you have told me to do.”

DASV: Ezekiel 10

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared something like a sapphire stone, shaped like a throne.

<sup>2</sup> He spoke to the man clothed in linen, "Go between the whirling wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill both your hands with burning coals from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And he went while I watched.

<sup>3</sup> Now the cherubim were standing on the right side of the temple, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

<sup>4</sup> Then the glory of the LORD went up over the cherub over the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of LORD's glory.

<sup>5</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup> Then he commanded the man clothed in linen, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim." So he went in and stood beside a wheel.

<sup>7</sup> Then a cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim toward the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it and put it into the hands of the one who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked, and saw four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like sparkling beryl.

<sup>10</sup> And as for their appearance, all four looked alike, as a wheel within another wheel.

<sup>11</sup> When they moved, they went in any of four directions without turning as they went, but wherever the head looked they moved without turning as they went.

<sup>12</sup> Their whole body, their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that all four of them had were full of eyes all around.

<sup>13</sup> As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels."

<sup>14</sup> Each of them had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub; the second, face the face of a man; the third face the face of a lion; and the fourth, the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup> Then the cherubim took off upward. These were the living creatures that I saw by the Kebar river.

<sup>16</sup> When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved alongside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to take off from the earth, the wheels stayed beside them.

<sup>17</sup> When they stood still, the wheels stood still; and when they took off, the wheels also took off with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>19</sup> Then the cherubim lifted their wings, and took off from the earth in my sight, when they went out and the wheels were beside them. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's temple; and the glory of the God of Israel hovered over them.

<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures that I saw underneath the God of Israel by the Kebar river; and I recognized that they were cherubim.

<sup>21</sup> Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings; and under their wings was what looked like human hands.

<sup>22</sup> As for the likeness of their faces, they were the same faces that I had seen by the Kebar river. Each of them moved straight forward.

DASV: Ezekiel 11

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's temple, which faces east. At the door of the gate were twenty-five men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, officials of the people.

<sup>2</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked counsel in this city.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said to me, "Tell them, this is what the LORD says: This is what you have said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.

<sup>6</sup> You have murdered many in this city, and have filled its streets with corpses.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Your slain whom you have tossed in the midst of the city, they are the flesh, and this city is the pot; but you will be dragged out of the midst of it.

<sup>8</sup> You have feared the sword; so I will bring the sword upon you, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> I will bring you out of the midst of it, and deliver you into the hands of foreigners, who will execute judgments on you.

<sup>10</sup> You will fall by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel; then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> This city will not be your pot, neither will you be the meat in the midst of it; I will judge you at the border of Israel.

<sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you kept my regulations, but rather you have acted according to the regulations of the nations that are around you."

<sup>13</sup> When I was prophesying, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried out with a loud voice, "Ah sovereign LORD! Will you totally destroy the remnant of Israel?"

<sup>14</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers, your relatives and all the house of Israel, all of them, are those to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'They are far away from the LORD; to us is this land given for a possession.'

<sup>16</sup> Therefore say, This is what the sovereign LORD says: 'Even though I have removed them far off to be among the nations, and scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary for them for a little while in the countries where they are exiled.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore say, This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> When they return there, they will remove all its detestable things and all its abominations.

<sup>19</sup> Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them; and I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh.

<sup>20</sup> Then they will walk in my statutes, and keep my regulations, and do them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>21</sup> But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring back what they have done on their own heads, says the sovereign LORD.’”

<sup>22</sup> Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel hovered over them.

<sup>23</sup> Then the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stopped on the mountain to the east of the city.

<sup>24</sup> The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles in Chaldea. So the vision that I had seen left me.

<sup>25</sup> Then I reported to the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, you are dwelling in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and see not, who have ears to hear, and hear not, for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, son of man, pack your bags for exile, and in broad daylight in their sight move from your place into exile in their sight. Perhaps they will consider, even though they are a rebellious house.

<sup>6</sup> In their sight carry it on your shoulder and carry it out in the dark. Cover your face so that you do not see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup> So I did just as I was told. I brought out my bags by day, as bags packed for exile, and that evening I dug through the wall with my own hands; I brought it out in the dark, and carried it on my shoulder in their sight.

<sup>8</sup> Then in the morning the word of the LORD came to me,

<sup>9</sup> “Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, asked you, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>11</sup> Say, ‘I am your sign: just as I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity.’

<sup>12</sup> And the prince that is among them will carry his belongings on his shoulder in the dark, and leave. They will dig through the wall to carry it out through the hole. He will cover his face, so that he won’t see the land with his eyes.

<sup>13</sup> I will spread my net over him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, and he will die there.

<sup>14</sup> I will scatter to every wind all that are around about him—his aids and all his troops; and I will draw out the sword after them.

<sup>15</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations, and scatter them among the foreign countries.

<sup>16</sup> But I will let a few of them escape from the sword, famine and pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they are going; then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>18</sup> “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with anxious shaking.

<sup>19</sup> Tell the people of the land, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, because their land will be stripped of everything in it, as a result of the violence of all those who live there.

<sup>20</sup> The inhabited towns will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate; then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>21</sup> Then the word of LORD came to me:

<sup>22</sup> “Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, ‘The days are far off, and every vision fails’?”

<sup>23</sup> Tell them therefore, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will make this proverb to cease, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but tell them, ‘The days are near, and every vision will be fulfilled.’

<sup>24</sup> For there will be no more false visions nor flattering divinations within the house of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> For I am the LORD; I will speak, and the word that I speak will happen. There will be no more delay. For in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it, says the sovereign LORD.’”

<sup>26</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>27</sup> “Son of man, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days in the future, and he prophesied of times that are far off.’

<sup>28</sup> Therefore tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word which I speak will be performed, says the sovereign LORD.’”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy. Tell those who prophesy out of their own imagination, ‘Hear the word of the LORD:

<sup>6</sup> They have seen false visions and lying divinations. They say, “The LORD says;” but the LORD has not sent them, yet they expect that bogus word to be fulfilled.

<sup>7</sup> Have you not seen a false vision and spoken a lying divination, when you say, “The LORD says;” although I have not spoken?

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have spoken falsehood, and envisioned lies, therefore I am against you, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not be in the council of my people, neither will they be written in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> Because they have seduced my people, saying, ‘Peace,’ when there is no peace; and when someone slaps up a wall, they coat it with whitewash.

<sup>11</sup> Tell those who coat it with whitewash, that it will fall. There will be a torrential downpour; and great hailstones will fall; and a strong wind will knock it down.

<sup>12</sup> When the wall falls, will you not be asked, “Where is the whitewash you plastered it with?”

<sup>13</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will let loose a storm in my wrath; and there will be a torrential downpour in mine anger with great hailstones in wrath to destroy it.

<sup>14</sup> So I will break down the wall that you plastered with whitewash, and knock it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be exposed. When it falls you will be crushed beneath it. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Thus I will vent my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone along with those who whitewashed it,

<sup>16</sup> those prophets of Israel that prophesied concerning Jerusalem, and who have envisioned peace for her, when there was no peace, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> “Now you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own imagination; and prophesy against them, <sup>18</sup> Say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Woe to the women that sew bands on their wrists, and make veils for the head of all sizes, who hunt human lives!

Will you hunt down the lives of my people, and save your own lives alive?

<sup>19</sup> You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for crumbs of bread. You have slain the lives of those who should not die, and save the lives of those who should not live, by your lying to my people who hearken to lies.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against your wristbands by which you ensnare the lives of my people like birds. I will tear them from your arms and I will let their lives go, even the lives that you hunt like birds.

<sup>21</sup> I will rip off your veils, and deliver my people from your hands; they will no longer fall as prey into your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> Because you have discouraged the righteous with lies, whom I have not made sad; and you have encouraged the hands of the wicked, that he should not turn from his wicked way and save their lives.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore you will no longer see false visions, or practice divinations. I will deliver my people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

DASV: Ezekiel 14

<sup>1</sup> Then certain of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat before me.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore speak to them, and tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Every one of the house of Israel that takes his idols into his heart, and puts their iniquity as a stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols.

<sup>5</sup> So that I may capture the hearts of the house of Israel, I will do this because they are all estranged from me on account of their idols.’

<sup>6</sup> Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Repent, and turn from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.’

<sup>7</sup> For every one of the house of Israel, or the stranger who lives in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts their iniquity as a stumbling block before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire of me for himself; I the LORD will answer him myself.

<sup>8</sup> I will set my face against that one, and will make him an example and a proverbial byword. I will cut him off from the midst of my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> If the prophet is fooled into speaking a prophetic word, I, the LORD, have fooled that prophet. I will stretch out my hand against him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

<sup>10</sup> They will each bear their punishment; the punishment of the one who inquires will be the same as the punishment of the prophet,

<sup>11</sup> so that the house of Israel may no longer go astray from me, nor defile themselves any more with all their transgressions. So they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>13</sup> “Son of man, when a land sins against me by being unfaithful, and I stretch out my hand against it, and break its staff of bread, and send famine upon it, and cut off from both people and animals;

<sup>14</sup> even though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would save only their own lives by their righteousness, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> If I send wild animals to pass through the land and they ravage it, and make it desolate, so that no one may pass through because of the wild animals;

<sup>16</sup> even though these three men were in it, as I live, says the sovereign LORD, they would save neither sons nor daughters; only they themselves would be saved, but the land would become desolate.

<sup>17</sup> Or if I bring a sword against that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land;’ so that I cut off both people and animals from it

<sup>18</sup> even though these three men were in it, as I live, says the sovereign LORD, they would save neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be saved.

<sup>19</sup> Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it with bloodshed, to cut off both people and animals from it;

<sup>20</sup> even though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the sovereign LORD, they would save neither son nor daughter; they would save only their own lives by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> For thus says the sovereign LORD: How much worse will it be when I send my four severe judgments against Jerusalem--the sword, the famine, evil beasts, and pestilence,--to cut off both people and animals from it!

<sup>22</sup> Yet, there will be a remnant that will be left behind, both sons and daughters who will come out to you, and you will see their way and their doings; and you will be comforted concerning the catastrophe that I brought against Jerusalem, for all that I have brought upon it.

<sup>23</sup> They will comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without a reason, says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 15

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, is the wood of a vine better than that of any tree—even a branch from any of the trees of the forest?

<sup>3</sup> Is its wood taken to make anything? Does one make even a peg from it to hang something on it?

<sup>4</sup> Of course not. It is thrown into the fire for fuel; when the fire has devoured both ends of it, and it is burned in the middle, even then is it useful for anything?

<sup>5</sup> Look, when it was whole, it was useless, how much less when the fire has consumed it and it is charred, can it be useful for anything?

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says: As the grapevine among the trees of the forest, which I have thrown into the fire for fuel, so will I throw the inhabitants of Jerusalem into the fire.

<sup>7</sup> I will set my face against them; although they may escape from the fire, but the fire will still devour them. Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

<sup>8</sup> I will make the land desolate, because they have been unfaithful, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your birth and your nativity were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup> As for your birth, on the day you were born your umbilical cord was not cut, neither were you washed in water to clean you up; you were not rubbed with salt, or wrapped in blankets.

<sup>5</sup> No eye had pity on you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were dumped in an open field, for you were detested on the day that you were born.

<sup>6</sup> When I passed by you, and saw you thrashing around in your own blood, I said to you as you lay in your own blood, “Live.” Yes, I said to you as you lay in your own blood, “Live.”

<sup>7</sup> I made you to grow like a plant in the field. You grew tall and matured like a perfect jewel; your breasts developed, and your hair grew; yet you were naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup> Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, I saw you were of age for love; and I spread my cloak over you, and covered your nakedness. I pledged myself to you, and entered into a marriage covenant with you, says the sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

<sup>9</sup> Then I bathed you with water; I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil.

<sup>10</sup> I clothed you with embroidered cloth and fine leather sandals, and I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

<sup>11</sup> I adorned you with jewelry, and put bracelets upon your hands, and a chain around your neck.

<sup>13</sup> You were adorned with gold and silver; and your garment was made of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate choice flour, honey, and olive oil. You were stunningly beautiful, and you rose to a position of royalty.

<sup>14</sup> Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty; for it was perfect because of the splendor I had clothed you with, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> But you trusted in your own beauty, and played the whore because of your fame. You lavished your sexual favors on everyone who passed by, your beauty became his.

<sup>16</sup> You took some of your garments, and made for yourself high places decorated with all sorts of colors, and on them you played the prostitute. Nothing like it has ever been nor ever should be.

<sup>17</sup> You also took your exquisite jewelry of my gold and silver, which I had given you, and made images of men for yourself, and engaged in prostitution with them.

<sup>18</sup> You used your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and incense before them.

<sup>19</sup> My bread also which I gave you, choice flour, olive oil, and honey, by which I fed you, you set it before them for a sweet aroma. So that's what happened, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>20</sup> Then you took your sons and daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to be consumed by idols. Were your whoredoms not bad enough?

<sup>21</sup> You slaughtered my children, and offered them up by sacrificing them to idols.

<sup>22</sup> And in all your abominations and your prostitutions you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and thrashing around in your own blood.

<sup>23</sup> after all your wickedness. Woe! Woe to you! Says the sovereign LORD, <sup>24</sup> you built yourself a shrine, and have made a high place in every public square.

<sup>25</sup> You built your high place at the head of every street, and have made your beauty an abomination, you spread your legs to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your whoring.

<sup>26</sup> You have committed prostitution with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and have multiplied your promiscuity to provoke me to anger.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, I have stretched out my hand against you, and have reduced your food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, and even they were ashamed of your lewd behavior.

<sup>28</sup> You played the whore also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; even after you had played the prostitute with them, you still were not satisfied.

<sup>29</sup> You have multiplied your whoredom with the land of merchants, Chaldea; and yet even then you were not satisfied.

<sup>30</sup> How sick is your heart, says the sovereign LORD, seeing you do all these things, the work of a shameless prostitute, <sup>31</sup> building your shrines at the head of every street, and making your high places in every square, and have not even been like a whore, because you scorn being paid.

<sup>32</sup> A wife that commits adultery! You prefer strangers instead of your husband!

<sup>33</sup> All prostitutes get gifts; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them to come to you from everywhere for your sexual favors.

<sup>34</sup> So you are different from other women in your prostitution for no one solicits you. You pay and no payment is given to you, so you are different.

<sup>36</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Because your lust was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your promiscuity with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and because of the blood of your children that you sacrificed to them,

<sup>37</sup> therefore, I will gather all your lovers with whom you have had pleasure, and all them you have loved, with all those who you hated; I will gather them against you on every side, and they will expose your nakedness in front of them, so that they may all see your nakedness.

<sup>38</sup> I will judge you as women that commit adultery and shed blood are judged; and I will cover you with blood in wrath and jealousy.

<sup>39</sup> I will also give you into their hands, and they will throw down your shrines and break down your high places; and they will strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewelry; and they will leave you naked and bare.

<sup>40</sup> They will also gather a mob against you, and they will stone you, and hack you into pieces with their swords.

<sup>41</sup> They will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will force you to stop playing the harlot, and you will no longer make payments to your lovers.

<sup>42</sup> So will I cause my rage toward you to rest, and my jealousy will turn from you, and I will be calm, and will be angry no more.

<sup>43</sup> Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged me in all these things; therefore, I also will bring what you have done back upon your head, says the sovereign LORD. Have you not committed this lewdness on top of all your abominations?

<sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

<sup>47</sup> Yet you have not only walked in their ways and copied their abominations but in a short time you have become more corrupt than they in all your ways.

<sup>48</sup> As I live, says the sovereign LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

<sup>49</sup> Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excessive food, and prosperous ease; but she did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

<sup>50</sup> They were haughty, and committed abominations before me. Therefore I removed them as I saw fit.

<sup>51</sup> Samaria never committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they ever did. You have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations you have done.

<sup>52</sup> Bear your own shame, in that you have been the justification of your sisters; because your sins that you have committed are even more abominable than theirs. They are more righteous than you are. Be ashamed, and bear your shame, for you have justified your sisters.

<sup>53</sup> But I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and the fortunes of your captives along with theirs;

<sup>54</sup> then you may bear your own disgrace, and be ashamed because of all that you have done, becoming a comfort to them.

<sup>55</sup> For your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will return to their former state; and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former state; and you and your daughters will return to your former state.

<sup>56</sup> For your sister Sodom was a contemptuous byword in your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was exposed. Now you are the object of mockery from the daughters of Aram and all her neighbors and the daughters of the Philistines-- those all around you who despise you.

<sup>58</sup> You bear the penalty of your lewdness and abominations, says the LORD.

<sup>59</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will also deal with you according to what you have done, you who have despised your vow by breaking the covenant.

<sup>60</sup> Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

<sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you receive your sisters, your elder and younger sisters. I will give them to you for daughters, even though this was not part of my covenant with you.

<sup>62</sup> I will establish my covenant with you; then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>63</sup> You will remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done, says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 17

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, pose a riddle, and tell a parable to the house of Israel;

<sup>4</sup> He trimmed off the topmost branch and carried it to a land of trade; he set it in a city of merchants.

<sup>5</sup> He took a seedling from the land, and planted it in fertile soil. He placed it beside plenty of water; he set it like a willow.

<sup>6</sup> It sprouted and became a low spreading vine. Its branches turned toward the eagle, and its roots grew deep. So it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and put out leafy twigs.

<sup>7</sup> There was also another great eagle with great wings and full plumage. Now this vine sent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the soil bed where it was planted, for him to water it.

<sup>8</sup> It was planted in a good soil by abundant water, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit and might be a magnificent vine.

<sup>9</sup> Tell them, This is what the sovereign LORD says: Will it flourish? Will he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither and all its budding leaves shrivel? No strong arm or large army will be needed to pull it up by the roots.

<sup>10</sup> When it is transplanted, will it thrive? When the east wind strikes it will it not totally wither? It will wither in the soil bed where it grew.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>12</sup> “Tell the rebellious house: Don’t you know what these things mean? Tell them: The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king and its princes, and brought them back with him to Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> He took the offspring of the royal family, and made a covenant with him, putting him under an oath. He also exiled the leaders of the land, <sup>14</sup> so that the kingdom might be weakened, and not able to raise itself up, but only by keeping its treaty might it stand.

<sup>15</sup> But he rebelled against Babylon by sending ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can one that does such things escape? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?

<sup>16</sup> As I live, says the sovereign LORD, surely in the place where the king lives who made him king of Israel, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, he will die there in Babylon.

<sup>17</sup> Pharaoh with his mighty army and great legions will not help him in the war, when they cast up ramps and siege towers to kill many lives.

<sup>18</sup> For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he gave his hand in a promise and yet has done all these things, he will not escape.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: As I live, surely I will bring back on his own head my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken.

<sup>20</sup> I will spread my net over him, and he will be captured in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, and will judge him there for his treachery that he has committed against me.

<sup>21</sup> All his choice troops will fall by the sword, and they that survive will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>22</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: “I will also take the sprig from the top of the cedar, and will plant it. I will prune off from the topmost of its tender young twigs and I will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain.

<sup>23</sup> I will plant it on the mountain heights of Israel. It will bring forth twigs, bear fruit, and be a magnificent cedar. Under it will dwell every kind of bird; they will live in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup> All the trees of the field will know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, and have exalted the low tree. I have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish. I, the LORD, have spoken and will do it.”

DASV: Ezekiel 18

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
<sup>2</sup> “What do you mean by quoting this proverb concerning the land of Israel:
    ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
        and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’
<sup>3</sup> As I live, says the sovereign LORD, you will not quote this proverb in Israel.
<sup>4</sup> All lives are mine; the life of the father, as well as the life of the son is mine. The one who sins, is the one who will die.
<sup>5</sup> But if a person is just,
    and does that which is just and right, <sup>6</sup> if he has not eaten idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains, nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor defiled his neighbor's wife,
    or slept with a woman during her menstrual period, <sup>7</sup> and has not oppressed anyone, but has restored to the debtor what he has put up as security, has taken nothing by robbery,
    has given his bread to the hungry,
    and has clothed the naked;
<sup>8</sup> does not charge interest on loans,
    or take any profit,
    but withholds his hand from wrong,
    adjudicates true justice between contending people, <sup>9</sup> has walked in my statutes, and has kept my regulations to deal fairly.
    That person is righteous,
    he will surely live, says the sovereign LORD.
- <sup>10</sup> If such a man fathers a violent son, one who sheds blood, and one who does any of these things, <sup>11</sup> whose father had not done any of these things, Yet he eats idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains, and defiles his neighbor's wife, <sup>12</sup> has oppressed the poor and needy, has committed robbery,
    has not paid back what he has taken in pledge,
    and has lifted up his eyes to the idols,
    has committed abominations,
<sup>13</sup> has lent money charging interest.
    Will such a person live?
    He will not live!
    The one who has done all these abominations;

he shall surely die;
 he will be responsible for his own death.

<sup>14</sup> Now, if he fathers a son, that sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not do like that;

<sup>15</sup> who has not eaten idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains, nor has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
 or defiled his neighbor's wife,

<sup>16</sup> does not oppress anyone, has not taken security for a loan,
 does not commit robbery,
 but has given his bread to the hungry,
 and has clothed the naked;

<sup>17</sup> who withholds his hand from wrong, has not lent money for interest, has executed my regulations,
 and walked in my statutes;

he will not die for the sin of his father. He will surely live.

<sup>18</sup> As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, he will die in his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup> Yet you claim, 'Why does the son not suffer for the sin of the father?' When the son has done that which is just and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live.

<sup>20</sup> The person who sins, is the one who will die. The son will not suffer for the sin of the father, nor will the father suffer for the sin of the son. The righteousness of the righteous will be rewarded to him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be repaid to him.

<sup>21</sup> But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does that which is just and right, he will surely live, he shall not die.

<sup>22</sup> None of the transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him. By his righteousness that he has done, he shall live.

<sup>23</sup> Do I get any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the sovereign LORD.
 Wouldn't I rather that he should turn from his way and live?

<sup>24</sup> But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits sin, and does the same abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered. Because of his treachery which he is guilty of and in his sin that he has committed, he will die for them.

<sup>25</sup> Yet you allege, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Now listen, house of Israel: Is my way unjust? Rather is it not your ways that are unjust?

<sup>26</sup> When the righteous turn away from his righteousness, and commits sin, he will die for it; because of the sin that he has done will he die.

<sup>27</sup> But when the wicked turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is just and right, he shall save his life.

<sup>28</sup> Because he has reflected and turned away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he will surely live, he will not die.

<sup>29</sup> Yet the house of Israel claims, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, are not my ways just? Are not your ways unjust?

<sup>30</sup> Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the sovereign LORD. Repent and turn from all your sins; so sin will not bring about your ruin.

<sup>31</sup> Cast away from you all your transgressions you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel?

<sup>32</sup> For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies, says the sovereign LORD. Repent and then you will live.

DASV: Ezekiel 19

<sup>1</sup> As for you, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, <sup>2</sup> and say:

What was your mother?

A lioness among lions!

She lay down among young lions where she reared her cubs.

<sup>3</sup> She reared one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.

He learned to tear prey;
he even devoured humans.

<sup>4</sup> The nations heard about him;
he was caught in their pit;
and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> Now when she saw that hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs,
and made him a young lion.

<sup>6</sup> He prowled among the lions;
he became a young lion,
and he learned to tear prey and even devoured humans.

<sup>7</sup> He demolished their strongholds, and laid waste their towns.
The land and all who were in it trembled at the sound of his roaring.

<sup>8</sup> Then the nations attacked him from all the surrounding regions;
and they spread their net over him;
he was taken in their pit.

<sup>9</sup> They dragged him into a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon.
They brought him into prison, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard, planted by the waters.
It was fruitful and full of branches as a result of the abundance of water.

<sup>11</sup> Its branches were strong,
fit for a ruler's scepter,

and its height towered over the dense foliage, and it stood above the others with its numerous branches.

<sup>12</sup> But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branches were broken off and withered;
the fire consumed them.

<sup>13</sup> Now it is replanted in a wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

<sup>14</sup> Fire has gone out from the stock of its branches, it has devoured its fruit,
There is no strong branch left to be a ruler's scepter.

This is a lament song, and shall be used for lamentation.”

DASV: Ezekiel 20

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

<sup>2</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>3</sup> “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, This is what the sovereign LORD says: Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the sovereign LORD, I will not be inquired of by you.

<sup>4</sup> Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Make them acknowledge the abominations of their fathers;

<sup>5</sup> and tell them, This is what the sovereign LORD says: On the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup> On that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which is the loveliest of all lands.

<sup>7</sup> And I told them, ‘Each of you cast away the abominations of his eyes, and not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>8</sup> But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they did not each cast away the abominations of their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I threatened I would pour out my wrath on them, to vent my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> So I brought them go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

<sup>11</sup> I gave them my statutes, and showed them my regulations, by which if a person does them, he will live.

<sup>12</sup> Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>13</sup> But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not walk in my statutes, and they rejected my regulations, which if a person keeps, he will live by them; and my Sabbaths they absolutely desecrated. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness to consume them.

<sup>14</sup> But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it would not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which is the loveliest of all lands, <sup>16</sup> because they rejected my regulations, and not walked in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.

<sup>17</sup> Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them or make an end of them in the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup> I am the LORD your God. Walk in my statutes, and keep my regulations, and do them.

<sup>20</sup> Keep my Sabbaths holy; and they will be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

<sup>21</sup> But the children rebelled against me; they did not walk in my statutes, nor did they keep my regulations to do them, which if a person does, they will live by them. Instead they profaned my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to vent my anger against them in the wilderness.

<sup>22</sup> But I withheld my hand, and responded for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth.

<sup>23</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries;

<sup>24</sup> because they had not obeyed my regulations, but rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were focused on their fathers' idols.

<sup>25</sup> Moreover I also gave them statutes that were not good, and regulations by which they could not live.

<sup>26</sup> I allowed them to defile themselves with their own gifts, in that they sacrificed their firstborn, that I might devastate them, so that they might know that I am the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, This is what the sovereign LORD says: In this also your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have been unfaithful to me.

<sup>28</sup> For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every leafy tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented offerings that provoked me; there they also wafted up their sweet incense, and they poured out there their drink-offerings.

<sup>29</sup> Then I said to them, 'What is this high place you go to?' So the name thereof is called Bamah [high place] to this day.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore say to the house of Israel, This is what the sovereign LORD says: Do you defile yourselves in the same way your fathers did and play the prostitute after their abominations?

<sup>31</sup> When you offer your gifts, and forcibly sacrifice your sons in the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Should I allow you to inquire, O house of Israel? As I live, says the sovereign LORD, I will not be inquired by you.

<sup>32</sup> What you are planning will never happen, in that you say, ‘We will be like the nations, like the clans of the countries, who serve idols of wood and stone.

<sup>33</sup> As I live, says the sovereign LORD, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you.

<sup>34</sup> I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries wherein you have been scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out.

<sup>35</sup> I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

<sup>36</sup> Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>37</sup> I will cause you to pass under the scrutiny of the shepherd’s rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant;

<sup>38</sup> I will purge out the rebels from among you, and those who rebel against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they reside, but they will not enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Go, serve your idols every one of you, if you will not listen to me. But you will not profane my holy name with your gifts and your idols.

<sup>40</sup> For on my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the sovereign LORD, there all the house of Israel will serve me, all of them in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings, and your choicest gifts, with all your holy things.

<sup>41</sup> As a sweet aroma I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries wherein you have been scattered; and I will be seen as holy among you in the sight of the nations.

<sup>42</sup> You will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country that I swore to give to your fathers.

<sup>43</sup> There you will remember your ways, and all your deeds by which you have defiled yourselves. You will despise yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed.

<sup>44</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, or according to your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>45</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>46</sup> “Son of man, set your face toward the south, and speak out against the south, and prophesy against the scrub brush of the Negev.

<sup>47</sup> Tell the forest of the Negev, Hear the word of the LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The flaming fire will not be extinguished, and all surface from the south to the north will be scorched by it.

<sup>49</sup> Then I said, “Sovereign LORD! They say of me, ‘Does he not a speak in riddles?’”

DASV: Ezekiel 21

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Say to the land of Israel, ‘This is what the LORD says: Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked.

<sup>4</sup> Because I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north,

<sup>5</sup> and all flesh will know that I, the LORD, have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not be put back into its sheath again.’

<sup>7</sup> When they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ You will answer, ‘Because of the news that has come. Every heart will melt, and all hands will be feeble, and every spirit will faint and all knees will be wet with urine.’ It is coming, and it will be done, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>9</sup> “Son of man, prophesy and say, This is what the LORD says:

A sword, a sword,
it is sharpened and polished.

<sup>10</sup> It is sharpened for slaughter;
it is polished that it may flash like lightning.

Should we then rejoice in the scepter of my son? The sword despises every such piece of wood.

<sup>11</sup> It is given to be polished, that it may be taken in hand;
the sword is sharpened, yes, it is polished,
to be given into the hand of the slayer.

<sup>12</sup> Cry out and wail, son of man;
for it is against my people,
it is against all the princes of Israel.

They are delivered over to the sword along with my people.

Therefore beat your thigh.

<sup>13</sup> For a trial is coming; and even the scepter that the sword despises is no more, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>14</sup> So then you, son of man, prophesy, and clap your hands together.

Let the sword be brandished twice and then a third time.

It is the sword for slaughter.

It is the sword of the great slaughter surrounding them.

<sup>15</sup> I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their hearts may melt and many stumble.

Ah! It is made to flash,

it is polished for slaughter.

<sup>16</sup> Slash to the right!

Cut to the left,

wherever your edge is directed.

<sup>17</sup> I will also clap my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to cease.

I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>18</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>19</sup> “Son of man, mark out two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; both of them will come out of one land. Mark out a signpost, mark it out at the beginning of the way to the city.

<sup>20</sup> Mark out a way for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and the other against Judah and fortified Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> But it will seem like a false divination to them, who have sworn oaths to the Babylonians; but he brings their violations to remembrance, that they may be seized.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have reminded me of your guilt by your uncovered transgressions, revealing your sins in all your actions; because you are come to remembrance, you will be taken by force.

<sup>25</sup> And you, O corrupt and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the final punishment, <sup>26</sup> this is what the sovereign LORD says: Remove the turban, and take off the crown. This will not be the same anymore. Exalt that which is low, and bring down that which is high.

<sup>27</sup> A ruin, a ruin, an absolute ruin. It will be no more until he comes to whom it belongs; then I will give it to him.

<sup>28</sup> As for you, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says concerning the Ammonites and their insults, say:

A sword, a sword is drawn,
for the slaughter,

it is polished to devour,
that it may flash like lightning;

<sup>29</sup> while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies for you,
to lay the sword on the necks of the wicked who are mortally wounded, whose time is come,
the time of the final punishment.

<sup>30</sup> Return it to its sheath.

In the place where you were created,
in the land of your birth,
there I will judge you.

<sup>31</sup> I will pour out my wrath on you;
I will blow on you with the fire of my fury;
and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men,
those skilled in destruction.

<sup>32</sup> You will be fuel for the fire;
your blood will be shed in the midst of the land;
you will not be remembered:
for I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>2</sup> “Now son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then confront her with all her abominations.

<sup>4</sup> You have become guilty by the blood that you have shed, and defiled by your idols that you have made; you have brought your day to a close, and are come to the end of your years. Therefore I have made you an object of ridicule before the nations, and mocking to all the countries.

<sup>5</sup> Those who are near, and those who are far from you, will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

<sup>6</sup> The princes of Israel living in you have used their power to shed blood.

<sup>7</sup> In you, father and mother are treated with contempt, they have oppressed the foreigner. In you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow.

<sup>8</sup> You have despised my holy things and have profaned my Sabbaths.

<sup>9</sup> In you the slanderous are determined to shed blood; in you are those who have eaten at the shrines on the mountains, who have committed obscene acts.

<sup>10</sup> In you are those who have uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you are those who have had sex with women who were menstruating.

<sup>12</sup> In you are those who have taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and usury, and you have extorted gain from your neighbors, and have forgotten me, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>13</sup> I clap my hands against your dishonest gain which you have made, and at the blood that has been shed in your midst.

<sup>14</sup> Can your courage endure, or can your hands be strong in the days when I will deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it!

<sup>15</sup> I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you.

<sup>16</sup> Then you will be profaned in yourself in the sight of the nations; then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>18</sup> “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them are brass, tin, iron and lead left in the furnace. They are the dross of silver.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have all become dross, therefore, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> Just as they gather silver, brass, iron, lead and tin into a furnace to blow the fire on it to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you in there and melt you.

<sup>21</sup> I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted inside it.

<sup>22</sup> As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted in it; and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my wrath on you.”

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>24</sup> “Son of man, say to her, ‘You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of my fury.

<sup>25</sup> There is a conspiracy among her princes like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows within her.

<sup>26</sup> Her priests have done violence to my law and profaned my holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they instructed men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have paid no attention to my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

<sup>27</sup> Her officials in her midst are like wolves ripping prey. They shed blood and destroy souls that they may acquire dishonest gain.

<sup>28</sup> Her prophets have covered it with whitewash for them by seeing false visions, and divining lies for them, saying, “This is what the sovereign LORD says,” when the LORD has not spoken.

<sup>29</sup> The people of the land have committed extortion and robbery; they have oppressed the poor and needy, and have deprived the foreigner of justice.

<sup>30</sup> I sought for a person among them, who would build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found none.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore have I poured out my wrath on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my fury; I have repaid their own way on their heads, says the sovereign LORD.””

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother.

<sup>3</sup> They became prostitutes in Egypt; they played the harlot in their youth; there their breasts were fondled, and their virgin bosom caressed.

<sup>5</sup> Oholah played the whore when she was mine; and she lusted after her lovers the Assyrians, warriors <sup>6</sup> who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.

<sup>7</sup> She had sex with them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and defiled herself with whomever she lusted--with all their idols.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.

<sup>11</sup> Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her lusting than she, and in her prostitutions she was worse than her sister had been.

<sup>12</sup> She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and rulers, warriors, clothed with armor, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

<sup>13</sup> I saw that she was defiled; they both had taken the same path.

<sup>14</sup> But she increased her prostitutions for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed in brilliant red,

<sup>16</sup> As soon as she saw them she lusted after them, and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

<sup>17</sup> So the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lust, and she was defiled by them, then she was appalled at them.

<sup>19</sup> Yet she multiplied her immorality, remembering the days of her youth, where she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup> She lusted after her paramours, whose genitals were as large as a donkey's, and whose semen emission was as much as horses.

<sup>21</sup> This is how you remembered the lewdness of your youth, with the Egyptians fondling of your bosom and caressing your young breasts.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, O Oholibah, this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom you are disgusted, and I will bring them against you on every side:

<sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and nobles, all of them riding on horses.

<sup>24</sup> They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a large army; they will set themselves against you with large and small shields and with helmets; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their codes.

<sup>25</sup> And I will set my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and daughters; and your survivors will be devoured by fire.

<sup>26</sup> They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your fair jewelry.

<sup>27</sup> So I will put an end to your lewdness, and your promiscuity from the land of Egypt. You will not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt anymore.

<sup>28</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will deliver you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those with whom you are disgusted.

<sup>29</sup> They will deal with you in hatred, and take away everything you have worked for, and will leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of prostitution will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your whoring

<sup>30</sup> These things will be done to you, because you have played the prostitute with the nations, and because you are defiled by their idols.

<sup>31</sup> You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand.

You will drink from your sister's cup,
which is deep and wide;
you will be laughed at and mocked.
It holds a lot.

<sup>33</sup> You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of horror and desolation,
which was the same as your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup> You will drink it and drain it down, and you will gnaw its shards,
and will tear your breasts;

for I have spoken it, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have forgotten me, and turned your back on me, therefore you must bear the consequences of your lewdness and prostitution.”

<sup>36</sup> The LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah?
Then declare to them their abominations.

<sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have also sacrificed their sons, whom they bore to me, to be consumed as food for idols.

<sup>38</sup> Moreover this is what they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths.

<sup>39</sup> For when they had slaughtered their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it. This is what they have done right in the middle of my house.

<sup>40</sup> They even sent for men to come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent, and they came. For you washed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments for them.

<sup>41</sup> You sat upon a luxurious couch, with a table spread before it, on it you set my incense and my olive oil.

<sup>44</sup> They went in to her, as one has sex with a prostitute. So they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, lewd women.

<sup>45</sup> But the righteous will judge them with the sentence for adultery and bloodshed; because they are adulteresses, and they have blood on their hands.

<sup>46</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will bring up an army against them, and will give them to be terrorized and plundered.

<sup>47</sup> The army will stone them and hack them with their swords; they will slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

<sup>48</sup> So I will put an end to the lewdness from the land, that all women may be taught not to copy your promiscuous example.

<sup>49</sup> Then they will repay you for your lewdness, and you will bear the penalty of your idols; and you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 24

<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year, on the tenth day of the tenth month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, write down the name of this day, this exact day. The king of Babylon has laid siege against Jerusalem this very day.

<sup>3</sup> Utter a parable to this rebellious house, and tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says, “Put on the pot, set it on,

pour water into it also.

<sup>4</sup> Put pieces of meat into it, all good pieces, the thigh and the shoulder;
fill it with the choice bones.

<sup>5</sup> Take the choicest sheep of the flock, and also pile wood under it for the bones;
bring it to a boil;
let its bones boil well.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:

Woe to the bloody city,
to the kettle whose rust is therein that has not been cleaned out!

Take it out piece by piece randomly.

<sup>7</sup> For her bloodshed is in the midst of her;
she put it upon the bare rock;
she did not even pour it on the ground to cover it with dust.

<sup>8</sup> To stir my wrath to come in order to take vengeance,
I have put her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:

Woe to the bloody city!
I also will make a great wood pile.

<sup>10</sup> Heap on the wood, make the fire hot,
boil the meat well,
make the broth thick,
and let the bones be burned up.

<sup>11</sup> Put the empty pot on the coals,
so that it may become hot,
and its copper may glow,
and its uncleanness may be melted in it,

that its rust may be consumed.

<sup>12</sup> My efforts have been useless;
its thick rust has not been burned out,
not even by fire.

<sup>13</sup> Your filthiness is lewdness, because I have attempted to cleanse you but you would not become clean. You will not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have expended my wrath on you.

<sup>14</sup> I, the LORD have spoken. I will do it. I will not hold back, nor will I spare, neither will I relent. I will judge you according to your ways, and according to your deeds, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>16</sup> “Son of man, with a single blow I will take away from you the desire of your eyes. Yet you will neither mourn or weep, or shed any tears.

<sup>17</sup> Sigh, but not out loud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your turban on, and put your sandals on your feet, and do not cover your lips, or eat the bread of consolers.”

<sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning; and that evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I was commanded.

<sup>19</sup> Then the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean to us, that you are acting like this?”

<sup>20</sup> Then I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>21</sup> ‘Speak to the house of Israel, This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will desecrate my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and the hearts delight. Your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.

<sup>22</sup> Then you shall do as I have done. You will not cover your lips, or eat the bread of consolers.

<sup>23</sup> Your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep, but you will waste away in your iniquities and groan one to another.

<sup>24</sup> So Ezekiel will be a sign to you; according to everything he has done you will do. When this happens, then you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.

<sup>25</sup> And you, son of man, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the desire of their eyes, and their heart’s desire, as well as their sons and their daughters, <sup>26</sup> on that day, one who escapes will come to you, so you can hear it with your own ears.

<sup>27</sup> On that day your mouth will be opened with the one who has escaped, and you will speak, and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign to them; then they will know that I am the LORD.””

<sup>3</sup> Tell the Ammonites, ‘Hear the word of the sovereign LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says, Because you said, “Aha!” against my sanctuary, when it was desecrated, and against the land of Israel, when it was desolated; and against the house of Judah, when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup> therefore, I will deliver you over to the people of the East for a possession. They will set their encampments among you, and make their dwellings among you.

They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels, and Ammon a fold for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you clapped your hands, and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the malice of your soul against the land of Israel,

<sup>7</sup> therefore, I have stretched out my hand against you, and will deliver you for plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Because Moab and Seir has claimed, “The house of Judah is like all the other nations,”

<sup>9</sup> therefore, I will open the flank of Moab from the towns which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country: Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.

<sup>10</sup> I will give Moab as well as Ammon to the people of the east for a possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

<sup>11</sup> I will execute judgments on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>12</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Because Edom has taken revenge against the house of Judah, and has greatly offended, and avenged himself upon them,

<sup>13</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says, I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and will cut off both man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman even to Dedan, they will fall by the sword.

<sup>14</sup> I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they will do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath. Then they will know my vengeance, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>15</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Because the Philistines have dealt in vengeance, and have taken revenge with malice of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity, <sup>16</sup> therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites, and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

<sup>17</sup> I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance on them.””

DASV: Ezekiel 26

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha, she is broken who was the gateway to the peoples; its doors have swung open; I will prosper now that she is laid waste.’

<sup>3</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Tyre, and will bring many nations up against you, just as the sea crashes its waves.

<sup>4</sup> They will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock.

<sup>5</sup> She will be a place for the spreading of nets surrounded by the sea. For I have spoken, says the sovereign LORD. She will become plunder for the nations,

<sup>6</sup> and her daughters who are in the field will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> He will slay your daughters in the field with the sword. Then he will make a siege wall against you, and build up a ramp against you, and raise up a roof of shields against you.

<sup>10</sup> There will be so many horses that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, wagons and chariots. He will enter into your gates, as men usually enter into a city where the walls have been breached.

<sup>11</sup> With the hoofs of his horses he will tread down all your streets; he will slay your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength will tumble down to the ground.

<sup>12</sup> They will plunder your riches, and loot your merchandise. They will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses. They will throw your stones, timber, and dust into the water.

<sup>13</sup> I will silence the sound of your songs; and the sound of your harps will be heard no more.

<sup>14</sup> I will make you a bare rock; you will be a place for the spreading nets. You will not be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken it, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>15</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in your midst?

<sup>16</sup> Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling, they will sit on the ground and tremble continually and be aghast over you.

<sup>17</sup> They shall take up a lamentation over you, and say to you, ‘How are you destroyed,
    who was inhabited by seafaring men,
    O renowned city,
that was so strong in the sea,
    she and her inhabitants who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!

<sup>18</sup> Now the coastlands will tremble on the day of your fall.
The islands that are in the sea will be dismayed at your passing.’

<sup>19</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: When I will make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters will cover you,

<sup>20</sup> then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of long ago. I will make you dwell beneath the earth, among the primeval ruins, with those who go down to the pit. You will not be inhabited or stand in the land of the living.

<sup>21</sup> I will make you a terror, and you will be no more; though you be sought for, yet you will never be found again, says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 27

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
<sup>2</sup> “You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre.
<sup>3</sup> Declare to Tyre, O you that are located at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples of many coasts, this is what the sovereign LORD says:
    You, O Tyre, have said,
        I am perfect in beauty.
<sup>4</sup> Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
        your builders have perfected your beauty.
<sup>5</sup> They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir;
        they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
<sup>6</sup> From the oaks of Bashan they have made your oars;
        they have made your deck of pines from the coasts of Cyprus inlaid with ivory.
<sup>7</sup> Your sail was of fine embroidered linen from Egypt, that it might serve as your banner;
        blue and purple from the coastlands of Elishah was your awning.
<sup>8</sup> The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers;
        your skilled men, O Tyre,
        were in you as your pilots.
<sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal and its craftsmen were in you caulking the seams;
        all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to trade for your merchandise.
<sup>10</sup> Persia, Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war.
        they hung their shields and helmets in you;
        they displayed your splendor.
<sup>11</sup> The men of Arvad and Helech were all around on your walls, and men of Gamad
        were stationed in your towers;
        they hung their shields all around on your walls;
        they perfected your beauty.
<sup>12</sup> Tarshish was one of your traders because of your great wealth; silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares.

<sup>13</sup> Greece, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your customers; they traded slaves and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

<sup>15</sup> The men of Dedan were your customers. Many coastlands were your exclusive markets; they brought you payment in tusks of ivory and ebony wood.

<sup>16</sup> Syria did business with you because of the abundance of your goods; they traded turquoise, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral and rubies for your wares.

<sup>17</sup> Judah and the land of Israel traded with you. They traded wheat from Minnith, millet, honey, olive oil, and balm for your merchandise.

<sup>18</sup> Damascus was your merchant for your abundant goods because of your great wealth, with the wine from Helbon, and wool from Zahar.

<sup>19</sup> Greeks from Uzal traded for your wares. Wrought iron, cassia, and calamus were traded for your merchandise.

<sup>21</sup> Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were your customers dealing in lambs, rams, and goats, doing business with you.

<sup>22</sup> The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, traded with you with all kinds of spices, precious stones, and gold they traded for your wares.

<sup>24</sup> These were your customers supplying choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in multicolored carpets bound with cords and tied tightly; these were among your imports.

You were filled and weighed down with cargo
in the heart of the seas.

<sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you into the high seas.

The east wind has shipwrecked you
in the heart of the seas.

<sup>27</sup> Your riches, wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots,
your caulkers, your traders in your merchandise,
and all your men of war that are in you,
with all your company which is in you, will fall into the depth of the seas
in the day of your ruin.

<sup>28</sup> At the sound of the cry of your pilots the surrounding sea will surge.

<sup>29</sup> All the oarsmen, will abandon ship;

the mariners and all the pilots of the sea;
will stand on the shore,
30 and will cry aloud over you,
and will cry bitterly.
They will throw dust on their heads,
they will wallow in the ashes.
31 They will shave themselves bald for you,
and put on sackcloth,
and they will weep for you in anguish of soul with bitter mourning.
32 As they wail,
they will take up a lament for you,
and lament over you:
Who is there like Tyre,
like her who was now silent
in the midst of the sea?
33 When your wares went forth out from the seas,
you satisfied many peoples;
you enriched the kings of the earth with the abundance of your riches and your merchandise.
34 Now you are broken up by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your crew have sunk along with you.
35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands are aghast at you,
and their kings are horribly afraid;
their faces are contorted.
36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you;
you have come to a terrible end
and you will be no more.”

DASV: Ezekiel 28

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
- <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:
 Because your heart is proud,
     and you said, “I am a god,
 I sit in the seat of god,
     in the heart of the seas;”
 yet you are a man, and not a god, though you think of yourself like a god.
<sup>3</sup> Certainly you are wiser than Daniel;
     there is no secret that is hidden from you;
<sup>4</sup> surely by your wisdom and by your understanding you have amassed riches, and have put gold and silver into your treasuries.
<sup>5</sup> Indeed by your incredible wisdom in your trading you have increased your riches.
 However your heart has become proud because of your wealth.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:
 Because you think of yourself like a god, <sup>7</sup> therefore, I will bring foreigners against you,
     the most terrifying of nations.
 They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom,
     and they will defile your splendor.
<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the pit;
     and you will die the death of those slain
     in the heart of the seas.
<sup>9</sup> Will you still claim, “I am a god,” before the one who slays you,
 even though you are a man, and not a god,
     in the hands of those who wound you?
<sup>10</sup> You will die the death of the uncircumcised
     by the hand of foreigners;
 for I have spoken, says the sovereign LORD.”
- <sup>11</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
- <sup>12</sup> “Son of man, take up a lament for the king of Tyre, and say to him, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:
 You were a pattern of perfection,
     full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 You were in Eden, the garden of God;
every precious stone adorned your clothing,
the ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite,
onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl,
and settings and engravings of gold,
on the day that you were created they were prepared.
14 You were anointed as the guardian cherub.
I ordained you, so you were on the holy mountain of God;
you have walked among the fiery stones.
15 You were blameless in your ways from the day that you were created, until evil was found in you.
16 By the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you have sinned;
so I cast you as a defiled thing from the mountain of God;
and I expelled you, O guardian cherub,
from the midst of the stones of fire.
17 Your heart was arrogant because of your beauty;
you have corrupted your wisdom on account of your splendor.
I threw you to the ground;
I have exposed you before kings,
that they may gape on you.
18 By the multitude of your iniquities, through the unrighteousness of your trade,
you have desecrated your sanctuaries.
So I have brought forth fire within you;
it has consumed you,
and I have turned you into ashes on the earth
in the sight of all those who saw you.
19 All those who know you among the peoples are appalled at you;
you have come to a terrible end,
and you will be no more.”

20 The word of the LORD came to me:

21 “Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it,

22 say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:

I am against you, O Sidon;

and I will be glorified in your midst;

and they will know that I am the LORD,

when I execute judgments on her,

and manifest my holiness in her.
<sup>23</sup> For I will send pestilence into her,
and bloodshed into her streets;
and the slain will fall in the midst of her,
with the sword against her on every side.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> No longer will the house of Israel be pricked by briars or tearing thorns from any that surround them, that had contempt for them. Then they will know that I am the sovereign LORD.

<sup>25</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, I will manifest my holiness among them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob.

<sup>26</sup> They will live there securely. They will build houses, plant vineyards, and will live in security, when I have executed judgments on all those around them that treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.'''

DASV: Ezekiel 29

<sup>1</sup> In the tenth year, on the twelfth day of the tenth month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt;

<sup>3</sup> speak, and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:

I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
the great monster that lies in the midst of his streams, that has said, “The Nile is mine,
and I have made it for myself.”

<sup>4</sup> I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales;
and I will drag you up out of your streams, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will toss you away into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your streams;
you will fall on the open field;
you will not be picked up or buried;
I have made you as food for the animals of the earth and for the birds of the sky.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, because you have been a worthless reed to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> When they leaned on you with their hands, you splintered, and pierced into their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and made their legs wobbly.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will bring a sword against you, and will cut off men and animals from you.

<sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt will be a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD. Because he has said, “The Nile is mine, I have made it.”

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, I am against you, and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolate, from Migdol to Syene, even to the border of Ethiopia.

<sup>11</sup> No human or animal foot will pass through it, nor will it be inhabited for forty years.

<sup>12</sup> I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among the desolate countries; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste will be a desolate for forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them throughout the countries.

<sup>14</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and will bring them back to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin; and they will be an unimportant kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> It will be the most insignificant of kingdoms; and never again will it exalt itself above the nations. I will make them so small that they will never again rule over the nations.

<sup>16</sup> It will be never again be the relied on by the house of Israel, but it will be a reminder of their sin when they turned to them for help. Then they will know that I am the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> In the twenty-seventh year, in the first day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off her abundance, take her plunder, and capture her loot; as wages for his army.

<sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as his reward for which he worked, because they labored for me, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>21</sup> In that day I will cause the glory of the house of Israel to sprout, and I will give you the respect to open your the mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 30

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
- <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:
Wail, “Alas for the day!”
- <sup>3</sup> For the day is near,
the day of the LORD is near;
it will be a day of clouds,
a doomsday for the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will be in Ethiopia,
when the slain fall in Egypt.
They will carry off her abundance, and her foundations will be broken down.
- <sup>5</sup> Ethiopia, Put, Lud, and all Arabia, Libya, and the people of allied territories will fall with them by the sword.”
- <sup>6</sup> “This is what the LORD says:
‘They who support Egypt will fall;
and the pride of her power will crumble.
From Migdol to Syene
they will fall in her by the sword,
says the sovereign LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> They will be desolate among the desolate countries;
and her cities will lie among ruined cities.
- <sup>8</sup> Then they will know at I am the LORD,
when I have set fire to Egypt, and all her allies are destroyed.
- <sup>9</sup> On that day messengers will go out before me in ships to make the unsuspecting Ethiopians afraid; and panic will take hold of them, as in the day of Egypt’s demise. Look, for it is coming.”
- <sup>10</sup> “This what the sovereign LORD says:
‘I will also put an end to the abundance of Egypt,
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
- <sup>11</sup> He and his people with him, the most ruthless of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt,
and cover the ground with corpses.
- <sup>12</sup> I will dry up the streams, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men;
I will make the land desolate,
and everything that is in it,

by the hand of foreigners.
I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>13</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says:
‘I will destroy the idols, and I will put an end to the images at Memphis;
and there will be no more a prince from the land of Egypt;
so I will spread fear in the land of Egypt.
<sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire to Zoan,
and will execute judgments on Thebes.
<sup>15</sup> I will pour my wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt;
and I will cut off the hordes of Thebes.
<sup>16</sup> I will set fire to Egypt:
Pelusium will suffer great agony,
Thebes will be broken down;
and Memphis will daily face adversaries.
<sup>17</sup> The young men of On and Pi-beseth will fall by the sword;
and these cities will go into captivity.
<sup>18</sup> At Tehaphnehes the day will become dark, when I break there the yoke of Egypt.
Her proud power will cease within her.
A cloud will cover her,
and her daughters will go into captivity.
<sup>19</sup> So I will execute judgments on Egypt.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>21</sup> “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and it has not been bandaged up for healing, or wrapped up, so that it would be strong enough to hold a sword.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one which was broken; and I will force the sword to fall out of his hand.

<sup>24</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him with the moans of one mortally wounded.

<sup>25</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon; but the arms of Pharaoh will hang limp. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.

DASV: Ezekiel 31

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, the word of the LORD came to me:

‘Who is like you in your greatness?

with fair branches and forest-like shade,
and of towering height,
with its top among the clouds.

<sup>4</sup> The waters nourished it,
the deep waters made it grow, streams flowed around where it was planted;
and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore it towered over all the trees of the field;
and its boughs multiplied, and its branches grew long from the abundant waters at its roots.

<sup>6</sup> All the birds of the air made their nests in its branches; and under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young;
and all the great nations lived under its shade.

<sup>7</sup> Thus was it beautiful in its greatness,
in the length of its branches;
for its roots went down into abundant waters.

<sup>8</sup> The cedars in the garden of God could not match it;
the fir trees cannot equal its boughs,
nor the plane tree its branches;
no tree in the garden of God could compare with its beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful by many of its branches, so that it was the envy of all the trees of Eden,
in the garden of God.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you are towering in stature, and has set its top among the clouds, and its heart became proud of its height, <sup>11</sup> I will give it over to the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he will surely deal with it; as its wickedness deserves. I have thrown it down.

<sup>12</sup> Foreigners, the most terrifying of the nations, have cut it down and have left it. On the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its boughs are broken in all the ravines of the land. All the peoples of the earth have withdrawn from its shade, and have abandoned it.

<sup>13</sup> On its fallen trunk all the birds of the air will dwell, and all the animals of the field will lodge among its downed branches.

<sup>14</sup> Because of this none of all the trees by the waters will be arrogant about their height, neither set their top among the clouds, nor any of their well-watered mighty ones reach such a height. For all of them are delivered to death, to the earth beneath, among mere mortals, with those who go down to the pit.”

<sup>15</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘In the day when it went down to Sheol, I covered the deep springs with mourning, I stopped its rivers; and restrained the great waters. I clothed Lebanon in gloom for it, and all the trees of the field withered for it.

<sup>16</sup> I made the nations to shake at the sound of its fall, when I threw it down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the earth beneath.

<sup>17</sup> They also went down into Sheol with it, to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were within its reach, all the nations who lived under its shade.

<sup>18</sup> Who is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth beneath; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is what is going to happen to Pharaoh and all his horde, says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 32

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year, on the first day of the twelfth month the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, take up a lament over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him,
 ‘You were like a young lion of the nations:
 and you are like a monster in the seas;
 you thrash around in your streams, and stir the waters with your feet,
 and muddy your rivers.’

<sup>3</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says:

‘I will throw out my net over you with a company of many peoples;
 and they will haul you up in my net.

<sup>4</sup> I will discard you on the ground,
 I will toss you onto an open field,
 and will let all the birds of the air settle on you, and I will let the animals of the whole earth stuff themselves with you.

<sup>5</sup> I will scatter your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your carcass.

<sup>6</sup> I will soak the land with your flowing blood up to the mountains;
 and the ravines will be full of you.

<sup>7</sup> When I extinguish you,
 I will cover the heavens,
 and make its stars dark;

I will cover the sun with a cloud,
 and the moon will not give its light.

<sup>8</sup> All the bright lights of heaven

I will darken over you, and cover your land with darkness,’ says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> ‘I will disturb the hearts of many peoples, when I bring about your destruction among the nations,
 into the countries that you have not known.

<sup>10</sup> I will make many peoples be shocked at your fate, and their kings will tremble in horror because of you, when I brandish my sword before them,
 they will tremble continually,
 each one for his own life,
 on the day of your downfall.’

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says:
 ‘The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.
<sup>12</sup> By the swords of the mighty
 I will cause your hordes to fall;
 they are all the most terrifying
 among the nations.
 They will destroy the pride of Egypt,
 and all its hordes will perish.
<sup>13</sup> I will destroy also all its cattle from beside abundant waters;
 and no human foot will trouble them anymore,
 nor will the hoofs of cattle disturb them.
<sup>14</sup> Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their streams to run like oil,’ says the sovereign LORD.
<sup>15</sup> ‘When I make the land of Egypt desolate and a land stripped of everything that fills it, when I smite all those who live there,
 then they will know that I am the LORD.’

<sup>16</sup> This is the lament they will recite. The daughters of the nations will recite it over Egypt, and over all her hordes, they will recite it, says the sovereign LORD.’”

<sup>17</sup> In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of LORD came to me:

<sup>18</sup> “Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt, and send them down with the daughters of the mighty nations, to the underworld, with those who go down into the pit.

<sup>19</sup> ‘Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.’

<sup>20</sup> They shall fall among those who are slain by the sword. The sword is drawn;
 haul her away and all her hordes.

<sup>21</sup> The mighty warriors will speak to her out of the midst of Sheol along with her allies, ‘They have come down, they lie still among the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.’

<sup>22</sup> Asshur is there and all her company; her graves surround her; all of them slain, killed by the sword.

<sup>23</sup> Their graves are set in the recesses of the pit, and her company surrounds her grave; all of them slain, killed by the sword, those who once spread terror in the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup> There is Elam and all her hordes surrounding her grave; all of them slain, killed by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the underworld, who spread their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>25</sup> They have made a bed for her in the midst of the slain with all her hordes; her graves surround her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was spread in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is buried among the slain.

<sup>27</sup> They will not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, that are gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their shields are upon their bones; for these mighty spread terror in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup> But you will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and you will lie with those who are slain by the sword.

<sup>29</sup> There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword. They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup> There are all the princes of the north, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain; in spite of the terror which they spread by their might, they are put to shame. They lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his hordes slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his hordes,' says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>32</sup> 'or I have put his terror on the land of the living; yet he will be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his hordes,' says the sovereign LORD."

DASV: Ezekiel 33

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
- <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, speak to your people, and tell them, ‘When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land take one of their men, and make him their watchman,
- <sup>3</sup> when he sees the sword coming against the land, he blows the trumpet, and warns the people,
- <sup>4</sup> then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and does not heed the warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.
- <sup>5</sup> He heard the sound of the trumpet, and did not heed the warning; so his blood will be on him; but if he had taken warning, he would have saved his life.
- <sup>6</sup> But if the watchman sees the sword coming, and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes, and takes away anybody; he is taken away in his iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.
- <sup>7</sup> So you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear the word of my mouth, and give them warning from me.
- <sup>8</sup> When I say to the wicked, ‘O wicked one, you will surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from his way; that wicked person will die in his iniquity, but I will hold you accountable for his blood.
- <sup>9</sup> But if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he does not turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have saved yourself.’
- <sup>10</sup> Now you, son of man, tell the house of Israel: ‘This is what you said, “Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?”’”
- <sup>11</sup> Tell them, ‘As I live, says the sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but desire that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways. Why should you die, O house of Israel?’
- <sup>12</sup> And you, son of man, tell your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him at the time when he sins; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, it will not cause him to fall if he turns from his wickedness. The righteous will not live because of his former righteousness when he sins.
- <sup>13</sup> When I say to the righteous, that he will surely live; if he trusts in his righteousness, and commits iniquity, none of his former righteous deeds will be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed he will die.
- <sup>14</sup> Again, when I say to the wicked, “You will surely die,” if he turns from his sin, and does that which is just and right;
- <sup>15</sup> if the wicked restores what was taken in pledge, returns what he has stolen, walks in the statutes that give life, committing no iniquity; he will surely live, he will not die.
- <sup>16</sup> None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He does that which is just and right; he will surely live.

<sup>17</sup> Yet your people claim, “The way of the Lord is not fair.” When it is their way that is not just.

<sup>18</sup> When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he will die for it.

<sup>19</sup> When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is just and right, he will live because of it.

<sup>20</sup> Yet you claim, “The way of the Lord is not fair.” O house of Israel, I will judge each of you after your ways.”

<sup>21</sup> In the twelfth year of our captivity, on the fifth day of the tenth month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, “The city has fallen.”

<sup>22</sup> Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, before the one who escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, before he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>24</sup> “Son of man, those who inhabit these ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was just one person, and he possessed the land. But we are many, the land was given to us for an inheritance.’

<sup>25</sup> So tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: You eat meat with blood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. Should you really possess the land?’

<sup>27</sup> Tell them this, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword; and those in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be eaten. Those who are in the strongholds and caves will die from disease.

<sup>28</sup> I will make the land desolate and waste; and the pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that none will pass through.

<sup>29</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land desolate and waste, because of all their abominations that they have committed.

<sup>30</sup> As for you, son of man, your people talk about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and say to one another, “Come, hear the word that comes from the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup> They come to you as crowds come, and they sit before you as my people. They hear your words, but do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their own gain.

<sup>32</sup> You are to them just like one with a love song sung by one with a beautiful voice, or a talented musician; for they hear your words, but they do not do them.

<sup>33</sup> When this happens, and it will, then they will know that a prophet has been among them.””

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy, and tell them-- to the shepherds, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the sheep?’

<sup>3</sup> You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep.

<sup>4</sup> The weak you have not strengthened, healed the sick, or bound up the injured. You have not brought back those that strayed away, or sought the lost; but with domination and cruelty you ruled over them.

<sup>5</sup> So they were scattered because there was no shepherd, and they became food for any wild animal, when they were scattered.

<sup>6</sup> My sheep wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over the face of the whole earth; yet there was no one searching or seeking for them.

<sup>8</sup> As surely as I live, says the sovereign LORD, my sheep have become prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild animals, because there was no shepherd, and my shepherds did not search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed my sheep.

<sup>10</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds; and will hold them responsible for what happened to my sheep under their care, for they stopped feeding the sheep. No longer will the shepherds feed themselves; but I will deliver my sheep from their mouths, so that they may not be food for them.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: I myself, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.

<sup>12</sup> As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he finds his sheep that are scattered, so I will seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places to which they have been scattered on a cloudy and dark day.

<sup>13</sup> I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel by the brooks, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

<sup>14</sup> I will feed them with good pasture; and the mountain heights of Israel will be their pasture. There they will lie down in lush pasture; and on verdant pasture they will feed on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> I will seek the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak. But those who are fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them with justice.

<sup>17</sup> And as for you, O my flock, this is what the sovereign LORD says. I will judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the goats.

<sup>18</sup> Is it not enough for you to have fed yourselves on the good pasture, but must you trample down with your feet the rest of your pasture? Is it not enough to have drunk of the clear waters yourselves, but must you muddy the rest of the water with your feet?

<sup>19</sup> Must my sheep eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep.

<sup>21</sup> Because you pushed with your side and with your shoulder, and butted all the weak with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad, <sup>22</sup> I will rescue my flock, and they will no more be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.

<sup>23</sup> I will set up one shepherd over them, and he will feed them, even my servant David; he will feed them, and he will be their shepherd.

<sup>24</sup> I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup> I will make a covenant of peace with them, and will cause wild animals to disappear out of the land. Then they will dwell securely in the wilderness and even sleep in the woods.

<sup>26</sup> I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing. I will send showers down in their season; there will be showers of blessing.

<sup>27</sup> The trees of the field will yield their fruit, and the earth will yield its increase. They will be secure in their land; then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who enslaved them.

<sup>28</sup> They will no longer be prey for the nations, neither will wild animals devour them; but they will dwell securely, and no one will make them afraid.

<sup>29</sup> I will prepare for them a land famous for its crops, and they will no longer be consumed with famine in the land, or bear the insults of the nations any more.

<sup>30</sup> Then they will know that I, the LORD their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>31</sup> You are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture. You are my people, and I am your God, says the sovereign LORD.””

DASV: Ezekiel 35

- <sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
- <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it.
- <sup>3</sup> Say to it, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolate ruin.
- <sup>4</sup> Your cities I will lay waste, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> Because you have had a perpetual hatred, and have given over the people of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of their final punishment,
- <sup>6</sup> therefore, as surely as I live, says the sovereign LORD, I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you have not hated bloodshed, therefore bloodshed will pursue you.
- <sup>7</sup> So I will make Mount Seir a desolate ruin; and I will cut off from it even travellers who pass through and come back.
- <sup>8</sup> I will fill its mountains with its slain; in your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines will fall those slain by the sword.
- <sup>9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.
- <sup>10</sup> Because you have said, “These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess it;” although the LORD was there.
- <sup>11</sup> Therefore, as surely as I live, says the sovereign LORD, I will deal with you according to your anger and according to your jealousy by which you have demonstrated your hatred against them. I will make myself known among them when I judge you.
- <sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard all your insults that you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, “They are desolate, they have been given to us to devour.”
- <sup>13</sup> You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me; I have heard everything.
- <sup>14</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.
- <sup>15</sup> As you have rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, O Mount Seir, and all Edom, absolutely all of it.’ Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 36

<sup>1</sup> “Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore prophesy, and say, This is what the sovereign LORD says: Because they made you desolate, and crushed you on every side, so that you might be a possession for the rest of the nations, and you are taken up by the lips of gossips, and the slander of the people.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the sovereign LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the abandoned towns, which have become prey and a derision to the rest of the surrounding nations;

<sup>5</sup> therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, that have taken my land for themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and with absolute contempt, to plunder its pastures.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and the valleys, This is what the sovereign LORD says: I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the insults of the nations.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I have sworn that the nations that are around you will suffer their own insults.

<sup>8</sup> But you, O mountains of Israel, will sprout your branches, and bear your fruit for my people Israel; for they will soon return.

<sup>9</sup> For look, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be plowed and sown.

<sup>10</sup> I will increase your population, all the house of Israel, even all of it. The towns will be repopulated, and the ruins rebuilt.

<sup>11</sup> I will increase both people and animals upon you. They will increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as you were in former times, and will make it better for you than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> I will cause people to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer bereave them of their children.

<sup>13</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Because they tell you, “You are a devourer of people, and have bereaved your nation of children,”

<sup>14</sup> therefore you will no longer devour people, or bereave your nation of children any more, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> No longer will I allow you to hear the insults of the nations, no longer will you suffer the shame of the peoples, and no longer will you cause your nation to stumble, says the sovereign LORD.””

<sup>16</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their acts and deeds. Their behavior before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her menstrual period.

<sup>18</sup> So I poured out my wrath on them for the blood that they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols.

<sup>19</sup> I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their acts and doings I judged them.

<sup>20</sup> But when they came to the nations, wherever they went, they profaned my holy name; in that people said of them, “These are the people of the LORD, yet they are exiled out of his land.”

<sup>21</sup> But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, wherever they went.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I did not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, wherever you went.

<sup>23</sup> I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in the midst of them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, says the sovereign LORD, when I am sanctified in you right before their eyes.

<sup>24</sup> For I will take you from the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land.

<sup>25</sup> I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean from all your filth, and from all your idols, I will cleanse you.

<sup>26</sup> I will give you a new heart, and put a new spirit within you. I will remove the stony heart from your body, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

<sup>27</sup> I will put my Spirit within you, so that you walk in my statutes, and keep my regulations.

<sup>28</sup> Then you will live in the land that I gave to your forefathers; and you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>29</sup> I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and will not bring famine on you.

<sup>30</sup> I will multiply the fruit of the trees and the produce of the fields, so that you will no longer suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations.

<sup>31</sup> Then you will remember your evil conduct, and your doings that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your sins and abominations.

<sup>32</sup> It is not for your sake that I am doing it, says the sovereign LORD, be aware of that. Be ashamed and embarrassed by your ways, O house of Israel.

<sup>33</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: On the day that I cleanse you from all your sins, I will cause the towns to be repopulated, and the ruins to be rebuilt.

<sup>34</sup> Then the land that was desolate will be plowed, instead of being a desolation in the sight of all who pass by.

<sup>36</sup> Then the nations that are left surrounding you will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Let the house of Israel ask me for this to do it for them. I will increase their people like a flock.

<sup>38</sup> Like a flock for sacrifice, or the flock of Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 37

<sup>1</sup> The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.

<sup>2</sup> He led me all around them. There were very many on the valley floor and they were very dry.

<sup>3</sup> He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "O sovereign LORD you know."

<sup>4</sup> Then he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live.

<sup>6</sup> I will lay tendons on you, and will bring flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, a rattling and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

<sup>8</sup> I looked and there were tendons on them, and flesh formed, and skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup> Then he told me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and tell the breath, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.'"

<sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, a great army.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are totally cut off.'

<sup>12</sup> Therefore prophesy, and tell them, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will open your graves, and bring you up out of your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back into the land of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and brought you up out of your graves, O my people.

<sup>14</sup> I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will put you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and done it, says the LORD.'"

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>16</sup> "As for you, son of man, take a stick, and write on it, 'For Judah, and for the Israelites associated with it.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and all the house of Israel associated with it.'

<sup>17</sup> Join them into one stick, so that they may become one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup> When your people ask you, "Will you not show us what you mean by these things?"

<sup>19</sup> Tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with it; and I will put them with it the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. They will be one stick in my hand.

<sup>20</sup> The sticks you wrote on will be in your hand before their eyes.

<sup>21</sup> Tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will take the Israelites from among the nations where they have gone, and will gather them from all around, and bring them back into their own land.

<sup>22</sup> Then I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king over them all. They will no more be two nations, nor will they be divided into two kingdoms any more.

<sup>23</sup> They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their rebellions. I will save them out of all their unfaithfulness in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup> My servant David will be king over them; and they will all have one shepherd. They will also walk in my regulations, and observe my statutes, and do them.

<sup>25</sup> They will live in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your forefathers dwelt. They will live there, they, and their children, and their children's children forever, and David my servant will be their prince forever.

<sup>26</sup> I will make a covenant of peace with them, it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will settle them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them forever.

<sup>27</sup> My dwelling also will be with them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>28</sup> Then the nations will know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary will be in their midst forever.”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him

<sup>4</sup> I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with various shields and all of them wielding swords.

<sup>6</sup> Gomer and all his troops; Beth Togarmah in the remote regions of the north with all his troops; along with many others with you.

<sup>7</sup> Be ready and prepare yourself, you, and all your companies that are assembled around you, and be a guard for them.

<sup>8</sup> After many days you will be called to arms; in the latter years you will come to a land restored from war, gathered from many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste. Its people were brought out from the peoples, and all of them will live securely.

<sup>9</sup> You will approach like a coming a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.’

<sup>10</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘On that day, thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan.

<sup>11</sup> You will say, “I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will invade those who are at rest, that live securely, all of them living without walls, bars or gates

<sup>12</sup> to take spoil and plunder; to turn my hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have acquired cattle and goods, who live in the center of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its leaders will ask you, “Have you come to take the spoil? Have you assembled your army to take plunder, to carry off silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to seize great spoil?”

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: On that day when my people Israel are living securely, then you will rouse yourself.

<sup>15</sup> You will come from your place out of the remote regions of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding horses, a great company and a mighty army.

<sup>16</sup> You will come up against my people Israel, as a cloud covering the land. In the latter days, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me, when I display my holiness in you, O Gog, before their eyes.”

<sup>17</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Are you he of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in that time for years that I would bring you against them?

<sup>18</sup> On that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the sovereign LORD, my rage will be roused.

<sup>19</sup> For in my jealousy and in the fury of my wrath have I spoken: Surely on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the animals of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all people that are on the face of the earth, will quake at my presence. The mountains will be thrown down, and the steep places collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> I will call for a sword against Gog on all my mountains, says the sovereign LORD: every one's sword will be against his brother.

<sup>22</sup> With pestilence and with bloodshed I will judge him; and I will rain on him, and on his troops, and on many peoples that are with him. It will be an torrential downpour, with great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

<sup>23</sup> This is how I will magnify myself and sanctify myself. I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 39

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

<sup>2</sup> I will turn you around and will lead you on. I will bring you from the remote regions of the north and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> I will knock your bow out of your left hand, and will make your arrows fall out of your right hand.

<sup>4</sup> You will fall dead on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your troops, and the peoples who are with you. I will give you to all sorts of birds of prey, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

<sup>6</sup> ‘I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who live securely in the coastlands. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> My holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel; I will not allow my holy name to be profaned anymore. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> It is coming, and it will be done,’ says the sovereign LORD. ‘This is the day I have spoken about.’

<sup>9</sup> ‘Then those who dwell in the towns of Israel will go out, and will use the weapons for fuel and burn them, both the large and small shields, the bows and arrows, and the war clubs and spears, and they will make fires with them for seven years.

<sup>10</sup> They will not need to take wood from the field, or cut down any out of the forests; for they will make fires of the weapons; and they will plunder those who plundered them, and loot those who looted,’ says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>11</sup> ‘On that day I will give Gog a place for burial in Israel, in the Valley of Travelers, east of the sea; and it will block those who pass through. There they will bury Gog and all his horde; and they will rename it the Valley of Hamon-Gog [hordes of Gog].

<sup>12</sup> For seven months the house of Israel will bury them, so that they may cleanse the land.

<sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will bury them; and it will be a holiday on the day that I am glorified,’ says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>14</sup> ‘They will designate men for continual employment, who will search through the land, to bury those who are strewn on the face of the land, to cleanse it. They will search for seven months.

<sup>15</sup> When one who is searching through the land sees a human bone, then he will set up a marker by it, until those burying it have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

<sup>16</sup> A town named Hamonah [horde] will also be there. So they will cleanse the land.’

<sup>17</sup> As for you, son of man, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Tell every type of bird, and every beast of the field, ‘Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I am making for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may eat flesh and drink blood.

<sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth--the rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fatlings from Bashan.

<sup>19</sup> You will eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, from my sacrificial feast which I have made for you.

<sup>20</sup> You will be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with mighty men and all kinds of soldiers,’ says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>21</sup> I will display my glory among the nations; and all the nations will see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

<sup>22</sup> So the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward.

<sup>23</sup> The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and all of them fell by the sword.

<sup>24</sup> According to their uncleanness and their rebellion I did to them, and I hid my face from them.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel. I will be jealous for my holy name.

<sup>26</sup> They will bear their shame and all their unfaithfulness by which they have rebelled against me when they will dwell securely in their land, and no one will make them afraid.

<sup>27</sup> when I bring them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and I will display my holiness among them in the sight of many nations.

<sup>28</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them into exile among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land. I will not leave behind one of them there anymore.

<sup>29</sup> I will not hide my face from them any longer; for I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel,’ says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 40

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city fell, on the same day, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me there.

<sup>2</sup> In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on it was a structure like a city to the south.

<sup>3</sup> He brought me there where I saw a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring stick in his hand. He stood in the gate.

<sup>4</sup> The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for you were brought here so that I may show it to you. Tell everything that you see to the house of Israel."

<sup>5</sup> I saw a wall on the outside of the temple surrounding it. The measuring stick was 10 ½ feet long. So he measured the thickness of the wall, 10 ½ feet wide and 10 ½ feet high.

<sup>6</sup> Then he came to the gate which faces east, and went up its steps and he measured the threshold of the gate, 10 ½ feet deep.

<sup>7</sup> The alcoves were 10 ½ feet long and 10 ½ feet wide; and the space between the alcoves was 8 ¾ feet. The inner gate's threshold by the porch facing the temple was 10 ½ feet.

<sup>8</sup> He measured also the vestibule of the gate on the inside 10 ½ feet.

<sup>9</sup> Then he measured the vestibule of the gate, 14 feet across with jambs 3 ½ feet thick. This vestibule of the gate faced inward.

<sup>10</sup> There were three alcoves on this side, and three on the other side of the east gate; the three had the same measurement, and the jambs on both sides had the same measurement.

<sup>11</sup> Then he measured the width of the opening of the gate, 17 ½ feet; and the length of the gateway, 22 ¾ feet.

<sup>12</sup> There was a low wall 1 ¾ feet high in front of the alcoves on both sides; the alcoves were 10 ½ feet square.

<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the gate from the roof of the one alcove to the roof of the other, a width of 43 ¾ feet; from door to door.

<sup>14</sup> He also measured along the dividing walls of the inside of the gateway up to the vestibule at 105 feet.

<sup>16</sup> There were closed windows for the alcoves, and toward their jambs within the gate all around about, and likewise the vestibules also had windows all around the inside, and on each jamb were decorative palm trees.

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court; there were rooms and a pavement, all around the court. There were 30 chambers facing the pavement.

<sup>18</sup> The pavement ran along the side of the gates, matching the length of the gates, this was the lower pavement.

<sup>19</sup> Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court, as 175 feet, on the east and the north.

<sup>20</sup> Then he measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court facing the north.

<sup>21</sup> It had three alcoves on each side; and its jambs and vestibule were the same as the first gate; its length was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and its width  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet.

<sup>22</sup> Its windows and vestibules, and its decorative palm-trees, were the same size as the gate facing the east. Seven steps led up to it; and its vestibule was in front of them.

<sup>23</sup> There was a gate to the inner court over facing the north gate, as on the east; he measured from gate to gate it was 175 feet.

<sup>24</sup> Then he led me to the south and to a gate on the south. He measured its jambs and its vestibule which were the same size as the others.

<sup>25</sup> There were windows around it and its vestibule, like the windows of the others. It was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide.

<sup>26</sup> There were seven steps leading up to it, and its vestibules before them; and its jambs were decorated with palm trees on both sides.

<sup>27</sup> And there was a gate to the inner court on the south side and he measured from gate to gate toward the south; it was 175 feet.

<sup>28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. Then he measured the south gate which had the same dimensions.

<sup>29</sup> Its alcoves, its jambs, and its vestibule were the same size as the others; and there were windows in it and the vestibule all around. It was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>30</sup> There were porches all around about,  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet long and  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>31</sup> Its vestibules faced the outer court; and palm trees decorated its jambs, and the stairway up to it had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup> Then he brought me into the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate; it was the same size as the others.

<sup>33</sup> Its alcoves, jambs, and vestibule, were the same size as the others. There were windows all around it and its vestibule. It was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>34</sup> Its vestibule faced the outer court; and its jambs were decorated with palm trees on both sides. There were eight steps up its stairway.

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it. It had the same measurements as the others.

<sup>36</sup> Its alcoves, jambs and vestibules were the same size as the others and there were windows all around. It was  $87 \frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43 \frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>37</sup> Its jambs faced the outer court; and palm-trees decorated its jambs on both sides. There were eight steps up its stairway.

<sup>38</sup> And a chamber with its door by the vestibule of the gates was where they washed the burnt-offerings.

<sup>39</sup> In the vestibule of the gate were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, sin offering and guilt offering.

<sup>40</sup> On the outside of the vestibule as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables.

<sup>41</sup> Four tables were on this side of the gate, and four tables on the other; eight tables total, on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.

<sup>42</sup> There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering, 32 inches long and 32 inches wide and 21 inches high. They laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice there.

<sup>43</sup> There were hooks, 3 inches long, fastened all around and the flesh for the offerings was laid on the tables.

<sup>45</sup> He said to me, "This room facing south, is for the priests who are in charge of the temple.

<sup>46</sup> The room that faces north is for the priests who are in charge of the altar; these are the descendants of Zadok, who are the descendants of Levi who may come near to the LORD to minister to him."

<sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each of the jambs of the porch,  $8 \frac{3}{4}$  feet on both sides, and the width of the gate was  $24 \frac{1}{2}$  feet and the walls on both sides were  $5 \frac{1}{4}$  feet long.

<sup>49</sup> The length of the vestibule was 35 feet and its width was  $19 \frac{1}{4}$  feet; steps led up to it; and there were pillars by the jambs one on each side.

DASV: Ezekiel 41

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me to the temple sanctuary, and measured the jambs, 10 ½ feet thick on both sides.

<sup>2</sup> The width of the entrance was 17 ½ feet; and the sides of the entrance were 8 ¾ feet on both sides. He measured its length, 70 feet, and width, 35 feet.

<sup>3</sup> Then he went inside and measured each of the jambs of the entrance, 3 ½ feet; and the entrance opening 10 ½ feet, and the sidewalls were 12 ¼ feet long.

<sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the temple, 10 ½ feet thick; and the width of each side-rooms, 7 feet, around the temple on every side.

<sup>6</sup> The side rooms were in three stories, one over the other, with thirty on each story. There were ledges into the wall of the temple for the side rooms around it, that they might support them, so they would not be supported by the wall of the temple directly.

<sup>7</sup> The side rooms surrounding the temple were wider with each successive story; for the structure went up story by story all around the temple so the width of the temple increased as it went up. A stairway went up as one went up from the lowest level to the highest by way of the middle story.

<sup>8</sup> I saw also that the temple had a raised platform all around, the foundations of the side rooms were a full measuring stick of 10 ½ feet high.

<sup>9</sup> The thickness of the outer wall, which was for the side rooms, was 8 ¾ feet, leaving an open area between the side rooms of the temple.

<sup>10</sup> And rooms of the court were 35 feet wide all around the temple on every side.

<sup>11</sup> There were doors of the side rooms toward the left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the width of the open area was 8 ¾ feet all the way around.

<sup>12</sup> The building that was facing the temple courtyard to the west was 122 ½ feet wide; and the wall of the building was 8 ¾ feet thick all around, and its length was 157 feet.

<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the temple, 175 feet long and the courtyard of the building and its walls were another 175 feet long.

<sup>14</sup> The width of the front of the temple, and the courtyard on the east was 175 feet.

<sup>15</sup> Then he measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the back the temple, with its galleries on the one side at 175 feet. The inner part of the outer temple, and the outer vestibule porches;

<sup>16</sup> as well as the thresholds, recessed windows, and the galleries around their three stories, over the threshold, were paneled with wood, and from the floor up to the windows, the windows were covered too,

<sup>17</sup> to the space above the door, even to the inner sanctuary, and on the outside, and on all the walls in the inner sanctuary and outside were also paneled.

<sup>18</sup> It was decorated with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree between each cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

<sup>19</sup> a human face toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a lion toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple all around.

<sup>22</sup> The altar was of wood, 5  $\frac{1}{4}$  feet high, and its length was 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  feet. Its corners, its length, and its walls were made of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."

<sup>24</sup> The doors had two leaves each, two swinging leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other.

<sup>25</sup> On the doors of the outer sanctuary, were carved cherubim and palm trees, like those on the walls, and there was a wooden canopy over the front of the outside porch.

<sup>26</sup> There were recessed windows and decorative palm trees on both sides of the porch. The side rooms along the outside walls also had canopies.

DASV: Ezekiel 42

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me out into the outer court, toward the north, and he brought me into the chamber that was opposite the courtyard, and which was opposite the building on the north.

<sup>2</sup> Its length was 175 feet with an entrance on the north side, and its width was 87 ½ feet.

<sup>3</sup> Across from the 35 feet that belonged to the inner court, and across from the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery facing gallery in the three stories.

<sup>4</sup> In front of the chambers was a walkway of 17 ½ feet wide, running the whole 175 feet with their doors all facing north.

<sup>5</sup> Now the upper chambers were narrower; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle rooms in the building.

<sup>6</sup> For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts, therefore upper chambers were recessed from the ground more than the lowest and the middle ones.

<sup>7</sup> The outer wall that was by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court facing the rooms, was 87 ½ feet long.

<sup>8</sup> For the length of the chambers on the outer court was 87 ½ feet, while those opposite the temple were a 175 feet.

<sup>9</sup> Under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court.

<sup>10</sup> In the thickness of the wall of the court on the south side, facing the courtyard and opposite the building there were rooms,

<sup>11</sup> with a passage before them similar to the room on the north; of the same length and width, with similar exits according to their arrangements and entrances

<sup>12</sup> were the chambers on the south. There was a door at the head of the passage, the passage directly in front of the eastern wall as one enters them.

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which face the courtyard are the holy chambers, where the priests who come near to the LORD are to eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings: the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; for the place is holy.

<sup>14</sup> When the priests enter the holy place, they shall not go out of it into the outer court, until they take off their garments in which they minister; for they are holy; they will put on other garments, then they can go to places that are for the other people.”

<sup>15</sup> When he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the eastern gate and measured it all around.

<sup>20</sup> He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall all around it, 875 feet long and 875 feet wide, to make a separation between what was holy and what was common.

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me to the gate, the gate facing the east.

<sup>2</sup> I saw the glory of the God of Israel come from the east; and the sound was like the rumble of rushing waters; and the earth shone with his glory.

<sup>3</sup> The vision was like the vision I saw when he came to destroy the city; and it was like the vision I saw by the Kebar River. I fell upon my face.

<sup>4</sup> The glory of the LORD came into the temple by the way of the eastern gate.

<sup>5</sup> The Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner court; and I watched as the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

<sup>6</sup> I heard one speaking to me from the temple, while a man stood by me.

<sup>7</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the Israelites forever. The house of Israel will no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their idolatrous prostitution, and by honoring corpses of their kings at their high places.

<sup>8</sup> When they set their threshold beside my threshold, and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them; they have defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed; therefore I have consumed them in my anger.

<sup>9</sup> Now let them put away their idolatrous prostitution, and the corpses of their kings far from me; and I will dwell among them forever.

<sup>10</sup> As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their sins; and let them measure out the pattern.

<sup>11</sup> When they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple, and its floor plan, its exits and the entrances, and its whole structure, and all its regulations and laws. Then write it out in their sight; so that they may observe its entire design, and all its regulations, and do them.

<sup>12</sup> This is the law of the temple: On the top of the mountain, the whole area around it will be most holy. This is the law of the temple.

<sup>13</sup> These are the dimensions of the altar by cubits (this cubit was a cubit and width of a hand; 21 inches). The gutter will be 21 inches deep and 21 inches wide and its border 9 inches wide around its edge. This will be the height of the altar:

<sup>14</sup> from the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge will be 3 ½ feet, and the width 21 inches; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge will be 7 feet, and the width 21 inches.

<sup>15</sup> The altar hearth will be 7 feet, and from the altar hearth protruding upward there will be four horns.

<sup>16</sup> The altar hearth will be 21 feet long by 21 feet wide, a square in its four sides.

<sup>17</sup> The ledge will be 24 ½ feet long by 24 ½ feet wide on its four sides; and the curb around it will be 10 ½ inches; and its gutter 21 inches around it. Its steps will face the east.”

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to me, “Son of man, this is what the sovereign LORD says: These are the regulations of the altar in the day they make it to offer burnt offerings on, and to sprinkle blood on it.

<sup>19</sup> You will give to the Levitical priests who are the descendants of Zadok, who come near to me to minister to me, says the sovereign LORD, a young bull for a sin offering.

<sup>20</sup> You will take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar, and on the four corners of the upper ledge, and on the curb around it. This is how you will cleanse it and make atonement for it.

<sup>21</sup> You will also take the bull of the sin offering, and it will be burnt in the appointed place of the temple, outside the sanctuary.

<sup>22</sup> On the second day you will offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering. They will cleanse the altar, just as they cleansed it with the bull.

<sup>23</sup> When you have finished cleansing it, you will offer a young bull without defect, and a ram from the flock without defect.

<sup>24</sup> You will present them before the LORD, and the priests will sprinkle salt on them, and they will offer them up for a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> Seven days you will prepare every day a goat for a sin offering. They will also prepare a young bull, and a ram from the flock, both without defect.

<sup>26</sup> Seven days they will make atonement for the altar and purify it. This is how they will consecrate it.

<sup>27</sup> When they have completed the days, on the eighth day and after, the priests will make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the sovereign LORD.”

DASV: Ezekiel 44

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me, “This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, and no one will enter through it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it will remain shut.

<sup>3</sup> Only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he will enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and will go out the same way.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by the way of the north gate to the front of the temple; and I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell on my face.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD said to me, “Son of man, mark well, and inspect carefully with your eyes, and listen attentively with your ears to everything I tell you concerning all the regulations of the temple of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well the entrance of the temple, with all the exits of the sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup> You brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, into my sanctuary, to defile it, even my temple, when you offered my food, the fat and the blood. They have broken my covenant by all your abominations.

<sup>8</sup> You have not kept the charge of my holy things; but you have put foreigners in charge in my sanctuary.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all foreigners that live among the Israelites, are to enter my sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup> But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray from me after their idols, they will bear their punishment.

<sup>11</sup> Yet they will be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple, and ministering in the temple. They will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they will stand before them to minister to them.

<sup>12</sup> Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of sin to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the sovereign LORD, and they will bear their punishment.

<sup>13</sup> They will not come near me to execute the office of priest for me, or come near to any of my holy things, or to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame, and their abominations that they have committed.

<sup>14</sup> Yet I will appoint them keepers in the charge of the house, for all its service, and for all that will be done in it.

<sup>15</sup> But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, they will come near to me to minister to me; and they will stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> They will enter into my sanctuary, and they will come near to my table, to minister to me, and they will keep my charge.

<sup>17</sup> When they enter the gates of the inner court, they will be clothed with linen garments; and no wool is to be on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within the temple.

<sup>18</sup> They will have linen turbans on their heads, and will have linen undergarments on their waists. They are not to clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat.

<sup>19</sup> When they go out to the outer court to the people, they will take off their garments they minister with, and lay them in the holy chambers. They are to put on other garments, so that they do not transfer holiness to the people with their garments.

<sup>20</sup> They are not to shave their heads, or allow their locks to grow long; they are only to trim the hair of their heads.

<sup>21</sup> None of the priests are to drink wine when they enter into the inner court.

<sup>22</sup> They are not to marry a widow, or a divorced woman; but they may only marry virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or a widow of a priest.

<sup>23</sup> They will teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

<sup>24</sup> In a controversy, they will serve as judges; according to my regulations they are to make judgments. They must keep my laws and my statutes for all my appointed feasts; and they must keep my Sabbaths holy.

<sup>25</sup> They are not to go near to a dead person to defile themselves; but they may defile themselves for a father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister that has no spouse.

<sup>27</sup> On the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he will offer his own sin-offering, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>28</sup> They will have no inheritance; I am their inheritance. You shall not give them any possession in Israel; I am their possession.

<sup>29</sup> They will eat the grain offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs.

<sup>30</sup> The first of all the first fruits of everything, and every special gift of everything, from all your offerings will be for the priest. You must also give to the priests the first of your dough, so that a blessing may rest on your house.

<sup>31</sup> The priests are not to eat of anything that dies naturally, or is torn by any bird or wild animal.

DASV: Ezekiel 45

<sup>1</sup> When you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you will offer a portion to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be 8 1/3 miles, and 6 2/3 miles wide. It's entire area will be holy.

<sup>2</sup> Of this there will be a holy place 875 feet by 875 feet square; and 87 1/2 feet open space surrounding it.

<sup>3</sup> From this measured region, measure off a district 8 1/3 miles long and 3 1/3 miles wide. In it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

<sup>4</sup> It is a holy portion of the land; it will be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD. It will be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

<sup>5</sup> A region 8 1/3 miles long and 3 1/3 miles wide will be for the Levites, who minister at the temple, as their possession for towns for them to live in.

<sup>6</sup> Alongside the sacred area allot a region 8 1/3 miles long and 1 2/3 miles wide. It will be for the whole house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> For the prince there will be on both sides of the holy district and the property of the city, alongside the holy allotment and the district of the city, on the adjacent west and east sides. It will be the same length as one of the portions, from the west border to the east border

<sup>8</sup> of the land. It will be for his possession in Israel. My princes will no more oppress my people but they will allot the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

<sup>9</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: Enough, O princes of Israel! Remove violence and oppression, and execute justice and righteousness. Stop your evictions of my people, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> You are to have honest scales, and a just ephah dry weight measure, and a just bath liquid measure.

<sup>11</sup> The ephah and the bath are to be of standard measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer; its measure should be based on the standard homer.

<sup>13</sup> This is the offering that you should offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you will give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley,

<sup>14</sup> and the fixed portion of olive oil, measured by the standard bath, the tenth of a bath from each kor, a kor is ten baths or one homer (for there are ten baths in a homer),

<sup>15</sup> and one lamb of the flock, out of every two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>17</sup> It will be the prince's job to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the drink offerings, at the feasts, the new moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offering, grain offering, burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> The priest will take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the doorposts of the temple, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court.

<sup>20</sup> So you should do it on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or for sins of ignorance; so you will make atonement for the temple.

<sup>21</sup> Do this on the fourteenth day of the first month. You are to celebrate the Passover for seven days eating unleavened bread.

<sup>22</sup> On that day the prince will provide for himself and all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

<sup>23</sup> During the seven days of the feast he is to prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without defect for each of the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

<sup>24</sup> He will provide a grain offering of an ephah for each bull, and an ephah for each ram, and a gallon of olive oil for each ephah.

<sup>25</sup> During the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at the Feast, for the seven days of this feast he will provide the same sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and olive oil.

DASV: Ezekiel 46

<sup>1</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: The gate of the inner court that faces east will be shut during the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened.

<sup>2</sup> The prince will enter by the way of the porch of the gate from outside, and will stand by the post of the gate; and the priests will prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. He will worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he will go out; but the gate will not be shut until evening.

<sup>3</sup> The people of the land will worship at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

<sup>4</sup> The burnt offering that the prince will offer to the LORD will be on the Sabbath day six lambs and a ram, all without defect.

<sup>5</sup> The grain offering will be an ephah for the ram, and the grain offering for the lambs as much as he is able to give, and a gallon of olive oil for each ephah.

<sup>6</sup> On the day of the new moon it will be a young bull, six lambs and a ram all without defect.

<sup>7</sup> He will provide a grain offering of an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs as much as he is able, and a gallon of olive oil for each ephah.

<sup>8</sup> When the prince enters, he will go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he will go out the same way.

<sup>9</sup> When the people of the land will come before the LORD during the appointed feasts, whoever enters by the north gate to worship will go out by the south gate. Whoever enters by the south gate will go out by the north gate. He should not return by the gate by which he entered, but should go straight ahead.

<sup>11</sup> “At the feasts and in the appointed feasts the grain offering will be an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as much as he is able to give, and a gallon of olive oil for each ephah.

<sup>12</sup> The prince will provide a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to the LORD. The gate facing east will be opened for him. He will prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he will go out and after he goes out the gate will be shut.

<sup>13</sup> You are to provide daily a lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD; morning by morning you are to provide it.

<sup>14</sup> You will prepare a grain offering with it morning by morning, one sixth of an ephah, and a third of a gallon of olive oil, to moisten the fine flour; a grain offering to the LORD. This is a perpetual statute.

<sup>15</sup> This is how they will provide the lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil, morning by morning, for a perpetual burnt offering.”

<sup>16</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, and it is from his inheritance, it will belong to his sons; it is their property by inheritance.

<sup>17</sup> But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty; then it will return to the prince. But his inheritance will be for his sons alone.

<sup>18</sup> The prince should not take any of the people's inheritance, throwing them out of their own property. He will give the inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be evicted from their own property.”

<sup>19</sup> Then he brought me through the entrance, at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, facing north, and there was a place on the western end.

<sup>20</sup> He said to me, “This is the place where the priests are to boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they are to bake the grain offering; so that they not bring them out into the outer court, to transmit holiness to the common people.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought me out into the outer court, and led me to pass the four corners of the court; and in every corner of the court was another court.

<sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, 70 feet long and 52 ½ feet wide; these four corners were the same size.

<sup>23</sup> There was a wall around each of the four courts, and places for boiling offerings were made under the ledges all around.

<sup>24</sup> Then said he to me, “These are the kitchens, where the ministers of the house are to boil the sacrifices of the people.”

DASV: Ezekiel 47

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple. There water flowed out from under the threshold of the temple eastward; (for the temple faced toward the east); and the water came down from under the south side of the temple, from south of the altar.

<sup>2</sup> Then he brought me out by the way of the north gate, and led me around the outside of the outer gate that faces toward the east. There I saw water flowing out on the south side.

<sup>3</sup> When the man went eastward with the measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits [1,750 feet]. Then he led me across the water, which was ankle deep.

<sup>4</sup> Again he measured another thousand cubits [1,750 feet], and led me through the waters, which was knee deep. He measured another thousand, and led me through the waters, which were waist deep.

<sup>5</sup> After that he measured another thousand [1,750 feet]; and it was a river that I could not cross; for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be crossed on foot.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me back to the bank of the river.

<sup>7</sup> Now when I returned, I saw on the bank of the river many trees on both sides of the river.

<sup>8</sup> Then he said to me, "These waters flow toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah; where they will enter the Dead Sea. When it enters the stagnant sea, the water will become fresh.

<sup>9</sup> Every living creature which swarms, wherever the rivers flows, will live. There will be a multitude of fish; for these waters flow there and the waters of this salty sea will become fresh. Wherever the river flows everything will live.

<sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand on its shores, from En-gedi even to En-eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. There will be many kinds of fish, like the fish of the Great Sea.

<sup>12</sup> On both sides of the river banks, will grow every produce bearing tree, whose leaf will not wither, nor will its fruit fail. It will produce fresh fruit every month, because its waters flow out of the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food and its leaves for healing."

<sup>13</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: "This will be the border, by which you will divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph will have two portions.

<sup>14</sup> You will divide it equally; for I swore to give it to your forefathers, and this land will be allotted to you for your inheritance.

<sup>15</sup> This will be the border of the land:

On the north side, from the Great Sea, by the way of Hethlon through Lebo-Hamath, and on to Zedad;

Hamath; as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran.

<sup>17</sup> The border will run from the sea to Hazar-enon along the northern border of Damascus; and on north with the border of Hamath. This will be the northern boundary.

<sup>18</sup> On the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and between Gilead and the land of Israel, will be the Jordan River; from the northern border to the eastern sea down to Tamar. This will be the eastern boundary.

<sup>19</sup> On the south side it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the Great Sea. This will be the southern boundary.

<sup>20</sup> On the west side will be the Great Sea, from the southern border as far as Lebo Hamath. This will be the western boundary.

<sup>21</sup> So you are to divide this land for yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> You are to divide it by lot as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners who live among you, who will bear children among you. They will be to you as the native-born Israelites. They will be allotted an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> In whatever tribe the foreigner lives, there you are to give him his inheritance," says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>1</sup> “These are the names of the tribes:

From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo-Hamath, as far as Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, to the north beside Hamath, and extending from the east side to the west, Dan, one portion.

<sup>8</sup> On the border of Judah, from the east side to the west, will be the special allotment you will set apart. It will be 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] wide and the same length as one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west; the sanctuary will be in the middle of it.

<sup>10</sup> These will be the special allotments for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] long, and on the west side 10,000 [3 1/3 miles] wide, on the east 10,000 [3 1/3 miles] wide, and on the south 25,000 [8 1/3 miles] long; and the sanctuary of the LORD will be in the middle of it.

<sup>11</sup> It will be for the priests who are sanctified from the descendants of Zadok, who have kept my charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel strayed, like the Levites did.

<sup>12</sup> It will be a special allotment from the dividing of the land, a most holy portion, on the border with the Levites.

<sup>13</sup> Adjacent to the border of the priests, the Levites will have 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] long and 10,000 [3 1/3 miles] wide. The whole length will be 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] long and 20,000 cubits [6 2/3 miles] wide.

<sup>14</sup> They are not to sell it or trade it; they are not to transfer this choice portion of the land; for it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The 5,000 cubit wide [1 2/3 miles] that are left and the 25,000 cubits long [8 1/3 miles] will be for common use, for the city, for houses and for open country. The city will be in the middle of it

<sup>16</sup> and these will be its measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits [1 1/2 miles], the south side 4,500; the east side 4,500; and the west side 4,500.

<sup>17</sup> The city will have open areas: toward the north 250 cubits [437 1/2 feet], toward the south 250; toward the east 250; and toward the west 250.

<sup>18</sup> The remainder of the borders the holy allotment, will be 10,000 [3 1/3 miles] to the eastward, and 10,000 to the west; and it will be alongside the holy allotment. Its produce will provide food for those who labor in the city.

<sup>20</sup> The entire allotment will be 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] square. You will offer the holy allotment along with the property of the city.

<sup>21</sup> What remains on both sides of the holy allotment and of the property of the city will belong to the prince. It will extend 25,000 cubits [8 1/3 miles] from the allotment to the eastern border, and westward 25,000 cubits to the west border paralleling the portions, it will belong to the prince. The holy allotment and the sanctuary of the temple will be in the middle of it.

<sup>22</sup> The property of the Levites and of the city will be in the middle of that which belongs to the prince. The portion of the prince will be located between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

<sup>29</sup> This is the land that you are to divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their respective portions,” says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “These are the exits of the city: On the north side 4,500 cubits [1 1/2 miles] long,

<sup>31</sup> the gates of the city will be after the names of the tribes of Israel. Three gates on the north side: one gate for Reuben; one gate for Judah; and one gate for Levi.

<sup>32</sup> On the east side 4,500 cubits [1 1/2 miles], and three gates: one gate for Joseph; one gate for Benjamin; and one gate for Dan.

<sup>34</sup> On the west side 4,500 cubits [1 1/2 miles], with their three gates: one gate for Gad; one gate for Asher; and one gate for Naphtali.

<sup>35</sup> The circumference around the city will be 18,000 cubits [6 miles]. The name of the city from that day on will be, “The LORD is there.””

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Daniel 1

<sup>2</sup> The Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the sacred vessels of the temple of God. He carried them off to the land of Shinar to the temple of his god, and brought the sacred vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

<sup>4</sup> These were to be young men in whom there was no blemish, handsome, well versed in all wisdom, gifted with knowledge, insightful, and competent to stand in the king's palace. He was to teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.

<sup>5</sup> The king assigned them a daily portion from royal rations of food and the wine which he himself drank. They were to be educated for three years, so that at the end of their training they would be capable of entering the king's service.

<sup>7</sup> The chief of the palace officials gave them new names: Daniel he called Beltshazzar; Hananiah he called Shadrach; Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's food or with the wine that he drank. So he asked the chief of the palace officials for permission not to defile himself.

<sup>10</sup> But the chief of the palace officials replied to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. What would happen if he finds you are in worse shape than the other youths that are of your same age? That would endanger my head with the king."

<sup>12</sup> "Please test your servants, for ten days by giving us vegetables to eat and water to drink.

<sup>13</sup> You can compare our appearance and the appearance of the other youths who eat of the king's food. Then deal with your servants according to what you see."

<sup>14</sup> So he agreed to it and tested them for ten days.

<sup>15</sup> At the end of ten days their appearance was better, and they were more nourished, than all the youths who ate the king's food.

<sup>16</sup> So the attendant took away their royal delicacies, and the wine that they were supposed to drink, and kept giving them vegetables.

<sup>17</sup> Now as for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom. Daniel had the ability to understand all visions and dreams.

<sup>19</sup> The king interviewed them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered into the service of the king.

<sup>20</sup> When the king consulted with them in every matter of wisdom and understanding, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his entire realm.

DASV: Daniel 2

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had several dreams which troubled his mind so that he could not sleep.

<sup>2</sup> The king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and the Chaldean astrologers to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

<sup>3</sup> The king told them, "I have had a dream that troubles my mind and I want to understand the dream."

<sup>4</sup> Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will explain its interpretation."

<sup>5</sup> The king replied to the Chaldeans, "This is what I have decided: you must tell me the dream as well as its interpretation or you will be cut in pieces and your houses will be reduced to rubble.

<sup>6</sup> If you tell me the dream and its interpretation you will receive gifts, rewards and great honor from me. So tell me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>8</sup> The king replied, "I know for certain you are trying to stall for time, because you are aware that my decision is final.

<sup>9</sup> But if you do not make known the dream to me, there is but one verdict left for you. You have prepared lying and corrupt words to tell me, until the situation changes. So tell me the dream itself, then I will know that you can actually tell me its meaning."

<sup>13</sup> So the decree went forth, and the wise men were about to be executed. They also searched for Daniel and his companions to execute them.

<sup>15</sup> He asked Arioch the king's commander, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch explained what was going on to Daniel.

<sup>16</sup> Daniel went in and requested that the king set a time, and he would tell the king the interpretation of the dream.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter.

<sup>18</sup> He asked them to pray for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret so that Daniel and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>20</sup> Daniel said,

"Praise be the name of God forever and ever;
wisdom and power are his.

<sup>21</sup> He changes times and the seasons;
he removes kings and sets up others.

He gives wisdom to the wise,
and knowledge to those who have understanding.

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things;
he knows what is in the darkness,
and light dwells with him.

<sup>23</sup> I thank you, and praise you, O God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might,
and has now made known to me what we asked from you,
for you have made known to us
the solution of the king's question."

<sup>24</sup> Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He came and said to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; take me in to the king, and I will tell the king the dream's meaning."

<sup>25</sup> So Arioch quickly brought Daniel in before the king and told him, "I have found a man among the captives of Judah who can make known the meaning of the dream for the king."

<sup>26</sup> The king asked Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me the dream which I have seen, as well as its interpretation?"

<sup>27</sup> Daniel answered the king, "While there are no wise men, enchanters, magicians, or soothsayers who can reveal the mystery the king has asked about,

<sup>28</sup> there is, however, a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the future. Your dream, and the visions of your head you received while lying in bed, are these:

<sup>29</sup> As for you, O king, when you were on your bed your thoughts were about what will take place in the future. He who reveals mysteries has made known to you what will come to pass.

<sup>30</sup> But as for me, this mystery was not revealed to me because of any special wisdom that I have more than anyone else, but so that the meaning may be known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your heart.

<sup>31</sup> You, O king, gazed on and saw a tremendous image. This huge extremely shiny statue stood before you; its appearance was terrifying.

<sup>32</sup> As for this statue, its head was made of fine gold, its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze, <sup>33</sup> its legs were iron, its feet were part iron and part clay.

<sup>34</sup> You watched while a stone was cut out but without human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and shattered them into pieces.

<sup>35</sup> Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold, were crushed together. They were blown away like the chaff of the summer threshing floors without a trace being left. Then the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup> This is the dream and now we will tell the king its interpretation.

<sup>37</sup> You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, power, might, and glory.

<sup>38</sup> He has given into your hand human beings, wherever they live, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky. He has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup> After you will arise another kingdom inferior to yours; then a third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

<sup>40</sup> At last a fourth kingdom will be strong as iron. Just as iron shatters and smashes everything; so it will crush and shatter all these.

<sup>41</sup> As you saw, the feet and toes were partly of potters' clay and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom. Some of the strength of iron will be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with clay.

<sup>42</sup> As the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.

<sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they will mix themselves with one another, but they will not really bond to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

<sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be conquered by another people. It will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will last forever.

<sup>45</sup> You saw a stone cut out of the mountain without human hands, and that it broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold into pieces. The great God has made known to the king what will happen in the future. The dream is certain and its interpretation sure."

<sup>46</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and paid homage to Daniel. He commanded that they should offer a sacrifice and burn incense to him.

<sup>47</sup> The king responded to Daniel, "Truly your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, seeing you have been able to reveal this mystery."

<sup>48</sup> Then the king promoted Daniel, and gave him many splendid gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and the chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon.

DASV: Daniel 3

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, ninety feet tall, and nine feet wide. He set it up in the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar summoned together the satraps, officials, governors, judges, treasurers, advisors, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>3</sup> So the satraps, officials, governors, judges, treasurers, advisors, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, were summoned together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected. They stood before the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>4</sup> Then the herald announced loudly, "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, <sup>5</sup> that when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you must bow down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has erected.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages, bowed down and worshipped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>8</sup> Now at that time certain Chaldeans came forward, and brought charges against the Jews.

<sup>10</sup> You, O king, have made a decree, that every one that hears the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, and pipes, and all kinds of music, must bow down and worship the golden image.

<sup>12</sup> There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have no respect for you. They do not serve your gods, or worship the golden image that you have set up."

<sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar in a fit of furious rage commanded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought before him. So they brought these men before the king.

<sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my god, or worship the golden image that I have set up?"

<sup>15</sup> Now if you are ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the image that I have made. But if you refuse to worship, you will immediately be thrown into the furnace blazing with fire. Then what god will be able to deliver you out of my hands?"

<sup>16</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to present a defense to you about this.

<sup>17</sup> If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace blazing with fire, he will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

<sup>18</sup> But if not, you should know for sure, O king, that we will not serve your gods, or worship the golden image that you have set up."

<sup>19</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and his face became livid against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He demanded that they should heat the furnace seven times hotter than normal.

<sup>20</sup> Then he commanded some of the strongest men in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to throw them into the furnace blazing with fire.

<sup>21</sup> So these men were bound in their cloaks, trousers, and turbans, and other garments, and were thrown into furnace blazing with fire.

<sup>22</sup> Because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace so hot, the flames killed those men who had picked up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

<sup>24</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and quickly got up. He said to his advisers, "Did we not throw three men bound into the fire?" They replied to the king, "That's right, O king."

<sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the furnace blazing with fire. He called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.

<sup>27</sup> The satraps, officials, governors, and the king's advisers, had gathered together and saw that these men were unharmed by the fire. Not a hair of their head was singed, nor their clothing scorched. Even the smell of fire was not found on them.

<sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar spoke, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him. They have defied the king's word, and have given up their own bodies, that they might not serve or worship any god, except their own God.

<sup>29</sup> Therefore I make a decree, that any people, nation, and language, which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, will be cut in pieces, and their houses turned into a pile of rubble, because there is no other god that is able to deliver like this."

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, that live in all the earth:
Peace and prosperity to you.

<sup>2</sup> I am pleased to publish the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.

How mighty are his wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his rule is from generation to generation.

<sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was resting in my home, and prospering in my palace.

<sup>5</sup> I saw a dream that made me afraid, and the thoughts on my bed and visions of my head terrified me.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore made I a decree to summon all the wise men of Babylon before me, so that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

<sup>7</sup> Then the magicians, enchanters, Chaldean astrologers, and fortune-tellers came in, and I told them about the dream, but they could not tell me its meaning.

<sup>8</sup> At the last, Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar--according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods--and I told him the dream, saying,

<sup>9</sup> "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you. Tell me the meaning of the visions I saw in my dream.

<sup>10</sup> Here are the visions of my mind lying on my bed: I looked and saw a tree in the middle of the earth. Its height was great.

<sup>11</sup> The tree grew tall and strong, and its height reached to heaven, and it was visible to the ends of the entire earth.

<sup>12</sup> Its foliage was beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, providing food for all. Under it the animals of the field found shade, and the birds of the heavens nested in its branches, and all living creatures were fed from it.

<sup>13</sup> I looked in the visions of my head while lying on my bed, and a messenger, a holy one, came down from heaven.

<sup>14</sup> He cried out, 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get out from under it, and the birds out of its branches.

<sup>15</sup> But leave the stump and its roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze around it, in a field with the tender grass. Let it be wet with the dew of heaven and let him live with the animals in the grass of the earth.

<sup>16</sup> Let his mind be changed from that of a human's, and let a beast's mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him.

<sup>17</sup> The sentence is by the decree of the messengers, and the decision by the word of the holy ones, so that those living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdom of humans, and gives it to whomever he wants, and sets up over it the lowliest of people.'

<sup>18</sup> This is the dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now you, Belteshazzar, explain to me what it means, for none of the wise men of my kingdom were able to tell me what it meant. But you are able; because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

<sup>19</sup> Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was troubled for a while, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream, or the interpretation, terrify you." Belteshazzar replied, "My lord, the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies.

<sup>20</sup> The tree that you saw, which grew tall and strong, whose height reached to heaven, and was visible to the ends of the entire earth;

<sup>21</sup> whose foliage was beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, proving food for all, under it the animals of the field used to live, and the birds of the heavens used to nest in its branches--

<sup>22</sup> it is you, O king, who are grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your rule is to the ends of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> When the king saw a holy messenger coming down from heaven, and saying, 'Cut down the tree, and destroy it; but leave its stump and roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze in a field with the tender grass. Let it be wet with the dew of heaven and let him live with the animals in the grass of the earth, until seven times pass over him.

<sup>25</sup> You will be driven from human community, and your dwelling will be with the animals of the field. You will be fed grass like oxen, and will be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times will pass over you until you realize that the Most High rules over the kingdom of humans, and gives it to whomever he pleases.

<sup>26</sup> Whereas they commanded to leave the stump and roots of the tree; your kingdom will be restored to you, after you realize that heaven does rule.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, O king, please accept my advice, and break off committing sins by doing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps then your prosperity may be prolonged."

<sup>31</sup> While the words were still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven, "O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is proclaimed: The kingdom is removed from you.

<sup>32</sup> You will be driven from human community and you will live with the animals of the field. You will be fed grass like oxen and seven times will pass over you until you realize that the Most High rules over the kingdom of human beings, and gives it to whomever he pleases."

<sup>33</sup> That very moment the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from human community, and ate grass like oxen, his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until his hair had grown long like eagles' feathers and his nails became like birds' claws.

<sup>34</sup> At the end of those days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me,

I blessed the Most High,
and I praised and honored him who lives forever;
for his rule is an everlasting rule,
and his kingdom from generation to generation.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the earth are considered as nothing;
he does whatever he wants with the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth.

There is no one who can stop his hand, or say to him, "What are you doing?"

<sup>36</sup> At the same time my reason returned to me, the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor also was restored to me. Then my advisers and my lords sought me out and I was reestablished in my kingdom with more greatness than I had before.

<sup>2</sup> Belshazzar, while tasting the wine, commanded to bring in the gold and silver vessels that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them.

<sup>3</sup> So they brought in the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple, the house of God that was at Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them.

<sup>4</sup> While they drank wine, they praised the gods of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>7</sup> The king cried out to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldean astrologers, and the fortune-tellers. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever can read this writing, and tell me its meaning, will be clothed with purple and have a gold chain put around his neck and will be the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>8</sup> So all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king its meaning.

<sup>9</sup> Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face turned pale and his lords were perplexed.

<sup>10</sup> Now the queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet hall and said, "O king, live forever; don't panic. Don't look so frightened.

<sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father he was found to have insight, understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldean astrologers, and fortune-tellers.

<sup>12</sup> An excellent spirit, knowledge, ability to interpret dreams, solve riddles, and difficult dilemmas were found in this man Daniel, whom the king named Beltshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will provide the interpretation."

<sup>13</sup> So Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, "Are you Daniel, one of the captives of Judah, whom my father the king brought out of Judah?"

<sup>14</sup> I have heard of you that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that insight, understanding and extraordinary wisdom are found in you.

<sup>15</sup> Now the wise men and enchanters, have been brought before me, in order to read this writing, and tell me its meaning, but they could not provide an interpretation of its message.

<sup>16</sup> But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and figure out difficult dilemmas. Now if you can read the writing, and tell me its interpretation, you will be clothed with purple and have a gold chain hung around your neck, and will be the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered before the king, "Keep your gifts, and give your rewards to someone else. I will, nevertheless, read the writing to the king and tell him its interpretation.

<sup>19</sup> Because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wanted, he killed, and whomever he wanted, he kept alive. Those whom he wanted, he raised up, and those whom he wanted, he brought down.

<sup>20</sup> But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he acted proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne and stripped of his glory.

<sup>21</sup> He was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like that of an animal, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he realized that the Most High God was sovereign over human kingdoms, and that he sets up over it whomever he pleases.

<sup>22</sup> You his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,

<sup>23</sup> but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the vessels of his house before you, your lords, your wives and concubines, and have drunk wine from them. You have praised gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which cannot see, hear or know. The God in whose hand your breath is as well as all your ways, you have not glorified.

<sup>24</sup> So from his presence this hand was sent, and this writing was inscribed.

<sup>26</sup> This is the interpretation of the words: MENE, God has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.

<sup>29</sup> Then, at Belshazzar's command, they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a gold chain around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>2</sup> Over them were three commissioners, one of whom was Daniel. These satraps were accountable to them, so that the king might not suffer any loss.

<sup>3</sup> Now this Daniel was distinguished above the commissioners and the satraps, because an extraordinary spirit was in him, and the king considered putting him over the whole realm.

<sup>4</sup> Then the commissioners and the satraps sought to find some grounds for an accusation against Daniel regarding the kingdom; but they could not find any grounds or fault, because he was faithful, there was no negligence or corruption found in him.

<sup>5</sup> So these men reasoned, "We will not find any grounds for accusing this Daniel, unless we find it concerning the law of his God."

<sup>6</sup> Then these commissioners and satraps assembled together to the king and said to him, "King Darius, live forever.

<sup>7</sup> All the commissioners of the kingdom, the deputies, satraps, advisers and governors, have agreed together that a royal decree should be issued and strictly enforced, that whoever for the next thirty days will pray to any god or man except to you, O king, he will be thrown into a den of lions.

<sup>10</sup> When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his home. Now his windows were open in his upper room toward Jerusalem. He knelt there three times a day to pray and give thanks to his God, just as he had done previously.

<sup>12</sup> They approached the king and asked him concerning the royal edict: "Did you not sign an edict, that anyone who prays to any god or human except you within thirty days, O king, should be thrown into a lions' den?" The king replied, "That decision is established according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked."

<sup>13</sup> Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the captives from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, nor to the edict that you have signed, but still prays three times a day."

<sup>14</sup> When the king heard these charges, he was very upset, and attempted to think of a way to save Daniel and worked to rescue him until the sunset.

<sup>15</sup> Then these men came by collusion to the king and said to him, "You realize, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no edict or law which the king issues may be changed."

<sup>16</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and threw him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke to Daniel, "May your God whom you serve so faithfully save you."

<sup>17</sup> A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his lords so that no exception might be made concerning Daniel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace and spent the night without food and no musical entertainment. It was impossible for him to sleep.

<sup>20</sup> When he arrived at the den he called out anxiously to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve so faithfully, able to deliver you from the lions?"

<sup>22</sup> My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths. They have not hurt me since I was found blameless before him nor have I ever done any wrong against you, O king."

<sup>23</sup> Then the king was elated, and commanded that they should pull Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was pulled up out of the den without injury, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup> Then the king sent and had those men that had accused Daniel brought and thrown into the lions' den, also their children and their wives. The lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces before they hit the floor of the den.

<sup>25</sup> Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages living in all the earth: "Peace and prosperity to you.

<sup>26</sup> I make a decree, that in all the realm of my kingdom people tremble and fear before the God of Daniel;

For he is the living God,
enduring forever.

His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and his dominion will never end.

<sup>27</sup> He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders
in heaven and on earth.

He has saved Daniel from the power of the lions."

<sup>28</sup> So Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

DASV: Daniel 7

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions in his head as he lay on his bed. He wrote the dream and reported a summary of it.

<sup>2</sup> Daniel said, "I saw in my vision at night, the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea.

<sup>4</sup> The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. While I watched, its wings were plucked off and it was lifted up from the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human, and it was given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup> Then a second beast appeared, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, "Get up, devour much flesh."

<sup>6</sup> After this I looked and another appeared like a leopard. It had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and authority to rule was given to it.

<sup>7</sup> After this I saw in the vision at night, a fourth beast, dreadful, terrifying and very strong. It had huge iron teeth with which it devoured and crushed, and stomped with its feet what was left. It was different from all the beasts that came before it, and it had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> While I considered the horns, another horn came up between them, a little one. Three of the former horns were torn up by the roots. This horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth boasting of great things.

<sup>9</sup> I watched as thrones were put in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were a blazing fire.

<sup>10</sup> A river of fire poured out and flowed before him. Thousands upon thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court was set, and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> I kept watching because of the arrogant words which the horn was speaking. I watched until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed. It was given to be burned with fire.

<sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the beasts, their ruling authority was taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

<sup>13</sup> I watched in the visions at night as there came with the clouds of heaven one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him into his presence.

<sup>14</sup> He was given authority to rule, glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His rule is an everlasting reign, which will not pass away, and his kingdom will never be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup> As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was troubled, and the visions of my head shocked me.

<sup>16</sup> I came near to one who was standing there and asked him what all this meant. So he told me, and explained to me the meaning of these things.

<sup>19</sup> Then I asked about the meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, tremendously terrifying. Its teeth were iron, and its claws bronze and it devoured, crushed in pieces, and stomped what was left with its feet.

<sup>20</sup> I also asked about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up, and before whom the other three fell. It was the horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke boastful things, that appeared larger than the others.

<sup>21</sup> While I was watching, this horn made war with the holy ones and prevailed against them,

<sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was rendered for the holy ones of the Most High. Then the time came for the holy ones to gain possession of the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> This is what he said, "The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and will trample it down and crush it in pieces.

<sup>24</sup> As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom will arise ten kings. Then another king will arise after them who will be different from the previous kings, and he will bring down three kings.

<sup>25</sup> He will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the holy ones of the Most High. He will attempt to change their set times and the law and they will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

<sup>26</sup> But the court will convene for judgment, and they will take away his power to rule. It will be consumed and destroyed forever.

<sup>27</sup> The kingdom and the ruling power, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey him.

<sup>28</sup> Here is the end of the vision. As for me, Daniel, I was very troubled by my thoughts and my face grew pale, yet I kept the matter to myself."

DASV: Daniel 8

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had been given to me previously.

<sup>2</sup> I saw myself in the vision in the citadel of Susa, in the province of Elam; in the vision I was by the Ulai river.

<sup>3</sup> Then I looked up, and saw a ram with two horns standing by the river. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last.

<sup>4</sup> I saw the ram butting westward, northward, and southward. None of the animals could stand before it, neither was there any that could deliver from his power. It did whatever it pleased and became very great.

<sup>5</sup> While I was reflecting on all this, a male goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and without touching the ground. The goat had a large horn between its eyes.

<sup>6</sup> It came to the ram that had the two horns, that I had seen standing before the river, and ran at him with the fury of brute force.

<sup>7</sup> I saw it approach the ram, and it became enraged against the ram and struck it, breaking its two horns. The ram had no power to resist it. It knocked the ram down to the ground, and trampled on it and there was no one who could deliver the ram from its power.

<sup>8</sup> The male goat became very powerful, but when it became strong, the great horn was broken off. In its place came up four prominent horns pointed in the direction of the four winds of heaven.

<sup>9</sup> Out of one of them came a little horn, which grew to be huge, toward the south and the east, and toward the glorious land.

<sup>10</sup> It grew so great it reached the host of heaven. It threw down some of the host and of the stars to the ground and trampled on them.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, it even acted arrogantly against the Prince of the heavenly host from whom it took away the daily burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down.

<sup>12</sup> The host was given over to it together with the daily burnt offering as a result of its rebellion. It hurled truth to the ground and yet prospered in what it did.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one asked the one who was speaking, "How long will be the vision concerning the daily burnt offering last, and the rebellion that causes destruction, and the handing over of the sanctuary and heaven's host being trampled underfoot?"

<sup>15</sup> When I, Daniel, was watching the vision, I attempted to understand it. Now there stood before me one who had the appearance of a man.

<sup>16</sup> I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai. It called, "Gabriel, help this man to understand the vision."

<sup>17</sup> So he came to where I was standing; and when he approached I was terrified and fell on my face, but he said to me, "Understand, O son of man; for the vision pertains to the end time."

<sup>18</sup> Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground. But he touched me and stood me upright.

<sup>19</sup> Then he said, "Look, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of wrath; for it concerns the appointed end of time."

<sup>20</sup> The ram that had the two horns that you saw, represents the kings of Media and Persia.

<sup>21</sup> The shaggy male goat is the king of Greece, and the huge horn between his eyes is the first king.

<sup>22</sup> As for the other four horns that arose in place of the horn that was broken off, they represent four kingdoms that will stand up from his nation although they will not have his power.

<sup>23</sup> At the end of their rule, when the transgressions have reach their completion, a fierce looking king, skilled in deceit, will arise.

<sup>24</sup> His power will be mighty, but it will not be his own power; he will cause an astonishing devastation, and will prosper in whatever he attempts. He will destroy the mighty ones and the holy people.

<sup>25</sup> By his cunning, he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand. He will think arrogantly about himself, and will destroy many with no warning. He will also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he will be broken without human intervention.

<sup>26</sup> The vision about the evenings and mornings that was told to you is true. But seal up the vision, for it pertains to many days in the future."

<sup>27</sup> Then I, Daniel, fainted and was sick several days; then I rose up and did the king's business. I was astounded at the vision and did not really understand it.

DASV: Daniel 9

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus [or Xerxes], of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, <sup>2</sup> in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures in the word of the LORD revealed to Jeremiah the prophet that the number of the years for the fulfillment of the devastation of Jerusalem was seventy years.

<sup>3</sup> So I turned my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and appeals, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, saying, "Oh, Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loyal love with those who love him and keep his commandments, <sup>5</sup> we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and laws.

<sup>6</sup> We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our forefathers, and to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> O Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us a shamed face, even to this day-- to the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those near and those far away, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their unfaithfulness against you.

<sup>8</sup> O Lord, to us belong a shamed face, to our kings, our princes, and our forefathers, because we have sinned against you.

<sup>9</sup> To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him.

<sup>10</sup> We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, that he set before us by his servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside not obeying your voice. Therefore the curse and solemn imprecations have been poured out on us that were written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, for we have sinned against you.

<sup>12</sup> He has carried out his words which he spoke against us, and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing upon us a great calamity that has been done to Jerusalem which has never ever happened under the whole heaven.

<sup>13</sup> Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us. Yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God, by turning from our iniquities, and prudently implementing your truth.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore the LORD kept watch over this calamity and brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works that he does, but we have not obeyed his voice.

<sup>15</sup> Now, O Lord our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and has made a reputation for yourself even to this day-- we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

<sup>16</sup> O Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and your wrath, I pray, be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our forefathers. Jerusalem and your people have become a disgrace to all those around us.

<sup>17</sup> Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer and requests of your servant, and cause your face to shine with favor upon your sanctuary that is desolate for your sake.

<sup>18</sup> O my God, bend your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and gaze on our desolations, and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our requests before you based on our own righteousness, but because of your great mercy.

<sup>19</sup> O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and act. Do not delay, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

<sup>20</sup> I continued speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my request before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God.

<sup>21</sup> While I was speaking in prayer, the person Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, flew quickly to me about the time of the evening sacrifice.

<sup>22</sup> He instructed me and talked with me, saying, "Daniel, I am now come out to teach you understanding.

<sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your prayer requests the commandment went forth, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the matter and understand the vision.

<sup>24</sup> Seventy weeks are decreed upon your people and upon your holy city to finish their transgression, and to put an end to sins, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place.

<sup>25</sup> Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem to the Anointed One, the prince, there will be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. It will be rebuilt with streets and moat, but in troubled times.

<sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One will be cut off, and will have nothing. Then the people of the prince that will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will be with a flood, and even to the end there will be war. The devastation has been decreed.

<sup>27</sup> Then he will make a firm covenant with many for one week. In the midst of the week, he will cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations will come one who makes devastation, until the decreed end will be poured out on the one making the devastation."

DASV: Daniel 10

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, also called Belteshazzar. The message was true and about a great warfare. He understood the message having gained understanding in the vision itself.

<sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks.

<sup>3</sup> I ate no tasty food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, until the three weeks were over.

<sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the bank of the great river, the Tigris, <sup>5</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and looked, there was a man clothed in linen with a belt of pure gold from Uphaz wrapped around his waist.

<sup>6</sup> His body also was like crystal beryl, his face like lightning, and his eyes like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet shined like polished bronze, and the voice of his words was like the roar of a large crowd.

<sup>7</sup> I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the people with me did not see the vision, but a great trembling shook them and they fled to hide themselves.

<sup>8</sup> So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, with no strength left in me for my vigor vanished and my strength was drained.

<sup>9</sup> Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> A hand touched me, and set me on my hands and knees.

<sup>11</sup> He said to me, "Daniel, you are greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you. Stand up, for I am have been sent to you." When he told me this, I stood up trembling.

<sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. Now I am come because of your words.

<sup>14</sup> Now I am come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision concerns events many days in the future."

<sup>15</sup> When he had spoken these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless.

<sup>16</sup> Then one who looked like a human being touched my lips. I opened my mouth, and spoke to the one who stood before me, saying, "O my lord, because of the vision my sorrows have come upon me, and I have lost my strength.

<sup>17</sup> For how can this servant of my lord talk with you my lord? For I have completely lost my strength and I can barely breathe."

<sup>18</sup> Then again one who looked like a human touched me and strengthened me.

<sup>19</sup> Then he said, "O man greatly loved, do not be afraid. Peace be to you, be strong. Yes, be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "May my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

<sup>20</sup> Then he asked, "Do you know why I have come to you? Shortly I must return to fight with the prince of Persia and when I leave here the prince of Greece will come.

<sup>21</sup> But I will tell you what is written in the Writing of Truth. There is no one who helps me against these princes, except Michael, your prince.

DASV: Daniel 11

<sup>1</sup> As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him.

<sup>2</sup> And now I will tell you the truth. There will arise three more kings in Persia. The fourth will be the richest of all. When he comes to power by his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup> A mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great authority, and do whatever he pleases.

<sup>4</sup> When he rises to power, his kingdom will be broken, and will be divided toward the four winds of heaven but not to his posterity, or according to his authority by which he ruled; for his kingdom will be uprooted and dispersed to others besides these.

<sup>6</sup> At the end of some years they will make an alliance; the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement. But she will not retain her power; nor will his strength last. She will be betrayed, she, her attendants, her father, and the one who supported her in those times.

<sup>7</sup> But out of a shoot from her roots will arise one in his place. He will attack the army and will break into the fortress of the king of the north, and fight against them and prevail.

<sup>8</sup> Even their gods, with their cast images, and with their precious gold and silver vessels, he will carry captive to Egypt. For some years he will desist from attacking the king of the north.

<sup>9</sup> Then the king of the north will come against the realm of the king of the south, but will withdraw to his own land.

<sup>10</sup> His sons will wage war, and will assemble a large and powerful army, which will advance, flood, and pass through; and again bring the battle even up to his fortress.

<sup>11</sup> Then the king of the south will become angry, and will come out and fight against the king of the north. He will muster a great multitude, but the multitude will be delivered into his hand.

<sup>12</sup> After the multitude is carried off, his heart will become arrogant, though he will destroy tens of thousands, yet he will not be victorious.

<sup>13</sup> The king of the north will return, and will raise a multitude larger than the former; after some years he will come out with a great army and abundant supplies.

<sup>14</sup> At that time many will rise up against the king of the south. The violent among your own people will arise to fulfill the vision, but they will fail.

<sup>15</sup> So the king of the north will come, and build up a siege ramp and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not stand, even his elite special forces, for there will not be any strength to resist.

<sup>16</sup> But he who comes against him will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand him. He will stand in the glorious land, and its destruction will be within his grasp.

<sup>17</sup> His plan will be to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he will form alliances. He will give the king of the south a daughter in marriage in order to take down his kingdom; but his plan will not succeed.

<sup>18</sup> After this he will turn his face to the coastlands, and will capture many. But a commander will bring an end to his insolence and even cause his insolence to turn back upon him.

<sup>19</sup> Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, and will never be found again.

<sup>20</sup> Then one will have a tax collector replace him to enhance the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he will be destroyed, though not in anger or in battle.

<sup>21</sup> In his place will arise a contemptible person, to whom they had not conferred the honor of kingship. He will come in a time of prosperity, and will obtain the kingdom by intrigue.

<sup>23</sup> After the alliance made with him, he will deal deceitfully; for he will come up, and will become strong with a small base of people.

<sup>24</sup> Without warning he will invade the richest places of the province. Then he will do what his predecessor had never done; he will distribute to his followers plunder, spoil, and wealth. He will devise plans against the fortified cities, but only for a little while.

<sup>25</sup> He will stir up his power and courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will fight the war with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he will not stand, for there will be plots undermining him.

<sup>26</sup> Yes, those who eat his royal delicacies will destroy him, and his army will be swept away; many will die in battle.

<sup>27</sup> Both of these kings will have their hearts bent on evil, and they will tell each other lies at one table. But it will not succeed; for the end will occur at the appointed time.

<sup>28</sup> Then he will return to his land with great wealth, and his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will do his dastardly damage and then return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup> At the time appointed, he will return and enter the south; but this time it will not be as it was previously.

<sup>30</sup> For ships of Kittim will come against him resulting in him being discouraged so he will withdraw. But he will direct his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and bestow favor on those who forsake the holy covenant.

<sup>31</sup> His forces will stand and profane the sanctuary and fortress. They will abolish the daily burnt offering and set up the abomination that causes desecration.

<sup>32</sup> He will use flattery to seduce those who violate the covenant; but the people who know their God will be courageous and take strong action.

<sup>33</sup> They who are wise among the people will instruct many, although they will fall by the sword, flame, captivity and plunder for many days.

<sup>34</sup> Now when they fall, they will receive a little help; but many will hypocritically allege to join them.

<sup>35</sup> Some of those who are wise will fall, in order to refine, purify, and cleanse them, until the time of the end; because the appointed time is still to come.

<sup>36</sup> The king will do as he pleases; he will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and will blaspheme against the God of gods. He will prosper until the wrath is finished; for that which is decreed must be done.

<sup>37</sup> He will have no respect for the gods of his forefathers, or the preferred god of women, or any other god; for he will magnify himself above all.

<sup>38</sup> But instead, he will honor the god of fortresses; a god whom his forefathers did not know. He will honor him with gold, silver, precious stones and valuable treasures.

<sup>39</sup> He will deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. Whoever acknowledges him, he will grant lucrative positions of authority over many and will divide the land for a price.

<sup>40</sup> At the time of the end the king of the south will contend with him, and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and many ships. He will invade other countries, and will wash through them like a flood.

<sup>41</sup> He will enter also into the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown. But Edom, Moab and the ruler of the Ammonites will be delivered out of his hand.

<sup>42</sup> He will stretch out his hand against many countries; even the land of Egypt will not escape.

<sup>43</sup> But he will have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and all the treasures of Egypt. The Libyans and Ethiopians will also submit.

<sup>44</sup> But news out of the east and north will trouble him. He will set out with great fury to destroy and utterly annihilate many.

<sup>45</sup> He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

DASV: Daniel 12

<sup>1</sup> "At that time Michael, the great prince who watches over the children of your people, will stand up. There will be a time of trouble, such as has never been since nations came into being. But at that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book.

<sup>2</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting disgrace.

<sup>3</sup> They who are wise will shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who turn many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

<sup>4</sup> But you, Daniel, keep these words secret, and seal the book, until the time of the end when many will run to and fro and knowledge will be increased."

<sup>5</sup> Then I, Daniel, looked, and there stood two others, the one on the bank of the river on this side, and the other on the bank on the opposite side.

<sup>6</sup> One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be to the end of these wonders?"

<sup>8</sup> I heard, but I did not understand so I asked, "My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?"

<sup>9</sup> He said, "Go your way, Daniel; for the words are concealed and sealed until the time of the end.

<sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined; but the wicked will keep on doing wickedness. None of the wicked will understand; but those who are wise will understand.

<sup>11</sup> From the time the daily burnt offering is taken away, and the abomination that causes desecration is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the one who expectantly waits and comes to the end of 1,355 days.

<sup>13</sup> But go your way until the end. You will rest, then will stand receiving what has been allotted to you at the end of the days."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Hosea 1

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to Hosea the son of Beerī, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> When the LORD spoke at first by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, marry a prostitute and have children with this whore, for the land commits prostitution by forsaking the LORD."

<sup>3</sup> So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for bloodshed at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> In that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup> She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the LORD said to him, "Call her name Lo-ruhamah [meaning, 'No pity']; for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel, that I should forgive them.

<sup>7</sup> But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God. I will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or by horsemen."

<sup>8</sup> Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said, "Call his name Lo-ammi [meaning, 'Not my people']; for you are not my people, and I will not be your God.

<sup>10</sup> Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. In the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' it will be said to them, 'You are the children of the living God.'

<sup>11</sup> Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint themselves one head, and return to the land from exile; for the day of Jezreel will be great.

DASV: Hosea 2

- <sup>1</sup> Say to your brothers, 'Ammi,' [my people] and to your sisters, 'Ruhamah' [pity].
- <sup>2</sup> Plead with your mother, plead, for she is not my wife,
and I am not her husband.
She must put away her prostitutions from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts.
- <sup>3</sup> Otherwise I will strip her naked,
as the day that she was born.
I will turn her into a wilderness, and turn her into a desert land,
and slay her with thirst.
- <sup>4</sup> I will have no pity on her children,
for they are children of adultery.
- <sup>5</sup> Their mother has played the prostitute;
she who conceived them has acted shamefully;
for she said, 'I will pursue my lovers,
who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax, my olive oil and my drink.'
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore, I will fence her in with thorns, and I will build a wall to fence her in so that she cannot find her paths.
- <sup>7</sup> Then she will pursue her lovers,
but she will not catch them.
She will seek them,
but will not be able to find them.
Then she will say, 'I will go back to my first husband, for I was better back then than now.'
- <sup>8</sup> For she had no clue that I was the one who gave her the grain, new wine and olive oil, and multiplied her silver and gold,
which they used for Baal.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore I will take back my grain in its time,
and my new wine in its season.
I will take away my wool and my flax which were given to cover her nakedness.
- <sup>10</sup> Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will rescue her out of my hand.
- <sup>11</sup> I will also put an end to all her partying, her feasts, her new moons, and her Sabbaths,
all her appointed festivals.
- <sup>12</sup> I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she claimed,

- 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me.'
But I will turn them into a forest, and the beasts of the field will devour them.
- <sup>13</sup> I will punish her for the festival days of the Baals,
when she burned incense,
when she decked herself with her earrings and jewels,
and went after her lovers,
and forgot me," declares the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> "Therefore, I will allure her,
and bring her into the wilderness,
and speak kindly to her.
- <sup>15</sup> From there I will give her back her vineyards, and turn the Valley of Achor [trouble] into a door of hope.
There she will respond, as in the days of her youth, and as on the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
- <sup>16</sup> It will be in that day," says the LORD,
"that you will call me 'My husband,' and will no longer call me 'My master.'
- <sup>17</sup> For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.
- <sup>18</sup> In that day I will make a covenant with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the air,
and with the creatures that creep on the ground.
I will abolish the bow, the sword and battle out of the land,
and will let them lie down in security.
- <sup>19</sup> I will betroth you to me forever.
I will take you as my wife in righteousness, justice, loyal love, and compassion.
- <sup>20</sup> I will take you as my wife in faithfulness, and you will know the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup> In that day, I will respond," says the LORD,
"I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth;
- <sup>22</sup> and the earth will respond with grain, new wine, and olive oil, and they will respond to Jezreel.
- <sup>23</sup> Then I will plant her for myself in the land;
I will have pity on Lo-Ruhamah [no-pity];
I will say to Lo-Ammi [not my people],
'you are my people;'

and they will reply, 'You are my God.'"

DASV: Hosea 3

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who has a lover and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the Israelites, even though they turn to other gods, and love their idolatrous raisin cakes.

<sup>2</sup> So I bought her for fifteen pieces of silver, and seven and a half bushels of barley.

<sup>3</sup> I told her, "You must stay with me many days; you must not play the prostitute or have sex with another man, so also I will be toward you."

<sup>4</sup> For the children of Israel will remain many days without a king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without ephod or idols.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and will tremble before the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

DASV: Hosea 4

- <sup>1</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, you Israelites, for the LORD has a legal case against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, loyalty,
or knowledge of God in the land.
- <sup>2</sup> There is only swearing and lying,
murder, stealing, and adultery;
nothing but bloodshed after bloodshed.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore the land will mourn,
and every one who lives there will waste away, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air;
even the fish of the sea will be hauled away.
- <sup>4</sup> Let no one make an accusation or rebuke;
for your people are like those who bring a case against a priest.
- <sup>5</sup> You will stumble in the day,
and the prophet will stumble with you in the night,
and I will destroy your mother.
- <sup>6</sup> My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you as my priests.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.
- <sup>7</sup> The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against me;
they changed their glory into shame.
- <sup>8</sup> They feed on the sin of my people,
and are greedy for their iniquity.
- <sup>9</sup> It will be: like people, like priest.
So I will punish them for their ways,
and will repay them for their actions.
- <sup>10</sup> They will eat, and not have enough;
they will play the harlot, and will not increase;
because they have forsaken the LORD
- <sup>11</sup> to devote themselves to prostitution with old wine and new that enslave the heart.
- <sup>12</sup> My people ask counsel from their wooden idols, and their diviner's rod tells them what to do;
for the spirit of prostitution has led them astray,
and they have played the prostitute,
deserting their God.

- <sup>13</sup> They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oaks, poplars and terebinths,
because their shade is good.
Therefore your own daughters play the prostitute,
and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
- <sup>14</sup> I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, or your brides when they commit adultery.
For the men themselves consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes;
so the people who do not understand will come to ruin.
- <sup>15</sup> Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet do not let Judah become guilty.
Do not go to Gilgal,
or go up to Beth-aven [house of wickedness],
and swear, "As the LORD lives."
- <sup>16</sup> For Israel is as stubborn as a stubborn heifer.
Should the LORD now put them out to graze like a lamb in a large field?
- <sup>17</sup> Ephraim is joined to idols;
leave him alone.
- <sup>18</sup> Their drinks are gone;
they engage in cult prostitution;
their rulers dearly love shame.
- <sup>19</sup> The wind has wrapped them up in its wings, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

DASV: Hosea 5

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this, O priests, listen, O house of Israel,
and give ear, O house of the king;
for this judgment is for you.
For you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor.
- <sup>2</sup> The rebels have gone deep into slaughter, but I will discipline them all.
- <sup>3</sup> I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me;
for now, O Ephraim, you have played the prostitute;
Israel is defiled.
- <sup>4</sup> Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God;
for the spirit of prostitution is within them,
and they do not know the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against it;
Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their guilt;
Judah also will stumble with them.
- <sup>6</sup> When they go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD,
they will not find him;
he has withdrawn himself from them.
- <sup>7</sup> They have been unfaithful to the LORD, for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now their new moon festivals will devour them along with their fields.
- <sup>8</sup> Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah;
sound the trumpet in Ramah;
shout the alarm at Beth-aven;
"We are behind you, O Benjamin."
- <sup>9</sup> Ephraim will be a horrible ruin in the day of punishment;
among the tribes of Israel I make known what will certainly happen.
- <sup>10</sup> The princes of Judah are like those who remove the landmark;
I will pour out my wrath on them like a flood.
- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed by judgment, because he was determined to pursue idols.
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore I will be like a moth to Ephraim, and like rotteness to the house of Judah.
- <sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah perceived his wound,
then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king.

But he is not able to heal you,
he cannot cure you of your wound.
<sup>14</sup> For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah;
I will tear them up
and then leave;
I will carry them off,
and there will be no one to rescue them.
<sup>15</sup> I will return to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt,
and seek my face;
in their affliction they will earnestly seek me."

DASV: Hosea 6

- <sup>1</sup> Come, and let us return to the LORD;
for he has torn us,
but he will heal us,
he has injured us,
but he will bandage us up.
- <sup>2</sup> After two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will raise us up,
and we will live before him.
- <sup>3</sup> Let us acknowledge him;
let us pursue knowing the LORD;
he will come forth as sure as the morning dawns;
he will come to us as sure as the rain,
as the latter rain that waters the earth.
- <sup>4</sup> O Ephraim, what am I going to do with you?
O Judah, what shall I do with you?
For your loyal love is like a morning mist,
and like the early dew that vanishes away.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore I have cut them to pieces by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of my mouth;
my judgments shine forth like the light.
- <sup>6</sup> For I desire loyal love, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
- <sup>7</sup> But they at the town of Adam have broken the covenant;
there they have been unfaithful to me.
- <sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city of evildoers;
it is stained by bloody footprints.
- <sup>9</sup> As a gang of thieves waits in ambush for their victim, so the gang of priests murder on the road to Shechem;
they have committed heinous crimes.
- <sup>10</sup> In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing;
there Ephraim practiced prostitution,
and Israel is defiled.
- <sup>11</sup> O Judah, a harvest has been appointed for you too, when I restore the fortunes of my people.

DASV: Hosea 7

- <sup>1</sup> When I wanted to heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was revealed,
as well as the wickedness of Samaria.
For they deal falsely;
the thief breaks in;
the gang of robbers pillage outside.
- <sup>2</sup> They do not realize in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness.
Now their evil deeds have surrounded them;
they are before my face.
- <sup>3</sup> They make the king glad with their wickedness, the princes with their lies.
- <sup>4</sup> They are all adulterers;
they are like a heated oven, whose fire the baker does not stir once the dough is kneaded until it is leavened.
- <sup>5</sup> On the feast day of our king the princes made themselves sick inflamed with wine;
he stretched out his hand with mockers.
- <sup>6</sup> For they have kindled their hearts like an oven, while they plot against him;
their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it flares up like a flaming fire.
- <sup>7</sup> They are all as hot as an oven;
they devour their rulers.
All their kings have fallen;
not one of them calls on me.
- <sup>8</sup> Ephraim mixes himself among the peoples;
Ephraim is a half-burnt loaf not turned over.
- <sup>9</sup> Foreigners have devoured his strength, and he does not even realize it.
Gray hairs sprinkle his head yet he does not even know it.
- <sup>10</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against him, yet they do not return to the LORD their God, or seek him after all this.
- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is like a silly dove, without sense;
they call for help to Egypt,
then go to Assyria.
- <sup>12</sup> When they go, I will spread my net on them;

- I will bring them down as the birds of the air;
I will punish them, just as their assembly has heard.
- <sup>13</sup> Woe to them! For they have deserted me.
Destruction to them! For they have rebelled against me.
Though I want to redeem them,
yet they speak lies against me.
- <sup>14</sup> They have not cried out to me with their heart, but they lie howling on their beds.
They ritually slash themselves for grain and new wine;
they rebel against me.
- <sup>15</sup> Though I have trained and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.
- <sup>16</sup> They turn to that which is of no benefit.
They are like a defective bow.
Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.
This is what they will be ridiculed for in the land of Egypt.

DASV: Hosea 8

- <sup>1</sup> Set the trumpet to your lips.
One circles like a vulture over the house of the LORD, because they have broken my covenant,
and rebelled against my law.
- <sup>2</sup> They will cry to me,
“My God, we from Israel know you.”
- <sup>3</sup> Israel has rejected what is good;
so an enemy will pursue him.
- <sup>4</sup> They have set up kings, without my permission;
they set up princes, but I did not approve.
From their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction.
- <sup>5</sup> He has rejected your calf idol, O Samaria;
my anger burns against them;
how long will they be incapable of innocence?
- <sup>6</sup> It is made in Israel;
the craftsman built it,
and it is not God;
the calf of Samaria will be smashed to pieces.
- <sup>7</sup> For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind.
The stalks do not have heads of grain;
it will not yield meal;
even if it did yield grain, foreigners would swallow it up.
- <sup>8</sup> Israel is swallowed up;
now they are to the nations like a worthless pot.
- <sup>9</sup> For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by itself;
Ephraim has hired lovers.
- <sup>10</sup> Even though they sold themselves among the nations,
I will now gather them;
they will soon be crushed
under the oppression of a great king.
- <sup>11</sup> Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin offerings, these altars have become places for sinning.
- <sup>12</sup> I wrote for him many things in my law,
but they are regarded as something strange.
- <sup>13</sup> They offer sacrifices to me, and they eat its meat;

but the LORD does not accept them;
now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> For Israel has forgotten its Maker, and built palaces.

Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
but I will send a fire on its cities,
and it will devour its fortresses.

DASV: Hosea 9

- <sup>1</sup> Do not rejoice O Israel, do not revel like the peoples;
for you have played the prostitute,
forsaking your God;
you have loved the wages of prostitution on every threshing floor.
- <sup>2</sup> The threshing floor and the winepress will not feed them, and the new wine will fail them.
- <sup>3</sup> They will not remain in the LORD's land,
but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
- <sup>4</sup> They will not pour out wine offerings to the LORD,
and their sacrifices will not be pleasing to him.
Their sacrifices will be like bread eaten while mourning;
all who eat it will be ritually polluted.
Their bread will be used only to satisfy their appetite;
it will not come into the house of the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> What will you do in the day of the appointed festival, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?
- <sup>6</sup> For look, even if they escape destruction,
Egypt will still round them up.
Memphis will bury them.
Weeds will overgrow their silver valuables;
thorn bushes will occupy their tents.
- <sup>7</sup> The days of punishment have come;
the days of pay back have arrived;
let Israel realize this.
The prophet is a fool,
the one inspired is considered crazy,
because of the greatness of your sin,
and your hostility being so great.
- <sup>8</sup> The prophet is a watchman for Ephraim for my God;
yet a fowler's snare is set on all his paths,
and hostility even in the house of his God.
- <sup>9</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves,
as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity;
he will punish their sins.
- <sup>10</sup> I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness;
I saw your fathers like the first fruit on the fig tree

- in its first season.
But they came to Baal-peor,
and dedicated themselves to that shameful thing,
and became as detestable as the thing that they loved.
- <sup>11</sup> As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird;
there will be no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.
- <sup>12</sup> Even though they bring up their children, yet I will take them away so that none of them will be left.
Woe to them when I depart from them!
- <sup>13</sup> Ephraim, I have seen like Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place, but Ephraim will bring out its children to the slaughter.
- <sup>14</sup> Give them, O LORD -- what will you give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- <sup>15</sup> All their wickedness is at Gilgal;
for there I came to hate them.
Because of their wicked deeds,
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more;
all their princes are rebels.
- <sup>16</sup> Ephraim is struck down,
their root is dried up,
they will bear no fruit.
Even though they bear children,
I will slay the cherished fruit of their womb.
- <sup>17</sup> My God will cast them away because they did not listen to him;
they will be wanderers among the nations.

DASV: Hosea 10

- <sup>1</sup> Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit.
 The more its fruit multiplied,
     the more it multiplied its altars;
 the more the land produced,
     the more they produced idolatrous pillars.
- <sup>2</sup> Their heart is divided;
 now they will be found guilty.
 He will break down their altars;
 he will destroy their idolatrous pillars.
- <sup>3</sup> Surely now they will say,
 "We have no king,
     since we did not fear the LORD;
 and as far as a king,
     what can he really do for us?"
- <sup>4</sup> They speak meaningless words, with false oaths they make covenants.
 Therefore litigation sprouts up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
- <sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calf-idol of Beth-Aven [house of wickedness].
 Its people will mourn over it,
 and the idolatrous priests will wail over it,
     for its glory has departed from it.
- <sup>6</sup> The idol itself will be carried off to Assyria as a present to the great king.
 Ephraim will be put to shame,
 and Israel will be ashamed of its idol.
- <sup>7</sup> Samaria and her king will be cut off, floating away like a twig on the surface of the water.
- <sup>8</sup> The high places also of Aven [wickedness], the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
     Thorns and thistles will grow over their altars.
 Then they will beg the mountains, "Cover us," and to the hills, "Fall on us."
- <sup>9</sup> O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah, there they have continued.
 Did not war against wicked men overtake them in Gibeah?
- <sup>10</sup> When it pleases me, I will punish them.
 Nations will be gathered against them,

when they are tied up for their two sins.

- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is a well-trained heifer that loves to tread out the grain;
but I myself have put a yoke upon her neck,
I will put a harness on Ephraim.
Judah will plow,
Jacob will break up the ground.
- <sup>12</sup> Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap loyal love.
Break up your fallow ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- <sup>13</sup> You have plowed wickedness,
you have reaped injustice;
you have eaten the fruit of lies,
because you trusted in your own strength, in your many mighty warriors.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore the din of battle will rise against your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, just like when Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when both mother and children were dashed to pieces.
- <sup>15</sup> The same thing will happen to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness;
at daybreak the king of Israel be totally destroyed.

DASV: Hosea 11

- <sup>1</sup> When Israel was a child, I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.
- <sup>2</sup> The more I called them,
the more they went away from me.
They sacrificed to Baals,
and burned incense to idols.
- <sup>3</sup> Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk;
I took them by their arms;
but they did not acknowledge that I healed them.
- <sup>4</sup> I led them with cords of kindness and bands of love.
I was to them as those who lift up a yoke off their neck,
and bent over to feed them.
- <sup>5</sup> They will not return to the land of Egypt;
but Assyria will be their king,
because they refused to repent.
- <sup>6</sup> The sword will slash in their cities,
and it will consume the bars of their gates.
It will devour them because of their evil plans.
- <sup>7</sup> My people are bent on turning away from me.
Though they call to the Most High,
he will not raise them up.
- <sup>8</sup> How can I give you up, O Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, O Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
I have had a change of heart;
my compassions grow warm.
- <sup>9</sup> I will not give vent to my fierce anger;
I will not destroy Ephraim again.
For I am God and not a man,
the Holy One in the midst of you.
I will not come in wrath.
- <sup>10</sup> They will follow the LORD,
who roars like a lion;
for he will roar,
and his children will come trembling from the west.
- <sup>11</sup> They will come back trembling like birds from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria.
I will resettle them in their homes, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Ephraim surrounded me with lies,
and the house of Israel with deceit;
but Judah still travels with God,
and is faithful to the Holy One.

DASV: Hosea 12

- <sup>1</sup> Ephraim feeds on wind, and chases after the desert east wind;
he multiplies lies and violence.
They make a treaty with Assyria, and olive oil is carried to Egypt.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD has a case against Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways;
he will repay him according to his deeds.
- <sup>3</sup> Even in the womb he grabbed his brother by the heel, and as an adult he struggled with God.
- <sup>4</sup> He wrestled with the angel and won;
he wept and pleaded for his favor.
He found him at Bethel,
and spoke with him there--
- <sup>5</sup> the LORD, the God of hosts;
the LORD is his memorial.
- <sup>6</sup> You must turn back to your God;
hold on to loyal love and justice, and wait continually for your God.
- <sup>7</sup> Instead he is like a merchant, with deceptive scales in his hand;
he loves to cheat.
- <sup>8</sup> Ephraim said, "I am rich, I have become wealthy.
In all my pursuit of wealth
no one has been able to detect anything wrong or sinful."
- <sup>9</sup> But I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt;
I will again make you live in tents,
as in the days of the solemn feast.
- <sup>10</sup> I spoke to the prophets,
I multiplied visions,
and through the prophets gave symbolic parables.
- <sup>11</sup> Are there idols in Gilead?
They are absolutely worthless!
Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal?
Their altars are like heaps of stone in a plowed field.
- <sup>12</sup> Jacob fled into the land of Aram;
Israel served for a wife,
to earn a wife he guarded sheep.
- <sup>13</sup> By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was guarded.

<sup>14</sup> Ephraim has bitterly provoked to anger;
he will be held accountable for his bloody crimes,
and his Lord will repay him for his scornful abuse.

DASV: Hosea 13

- <sup>1</sup> When Ephraim spoke,
    there was trembling.
    He was exalted in Israel;
    but when he offended by worshipping Baal, he died.
- <sup>2</sup> Even now they sin more and more.
    They have made metal images for themselves;
    idols of silver built according to their own understanding,
    all of them the work of the craftsmen.
    They say of them, "Let those who sacrifice, kiss the calves."
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
    and like the dew that quickly vanishes, like chaff blown away from the threshing floor by a whirlwind, and like smoke disappearing through an open window.
- <sup>4</sup> Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt;
    you are not to acknowledge any god but me,
    for there is no savior besides me.
- <sup>5</sup> I cared for you in the wilderness,
    in the land of great desert.
- <sup>6</sup> But after they had grazed they were filled;
    then their heart became proud;
    therefore they forgot me.
- <sup>7</sup> So I am like a lion to them;
    like a leopard I will lurk by the road.
- <sup>8</sup> I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs,
    and will tear their hearts out.
    I will devour them like a lioness;
    like a wild beast would tear them to pieces.
- <sup>9</sup> You are about to be destroyed, O Israel, because you are against me, your help.
- <sup>10</sup> Where now is your king,
    that he may save you in all your cities?
    Where are your leaders, of whom you demanded,
    "Give me a king and princes"?
- <sup>11</sup> I have given you a king in my anger, and took him away in my wrath.
- <sup>12</sup> The guilt of Ephraim is packed away;
    his sin is stored up.
- <sup>13</sup> The pain of childbirth will come on him.
    He is an unwise son;
    for at the right time he does not appear at the opening of the womb.

<sup>14</sup> Should I ransom them from the power of Sheol?

Should I redeem them from death?

O death, where are your plagues?

O Sheol, where is your destruction?

Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.

<sup>15</sup> Though he is fruitful among his brothers, a desert east wind will come,

the breath of the LORD blowing in from the wilderness;

his spring will dry up and his fountain will be parched;

it will plunder his treasury of its valuables.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will bear her guilt, for she rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword;

their infants will be dashed in pieces,

and their pregnant women ripped open.

DASV: Hosea 14

- <sup>1</sup> O Israel, return to the LORD your God;
for you have fallen because of your sins.
- <sup>2</sup> Take with you words,
and return to the LORD.
Say to him, "Take away all iniquity, receive us graciously,
so that we may offer the praise of our lips as sacrificial bulls.
- <sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us;
we will not ride on war-horses;
or say again to the work of our hands,
'You are our gods,'
for in you alone the orphan finds mercy."
- <sup>4</sup> I will heal their backsliding;
I will love them freely,
for my anger has turned away from them.
- <sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like a lily,
and put down his roots like a cedar of Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup> His shoots will sprout, and his beauty like the olive tree,
and his fragrance like the cedar of Lebanon.
- <sup>7</sup> They who return will live under his shadow.
They will grow up like the grain,
and blossom like the vine;
its fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.
- <sup>8</sup> O Ephraim, what more do I have to do with idols?
It is I who answers and cares for him.
I am like an evergreen cypress tree;
your fruit comes from me.
- <sup>9</sup> Who is wise, that he may understand these things?
Prudent, that he may know them?
For the ways of the LORD are right, and the just will walk in them,
but rebels will stumble in them.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Joel 1

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

and listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has there been anything like this in your days,
or in the days of your forefathers?

<sup>3</sup> Tell your children about it, and let your children tell their children,
and their children the next generation.

<sup>4</sup> That which the cutting locusts left the swarming locusts have eaten.
What the swarming locusts left the hopping locusts have eaten.
What hopping locusts left the caterpillars have eaten.

<sup>5</sup> Wake up you drunkards and weep.
Wail all your drinkers of wine,
because of the sweet wine;
it has been cut off from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> For a "nation" has invaded my land, strong and without number;
its teeth are like the teeth of a lion,
and it has the fangs of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup> It has laid my vine waste, and splintered my fig trees.
It has stripped its bark bare,
and thrown it away;
their branches are pure white.

<sup>8</sup> Grieve like a virgin clothed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

<sup>9</sup> The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD;
the priests mourn, even the LORD's ministers.

<sup>10</sup> The field is devastated,
the land mourns;
for the grain is destroyed,
the new wine is dried up,

- the olive oil is slowed to a trickle.
- <sup>11</sup> Be disappointed, O farmers,
wail, O vinedressers,
for the wheat and barley;
for the harvest of the field is wiped out.
- <sup>12</sup> The vine is withered, and the fig tree is dried up;
the pomegranate and the palm tree too,
and the apple tree,
along with all the trees of the field that are withered;
for joy has dried up from the people.
- <sup>13</sup> Clothe yourselves with sackcloth and lament, O priests;
wail, O ministers of the altar.
Come, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God;
for the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.
- <sup>14</sup> Proclaim a fast,
call for a sacred assembly.
Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry to the LORD.
- <sup>15</sup> Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is near;
It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
- <sup>16</sup> Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
- <sup>17</sup> The seeds rot under their clods;
the storehouses are devastated,
the barns have been torn down;
for the grain has dried up.
- <sup>18</sup> How do the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle wander about,
because they have no pasture;
even the flocks of sheep suffer.
- <sup>19</sup> O LORD, to you I cry;
for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flames have burned all the trees of the field.
- <sup>20</sup> The wild animals of the field pant to you;
for the water brooks are dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

DASV: Joel 2

- <sup>1</sup> Blow the trumpet in Zion,
and sound an alarm on my holy mountain.
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD comes, it is near.
- <sup>2</sup> It will be a day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
Like blackness spreading over the mountains,
a great and powerful army comes;
there has never been anything like it,
nor will there ever be again,
for many generations.
- <sup>3</sup> A fire devours before them,
and behind them a flame burns.
The land is like the garden of Eden before them, but behind them it is like a desolate wilderness;
nothings escapes them.
- <sup>4</sup> They look like horses;
they charge forward like war horses.
- <sup>5</sup> With a sound like chariots,
they leap over the mountains tops;
like the crackling of a fire devouring stubble,
like a powerful army prepared for battle.
- <sup>6</sup> At their presence the people writhe in terror;
all faces grow pale.
- <sup>7</sup> They charge like warriors;
they scale the wall like soldiers.
They each march on their way,
and they do not deviate from their path.
- <sup>8</sup> They do not jostle one another;
each one marches in his own track.
They burst through the defenses,
without breaking ranks.
- <sup>9</sup> They rush into the city;
they run along its wall.
They climb up into the houses;
they gain entrance through the windows like a thief.
- <sup>10</sup> The earth quakes before them;
the heavens tremble.

- The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars stop shining.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD raises his voice before his army;
for his forces are innumerable;
for the one executing his command is strong.
The day of the LORD is great and terrifying.
Who is able to survive it?
- <sup>12</sup> "Yet even now," says the LORD,
"turn to me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning."
- <sup>13</sup> Tear your heart and not your clothes, and turn to the LORD your God;
for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in loyal love;
he may change his mind about punishing.
- <sup>14</sup> Who knows? Perhaps he will turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him.
Perhaps you will be able to offer a grain offering and a drink offering to the LORD your God again?
- <sup>15</sup> Blow the trumpet in Zion, proclaim a fast,
summon a solemn assembly.
- <sup>16</sup> Gather the people, sanctify the assembly,
assemble the elders,
gather the children,
even infants who are nursing.
Let the bridegroom come out of his bedroom, and the bride out of her chamber.
- <sup>17</sup> Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar,
and let them say,
"Spare your people, O LORD,
and do not permit your heritage to be ridiculed,
a mocking proverb among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"
- <sup>18</sup> Then the LORD may become jealous for his land, and have pity on his people.
- <sup>19</sup> The LORD replied to his people,
"Look, I will send you grain, new wine, and olive oil,

and you will be satisfied with it;
 I will no more make you a mockery among the nations;
<sup>20</sup> I will remove the northern army far away,
 and will drive it into a barren and desolate land,
 its vanguard to the east into the Dead Sea,
 and its rear guard into the western Mediterranean Sea.
 Its stench will come up,
 and its foul odor will rise up."

Surely he has done great things.
<sup>21</sup> Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice;
 for the LORD has done great things.
<sup>22</sup> Do not be afraid, O animals of the field;
 for the pastures of the wilderness are green,
 for the tree bears its fruit,
 the fig tree and vine yield their produce.
<sup>23</sup> Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God;
 for he gives you the former rain as vindication,
 and he pours down rain for you,
 the former rain and the latter rain just like before.
<sup>24</sup> The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and olive oil.
<sup>25</sup> I will repay you the years that the swarming locust ate, the hopping, destroying and cutting locusts,
 my great army that I sent against you.
<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat and will be satisfied;
 you will praise the name of the LORD your God,
 who has done wondrously for you;
 my people will never be put to shame.
<sup>27</sup> You will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God,
 there is no other.
 My people will never be put to shame.

<sup>28</sup> It will come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.
 Your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
 your old men will dream dreams,
 your young men will see visions.
<sup>29</sup> Also on male and female servants in those days will I pour out my Spirit.
<sup>30</sup> I will display wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, fire, and columns of smoke.

<sup>31</sup> The sun will be turned into darkness
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of LORD comes.

<sup>32</sup> Then whoever calls on the name of the LORD will be delivered;
for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as the LORD has said,
among the survivors
will be those whom the LORD calls.

DASV: Joel 3

- <sup>1</sup> For in those days and at that time,
I will bring back the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
- <sup>2</sup> I will gather all nations,
and will bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will execute judgment on them there for my people and for my inheritance Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations.
- They have divided up my land,
<sup>3</sup> and have cast lots for my people.
They have traded a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine so that they could drink.
- <sup>4</sup> What do you have against me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia?
If you are repaying me for something, swiftly and speedily, I will pay back your deeds on your own head.
- <sup>5</sup> For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried off my precious treasures into your temples.
- <sup>6</sup> You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, removing them far from their border.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, I will rouse them out of the place to which you have sold them, and will pay back on your head what you have done.
- <sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the people of the Sabaeans, to a nation far off, for the LORD has spoken it.
- <sup>9</sup> Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for war,
rouse the mighty men.
Let all the soldiers draw near,
let them come up.
- <sup>10</sup> Beat your plowshares into swords,
and your pruning hooks into spears.
Let the weak say,
"I am strong."
- <sup>11</sup> Come quickly, all you surrounding nations, gather yourselves together there.
- Bring down your warriors, O LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> Let the nations rouse themselves, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;

- for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.
- <sup>13</sup> Put in the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, tread grapes for the winepress is full.
The vats overflow,
for their wickedness is great.
- <sup>14</sup> Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
- <sup>15</sup> The sun and the moon will be darkened, and the stars will stop shining.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem;
the heavens and the earth will shake.
The LORD will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the people of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem will be holy,
and no strangers will ever again pass through.
- <sup>18</sup> In that day, the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk,
and all the brooks of Judah will flow with water.
A spring will flow out of the house of the LORD, and will water the Valley of Shittim.
- <sup>19</sup> Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah,
in whose land they shed innocent blood.
- <sup>20</sup> Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
- <sup>21</sup> I will avenge their blood;
I will not acquit the guilty,
for the LORD dwells in Zion.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Amos 1

<sup>1</sup> The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen from Tekoa which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup> He said,
"The LORD roars from Zion, and raises his voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds are parched,
and the top of Carmel withers."

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says,
"For three crimes of Damascus,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because they have threshed Gilead with iron threshing sledges.
<sup>4</sup> So I will send a fire on the house of Hazael, and fire will devour the fortresses of Ben-hadad.
<sup>5</sup> I will break the gate bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitants from the valley of Aven [Wickedness],
the one who holds the scepter from Beth Eden;
the people of Aram will go into captivity to Kir,"
says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> This what the LORD says,
"For three crimes of Gaza,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because they exiled the whole people,
to sell them to Edom.
<sup>7</sup> So I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and fire will devour its fortresses.
<sup>8</sup> I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod, the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
I will turn my hand against Ekron;
the remnant of the Philistines will perish,"
says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of Tyre,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,

because they delivered up the whole people to Edom,
and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.
10 So I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,
and fire will devour its fortresses."

11 This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of Edom,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword,
and cast off all pity,
in his anger he continually tore them apart,
and he kept his wrath forever.

12 So I will send a fire on Teman, and fire will devour the fortresses of Bozrah."

13 This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of the children of Ammon,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,
in order to enlarge their border.

14 But I will set fire to the wall of Rabbah, and fire will devour its palaces, with shouting on the day of battle,
with a wind storm in the day of the whirlwind;

15 and their king will go into exile;
he and his princes together,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Amos 2

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of Moab,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to ashes.
- <sup>2</sup> So I will send fire on Moab, and fire will devour the palaces of Kerioth.
Moab will die with tumult,
with shouting, and with the sound of a trumpet.
- <sup>3</sup> I will cut off its ruler from its midst, and will slay all their princes with him,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of Judah,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because they have rejected the law of the LORD,
and have not kept his statutes.
They were led astray by the lies,
after which their forefathers walked.
- <sup>5</sup> So I will send a fire on Judah, and fire will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem."
- <sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"For three crimes of Israel,
and for four, I will not revoke its punishment,
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of sandals.
- <sup>7</sup> They trample the heads of the poor into the dust of the earth, and push the oppressed out of the way;
a man and his father go in to the same girl,
in this way profaning my holy name.
- <sup>8</sup> They lay down beside every altar upon clothes acquired from debt collateral, and drink wine in the house of their God funded by unjust fines.
- <sup>9</sup> Yet I myself destroyed the Amorite before them,
who were as tall as cedars,
and as strong as oaks.
Yet I destroyed his fruit above,
and his roots beneath.
- <sup>10</sup> I myself brought you up out of the land of Egypt,

- and led you forty years in the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.
- <sup>11</sup> I raised up some of your sons to be prophets, and some of your young men to be Nazirites.
Isn't this true, O people of Israel?"
says the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, 'Do not prophesy.'
- <sup>13</sup> Look, I will squash you down, like a cart squashed under a load of grain.
- <sup>14</sup> Even the swift will not be able to escape, and the strong will not retain his strength,
nor will the mighty be able to save himself.
- <sup>15</sup> Archers will not be able to hold their ground;
he who is swift of foot will not be able to escape;
nor will he who rides a horse be able to escape.
- <sup>16</sup> Even the bravest among the mighty will flee away naked in that day,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Amos 3

<sup>1</sup> Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

<sup>2</sup> "You only have I known of all the families of the earth;
therefore I will punish you for all your sins."

<sup>3</sup> Do two walk together, without having agreed to it?

<sup>4</sup> Does a lion roar in the forest,
when it has no prey?
Does a young lion roar from its den,
if it has caught nothing?

<sup>5</sup> Does a bird dive into a snare on the ground, where there is no bait?
Does a trap spring up from the ground,
when there is nothing in it?

<sup>6</sup> If the trumpet alarm is blown in a city,
do the people not fear?
Will disaster happen to a city,
when the LORD has not been involved?

<sup>7</sup> Surely the sovereign LORD does not do anything without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup> The lion has roared, who will not fear?
The sovereign LORD has spoken,
who will not prophesy?

<sup>9</sup> Proclaim to the fortresses at Ashdod, and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt:
"Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what great chaos is happening there,
and what oppression is in its midst."

<sup>10</sup> "For they do not know how to do right," says the LORD,
"they store up violence and plunder in their fortresses."

<sup>11</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:
"An enemy will surround the land;
he will pull down your strong defenses,
and your fortresses will be looted."

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion just a couple legs or a piece of an ear, so the people of Israel will be rescued who sit in Samaria on just a corner of a bed or couch from Damascus."

- <sup>13</sup> "Listen and testify against the house of Jacob," says the sovereign LORD, the God of hosts.
- <sup>14</sup> "For in the day I punish the crimes of Israel,
I will also punish the altars of Bethel.
The horns of the altar will be cut off,
and fall to the ground.
- <sup>15</sup> I will demolish the winter house,
along with the summer house;
and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will be swept away,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Amos 4

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on Mount Samaria, who oppress the poor and crush the needy, who say to their husbands, "Bring us something to drink."
- <sup>2</sup> The Sovereign LORD has sworn by his holiness,
"Surely the time will come on you,
that they will take you away with hooks,
and every last one of you with fishhooks.
- <sup>3</sup> You will go out through the breaks in the wall, every one straight before her,
and you will be cast out into Harmon,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> "Come to Bethel and sin;
to Gilgal and multiply sins.
Bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three days.
- <sup>5</sup> Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leavened bread, and ostentatiously proclaim freewill offerings;
for this is what you love to do, O people of Israel,"
says the sovereign LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> "But I have given you clean teeth from hunger in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places,
yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup> "I also withheld the rain from you,
when there was still three months to the harvest.
I caused it to rain on one city,
and not to rain on another city.
One field was rained on,
and the field where it did not rain withered.
- <sup>8</sup> So two or three towns wandered over to one town to drink water, but were not satisfied.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>9</sup> "I have struck your many gardens and vineyards with blight and mildew;
the locust devoured
your fig trees and olive trees,
yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.

- <sup>10</sup> "I sent against you plagues like those of Egypt:
your young men I have slain with the sword,
and have carried away your horses.
I have made the stench of your camp rise into your nostrils,
yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>11</sup> "I have overthrown some of you,
just like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
You were like a charred stick pulled from the fire,
yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup> "Therefore this is what I will do to you, O Israel, and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel."
- <sup>13</sup> For, look here, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind,
and reveals his thoughts to humans;
who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth -- the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

DASV: Amos 5

<sup>1</sup> Hear this word of lament which I take up about you, O house of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> "The virgin of Israel is fallen,
she will not rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land,
there is no one to raise her up."

<sup>3</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says:
"The city that marched out a thousand will have a hundred left, and the town that marched out a hundred will have ten left for the house of Israel."

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says to the house of Israel, "Seek me and live.
<sup>5</sup> But do not seek Bethel, or enter into Gilgal,
or travel down to Beersheba,
for Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will be brought to nothing."

<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD and you will live, or else he will break out against the house of Joseph like a fire,
and it devour,
and there will be no one in Bethel to extinguish it.

<sup>7</sup> You who turn justice to bitterness, and throw down righteousness to the ground.

<sup>8</sup> It is he who made the constellations of Pleiades and Orion, and turns the darkness into the morning,
and turns the day into the dark of night;
who calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
the LORD is his name.

<sup>9</sup> He flashes destruction down on the strong,
so that destruction comes upon the fortress.

<sup>10</sup> They hate the one who reproves in the city gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore because you trample on the poor, and exact taxes of grain from him;
while you may have built houses of carefully cut stone,
you will not live in them.
Although you have planted fine vineyards,

- you will not drink their wine.
- <sup>12</sup> For I know your crimes are many,
and your sins are great -- you who oppress the just,
who take a bribe,
and turn away the needy
from receiving justice in the city gate.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.
- <sup>14</sup> Seek good and not evil,
that you may live;
so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,
just as you have claimed.
- <sup>15</sup> Hate the evil,
and love the good,
and establish justice in the city gate.
It may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the sovereign ruler says:
"In all the public squares there will be wailing;
they will mourn in all the streets,
'Alas! Alas!'
They will call the farmers to mourning, and those skilful in lament to wailing.
- <sup>17</sup> In all the vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup> Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
Why would you want the day of the LORD?
It is darkness, and not light.
- <sup>19</sup> It will be as if a man fled from a lion,
only to meet a bear;
then escaping into a house,
rests his hand on the wall,
only to be bitten by a snake.
- <sup>20</sup> Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light, total darkness, without a glimmer of light in it?
- <sup>21</sup> "I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies.
- <sup>22</sup> Even though you offer me burnt offerings and grain offerings,

- I will not accept them;
I will not look favorably on your fattened peace offerings.
- <sup>23</sup> Take away from me the noise of your songs;
for I cannot stand to listen to the music of your harps.
- <sup>24</sup> But let justice roll down like a deluge, and righteousness like an unfailing stream.
- <sup>25</sup> Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?
- <sup>26</sup> Now you must carry Sikkuth, your king and Kiyyun, your star god, which you made for yourselves.
- <sup>27</sup> Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

DASV: Amos 6

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, to those who are secure on Mount Samaria,
the notable men of the top nation,
to whom the house of Israel comes for help!
- <sup>2</sup> Go over to Calneh, and see;
from there go to the great Hamath;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you any better than these kingdoms?
Is their territory any greater than your territory?
- <sup>3</sup> You who put off thinking about the evil day,
and you bring the reign of violence near.
- <sup>4</sup> Those lying on beds of ivory, and lounging on their couches, eating the lambs from the flock,
and calves out of the midst of the stall.
- <sup>5</sup> They sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, improvising music on instruments like David.
- <sup>6</sup> They drink wine from bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest lotions,
but they are not grieved at all over the ruin of Joseph.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore they will now be the first to go into exile;
the partying of those loungers will pass away.
- <sup>8</sup> The sovereign LORD has sworn by himself,
says the LORD, the God of hosts:
"I abhor the arrogance of Jacob,
and hate his fortresses.
Therefore I will hand this city and everything in it over to their enemies."
- <sup>9</sup> If ten people remain in single house, they too will die.
- <sup>10</sup> When a person's relative comes to carry the dead out of the houses, and calls to a survivor in the inside of the house, "Is there any in there with you?" and he will say, "No." then will he say, "Be quiet, for we must not mention the name of the LORD."
- <sup>11</sup> For look, the LORD commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces,
and the little house turned into rubble.
- <sup>12</sup> Can horses run on rocks?
Can one plow the sea with oxen?
But you have turned justice into poison,
and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

- <sup>13</sup> You rejoice that you conquered Lo-debar [Nothing] claiming, "Have we not captured Karnaim by our own strength?"
- <sup>14</sup> "For look, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel,"
says the LORD, the God of hosts;
"and they will afflict you from the Lebo-Hamath to Wadi Arabah."

DASV: Amos 7

<sup>1</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD showed me: look, he formed locusts just as the latter planting was beginning to sprout. This was the latter growth after the king's harvest.

<sup>2</sup> When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, "O sovereign LORD forgive, I beg you. How can Jacob survive? For he is so small."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD changed his mind about doing this. "It will not be," says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> So the sovereign LORD showed me: look, the sovereign LORD called for a punishment by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and was devouring the land.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "O sovereign LORD stop, I beg you. How can Jacob survive? For he is so small."

<sup>6</sup> The LORD changed his mind about doing this. "This also will not be," says the sovereign LORD.

<sup>7</sup> So he showed me: look, the Lord stood beside a wall built straight by a plumb line, he too was using a plumb line in his hand.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I replied, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said,

"Look, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel;
I will not longer spare them.

<sup>9</sup> The high places of Isaac will be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste;
I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land cannot tolerate all his words.

<sup>11</sup> For Amos is saying, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely be led away into exile out of his land.'"

<sup>12</sup> Amaziah also told Amos, "O seer, go, flee to the land of Judah. Earn your bread and prophesy there.

<sup>13</sup> Do not prophesy any more at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house."

<sup>14</sup> Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I am not a professional prophet, nor was I trained as a prophet's son, but I was a herdsman, who took care of sycamore trees.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'Your wife will be a harlot in the city, and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword, and your land will be split up by a measuring line. You yourself will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely be led away into exile out of its land.'

- <sup>1</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD showed me: look, a basket of summer fruit.
- <sup>2</sup> He said, "Amos, what do you see?" I replied, "A basket of ripe fruit." Then the LORD said to me, "The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will no longer be lenient with them.
- <sup>3</sup> The songs in the temple will turn to wailing in that day," says the sovereign LORD. "Many dead bodies will be strewn everywhere. Be silent."
- <sup>4</sup> Hear this, you who trample on the needy, and destroy the poor of the land,
- <sup>5</sup> saying, "When will the new moon be over,
so that we can sell grain?
and the Sabbath,
so that we can put the wheat for sale,
making the amount small, and cost high,
and cheating by means of dishonest scales.
- <sup>6</sup> We want to buy the poor for silver,
and the needy for a pair of sandals,
and sell chaff mixed in with the wheat?"
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob,
"Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Will the land not tremble for this,
and every one mourn who lives in it?
The whole land will rise up like the Nile River;
it will swirl around then subside,
just like the River of Egypt."
- <sup>9</sup> "In that day," says the sovereign LORD,
"I will cause the sun to go down at noon,
and I will darken the earth in broad daylight.
- <sup>10</sup> I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into funeral laments.
I will make everyone wear sackcloth around their waists, and every head will be shaved bald.
I will make them mourn as for an only son,
and it will end like a bitter day."
- <sup>11</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the sovereign LORD,
"when I will send a famine on the land,
not a famine of bread,
or thirst for water,

but of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east.

They will run around searching for the word of the LORD, and will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> In that day beautiful young women and the young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> They who swear by the sin of Samaria, and take an oath, 'As your god lives, O Dan;'
and, 'As the god of Beersheba lives;'
they will fall, and never rise up again."

DASV: Amos 9

- <sup>1</sup> I saw the Lord standing beside the altar. He said,
"Strike the tops of the pillars,
so that the thresholds shake;
shatter them on the heads of all the people.
Those left I will kill with the sword, not one of them will get away,
not one of them will escape.
- <sup>2</sup> Though they dig down into Sheol,
my hand will pull them up out of there;
though they climb up to heaven,
from there will I bring them down.
- <sup>3</sup> Though they hide themselves on the top of Mount Carmel,
I will search and capture them from there;
though they attempt to hide from my sight in the bottom of the sea,
I will command the serpent and it will bite them.
- <sup>4</sup> Though they go into exile before their enemies, there I will command the sword,
and it will kill them;
I will fix my eyes on them for disaster and not for good."
- <sup>5</sup> The sovereign LORD of hosts,
he who touches the earth and it melts,
and all who dwell in it will mourn;
all the land rises up like the Nile River,
and then it sinks again, like the River of Egypt.
- <sup>6</sup> He builds his upper chambers in the heavens, and has founded its foundation on the earth;
he calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth;
the LORD is his name.
- <sup>7</sup> "Are you not just like the Ethiopians to me, O Israelites?"
says the LORD.
"Have I not brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Crete,
and the Arameans from Kir?"
- <sup>8</sup> Look, the eyes of the sovereign LORD are on the sinful kingdom,
I will destroy it from the face of the earth;
except I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob,"
says the LORD.
- <sup>9</sup> "For look, I will command,

- and I will shake a sieve with the house of Israel among all the nations, yet not the smallest kernel will fall to the ground.
- <sup>10</sup> All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, those who say, 'Disaster will never overtake or happen to us.'
- <sup>11</sup> In that day I will raise up the fallen hut of David, and close up its breaches;
I will raise up its ruins,
and I will rebuild it as in days of old.
- <sup>12</sup> Then they will possess what is left of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says the LORD who will do this.
- <sup>13</sup> "Look, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"that the one who plows will catch up with the one reaping, and the one who treads grapes,
with the one who sows seed.
The mountains will drip sweet wine, and it will flow down all the hills.
- <sup>14</sup> I will bring back my exiled people Israel, and they will rebuild the ruined cities,
and inhabit them;
they will plant vineyards,
and drink their wine;
they will also plant gardens,
and eat their fruit.
- <sup>15</sup> Then I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says the LORD your God.

- and you will be cut off forever.
- <sup>11</sup> On the day you stood by when strangers carried off his wealth, and foreigners entered into his gates,
and cast lots on Jerusalem,
you were just like one of them.
- <sup>12</sup> But you should not have gloated over your brother in the day of his disaster.
You should not have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction.
You should not have spoken arrogantly on the day of distress.
- <sup>13</sup> You should not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity.
You should not have gloated over their misfortune
in the day of their calamity.
You should not have laid hands on their substance
in the day of their calamity.
- <sup>14</sup> You should not have stood at the crossways, to cut down those trying to escape.
You should not have handed over those who survived in the day of distress.
- <sup>15</sup> For the day of the LORD is near on all the nations;
as you have done, it will be done to you;
your deeds will return back on your own head.
- <sup>16</sup> Just as you have drunk on my holy mountain,
so will all the nations drink continually;
they will drink, and gulp down,
and will be as though they had never been.
- <sup>17</sup> But in Mount Zion there will be those who escape, and it will be holy;
the house of Jacob will regain its inheritance.
- <sup>18</sup> The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame,
but the house of Esau stubble.
They will burn them up and devour them.
There will not be a sole survivor of the house of Esau,"
for the LORD has spoken it.
- <sup>19</sup> Those of the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the Judean foothills the Philistines.
They will possess the lands of Ephraim,
and the lands of Samaria.

Benjamin will possess Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> This group of exiles from the descendants of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess all the way to Zarephath.

The captives of Jerusalem,
who are in Sepharad,
will possess the towns of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup> Saviors will ascend Mount Zion to judge the Mount of Esau, and the kingdom will be the LORD's.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Jonah 1

<sup>1</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

<sup>3</sup> But Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish away from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish. Then he paid its fare and got aboard, to go with them to Tarshish seeking to flee from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a severe storm, so that the ship was about to break up.

<sup>5</sup> Then the sailors were afraid and each one cried to his god. They threw the ship's cargo into the sea, to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep.

<sup>6</sup> So the captain came and said to him, "What are you doing sleeping? Get up, call on your God. Perhaps God will think about us, so that we do not perish."

<sup>7</sup> The sailors said to each other, "Come, and let us cast lots so that we may know who brought this disaster on us." So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.

<sup>8</sup> They demanded of him, "Tell us whose fault it is that this disaster has come on us? What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your home country? From what people are you?"

<sup>9</sup> He told them, "I am a Hebrew. I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

<sup>10</sup> Then the men were terrified, and asked him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup> So they asked him, "What shall we do to you, to get this sea to calm down for us?" For the sea was growing more and more rough.

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, "Pick me up, and throw me overboard into the sea then the sea will be calm for you. I realize that because of me this great storm has come on you."

<sup>13</sup> Instead the men rowed even harder to get back to the land, but they could not do it because the sea grew more and more stormy against them.

<sup>14</sup> So they cried out to the LORD, and said, "We beg you, O LORD, we beg you, do not let us die for this man's life. Do not make us guilty of innocent blood, for you, O LORD, have done just as you pleased."

<sup>15</sup> So they picked up Jonah, and threw him overboard into the sea. The sea stopped raging.

<sup>16</sup> Then the men greatly feared the LORD. They offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and made vows.

<sup>17</sup> Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

DASV: Jonah 2

<sup>2</sup> He said,

"I called to the LORD because of my distress,
and he answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and you heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup> You threw me into the depths,
in the heart of the seas,
the flood surrounded me;
all your breakers and waves passed over me.

<sup>4</sup> I said, 'I have been banished from your sight;
yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'

<sup>5</sup> The waters surrounded me, even up to my neck;
the deep was closing in on me;
the weeds wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> I went down to the bottoms of the mountains;
the earth with its bars closed in on me forever.
Yet you have brought up my life from the pit,
O LORD my God.

<sup>7</sup> When my life was slipping away,
I remembered the LORD;
my prayer came in to you,
to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who worship worthless idols forsake their own mercy.

<sup>9</sup> But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving;
I will fulfill that which I have vowed.
Salvation is the LORD's."

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out on the dry land.

DASV: Jonah 3

<sup>2</sup> "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you."

<sup>3</sup> So Jonah got up, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was a very great city, taking three days to walk through it.

<sup>4</sup> When Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, he cried out, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown."

<sup>5</sup> Now the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

<sup>6</sup> When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he arose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes.

<sup>7</sup> He issued a proclamation and published it throughout Nineveh: "By the decree of the king and his nobles: let no person or animal, no herd or flock, taste anything. Do not let them eat anything or drink water.

<sup>8</sup> Let every person and animal be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry earnestly to God. Let everyone of them turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.

<sup>9</sup> Who knows, perhaps God will relent and change his mind, and turn away from his fierce anger so that we do not perish?"

<sup>10</sup> When God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, God changed his mind about the disaster which he said he would do to them and he did it not do it.

<sup>2</sup> He prayed to the LORD, and said, "O LORD, is not this exactly what I said would happen, when I was still in my country? That is why I fled to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God, merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loyal love, and one who relents concerning disaster.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD asked, "Are you right to be angry?"

<sup>5</sup> Then Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of it. There he made a shelter for himself, and sat under it in the shade to see what would become of the city.

<sup>6</sup> Now the LORD God prepared a plant, and made it to come up over Jonah, to give shade for his head and to deliver him from his misery. So Jonah was very happy about the plant.

<sup>7</sup> But God sent a worm at dawn the next day, and it attacked the plant so that it withered.

<sup>8</sup> When the sun rose, God sent a scorching east wind, and the sun beat on Jonah's head until he grew faint and requested that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Jonah, "Are you right to be angry concerning the plant?" He replied, "Yes, angry enough to die."

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said, "You had compassion on the plant, for which you have not worked or made it grow. It came up in a night and perished in a night.

<sup>11</sup> Should I not have had compassion on Nineveh, that great city, where there are more than 120,000 people who cannot tell the difference between their right hand and their left, along with many animals?"

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Micah 1

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Hear, you peoples, all of you, listen, O earth, and all that is in it.
the sovereign LORD will testify against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

<sup>3</sup> Look, the LORD is coming out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> The mountains will melt under him, and the valleys will split open;
they will melt like wax before a fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

<sup>5</sup> All this is a result of the transgression of Jacob,
and for the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the transgression of Jacob?

Is it not Samaria?

What is the high place of Judah?

Is it not Jerusalem?

<sup>6</sup> Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field, a place for planting vineyards.

I will pour down her stones into the valley,
and I will expose her foundations.

<sup>7</sup> All her graven images will be beaten to pieces;
all her pagan treasures will be burned with fire,
and all her idols I will lay waste.

For she gathered them as the hire of a prostitute,
and to the prostitute's wages they will return.

<sup>8</sup> For this I will lament and wail;
I will walk around barefoot and naked;
I will howl like the jackals,
and a mourn like an owl.

<sup>9</sup> For her wounds are incurable;
it has come even to Judah.

It has reached to the gate of my people,
even to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Tell it not in Gath,

- do not weep at all,
at Beth Leaphrah [House of Dust] roll in the dust.
- <sup>11</sup> Pass into exile, O inhabitants of Shaphir [beautiful], in nakedness and shame.
The inhabitants of Zaanan dare not come out of their city;
Beth Ezel wails and will remove its support from you.
- <sup>12</sup> For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because disaster has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> Harness the chariot to the steeds, O inhabitants of Lachish;
you were the first place of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore you will give farewell gifts to Moresheth-gath.
The houses of Achzib [Deception] will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup> I will again bring to you, O inhabitants of Mareshah, a conqueror who will possess you;
the glory of Israel will flee to Adullam.
- <sup>16</sup> Shave your heads bald, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight;
enlarge your baldness as the eagle,
for they are taken from you into exile.

DASV: Micah 2

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who devise iniquity, who plot evil on their beds.
 When the morning dawns, they do it, because it is in the power of their hand.
- <sup>2</sup> They covet fields, then seize them,
 and houses, and take them.
 They cheat a person out of his house,
 even taking a person's family inheritance.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:
 "Look, I am planning a disaster against this family, from which you will not be able to remove your necks.
 You will no longer walk in arrogance, for it will be a time of trouble.
- <sup>4</sup> In that day they will take up a taunt against you,
 and lament with a mournful lamentation, saying,
 "We are utterly ruined!
 He changes the portion of my people.
 How does he remove it from me!
 He allots our fields to traitors."
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore you will have no one to mark out the boundaries by lot in the assembly of the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup> "Do not preach," they preach.
 "They should not prophesy about such things;
 disgrace will not overtake us."
- <sup>7</sup> Should it be said, O house of Jacob,
 "Is the Spirit of the LORD exhausted?
 Are these his doings?"
- "Do not my words benefit him who walks uprightly?"
- <sup>8</sup> But recently my people rise up like an enemy;
 strip the robe off those who peacefully pass by,
 like those returning from war.
- <sup>9</sup> You evict the women of my people from their pleasant houses;
 from their young children you take away my glory forever.
- <sup>10</sup> Get up, and leave;
 for this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys,
 with a terrible destruction.
- <sup>11</sup> If a person were walking around uttering blustery lies, saying,

'I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink,' he will be the perfect prophet for this people.

- <sup>12</sup> I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob;
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together as the sheep in the midst of a pasture;
it will be noisy because there will be so many people.
- <sup>13</sup> The leader who breaks out will go up before them, they will break out and pass on through the gate, and leave.
Their king will pass on before them,
and the LORD will be at their head."

DASV: Micah 3

- <sup>1</sup> Then I said,
    "Listen, you heads of Jacob,
        and rulers of the house of Israel,
            is it not your duty to know justice?"
- <sup>2</sup> But you hate the good,
    and love evil;
    you who tear the skin off my people,
        and their flesh from off their bones;
- <sup>3</sup> who also eat the flesh of my people,
    flay their skin off of them,
    break their bones
    and chop them into pieces, like flesh for the pot,
        and meat for the kettle.
- <sup>4</sup> Then they will cry to the LORD,
    but he will not answer them;
    he will hide his face from them at that time because of the evil they have done.
- <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:
    "The prophets who lead my people astray, who cry 'Peace' whenever someone feeds their teeth,
    if someone does not feed their mouths,
        they declare war against him.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore night will fall on you,
    but you will have no vision;
    it will be dark for you,
        with no revelations;
    the sun will go down on the prophets,
        and the day will be black over them.
- <sup>7</sup> The seers will be disgraced and the diviners shamed;
    they will all cover their lips for there will be no answer from God."
- <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD,
    with justice and strength,
    to declare to Jacob his rebellion,
        and to Israel his sin.
- <sup>9</sup> Hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob,

and rulers of the house of Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert everything that is straight.
<sup>10</sup> They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with injustice.
<sup>11</sup> Her leaders judge for a bribe;
her priests teach for hire,
and her prophets divine for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No disaster will come on us."
<sup>12</sup> Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field;
Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins,
and the Temple Mount like a hill overgrown with brush.

DASV: Micah 4

- <sup>1</sup> But in the last days the mountain of the LORD's house will be established as the chief of the mountains, and it will be lifted above the hills,
and peoples will flow to it.
- <sup>2</sup> Many nations will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."
For the law will go forth out of Zion,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> He will judge between many peoples, and will settle disputes of strong nations far away.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they learn war anymore.
- <sup>4</sup> But each person will sit under his own vine and under his fig tree,
and no one will make them afraid,
for the mouth of LORD of hosts has promised it.
- <sup>5</sup> For all the peoples walk everyone in the name of their god;
but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.
- <sup>6</sup> "In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble those who are lame, and I will gather those who were driven away,
those whom I afflicted.
- <sup>7</sup> I will make the lame a remnant,
and those who were cast off a strong nation.
The LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from now and forever."
- <sup>8</sup> As for you, O guard tower of the flock,
the hill of the daughter of Zion,
to you it will come,
the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.
- <sup>9</sup> Now why do you cry out so loud?
Is there no king among you?
Is your sage ruler perished?
Is that why pangs have taken hold of you

- like a woman in labor?
<sup>10</sup> Writhe in pain and groan, O daughter of Zion,
like a woman in labor;
for now you must leave the city,
and live in the open field,
and will go to Babylon.
There you will be rescued;
there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
- <sup>11</sup> Now many nations are assembled against you.
They say, "Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion."
- <sup>12</sup> But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, nor do they understand his plan;
for he has gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing floor.
- <sup>13</sup> "Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion;
for I will make your horns iron,
and I will make your hooves bronze.
So you will beat into pieces many peoples."
You will devote their stolen gain to the LORD, and their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

DASV: Micah 5

- <sup>1</sup> Now muster your troops, O daughter of troops;
they have laid a siege against us;
they will strike the ruler of Israel with a rod on the cheek.
- <sup>2</sup> But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are little among the clans of Judah, out of you will come forth for me
one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.
- <sup>3</sup> So he will give them up, until the time she who is in labor has given birth.
Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> He will stand and will feed his flock
in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they will be secure,
for at that time he will be great to the ends of the earth.
- <sup>5</sup> And this one will be our peace.
- If the Assyrians should come into our land and attempt to tread down our fortresses, then we will marshal seven shepherds against him,
yes, eight commanders.
- <sup>6</sup> They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with a drawn sword.
He will deliver us from the Assyrians,
when he comes into our land,
and when he tramples within our border.
- <sup>7</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD,
like showers on the grass,
which no one can hold back,
or delay until humans are ready.
- <sup>8</sup> The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep,
who as it goes through, pounces and rips in pieces,
and there is no one to rescue.
- <sup>9</sup> Let your hand be lifted up against your adversaries, and let all your enemies be cut off.

- <sup>10</sup> "In that day," says the LORD,
    "I will cut off your horses from your midst,
        and will destroy your chariots.
- <sup>11</sup> I will cut off the cities of your land,
    and will throw down all your strongholds.
- <sup>12</sup> I will cut off sorcery from your hand,
    and there will be no more fortune-tellers.
- <sup>13</sup> I will cut off your carved idols and your sacred pillars from your midst;
    you will no longer worship the work of your hands.
- <sup>14</sup> I will uproot your Asherah poles from your midst;
    I will destroy your cities.
- <sup>15</sup> I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations that have disobeyed."

DASV: Micah 6

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to what the LORD says:
"Get up, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear, O mountains, the LORD's indictment,
and you enduring foundations of the earth.
For the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will bring a charge against Israel.
- <sup>3</sup> O my people, what have I done to you?
How have I wearied you?
Answer me.
- <sup>4</sup> For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, redeemed you out of the house of bondage;
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before you.
- <sup>5</sup> O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab plotted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him.
Remember what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD."
- <sup>6</sup> With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?
- <sup>7</sup> Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand rivers of olive oil?
Shall I give him my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
- <sup>8</sup> He has showed you, O man, what is good.
What does the LORD require of you?
To do justice,
to love faithfulness,
and to walk humbly with your God.
- <sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD cries to the city.
It is wisdom to fear your name:
"Listen, to the rod and the one who has appointed it.
- <sup>10</sup> Can I overlook the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the dishonest weights used in trading is accursed?
- <sup>11</sup> Can I acquit the person with rigged scales, and with a bag of dishonest weights?

- <sup>12</sup> For the rich of your city are full of violence, and its inhabitants tell lies,
and their tongues speak deceit from their mouths.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore I will strike you with a serious wound;
I will make you desolate because of your sins.
- <sup>14</sup> You will eat, but not be satisfied;
hunger will be in your midst.
What you store away, will not be saved;
what you do manage to save,
I will give over to the sword.
- <sup>15</sup> You will sow,
but not reap;
you will tread the olives,
but not anoint yourself with olive oil;
you will tread grapes,
but not drink the wine.
- <sup>16</sup> For you keep the statutes of King Omri, and follow all the practices of the house of Ahab,
and you walk according to their principles.
Therefore I will make you an utter ruin,
and your inhabitants an object of mockery,
and the nations will ridicule you."

DASV: Micah 7

- <sup>1</sup> Woe is me!
For I am as one after the summer fruit has been gathered,
after the grapes have been harvested;
when there is no cluster left to eat,
no early fig that I crave.
- <sup>2</sup> The faithful have perished from the land, and there is no one upright left.
They all set an ambush for bloodshed;
every one hunts his brother with a net.
- <sup>3</sup> Their hands are skilled at doing evil;
the officials and judge ask for a bribe.
The prominent ones make their demands,
thus they weave their plots together.
- <sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a brier;
the most upright is worse than a hedge of thorns.
The day of your watchmen, even your punishment, is come;
now their confusion has arrived.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not trust a neighbor;
do not put confidence in a friend.
Guard the doors of your mouth
even from her who lies in your arms.
- <sup>6</sup> For the son disrespects his father,
the daughter rises up against her mother,
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, one's enemies are the members of their own household.
- <sup>7</sup> But as for me, I will look to the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not gloat over me, O my enemy.
When I fall,
I will arise;
when I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.
- <sup>9</sup> I must bear the LORD's anger, because I have sinned against him,
until he pleads my cause,
and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me out into the light,
and I will see his righteousness.
- <sup>10</sup> Then my enemy will see it,

- and shame will cover her who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?"
My eyes will see her demise.
Now she will be trampled like mud in the streets.
- <sup>11</sup> It's A day for building your walls!
In that day your boundary will be expanded.
- <sup>12</sup> In that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the Euphrates River,
and from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.
- <sup>13</sup> Yet the land will be desolate because of its inhabitants, because of the fruit of their deeds.
- <sup>14</sup> Feed your people with your rod,
the flock of your inheritance, which live alone in the forest
in the midst of Mount Carmel.
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead,
as in the days of old.
- <sup>15</sup> "As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous things."
- <sup>16</sup> The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might;
they will lay their hand over their mouths;
their ears will be deaf.
- <sup>17</sup> They will lick the dust like a serpent, like things that crawl on the ground.
They will come trembling out of their fortresses;
they will come with fear to the LORD our God,
and will be afraid of you.
- <sup>18</sup> Who is a God like you, that pardons iniquity, and passes over the transgression of the remnant of his possession?
He does not remain angry forever,
because he delights in loyal love.
- <sup>19</sup> He will again have compassion upon us;
he will tread our iniquities under foot.
You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
- <sup>20</sup> You will show faithfulness to Jacob, and loyal love to Abraham, which you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

- <sup>1</sup> An oracle about Nineveh.
The book of the vision of Nahum from Elkosh.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is a jealous and avenging God;
the LORD is avenging and full of wrath.
The LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserves his rage for his enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power,
and will by no means acquit the guilty.
The LORD has his way in the whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust beneath his feet.
- <sup>4</sup> He rebukes the sea and makes it dry;
he dries up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel wither;
even the blossom of Lebanon shrivels.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains quake before him,
and the hills rock;
the earth shakes at his presence,
the world and all who live there.
- <sup>6</sup> Who can stand before his rage?
Who can survive his fierce anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and the rocks are smashed into pieces by him.
- <sup>7</sup> The LORD is good,
a stronghold in the day of trouble;
he knows those who take refuge in him.
- <sup>8</sup> But with an overflowing flood he will make a total end of his adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.
- <sup>9</sup> What will you devise against the LORD?
He will make a total end.
Distress will not rise up the second time.
- <sup>10</sup> For they are entangled like thorns, like drunkards inebriated with their drink;
they are totally consumed like dry stubble.
- <sup>11</sup> From you one has gone out,
one who plots evil against the LORD,
one who counsels wickedness.

- <sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:
    "Though they are at full strength, and likewise many,
even so they will be cut down,
    and will pass away.
Though I have afflicted you,
    I will afflict you no more.
- <sup>13</sup> Now I will break his yoke from off you,
    and will tear your shackles apart."
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD has given a command about you;
    "Your name will no longer be perpetuated.
Out of the house of your gods I will destroy the carved image and the cast images.
I will dig your grave,
    for you are vile."
- <sup>15</sup> Look, on the mountains,
    the feet of him who brings good news,
        who proclaims peace!
Celebrate your feasts, O Judah, fulfill your vows.
For the wicked will no longer invade you;
    he is completely cut off.

DASV: Nahum 2

- <sup>1</sup> One scattering to pieces is coming against you, Nineveh.
Guard the fortress.
Watch the road.
Prepare for battle.
Gather your strength.
- <sup>2</sup> For the LORD will restore the majesty of Jacob, according to the original majesty of Israel;
for plunderers have plundered them,
and destroyed their branches.
- <sup>3</sup> The shield of his mighty men are red,
the valiant are clothed in scarlet,
the chariots flash with metal on the day they are prepared,
and their spears are brandished.
- <sup>4</sup> Chariots race through the streets;
they rush to and fro through the squares.
They appear like flaming torches,
they bolt around like lightning.
- <sup>5</sup> He calls for his officers.
They stumble in their charge.
They rush to its wall,
and the siege tower is set up.
- <sup>6</sup> The river gates are opened,
and the palace melts away.
- <sup>7</sup> It is decreed that she will be exiled, carried away;
her slave girls moan like doves
as they beat their breasts.
- <sup>8</sup> But Nineveh is like a pool of water draining away,
"Stop, stop," they cry,
but no one turns back.
- <sup>9</sup> Plunder the silver, plunder the gold.
There is no end of the treasure, wealth of every kind.
- <sup>10</sup> She is wasted, emptied, and devastated;
hearts melt and knees shake,
shaken to the core,
with all the faces turning pale.
- <sup>11</sup> Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions,
where the lion and the lioness walk,

even the lion's cub,
and no one makes them afraid?

<sup>12</sup> The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled prey for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey,
and his dens with torn flesh.

<sup>13</sup> "I am against you," declares the LORD of hosts,
"I will burn her chariots in the smoke,
and the sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will be heard no more."

DASV: Nahum 3

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the bloody city!
It is all full of lies and plunder;
the victims never end.
- <sup>2</sup> The crack of the whip,
and the chariot wheels rumble,
and horses gallop,
and the chariots lurch forward.
- <sup>3</sup> The horseman charge with flashing sword and glittering spear.
Many are dead,
there are countless corpses.
They stumble over the bodies.
- <sup>4</sup> because of the multiplicity of her prostitution a seductive mistress of sorcery, who sells nations by her harlotry,
and families through her witchcrafts.
- <sup>5</sup> "Look, I am against you," declares the LORD of hosts,
"I will lift your skirts over your face;
I will expose your nakedness to the nations,
and to the kingdoms your shame.
- <sup>6</sup> I will hurl filth at you,
and treat you with utter disdain, and make you a public spectacle."
- <sup>7</sup> Then all who look at you will shrink back from you, and say,
"Nineveh is devastated.
Who will grieve for her?
Where can I find comforters for you?"
- <sup>8</sup> Are you any better than Thebes, that was situated on the Nile River,
the waters surrounded her;
her rampart was the sea,
and the water was her wall?
- <sup>9</sup> Ethiopia and Egypt were her limitless strength;
Put and Lubim were her allies.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet she went into exile;
she was taken into captivity.
Her infants were dashed in pieces at the head of every street;
they cast lots for her nobility,
and all her great men were shackled with chains.

- <sup>11</sup> You also will get drunk;
you will go into hiding;
you too will seek refuge from the enemy.
- <sup>12</sup> All your fortresses will be like fig trees with first-ripe figs;
if they are shaken, they will fall into the mouth of the eater.
- <sup>13</sup> Look, your warriors will be like women in the your midst;
the gates of your land will be wide open to your enemies;
the fire will devour your gates.
- <sup>14</sup> Draw water for the siege;
strengthen your fortresses;
go into the clay,
and tread the mortar;
take hold of the brick mold.
- <sup>15</sup> There will the fire devour you;
the sword will cut you down.
It will devour you like the locusts.
Multiply yourself like the locusts;
multiply yourself like the grasshopper.
- <sup>16</sup> You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of heaven;
like locusts they strip the vegetation and then fly away.
- <sup>17</sup> Your courtiers are like locusts, and your officials like swarms of locusts, settling on the walls on a cold day,
but when the sun rises they flee away,
and no one knows where they have gone.
- <sup>18</sup> Your shepherds have fallen asleep, O king of Assyria;
your nobles are lying down;
your people are scattered on the mountains,
and there is no one to regather them.
- <sup>19</sup> Your wound is incurable,
your injury is fatal.
All who hear the report about you joyfully clap their hands at your demise.
For who has not escaped your endless cruelty?

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Habakkuk 1

Habakkuk's First Complaint

<sup>2</sup> How long, O LORD, must I cry, and you not listen?
I cry out to you "Violence," but you do not save.
<sup>3</sup> Why do you force me to view injustice?
Why do you make me look at trouble?
For destruction and violence are before me;
there is strife and conflict prevails.
<sup>4</sup> Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice is never executed.
For the wicked surround the righteous,
so that justice is perverted.

The LORD's Response

<sup>5</sup> Look at the nations, and see.
Be absolutely amazed.
For I am doing a deed in your days which you will not believe,
even if you were told about it.
<sup>6</sup> For look, I am raising up the Chaldeans, that ruthless and unruly nation.
They march over the entire earth,
to seize dwelling places that do not belong to them.
<sup>7</sup> They are dreadful and terrifying;
they make up their own justice and promote themselves.
<sup>8</sup> Their horses are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than wolves in the evening.
Their horsemen charge ahead,
their horsemen come from far away;
they fly like an eagle swooping down to devour prey.
<sup>9</sup> They all come for violence, with their faces fixed forward.
They gather captives like sand.
<sup>10</sup> They mock kings, and ridicule rulers.
They laugh at every fortress,
for they build earthen siege ramps,
and take them.

<sup>11</sup> Then they sweep by like a wind and go on,
but they are guilty, whose might is their god.

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

<sup>12</sup> O LORD, are you not from everlasting?
My God, my Holy One, you never die.
O LORD, you have ordained them to administer judgment;
you, O Rock, have established them for correction.

<sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too pure than to gaze on evil;
you cannot look on wrongdoing.
So why do you look on those who deal treacherously?
Why are you silent when the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they are?

<sup>14</sup> You have made people like the fish of the sea,
as the creeping things that have no ruler over them.

<sup>15</sup> The wicked hauls them up with a hook,
he catches them in his net.
He gathers them in his dragnet,
so he rejoices and is glad.

<sup>16</sup> Then he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense worshipping his dragnet;
for by them he lives in luxury,
and has plenty of food.

<sup>17</sup> Will he continue emptying his net, and keep on slaying nations without mercy?

DASV: Habakkuk 2

- <sup>1</sup> I will stand at my guard post, and station myself on the rampart.
I will watch to see what he will say to me,
and how I should respond concerning my complaint.
- <sup>2</sup> Then the LORD answered me and said,
"Write down the vision,
and make it clear on tablets,
so that the runner may easily read it.
- <sup>3</sup> For the vision is for its appointed time,
and it speaks about how things will end up,
and it will not be proven false.
Though it delays, wait for it;
it will surely come,
it will not be late.
- <sup>4</sup> Look at the proud,
his soul is not upright in him;
but the righteous will live by his faithfulness.
- <sup>5</sup> Furthermore, wine is treacherous;
the arrogant are never at rest.
They open their mouths as wide as the grave,
and as death they are never satisfied.
They gather to themselves all nations, and harvests together all peoples.
- <sup>6</sup> Will not all these take up a proverb against him,
a saying ridiculing him,
'Woe to him who accumulates what is not his!
How long? He weighs himself down with heavy debts!'
- <sup>7</sup> Will not your creditors rise up suddenly,
those who terrify you will get up?
You will become their plunder.
- <sup>8</sup> Because thou have plundered many nations,
all the survivors of the peoples will plunder you.
For you have shed blood and done violence to the land, to the city and all its inhabitants.
- <sup>9</sup> Woe to the one who gets evil gain for his house,
so that he may set his nest on high,
attempting to escape from the hand of disaster!
- <sup>10</sup> You have plotted bringing shame to your house,

- by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your own life.
- <sup>11</sup> For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the wooden beams will respond.
- <sup>12</sup> Woe to the one who builds a town by bloodshed, and establishes a city by injustice!
- <sup>13</sup> Look, is it not from the LORD of hosts that the peoples labor only to fuel the fire, and the nations weary themselves for nothing?
- <sup>14</sup> For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.
- <sup>15</sup> Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring out your wrath until they are drunk,
so that you can gawk at their nakedness!
- <sup>16</sup> You are filled with shame, instead of glory.
Now you will drink and expose your uncircumcised genitals.
The cup of LORD's right hand will come to you,
and utter shame will cover over your glory.
- <sup>17</sup> For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you, and the destruction of the animals by which you terrified them;
because of human bloodshed,
and for the violence done to the land,
to the cities and to all their inhabitants.
- <sup>18</sup> What benefit is an idol when a craftsman carved it?
What good is a metal image, a teacher of lies?
Why does even the one who makes them trust in speechless idols?
- <sup>19</sup> Woe to him that says to wood, 'Wake up,'
To speechless stone, 'Arise!'
Can it instruct?
Look, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
and there is absolutely no breath in it.
- <sup>20</sup> But the LORD is in his holy temple;
let all the earth be silent before him."

DASV: Habakkuk 3

- <sup>1</sup> A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.
- <sup>2</sup> O LORD, I have heard the report about what you have done, and stand in awe, O LORD.
Revive your work in our time;
in the midst of these years make it known;
in wrath remember mercy.
- <sup>3</sup> God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.                      Selah.
His glory covered the heavens,
and the earth was full of his praise.
- <sup>4</sup> His splendor is like the light;
rays flashed from his hand;
where his power was hidden.
- <sup>5</sup> Pestilence went before him,
and plague followed his feet.
- <sup>6</sup> He stood and the earth shook;
his gaze startled the nations.
The ancient mountains shattered;
the everlasting hills bow,
along his ancient paths.
- <sup>7</sup> I see the tents of Cushan in distress;
the tent curtains of the land of Midian tremble.
- <sup>8</sup> Was the LORD angry at the rivers?
Was your wrath against the rivers?
Or your rage against the sea when you rode on your horses, on your chariots to victory?
- <sup>9</sup> You brandished your bare bow, calling for many arrows.                      Selah.
You split the earth with rivers;
- <sup>10</sup> the mountains saw you and trembled.
The downpour swept through;
the deep raised its voice,
and lifted its hands high.
- <sup>11</sup> The sun and moon stood still in the sky, at the light of your arrows as they flew,
at the shining of your glistening spear.

- <sup>12</sup> In rage you marched though the land;
in anger you threshed the nations.
- <sup>13</sup> You went out to rescue your people,
to save your anointed ones.
You wounded the leader of the house of the wicked, laying him open from head to toe. Selah.
- <sup>14</sup> You pierced the head of his warriors with his own spear.
They came like a whirlwind to scatter us, rejoicing as they were devouring the poor who were in hiding.
- <sup>15</sup> You trample the sea with your horses,
on the surging of mighty waters.
- <sup>16</sup> I listened and my belly trembled;
my lips quivered at the sound.
My bones gave way like they were decayed,
and I trembled in my place.
I must wait quietly for the day of calamity, coming on the people who invaded us.
- <sup>17</sup> Even though the fig tree does not blossom, and there is no fruit on the vines;
when the olive tree fails to produce, and the fields produce no crops;
even when the flock is cut off from the fold,
and there is no herd in the stalls;
- <sup>18</sup> yet I will rejoice in the LORD,
I will rejoice in the God of my salvation.
- <sup>19</sup> The sovereign LORD, is my strength.
He makes my feet as agile as a deer's,
and enables me to walk on high places.

To the music director, on my stringed instruments.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Zephaniah 1

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> "I will completely sweep away all things from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> "I will sweep away humans and animals;
I will sweep away the birds of the heavens,
and the fish of the sea,
and the idolatrous stumbling blocks with the wicked.
I will cut off humans from the face of the earth,"
says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> "I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every last bit of Baal from this place, along with the memory of the idolatrous priests.

<sup>5</sup> Those who worship the host of heaven on the rooftops;
those who worship and swear to the LORD
but also swear by Molech;

<sup>6</sup> those who have turned back from following the LORD;
those who have not sought the LORD,
or inquired of him.

<sup>7</sup> Hold your peace at the presence of the sovereign LORD,
for the day of the LORD is near.
The LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
he has consecrated his guests.

<sup>8</sup> On the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
I will punish the princes and the king's sons,
and all who dress themselves with foreign clothes.

<sup>9</sup> On that day I will punish all those that leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup> On that day," says the LORD,
"there will be the sound of a cry from the fish gate,
and a wailing from the New Quarter,
and a loud crashing from the hills.

<sup>11</sup> Wail, you inhabitants of the market place, for all the traders are annihilated,
all those who weigh out silver are cut off.

- <sup>12</sup> At that time, I will search Jerusalem with lamps.
I will punish those who are complacent,
who say in their heart,
    'The LORD will not do good,
        nor will he do damage.'
- <sup>13</sup> Their wealth will become plunder, their houses destroyed.
They will build houses,
    but never live in them.
They will plant vineyards,
    but never drink its wine.
- <sup>14</sup> The great day of the LORD is near;
    it is near and coming quickly.
The sound of the day of the LORD is bitter;
    even the mighty warrior will cry out.
- <sup>15</sup> That day will be a day of wrath,
    a day of trouble and distress,
    a day of ruin and devastation,
    a day of darkness and gloom,
    a day of clouds and thick darkness,
- <sup>16</sup> a day of the trumpet and battle cry, against the fortified cities and against the corner towers.
- <sup>17</sup> I will bring distress upon people,
    so that they will walk like the blind,
because they have sinned against the LORD.
    Their blood will be poured out like dust,
    and their flesh like excrement.
- <sup>18</sup> Their silver and their gold will be unable to rescue them in the day of the LORD's wrath.
The whole earth will be consumed by the fire of his jealousy.
For he will make an end, a sudden end, of all who live on the earth."

DASV: Zephaniah 2

- <sup>1</sup> Gather yourselves together,
yes, gather together, O shameless nation, <sup>2</sup> before the judgment takes effect, before the day blows you away like chaff,
before the fierce wrath of the LORD comes on you,
before the day of the LORD's anger comes on you.
<sup>3</sup> Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth, who have kept his ordinances;
seek righteousness, seek humility;
perhaps you will be protected in the day of the LORD's anger.
- <sup>4</sup> For Gaza will be deserted, and Ashkelon a desolation.
Ashdod's inhabitants will be driven out at noon,
and Ekron will be rooted up.
<sup>5</sup> Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Kerethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
O Canaan, the land of the Philistines;
I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant left.
- <sup>6</sup> The sea coast will be pastures, meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.
<sup>7</sup> The coast will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah;
there they will graze;
in the evening they will lie down in houses of Ashkelon;
for the LORD their God will visit them,
and bring back their prosperity.
- <sup>8</sup> "I have heard the taunts of Moab, and the ridicule of the Ammonites, by which they have mocked my people and arrogantly threatened their border.
<sup>9</sup> Therefore as surely as I live," says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
"Moab will become like Sodom, and the Ammonites like Gomorrah.
They will be overrun by nettles,
and become salt pits and a permanent wasteland.
The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remnant of my nation will occupy their inheritance.

- <sup>10</sup> This is what they will get for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD will terrify them;
for he will starve all the gods of the earth.
Then all the people, each in his own place, all the coasts and islands of the nations will worship him.
- <sup>12</sup> You Ethiopians also,
will be slain by my sword.
- <sup>13</sup> He will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria.
He will make Nineveh a desolate wasteland, parched as a desert.
- <sup>14</sup> Herds will lie down in her midst,
the wild animals of all kinds.
The desert owl and screech owl will nest on the top of its pillars, they will hoot out the windows.
Ruins will cover the thresholds, for he has exposed the cedar work.
- <sup>15</sup> This is the exuberant city that dwelt so secure,
that said in her heart,
'I am it, there is no one who can compare with me,'
How has she become a desolation, a lair for beasts to lie down in!
Every one that passes by will ridicule her,
and shake his fist.

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to her that is rebellious and defiled, the city of oppression.
- <sup>2</sup> She obeys no voice;
she refuses correction.
She does not trust in the LORD;
she does not draw near to her God.
- <sup>3</sup> Her officials are like roaring lions within her;
her judges are like evening wolves,
they leave nothing until the morning.
- <sup>4</sup> Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous;
her priests have profaned the sanctuary,
they have done violence to the law.
- <sup>5</sup> The LORD in the midst of her is righteous;
he will not do wrong.
Every morning he renders his justice;
he never fails.
But the unjust know no shame.
- <sup>6</sup> "I have cut off nations;
their fortresses are in ruins.
I have made their streets empty,
no one passes by;
their cities are destroyed;
there is no one there;
there is no inhabitant.
- <sup>7</sup> I thought, 'Surely you will fear me;
now you will accept correction.'
Then her dwelling would not be cut off, according to all the punishments that I have determined against her.
Instead they rose early to corrupt all their deeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Therefore wait for me," says the LORD,
"until the day that I rise up to take plunder.
For I have determined to gather the nations, and to assemble the kingdoms,
so I can pour my fury on them,
even all my fierce anger.
For the whole earth will be consumed by the fire of my jealousy.
- <sup>9</sup> For then I will turn the peoples into pure speech,

- that all of them may call on the name of the LORD, to serve him united shoulder to shoulder.
- <sup>10</sup> From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my worshippers will come, even my scattered ones will bring my offerings.
- <sup>11</sup> On that day you will not be put to shame for all your doings by which you have rebelled against me;
for then I will remove from your midst those arrogant boasters, and you will never again be haughty on my holy hill.
- <sup>12</sup> But I will leave in your midst a humble and meek people, and they will take refuge in the name of the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> The remnant of Israel will do no wrong, nor speak lies;
neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths;
for they will eat and lie down,
and no one will make them afraid."
- <sup>14</sup> Sing, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
- <sup>15</sup> The LORD has taken away the judgments against you;
he has cast out your enemy.
The King of Israel, even the LORD, is in your midst;
you will never again fear disaster.
- <sup>16</sup> On that day it will be said to Jerusalem,
'Do not be afraid, O Zion,
do not let your hands fall limp.
- <sup>17</sup> The LORD your God is in your midst,
he is a warrior who will save.
He will rejoice over you with joy,
he will renew you in his love.
He will rejoice over you with singing.'
- <sup>18</sup> I will gather those who grieve over the appointed festivals, so that you will no longer bear the disgrace for it.
- <sup>19</sup> Look, at that time I will deal with all who oppressed you;
I will save the lame,
and gather the outcasts.
I will make them praised and respected,
who had been shamed throughout the whole earth.
- <sup>20</sup> At that time I will bring you home, and at that time I will gather you.

I will make you respected and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your fortunes before your eyes,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Haggai 1

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, says, "These people say, 'It is not yet time for the LORD's house to be rebuilt.'"

<sup>3</sup> Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>4</sup> "Is it the right time for you yourselves to live in extravagant paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?"

<sup>5</sup> Now therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says:

"Consider your ways.

<sup>6</sup> You have sown much,
and harvested little;

you eat,

but do not have enough;

you drink,

but you are not satisfied;

you put on clothes,

but cannot stay warm;

and he who earns wages earns wages only to put them into a bag with holes."

<sup>8</sup> Go up to the hills, and bring back wood, and build the house. Then I will take pleasure in it and be honored," says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> "You expected much, but it came to little, and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says the LORD of hosts. "Because my house lies in ruins, while you hurry off, each one to your own house.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore for your sake the heavens have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

<sup>11</sup> I called for a drought on the land and the hills, and on the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil, and on that which the ground produces. It will also have impact on humans, and on livestock, and on all the work of your hands."

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God. They listened to the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people feared the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. They came and did work on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup> in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, of the second year of King Darius.

DASV: Haggai 2

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

<sup>3</sup> 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not look like nothing in your eyes?

<sup>4</sup> Even so, be strong, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong all you people of the land,' says the LORD. 'Get to work, for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid, for I have made a promise with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains among you.'

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts says. 'Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

<sup>7</sup> I will shake all nations, and all nations will come with their treasures. I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>8</sup> 'The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>9</sup> 'The future glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts, and in this place I will give peace,'" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>10</sup> In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>11</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'Ask the priests about the law, saying:

<sup>12</sup> If someone carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and that fold touches bread, stew, wine, olive oil, or any food, will it become holy?'"

The priests answered, "No."

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean having had contact with a dead body, touches any of these foods, will it be unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai replied, "'So it is with this people and this nation before me," says the LORD; 'and so is every work of their hands, and that which they offer there is unclean.

<sup>15</sup> But now, please consider from this day on, now it was before one stone was laid on another in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> From that time when one came expecting twenty measures, but there were only ten; when one came to the winepress to draw out fifty measures, but there were only twenty.

<sup>17</sup> I struck you and all the work of your hands with blight and mildew, yet you did not turn back to me,' says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> 'Please consider from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, to the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, think carefully about it.

<sup>19</sup> Is the seed still in the barn? Have the vine, fig tree, pomegranate, and the olive tree not produced? From this day on I will bless you."

<sup>20</sup> The word of LORD came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month:

<sup>21</sup> "Tell Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth.

<sup>22</sup> I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride on them; and the horses and their riders will fall, everyone of them by the sword of his brother.

<sup>23</sup> In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Zechariah 1

<sup>1</sup> In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,

<sup>3</sup> Therefore say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you,' says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup> Do not be like your forefathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, saying, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says, Turn now from your evil ways, and from your evil deeds. But they did not listen, or obey me,' says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Your forefathers, where are they? And the prophets, did they live forever?

<sup>6</sup> But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your forefathers? So they repented and said, 'The LORD of hosts has done to us according to what we have done, just as he planned to do to us.'"

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,

<sup>8</sup> "In the night I looked and there was a man riding on a red horse that stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. Behind him there were red, brown, and white horses.

<sup>9</sup> Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?' The angel who talked with me replied, 'I will show you what these are.'

<sup>10</sup> The man standing among the myrtle trees answered, 'These are those whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.'

<sup>11</sup> Then they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, 'We have patrolled the earth, and the entire earth is peaceful and quiet.'

<sup>12</sup> Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, 'O LORD of hosts, how long will you not have compassion on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against whom you have been angry for these seventy years?'

<sup>13</sup> The LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good and comforting words.

<sup>14</sup> So the angel who talked with me told me, 'Cry out, this is what the LORD of hosts says: I am very jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion.

<sup>15</sup> I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was just a little angry, they have only made things worse.'

<sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house will be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and a line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.'

<sup>17</sup> Cry out again, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: My cities will yet overflow with prosperity; and the LORD will yet comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.'

<sup>18</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw four horns.

<sup>19</sup> I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" He replied, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths.

<sup>21</sup> Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" He replied, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could even lift up his head; but these blacksmiths have come to terrify them and to throw down the horns of the nations which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter its people."

DASV: Zechariah 2

<sup>1</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and there was a man with a measuring line in his hand.

<sup>2</sup> Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He replied, "To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and long it is."

<sup>3</sup> Then the angel who was talking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, <sup>4</sup> and told him, "Run, tell this young man, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited like unwalled villages, because there will be so many people and cattle in it.

<sup>5</sup> For I myself, will be a wall of fire surrounding her,' says the LORD, 'and I will be the glory in her midst.'"

<sup>6</sup> "Heads up! Heads up! Flee from the land of the north," says the LORD; "for I have scattered you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> For, look, I will shake my fist against them, and they will be plundered by their own slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

<sup>10</sup> Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for look, I will come and I will live in your midst," says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> "Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day, and will be my people, and I will dwell in your midst, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

DASV: Zechariah 3

<sup>1</sup> Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan. Yes, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you. Is not this man like a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

<sup>3</sup> Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he was standing before the angel.

<sup>4</sup> The angel spoke to those standing in front of him, "Take the filthy clothes off him." Then he said to Joshua, "Look, I have taken away your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with festive garments."

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and dressed him with festive garments, while the angel of the LORD was standing by.

<sup>7</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'If you will walk in my ways, if you will keep my command then you will preside over my house, and also be in charge of my courtyards. I will give you access among these who stand here.

<sup>8</sup> Now listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who sit before you; for they are a portend of things to come for I am going to introduce my servant, the Branch.

<sup>9</sup> For look, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone there are seven facets. I will engrave the inscription on it,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of this land in one day.

<sup>10</sup> On that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'everyone will invite their neighbor to rest peacefully under their vine and under their fig tree.'"

DASV: Zechariah 4

- <sup>1</sup> The angel who talked with me came back, and woke me, like one who is wakened out of sleep.
- <sup>2</sup> He said to me, "What do you see?" I replied, "I see a gold lampstand, with its oil bowl on the top of it. There are seven lamps on it, there are seven spouts on each of the lamps on the top of it.
- <sup>3</sup> Two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left side."
- <sup>4</sup> I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"
- <sup>5</sup> Then the angel who talked with me replied, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."
- <sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit," says the LORD of hosts.
- <sup>7</sup> "What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring out the capstone shouting 'O how precious, how precious it is.'"
- <sup>8</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
- <sup>9</sup> "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands will also finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.
- <sup>10</sup> For who dares despise the day of small things? For these will rejoice and see the plum line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the seven eyes of the LORD, which scan back and forth throughout the whole earth."
- <sup>11</sup> Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and left side of the lampstand?"
- <sup>12</sup> Then I asked a second time, "What are these two olive branches, that are beside the two golden pipes that are draining the golden oil out?"
- <sup>13</sup> He replied, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."
- <sup>14</sup> Then said he, "These are the two anointed ones that stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

DASV: Zechariah 5

<sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, "This is the curse going out over the face of the whole land. For everyone who steals will be cut off according to the writing on one side of it; and everyone who swears falsely will be cut according to the writing on the other side of it."

<sup>4</sup> "I will cause the curse to go out," says the LORD of hosts, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of the one who swears falsely by my name. The curse will stay in the midst of his house and will consume it including its timber and its stones."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who talked with me went out, and said to me, "Lift up your eyes and see what is coming."

<sup>6</sup> So I asked, "What is it?" He replied, "This is a measuring basket going out." Then he said, "This is their iniquity throughout the entire land."

<sup>7</sup> There was a lead cover lifted up and there was a woman sitting inside the basket.

<sup>8</sup> He explained, "This is Wickedness." So he pushed her down into the basket, and he placed the lead cover down on top of it.

<sup>9</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes and saw two women coming out with the wind in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

<sup>10</sup> Then I asked the angel talking with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "To build her a temple in the land of Babylonia. When it is ready the basket will be set on its base."

DASV: Zechariah 6

<sup>4</sup> Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

<sup>5</sup> The angel replied, "These are the four spirits of heaven going out after having stood before the Lord of all the earth."

<sup>6</sup> The chariot with the black horses is going toward the north country; and the white one is going toward the west; and the spotted one is going toward the south country."

<sup>7</sup> These strong steeds went forth eager to patrol throughout the earth. Then he ordered, "Go patrol throughout the earth." So they walked around patrolling the earth.

<sup>8</sup> Then he cried out to me, "Look, those going toward the north country have put my spirit at rest in the north country."

<sup>9</sup> The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>10</sup> "Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah who have come from Babylon; and come the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

<sup>11</sup> Take their silver and gold, and make a crown and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

<sup>12</sup> Tell him, "This is what the LORD of hosts says, Look, here is the man whose name is the Branch. He will branch out of his place and will build the temple of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Yes, he will be the one to build the temple of the LORD, and he will bear the honor, and will sit on his throne and rule. There will be a priest with him on his throne and there will be perfect harmony between the two of them.'

<sup>14</sup> Then the crown will be given to Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, and to Josiah the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Those who are far off will come and build the temple of the LORD, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. This will occur, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

DASV: Zechariah 7

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of king Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, which is called Kislev.

<sup>3</sup> and to speak to the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, fasting as I have done for so many years?"

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me:

<sup>5</sup> "Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying: 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these last seventy years, was it really for me that you fasted?

<sup>6</sup> And when you eat and drink, are you not really eating and drinking just for yourselves?

<sup>7</sup> Were these not the words that the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous, as well as its surrounding towns, and when the Negev and the Shephelah were also inhabited?"

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah:

<sup>9</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says, 'Execute true justice, and show kindness and compassion to one another.

<sup>10</sup> Do not oppress the widow, orphan, foreigner, or the poor. Let none of you devise evil in your heart against one another.'

<sup>11</sup> But they refused to listen, stubbornly turning away, covering their ears, so that they would not have to listen.

<sup>12</sup> They made their hearts as hard as rock, so they would not have to obey the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup> So it happened that just as I called, and they refused to listen, so now they will call out and I will refuse to listen," said the LORD of hosts.

<sup>14</sup> "Instead, I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations they had not known. Thus the land became desolate behind them, so that no one passed through it or returned to it. For they made the pleasant land into a wasteland."

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'I am very jealous for Zion, and I am passionately jealous for her.'"

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says: "I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called 'The City of Truth,' and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

<sup>5</sup> The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "If it be impossible to imagine for the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be impossible to imagine for me?" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Look, I will save my people from the countries of the east and west.

<sup>8</sup> I will bring them back, and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets that were present when the foundation was laid rebuilding the house of the LORD of hosts, even the temple.

<sup>10</sup> For before those days there were no wages for man or animal, neither was there any safety for the traveler who came in or out, because of the adversary, since I had set everyone against his neighbor.

<sup>11</sup> But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in times past," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>12</sup> "For there will be a sowing of peace; the vine will produce its fruit, and the ground its produce, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.

<sup>13</sup> Just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid, let your hands be strong."

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts says: "Just as I planned to bring disaster on you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says the LORD of hosts, "and I did not relent, <sup>15</sup> so again I have planned in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah, so do not be afraid.

<sup>16</sup> These are the things that you should do: tell each other the truth; execute justice in your gates that is true and conducive to peace.

<sup>17</sup> Do not plot evil in your hearts against one another. Do not love a false oath. For I hate all these are things," says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying:

<sup>19</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'The fast of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months, will be times of joy, gladness and happy feasts for the house of Judah. Therefore love truth and peace.'"

<sup>20</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Peoples and the inhabitants from many cities will come.

<sup>21</sup> The inhabitants of one town will go to another, saying, 'Let's go right now to ask the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go too.'

<sup>22</sup> Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to ask the favor of the LORD."

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts says: "In those days, ten men from all the nations and languages will take hold of the skirt of one who is a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

DASV: Zechariah 9

- <sup>1</sup> "The oracle of the word of the LORD against the land of Hadrach and Damascus will be its destination.
For the capital of Aram and all the tribes of Israel belong to the LORD.
- <sup>2</sup> Hamath, also, which is adjacent to Damascus.
Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.
- <sup>3</sup> Tyre built herself a stronghold, and piled up silver like dust,
and gold like the mud in the streets.
- <sup>4</sup> Look, the Lord will banish her;
he will strike down her power in the sea,
and she will be consumed by fire.
- <sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see it and fear;
Gaza too will writhe with pain;
along with Ekron, because her hopes are dashed.
The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.
- <sup>6</sup> An illegitimate people will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
- <sup>7</sup> I will take away its blood from its defiled mouth,
and its abominations from between its teeth.
It too will be a remnant for our God;
it will be like a clan in Judah,
and Ekron like the Jebusites.
- <sup>8</sup> I will set up camp around my house as a guard, so that no one can march back and forth in it;
no oppressor will pass through them anymore, for now I am keeping watch over it with my own eyes.
- <sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Look, your king comes to you;
he is righteous and has salvation;
humble and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
- <sup>10</sup> I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
and the war horses from Jerusalem.
The battle bow will be cut off,
and he will proclaim peace to the nations.
His reign will stretch from sea to sea,
and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

- <sup>11</sup> As for you also, because of the blood sealing your covenant,
I have set free your prisoners from the waterless pit.
- <sup>12</sup> Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope;
even today I promise that I will repay you double.
- <sup>13</sup> For I will bend Judah like my bow;
I have made Ephraim my arrow.
I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,
and will make you like the sword of a warrior.
- <sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will be seen over them;
his arrow will go forth like lightning.
The sovereign LORD will sound the trumpet, and will march out with whirlwinds from the south.
- <sup>15</sup> The LORD of hosts will defend them;
they will devour and defeat the slinger of stones.
Then they will drink blood and be as boisterous as drunkards.
They will be full like a bowl,
drenched like the corners of the altar.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD their God will save them on that day as the flock of his people;
for they are like the gems of a crown, shining over his land.
- <sup>17</sup> For how splendid and beautiful they will be!
Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

DASV: Zechariah 10

- <sup>1</sup> Ask for rain from the LORD in the time of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes storm clouds.
He will give them rain showers, to everyone vegetation in the field.
- <sup>2</sup> For the household gods have spoken nonsense, and the diviners have seen a lie;
they have told false dreams,
and they offer empty comfort.
Therefore the people wander like sheep;
they are attacked because there is no shepherd.
- <sup>3</sup> My anger burns against the shepherds,
and I will punish the leaders;
for the LORD of hosts has visited his flock,
the house of Judah,
and will make them like his mighty war horse in battle.
- <sup>4</sup> From him will come the cornerstone,
from him the tent peg,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler.
- <sup>5</sup> They will be like warriors, trampling down their enemies in muddy streets in the battle.
They will fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses will be put to shame.
- <sup>6</sup> I will strengthen the house of Judah;
I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back because of my compassion on them.
They will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the LORD their God,
and I will answer their prayers.
- <sup>7</sup> Then Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their heart will rejoice as if from drinking wine.
Their children will see it, and rejoice;
their heart will be glad in the LORD.
- <sup>8</sup> I will whistle for them, and gather them, for I have redeemed them.
They will be as numerous as they were before.
- <sup>9</sup> Though I scatter them among the peoples,
they will remember me in far countries;
they will live with their children,
and will return.

- <sup>10</sup> I will bring them again from the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, until there is not enough room for them.
- <sup>11</sup> They will pass through the sea of suffering, and will smite the waves in the sea,
and all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt's rule will end.
- <sup>12</sup> I will strengthen them in the LORD;
they will walk up and down in his name,"
says the LORD.

DASV: Zechariah 11

<sup>1</sup> Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may consume your cedars.

<sup>2</sup> Wail, O cypress tree, for the cedar is fallen, because the majestic ones are destroyed.

Wail, O oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been cut down.

<sup>3</sup> Listen, the sound of shepherds wailing, for their glory is destroyed.

Listen, the sound of roaring young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan are ruined.

<sup>6</sup> For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD; "but I will deliver everyone into the hand of his neighbor and king. They will destroy the land, and I will not deliver them out of their hands."

<sup>7</sup> So I shepherded the flock destined to slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. I took two staves; the one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union" and I tended the flock.

<sup>8</sup> I eliminated the three shepherds in one month; for I was impatient with them, and they also detested me.

<sup>9</sup> Then I said, "I will no longer be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed. Let those that survive eat one another's flesh."

<sup>10</sup> So I took my staff Favor, and broke it in two, annulling my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> It was annulled on that day. Those afflicted of the flock that watched me knew that it represented the word of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Then I said to them, "If it seems appropriate, give me my wages; but if not, don't bother." So they weighed out my wages at thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, that extravagant price at which they valued me." So I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Then I broke my other staff, Union, in two, annulling the bond of brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Take up once more the gear of a foolish shepherd.

<sup>16</sup> For I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not care for those who are perishing, or seek those who are scattered, or heal the injured, or even feed the healthy. Instead he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hooves.

17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!
May the sword slash his arm and his right eye.
May his arm be totally withered and his right eye completely blinded."

This is what the LORD says, who stretched out the heavens, and laid the foundation of the earth, and formed the spirit of humans within them:

<sup>2</sup> "Look, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup that causes staggering to all the surrounding peoples. The siege of Jerusalem will extend to include Judah also.

<sup>3</sup> On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. Everyone trying to lift it will be severely injured. But all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it.

<sup>4</sup> On that day," says the LORD, "I will smite every horse with panic, and its rider with insanity; yet I will watch over the house of Judah, but will strike every horse of the nations with blindness.

<sup>6</sup> On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot among the wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves. They will devour all the surrounding nations, on the right hand and on the left. Then Jerusalem will again be inhabited in its own place, even in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be greater than that of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the one who is weakest among them will have prowess like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD leading them.

<sup>9</sup> On that day, I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Then I will pour the spirit of grace and supplication on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so they will look on me, the one whom they have pierced. They will mourn for him, as one mourns for an only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one bitterly grieving over a firstborn child.

<sup>11</sup> On that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup> Then the land will mourn, every family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves, the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves,

<sup>13</sup> the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves, the family of the Shimeites by itself, and their wives by themselves, <sup>14</sup> all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves."

DASV: Zechariah 13

- <sup>1</sup> "On that day there will be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness.
- <sup>2</sup> On that day," says the LORD of hosts, "I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will be remembered no more. Furthermore, I will remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.
- <sup>3</sup> If anyone continues to prophesy, then his father and his mother who bore him will say to him, 'You should not live, for you spoke lies in the name of the LORD.' Then his father and his mother who bore him will plunge a sword through him when he prophesies.
- <sup>4</sup> On that day, each of the prophets will be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies, they will not wear a hairy prophetic mantle in order to deceive.
- <sup>5</sup> But he will claim, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have worked as a hired hand for a man since my youth.'
- <sup>6</sup> And if anyone says to him, 'What are these wounds on your chest?' Then he will reply, 'I received those wounds in the house of my friends.'"
- <sup>7</sup> "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man that is my associate,"
    says the LORD of hosts.
"Strike the shepherd,
    and the sheep will be scattered,
    and I will turn my hand against the little ones.
- <sup>8</sup> In the entire land," says the LORD,
    "two thirds therein will be cut off and die;
    but a third will be left alive in it.
- <sup>9</sup> I will bring this third into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined,
    and will test them as gold is tested.
They will call on my name,
    and I will hear them.
I will say, 'They are my people,' and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

DASV: Zechariah 14

<sup>2</sup> For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for war; the city will be taken, and its houses looted, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into captivity, and the remainder of the people will not be exiled from the city.

<sup>4</sup> On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is to the east of Jerusalem; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two making a great valley from east to west. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and other half toward the south.

<sup>5</sup> You will flee through the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel. Yes, you will flee, like when you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

<sup>6</sup> On that day, there will no light, cold or frost.

<sup>7</sup> But it will be a unique day which is known only to the LORD. It will not be a normal day or night, but in the evening there will be light.

<sup>8</sup> On that day, living waters will flow out of Jerusalem, half of it will flow toward the eastern sea, and half of it toward the western sea. It will flow both in the summer and winter.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will be King over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be the only one, and his name the only one.

<sup>10</sup> All the land will be turned into a plain like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

<sup>11</sup> People will live in it, and there will be no more curse; for Jerusalem will be secure.

<sup>12</sup> This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have waged war against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot away while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot away in their sockets, and their tongue will rot away in their mouths.

<sup>13</sup> On that day, a great panic from the LORD will overcome them. They will seize each other, neighbor against neighbor in hand to hand combat.

<sup>14</sup> Judah also will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together--gold, silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

<sup>15</sup> This type of plague will fall on the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and on all the animals that are in those camps.

<sup>16</sup> Everyone who survives from all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up every year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>17</sup> Whichever of all the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, they will receive no rain.

<sup>18</sup> If the family of Egypt does not go up or come to the festival, then on them will come the plague of the LORD that strikes the nations that refuse to go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>19</sup> This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>20</sup> On that day, there will be inscribed on horses' bells, "Holy to the LORD." The pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls in front of the altar.

<sup>21</sup> Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts, so that everyone who sacrifices can come and take of them, and use them to boil their sacrifices in. On that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Malachi 1

<sup>2</sup> "I have loved you," says the LORD. "Yet you claim, 'How have you loved us?' Was not Esau Jacob's brother," says the LORD, "yet I loved Jacob,

<sup>4</sup> Though Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and rebuild the ruins." This is what the LORD of hosts says, "They will rebuild, but I will tear it down. They will be called 'The territory of wickedness,' and 'The people against whom the LORD is angry forever.'

<sup>5</sup> Your own eyes will see it, and you will confess, 'The LORD is great even beyond the borders of Israel.'"

<sup>6</sup> "A son honors his father, and a servant respects his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is my respect?" says the LORD of hosts to you, "O priests, who despise my name yet you claim, 'How have we despised your name?'

<sup>7</sup> You offer defiled bread on my altar. Yet you claim, 'How have we defiled it?' By saying, 'The table of the LORD is despicable.'

<sup>8</sup> When you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Try giving that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favor?" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>9</sup> Now, plead for God's favor, that he may be gracious to us. "With this kind of offering, will he be favorable to you?" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>10</sup> "Oh that there would be someone among you who would shut the temple doors, that you might not kindle a worthless fire on my altar! I have no pleasure in you," says the LORD of hosts, "neither will I accept an offering from your hands.

<sup>11</sup> For from the rising of the sun even to its going down my name will be great among the nations. In every place incense and a pure offering will be offered to my name, for my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup> You say, 'Look, what a weariness this is!' and you turn up your noses at it," says the LORD of hosts. "You have brought that which was stolen by force, the lame, and the sick. This is what you bring as an offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "But cursed be the liar who has a male in his flock, who makes a vow, then sacrifices to the Lord a blemished animal. For I am a great King," says the LORD of hosts, "and my name will be feared among the nations."

<sup>2</sup> If you will not listen, and if you will not commit your heart to honor my name," says the LORD of hosts, "then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. I have cursed them already, because you did not take it to heart.

<sup>3</sup> I will rebuke your descendants, and will spread excrement on your faces, even the excrement of your feasts; you will be hauled away with it.

<sup>4</sup> Then you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may continue to be with Levi," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> "My covenant was with him for life and peace; and I gave it to him so that he might fear me; he did fear me and stood in awe of my name.

<sup>6</sup> The true instruction was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from sin.

<sup>7</sup> For the priest's lips should preserve knowledge, and the people should seek the law from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

<sup>8</sup> But you have turned away from the way. You have caused many to stumble over the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>9</sup> "Therefore I have also made you despicable and demeaned before all the people, in so far that you have not kept my ways, but have shown favoritism in your instruction.

<sup>10</sup> Do we not all have one father? Has not one God created us? Why do we betray each other, violating the covenant of our forefathers?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has been unfaithful, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

<sup>12</sup> May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob anyone who does this along with him who offers a defiled offering to the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup> Here's another thing you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, weeping, and sighing, because he no longer responds to the offering, nor does he accept it with favor from your hand.

<sup>14</sup> Yet you complain, "Why not?" For the LORD has become a witness against you and for the wife of your youth whom you have betrayed, even though she is your companion, and the wife of your marriage covenant.

<sup>15</sup> Did he not make them one? Both flesh and spirit are his. What was the one God wanting? Godly offspring. So guard your spirit, and let no one be unfaithful to the wife of his youth.

<sup>16</sup> "For I hate divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and one who covers his garment with violence," says the LORD of hosts. So guard your spirit, and do not be unfaithful.

<sup>17</sup> You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you ask, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them;" or "Where is the God of justice?"

DASV: Malachi 3

<sup>1</sup> "Look, I am sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant, whom you long for will come," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>2</sup> But who can endure the day of his coming? Who will be able to stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap.

<sup>3</sup> He will sit like a refiner and purifier of silver; and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them like gold and silver, until they will offer to the LORD offerings in righteousness.

<sup>4</sup> Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

<sup>5</sup> Then I will come near to you for judgment. I will be quick to witness against the sorcerers, adulterers, and against those who swear falsely, and against those who oppress the worker of his wages, the widow, and orphan, and those who deprive the resident foreigner of justice, and do not fear me," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>6</sup> "For I, the LORD, do not change. Therefore, O sons of Jacob, you are not consumed.

<sup>7</sup> Even from the days of your forefathers you have turned away from my statutes, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?'

<sup>8</sup> Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. But you claim, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings.

<sup>9</sup> You are cursed with the curse; for you, the entire nation, are robbing me.

<sup>10</sup> Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me with it," says the LORD of hosts, "and see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you, and pour out on you such a blessing that there will not be enough room to take it in.

<sup>11</sup> Then I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he will not destroy the produce of your ground; neither will your vine drop its fruit before the harvest time in the field," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>12</sup> "Then all nations will call you happy; for you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup> "Your words have been critical against me," says the LORD. "Yet you say, 'How have we spoken against you?'

<sup>14</sup> You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. What benefit has there been that we have kept his commands, and that we have walked in penitential mourning before the LORD of hosts?'

<sup>15</sup> So now we count the arrogant happy. Those who work wickedness prosper; yes, they test God and then escape."

<sup>16</sup> Then those who feared the LORD spoke to each other; and the LORD took notice and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for those who feared the LORD, and that thought about his name.

<sup>17</sup> They will be mine," says the LORD of hosts, "my own special possession, on the day when I act. I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him.

<sup>18</sup> Then you will return and distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between the one who serves God and the one who does not serve him."

DASV: Malachi 4

<sup>1</sup> "For, look, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the proud and all who do wickedness will be stubble. The coming day will burn them up," says the LORD of hosts. "It will not leave them so much as a root or branch.

<sup>2</sup> But to you that revere my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. You will go out and frolic like calves from the stall.

<sup>3</sup> You will tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I take action," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup> "Remember the law of Moses my servant, the rules and regulations that I commanded him on Horeb for all Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Look, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

<sup>6</sup> He will turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; so that I will not come and strike the earth with a curse."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Matthew 1

<sup>1</sup> The record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

<sup>2</sup> Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

<sup>3</sup> and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram,

<sup>4</sup> and Ram the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon,

<sup>5</sup> and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse,

<sup>6</sup> and Jesse the father of David the king. David was the father of Solomon by Uriah's wife,

<sup>7</sup> and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa,

<sup>8</sup> and Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah,

<sup>9</sup> and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

<sup>10</sup> and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah, <sup>11</sup> and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah was the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, <sup>13</sup> and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor;

<sup>14</sup> and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud,

<sup>15</sup> and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob, <sup>16</sup> and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

<sup>18</sup> Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place like this. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>19</sup> Joseph, her fiancé, being a righteous man, and not willing to shame her in public, considered breaking off the engagement privately.

<sup>20</sup> But when he thought about these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, because that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>21</sup> She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name 'Jesus,' for he will save his people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup> Now all this happened that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

<sup>23</sup> "Look, the virgin will be with child, and will bring forth a son, and they will call his name Immanuel," which means, "God with us."

<sup>24</sup> Joseph woke up from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took her as his wife, <sup>25</sup> but he had no marital relations with her until she had given birth to a son, and he called his name Jesus.

DASV: Matthew 2

<sup>1</sup> Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, at that time, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Where is he who is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star rising in the eastern sky, and are come to worship him."

<sup>3</sup> When Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>4</sup> Gathering together all the chief priests and experts in the law of the people, he asked them where the Christ should be born.

<sup>5</sup> They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it is written through the prophet, <sup>6</sup> 'And you Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are in no wise least among the princes of Judah; for out of you will come a governor, who will be shepherd over my people Israel.'"

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared.

<sup>8</sup> He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child; and when you have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him."

<sup>9</sup> They, having heard the king, went their way; and the star, which they saw rising in the eastern sky, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

<sup>11</sup> They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him. Opening their treasures, they gave him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

<sup>12</sup> After being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed to their own country another way.

<sup>13</sup> After they were gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there until I tell you; for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

<sup>15</sup> He was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

<sup>16</sup> Then Herod, when he saw that he was tricked by the wise men, was very angry, and sent and slew all the male children in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men.

<sup>17</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>18</sup> "A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she would not be comforted, because they were gone."

<sup>19</sup> But after Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

<sup>20</sup> "Get up and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for they are dead who sought the young child's life."

<sup>21</sup> So he got up and took the young child and his mother, and returned to the land of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee.

<sup>23</sup> He went and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he would be called a Nazarene.

DASV: Matthew 3

<sup>1</sup> In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying,

<sup>4</sup> Now John wore clothes made of camel's hair, and a had leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.

<sup>5</sup> Then the people of Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him, <sup>6</sup> and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to see his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

<sup>8</sup> Bring forth, therefore, fruit worthy of repentance,

<sup>9</sup> and do not think to tell yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I say to you, that God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.

<sup>10</sup> Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down, and cast into the fire.

<sup>11</sup> I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry, he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

<sup>12</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean out his threshing floor; and he will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

<sup>14</sup> But John resisted him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus answering said to him, "Permit it now, for it is proper for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he agreed to do it.

<sup>16</sup> After Jesus was baptized, when he came up out of the water, suddenly, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him.

<sup>17</sup> A voice from of heaven, said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

DASV: Matthew 4

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

<sup>3</sup> The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

<sup>4</sup> But he answered and said, "It is written, 'Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him into the holy city and set him on the highest point of the temple,

<sup>6</sup> and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will give his angels charge concerning you, and with their hands they will catch you, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took him to an exceeding high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their splendor.

<sup>9</sup> He said to him, "All these things will I give you, if you will bow down and worship me."

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Get out of here, Satan, for it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.'"

<sup>13</sup> After leaving Nazareth, he came and stayed in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,

<sup>14</sup> that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah, saying,

<sup>15</sup> "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, by the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, <sup>16</sup> the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, and to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, the light has dawned."

<sup>17</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

<sup>18</sup> While walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

<sup>19</sup> He said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there he saw two more brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went around all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of disease and sickness among the people.

<sup>24</sup> So a report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, those who had various diseases and terrible pains, those possessed with demons, epileptic and crippled, and he healed them.

DASV: Matthew 5

<sup>1</sup> Seeing the crowds, he went up into the mountain. After he sat down, his disciples came to him.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup> Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

<sup>10</sup> Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and say all types of evil things against you falsely, for my sake.

<sup>12</sup> Rejoice, and be glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

<sup>13</sup> You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its saltiness can you make it salty again? It is good for nothing, but to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men.

<sup>14</sup> You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid.

<sup>15</sup> No one lights a lamp, and puts it under a bushel basket, but on the stand, and it shines for all that are in the house.

<sup>16</sup> In the same way let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets, I have not come to destroy, but to fulfill them.

<sup>18</sup> For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one dot or one pen-stroke will in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished.

<sup>19</sup> Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do so, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does and teaches them, he will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>20</sup> For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the experts in the law and Pharisees, you will in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>21</sup> You have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not murder,' and 'whoever does commit murder will be in danger of the judgment.'

<sup>22</sup> But I say to you, that everyone who is angry with his brother will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever insults his brother saying, 'Idiot,' will be in danger of the council; and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be in danger of the fire of hell.

<sup>23</sup> If therefore you offer your gift at the altar, and remember that your brother has something against you,

<sup>24</sup> leave your gift before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

<sup>25</sup> Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him in the way, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you are thrown into prison.

<sup>26</sup> Truly I say to you, you will by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny.

<sup>27</sup> You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.'

<sup>29</sup> If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it away, for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body should go to hell.

<sup>30</sup> If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off, and throw it away! For it is better that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body go to hell.

<sup>31</sup> It was also said, 'Whoever will put away his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'

<sup>32</sup> But I say to you, that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the cause of unfaithfulness, makes her an adulteress, and whoever marries her when she is so divorced commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup> Again, you have heard that it was said to them in old times, 'You shall not break your oaths, but shall keep your oath to the Lord.'

<sup>34</sup> But I say to you, do not swear at all, neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God, <sup>35</sup> nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet, nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

<sup>36</sup> Neither should you swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black.

<sup>37</sup> But let your speech simply be, 'Yes,' meaning yes, and 'No,' meaning no, and whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

<sup>38</sup> You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'

<sup>39</sup> But I say to you, do not resist one who is evil, but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.

<sup>40</sup> If any one would take you to court, and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also.

<sup>44</sup> But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you;

<sup>45</sup> that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven, since he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.

<sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors the same?

<sup>47</sup> If you greet only your brothers, what do you more than others? Do not even the Gentiles the same?

DASV: Matthew 6

<sup>1</sup> Beware that you do not do your righteous deeds before men, to be seen of them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> When you give to the poor, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward.

<sup>4</sup> that your giving may be done in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>5</sup> When you pray, you should not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward.

<sup>6</sup> But you, when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>7</sup> When praying do not use meaningless repetitions, as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you have need of, before you ask.

<sup>10</sup> your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>12</sup> And forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven our debtors.

<sup>13</sup> And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

<sup>14</sup> For if you forgive others their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

<sup>15</sup> But if you do not forgive others their sins, neither will your Father forgive your <sup>16</sup> Moreover when you fast, do not be as the hypocrites, who make their faces sad, for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to fast. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward.

<sup>17</sup> But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> that you may not be seen by men to fast, but only by your Father who is hidden in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

<sup>19</sup> Do not accumulate for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break in and steal.

<sup>20</sup> But accumulate for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes, and where thieves do not break in and steal.

<sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

<sup>22</sup> The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light.

<sup>23</sup> But if your eye is diseased, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>24</sup> No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes?

<sup>27</sup> And which of you by worrying can add one hour to life?

<sup>28</sup> Why do you worry about clothes? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they do not work, nor do they spin.

<sup>29</sup> Yet I say to you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

<sup>30</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

<sup>31</sup> Do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or, 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?'

<sup>32</sup> For the Gentiles seek after all these things, for your heavenly Father knows that you have need of them.

<sup>33</sup> But seek first his kingdom, and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you as well.

DASV: Matthew 7

<sup>1</sup> Judge not, so that you will not be judged.

<sup>2</sup> For with the same judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with what measure you use, it will be measured to you.

<sup>4</sup> Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and yet, there is a beam in your own eye?

<sup>5</sup> You hypocrite, first take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

<sup>6</sup> Do not give that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and then turn and attack you.

<sup>7</sup> Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened for you.

<sup>8</sup> For every one who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to whoever knocks it will be opened.

<sup>9</sup> Will anyone among you, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will he give him a stone?

<sup>10</sup> Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake?

<sup>11</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

<sup>12</sup> Whatever therefore you would that others should do to you, so you should do to them, for this fulfills the law and the prophets.

<sup>13</sup> Enter in by the narrow gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.

<sup>14</sup> But narrow is the gate, and the way is hard, that leads to life, and only a few find it.

<sup>15</sup> Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravaging wolves.

<sup>16</sup> By their fruits you will know them. Do people gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

<sup>17</sup> Even so every good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit.

<sup>21</sup> Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>22</sup> Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and by your name cast out demons, and by your name do many mighty works?'

<sup>24</sup> Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, is like a wise man, who built his house upon the rock.

<sup>25</sup> The rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, because its foundation was upon the rock.

<sup>26</sup> Everyone who hears these words of mine, and does not do them, is like a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand.

<sup>27</sup> The rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell; and great was its fall."

<sup>28</sup> It came to pass, when Jesus finished these words, the crowds were astonished at his teaching;

<sup>29</sup> for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their legal experts.

<sup>3</sup> He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I will; be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Make sure you do not tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>5</sup> When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, pleading with him,

<sup>8</sup> The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof, just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

<sup>9</sup> For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in anyone in Israel.

<sup>11</sup> I say to you, that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven,

<sup>12</sup> but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth."

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way, as you have believed, it will be done for you." And the servant was healed in that exact hour.

<sup>16</sup> That evening, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick.

<sup>17</sup> So was fulfilled that which was spoken by the prophet Isaiah, saying, "He took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

<sup>18</sup> Now when Jesus saw the large crowd around him, he gave orders to depart to the other side.

<sup>19</sup> A scribe came, and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

<sup>21</sup> Another disciple said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

<sup>25</sup> They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Save us, Lord! We are about to perish!"

<sup>26</sup> He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he got up, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

<sup>27</sup> They marveled, saying, "What type of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

<sup>28</sup> When he came to the other side to the country of the Gadarenes, he met two men possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, very fierce, so that no one could pass by that way.

<sup>29</sup> They cried out, saying, "What do you want with us, you Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the appointed time?"

<sup>31</sup> Then the demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of pigs."

<sup>32</sup> He said to them, "Go." They came out, and went into the pigs. Suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and perished in the waters.

<sup>33</sup> They that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, that had happened to the ones possessed with demons.

<sup>34</sup> Then all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they requested that he leave their territory.

DASV: Matthew 9

<sup>2</sup> Then some people brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the one paralyzed, "Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven."

<sup>6</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins (then he said to the paralyzed man), "Get up, and take your mat, and go home."

<sup>7</sup> He got up, and went home.

<sup>8</sup> But when the multitudes saw it, they were awe-struck, and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." He got up, and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> It happened, as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.

<sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>12</sup> But when Jesus heard it, he said, "They who are healthy do not need of a doctor, but those who are sick.

<sup>13</sup> But go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>14</sup> Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees frequently fast, but your disciples do not?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>16</sup> No one sews an unshrunk patch on old clothes; for the patch will tear away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.

<sup>17</sup> People do not put new wine into old wineskins, else the wineskins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

<sup>18</sup> While he spoke these things to them, suddenly, a ruler came and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter just died, but come and lay your hand upon her, and she will live."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus got up, followed him, and so did his disciples.

<sup>20</sup> Right then, a woman, who had a discharge of blood for twelve years, came behind him, and touched the edge of his garment.

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus turning and seeing her said, "Daughter, cheer up; your faith has cured you." The woman was healed from that hour.

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd making an uproar, <sup>24</sup> he said, "Leave, for the girl is not dead, but sleeps." They laughed him to scorn.

<sup>25</sup> But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David."

<sup>28</sup> When he came into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Absolutely Lord."

<sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be done to you."

<sup>31</sup> But they went out, and spread what he had done everywhere.

<sup>32</sup> As they went forth, suddenly, a man was brought to him who could not talk, possessed with a demon.

<sup>33</sup> When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The crowds marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus went about all the towns and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all types of disease and all kinds of sickness.

<sup>36</sup> But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd.

<sup>37</sup> Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

DASV: Matthew 10

<sup>1</sup> He called his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of diseases and sicknesses.

<sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew, the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

<sup>5</sup> These twelve Jesus sent out, and charged them, saying, "Do not go anywhere among the Gentiles, or enter into any town of the Samaritans.

<sup>8</sup> Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

<sup>10</sup> no traveling bag for your journey, or extra coat, shoes, or staff; for the laborer is worthy of his food.

<sup>11</sup> Into whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay with them until you leave.

<sup>12</sup> As you enter a house, give it greetings.

<sup>13</sup> If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

<sup>14</sup> Whoever will not receive you, or hear your words, as you go out of that house or town, shake off the dust from your feet.

<sup>15</sup> Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that town.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I am sending you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

<sup>17</sup> But beware of people, for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will beat you.

<sup>18</sup> You will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup> But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you will say, for it will be given you at that time what you will say.

<sup>20</sup> For it is not you who speaks, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks through you.

<sup>21</sup> Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

<sup>22</sup> You will be hated of all men for my name's sake. But whoever endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>23</sup> But when they persecute you in one town, flee to the next. Truly I say to you, you will not have gone through the towns of Israel, until the Son of Man comes.

<sup>25</sup> It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much worse the members of his household!

<sup>26</sup> Do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed, that will not be revealed, and hid, that will not be known.

<sup>27</sup> What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear in the ear, proclaim upon the housetops.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. But rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

<sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father.

<sup>31</sup> So do not fear; you are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>32</sup> Every one therefore who confesses me before men, I also will confess before my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>33</sup> But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>34</sup> Do not think that I have come to send peace on the earth. I did not come to send peace, but a sword.

<sup>35</sup> For I have come to set a man against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

<sup>37</sup> He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

<sup>38</sup> He who does not take his cross and follow me, is not worthy of me.

<sup>39</sup> He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>40</sup> He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives the one who sent me.

<sup>42</sup> Whoever will give one of these little ones a cup of cold water to drink, because he is my disciple, truly I say to you, he will never lose his reward."

DASV: Matthew 11

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on to teach and preach in their towns.

<sup>2</sup> Now when John, who was in prison, heard of the works of Christ, he sent his disciples

<sup>3</sup> and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

<sup>7</sup> While these went their way, Jesus said to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>8</sup> But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in expensive clothes? Look, those who wear expensive clothes live in king's palaces.

<sup>9</sup> But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.

<sup>10</sup> This is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>11</sup> Truly I say to you, among those who are born of women there has not risen up anyone greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

<sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force.

<sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

<sup>15</sup> Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>16</sup> But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their friends,

<sup>17</sup> and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wept, and you did not mourn.'

<sup>18</sup> For John came neither eating or drinking, and they said, 'He has a demon.'

<sup>19</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they said, 'Look, a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her works."

<sup>20</sup> Then he began to denounce the towns where most of his mighty works were done, because they did not repent.

<sup>21</sup> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>22</sup> But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.

<sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted unto heaven? No, you will go down to Hades! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

<sup>24</sup> But I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for you."

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and yet have revealed them to children.

<sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, for so it was pleasing in your sight.

<sup>27</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father, neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son and the one to whom the Son wants to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup> Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

<sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

DASV: Matthew 12

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck grain and to eat.

<sup>2</sup> But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."

<sup>3</sup> But he said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him;

<sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God, and ate the sacred bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?

<sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are not guilty?

<sup>10</sup> There was a man there with a withered hand. They asked him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" that they might accuse him.

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Would not any one of you if he had one sheep, and it fell into a pit on the Sabbath, not get ahold of it, and pull it out?

<sup>12</sup> How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Stretch out you hand." He stretched it out and it was restored whole, as the other.

<sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out, and plotted against him, how they might destroy him.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus perceiving it withdrew from there. Many followed him, and he healed them all.

<sup>16</sup> But he ordered them not to tell who he was,

<sup>17</sup> that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>18</sup> "Look, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased; I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup> He will not fight or yell, neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup> A bruised reed will he not break, and a smoking wick he will not extinguish, until he brings justice to victory.

<sup>22</sup> Then one possessed with a demon was brought to him, blind and mute and he healed him, so that he both spoke and saw.

<sup>23</sup> All the crowds were amazed, and said, "Can this be the Son of David?"

<sup>25</sup> Knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every town or house divided against itself will not stand.

<sup>26</sup> If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?

<sup>27</sup> If I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

<sup>28</sup> But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you.

<sup>29</sup> How can anyone enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

<sup>30</sup> He that is not with me is against me, and he that does not gather with me scatters.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore I say to you, people will be forgiven every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> Whoever will speak a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven. But whoever will speak against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven, neither in this world, nor in the one which is to come.

<sup>33</sup> Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt, for the tree is known by its fruit.

<sup>34</sup> You brood of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

<sup>36</sup> I say to you, that every idle word that people speak, they will give account for in the day of judgment.

<sup>37</sup> For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

<sup>39</sup> But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; but no sign will be given except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

<sup>40</sup> For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

<sup>42</sup> The queen of the south will rise up in judgment on this generation, and will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and look, a greater than Solomon is here.

<sup>43</sup> But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and does not find it.

<sup>44</sup> Then he says to himself, 'I will return to my house that I came out of;' and when he returns, he finds it empty, swept, and straightened up.

<sup>45</sup> Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man is worse than the first. It will be like that for this evil generation."

<sup>46</sup> While he was yet speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him.

<sup>47</sup> Someone said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to talk to you."

<sup>48</sup> But he answered him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?"

<sup>49</sup> He stretched out his hand pointing toward his disciples, and said, "See, my mother and my brothers!

<sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, is my brother, sister, and mother."

DASV: Matthew 13

<sup>1</sup> On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat beside the sea.

<sup>2</sup> Such large crowds gathered around him, that he got into a boat, and sat, while all the crowd stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup> He spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Look, a sower went out to sow seed.

<sup>4</sup> As he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and devoured them.

<sup>5</sup> Others fell in the rocky places, where they did not have much dirt. Immediately they sprang up, because the soil was shallow.

<sup>6</sup> When the sun came up, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they withered away.

<sup>7</sup> Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given."

<sup>12</sup> For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have in abundance. But whoever does not have, from him, even what he has, will be taken away.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, neither do they understand.

<sup>14</sup> In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which said, 'Hearing you will hear, and will not understand; and seeing you will see, and will not comprehend.

<sup>15</sup> For this people's heart is hardened, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes, so they might not see with their eyes, or hear with their ears, or understand with their heart, and might turn, and I would heal them.'

<sup>17</sup> For truly I say to you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and did not see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them.

<sup>19</sup> When any one hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then comes the evil one, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is the seed sown on the path.

<sup>20</sup> That which was sown upon the rocky places, is the one who hears the word, and immediately receives it with joy.

<sup>21</sup> But he has no root in himself, yet endures for a while; but when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he falls away.

<sup>22</sup> That which was sown among the thorns, is the one who hears the word and the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.

<sup>23</sup> That which was sown on the good ground, is the one who hears the word, and understands it. He bears fruit, and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

<sup>24</sup> He gave them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man that sowed good seed in his field.

<sup>25</sup> But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.

<sup>26</sup> When the blades sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the weeds appeared also.

<sup>27</sup> The servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where did the weeds come from?'

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, 'An enemy did this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?'

<sup>29</sup> But he said, 'No; lest while you are gathering up the weeds, you also root up the wheat with them.

<sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest. In the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, gather up first the weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them, then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

<sup>31</sup> He gave them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field.

<sup>32</sup> It is small among all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."

<sup>33</sup> Another parable he spoke to them; "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened."

<sup>34</sup> All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the crowds; and he spoke nothing to them without using a parable.

<sup>35</sup> This fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

<sup>38</sup> The field is the world. The good seed are the sons of the kingdom and the weeds are the sons of the evil one.

<sup>39</sup> The enemy that sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age and the reapers are angels.

<sup>40</sup> As therefore the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

<sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause sin, and those who do iniquity.

<sup>42</sup> They will cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

<sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one that has ears, listen carefully.

<sup>44</sup> The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid, and in his joy he went and sold all that he had, and bought that field.

<sup>47</sup> Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and caught fish of every kind.

<sup>48</sup> When it was filled, they dragged it up on the shore, sat down, and gathered the good into baskets, but the bad they threw away.

<sup>49</sup> So will it be in the end of the age. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from the righteous, <sup>50</sup> and will cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

<sup>52</sup> He said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been made a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a man that is a house owner, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old."

<sup>57</sup> So they were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house."

<sup>58</sup> He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

<sup>2</sup> and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He is risen from the dead! That is why he is doing miracles."

<sup>5</sup> When he wanted to have him put to death, he feared the crowds, because they counted him as a prophet.

<sup>9</sup> Although the king was grieved, but for the sake of his oath, and because of those who sat at dinner with him, he commanded it to be given.

<sup>11</sup> His head was brought on a platter, and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

<sup>12</sup> Then his disciples came, took the body, and buried him, and went and told Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew in a boat, to a remote area. But when the crowds heard this, they followed him on foot from the towns.

<sup>14</sup> When he came out, and saw a great crowd, he had compassion on them, and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup> When evening came, the disciples came to him, saying, "This place is desolate, and it is already late. Send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages, and buy food."

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus replied, "They do not have to go away. You give them food."

<sup>18</sup> He responded, "Bring them to me."

<sup>19</sup> Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, brake and gave the loaves to the disciples. The disciples then distributed them to the crowds.

<sup>20</sup> They all ate, and were filled, and they picked up that which was left over from the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

<sup>22</sup> Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and go ahead of him to the other side, until he could send the crowds away.

<sup>23</sup> After he sent the crowds away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone.

<sup>24</sup> But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, beat by the waves because the wind was against them.

<sup>25</sup> About five in the morning he came to them, walking upon the sea.

<sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost;" and they cried out in fear.

<sup>27</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I. Do not be afraid."

<sup>29</sup> He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat, and walked upon the water to come to Jesus.

<sup>30</sup> But when he saw the wind, he was afraid. Beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me."

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

<sup>33</sup> They that were in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

<sup>34</sup> After they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret.

<sup>35</sup> When the men of that place recognized him, they sent all around that region, and brought to him all who were sick.

<sup>36</sup> They begged him that they might only touch the edge of his clothes, and as many as touched were healed.

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition?"

<sup>4</sup> For God said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'

<sup>5</sup> But you say, 'whoever will say to his father or his mother, "Whatever you might have profited from me is given to God,"

<sup>6</sup> he does not need to honor his father.' You have voided the word of God because of your tradition.

<sup>7</sup> You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

<sup>8</sup> 'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

<sup>9</sup> In vain do they worship me, teaching the rules of men as if they were divine commands.'"

<sup>10</sup> He called the crowd to him, and said to them, "Hear, and understand:

<sup>11</sup> whatever enters into the mouth does not defile anyone, but that which comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a person.

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"

<sup>13</sup> But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father has not planted, will be rooted up.

<sup>14</sup> Let them alone! They are blind guides. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."

<sup>17</sup> Do you not see, that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and is flushed out into the sewer?

<sup>18</sup> But the things which come out of the mouth come from the heart, and they are what defile a person.

<sup>19</sup> For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, immorality, theft, lying, and slander.

<sup>22</sup> A Canaanite woman came from that region, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, son of David! My daughter is being tormented by a demon."

<sup>24</sup> But he answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, your faith is great! Let what you want, be done for you." So her daughter was healed that same hour.

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus left and went beside the sea of Galilee. Afterwards he went up into the mountain, and sat there.

<sup>30</sup> Large crowds came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, crippled, and many others, and they laid them down at his feet, and he healed them.

<sup>31</sup> As a result the crowd wondered, when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled whole, and lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they praised the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus called his disciples to him, and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me for three days now and have had nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away fasting, lest they faint on the way."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They replied, "Seven, and a few small fish."

<sup>35</sup> He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground.

<sup>36</sup> He took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks, he broke, and gave to the disciples, and they distributed it to the crowds.

<sup>37</sup> They all ate, and were filled. The disciples picked up that which was left over of the broken pieces. It was seven baskets full.

DASV: Matthew 16

<sup>1</sup> The Pharisees and Sadducees came to test him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup> But he answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,'

<sup>3</sup> and in the morning, 'It will be bad weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the face of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

<sup>4</sup> An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but no sign will be given to it, except the sign of Jonah." He left them, and went away.

<sup>5</sup> When the disciples came to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "Pay attention and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus perceiving it said, "O you of little faith, why argue among yourselves, because you do not have bread?"

<sup>9</sup> Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you picked up?

<sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you picked up?

<sup>11</sup> How is it that you do not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread but to beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees?"

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that he was warning them to beware not about the yeast of bread, but the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

<sup>17</sup> Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>18</sup> I also tell you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

<sup>19</sup> I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you will bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you will loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

<sup>20</sup> Then he ordered the disciples that they should not tell anyone that he was the Christ.

<sup>21</sup> From that time Jesus began to tell his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests and Scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

<sup>22</sup> Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, "No way, Lord! This will never happen to you."

<sup>23</sup> But he turned, and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are a stumbling-block to me, because you are not thinking about the things of God, but the things of men."

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to join me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

<sup>25</sup> For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>26</sup> For what will a man profit if he gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

<sup>27</sup> For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will repay to everyone according to his deeds.

<sup>28</sup> Truly I say to you, there are some who are standing here, who will in no wise taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

DASV: Matthew 17

<sup>1</sup> After six days, Jesus took Peter, James, and John, James' brother, with him, and led them up onto a high mountain to be by themselves.

<sup>4</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, I will make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice out of the cloud, said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were terrified.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Do not tell this vision to anyone, until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

<sup>10</sup> His disciples asked him, "Why then do the experts in the law say that Elijah must come first?"

<sup>12</sup> But I say to you, that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they wanted. Even so will the Son of Man suffer at their hands."

<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them of John the Baptist.

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, kneeling before him, saying, <sup>15</sup> "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers terribly. Often he falls into the fire, and into the water.

<sup>16</sup> I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus replied, "O faithless and corrupt generation! How long will I be with you? How long do I have to put up with you? Bring him here to me."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus rebuked the demon and he went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

<sup>20</sup> He said to them, "Because of your little faith. Truly I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move to another place;' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

<sup>21</sup> [Some manuscripts have: But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.]

<sup>22</sup> As they gathered in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of men.

<sup>23</sup> They will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up." They were greatly troubled.

<sup>24</sup> When they came to Capernaum, the temple-tax collector came to Peter, and said, "Does your teacher not pay the half-shekel tax?"

<sup>25</sup> He said, "Yes." When he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon, the kings of the earth, from whom do they collect taxes, from their sons or from strangers?"

<sup>26</sup> Then he said, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Therefore the sons are free.

<sup>27</sup> But, so we do not cause them to stumble, go to the sea, and cast in a hook. Take up the first fish you catch. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a shekel. Take it, and give it to them for you and me."

DASV: Matthew 18

<sup>1</sup> At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

<sup>3</sup> and said, "Truly I say to you, 'Except you change, and become as little children, you will in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> Whoever will humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>6</sup> But whoever will cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is better for him that a great millstone be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.

<sup>7</sup> Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it is unavoidable. But woe to that one through whom it comes!

<sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire.

<sup>9</sup> If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and throw it away. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

<sup>10</sup> See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you, that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>12</sup> What do you think? If anyone has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine, and go to the mountains, and seek the one which has gone astray?

<sup>13</sup> If he happens to find it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over that one than over the ninety-nine which did not go astray.

<sup>14</sup> Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

<sup>15</sup> If your brother sin against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

<sup>16</sup> But if he does not listen, take with you one or two more, that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

<sup>17</sup> If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If he refuses to listen to the church also, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup> Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

<sup>19</sup> Again I say to you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that you will ask for, it will be done by my Father who is in heaven.

<sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him, seven times?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, seven times; but, seventy times seven.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore is the kingdom of heaven like a certain king, who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

<sup>24</sup> When he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him, that owed him ten thousand talents.

<sup>25</sup> But as he did not have enough to pay, his lord commanded him, his wife, and children, and all that he had to be sold, and payment made.

<sup>26</sup> The servant therefore fell down and begged him, saying, 'Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

<sup>27</sup> The lord of that servant, moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

<sup>28</sup> But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred denarii. He then grabbed him, and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me everything you owe.'

<sup>29</sup> So his fellow-servant fell down and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'

<sup>30</sup> But he would not, but went and threw him into prison, till he could pay that which was due.

<sup>31</sup> When his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very disturbed, and came and told their lord all that happened.

<sup>32</sup> Then his lord called him and said to him, 'You wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me.

<sup>33</sup> Should you not have had mercy on you fellow-servant also, even as I had mercy on you?'

<sup>34</sup> His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he paid all that was due.

<sup>35</sup> So also will my heavenly Father do to you, if you do not forgive every one his brother from your hearts."

DASV: Matthew 19

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished these things, he left Galilee, and went to the territory of Judea on the other side of the Jordan.

<sup>3</sup> Then the Pharisees came to him, testing him saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason whatsoever?"

<sup>4</sup> He answered and said, "Have you not read, that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,

<sup>5</sup> and said, 'For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh?

<sup>6</sup> So then they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no one split apart."

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to send her away?"

<sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your heart, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not like that.

<sup>9</sup> I say to you, whoever will send away his wife, except for immorality, and will marry another, commits adultery, and whoever marries her when she is divorced commits adultery."

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given.

<sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs, who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs, that were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs, that made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it."

<sup>13</sup> Then some little children were brought to him, so that he might lay his hands on them, and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus said, "Allow the little children to come to me, and do not stop them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

<sup>15</sup> He laid his hands on them, and then went on from there.

<sup>16</sup> Suddenly, one came to him and said, "Teacher, what good thing should I do, that I may have eternal life?"

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Why do you ask me concerning that which is good? There is only one who is good, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

<sup>18</sup> He said to him, "Which ones?" Jesus replied, "You shall not kill, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup> Honor your father and mother; and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me."

<sup>22</sup> But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful; because he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>24</sup> Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."

<sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard it, they were astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter responded and said to him, "But we have left all, and followed you; what then will we get?"

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, that you who have followed me, in the renewal of all things when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundred times as much, and will inherit eternal life.

<sup>30</sup> But many will be last that are first; and first that are last.

DASV: Matthew 20

<sup>2</sup> When he had agreed with the laborers for a normal day's wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> About 9 o'clock he went out, and saw others standing around idle in the marketplace.

<sup>4</sup> He said to them, 'Go also into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will pay you.' So they went to work.

<sup>5</sup> Again he went out about noon and three o'clock, and did the same.

<sup>6</sup> Then about five o'clock he went out, and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing around here all the day idle?'

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'Go also into the vineyard.'

<sup>8</sup> When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the laborers, and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'

<sup>10</sup> When the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but they likewise received everyone a full days wage.

<sup>12</sup> saying, 'These who were hired last have spent only one hour, and you paid them the same as us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'

<sup>13</sup> But he answered and said to one of them, 'Friend, I did you no wrong, did not you agree with me to work for a normal days wage?'

<sup>14</sup> Take that which is yours, and go your way, I want to give to the one hired last, the same as you.

<sup>15</sup> Do I not have the right to do what I want to with my money? Or is your eye jealous, because I am generous?'

<sup>16</sup> So the last shall be first, and the first last.'"

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them,

<sup>18</sup> "Pay attention, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes; and they will condemn him to death,

<sup>19</sup> and will deliver him up to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify him, and the third day he will be raised up."

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons came to him, kneeling before him, and asked for a favor from him.

<sup>21</sup> He said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Command that my two sons may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your kingdom."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They say to him, "We are able."

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, "Indeed you will drink my cup, but to sit on my right, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

<sup>24</sup> When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them to him, and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over their subjects, and their officials exercise authority over them.

<sup>26</sup> It should not be like that among you, but whoever would be great among you must be your servant, <sup>27</sup> and whoever would be first among you must be your servant.

<sup>28</sup> Just as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

<sup>30</sup> Two blind men sitting by the side of the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Lord, son of David, have mercy on us."

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>33</sup> They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened."

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus, moved with compassion, touched their eyes, and immediately they received their sight, and followed him.

DASV: Matthew 21

<sup>1</sup> When they drew near to Jerusalem, they approached Bethphage, on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, "Go into the village that is over there, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me.

<sup>3</sup> If any one says anything to you, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them;' and immediately he will send them."

<sup>4</sup> Now this came to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

<sup>5</sup> "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'Look, your King comes to you, meek, and riding upon a donkey, and upon a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

<sup>6</sup> The disciples went, and did just as Jesus directed them to.

<sup>7</sup> They brought the donkey, and the colt, and put their garments on them, and he sat on it.

<sup>8</sup> Then much of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut down branches from the trees, and spread them in the way.

<sup>9</sup> The crowds that went before and after him, cried, saying, "Hosanna to the son of David. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus entered into the temple of God, and threw out all that bought and sold in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves.

<sup>13</sup> He said to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer; but you have made it a den of robbers.'"

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

<sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were shouting in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" they got angry.

<sup>16</sup> They said to him, "Do you not hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes, have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have perfected praise?'"

<sup>17</sup> He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and stayed there.

<sup>18</sup> Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he was hungry.

<sup>19</sup> Seeing a fig tree by the road side, he came to it, and found nothing on it, but only leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no fruit on you forever." And immediately the fig tree withered away.

<sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith, and do not doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will be done.

<sup>23</sup> When he came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one question, which, if you answer me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>25</sup> The baptism of John, where was it from? Was it from heaven or from men?"

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

<sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowds; because everyone held that John was a prophet."

<sup>27</sup> They answered Jesus, and said, "We do not know." He then said to them, "Neither will I tell by what authority I do these things.

<sup>28</sup> But what do you think? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.'

<sup>29</sup> He answered and said, 'I will not;' but afterwards he changed his mind, and went.

<sup>30</sup> He came to the second son, and said the same thing. He answered and said, 'I will go. sir.' and then did not go.

<sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?" They replied, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, that the tax-collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you.

<sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax-collectors and the prostitutes believed him, and you, when you saw it, did not even repent afterwards, that you might believe him.

<sup>33</sup> Listen to another parable: There was a man that was a landowner, who planted a vineyard, set a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and then rented it out to tenants, and went into another country.

<sup>36</sup> Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they did the same thing to them.

<sup>37</sup> But afterwards he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>38</sup> But the tenants, when they saw the son, said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance.'

<sup>39</sup> They took him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

<sup>40</sup> When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

<sup>41</sup> They said to him, "He will utterly destroy those miserable men, and will rent out the vineyard to other tenants, who will pay him the fruits in their seasons."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures, 'The same stone which the builders rejected was made the head cornerstone. This was from the Lord, and it is amazing in our eyes?'

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and be given to a nation bringing forth its fruits.

<sup>44</sup> He that falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but whoever it will fall on, it will crush him to dust."

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he had spoken against them.

<sup>46</sup> When they tried to lay hold on him, they feared the crowds, because they thought he was a prophet.

DASV: Matthew 22

- <sup>1</sup> Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying,
- <sup>2</sup> "The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who gave a wedding feast for his son,
- <sup>3</sup> and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, and they would not come.
- <sup>4</sup> Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Look, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened calves are killed, and everything is ready, come to the marriage feast."'
- <sup>5</sup> But they ignored it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business,
- <sup>6</sup> and the rest took hold of his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them.
- <sup>7</sup> The king was angry. He sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their town down.
- <sup>8</sup> Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come.
- <sup>9</sup> Go therefore to the street corners, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding feast.'
- <sup>10</sup> Those servants went out into the streets, and gathered together everyone they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding was filled with guests.
- <sup>11</sup> But when the king came in to greet the guests, he saw a man who did not have on a wedding garment.
- <sup>12</sup> He said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wearing a wedding garment?' He was speechless.
- <sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him out into the outer darkness, there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.'
- <sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few chosen."
- <sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went, and plotted how they might trap him in his talk.
- <sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples with the Herodians, to him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God in truth, and do not play favorites, for you are not impressed by a person's status.
- <sup>17</sup> Tell us therefore, what do you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
- <sup>18</sup> But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?
- <sup>19</sup> Show me the tax money." They brought him a denarius.
- <sup>20</sup> He said to them, "Whose picture and inscription is this?"
- <sup>21</sup> They said to him, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's."
- <sup>22</sup> When they heard it, they marveled, and left him, and went away.

<sup>23</sup> On that day the Sadducees came to him, those who say that there is no resurrection, and they asked him,

<sup>25</sup> Now there were with us seven brothers, and the first married and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother.

<sup>28</sup> In the resurrection therefore whose wife of the seven will she be, for they all were married to her?"

<sup>29</sup> But Jesus answered and said to them, "You err, not knowing the Scriptures, or the power of God.

<sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection people will not marry, or be given in marriage, but will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup> But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,

<sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

<sup>33</sup> When the multitudes heard it, they were amazed at his teaching.

<sup>37</sup> He replied, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'

<sup>42</sup> saying, "What do you think of the Christ, whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."

<sup>43</sup> He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

<sup>44</sup> 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit on my right hand, until I put your enemies underneath your feet?'"

<sup>45</sup> If David called him Lord, then how is he his son?"

<sup>46</sup> No one was able to answer him anything, neither did anyone from that day on ask him any more questions.

DASV: Matthew 23

- <sup>1</sup> Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and his disciples,
<sup>3</sup> Observe and do everything they tell you, but do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach.
<sup>4</sup> Yes, they bind heavy burdens, hard to carry, and load them on men's shoulders, but they themselves will not lift a finger to move them.
<sup>5</sup> But they do all their works for show. They make their phylacteries wide, and the religious tassels of their garments long, <sup>6</sup> and love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup> and savor the salutations in the marketplaces, to be called, 'Rabbi.'
<sup>8</sup> But do not be called 'Rabbi,' for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers.
<sup>9</sup> Do not call any man 'father' on the earth, for one is your Father, even he who is in heaven.
<sup>10</sup> Do not be called 'Teacher,' for you have one teacher, even the Christ.
<sup>11</sup> But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.
<sup>12</sup> Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.
<sup>13</sup> But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock up the kingdom of heaven. You do not enter yourselves, then you stop those who are trying to enter.
<sup>14</sup> [Some manuscripts have: Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers.
Therefore you will be punished more severely.]
- <sup>15</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel over land and sea to make one convert, and once he is converted, you make him twice the son of hell that you are.
<sup>16</sup> Woe to you, blind guides, that say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.'
<sup>17</sup> You fools and blind, for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?
<sup>18</sup> You say, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is a debtor.'
<sup>19</sup> How blind! Which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?
<sup>20</sup> Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by all things on it.
<sup>21</sup> He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who dwells in it.
<sup>22</sup> He who swears by the heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.
<sup>23</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, anise and cummin, and have ignored the more important matters of the law, justice, mercy, and faith. But these you ought to have done, and not to have neglected the other.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and plate, but the inside is full from greed and self-indulgence.

<sup>26</sup> You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and plate, that the outside may become clean also.

<sup>27</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like white sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and all uncleanness.

<sup>28</sup> Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, <sup>30</sup> and say, 'If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have participated with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.

<sup>34</sup> Therefore, look, I am sending to you prophets, wise men, and scribes, some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will beat in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city.

<sup>35</sup> So all the righteous bloodshed on the earth will come on you, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

<sup>37</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kills the prophets, and stone the ones who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not!

<sup>39</sup> For I say to you, you will not see me again, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

DASV: Matthew 24

<sup>1</sup> As Jesus was leaving the temple, and going on his way, his disciples came to him to point out the buildings of the temple.

<sup>2</sup> But he answered and said to them, "You see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone will be left upon another, everyone will be thrown down."

<sup>3</sup> As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of your coming, and of the end of the world?"

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, "Take heed that no one lead you astray.

<sup>5</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ'; and will lead many astray.

<sup>6</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, see that you are not troubled; for these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

<sup>7</sup> For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in many places.

<sup>9</sup> Then they will deliver you up to persecution, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations for my name's sake.

<sup>10</sup> Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another.

<sup>12</sup> Because of the multiplying of sin, the love of the many will grow cold.

<sup>13</sup> But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> This gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then will the end come.

<sup>15</sup> When therefore you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that reads understand), <sup>16</sup> then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

<sup>17</sup> Let the one who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house.

<sup>19</sup> But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days!

<sup>20</sup> Pray that your escape is not in the winter, or on a Sabbath.

<sup>21</sup> Then there will be great tribulation, such as has never been since the beginning of the world until now, no, or ever will be.

<sup>22</sup> Except those days were shortened, no one would survive; but for the sake of the chosen those days will be shortened.

<sup>23</sup> Then if any one says to you, 'Look, Christ is here or there,' do not believe it.

<sup>24</sup> For there will arise false Christs, and false prophets, and will perform great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

<sup>26</sup> If, therefore, they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' do not go out, or 'Look, he is in the inner chambers,' do not believe it.

<sup>27</sup> For as the lightning comes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be.

<sup>28</sup> Wherever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered.

<sup>29</sup> But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>30</sup> Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

<sup>31</sup> He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

<sup>32</sup> Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near.

<sup>33</sup> Even so when you see all these things, know that he is near, even at the door.

<sup>34</sup> Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things are accomplished.

<sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

<sup>36</sup> But the exact day and hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

<sup>37</sup> As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be when the Son of Man comes.

<sup>38</sup> For in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, <sup>39</sup> and they did not know until the flood came, and took them all away. So will it be when the Son of Man comes.

<sup>40</sup> Two men will be in a field, one will be taken, and the other left behind.

<sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill, one will be taken, and the other left behind.

<sup>43</sup> But know this, that if the owner of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have permitted his house to be broken into.

<sup>44</sup> Therefore be ready, for in an hour that you do not expect the Son of Man comes.

<sup>45</sup> Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give his servants their food at the right time?

<sup>46</sup> Blessed is that servant, whom his lord will find so doing when he returns.

<sup>47</sup> Truly I say to you, he will set him over all that he has.

<sup>48</sup> But if that evil servant will say in his heart, 'My lord will not be back for a while,'

<sup>49</sup> and will begin to beat his fellow servants, and will eat and drink with the drunkards,

<sup>50</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not expect him, and in an hour when he does not anticipate it.

<sup>51</sup> He will cut him in two, and give him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

<sup>1</sup> The kingdom of heaven is like ten bridesmaids, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom.

<sup>10</sup> While they went away to buy some, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut.

<sup>12</sup> But he answered and said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.'

<sup>14</sup> For the kingdom is like a man who was going into another country, who called his servants, and delivered to them his goods.

<sup>15</sup> To one he gave five talents of money, to another two, to another one; to each according to his ability, and then he went on his journey.

<sup>16</sup> Immediately, the one who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made five more talents.

<sup>19</sup> Now after a long time the lord of those servants returned, and settled accounts with them.

<sup>20</sup> The one who received the five talents came and brought five more talents, saying, 'Lord, you gave me five talents. Look, I have gained five more talents.'

<sup>22</sup> The one who received the two talents came and said, 'Lord, you gave me two talents. Look, I have gained two more talents.'

<sup>24</sup> The one who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter.

<sup>25</sup> I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground. Look, you have back what is yours.'

<sup>26</sup> But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and slothful servant, you knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter, <sup>27</sup> then you ought to have invested my money with bankers, and at my coming I should have received it back with interest.

<sup>28</sup> Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents.'

<sup>29</sup> For to everyone who has, it will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who has not, even that which he has will be taken away.

<sup>30</sup> Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.'

<sup>31</sup> When the Son of man will come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory.

<sup>32</sup> Before him all the nations will be gathered; and he will separate one from another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in,

<sup>36</sup> naked, and you clothed me. I was sick, and you visited me, I was in prison, and you came to me.'

<sup>37</sup> Then will the righteous answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, and fed you; or thirsty, and gave you a drink?

<sup>38</sup> When did we see you a stranger, and took you in, or naked, and clothed you?

<sup>40</sup> The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'

<sup>41</sup> Then will he say to those on his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

<sup>42</sup> For I was hungry, and you did not give me anything to eat, I was thirsty, and you did not give me a drink.

<sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and you did not take me in, naked, and you did not clothe me, sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.'

<sup>44</sup> Then will they answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not care for you?'

<sup>45</sup> Then will he answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.'

DASV: Matthew 26

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples,

<sup>2</sup> "You know that the Passover is in two days, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests, and the elders of the people were gathered together, at the court of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas.

<sup>4</sup> They conspired together so that they might arrest Jesus secretly, and kill him.

<sup>6</sup> Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup> a woman came to him who had an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, and she poured it on his head as he sat at dinner.

<sup>8</sup> But when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?"

<sup>10</sup> But Jesus perceiving it said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? She has done a good thing to me.

<sup>11</sup> For the poor are always with you, but me you do not always have.

<sup>12</sup> For when she poured this perfume upon my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

<sup>13</sup> Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will be spoken of as a memorial to her."

<sup>15</sup> and said, "What are you willing to give me, and I will deliver him to you?" They paid him thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>16</sup> From that time he sought opportunity to hand him over to them.

<sup>17</sup> Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>18</sup> He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher said, My time is at hand; I will celebrate the Passover at your house with my disciples.'"

<sup>19</sup> The disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>20</sup> When evening had come, he was sitting eating dinner with the twelve disciples.

<sup>21</sup> As they were eating, he said, "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."

<sup>22</sup> They were very distressed, and each of them began to say to him, "Is it I, Lord?"

<sup>23</sup> He said, "The one who dips his hand with me in the dish, will betray me."

<sup>24</sup> The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to the one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had never been born."

<sup>25</sup> Judas, who betrayed him, asked, "Is it I, Rabbi?" He said to him, "You said it."

<sup>26</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed, and broke it. He gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."

<sup>27</sup> He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "All of you drink from it;

<sup>28</sup> for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>29</sup> But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will abandon me this night; for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

<sup>32</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

<sup>33</sup> But Peter answered and said to him, "Though everyone desert you, I will never desert you."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you." So said all the disciples.

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go over there and pray."

<sup>37</sup> He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with him, and began to be sorrowful and deeply troubled.

<sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, "My soul is grief stricken, even to the point of death. Stay here, and watch with me."

<sup>39</sup> He went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me, nevertheless, not what I want, but what you want."

<sup>40</sup> He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What, could you not watch with me for one hour?"

<sup>42</sup> Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, your will be done."

<sup>43</sup> He came again and found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.

<sup>44</sup> He left them, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words.

<sup>45</sup> Then he came to the disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on and take your rest. Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

<sup>48</sup> Now the one who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, he is the one, arrest him."

<sup>49</sup> He came directly to Jesus, and said, "Greetings, Rabbi;" and kissed him.

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you came for." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and arrested him.

<sup>51</sup> Then one of them who was with Jesus reached out his hand, drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place, for all who use the sword will die by the sword.

<sup>53</sup> Do you not think that I cannot ask my Father, and he will even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?

<sup>55</sup> In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out against me as a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me.

<sup>56</sup> But all this is happening so that the prophetic scriptures might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

<sup>57</sup> Those who took Jesus led him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

<sup>58</sup> But Peter followed him at a distance to the court of the high priest. He entered in, and sat with the officers, to see how it would end up.

<sup>59</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole council sought for a false witness against Jesus, so they might put him to death.

<sup>60</sup> They found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But afterward two came,

<sup>61</sup> and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'"

<sup>62</sup> The high priest stood up, and said to him, "Do you not answer anything? What is it which these testify against you?"

<sup>63</sup> But Jesus held his peace. The high priest said to him, "I command you by the living God, tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>64</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless I say to you, in the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

<sup>65</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy; what further need do we have for witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy.

<sup>67</sup> Then they spit in his face and beat him, and some slapped him with the palms of their hands,

<sup>69</sup> Now Peter was sitting outside in the court. A servant-girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean."

<sup>71</sup> When he had gone out to the porch, another servant-girl saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>73</sup> After a little while those who were standing by said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them for your accent gives you away."

<sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man." Immediately the cock crew.

<sup>75</sup> Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out, and wept bitterly.

DASV: Matthew 27

<sup>1</sup> When morning arrived, all the chief priests and the elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put him to death.

<sup>2</sup> They bound him, led him away, and delivered him over to Pilate, the governor.

<sup>3</sup> Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

<sup>4</sup> saying, "I have sinned for I betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? That's your problem."

<sup>5</sup> He threw the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and left. Then he went out and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is blood money."

<sup>9</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price was set by the children of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> and they used it to buy the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me."

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor. The governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "You said it."

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many accusations they are making against you?"

<sup>14</sup> But he gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor was astonished.

<sup>15</sup> Now at the feast it was the governor's custom to release to the crowd one prisoner, whom they picked.

<sup>17</sup> When they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Who do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"

<sup>18</sup> For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up.

<sup>19</sup> While he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him."

<sup>20</sup> Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> But the governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas."

<sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

They all said, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>23</sup> He said, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they cried out all the more, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but rather the uproar increased, he took water, and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous man. It's your responsibility."

<sup>25</sup> All the people answered and said, "His blood be on us, and on our children."

<sup>26</sup> Then he released to them Barabbas, but he scourged Jesus and delivered him to be crucified.

<sup>27</sup> Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole band around him.

<sup>29</sup> And they twisted together a crown of thorns and pushed it upon his head. They put a staff in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

<sup>30</sup> They spit on him, and took the staff and hit him on the head.

<sup>31</sup> After they had mocked him, they took the robe off him, and put on him his own clothes, and led him away to crucify him.

<sup>32</sup> As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon! They compelled him to go with them, so that he might carry his cross.

<sup>40</sup> and saying, "You claimed to destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

<sup>41</sup> So also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, <sup>42</sup> "He saved others, but he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel? Let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him.

<sup>43</sup> He trusted in God, let him deliver him now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God'."

<sup>44</sup> The robbers also that were crucified with him ridiculed him the same way.

<sup>45</sup> From noon until three there was darkness over all the land.

<sup>46</sup> About three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

<sup>47</sup> Some of them standing there, when they heard it, said, "This man calls for Elijah."

<sup>51</sup> At that moment, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom, the earth quaked; and the rocks split apart, <sup>52</sup> and the tombs were opened. Many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised.

<sup>53</sup> After his resurrection, they came out of the tombs, entered into the holy city and appeared to many.

<sup>54</sup> Now the centurion, and they who were with him guarding Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that happened, were terrified, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God."

<sup>55</sup> Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee, caring for him, were there watching from a distance.

<sup>56</sup> Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

<sup>57</sup> When evening came, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also Jesus' disciple.

<sup>58</sup> This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up.

<sup>59</sup> Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out of rock. Then he rolled a great stone over the door of the tomb, and left.

<sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting across from the sepulcher.

<sup>62</sup> Now on the next day, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together before Pilate, <sup>63</sup> saying, "Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, 'After three days I rise again'.

<sup>64</sup> Command therefore that the sepulcher be secured until the third day, otherwise his disciples may come and steal him away, and say to the people, 'He is risen from the dead,' and the last error will be worse than the first'."

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can."

<sup>66</sup> So they went, and made the sepulcher secure, sealing the stone, and put a guard there too.

DASV: Matthew 28

<sup>1</sup> After the Sabbath day, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to visit the sepulcher.

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

<sup>5</sup> The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are seeking Jesus, who was crucified.

<sup>6</sup> He is not here, for he is risen, just as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

<sup>7</sup> Go quickly, and tell his disciples. He is risen from the dead. He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him: yes, I have told you."

<sup>9</sup> Suddenly, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings." They came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Fear not! Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and they will see me there."

<sup>11</sup> Now while they were going, some of the guards went into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.

<sup>12</sup> After they were assembled with the elders, and had concocted a scheme, they gave a bribe to the soldiers,

<sup>14</sup> If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and keep you out of trouble."

<sup>15</sup> So they took the money, and did as they were instructed. This rumor was spread around among the Jews, and continues until this day.

<sup>16</sup> But the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain that Jesus had directed them to.

<sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they worshipped him, but some doubted.

<sup>18</sup> Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.

<sup>19</sup> Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>20</sup> teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Surely, I am with you always, even unto the end of the age."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Mark 1

<sup>5</sup> Now all the region of Judea, and all those of Jerusalem went out to him. They were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

<sup>6</sup> John was clothed with a camel's hair garment, and had a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey.

<sup>7</sup> He preached, saying, "There comes one after me who is mightier than I, the strap of his sandal I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.

<sup>8</sup> I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>9</sup> Now it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan River.

<sup>10</sup> While Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove.

<sup>11</sup> A voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son, I am well pleased with you."

<sup>13</sup> He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels ministered to him.

<sup>14</sup> Now after John was imprisoned, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God,

<sup>15</sup> saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe in the gospel."

<sup>16</sup> Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

<sup>20</sup> Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired hands, and followed him.

<sup>21</sup> They went to Capernaum. Immediately on the Sabbath he entered into the synagogue and taught.

<sup>22</sup> They were astonished at his teaching, because he taught them as one having authority, and not like the scribes.

<sup>23</sup> Now there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

<sup>24</sup> "What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Are you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

<sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, so they asked each other, "What is this?--a new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

<sup>29</sup> As soon as they came out of the synagogue, they went to the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

<sup>34</sup> He healed many that were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

<sup>35</sup> He got up early in the morning, before dawn. He left, and departed into a deserted place, and there prayed.

<sup>37</sup> When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is looking for you."

<sup>38</sup> He replied, "Let us move on to the next towns, that I may preach there too, for this is the reason I came."

<sup>39</sup> Then he went throughout all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

<sup>40</sup> Now a leper came to him, begging him, and kneeling down before him, saying to him, "If you will, you can make me clean."

<sup>44</sup> He said to him, "See that you do not say anything to anyone, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>45</sup> But he went out, and began to publicize it, and to spread the story around, so that Jesus could not openly enter into a city, but stayed out in deserted places. Yet they came to him from everywhere.

DASV: Mark 2

<sup>1</sup> When he returned to Capernaum after a few days, it was reported that he was at the house.

<sup>2</sup> So many were gathered together, that there was no more room, not even at the door, and he spoke the word to them.

<sup>3</sup> They came, bringing to him a man sick of the palsy, carried by four of them.

<sup>4</sup> When they could not get near him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof over where he was. When they had broken through, they let down the mat the paralyzed man was laying on.

<sup>6</sup> But there were certain scribes sitting there, reasoning in their hearts,

<sup>7</sup> "Why does this man talk like this? He is blaspheming! For who can forgive sins except God alone?"

<sup>8</sup> Immediately, Jesus, realizing in his spirit that they were thinking this, said to them, "Why do you think these things in your hearts?"

<sup>9</sup> Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your mat and walk'?

<sup>10</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he said to the paralyzed man,

<sup>12</sup> He stood, and immediately picked up the mat, and went out before them all. They were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this before."

<sup>13</sup> He went out again by the seaside, and the whole crowd came to him, and he taught them.

<sup>14</sup> Now as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." He got up and followed him.

<sup>15</sup> It came to pass, that as he was sitting at dinner in his house, many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many following him.

<sup>16</sup> Now the scribes who were Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup> Then when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "They who are healthy have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>18</sup> Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and said to him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as the bridegroom is with them, they do not fast.

<sup>20</sup> But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, in that day, they will fast.

<sup>22</sup> No one puts new wine into old wineskins, else the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be destroyed. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins."

<sup>23</sup> And it came to pass, as he was going through the grain fields on the Sabbath, his disciples began, as they went along, to pluck the ears of grain.

<sup>24</sup> The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

<sup>25</sup> He replied, "Did you not ever read what David did, when he was in need and hungry, he, and those who were with him,

<sup>26</sup> how he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the sacred bread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and he gave it also to those who were with him?"

<sup>27</sup> Then he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

DASV: Mark 3

- <sup>1</sup> Again Jesus entered the synagogue, and there was a man there who had a withered hand.
- <sup>2</sup> They watched him, to see whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him.
- <sup>3</sup> He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come here."
- <sup>4</sup> Then he said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm, to save life, or to kill?" But they were silent.
- <sup>5</sup> After he looked around at them in anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.
- <sup>6</sup> Immediately the Pharisees went out, plotting with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.
- <sup>7</sup> Then Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea, and a large crowd followed him from Galilee, Judea,
- <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem, Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon, having heard what great things he did, they came to him.
- <sup>9</sup> He spoke to his disciples and asked that a little boat be prepared for him because of the crowd, so that they might not crush him.
- <sup>10</sup> For he healed many, so that as many as had diseases pushed upon him in order that they might touch him.
- <sup>11</sup> Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him, and cried, "You are the Son of God."
- <sup>12</sup> But he strictly ordered them that they should not make him known.
- <sup>13</sup> Then he went up the mountain, and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him.
- <sup>14</sup> He appointed twelve, who he called apostles, so that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach,
- <sup>15</sup> and to have authority to cast out demons.
- <sup>16</sup> The twelve he appointed were: Simon, who he called Peter,
- <sup>17</sup> James, the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James; and he called them Boanerges, which means, Sons of Thunder;
- <sup>18</sup> Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot,
- <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. Then he went home.
- <sup>20</sup> The crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat.
- <sup>21</sup> Now when his family heard it, they wanted to get a hold of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

<sup>22</sup> Now the scribes that came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."

<sup>23</sup> So he called them to him, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?"

<sup>24</sup> If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

<sup>26</sup> If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come.

<sup>27</sup> No one can enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will rob his house.

<sup>28</sup> Truly I say to you, all sins will be forgiven for the children of men, even blasphemies they speak.

<sup>29</sup> But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, but is guilty of an eternal sin."

<sup>31</sup> Then his mother and his brothers came, and, standing outside, they sent for him, summoning him.

<sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are outside looking for you."

<sup>33</sup> He answered them, "Who is my mother and my brothers?"

<sup>34</sup> Looking around on those who were sitting around him, he said, "Look, my mother and my brothers!"

<sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God, that one is my brother, sister, and mother."

DASV: Mark 4

<sup>1</sup> Again Jesus began to teach by the seaside. Now there was gathered around him such a very great crowd, that he entered into a boat, and sat there while all the crowd was on the shore.

<sup>4</sup> It came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

<sup>5</sup> Other seed fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much dirt, and immediately it sprang up, because the dirt was not deep.

<sup>6</sup> When the sun rose, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it produced no fruit.

<sup>8</sup> Other seed fell on the good ground, and produced fruit, growing up and flourishing, and it brought forth thirty times, sixty times, and some a hundred times."

<sup>10</sup> When he was alone, those around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.

<sup>11</sup> He explained to them, "Unto you the mystery of the kingdom of God is given, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables.

<sup>12</sup> So that seeing, they may see, and not perceive, and hearing, they may hear, and not understand; so that they might turn and be forgiven."

<sup>13</sup> He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables?"

<sup>15</sup> These are the ones on the path, where the word is sown. Whenever they hear it immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them.

<sup>16</sup> These are the ones that are sown upon the rocky soil, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy.

<sup>17</sup> But they have no root in themselves, and so last only for a brief while. When tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they fall away.

<sup>18</sup> Others are the ones that are sown among the thorns. These are the ones who hear the word, <sup>19</sup> and the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things come in, and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

<sup>20</sup> Then there are the ones that were sown upon the good ground. They hear the word, and accept it, and produce fruit, some thirty times, and sixty times, and a hundred times."

<sup>22</sup> For there is nothing hid, that will not be revealed, neither was anything made secret, that will not eventually come to light.

<sup>24</sup> Then he said to them, "Pay attention to what you hear. For with what measure you use it will be measured to you; and even more will be given to you.

<sup>25</sup> For he that has, to him will be given. He that does not have, from him will be taken away even what he has."

<sup>27</sup> He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed springs up and grows, but he does not know how.

<sup>28</sup> The ground produces fruit by itself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.

<sup>29</sup> But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he uses the sickle, because the harvest is come."

<sup>30</sup> He said, "To what may we liken the kingdom of God? What parable shall we use to describe it?"

<sup>31</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, though it is the smallest of the garden seeds that are on the earth,

<sup>32</sup> yet when it is sown it grows up, and becomes greater than all the garden plants, and puts out great branches; so that even the birds of the heaven can lodge under its shadow."

<sup>33</sup> With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.

<sup>34</sup> Without a parable he did not speak to them. But privately he expounded all things to his own disciples.

<sup>35</sup> On that day, when evening was come, he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake."

<sup>36</sup> Leaving the crowd, they took him with them, just as he was, in the boat. There were other boats with him.

<sup>37</sup> Then there arose a great wind storm, and the waves beat on the boat, so much so that the boat was being swamped.

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. They woke him up, and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we perish?"

<sup>39</sup> Then he got up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet down, be still." The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

<sup>40</sup> Then he said to them, "Why are you fearful? Do you not yet have faith?"

<sup>41</sup> They were petrified, and said one to another, "Who is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

DASV: Mark 5

- <sup>1</sup> They came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes.
- <sup>2</sup> When he was getting out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him having come out of the tombs.
- <sup>3</sup> He lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him, not even with chains.
- <sup>4</sup> He often had been bound with shackles and chains, but he had ripped the chains apart, and broke the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to control him.
- <sup>5</sup> Every day and night, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones.
- <sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell down before him.
- <sup>7</sup> He cried out with a scream, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me."
- <sup>8</sup> For Jesus said to him, "Come out of this man you unclean spirit."
- <sup>9</sup> He asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion, for we are many."
- <sup>10</sup> He intensely begged Jesus not to send them out of the region.
- <sup>11</sup> Now there was on the mountain side a great herd of pigs feeding.
- <sup>12</sup> They begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may go into them."
- <sup>13</sup> So he granted them permission. The unclean spirits came out, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand drowned in the sea.
- <sup>14</sup> Then they that fed them fled, and reported it in the town and in that region. They came out to see what had happened.
- <sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus and saw the one who was possessed with demons sitting, clothed and in his right mind. It was he who had the legion, and they were afraid.
- <sup>16</sup> So the ones who had seen it told them what had happened to the one who was possessed by the demons, and about the pigs.
- <sup>17</sup> Then they urged him to leave their region.
- <sup>18</sup> As Jesus was getting into the boat, he who had been possessed by the demons begged to go with him.
- <sup>19</sup> But Jesus would not permit him to, but said to him, "Go to your house to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you."
- <sup>20</sup> So he went his way, and began to proclaim in the Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him, and all the people were amazed.
- <sup>21</sup> When Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him, and he was by the sea.
- <sup>22</sup> Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue named Jairus, and seeing Jesus, he fell at his feet,
- <sup>23</sup> urgently requesting him, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, that she may be healed and live."

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed him, and they pressed in all around him.

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a woman who had been bleeding for twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had suffered many things at the hands of many doctors. She had spent all that she had, and was not any better, but even grew worse.

<sup>27</sup> After hearing the things about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his garment.

<sup>28</sup> For she said, "If I can just touch his garments, I will be healed."

<sup>29</sup> Immediately her bleeding stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

<sup>30</sup> Immediately, Jesus, realizing that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you, and yet you still ask, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>32</sup> But he looked around to see who had done this.

<sup>33</sup> Then the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you whole. Go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

<sup>35</sup> While he was still speaking some people came from the synagogue ruler's house announcing, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any longer?"

<sup>38</sup> When they arrived at the house of the synagogue ruler, he saw all the commotion, with many weeping and loudly wailing.

<sup>39</sup> When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make such a commotion, and weep? The child is not dead, but only asleep."

<sup>40</sup> Then they scornfully laughed at him. But he, having put them all out, took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in to where the child was.

<sup>41</sup> Then taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha koum" which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, Arise."

<sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl got up, and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were absolutely amazed.

<sup>43</sup> Then he sternly ordered them that no one should know about this, after which he requested that they give her something to eat.

<sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath arrived, he began to teach in the synagogue. Many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that has been given to him?" and "What is the meaning of such mighty works done by his hands?"

<sup>3</sup> Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?" So they were offended by him.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house."

<sup>5</sup> He could not do any miracles there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

<sup>6</sup> He was amazed because of their unbelief. Then he went around the villages teaching.

<sup>7</sup> Now Jesus summoned the twelve, and began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority over the unclean spirits,

<sup>8</sup> and told them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff, no bread, wallet, or money in their belt, <sup>9</sup> but to put on only sandals, and not to wear two coats.

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place.

<sup>11</sup> Whatever place will not receive you or listen to you, as you leave, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

<sup>12</sup> So they went out, and preached that people should repent.

<sup>14</sup> Now king Herod heard about it, for Jesus' name had become well known. He said, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, which is the reason he does such miracles."

<sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent and imprisoned John. He bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her.

<sup>19</sup> So Herodias positioned herself against him, and desired to kill him. But she could not,

<sup>20</sup> because Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man. So he protected him. When Herod heard him, he was greatly puzzled; although he enjoyed listening to him.

<sup>21</sup> When an opportune time came, Herod, on his birthday, made a banquet for his court officials, the military officers, and the leaders of Galilee.

<sup>22</sup> When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those who ate with him. So the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want and I will give it to you."

<sup>23</sup> He swore to her, "Whatever you will ask me, I will give to you, up to half of my kingdom."

<sup>24</sup> Then she went out, and asked her mother, "What shall I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the Baptist."

<sup>25</sup> She immediately returned to the king, and said, "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

<sup>27</sup> Immediately the king sent out a soldier from his guard, and commanded him to bring John's head. So he went and beheaded John in the prison.

<sup>28</sup> He brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard about it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup> Then the apostles gathered themselves around Jesus; and they told him everything they had done and taught.

<sup>31</sup> Then he said to them, "Come apart into a desert place, and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they had no time even to eat.

<sup>32</sup> So they went away in the boat to a desert place apart.

<sup>33</sup> Many who saw them leaving, knew where they were going, and they ran there on foot from all the towns, arriving ahead of them.

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus came out and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> It was now late in the day. His disciples came to him, and said, "This place is a desert, and it is now late.

<sup>36</sup> Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

<sup>37</sup> But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred shillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat?"

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." When they found out, they said, "Five, and two fish."

<sup>39</sup> Then he ordered them that they should all sit down in groups on the green grass.

<sup>41</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed it, and brake the loaves, and he gave it to the disciples to set before the people. He also split up the two fish among all of them.

<sup>45</sup> Immediately he directed his disciples to get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side to Bethsaida, while he sent the crowd away.

<sup>46</sup> After saying good-bye to them, he went to the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> When evening was come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land.

<sup>48</sup> Watching them straining at the oars, for the wind was against them, about three in the morning, he came to them, walking on the sea. He was about to pass by them,

<sup>49</sup> when they saw him walking on the sea, thinking it was a ghost, so they cried out,

<sup>50</sup> for they all saw him, and were terrified. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

<sup>51</sup> Then he climbed into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. They were absolutely astonished,

<sup>52</sup> for they still did not understand about the loaves. Their hearts were hardened.

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to the land to Gennesaret, and moored the boat to the shore.

<sup>54</sup> When they got out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, <sup>55</sup> and ran around that whole region, and began to carry those who were sick on their beds, to where they heard he was.

<sup>56</sup> Wherever he entered, into villages, towns, or into the countryside, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and asked him that they might touch if only the border of his garment. As many as touched him were healed.

<sup>3</sup> (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat except they ritually wash their hands, holding to the tradition of the elders;

<sup>4</sup> when they come from the market, they do not eat unless they wash and they hold many other traditions such as the washings of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.)

<sup>5</sup> Then the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unclean hands?"

<sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to them, "You have a convenient way of rejecting the commandment of God, that you may keep your own tradition.

<sup>10</sup> For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' and, 'He who insults either father or mother, should be put to death.'

<sup>11</sup> but you say, 'If a person should say to his father or mother, 'Whatever you might have benefited from me is Corban, that is to say, a gift to God'

<sup>12</sup> you no longer allow him to do anything in supporting his father or his mother.

<sup>13</sup> You nullify the word of God by your tradition, that you have handed down and you do many things like that.

<sup>14</sup> Then he called to crowd again, and said to them, "Hear me all of you, and understand;

<sup>15</sup> there is nothing from outside a person, that going into him can defile him; but the things which come out of a person those are the things that defile him.

<sup>17</sup> When he entered the house away from the crowd, his disciples asked him about the parable.

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to them, "Are you also clueless? Do you not understand, that whatever goes into the man from outside, cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup> because it does not go into his heart, but into his belly, and goes out into the sewer?" He said this, making all foods clean.

<sup>20</sup> Then he said, "That which comes out of a person, is what defiles him.

<sup>21</sup> For from within a person's heart come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery,

<sup>24</sup> From there he got up and went away to the borders of Tyre and Sidon. Afterward he entered into a house, and did not want anyone to know it; but he could not be hid.

<sup>25</sup> But immediately a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, came and fell down at his feet.

<sup>26</sup> Now the woman was a Greek, of Syro-phoenician extraction. Then she pleaded with him to cast out the demon out of her daughter.

<sup>27</sup> He said to her, "Let the children first be filled, for it is not right to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs."

<sup>30</sup> She went home and found the child lying upon the bed, and the demon gone.

<sup>32</sup> Then they brought to him one who was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand upon him.

<sup>33</sup> Then he took him aside from the crowd privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue.

<sup>35</sup> His ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.

<sup>36</sup> He ordered them that they should not tell anyone. But the more he ordered them, the more they publicized it.

<sup>37</sup> They were totally astonished, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak."

DASV: Mark 8

<sup>1</sup> In those days, when there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. Jesus called his disciples and said to them, <sup>2</sup> "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me for three days now and have not had anything to eat.

<sup>3</sup> If I send them home fasting they will faint on the way for some of them have come from far away."

<sup>6</sup> He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks, he broke them, and gave it to his disciples, to set before them. Then they served it to the crowd.

<sup>7</sup> They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he commanded to serve these to them also.

<sup>8</sup> They ate, and were filled, and they picked up, seven baskets of leftover pieces.

<sup>9</sup> There were about four thousand people and he sent them away.

<sup>10</sup> Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

<sup>11</sup> Then the Pharisees came out, and began to question him, seeking a sign from heaven from him to test him.

<sup>12</sup> He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation."

<sup>13</sup> Then he left them, and again got into the boat and went to the other side.

<sup>14</sup> But they forgot to take bread, and there was none in the boat with them except a single loaf.

<sup>16</sup> They discussed it with each other, saying, "It is because we do not have any bread."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus perceiving it said to them, "Why do you argue, because you have no bread? Do you not yet see or understand? Are your hearts that hard?"

<sup>18</sup> Having eyes, you do not see? Having ears, you do not hear? Do you not remember?"

<sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of leftover pieces did you pick up?" They replied, "Twelve."

<sup>20</sup> "When I broke the seven among the four thousand, how many baskets full of leftover pieces did you pick up?" They said to him, "Seven."

<sup>21</sup> Then he said to them, "Do you still not understand?"

<sup>22</sup> Then they came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and urged him to touch him.

<sup>23</sup> He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village, and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him, "Do you see anything?"

<sup>26</sup> Then Jesus sent him away to his home, saying, "Do not even enter the village."

<sup>27</sup> Jesus and his disciples went out into the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

<sup>29</sup> Then he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Christ."

<sup>30</sup> He ordered them that they should not tell anyone about him.

<sup>31</sup> So he began to teach them, that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

<sup>32</sup> Now he spoke about this openly. Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him.

<sup>33</sup> But he turned around, and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan. For you are not thinking about the things of God, but about the things of men."

<sup>34</sup> He gathered the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any one would come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

<sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

<sup>36</sup> For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?

<sup>38</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

DASV: Mark 9

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God come with power."

<sup>2</sup> After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up into a high mountain apart by themselves. He was transfigured before them, <sup>3</sup> and his garments became dazzling white, so that no launderer on earth could bleach them any whiter.

<sup>4</sup> Then Elijah with Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three memorial shelters, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>6</sup> For he did not know what to say, because they were terrified.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, he ordered them that they should not tell anyone what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> So they kept it to themselves, questioning what the rising again from the dead meant.

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, "Elijah indeed will come first, and restore all things. But it is written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised?"

<sup>13</sup> But I tell you, that Elijah has come, and they did what they wanted to him just as it was written about him."

<sup>14</sup> When they came back to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes questioning them.

<sup>15</sup> Immediately when the whole crowd saw him, they were greatly amazed, and running to him, greeted him.

<sup>16</sup> He asked them, "What were you arguing with them about?"

<sup>17</sup> One of the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son, who has a spirit that renders him unable to speak.

<sup>18</sup> Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and becomes stiff. I spoke to your disciples but they could not cast it out."

<sup>19</sup> He answered them, "O faithless generation, how long will I be with you? How long will I put up with you? Bring him to me."

<sup>20</sup> So they brought him to Jesus. When he saw him, immediately the spirit threw him into convulsions; he fell on the ground, and rolled around foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup> He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come on him?" He replied, "Since childhood.

<sup>22</sup> Often it has thrown him into the fire or into the water, trying to destroy him, but if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter into him no more."

<sup>26</sup> It shrieked, threw him into a convulsion, and came out. The boy looked like a corpse; so much so that some said, "He is dead."

<sup>27</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand, raised him up, and he got up.

<sup>28</sup> After he entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

<sup>29</sup> He said to them, "This kind comes only by prayer."

<sup>31</sup> For he taught his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him, and after three days he will rise again."

<sup>32</sup> But they did not understand what he was saying, and were afraid to ask him about it.

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Capernaum. When he was in the house he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?"

<sup>34</sup> But they were silent, for on the way they had been arguing over, who was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> He sat down, and called the twelve; and said to them, "If any one would be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all."

<sup>36</sup> Then he took a little child, and set him in the middle of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them,

<sup>37</sup> "Whoever will receive one of these little children in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not only me, but he who sent me."

<sup>38</sup> John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we stopped him, because he did not follow us."

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, "Do not stop him for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able right after that speak evil of me.

<sup>40</sup> For he that is not against us is for us.

<sup>41</sup> For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink, because you are follower's of Christ, truly I say to you, he will never lose his reward.

<sup>42</sup> Whoever will cause one of these little ones that believe on me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea.

<sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire.

<sup>45</sup> If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell.

<sup>46</sup> [Some manuscripts have: "Where the worm does not die and the fire is not quenched." cf. 9:48]

<sup>47</sup> If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> where the worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.

<sup>50</sup> Salt is good, but if salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with each other."

DASV: Mark 10

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus left there and came to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan River and crowds came together to him. Again, as was his custom, he taught them.

<sup>4</sup> They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to send her away."

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote this commandment.

<sup>6</sup> But from the beginning of the creation, he made them male and female.

<sup>7</sup> For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, <sup>8</sup> and the two will become one flesh. So then they are no longer two, but one flesh.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her.

<sup>13</sup> Now people were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, and the disciples rebuked them.

<sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant, and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

<sup>15</sup> Truly I say to you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, there is no way he will enter it."

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going out on his way, a man ran up to him, and kneeled before him, asking him, "Good teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

<sup>18</sup> Jesus replied, "Why do you call me good? There is none good except God alone.

<sup>20</sup> He said to him, "Teacher, I have done all these things from my youth."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing. Go, sell whatever you have and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

<sup>22</sup> Because of this his face fell, and he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!"

<sup>24</sup> The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus repeated to them, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

<sup>27</sup> Jesus looking at them said, "With men it is impossible, but not for God, for all things are possible for God."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one that has left house, or brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive a hundred times now in this age, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life.

<sup>32</sup> When they got on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus went ahead of them, they were amazed, but those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were about to happen to him, <sup>33</sup> saying, "Look, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles.

<sup>34</sup> They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and will kill him. After three days, he will rise again."

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached him saying, "Teacher, we want you to do something for us whatever we ask you."

<sup>37</sup> They said to him, "Grant us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and the other at you left hand, in your glory."

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what your asking for. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

<sup>39</sup> They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism that I am baptized you will be baptized with,

<sup>42</sup> Then Jesus called them to him, and said, "You know that those who rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their leaders exercise authority over them.

<sup>43</sup> But it is not like that among you. Whoever would become great among you, will be your servant.

<sup>44</sup> Whoever wants to be first among you, must be servant of all.

<sup>45</sup> For the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

<sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me."

<sup>48</sup> Many rebuked him, telling him to be quiet, but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me."

<sup>49</sup> Then Jesus stood still, and said, "Call him." So they called to the blind man, "Cheer up, get up, he is asking for you."

<sup>50</sup> He, throwing away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus said, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "Rabbi, I want to receive my sight."

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way, your faith has made you whole." Immediately he received his sight, and followed him down the road.

DASV: Mark 11

- <sup>1</sup> When they drew near to Jerusalem, by Bethphage and Bethany, on the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
- <sup>2</sup> and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find a colt tied, that no one has ever ridden. Loose it, and bring it here.
- <sup>3</sup> If anyone says to you, 'Why do you do this?' say, 'The Lord has need of him', and immediately he will send him back here."
- <sup>4</sup> Then they went, and found a colt tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied it.
- <sup>5</sup> Then certain of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing untying the colt?"
- <sup>6</sup> They told them just what Jesus had said to them, and they let them go.
- <sup>7</sup> They brought the colt to Jesus, and put their garments on it, and he sat upon it.
- <sup>8</sup> Many spread their garments upon the road, and others used branches, which they had cut from the fields.
- <sup>9</sup> Now they who went ahead, and those who followed, cried, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
- <sup>10</sup> Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David. Hosanna in the highest."
- <sup>11</sup> Then he entered Jerusalem, and went to the temple. When he had looked around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the twelve since it was late in the day.
- <sup>12</sup> Now on the next day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.
- <sup>13</sup> Seeing a fig tree in the distance having leaves, he came, to see if by chance he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season of figs.
- <sup>14</sup> Then he said to it, "Let no one eat your fruit ever again." His disciples heard it.
- <sup>15</sup> When they came to Jerusalem, he entered the temple, and began to throw out those who bought and sold in the temple. He overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves.
- <sup>16</sup> He would not permit any one to carry merchandise through the temple.
- <sup>17</sup> Then he taught them, "Is it not written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have turned it into a den of robbers."
- <sup>18</sup> When the chief priests and the scribes heard it, they plotted how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because the whole crowd was enamored with his teaching.
- <sup>19</sup> When it was evening, he left the city.
- <sup>20</sup> In the morning, when they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots.
- <sup>21</sup> Peter recalled saying to him, "Rabbi, look, the fig tree which you cursed is withered away."

<sup>23</sup> Truly I say to you, whoever will say to this mountain, be pulled up and thrown into the sea, and will not doubt in his heart, but will believe, whatever he says will happen for him.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore I say to you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you will receive them, and you will have them.

<sup>25</sup> Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against any one; so that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive your sins."

<sup>26</sup> [Some manuscripts have: But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your sins.]

<sup>27</sup> They came again to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, scribes, and the elders came to him.

<sup>28</sup> Then they said to him, "By what authority do you do these things? or who gave you authority to do these things?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, "I will ask of you one question, answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>30</sup> The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from human origin? Answer me."

<sup>31</sup> They reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'why then did you not believe him?'

<sup>32</sup> But if we say, 'From human origin'" -- they feared the people, for everyone held John to be a prophet.

<sup>33</sup> Then they answered Jesus, "We do not know." Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

DASV: Mark 12

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus began speaking to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, and built a fence around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he rented it out to tenant farmers, and went into another country.

<sup>2</sup> At harvest he sent a servant to the tenants, so that he might collect the rent from the tenants from the crops of the vineyard.

<sup>5</sup> He sent another and they killed him. He sent many others, and they beat some and killed others.

<sup>6</sup> He had one left, a beloved son. He sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>7</sup> But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

<sup>8</sup> So they took him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants, and will rent out the vineyard to others.

<sup>10</sup> Have you never read this scripture: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

<sup>11</sup> This was from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?'"

<sup>12</sup> Then they tried to arrest him; but they feared the crowd, for they realized that he spoke the parable against them. Then they left him and went away.

<sup>13</sup> Then some of the Pharisees and Herodians were sent to him, that they might trap him in what he said.

<sup>14</sup> When they arrived, they said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and do not show favoritism; for you do not regard the status of a person, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

<sup>15</sup> Shall we pay it or not?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

<sup>16</sup> So they brought it. He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They replied, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." They were absolutely amazed by him.

<sup>18</sup> Then the Sadducees came to him. They claim that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying,

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, "Is it not for this reason that you err, because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?

<sup>25</sup> For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are like the angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup> Now in regard to the dead, whether they are raised; have you never read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

<sup>27</sup> He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You have made a big mistake."

<sup>28</sup> Then one of the scribes came, and heard their group questioning, and realizing that he had answered them well, asked him, "What commandment is the most important of all?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God, the Lord is one:

<sup>30</sup> and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

<sup>31</sup> The second most important is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There are no other commandments greater than these."

<sup>32</sup> The scribe said to him, "It is true, Teacher, you have answered well, God is one; and there is none other but he,

<sup>33</sup> and to love him with all your heart, and with all your understanding, and with all your strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is much more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered insightfully, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." No one after that dared ask him any further questions.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus, as he taught in the temple, said, "How is it the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?

<sup>36</sup> David himself said by the Holy Spirit, 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet.'

<sup>38</sup> In his teaching Jesus said, "Beware of the scribes. They enjoy walking around in long robes, and to be respectfully greeted in the marketplaces,

<sup>41</sup> He sat down across from the offering box, and watched how the crowd put money into the offering box. Many who were rich put in much.

<sup>42</sup> Then a poor widow came and she put in two small coins totaling about a penny.

<sup>43</sup> Then he called his disciples, and said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all those who are putting into the offering box.

<sup>44</sup> For they all gave from their abundance; but she from her poverty put in everything she had, even what she had to live on."

DASV: Mark 13

<sup>2</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another. Everything will be thrown down."

<sup>3</sup> While he was sitting on the Mount of Olives overlooking the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him privately,

<sup>4</sup> "Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign indicating when these things are to take place?"

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Beware that no one misleads you.

<sup>6</sup> Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and will lead many astray.

<sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled. These things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

<sup>8</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines, yet these things are just the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>9</sup> But be careful for they will deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues you will be beaten, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them.

<sup>11</sup> When they bring you to court, and hand you over for trial, do not be anxious beforehand about what you will say. For it will be given you in that hour, what you will say. For it is not you who speaks, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

<sup>13</sup> You will be hated by everyone for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where he should not be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee into the mountains.

<sup>15</sup> Let the one who is on the housetop not go down, or enter his house, to take anything out.

<sup>19</sup> For in those days there will be tribulation, like there has never been before from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, or ever will be.

<sup>20</sup> Except the Lord had shortened those days, no one would be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he will shorten those days.

<sup>21</sup> Then if any one will say to you, 'Look, here is the Christ', or, 'Look, there he is', do not believe it.

<sup>22</sup> For there will arise false Christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the chosen.

<sup>24</sup> But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, <sup>25</sup> and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup> Then will they see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

<sup>27</sup> Then he will send out the angels, and will gather together his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the outer reaches of heaven.

<sup>29</sup> So too when you see these things coming to pass, you know that he is near, right at the door.

<sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

<sup>32</sup> But the exact day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, or the Son, but only the Father.

<sup>33</sup> Be careful, watch and pray. For you do not know when the time is.

<sup>34</sup> It is like when a man takes a trip to another country. He leaves his house, and gives authority to his servants, to each one his work, and commands also the doorkeeper to watch.

<sup>35</sup> Watch therefore, for you do not know when the lord of the house will return, whether at evening, midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the morning.

<sup>36</sup> Otherwise when he comes suddenly, he may find you sleeping.

DASV: Mark 14

<sup>1</sup> It was two days before the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and scribes sought how they might secretly arrest and kill him.

<sup>2</sup> For they said, "Not during the feast, so there will not be a riot among the people."

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he was eating, a woman came who had an alabaster jar of expensive perfume of pure nard. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head.

<sup>4</sup> But there were some who were indignant, saying, "What was the purpose of wasting this expensive perfume?"

<sup>5</sup> This perfume could have been sold for over three hundred silver coins, and given to the poor." They complained harshly about her.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone; why do you bother her? She has done a good work on me.

<sup>7</sup> The poor you always have with you, and whenever you want you can do them good. But me you do not always have.

<sup>8</sup> She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.

<sup>9</sup> Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel will be preached throughout the whole world, what this woman has done will be told in memory of her."

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, that he might hand him over to them.

<sup>11</sup> When they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. Then he started looking for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them.

<sup>12</sup> On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>13</sup> He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him.

<sup>14</sup> Wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, "Where is my guestroom, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'

<sup>15</sup> He will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make preparations there for us."

<sup>16</sup> The disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it as he had said. So they prepared the Passover there.

<sup>17</sup> When it was evening, he came with the twelve.

<sup>18</sup> As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, one of you eating with me will betray me."

<sup>19</sup> They were distressed, and said to him one by one, "Is it I?"

<sup>20</sup> He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, the one who dips with me in the dish.

<sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It is better for that man if he had never been born."

<sup>22</sup> As they were eating, he took bread, after he had blessed it, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take it. This is my body."

<sup>23</sup> He took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them. They all drank from it.

<sup>24</sup> Then he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

<sup>25</sup> Truly I say to you, I will not drink any more from the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will desert me, for it is written, 'I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'

<sup>28</sup> But, after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

<sup>29</sup> But Peter said to him, "Even if everyone will desert you, I will not."

<sup>30</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, that today, even this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>31</sup> But he emphatically insisted, "If I must die with you, I will never deny you." All of them said the same.

<sup>32</sup> And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray."

<sup>33</sup> Then he took with him Peter, James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled.

<sup>34</sup> He said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved even to death. Stay here and keep watch."

<sup>35</sup> He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

<sup>36</sup> He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. But not what I will, but what you want."

<sup>37</sup> Then he came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not stay awake for one hour?"

<sup>39</sup> Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words.

<sup>40</sup> Again he returned and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to tell him.

<sup>41</sup> He came the third time, and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come; look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

<sup>44</sup> Now he who betrayed him had given them a signal saying, "Whomever I kiss, it is he. Arrest him, and take him away under guard."

<sup>45</sup> As Judas approached, immediately he came to Jesus, and said, "Rabbi" and he kissed him.

<sup>49</sup> I was with you every day in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me, but this is done that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

<sup>50</sup> Then they all deserted him and fled.

<sup>51</sup> Now a young man followed him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth. They grabbed him,

<sup>53</sup> Then they led Jesus to the high priest. There all the chief priests, elders and scribes gathered.

<sup>54</sup> Peter had followed him at a distance, and even got into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, warming himself by the fire.

<sup>55</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin council sought evidence against Jesus to put him to death. But they found none.

<sup>56</sup> Many made false witness against him, but their testimony did not agree with one another.

<sup>58</sup> "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'"

<sup>60</sup> Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Do you not answer anything? What is this these testify against you?"

<sup>61</sup> But he remained quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, "I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."

<sup>63</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further evidence do we need?"

<sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him to death.

<sup>65</sup> Then some began to spit on him, and to blindfold him and to beat him, and to say to him, "Prophecy." Then the guards took him and beat him.

<sup>68</sup> But he denied, saying, "I do not know him or understand what you are saying." Next he went out into the porch, and the cock crew.

<sup>69</sup> Then the servant girl saw him again, and began saying to them that stood by, "This man is one of them."

<sup>71</sup> But he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man you are talking about."

<sup>72</sup> Immediately the cock crowed a second time. Then Peter called to mind the word, Jesus said to him, "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about it, he wept.

DASV: Mark 15

<sup>1</sup> Early in the morning the chief priests with the elders, scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin council, held a meeting. Then they bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

<sup>7</sup> There was one called Barabbas, jailed with them that had made insurrection with rebels who, during the revolt, had committed murder.

<sup>8</sup> The crowd went up and began to ask him to do as he usually did for them.

<sup>9</sup> Then Pilate asked them "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>10</sup> For he perceived that it was because of jealousy the chief priests had handed him over to him.

<sup>12</sup> Then Pilate again asked them, "What then shall I do with him you call the King of the Jews?"

<sup>14</sup> Then Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted out all the more, "Crucify him."

<sup>15</sup> So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to them, but when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him up to be crucified.

<sup>16</sup> The soldiers led him away into the governor's palace, the Praetorium, and they called together the whole battalion.

<sup>17</sup> Then they clothed him in a purple robe, and twisting a crown of thorns, they put it on him.

<sup>19</sup> They struck his head with a stick, and spat on him, and bowed their knees in homage to him.

<sup>20</sup> After they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe, and put his clothes back on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

<sup>21</sup> They forced one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, who had come from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, so that he could carry his cross.

<sup>23</sup> Then they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it.

<sup>24</sup> They crucified him. They split up his garments among them, casting lots for them to determine what each one should get.

<sup>28</sup> [Some manuscripts have: "and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "He was counted with the lawless ones."]

<sup>29</sup> Those who passed by insulted him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Aha! You who claimed to be able to destroy the temple, and build it in three days,

<sup>31</sup> Likewise also the chief priests mocked him with the scribes saying, "He saved others; but he cannot save himself.

<sup>32</sup> Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with him insulted him.

<sup>33</sup> Then, at noon, there was darkness over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

<sup>34</sup> At three Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

<sup>35</sup> Some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, "Look, he is calling for Elijah."

<sup>36</sup> One person ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Leave him alone, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down."

<sup>39</sup> When the centurion, who stood in front of him, saw how he died, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God."

<sup>40</sup> There were also women watching from a distance among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, Joses, and Salome;

<sup>41</sup> who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him. Many other women had come up to Jerusalem with him.

<sup>42</sup> When evening had come, it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a highly regarded council member, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God, came and boldly went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup> Then Pilate was surprised that he was dead already. Calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for a while.

<sup>45</sup> After he confirmed it from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

<sup>46</sup> Joseph bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock. Then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

<sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus' body was laid.

DASV: Mark 16

<sup>1</sup> When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Salome, bought spices, that they might go and anoint him.

<sup>2</sup> Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb at sunrise.

<sup>3</sup> Now they were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"

<sup>4</sup> Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back, for it was very large.

<sup>5</sup> Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were alarmed.

<sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are seeking Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He is risen, he is not here. Look, here is the place where they laid him!

<sup>7</sup> But go, tell his disciples and Peter, that he is going before you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you."

<sup>8</sup> Then they went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and terror had overcome them. They said nothing to any one, for they were afraid.

[Several earliest and best manuscripts do not have Mark 16:9-20]

<sup>9</sup> Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

<sup>10</sup> She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

<sup>11</sup> When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they could not believe it.

<sup>12</sup> After these things he appeared in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.

<sup>13</sup> They went back and told it to the rest of them. But they did not believe them either.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they sat at dinner. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.

<sup>16</sup> The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned.

<sup>17</sup> These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;

<sup>18</sup> they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

<sup>19</sup> So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.

<sup>20</sup> They went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirmed the word by the signs that accompanied it. Amen.]

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Luke 1

<sup>1</sup> Since many have attempted to compile a narrative concerning those events that have been fulfilled among us,
<sup>2</sup> just as they were delivered to us, by those who were from the beginning eyewitnesses and servants of the word, <sup>3</sup> it seemed good to me also, having traced all things accurately from the first, to write an orderly account to you, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> that you might know for certain the things about which you have been instructed.

<sup>5</sup> There was in the days of Herod, king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly order of Abijah. His wife, whose name was Elizabeth, was also a descendant of Aaron.

<sup>6</sup> They were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blamelessly.

<sup>7</sup> They had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well along in years.

<sup>8</sup> Now while Zechariah was serving in his priestly duties before God his priestly order was on duty.

<sup>9</sup> According to the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense.

<sup>10</sup> There was a whole crowd of the people praying outside at the hour when the incense was being burned.

<sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John.

<sup>14</sup> You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth.

<sup>15</sup> For he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must not drink wine or liquor; and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even while he is in his mother's womb.

<sup>17</sup> He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers back to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

<sup>19</sup> The angel replied, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news.

<sup>20</sup> But now you will be silent and unable to speak, until the day that these things happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at their appointed time."

<sup>21</sup> The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they were puzzled about why he stayed so long in the temple.

<sup>22</sup> When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized that he had seen a vision in the temple because he kept making gestures to them and remained speechless.

<sup>23</sup> When the days of his service were finished, he went home.

<sup>25</sup> "This is what the Lord has done to me in the days when he looked favorably on me to take away my disgrace before people."

<sup>26</sup> Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee, named Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, from the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

<sup>28</sup> The angel came to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored, the Lord is with you."

<sup>29</sup> But she was greatly troubled by his words, and pondered what this greeting might mean.

<sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

<sup>31</sup> Look, you will conceive in your womb, give birth to a son, and will call his name Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David.

<sup>33</sup> He will reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there will be no end."

<sup>35</sup> The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God.

<sup>36</sup> Now look, Elizabeth your relative also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month of the pregnancy of she who was once called barren.

<sup>38</sup> Mary said, "I am the servant of the Lord; be it done to me according to your word." Then the angel left her.

<sup>39</sup> After these days Mary got up and quickly went into the hill country, to a town in Judah,

<sup>42</sup> She exclaimed, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

<sup>43</sup> Why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

<sup>44</sup> For at the moment the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy.

"My soul magnifies the Lord,

<sup>47</sup> and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

<sup>48</sup> For he has looked favorably on the low estate of his servant.

From now on all generations will call me blessed.

<sup>49</sup> For the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

<sup>50</sup> His mercy extends from generation to generation to those who fear him.

<sup>51</sup> He has showed strength with his arm;

he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup> He has thrown down princes from their thrones, and has lifted up those of humble position.

<sup>53</sup> The hungry he has filled with good things;
and the rich he has sent away empty.

<sup>54</sup> He has helped Israel his servant,
remembering his mercy,

<sup>55</sup> just as he promised our forefathers to Abraham and his descendants forever."

<sup>56</sup> Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months, then went back home.

<sup>57</sup> Now when Elizabeth's time to give birth had come, she gave birth to a son.

<sup>58</sup> Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had shown his mercy to her,
and they rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup> On the eighth day, when they were going to circumcise the child, they wanted to call him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

<sup>62</sup> Then they signaled to his father, inquiring about what he wanted him to be called.

<sup>63</sup> He requested a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." They were all amazed.

<sup>64</sup> His mouth immediately was opened, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God.

<sup>65</sup> Fear came on all their neighbors and all this news spread throughout the hill country of Judea.

<sup>66</sup> All who heard about it took note of it in their hearts, asking, "What then will this child become?" For the hand of the Lord was with him.

<sup>68</sup> "Praise be the Lord, the God of Israel;

<sup>69</sup> for he has come to the aid and redeemed his people,

<sup>70</sup> he has raised up a horn of salvation for us

<sup>74</sup> and from the hand of all who hate us;

<sup>78</sup> that we being delivered from the hand of our enemies

<sup>82</sup> for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his paths;

<sup>83</sup> to give knowledge of salvation to his people

<sup>85</sup> because of the tender mercy of our God,

<sup>86</sup> by which the dawn will break upon us from on high,

DASV: Luke 2

<sup>1</sup> In those days there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the empire should be registered.

<sup>4</sup> Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the town of David, called Bethlehem, because he was a descendant of the house and family of David.

<sup>5</sup> He went to be registered with Mary, who was engaged to him, and was expecting a child.

<sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for her to deliver the baby.

<sup>7</sup> She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in strips of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

<sup>8</sup> Now in that same area there were shepherds staying in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks at night.

<sup>9</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

<sup>10</sup> The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for I am bringing you good news that will bring great joy to all the people.

<sup>11</sup> Today there is born to you in the town of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> This will be the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, and lying in a manger."

<sup>13</sup> Suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

<sup>14</sup> "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased."

<sup>15</sup> After the angels left them returning to heaven, the shepherds said one to another, "Let's go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

<sup>16</sup> So they hurried there and found Mary and Joseph, with the baby lying in the manger.

<sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they reported what they had been told about this child.

<sup>18</sup> All who heard it were amazed at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds.

<sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

<sup>21</sup> After eight days when he was circumcised, they named him Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup> When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, his parents brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord

<sup>23</sup> (just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male will be called holy to the Lord"),

<sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice according to what was prescribed in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."

<sup>25</sup> Now, there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the restoration of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him.

<sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.

<sup>27</sup> So he came directed by the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the baby Jesus, that they might do with him what was customary under the law,

<sup>29</sup> "Now allow your servant to depart, Lord,
according to your word, in peace;

<sup>30</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>31</sup> which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples;

<sup>32</sup> a light, for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel."

<sup>33</sup> His father and his mother were amazed at the things that were spoken about him.

<sup>34</sup> Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, "Indeed, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel; and for a sign that will be rejected, <sup>35</sup> so that true thoughts of many hearts may be revealed, and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

<sup>36</sup> There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, who was very old, having lived with a husband for seven years after her marriage.

<sup>37</sup> She had been a widow for eighty-four years. She never left the temple, worshipping there with prayer and fasting night and day.

<sup>38</sup> Coming up at that very hour she gave thanks to God, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> When his parents had completed everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup> The child grew, became strong, and was filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

<sup>42</sup> When he was twelve years old, they went up to the feast according to the custom.

<sup>43</sup> When the days of the feast were over, they were going home, but Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, and his parents did not realize it.

<sup>44</sup> They assumed that he was in the group traveling. After they went a day's journey, they searched for him among their relatives and friends.

<sup>45</sup> When they could not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.

<sup>46</sup> After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.

<sup>48</sup> When his parents saw him, they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been searching for you worried sick."

<sup>49</sup> He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"

<sup>50</sup> But his parents did not understand what he was saying to them.

<sup>51</sup> He went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject to them. His mother treasured up all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup> Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and people.

DASV: Luke 3

<sup>1</sup> Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod Antipas was tetrarch over Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region over Ituraea and Trachonitis and Lysanias was tetrarch over Abilene.

<sup>2</sup> During the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

<sup>3</sup> He went into all the region around the Jordan River, preaching the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>4</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,
"The voice of one crying out in the wilderness,
    'Prepare the way of the Lord,
        make his paths straight.'

<sup>5</sup> Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be brought low;
the crooked will become straight,
    the rough ways smooth;

<sup>6</sup> and all flesh will see the salvation of God."

<sup>7</sup> So John proclaimed to the crowds who came out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

<sup>8</sup> Bring forth fruits demonstrating your repentance, and do not even start to tell yourselves, 'Abraham is our father,' for I tell you, that God is able to raise up from these rocks children to Abraham.

<sup>9</sup> Even now the ax is laid at the root of the trees; so that every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down, and thrown into the fire."

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "He who has two coats, let him give to the one who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise."

<sup>12</sup> The tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

<sup>14</sup> Soldiers also asked him, "And what about us, what should we do?" He replied, "Do not extort money from anyone by violence, do not accuse anyone by false accusations; and be content with your wages."

<sup>15</sup> The people were filled with expectation, everyone was wondering in their hearts about John, whether he might be the Messiah [that is, Christ].

<sup>16</sup> John answered them all saying, "I baptize you with water; but one is coming who is mightier than I am, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

<sup>20</sup> Herod added this to them all, when he imprisoned John.

<sup>21</sup> Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, prayed while the heaven was opened.

<sup>22</sup> The Holy Spirit descended on him in physical form, like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; in you I am well pleased."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus himself began to teach when he was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph,

DASV: Luke 4

<sup>1</sup> Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, <sup>2</sup> where for forty days he was tempted of the devil. He did not eat one thing during those days and when they were over he was hungry.

<sup>3</sup> The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil led him up, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

<sup>6</sup> The devil said to him, "To you I will give all this authority and their glory; for it has been given to me; and I can give it to anyone I wish.

<sup>7</sup> If you will worship me, all this will be yours."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'"

<sup>9</sup> The devil led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here,

<sup>10</sup> for it is written, 'He will give his angels charge concerning you, to protect you,'

<sup>11</sup> and, 'with their hands they will bear you up, so that you do not dash your foot against a stone.'"

<sup>16</sup> He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. As was his custom he entered into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

<sup>17</sup> The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him and he unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

<sup>18</sup> "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed,

<sup>20</sup> He rolled up the scroll, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

<sup>21</sup> He began to tell them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your ears."

<sup>22</sup> Everyone spoke well of him and was astonished at the gracious words that came out of his mouth. They asked, "Is not this Joseph's son?"

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote this proverb to me, 'Physician, heal yourself,' saying, 'do here in your own hometown what we have heard that you did at Capernaum.'"

<sup>24</sup> He said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown.

<sup>25</sup> But I tell you the truth, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three and a half years, when there was a great famine over all the land;

<sup>27</sup> There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; yet none of them was cleansed, except Naaman the Syrian.

<sup>28</sup> When they heard these things all who were in the synagogue were furious.

<sup>29</sup> They got up, and threw him out of the town, and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might throw him off the cliff.

<sup>30</sup> But he passed through the middle of them and went on his way.

<sup>31</sup> He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee where he was teaching them on the Sabbath day.

<sup>33</sup> In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice,

<sup>34</sup> "Leave us alone! What do you want with us Jesus the Nazarene? Are you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus rebuked him, "Shut up, and come out of him." After the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him without hurting him.

<sup>40</sup> When the sun was setting, all those who had any of their family sick with any kind of disease brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> Demons also came out of many, crying out, and claiming, "You are the Son of God." Rebuking them, he did not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup> The next morning, he came out and went into a desert place. The crowds were searching for him, and came to him, and wanted to keep him from leaving.

<sup>43</sup> But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also because that is why I was sent."

DASV: Luke 5

<sup>1</sup> It came to pass, while Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, the crowd pressed in on him in order to hear the word of God.

<sup>2</sup> He saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them, and were washing their nets.

<sup>3</sup> He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the shore. He sat down and taught the crowd from the boat.

<sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

<sup>5</sup> Simon replied, "Master, we worked all night, and have caught nothing; yet if you say so I will let down the nets."

<sup>6</sup> After they had done it, they caught so many fish that their nets were breaking.

<sup>7</sup> They signaled to their partners in the other boat that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

<sup>8</sup> But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Leave me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

<sup>9</sup> For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken.

<sup>10</sup> So were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will catch men."

<sup>12</sup> While he was in one of the towns, a man full of leprosy came and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want, you can make me clean."

<sup>13</sup> So Jesus stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus charged him not to tell anyone and said "Go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>15</sup> But the news about him spread all the more and great crowds came together to hear, and to be healed of their diseases.

<sup>17</sup> On one of those days that he was teaching, there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting nearby, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal.

<sup>18</sup> Men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed. They attempted to bring him in and to lay him before Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> But not finding a way that they could bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof, and let him down through the tiles with his mat into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees began to raise questions, saying, "Who is this speaking blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus perceiving their objections, answered and said to them, "Why do you reason like this in your hearts?"

<sup>24</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he said to the person who was paralyzed, "I say to you, get up and take your mat, and go home."

<sup>25</sup> Immediately he stood up before them, picked up his mat, and went home, glorifying God.

<sup>26</sup> Astonishment took hold of everyone, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen amazing things today."

<sup>27</sup> After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at a tax booth, and said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>28</sup> He forsook all, got up and followed him.

<sup>29</sup> Then Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and of others who were sitting at dinner with them.

<sup>32</sup> I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Can you make the wedding guests fast, while the bridegroom is with them?"

<sup>35</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, then, in those days, they will fast."

<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece of a new garment and puts it on an old garment; otherwise not only will he have to tear the new one, but also the piece from the new will not match with the old cloth.

<sup>37</sup> No one puts new wine into old wineskins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be ruined.

<sup>2</sup> But certain of the Pharisees objected, "Why do you do that which it is not lawful to be done on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, "Have you never read what David and his companions did, when they were hungry?"

<sup>4</sup> He entered into the house of God, and took and ate the bread of the Presence, and also gave it to those who were with him, which it is not lawful to eat except by the priests alone?

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath, he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, with a deformed right hand.

<sup>7</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees watched Jesus, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find something to accuse him of.

<sup>8</sup> But he knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, "Get up and stand here in the middle." So he got up and stood there.

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm, to save a life, or to destroy it?"

<sup>10</sup> He looked around at them all, then he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." He did and his hand was restored.

<sup>11</sup> But they were filled with rage and plotted together with one another what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> In those days Jesus went off onto the mountain to pray; and he spent all night in prayer to God.

<sup>13</sup> When daybreak came, he called his disciples; and he chose twelve of them, whom he also called apostles:

<sup>14</sup> Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew,

<sup>15</sup> and Matthew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot, <sup>16</sup> and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

<sup>17</sup> He came down with them, and stood on a level place. There was a large crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases.

<sup>18</sup> These included some who were troubled with unclean spirits and they also were healed.

<sup>19</sup> All the crowd tried to touch him, for power came out of him, and healed them all.

<sup>20</sup> He lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said,

"Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> Blessed are you, when people hate you, and when they will exclude you, and mock you, and denounce your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for your reward is great in heaven; for this is the same thing their forefathers did to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your comfort already.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> Woe to you, when everyone speaks well of you, for in that same way their forefathers treated the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup> But I say to you who are listening, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you and pray for those who abuse you.

<sup>29</sup> To the one who strikes you on the one cheek offer also the other; and from one who would take away your cloak do not withhold your coat also.

<sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks from you; and if someone takes away your goods do not ask for them back.

<sup>31</sup> Do to others what you would have them do to you.

<sup>32</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit do you get? Even sinners love those who love them.

<sup>33</sup> If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit do you get? Even sinners do that.

<sup>34</sup> If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit do you get? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive payment in full.

<sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do them good. Lend, never expecting anything in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind toward the ungrateful and evil.

<sup>37</sup> Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

<sup>38</sup> Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will drop into your lap. For with what measure you use it will be measured to you back again."

<sup>39</sup> He also told them a parable, "Can the blind person lead another blind person? Will they not both fall into a pit?"

<sup>40</sup> The disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when fully trained will be like his teacher.

<sup>42</sup> Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out that speck that is in your eye, when you do not see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take out the beam from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

<sup>45</sup> The good person out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good. The evil person out of the evil treasure brings forth that which is evil; for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

<sup>47</sup> Everyone who comes to me, hears my words, and does them, I will show you what he is like.

<sup>48</sup> That person is like a man building a house, who dug deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock. When a flood came, the stream wash up against that house, but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

<sup>49</sup> But the one who hears, but does not do it, is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The stream washed up against it, immediately it caved in and was absolutely destroyed.

DASV: Luke 7

<sup>2</sup> A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death.

<sup>3</sup> When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and save his servant.

<sup>4</sup> When they came to Jesus, they earnestly appealed to him, saying, "It is worthy for you to do this for him, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our nation, and has even built our synagogue."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself; for I am not worthy that you should come under my roof.

<sup>7</sup> That is why I did not presume myself worthy to come to you; but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

<sup>8</sup> For I also am a man set under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard these things, he was amazed at him, and turned and said to the crowd that followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith anywhere in Israel."

<sup>10</sup> When they who were sent, returned to the house, they discovered the servant in good health.

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterwards Jesus went to a town called Nain; and his disciples and a great crowd went with him.

<sup>12</sup> Now when he approached the town gate, there was one who was dead being carried out. He was the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and many of the people of the town were with her.

<sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Do not grieve."

<sup>14</sup> He came close and touched the coffin; those carrying it stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise."

<sup>15</sup> He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. Jesus gave him to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us," and, "God has come to the aid of his people."

<sup>17</sup> This report about him spread through the whole of Judea, and all the surrounding region.

<sup>19</sup> John called to himself two of his disciples, and sent them to the Lord, asking, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we keep looking for someone else?"

<sup>20</sup> When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, asking, 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we keep looking for someone else?'"

<sup>21</sup> In that hour he cured many of diseases, plagues and evil spirits; and many who were blind he gave them sight.

<sup>22</sup> Then he answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

<sup>24</sup> When the messengers of John had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>25</sup> But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in nice clothes? Look, those who wear extravagant clothes, and live in luxury, are in kings' palaces.

<sup>26</sup> But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.

<sup>28</sup> I tell you, among those born of women there is none greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

<sup>29</sup> When all the people heard this, even the tax collectors, they acknowledged God's justice, because they had been baptized with the baptism of John.

<sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God, refusing to be baptized by John.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus continued, "To what then can I compare the people of this generation?

<sup>32</sup> They are like children that sit in the marketplace, calling to one another, saying, 'We played the flute for you, but you did not dance; we wailed, but you did not weep.'

<sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist came eating no bread or drinking no wine; and you claim, 'He has a demon.'

<sup>36</sup> One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, so he entered the Pharisee's house, and sat down for dinner.

<sup>37</sup> A woman was in the town, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting for dinner in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed ointment.

<sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he thought, "This man, if he were a prophet, would realize who and what type of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus answering said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." He replied, "Teacher, tell me."

<sup>41</sup> "A certain lender had two debtors, the one owed five hundred silver coins, and the other fifty.

<sup>42</sup> When they were unable to pay, he forgave both of them. Which of them therefore will love him more?"

<sup>43</sup> Simon answered, "I imagine the one whom he forgave the most." Jesus replied, "You have judged correctly."

<sup>44</sup> Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered into your house, you gave me no water for my feet, but she has washed my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup> You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not stopped kissing my feet.

<sup>46</sup> You did not anoint my head with oil; but she has anointed my feet with perfume.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore I tell you, her sins, which were many, are forgiven; for she loved much. But to the one to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

<sup>48</sup> He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>49</sup> They who sat at dinner with him began to think to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

<sup>50</sup> Then Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

DASV: Luke 8

<sup>1</sup> Soon afterwards, Jesus went through the towns and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him,

<sup>2</sup> and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had been cast out;

<sup>3</sup> and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward; and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to them from their own resources.

<sup>4</sup> When a great multitude came together, and those from every town came to him, he spoke in a parable:

<sup>5</sup> "The sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell on the path; and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it.

<sup>6</sup> Other seed fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.

<sup>8</sup> Other seed fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced fruit a hundredfold." As he said these things, he called out, "The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup> He replied, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God; but to the others I use parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

<sup>11</sup> Now the meaning of the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

<sup>12</sup> Those on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup> Those on the rock are those who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; but they have no root. They believe for a while, yet in time of temptation fall away.

<sup>14</sup> The seed which fell among the thorns are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life, and do not produce mature fruit.

<sup>16</sup> No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a bowl, or puts it under a bed; but rather it is put on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.

<sup>17</sup> For nothing is hid, that will not be revealed; and nothing is secret, that will not be known and come to light.

<sup>18</sup> Pay attention then how you hear; for whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has. "

<sup>19</sup> Jesus' mother and brothers came to him, and they could not get near him because of the crowd.

<sup>20</sup> He was told, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

<sup>22</sup> One day, he got into a boat with his disciples, and he told them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they set out.

<sup>23</sup> But as they sailed he fell asleep. Now a windstorm came up on the lake; and the boat was filling up with water, and they were in danger.

<sup>24</sup> They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Master, master, we are going to die." He woke and rebuked the wind and the raging of the waves. They ceased and there was a calm.

<sup>25</sup> He asked them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they were amazed, saying to one another, "Who is this, that he even commands the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

<sup>27</sup> When he climbed out on shore, he was met by a certain man from the town, who had demons; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and did not stay in any house, but lived in the tombs.

<sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice shouted, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torture me."

<sup>29</sup> For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him, and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and shackles; but he broke the restraints and was driven by the demon into deserted places.

<sup>30</sup> Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "Legion;" for many demons had entered into him.

<sup>31</sup> They begged him that he would not order them to go out into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup> Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain. They begged Jesus that he would allow them to enter into the pigs. So he gave them permission.

<sup>33</sup> The demons came out of the man, and entered into the pigs. The herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.

<sup>34</sup> Now when those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and reported it in the town and country.

<sup>35</sup> They came out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man, from whom the demons had gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus and they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> They who saw it told them how he who was possessed by the demons had been healed.

<sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked him to leave them, for they were seized with great fear. So he entered into a boat, and returned.

<sup>38</sup> But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,

<sup>39</sup> "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." So he went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole town what great things Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup> Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him.

<sup>41</sup> A man named Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as he went the crowds crushed in on him.

<sup>43</sup> A woman who had hemorrhaged blood for twelve years, and who had spent all that she had on physicians, but no one could heal her,

<sup>45</sup> Jesus said, "Who touched me?" After everyone denied it, Peter and those who were with him, said, "Master, the crowd is surrounding you and pressing in on you."

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I perceived that power has gone out of me."

<sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she could not hide, she came trembling, fell down before him declaring in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been healed immediately.

<sup>48</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you whole. Go in peace."

<sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, informing him, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher anymore."

<sup>51</sup> When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter in with him, except Peter, John and James, and the girl's father and mother.

<sup>52</sup> All were weeping and wailing for her. But he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead, but asleep."

<sup>53</sup> Then they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He told them to give her something to eat.

<sup>56</sup> Her parents were amazed, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

DASV: Luke 9

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases,

<sup>2</sup> and sent them out to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

<sup>3</sup> He instructed them, "Take nothing for your journey, no staff, no wallet, no bread, no money; not even a change of clothes.

<sup>5</sup> Whoever does not welcome you, when you depart from that town, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

<sup>7</sup> Now Herod Antipas the tetrarch heard of all that was done, and he was very perplexed, because some people were saying that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup> and some, that Elijah had appeared; and others, that one of the old prophets had risen.

<sup>9</sup> Herod said, "John I beheaded; but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" So he attempted to see him.

<sup>10</sup> When they returned, the apostles told him what they had done. He took them and withdrew to a town called Bethsaida.

<sup>11</sup> But the crowds found out about it and followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and those who were in need of healing he cured.

<sup>12</sup> When the day began to come to an end the twelve came, and asked him, "Send the crowd away, that they may go into the villages and surrounding country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place."

<sup>13</sup> But he said to them, "Give them something to eat." But they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."

<sup>14</sup> There were about 5,000 men. He said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each."

<sup>15</sup> So they did it and had them all sit down.

<sup>16</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

<sup>17</sup> They ate, and were all filled. There were picked up twelve baskets from what was left over from the broken pieces.

<sup>18</sup> One day, as Jesus was praying alone, and only the disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

<sup>20</sup> Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Messiah of God."

<sup>21</sup> But he charged them, and commanded them not to tell this to anyone,

<sup>22</sup> saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

<sup>23</sup> He said to them all, "If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

<sup>24</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

<sup>25</sup> For what benefit is there for a person, if they gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit themselves?

<sup>26</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father and the holy angels.

<sup>27</sup> But I tell you the truth, there are some standing here, who will not taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God."

<sup>28</sup> About eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter, John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray.

<sup>29</sup> As he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

<sup>30</sup> Then two men, Moses and Elijah, were talking with him.

<sup>31</sup> They appeared with glory, and spoke about his departure which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood there with him.

<sup>33</sup> As the men were preparing to leave, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three memorial shelters; one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he was saying.

<sup>34</sup> While he said these things, a cloud came, and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

<sup>35</sup> A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, my chosen, hear him."

<sup>36</sup> After the voice spoke, Jesus was found alone. They kept quiet, and told no one in those days about any of the things they had seen.

<sup>37</sup> On the next day, after they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

<sup>38</sup> A man from the crowd shouted out, "Teacher, I beg you to look on my son; for he is my only child.

<sup>39</sup> A spirit seizes him, and suddenly he will shriek. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It hardly ever leaves him alone but continually hurts him.

<sup>41</sup> Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long will I be with you, and bear with you? Bring your son here."

<sup>42</sup> While he was still coming, the demon threw him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

<sup>43</sup> They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at everything which he did, he said to his disciples,

<sup>44</sup> "Let these words sink into your ears. The Son of man will be betrayed into the hands of men."

<sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this saying, for its meaning was concealed from them, so that they could not understand it. But they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

<sup>46</sup> There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest.

<sup>47</sup> But when Jesus became aware of what they were thinking in their hearts, he took a little child, and set him by his side.

<sup>48</sup> Then he said to them, "Whoever will receive this little child in my name receives me and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all, that one is the greatest."

<sup>49</sup> John said, "Master, we saw one casting out demons in your name; and we stopped him, because he did not follow us."

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him for he that is not against you is for you."

<sup>51</sup> When the days drew near that he should be taken up, he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers ahead of him. They went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for him, <sup>53</sup> but they did not receive him, because he was set on going to Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup> When his disciples James and John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven and consume them?"

<sup>55</sup> But he turned and rebuked them.

<sup>58</sup> Jesus replied, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

<sup>59</sup> He said to another person, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

<sup>60</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

<sup>61</sup> Another also said, "I will follow you, Lord; but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my home."

<sup>62</sup> But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

DASV: Luke 10

<sup>1</sup> After this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead into every town and place, where he himself was about to go.

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest, that he send out laborers into his harvest.

<sup>6</sup> If a person of peace lives there, your peace will rest upon them, but if not, it will return to you.

<sup>7</sup> Remain in that same house, eating and drinking whatever they give, for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not move from house to house.

<sup>8</sup> Into whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat whatever is set before you.

<sup>9</sup> Heal the sick there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

<sup>10</sup> But into whatever town you will enter and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

<sup>11</sup> 'Even the dust from your town, that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you; nevertheless, know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'

<sup>12</sup> I say to you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that town.

<sup>13</sup> Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>14</sup> But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you.

<sup>15</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades.

<sup>16</sup> He who listens to you listens to me; and he who rejects you rejects me; and he that rejects me rejects him who sent me."

<sup>19</sup> I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.

<sup>20</sup> Nevertheless do not rejoice about this, that the spirits are submit to you; but rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

<sup>21</sup> In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants, yes, Father; for so was your gracious will.

<sup>22</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son wishes to reveal him."

<sup>23</sup> Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see the things that you see.

<sup>24</sup> For I tell to you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things that you see, but never saw them; and to hear the things that you hear, but have never heard them."

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind;' and 'love your neighbor as yourself.'"

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and you shall live."

<sup>29</sup> But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

<sup>30</sup> Jesus replied, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was attacked by robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and then took off, leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup> Now by chance a priest was going down that way and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup> Similarly a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup> But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came by where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion.

<sup>34</sup> He went up to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring olive oil and wine on them; and he set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

<sup>35</sup> On the next day he took out two silver coins, and gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever you spend more, when I come back again, I will repay you.'

<sup>36</sup> Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

<sup>37</sup> He said, "He who had mercy on him." Jesus said to him, "Go, and do the same."

<sup>38</sup> Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.

<sup>39</sup> She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at the Lord's feet, and listened to his word.

<sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted by the dinner preparations; and she came up to him, and complained, "Lord, do you not care that my sister left me to serve all by myself? Now tell her to help me."

<sup>42</sup> but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the better part, which will never be taken away from her."

DASV: Luke 11

<sup>1</sup> Jesus was praying in a certain place. After he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come.

<sup>4</sup> Forgive us our sins; for we also forgive everyone who has sinned against us. And do not lead us into temptation."

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and he goes to him at midnight, and says to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread;

<sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine who was taking a trip has come to visit me, and I have nothing to set before him.'

<sup>7</sup> Then the person within the house will answer, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot rise and give it to you.'

<sup>8</sup> I say to you, though he will not get up and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

<sup>9</sup> I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

<sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives; and everyone who seeks finds; and to everyone who knocks it will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> Which of you fathers if his son asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent?

<sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion?

<sup>13</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

<sup>14</sup> Now Jesus was casting out a demon that was causing a person to be mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man began to speak; and the crowd was amazed.

<sup>17</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be destroyed; and a divided house falls.

<sup>18</sup> If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I ask you this because you claim that I cast out demons by Beelzebub.

<sup>19</sup> But if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

<sup>20</sup> But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you.

<sup>22</sup> But when someone stronger than he attacks him, and overcomes him, he strips him of his armor that he trusted in, and splits up his spoils.

<sup>23</sup> He who is not with me is against me; and he who does not gather with me scatters.

<sup>24</sup> The unclean spirit when it has gone out of the person, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and finding none, it says, 'I will go back to my house that I came out of.'

<sup>26</sup> Then it goes, and takes with it seven other spirits more evil than itself; and they enter and dwell there. Now the last state of that person is worse than the first."

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus said these things, a certain woman from the crowd shouted out to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you."

<sup>29</sup> When the crowds were gathering to him, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation, that seeks after a sign; but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

<sup>30</sup> For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.

<sup>31</sup> The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment against the people of this generation, and will condemn them because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and now someone greater than Solomon is here.

<sup>32</sup> The people of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment against this generation, and will condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and now someone greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>33</sup> No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on the stand, that those who enter in may see the light.

<sup>34</sup> The lamp of your body is your eye. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light; but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore make sure that the light that is in you is not darkness.

<sup>36</sup> If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part in the dark, it will be totally full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light.

<sup>37</sup> Now as Jesus spoke, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and reclined at the table.

<sup>38</sup> When the Pharisee saw it, he was amazed that he did not first wash up before dinner.

<sup>39</sup> The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and the plate; but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

<sup>40</sup> You foolish ones, did not the one who made the outside also make the inside?

<sup>41</sup> But give donations to the poor from that which is within you; and all things will be clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint, rue and every little herb, but neglect justice and the love of God; but these you ought to have done, and not left the other undone.

<sup>43</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the honored greetings in the marketplaces.

<sup>44</sup> Woe to you! For you are like the unmarked graves that people walk over without even realizing it.

<sup>46</sup> But he said, "Woe to you scribes also! For you load people with burdens difficult to be carried, yet you yourselves never touch the burden with even one of your fingers.

<sup>47</sup> Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, whom your forefathers killed.

<sup>48</sup> So you are witnesses and give consent to the works of your forefathers because they killed them, and now you build their tombs.

<sup>49</sup> Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute.'

<sup>50</sup> Therefore the blood of all the prophets, which have been shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was murdered between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation.

<sup>52</sup> Woe to you scribes! For you take away the key of knowledge yet you do not enter in yourselves, and yet you hinder those who are trying to enter."

<sup>53</sup> When he went out of there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to strongly oppose him, and to cross-examine him about many things, <sup>54</sup> trying to trap him with anything coming out of his mouth.

DASV: Luke 12

<sup>1</sup> In the meantime, when a crowd of many thousands gathered together, so that they trampled on one another, Jesus began to say first to his disciples, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is their hypocrisy.

<sup>2</sup> For there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed; and hid, that will not be known.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light; and what you have secretly spoken behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.

<sup>4</sup> I tell you my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but after that have nothing more that they can do.

<sup>5</sup> But I will warn you about the one whom you should fear: fear him, who after killing has the power to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear him.

<sup>7</sup> But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, you are more valuable than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup> I say to you, Everyone who confesses me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God.

<sup>9</sup> But the one who denies me before people will be denied before the angels of God.

<sup>10</sup> Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit it will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> When they bring you before the synagogues, rulers and authorities, do not be anxious about how or what you will answer, or what you will say,

<sup>12</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you should say."

<sup>13</sup> Someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me."

<sup>14</sup> But he replied, "Mister, who made me a judge or an arbitrator between you?"

<sup>15</sup> He told them, "Take care, and keep yourselves from all covetousness, for a man's life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesses."

<sup>16</sup> Then he told them a parable, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man produced an abundant harvest.

<sup>17</sup> He thought to himself, 'What should I do, because I have no where to put my crops?'

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, 'This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones; and there I will put all my grain and my goods.

<sup>19</sup> Then I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods stored up for many years; take it easy, eat, drink, and be merry."

<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you. Then who will get all the things you have prepared for yourself?'

<sup>21</sup> So it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, "That is why I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or for your body, what you will wear.

<sup>23</sup> For life is more than the food, and the body more than the clothes.

<sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens, they do not sow or reap, they have no storerooms or barns; and yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds!

<sup>26</sup> If then you are not able to do such a little thing as that, why are you so worried about the rest?

<sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow. They do not toil or spin clothing; yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

<sup>28</sup> But if God so clothes the grass in the field, which is here today and tomorrow thrown into the fire; how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith?

<sup>29</sup> Do not keep struggling for what you will eat, and what you will drink. Do not keep worrying about such things.

<sup>30</sup> For after all these things the nations of the world pursue, but your Father knows that you have need of these things.

<sup>31</sup> Yet seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you as well.

<sup>32</sup> Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

<sup>33</sup> Sell what you have, and give it to the poor. Make for yourselves purses which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that never fails, where no thief can approach or moth destroy.

<sup>36</sup> Be like those looking for their master to return from a wedding feast; so that, when he comes and knocks, they may instantly open the door for him.

<sup>37</sup> Blessed are those servants whom the master when he comes will find them watching. Truly I tell you, that he will gird himself, and make them sit down to dinner, and then he will come and serve them.

<sup>38</sup> If he comes in the second or third watch of the night, and finds them so prepared, blessed are those servants.

<sup>39</sup> But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have allowed his house to be broken into.

<sup>42</sup> The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their allowance of food at the right time?"

<sup>43</sup> Blessed is that servant, whom his master will find so working when he returns.

<sup>44</sup> Truly I tell to you, that he will put him in charge of all that he has.

<sup>45</sup> But if that servant thinks to himself, 'My master is delaying his return; and begins to beat the other male and female servants, and to eat, drink and get drunk;

<sup>46</sup> the master of that servant will come in a day when he does not expect it, and in an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and assign his place with the unfaithful.

<sup>47</sup> That servant, who knows his master's will, and does not prepare or do what he wanted, will be beaten severely.

<sup>48</sup> But the one who does not know, and did things worthy of punishment, will be beaten less severely. To whomever much is given, much will be required; and to whom much is committed, more will be asked of them.

<sup>49</sup> I came to set the earth on fire; and how I wish it were already burning?

<sup>50</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and I am stressed until it is accomplished!

<sup>51</sup> Do you think that I am come to bring peace on the earth? I tell you, no; but rather division.

<sup>52</sup> For from now on there will be in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

<sup>53</sup> They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

<sup>54</sup> Then Jesus also said to the crowd, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'Here comes the rain;' and it does.

<sup>55</sup> When you see a south wind blowing, you say, 'It will be scorching hot;' and it is.

<sup>56</sup> You hypocrites, you claim to know how to interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that you do not know how to interpret this present time?

<sup>58</sup> So when you are going with your accuser before the court magistrate, on the way, try to settle it with him; or he may drag you before the judge, and the judge will deliver you to the officer, and the officer will throw you into prison.

<sup>59</sup> I say to you, there is no way you will come out of there, until you have paid every last penny."

DASV: Luke 13

<sup>1</sup> Now there were some present on that occasion who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus responded, "Do you think that these Galileans were sinners more than all the other Galileans, because they have suffered these things?"

<sup>3</sup> I tell you, no, but, except you repent, you will all perish like they did.

<sup>4</sup> Or what about those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all those who were living in Jerusalem?"

<sup>6</sup> Then he told this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.

<sup>7</sup> He told the gardener, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit from this fig tree, and have found none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?'

<sup>8</sup> But the gardener replied, 'Lord, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it,

<sup>9</sup> then if it bears fruit next year, great; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.

<sup>11</sup> There was a woman who had a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and unable to straighten up.

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your disability."

<sup>13</sup> Then he laid his hands on her and immediately she was straightened up, and praised God.

<sup>14</sup> But the ruler of the synagogue, moved with rage because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, told the crowd, "There are six days in which people ought to work. Come on those days to be healed, but not on the Sabbath day."

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord replied, "You hypocrites, does not each one of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead him out to get water?"

<sup>16</sup> Should not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound these eighteen years, have been set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>17</sup> When he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, but the whole crowd rejoiced at all the wonderful things he did.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?"

<sup>19</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a person took, and planted in his garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven nested in its branches."

<sup>20</sup> Again he said, "To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?"

<sup>21</sup> It is like yeast, which a woman took and mixed in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

<sup>22</sup> Then he went on his way through towns and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" He replied, <sup>24</sup> "Try hard to enter in by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter, but will not be able.

<sup>25</sup> Once the master of the house gets up, and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open up for us;' but he will reply to you, 'I do not know where you come from.'

<sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'

<sup>27</sup> Then he will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from; get away from me, all you evildoers.'

<sup>28</sup> There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves will be thrown out.

<sup>29</sup> They will come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and will sit at the banquet in the kingdom of God.

<sup>30</sup> But truly, some who are last will be first, and those who are first will be last."

<sup>32</sup> Then he said to them, "Go tell that fox, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and the third day I will finish.

<sup>33</sup> Nevertheless I must go on my way today, tomorrow and the next day, for it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.

<sup>34</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to you! How often I would have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not!

<sup>35</sup> Look, your house is abandoned, and I say to you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

DASV: Luke 14

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread. They were watching him closely.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus spoke to the scribes and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?"

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, "Which of you who has a child or an ox that has fallen into a well, will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

<sup>7</sup> He noticed how those who were invited to dinner chose the places of honor. He told them a parable.

<sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit in the place of honor or perhaps someone invited was more honorable than you;

<sup>9</sup> then he who invited you will come and say to you, 'Give this person your place.' Then disgraced you will take the lowest place.

<sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place; that the host may come and say to you, 'Friend, come up to a higher place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who are seated at the dinner with you.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a lunch or supper, do not call your friends, or your brothers, or your relatives, or rich neighbors, in case they invite you back to repay you.

<sup>14</sup> Then you will be blessed; because they have nothing to repay you with, then you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous.

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who sat at dinner with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is the one who will eat bread in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup> He sent his servant out at dinner time to announce to the guests, 'Come, for everything is ready.'

<sup>18</sup> But they all began making excuses. The first said to him, 'I just bought a field, and I need to go out and see it. Please excuse me.'

<sup>19</sup> Another said, 'I just bought five yoke of oxen, and I need to try them out. Please excuse me.'

<sup>21</sup> So the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house got angry said to his servant, "Go quickly into the streets and lanes of the town, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind and lame."

<sup>23</sup> The lord said to the servant, "Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled."

<sup>24</sup> For I tell you, that none of those people who were originally invited will taste of my banquet."

<sup>25</sup> Now there were large crowds traveling with him so he turned, and said to them,

<sup>26</sup> "If any one comes to me, and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, even his own life too, he cannot be my disciple."

<sup>27</sup> Whoever does not carry his cross, and follow me, cannot be my disciple."

<sup>28</sup> For which of you, wanting to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has the wherewithal to complete it?

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will begin to laugh at him,

<sup>31</sup> Or what king, as he goes to make war with another king, will not first sit down and determine whether he is able with ten thousand to engage one who attacks him with twenty thousand?

<sup>32</sup> If he cannot, while the other is still a distance away, he will send an ambassador, and ask for conditions of peace.

<sup>33</sup> Similarly, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.

<sup>34</sup> Salt is good; but if salt has lost its flavor, how is it be made salty again?

<sup>35</sup> It is worthless suited neither for the land or for the manure pile but to be thrown out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

DASV: Luke 15

- <sup>1</sup> Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near him to hear him.
- <sup>2</sup> Both the Pharisees and the scribes complained, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."
- <sup>3</sup> Then Jesus spoke this parable to them,
- <sup>4</sup> "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it?
- <sup>5</sup> When he finds it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
- <sup>6</sup> Then when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.'
- <sup>7</sup> I say to you, in that same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people, who have no need of repentance.
- <sup>8</sup> Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and carefully search until she finds it?
- <sup>9</sup> Then when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost.'
- <sup>10</sup> Even so, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."
- <sup>11</sup> Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons.
- <sup>12</sup> The younger said to his father, 'Father, give me the part of the estate that belongs to me.'" So he divided his assets between them.
- <sup>13</sup> A few days later, the younger son gathered all his belongings together and left on his journey into a distant country. There he squandered his money on wild living.
- <sup>14</sup> When he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country; and he began to suffer need.
- <sup>15</sup> So he went and worked for one of the citizens of that country who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.
- <sup>16</sup> He often wanted to eat the pods that the pigs were eating but no one gave him a thing.
- <sup>17</sup> Finally he came to his senses saying, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger!
- <sup>18</sup> I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.
- <sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Let me be as one of your hired servants.'"
- <sup>20</sup> Then he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet some way off, his father saw him, and was filled with compassion, ran, hugged and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

<sup>24</sup> For this my son who was dead is alive again. He was lost and now is found.' So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup> Now his elder son was in the field and when he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.

<sup>26</sup> So he called to one of the servants, and asked what was going on.

<sup>27</sup> He replied, 'Your brother has returned and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he is celebrating his return safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> But he was angry, and would not go in. His father came out, and urged him.

<sup>29</sup> But the elder son answered his father, 'Look, for all these years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your wishes; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might party with my friends.'

<sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours returned, who has squandered your resources on prostitutes, you kill the fatted calf for him.'

<sup>31</sup> The father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.'

<sup>32</sup> But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this brother of yours was dead, and now is alive again; he was lost and now is found.'"

DASV: Luke 16

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man, who had a manager who was accused of wasting his resources.

<sup>2</sup> He called the manager in, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship; because you can no longer be my manager.'

<sup>3</sup> The manager thought to himself, 'What will I do, seeing my master has terminated me from my position? I do not have strength to dig and I am ashamed to beg.

<sup>4</sup> I know what I'll do so that when I am terminated from my job people will welcome me into their homes.'

<sup>6</sup> The debtor replied, 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write four hundred.'

<sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He replied, 'A thousand bushels of wheat.' The manager told him, 'Take your bill, and write eight hundred.'

<sup>9</sup> I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of worldly assets; so that, when they are gone, you may be welcomed into the eternal homes.

<sup>10</sup> He who is faithful in little will also be faithful in much. He who is dishonest in little will also be dishonest in much.

<sup>11</sup> If therefore you have not been faithful with worldly assets, who will entrust to you with true riches?

<sup>12</sup> If you have not been faithful with that which belongs to another, who will give you that which will be your own?

<sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will devoted to one, and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

<sup>14</sup> When the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, they scoffed at him.

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knows your hearts; for that which is greatly prized by human beings is an abomination in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup> The law and the prophets were in effect until John; since that time the good news of the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone is pushing to get into it.

<sup>17</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one pen stroke of the law to fail.

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries one who is divorced commits adultery.

<sup>19</sup> Now there was a rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and feasted sumptuously every day.

<sup>20</sup> There was a certain beggar named Lazarus who was laid at his gate, covered with sores, <sup>21</sup> and desired to be fed by what fell from the rich man's table. Beyond that even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

<sup>22</sup> It came to pass, that the beggar died and was carried away by the angels to be by Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>24</sup> The rich man cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me. Send Lazarus, so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in these flames.'

<sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here and you are in anguish.'

<sup>26</sup> Besides all this, between you and us there is a great chasm, so that those who want to cross from here to you are not able, and no one can cross over from there to where we are.'

<sup>27</sup> Then he said, 'Then I beg you, father, that you send Lazarus to my father's house,

<sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers; that he may warn them, so they do not come to this place of torment too.'

<sup>30</sup> But he said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one would go to them from the dead, then they will repent.'

<sup>31</sup> But Abraham said to him, 'If they will not listen Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded even if one were to rise from the dead.'"

DASV: Luke 17

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, "It is inevitable that occasions of stumbling will come; but woe to him, by whom they come!

<sup>2</sup> It were better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.

<sup>3</sup> Be on guard. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

<sup>4</sup> Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and seven times turns again to you, saying, 'I repent,' you should forgive him."

<sup>6</sup> The Lord said, "If you have faith the size of a grain of mustard seed, you will be able to say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted, and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

<sup>7</sup> But which of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, would say to him, when he has just come in from the field, 'Come right away and sit down here and eat.'

<sup>8</sup> Would you not, as master, more likely say to him, 'Make my supper, and change your clothes, and serve me while I eat and drink; then afterward you may eat and drink'?"

<sup>9</sup> Does he thank the servant because he did what he was commanded?

<sup>10</sup> Likewise you also, when you have done everything you were commanded, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have just done our duty.'

<sup>11</sup> As they were on their way to Jerusalem, Jesus was traveling along the border between Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> As he entered into a village, he met ten men who were lepers, who kept their distance.

<sup>14</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were cleansed.

<sup>15</sup> Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, praising God with a loud voice.

<sup>16</sup> He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, and thanked him. He was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked, "Were there not ten who were cleansed? Where are the other nine?"

<sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has made you well."

<sup>20</sup> Having been asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, "The kingdom of God is not coming in a way that can be observed.

<sup>21</sup> Neither will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or, 'There it is!' For the kingdom of God is within you."

<sup>22</sup> He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

<sup>23</sup> Then they will say to you, 'Look, there he is!' or 'Look, here he is!' Do not go out in pursuit of them.

<sup>24</sup> For as lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other; so will the Son of Man be in his day.

<sup>25</sup> But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup> Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also it will be in the days of the Son of Man.

<sup>27</sup> They were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed all of them.

<sup>28</sup> Likewise in the days of Lot, they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building;

<sup>29</sup> but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed all of them.

<sup>30</sup> It will be the same in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

<sup>31</sup> In that day, anyone who is on the housetop while his goods are in the house, he should not go down to take them away. Similarly, anyone who is in the field should not go back home.

<sup>33</sup> Whoever will seek to gain his life will lose it; but whoever will lose his life will preserve it.

<sup>34</sup> I tell you, in that night there will be two people in bed; the one will be taken, and the other left behind.

<sup>35</sup> There will be two women grinding grain together; the one will be taken, and the other left behind."

<sup>36</sup> [Some manuscripts have: "Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left behind."]

DASV: Luke 18

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus spoke a parable to show them that they should always pray, and not lose heart.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "There was in a city a judge, who neither feared God, or respected anyone.

<sup>3</sup> There was a widow in that city; and she frequently came to him, saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.'

<sup>4</sup> But he would not for a while; but afterward he thought to himself, 'Though I do not fear God or respect any person,

<sup>7</sup> Will God not give his elect justice, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay his response to them?

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, that he will quickly give them justice. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

<sup>9</sup> Jesus spoke this parable to certain men who were over confident in themselves that they were righteous, and despised everyone else.

<sup>10</sup> Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector.

<sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people, thieves, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

<sup>13</sup> But the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner.'

<sup>14</sup> I say to you, 'This man went down to his house justified rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled; but everyone who humbles themselves will be exalted.'

<sup>15</sup> People were bringing their infants to Jesus, so that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the little children come to me, and do not forbid them for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

<sup>19</sup> Jesus replied, "Why do you call me good? There is no one good, except God alone.

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard it, he said to him, "You lack one thing: sell all that you have, and give it to the poor, then you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

<sup>23</sup> But when he heard these things, he became very sad; for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus seeing him said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

<sup>25</sup> In fact, it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup> Those who heard it responded, "Who then can be saved?"

<sup>29</sup> He replied, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, wife, brothers, parents, or children for the kingdom of God's sake, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive much more in this time, and in the world to come eternal life."

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus took the twelve aside and said to them, "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished.

<sup>32</sup> For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, and will be mocked, and shamefully treated, and spit upon.

<sup>33</sup> They will flog and kill him; then on the third day he will rise again."

<sup>34</sup> But they did not understand any of these things; for its meaning was hidden from them, and they could not grasp the things that were said.

<sup>35</sup> As he drew near Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

<sup>38</sup> So he shouted out, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me."

<sup>39</sup> Those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be quiet. But he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me."

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus stood, and ordered that he be brought to him. As he approached, Jesus asked him,

<sup>41</sup> "What do you want me to do for you?" He replied, "Lord, I want to see again."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has healed you."

<sup>43</sup> Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, praising God. When all the people saw it, they praised God.

<sup>2</sup> A man named Zacchaeus was there. He was a chief tax collector and was rich.

<sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was; but was unable to see over the crowd because he was short.

<sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for Jesus was going to pass by that way.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the spot, he looked up, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, quickly come down; for today I must stay at your house."

<sup>6</sup> So he quickly came down, and gladly welcomed him.

<sup>7</sup> When the crowd saw it, they all grumbled, "He is gone to visit with a man who is a sinner."

<sup>8</sup> Then Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, half of my possessions I give to the poor; and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I will restore four times as much."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham.

<sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

<sup>11</sup> As they were listening to these things, he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

<sup>12</sup> So he said, "A noble went into a far country, to obtain a kingdom for himself, and then return.

<sup>13</sup> He called ten of his servants, and gave each of them one mina, and said to them, 'Trade with this until I get back.'

<sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'

<sup>15</sup> When he came back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be summoned so that he might know what they had gained by trading.

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, 'Well done, good servant; because you were found faithful with a little, you will have authority over ten cities.

<sup>19</sup> So he said to him also, 'Be over five cities.'

<sup>20</sup> Then another came, saying, 'Lord, look, here is your mina. I wrapped it up in a cloth, <sup>21</sup> for I was afraid of you, because you are a strict man. You take out what you didn't put in, and reap what you didn't sow.

<sup>22</sup> He said to him, "I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant. You knew that I am a strict man, taking out what I didn't put in and reaping what I didn't sow;

<sup>23</sup> then why didn't you put my money into the bank, so that at my coming I should have collected it with interest?

<sup>24</sup> He said to those who stood by, 'Take away from him the mina, and give it to the one who has the ten minas.'

<sup>25</sup> They said to him, 'Master, he already has ten minas.'

<sup>26</sup> I tell you, to everyone who has shall more be given; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

<sup>27</sup> But as for my enemies who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here, and execute them in front of me."

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> When he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, "Go to the village across from you; as you enter it you will find a donkey colt tied, on which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

<sup>31</sup> If any one asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' Tell them, 'The Lord needs it.'"

<sup>32</sup> Those who were sent went away, and found it just like he had told them.

<sup>35</sup> They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on it.

<sup>37</sup> As he drew near, where the road goes down off the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen,

<sup>38</sup> saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest."

<sup>40</sup> But he replied, "I tell you, if these keep silent, then even the stones would cry out."

<sup>41</sup> When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it,

<sup>42</sup> saying, "If you, even you, had only known on this day the things that would have produced peace for you! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup> For the days will come on you, when your enemies will build up a rampart against you, and surround you, and close in on you from every side.

<sup>44</sup> They will crush you into the ground, and your children within you; and they will not leave within you one stone standing on another; because you did not realize the time of your divine visitation."

<sup>45</sup> He entered into the temple, and began to cast out those selling things, <sup>46</sup> saying to them, "It is written, 'my house will be a house of prayer;' but you have turned it into a den of thieves."
<sup>47</sup> He was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests, scribes and leaders of the people sought to destroy him, <sup>48</sup> but they could not figure out a way to do it; for all the people hung on his words.

DASV: Luke 20

<sup>1</sup> One day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the good news, the chief priest, and scribes came to him with the elders,

<sup>2</sup> and said to him, "Tell us, by what authority you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

<sup>3</sup> He answered, "I also will ask you a question: tell me,

<sup>5</sup> They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven;' he will ask, 'Why did you not believe him?'

<sup>6</sup> But if we say, 'Merely human;' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."

<sup>7</sup> So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus began to speak to the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to tenant farmers, and went into another country for a long time.

<sup>10</sup> At the harvest he sent a servant to the tenant farmers, in order that they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenant farmers beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> So he sent another servant. They also beat and insulted him, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup> Then he sent a third, and they also wounded and threw him out.

<sup>13</sup> The owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; maybe they will reverence him.'

<sup>14</sup> But when the tenant farmers saw him, they reasoned with each other, 'This is the heir; let's kill him, so the inheritance will be ours.'

<sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

<sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy these tenant farmers, and will rent the vineyard out to others." When they heard it, they said, "God forbid."

<sup>17</sup> But he looked at them, and said, "What then is the meaning of what is written, 'The stone the builders rejected, the same has become the cornerstone'?"

<sup>18</sup> Everyone that falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, that one will be crushed."

<sup>19</sup> The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that same hour; but they feared the people, for they realized that he had spoken this parable against them.

<sup>20</sup> They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be honest, that they might trap him in his speech, so they could deliver him up to the rule and authority of the governor.

<sup>21</sup> So they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach correctly, and you do not show favoritism to anyone, but teach the way of God honestly.

<sup>23</sup> But he perceived their chicanery so he asked them,

<sup>25</sup> Then he said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>26</sup> They were not able to trap him in front of the people. They were amazed by his answer and were silenced.

<sup>27</sup> Some Sadducees, who claim that there is no resurrection, came to him,

<sup>31</sup> and the third married her; and likewise the seven died leaving no children.

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage.

<sup>35</sup> But those who are considered worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

<sup>36</sup> In reality, they cannot die any more, for they are like the angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup> But concerning the dead being raised, even Moses demonstrated it in the passage of the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.

<sup>38</sup> Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for they are all alive to him."

<sup>41</sup> Then he asked them, "How can they say that the Messiah is David's son?"

<sup>42</sup> For David himself in the book of Psalms says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "sit at my right hand, <sup>43</sup> until I make your enemies the footstool for your feet.'"

<sup>45</sup> Then publically in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup> "Beware the scribes, who like walking around in long robes, and love respectful greetings in the marketplaces, and the best seats in the synagogues, and honored places at banquets.

<sup>1</sup> Jesus looked up, and saw some rich people putting their donations into the offering box.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all the rest.

<sup>4</sup> For all of these contributed gifts from their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in everything she had to live on.

<sup>5</sup> Now while some were talking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stonework and votive offerings, he said,

<sup>6</sup> "As for these things you are observing, the days will come when not one stone will be left standing on another, every one of them will be thrown down."

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that these things are about to take place?"

<sup>8</sup> He replied, "Be careful that you are not led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he.' and, 'The time is near.' Do not go after them.

<sup>9</sup> When you hear of wars and insurgencies, do not be terrified, for these things must come to pass first; but the end will not come right after that."

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, "Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom;

<sup>11</sup> and there will be great earthquakes, and in many places famines and plagues and there will be frightening events and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> But before all these things happen, they will arrest and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons, and bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake.

<sup>13</sup> This will turn out to be a time for you to testify concerning me.

<sup>14</sup> Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to prepare ahead of time how to defend yourself, <sup>15</sup> for I will give you the words and wisdom, that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or refute.

<sup>16</sup> But you will be delivered up even by parents, brothers, relatives and friends; and some of you will be put to death.

<sup>17</sup> You will be hated by everyone for my name's sake.

<sup>19</sup> By your endurance you will win your souls.

<sup>20</sup> But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that her desolation has come near.

<sup>21</sup> Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let those who are in the city leave; and those who are out in the country should not reenter it.

<sup>22</sup> For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill everything that has been written.

<sup>23</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress on the land, and wrath against this people.

<sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

<sup>25</sup> There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars; and on the earth nations will be distressed, perplexed by the roaring of the sea and waves.

<sup>26</sup> People will faint from fear and the expectation of the things coming on the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>27</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

<sup>29</sup> He spoke to them in a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees.

<sup>30</sup> When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that the summer is now near.

<sup>31</sup> Even so you also, when you see these things happen, realize that the kingdom of God is near.

<sup>32</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away, until all things are accomplished.

<sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away; but my words will never pass away.

<sup>34</sup> Watch out or your hearts may be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness and worries of this life, and that day will come down on you suddenly like a trap.

<sup>35</sup> For it will come on all those who dwell on the face of the entire earth.

<sup>36</sup> But be alert at all times, praying that you may be strong enough to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

<sup>38</sup> All the people came early in the morning to hear him in the temple.

DASV: Luke 22

<sup>1</sup> Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is also called the Passover.

<sup>4</sup> He went and discussed with the chief priests and temple guards, how he might betray him to them.

<sup>5</sup> They were delighted and promised to pay him.

<sup>6</sup> He consented and began to look for an opportunity to betray him to them when the crowd was not around.

<sup>7</sup> The day of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Passover lamb must be sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup> So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it."

<sup>9</sup> They asked him, "Where do you want us to make the preparations?"

<sup>10</sup> He replied, "When you enter the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you; follow him to the house that he enters.

<sup>11</sup> Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher asks you, "Where is the guestroom, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'"

<sup>13</sup> They went and found everything just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

<sup>14</sup> When the hour had come, he sat down with the apostles.

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "With eagerness I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

<sup>16</sup> for I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup> He took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and divide it up among yourselves;

<sup>18</sup> for I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes."

<sup>19</sup> Then he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>20</sup> Likewise he took the cup after dinner, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood which is poured out for you.

<sup>21</sup> But look, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table.

<sup>22</sup> For the Son of Man is going, just as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

<sup>23</sup> They began to question each other, which of them would do this thing.

<sup>24</sup> Now there arose also a controversy among them, which of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles have rule over them; and they who have authority over them are called 'Benefactors.'

<sup>26</sup> But not so among you; but the one who is the greatest among you, let him become like the youngest; and the one who is the leader, like one who serves.

<sup>28</sup> But you have stuck with me in my trials.

<sup>29</sup> So I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father has conferred one on me, <sup>30</sup> so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup> Simon, Simon, Satan has asked for all of you that he might sift you like wheat;

<sup>32</sup> but I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith not fail. When you have turned around, strengthen your brothers."

<sup>33</sup> But Peter said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death."

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus replied, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow this day, until you have denied that you know me three times."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "When I sent you out with no purse, wallet and sandals, did you lack anything? " "Nothing," they replied.

<sup>36</sup> Then he said to them, "But now, the one who has a money bag should take it, and likewise a travel bag. Let the one who has no sword sell his cloak and buy one.

<sup>37</sup> For I tell you, this Scripture must be fulfilled in me, 'And he was counted with transgressors,' for that which was written about me is being fulfilled."

<sup>39</sup> Then he went out and proceeded to the Mount of Olives, as was his custom; and the disciples followed him.

<sup>40</sup> Now when he arrived at the place, he told them, "Pray that you do not enter into temptation."

<sup>41</sup> He withdrew about a stone's throw; knelt down and prayed,

<sup>42</sup> "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Yet not my will, but yours, be done."

<sup>44</sup> Being in such agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.

<sup>45</sup> When he got up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, tired from grief.

<sup>46</sup> Then he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, so that you do not enter into temptation."

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, a crowd approached along with one called Judas, one of the twelve, who was leading them. He came up to Jesus to kiss him.

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Judas, you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>49</sup> When those who were around him realized what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we use the sword?"

<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple guard and elders, who had come for him, "Am I a bandit that you come out with swords and clubs?"

<sup>53</sup> When I was daily with you in the temple, you never laid your hands on me to arrest me. But this is your hour, the reign of darkness."

<sup>54</sup> Then they seized him, led him away, and brought him to the high priest's house. But Peter followed at a distance.

<sup>55</sup> When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the court, and sat down together, Peter sat down among them.

<sup>57</sup> But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."

<sup>60</sup> But Peter denied, "Man, I don't know what you are saying. " Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup> The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had told him, "Before the rooster crows this day you will deny me three times.

<sup>62</sup> He went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>66</sup> At daybreak, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away to their council, saying,

<sup>67</sup> "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he replied, "If I tell you, you would not believe it.

<sup>70</sup> They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" He replied, "Yes, it is just like you said I am."

<sup>71</sup> Then they said, "What further need do we have for witnesses? For we have heard it ourselves from his own mouth. "

DASV: Luke 23

<sup>2</sup> They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation, forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king."

<sup>3</sup> So Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "It is just like what you have said."

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for a case against this man."

<sup>5</sup> But they were adamant, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning in Galilee and ending up here."

<sup>7</sup> When he discovered that he was from Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also at Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup> Now when Herod Antipas saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had for a long time wanted to see him, because he had heard about him and hoped to see him perform some miracle.

<sup>9</sup> He questioned him at some length, but Jesus would not answer him.

<sup>12</sup> Herod and Pilate became friends on that very day, for before they had been enemies.

<sup>13</sup> Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders and the people,

<sup>14</sup> and said to them, "You brought me this man, as one who misleads the people; and look, I have examined him before you, and found him not guilty regarding those things of which you were accusing him.

<sup>15</sup> Neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Look, he has done nothing worthy of death.

<sup>16</sup> I will therefore beat and release him."

<sup>19</sup> (This one had been put in prison because he made insurrection in the city and for murder.)

<sup>22</sup> Then he said to them a third time, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found nothing in him worthy of death. Therefore I will beat and release him."

<sup>23</sup> But they were insistent with loud shouts, demanding that he be crucified and their shouts prevailed.

<sup>24</sup> So Pilate rendered the sentence that their demand should be granted.

<sup>25</sup> He released the one they requested who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but Jesus he delivered according to their wish.

<sup>26</sup> When they led him away, they grabbed Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid the cross on him, to carry it behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> A great crowd of people followed him, among them women who were mourning and wailing for him.

<sup>28</sup> But Jesus turned to them saying, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, weep for yourselves and for your children.

<sup>29</sup> For the days are coming, in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore a child, and the breasts that have never nursed.'

<sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us;' and to the hills, 'Cover us.'

<sup>31</sup> For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

<sup>32</sup> Two other criminals were led away to be put to death with him.

<sup>33</sup> When they came to the place called The Skull, they crucified him, along with the criminals, one on his right and the other on his left.

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they don't know what they are doing." Then they cast lots to split up his clothes among them.

<sup>35</sup> The people stood by watching. The leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others, let him save himself, if this is the Messiah of God, his chosen one."

<sup>40</sup> But the other rebuked him saying, "Do you not fear God, seeing you are under the same sentence of condemnation?"

<sup>41</sup> We are condemned justly; for we are receiving the due reward of our actions, but this man has done nothing wrong."

<sup>42</sup> Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

<sup>44</sup> Now it was about noon, and a darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, <sup>45</sup> because the sun's light failed to shine. The veil of the temple was torn in two.

<sup>46</sup> Then Jesus, crying out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit," and having said this, he breathed his last.

<sup>48</sup> All the crowds that came together for this spectacle, when they saw the things that took place, returned home beating their breasts.

<sup>49</sup> All his acquaintances, along with the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

<sup>50</sup> Now there was a man named Joseph, who was a council member, a good and righteous man, <sup>51</sup> who had not consented to their plan and action. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, and he was expectantly looking for the kingdom of God.

<sup>52</sup> This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>53</sup> He took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been buried.

<sup>54</sup> It was the day of the Preparation and the Sabbath was about to begin.

<sup>55</sup> The women, who had come with Jesus out of Galilee, followed behind, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid.

<sup>56</sup> They returned, and prepared spices and perfumes. But on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

DASV: Luke 24

<sup>1</sup> But on the first day of the week, right at dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared.

<sup>4</sup> While they were puzzling over it, two men stood by them in dazzling clothes.

<sup>5</sup> They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why are you looking for the living among the dead?"

<sup>6</sup> He is not here, he has risen. Remember how he told you when he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> saying that the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and the third day rise again."

<sup>8</sup> Then they remembered his words.

<sup>9</sup> After returning from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven and to all the others.

<sup>10</sup> Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles.

<sup>11</sup> This story seemed to them like an idle tale and they did not believe them.

<sup>12</sup> But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and peering in, he saw the linen wrappings by themselves; and he went back to his home wondering about what had happened.

<sup>13</sup> Two of them were going that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> They discussed with each other about all the things that had happened.

<sup>15</sup> While they were discussing and debating, Jesus himself approached and walked along with them.

<sup>16</sup> But their eyes were kept from recognizing who he was.

<sup>17</sup> He asked them, "What were you discussing with each other while you were walking along?" They stood still, looking sad.

<sup>18</sup> One of them, named Cleopas, replied, "Are you the only visitor in Jerusalem who doesn't know about the things that have happened there in these days?"

<sup>19</sup> He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people.

<sup>20</sup> The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be condemned to death, and crucified him.

<sup>21</sup> But we had hoped that he was the one who would rescue Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things have happened.

<sup>22</sup> But also some women of our group amazed us, having been to the tomb early this morning

<sup>23</sup> where they did not find his body. They came back saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.

<sup>24</sup> Some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it exactly as the women had described it, but they didn't see him."

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "O foolish and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!

<sup>26</sup> Was it not necessary for the Messiah to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?"

<sup>27</sup> Then beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

<sup>28</sup> As they approached the village where they were going, and he acted as if he would keep going further.

<sup>29</sup> They urged him, "Stay with us; for it is getting late, and the day is now almost over." So he turned in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup> When he sat down with them at the table, he took the bread, blessed, broke it and gave it to them.

<sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished out of their sight.

<sup>32</sup> They said one to each other, "Didn't our hearts burn within us, while he spoke to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?"

<sup>33</sup> They got up that same hour, returned to Jerusalem and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together.

<sup>34</sup> They said, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon."

<sup>35</sup> Then they rehearsed the things that had happened on the road, and how they had recognized him when he broke the bread.

<sup>36</sup> As they spoke these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>37</sup> But they were shocked and terrified, imagining that they had seen a ghost.

<sup>38</sup> But he said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why are doubts arising in your hearts?"

<sup>39</sup> Look at my hands and my feet, it is I. Touch me and see for a ghost does not have flesh and bones like you see that I do."

<sup>40</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

<sup>44</sup> He said to them, "These are my words that I told you, while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which are written in the law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms about me."

<sup>45</sup> Then he opened their mind so that they could understand the Scriptures.

<sup>46</sup> He said to them, "This is what is written, that the Messiah would suffer, rise again from the dead on the third day;

<sup>47</sup> and that repentance and remission of sins would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

<sup>50</sup> Then he led them as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them.

<sup>51</sup> While he was blessing them, he left them, and was carried up into heaven.

<sup>53</sup> and were continually in the temple, praising God.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: John 1

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

<sup>3</sup> All things were made by him; and without him nothing was made that had been made.

<sup>7</sup> He came as a witness, to testify concerning the light, so that all might believe through him.

<sup>8</sup> He was not the light, but came to testify concerning the light,

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made by him, yet the world did not know him.

<sup>11</sup> He came unto his own things, and even his own people did not receive him.

<sup>12</sup> But as many as received him, to those who believe on his name, he gave the right to become children of God.

<sup>13</sup> They were born, not of blood, or of the will of the flesh, or of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh, and dwelt among us. We have seen his glory, glory as of the one and only son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup> John testified about him, shouting, "This is the one of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is greater than I, for he existed before me.'"

<sup>16</sup> For from his fullness we all have received, one gracious benefit after another.

<sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses; but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God, but the one and only God, who is near to the Father's heart, he has made him known.

<sup>19</sup> This was John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> He confessed, and did not deny it, but openly confessed, "I am not the Christ."

<sup>21</sup> They asked him, "Who are you then? Are you Elijah?" He replied, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."

<sup>22</sup> Then they said to him, "Who are you? So that we can give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> He said, "I am the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said."

<sup>26</sup> John answered them, "I baptize with water, but among you stands one whom you do not know, <sup>27</sup> he who comes after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."

<sup>28</sup> These things were done in Bethany on the other side of the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

<sup>29</sup> On the next day John saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

<sup>30</sup> This is the one of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is greater than I, for he existed before me.'

<sup>31</sup> I did not know him. This is the reason I came baptizing with water so that he would be revealed to Israel."

<sup>32</sup> Then John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it remained on him.

<sup>33</sup> I did not know him but he who sent me to baptize with water, said to me, 'Upon whomever you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, this one is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>38</sup> Jesus turned, and saw them following; he asked them, "What do you want?" They replied, "Rabbi (which is translated Teacher), where are you staying?"

<sup>39</sup> He said to them, "Come, and see." So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>41</sup> He first found his brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Christ).

<sup>42</sup> He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called Cephas (which is translated Peter)."

<sup>43</sup> On the next day he wanted to go into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>45</sup> Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the law and the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

<sup>46</sup> Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, and said concerning him, "Look, a true Israelite, in whom there is no deceit!"

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

<sup>49</sup> Nathanael responded, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because I said I saw you under the fig tree, you believe? You will see greater things than these."

<sup>51</sup> He said to him, "Surely I tell you the truth, you will see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

DASV: John 2

<sup>1</sup> On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

<sup>3</sup> When they had run out of wine, Jesus' mother said to him, "They are out of wine."

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour is not yet come."

<sup>6</sup> Now there were six water pots of stone set there according to the Jewish custom of ceremonial washing, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus told them, "Fill the water pots with water." So they filled them up to the brim.

<sup>8</sup> Then he said to them, "Now draw out some, and take it to the master of ceremonies." So they took it.

<sup>9</sup> When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that had been made into wine, he did not know where it was from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew).

The master of ceremonies called the bridegroom,

<sup>10</sup> and said to him, "Every one serves first the good wine, then after people have drunk, that which is worse. But you have kept the good wine until now."

<sup>11</sup> This was the first miraculous sign that Jesus did in Cana of Galilee. So he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>12</sup> After this he went down to Capernaum, he, his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they were there a few days.

<sup>13</sup> The Jewish Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting beside their exchange tables.

<sup>15</sup> He made a whip of cords, and drove out of the temple both the sheep and oxen. He poured out the changers' money and overturned their tables.

<sup>16</sup> To those who sold the doves he said, "Get these things out of here. Do not turn my Father's house into a marketplace."

<sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

<sup>18</sup> The Jews therefore said to him, "What sign do you show us, confirming that you can legitimately do these things?"

<sup>20</sup> Then the Jews said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple and you will raise it up in three days?"

<sup>21</sup> But he spoke of the temple of his body.

<sup>22</sup> When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word that Jesus had said.

<sup>23</sup> Now when he arrived in Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover, many believed on his name, when they saw the miraculous sign he did.

<sup>24</sup> But Jesus did not entrust himself to them, for he knew everyone, <sup>25</sup> and did not need anyone to tell him about human nature since he knew what was in man.

DASV: John 3

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a leader in the Jewish ruling council.

<sup>2</sup> This man came to Jesus by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these miraculous signs that you do, except that God is with him."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, except one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, except one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God!

<sup>6</sup> That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

<sup>7</sup> Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'

<sup>8</sup> The wind blows wherever it wants to, and you hear its sound, but do not know where it comes from, or where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

<sup>11</sup> I tell you the truth, we speak about what we know, and bear witness about what we have seen; and you do not receive our testimony.

<sup>12</sup> If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

<sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven, except he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man.

<sup>14</sup> Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up;

<sup>15</sup> that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes on him will not perish, but have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup> For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.

<sup>18</sup> He who believes on him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed on the name of the one and only Son of God.

<sup>19</sup> This is the judgment: that the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil.

<sup>20</sup> For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, so that his works might not be exposed.

<sup>21</sup> But the one who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be clearly seen as having been done in God."

<sup>22</sup> After this Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judea; there he stayed with them, and baptized.

<sup>23</sup> Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was a lot of water there and people were coming and were being baptized.

<sup>26</sup> So they came to John, and asked him, "Rabbi, he who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River, concerning whom you testified, he is baptizing, and everyone is going to him."

<sup>28</sup> You yourselves can attest that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but 'I have been sent before him.'

<sup>29</sup> He who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom that stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore I am filled with joy.

<sup>30</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease.

<sup>32</sup> He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but nobody accepts his testimony.

<sup>33</sup> The one who has accepted his testimony has confirmed that God is true.

<sup>34</sup> For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he gives him the Spirit without limits.

<sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son, and has put all things into his hand.

<sup>36</sup> The one who believes on the Son has eternal life; but the one who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

DASV: John 4

<sup>1</sup> Now when Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was making and baptizing more disciples than John

<sup>5</sup> He came to a town in Samaria, called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

<sup>6</sup> Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat there by the well. It was about noon.

<sup>7</sup> A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink,"

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For the Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then can you get this living water from?"

<sup>12</sup> Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his cattle?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will become thirsty again, <sup>14</sup> but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst; but the water that I will give will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will never be thirsty and will not have to come all the way here to draw water."

<sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands; and the one whom you are living with now is not your husband. In this you have spoken correctly."

<sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshipped on this mountain; but you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where people must worship."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> You people worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

<sup>23</sup> But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers.

<sup>24</sup> God is a Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming (who is called Christ); when he comes, he will explain everything to us."

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, "I, the one talking to you, am he."

<sup>27</sup> Just then his disciples came and they were amazed that he was talking with a woman; yet no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you talking with her?"

<sup>28</sup> Then the woman left her water jug, and went away into the town. She told the people,

<sup>29</sup> "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. This one can't be the Messiah, can he?"

<sup>33</sup> The disciples therefore said to each other, "No one has brought him anything to eat, have they?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to complete his work.

<sup>35</sup> Do you not say, 'There are still four months, and then comes the harvest?' Look, I tell to you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, they are white, already ripe for harvest.

<sup>36</sup> The one who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit for life eternal, so that both the sower and the reaper may rejoice together.

<sup>40</sup> When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them. So he stayed there two days.

<sup>42</sup> Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is in fact the Savior of the world."

<sup>44</sup> For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

<sup>45</sup> So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they also had gone to the feast.

<sup>46</sup> Once again he came to Cana of Galilee, where he had made the water into wine. Now there was a certain government official whose son was sick at Capernaum.

<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged Jesus to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will never believe."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus replied, "Go your way, your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.

<sup>51</sup> As he was going back, his servants met him, telling him that his son was alive.

<sup>52</sup> So he asked them the hour when he began to get better. They told him,

"Yesterday, at the one in the afternoon the fever left him."

<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized that it was at that precise hour that Jesus had told him, "Your son lives." Then he himself believed and his whole house.

<sup>54</sup> This again was a second miraculous sign that Jesus did after having come out of Judea into Galilee.

DASV: John 5

<sup>1</sup> After this there was a feast of the Jews, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda, which has five porticoes.

<sup>3</sup> In these there lay a large number of sick, blind, lame and paralyzed.

<sup>4</sup> for an angel of the Lord went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred the water. Whoever first stepped in after the stirring of the waters was cured, of whatever disease he had.]

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there, and realized that he had been there for a long time, he asked him, "Would you like to be made well?"

<sup>7</sup> The sick man replied, "Sir, I have no one, when the water stirs, to put me into the pool, but while I am coming, someone else steps down before me."

<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man was healed, and he picked up his mat and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath.

<sup>10</sup> The Jews said to the one who had been cured, "It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to carry your mat."

<sup>11</sup> But he replied, "He who healed me told me to 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, "Who told you to 'Pick up your mat and walk'?"

<sup>13</sup> But he who was healed did not know who it was; for Jesus had slipped away since there was a crowd in that place.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Look, you have been healed, sin no more, lest a worse thing happen to you."

<sup>15</sup> The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had cured him.

<sup>16</sup> Because of this the Jews started harassing Jesus, because he did these things on the Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus defended himself to them, "My Father is working until now, so I am working too."

<sup>18</sup> Because of this the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also claimed that God was his own Father, making himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus answered them, "I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself, but what he sees the Father doing, for whatever things he does, these the Son does too.

<sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son, and shows him everything that he himself does. Greater works than these the Father will show him, so that you may be astonished.

<sup>21</sup> For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whomever he wants to.

<sup>22</sup> For the Father does not judge anyone, but he has given all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup> that everyone may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup> I tell you the truth, the one who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and will not be condemned, but has passed from death into life.

<sup>25</sup> I tell you the truth, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

<sup>26</sup> For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has also given the Son to have life in himself.

<sup>27</sup> Also he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be surprised by this, for the hour is coming in which everyone who is in the tombs will hear his voice

<sup>29</sup> and will come out, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

<sup>30</sup> By myself I can do nothing. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is fair; because I do not seek my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

<sup>31</sup> If I bear witness about myself, my witness is not true.

<sup>32</sup> It is another who testifies about me; and I know that the testimony which he gives about me is true.

<sup>33</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.

<sup>34</sup> But I do not accept human testimony, yet I say these things so that you may be saved.

<sup>35</sup> He was a lamp that burned and shined; and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

<sup>36</sup> But the testimony I have is greater than John's; for the works which the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I am doing, testify about me that the Father has sent me.

<sup>37</sup> The Father who sent me has testified concerning me. You have never ever heard his voice or seen his form, <sup>38</sup> nor do you have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe the one whom he has sent.

<sup>39</sup> Search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; yet it is these that testify about me.

<sup>40</sup> But you are unwilling to come to me that you may have life.

<sup>42</sup> But I know that you do not have the love of God in you.

<sup>43</sup> I have come in my Father's name and you have not accepted me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will receive that one.

<sup>44</sup> How can you believe since you welcome praise from each other, but you don't seek the praise that comes from God alone?

<sup>45</sup> Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope.

<sup>46</sup> For if you had believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me.

<sup>47</sup> But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

DASV: John 6

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went across to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias.

<sup>2</sup> A large crowd followed him because they saw the signs he was doing for those who were sick.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus went up the mountain and there he sat with his disciples.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus, lifting up his eyes, saw a large crowd coming to him, and said to Philip, "Where can we go to buy bread, so that these people may eat?"

<sup>6</sup> He said this to test him, for he knew what he was going to do.

<sup>7</sup> Philip replied, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread would not be enough for each of them to have a little."

<sup>9</sup> "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fishes. But what use is that among so many people?"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a lot of grass in the place. So the people sat down, numbering about five thousand men.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, he distributed to those who were seated; and did the same with the fish, providing as much as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup> When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken fragments which were left over, so that nothing is wasted."

<sup>13</sup> So they picked them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

<sup>14</sup> When therefore the people saw the miraculous sign which he did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who is to come into the world."

<sup>15</sup> When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again into the mountain alone.

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup> got into a boat, and started to cross the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

<sup>19</sup> When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, approaching the boat. They were terrified.

<sup>21</sup> They were desirous to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat arrived at the land where they were going.

<sup>22</sup> On the next day the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there were no other boats there, except one, and that Jesus had not entered with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples had gone out alone.

<sup>23</sup> But some boats came from Tiberias near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

<sup>24</sup> When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you arrive here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, you seek me, not because you saw the miraculous signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled.

<sup>27</sup> Do not work for food which perishes, but for the food which lasts to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has his stamp of approval on him."

<sup>28</sup> They asked him, "What must we do that we may do the works God approves of?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, "This is the work of God, that you believe on him whom he has sent."

<sup>30</sup> Then they said to him, "What miraculous sign will you do so that we may see it, and believe you? What work can you do?"

<sup>31</sup> Our forefathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; but now my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven.

<sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will not hunger, and whoever believes on me will never thirst.

<sup>36</sup> But I told you that you have seen me and still you don't believe.

<sup>37</sup> Everyone the Father gives me will come to me; and whoever comes to me I will never throw out.

<sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

<sup>39</sup> Now this is the will of him who sent me, that I should not lose one of all those he has given me, but should raise them up on the last day.

<sup>40</sup> For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son, and believes on him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day."

<sup>41</sup> Then Jews complained about him, because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

<sup>42</sup> They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he claim, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

<sup>44</sup> No one can come to me, except the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day.

<sup>45</sup> It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father, and learns, comes to me.

<sup>46</sup> Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God, he has seen the Father.

<sup>47</sup> I tell you the truth, whoever believes has eternal life.

<sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life.

<sup>51</sup> I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever. The bread that I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world."

<sup>52</sup> The Jews argued with each other, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

<sup>53</sup> Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, except you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in yourselves.

<sup>54</sup> Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day.

<sup>55</sup> For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

<sup>56</sup> He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood resides in me, and I in him.

<sup>57</sup> Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me.

<sup>58</sup> This is the bread come down from heaven; not like that which your forefathers ate and died; whoever eats this bread will live forever."

<sup>60</sup> Many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying; who can accept it?"

<sup>61</sup> But Jesus, realizing that his disciples complained about this, said to them, "Does this offend you?"

<sup>62</sup> Then what if you should see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?"

<sup>63</sup> It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit, and they are life.

<sup>64</sup> But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray him.

<sup>65</sup> Then he said, "This is the reason I told you that no one can come to me, except it is granted to him by the Father."

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.

<sup>69</sup> We have believed and know that you are the Holy One of God."

<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, "Did not I choose you, the Twelve? But one of you is a devil."

<sup>71</sup> Now he was talking about Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he was the one who was going to betray him, even though he was one of the twelve.

DASV: John 7

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus traveled in Galilee, for he refused to travel in Judea, because the Jews were trying to kill him.

<sup>3</sup> So his brothers said to him, "Leave here, and go into Judea, so that your disciples may also see the works which you are doing.

<sup>4</sup> For no one who wants to be famous does anything in secret. If you do in fact do these things, show yourself to the world."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come; but your time is always present.

<sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you; but it hates me because I provide evidence against it, that its deeds are evil.

<sup>8</sup> Go up to the feast. I am not going up to this feast, because my time has not yet fully come."

<sup>9</sup> After saying this to them, he stayed in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> But after his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he went up also, not publicly but secretly.

<sup>12</sup> There were many rumors among the crowd about him. Some said, "He is a good man;" others said, "Not, but he deceives the crowds."

<sup>13</sup> Yet no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup> But during the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews therefore were surprised, saying, "How does this man have such learning having never had any formal training?"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus replied, "My teaching is not mine, but the one who sent me.

<sup>17</sup> If anyone desires to do God's will, he will know my teaching, whether it is from God, or whether I speak only from myself.

<sup>18</sup> He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him, the same is true, and there is no dishonesty in him.

<sup>19</sup> Didn't Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you want to kill me?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus replied, "I did one work, and all of you are astonished because of it.

<sup>22</sup> Moses has given you circumcision (not that it was from Moses, but from the patriarchs); yet you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.

<sup>23</sup> If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me because I healed a man on the Sabbath?

<sup>26</sup> But here he is speaking openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the leaders really know that this is the Messiah?

<sup>27</sup> But we know where this man is from, but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus cried out in the temple, while teaching, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come on my own, but he who sent me is true, whom you do not know.

<sup>29</sup> I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

<sup>30</sup> They sought to nab him but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup> But many of the crowd believed in him. They said, "When the Messiah comes, will he do more signs than those which this man has done?"

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup> Then Jesus said, "I will be with you yet a little longer, then I am returning to him who sent me.

<sup>34</sup> You will seek me, but will not find me, and where I am, you cannot come."

<sup>35</sup> Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we will not find him? Will he go to the diaspora among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?"

<sup>36</sup> What did he mean by saying, 'You will seek me, but will not find me;' and 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

<sup>37</sup> Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.

<sup>38</sup> Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'from within him will flow out rivers of living water.'"

<sup>39</sup> But he said this about the Spirit, which they who believed in him were about to receive. For the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

<sup>41</sup> Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some said, "What, will the Messiah come out of Galilee?"

<sup>42</sup> Hasn't the Scripture said that the Messiah will come from the descendants of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was from?"

<sup>43</sup> So there arose a division among the crowd because of him.

<sup>44</sup> Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him.

<sup>45</sup> Then officers returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they asked them, "Why did you not bring him here?"

<sup>50</sup> Nicodemus, who had come to Jesus before, being one of them, said to them,

<sup>51</sup> "Our law doesn't judge a man without first hearing from him and knowing what he does, does it?"

<sup>53</sup> [The earliest manuscripts we currently have do not have John 7:53-8:11:
Then each of them went home.

<sup>2</sup> Early in the morning he returned to the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them.

<sup>5</sup> Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such a woman. Now what do you say?"

<sup>6</sup> They asked this attempting to trap him, so that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

<sup>7</sup> But when they kept on asking him, he stood up, and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her."

<sup>8</sup> Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus stood up, and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

<sup>11</sup> She replied, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more."]

<sup>12</sup> Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>13</sup> Then Pharisees said to him, "You testify concerning yourself; so your testimony is not true."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus replied, "Even if I testify concerning myself, my testimony is true; for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you do not know where I have come from, or where I am going.

<sup>16</sup> Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me.

<sup>17</sup> In your law it is written that the testimony of two people is true.

<sup>18</sup> I testify concerning myself, and the Father who sent me testifies concerning me."

<sup>19</sup> Then they asked him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus replied, "You don't know me or my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."

<sup>20</sup> These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. No one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup> Again Jesus said to them, "I am going away, and you will look for me, but you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come."

<sup>22</sup> The Jews wondered, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he said, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus continued, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

<sup>24</sup> So I told you that you will die in your sins; unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

<sup>25</sup> They said therefore to him, "Who are you?" Jesus replied, "Just who I have been telling you from the beginning.

<sup>26</sup> I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him I declare to the world."

<sup>27</sup> They did not realize that he was speaking to them about the Father.

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own, but I speak only the things that the Father has taught me.

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain faithful to my word, then you are truly my disciples;

<sup>32</sup> and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

<sup>33</sup> They objected, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone; how can you say, 'You will be made free'?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin.

<sup>35</sup> The slave does not remain as a permanent part of the family; but the son remains forever.

<sup>36</sup> If therefore the Son will make you free, you will be truly free.

<sup>37</sup> I know that you are Abraham's descendants; yet you are trying to kill me, because my word has found no place in you.

<sup>38</sup> I am speaking of things that I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things you have heard from your father."

<sup>39</sup> They answered him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did.

<sup>40</sup> But now you are trying to kill me, a man that has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.

<sup>41</sup> You do the works of your father." They said to him, "We were not born illegitimately; we have one Father, God himself."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus replied, "If God were your Father, you would love me; for I came from God which is why I am here. For I have not come on my own, but he sent me.

<sup>43</sup> Why do you not understand what I am saying? It is because you cannot really hear my word.

<sup>44</sup> You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father is what you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and stands not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks from his character, for he is a liar, and the father of lies.

<sup>46</sup> Which of you can convict me of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me?

<sup>47</sup> He who is of God hears the words of God; this is why you don't hear them, because you do not belong to God."

<sup>48</sup> The Jews answered, "Aren't we correct in saying you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

<sup>49</sup> Jesus replied, "I do not have a demon; but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

<sup>50</sup> But I seek not my own glory; there is one who seeks it and he also judges.

<sup>51</sup> I tell you the truth, if a man keeps my word, he will never see death."

<sup>52</sup> The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you claim, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death'.

<sup>53</sup> Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets are dead too. Who are you claiming to be?"

<sup>54</sup> Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me; whom you claim is your God.

<sup>55</sup> You do not know him; but I know him. If I should say, I do not know him, I would be like to you, a liar. But I know him and obey his word.

<sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad."

<sup>57</sup> Then Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?"

<sup>58</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, before Abraham was even born, I am."

<sup>59</sup> Then they picked up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and left the temple.

<sup>2</sup> His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; it happened so that the works of God might be revealed in him.

<sup>4</sup> We must do the works of him who sent me, while it is day; the night comes, when no one can work.

<sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

<sup>6</sup> After having said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and smeared the mud on his eyes.

<sup>7</sup> He told him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is translated, "Sent"). So he went away, washed and returned seeing.

<sup>8</sup> Then the neighbors and those who saw him before, when he was a beggar, asked, "Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?"

<sup>9</sup> Others said, "It is he." Others said, "No, but he looks like him." But he insisted, "I am he."

<sup>10</sup> So they kept asking him, "How then were your eyes opened?"

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "The man that is called Jesus made mud, and smeared it on my eyes, and told me, 'Go to Siloam, and wash'. So I went and washed, and I received my sight."

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, "Where is he?" He responded, "I don't know."

<sup>14</sup> Now the day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes was the Sabbath.

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He told them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I see."

<sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such miraculous signs?" There was division among them.

<sup>17</sup> So they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, in that he opened your eyes?" He replied, "He is a prophet."

<sup>18</sup> The Jews refused to believe that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight.

<sup>19</sup> They asked them, "Is this your son, who you allege was born blind? How then is he able to see now?"

<sup>20</sup> His parents replied, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind.

<sup>21</sup> But how he now is able to see, we don't know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him, he is of age. He can speak for himself."

<sup>22</sup> His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus to be the Messiah, he would be put out of the synagogue.

<sup>23</sup> That is why his parents said, "He is of age, ask him."

<sup>24</sup> So they called the man who was blind a second time, and told him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

<sup>25</sup> He answered, "Whether he is a sinner, I don't know; one thing I do know: that once I was blind, now I see."

<sup>26</sup> They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

<sup>27</sup> He replied, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"

<sup>28</sup> Then they ridiculed him saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

<sup>29</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."

<sup>30</sup> The man answered, "Why, this is amazing, that you don't know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes.

<sup>31</sup> We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God and does his will, God listens to him.

<sup>32</sup> Never since the world began has it ever been heard that someone opened the eyes of a man born blind.

<sup>34</sup> They answered, "You were totally born in sins, and you dare teach us?" Then they threw him out.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had thrown him out. After finding him, he asked, "Do you believe on the Son of Man?"

<sup>37</sup> Jesus told him, "You have seen him and he is talking with you."

<sup>38</sup> He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshipped him.

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see; and those who see may become blind."

<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Certainly we are not blind, are we?"

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, "If you had been blind, you would have no sin; but now you claim, 'We see,' so your sin remains."

DASV: John 10

<sup>1</sup> "I tell you the truth, whoever enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other way is a thief and a robber.

<sup>2</sup> But the one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

<sup>3</sup> To him the doorkeeper opens; and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.

<sup>4</sup> When he has brought out all his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

<sup>5</sup> They will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him because they do not recognize the voice of strangers."

<sup>6</sup> This parable Jesus spoke to them. But they did not understand what he was talking about.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus said to them again, "I tell you the truth, I am the door for the sheep.

<sup>8</sup> All who came before me were thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not listen to them.

<sup>9</sup> I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and find pasture.

<sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy. I came so that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

<sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

<sup>12</sup> The hired hand, who is not a shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and runs away, and the wolf snatches them, and scatters them.

<sup>13</sup> He runs away because he is a hired hand, and does not really care about the sheep.

<sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, <sup>15</sup> even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father, and I lay down my life for the sheep.

<sup>16</sup> Other sheep I have, which are not from this sheepfold. I must also bring them, and they will listen to my voice; and they will become one flock under one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup> The Father loves me because I lay down my life, so that I may take it up again.

<sup>18</sup> No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down voluntarily. I have the power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. This commandment I have received from my Father."

<sup>19</sup> There was another division among the Jews because of these words.

<sup>20</sup> Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is out of his mind. Why do you listen to him?"

<sup>24</sup> The Jews surrounded him, and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus replied, "I told you and you did not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify about me.

<sup>26</sup> But you do not believe, because you are not my sheep.

<sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they follow me.

<sup>28</sup> I give them eternal life; and they will never perish. No one can snatch them out of my hand.

<sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus asked them, "I have showed you many good works from the Father; for which of those works are you stoning me?"

<sup>33</sup> The Jews replied, "We are not stoning you for a good work, but for blasphemy; because you who are just a man, claim to be God.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'?"

<sup>35</sup> If those to whom the word of God came were called 'gods,' and the Scripture cannot be broken,

<sup>36</sup> can you say about him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'you are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?"

<sup>37</sup> If I do not do the works of my Father, then don't believe me.

<sup>38</sup> But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."

<sup>39</sup> They tried again to arrest him but he escaped out of their hand.

<sup>40</sup> He went away again across the Jordan River into the place where John had been first baptizing, and he stayed there.

<sup>41</sup> Many came to him and said, "John performed no miraculous sign, but everything John spoke concerning this man was true."

<sup>42</sup> And many believed in Jesus there.

<sup>4</sup> But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

<sup>6</sup> When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was.

<sup>7</sup> Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go to back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup> But the disciples objected, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you; and you want to go back there again?"

<sup>9</sup> Jesus replied, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he won't stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

<sup>10</sup> But if someone walks in the night, he will stumble, because the light is not in him."

<sup>11</sup> After saying these things he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I go, that I may wake him up."

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples responded, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

<sup>13</sup> Now Jesus had spoken about his death; but they thought that he meant just normal sleep.

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead.

<sup>15</sup> But I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let's go to him."

<sup>16</sup> Thomas, called Didymus [meaning Twin], said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go too, so that we may die with him."

<sup>17</sup> Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

<sup>19</sup> Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them over the loss of their brother.

<sup>20</sup> When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him. But Mary remained sitting in the house.

<sup>21</sup> Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup> But even now I know that, whatever you ask from God, God will give it to you."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live even if he dies.

<sup>26</sup> Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

<sup>27</sup> She replied, "Yes, Lord. I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

<sup>28</sup> After she said this, she went away, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is asking for you."

<sup>29</sup> When she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him.

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him.

<sup>31</sup> The Jews then who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw that Mary got up quickly and went out, followed her, assuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

<sup>32</sup> Mary therefore, when she came to where Jesus was and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and disturbed.

<sup>37</sup> But some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have kept this man from dying?"

<sup>38</sup> Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was set across its entrance.

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be a stench because he has been dead for four days."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you, that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup> So they removed the stone. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes, and prayed, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

<sup>42</sup> I knew that you always listen to me; but I said it because of the crowd that stands here, that they may believe that you have sent me."

<sup>44</sup> He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with grave clothes; and his face was wrapped with a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Loose him, and let him go."

<sup>45</sup> So many of the Jews, who had come to Mary and saw what he did, believed in him.

<sup>46</sup> But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup> Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we going to do? This man is performing many miraculous signs.

<sup>48</sup> If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will come and take away both our holy place and our nation."

<sup>49</sup> But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You don't know anything.

<sup>50</sup> You don't realize that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, than that the whole nation should be destroyed."

<sup>51</sup> Now he said this not from himself; but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation;

<sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God scattered abroad.

<sup>53</sup> So from that day on they plotted how they might put him to death.

<sup>54</sup> As a result Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover in order to purify themselves.

<sup>56</sup> They were looking for Jesus, and spoke to each other, as they stood in the temple area, saying, "What do you think? He won't come to the feast, will he?"

<sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders, that if anyone knew where he was, they should inform them, so that they might arrest him.

DASV: John 12

<sup>1</sup> Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

<sup>2</sup> So they prepared a dinner for him there. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him.

<sup>6</sup> Now he said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and took care of the disciples' moneybag, and he used to steal some for himself from what was put in it.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus said, "Leave her alone, for she did this for my burial day.

<sup>8</sup> For you always have the poor with you; but me you do not always have."

<sup>9</sup> When a crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only for Jesus' sake, but so that they might see Lazarus too, whom he had raised from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> Now the chief priests were planning to put Lazarus to death as well, <sup>11</sup> because on account of him many of the Jews were deserting and believing in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> The next day a large crowd had come to the feast when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> They took the branches from palm trees, and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, blessed is the King of Israel."

<sup>16</sup> His disciples did not understand these things at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him.

<sup>17</sup> The crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, told others about it.

<sup>18</sup> Because they heard that Jesus had done this miraculous sign, the crowd went out and met him.

<sup>19</sup> Then Pharisees said among themselves, "Look, you can't do anything for the world has gone after him."

<sup>21</sup> These approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus."

<sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> I tell you the truth, unless a grain of wheat fall into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.

<sup>25</sup> Whoever loves his life will lose it; and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for life eternal.

<sup>26</sup> If anyone wants to serve me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be as well; if anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>27</sup> Now is my soul troubled. What should I say? Father, save me from this hour. But this is the very reason I have come to this hour.

<sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name." Then a voice out of heaven said, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

<sup>29</sup> The crowd standing there heard it, but thought it had thundered. Others said, "An angel spoke to him."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your benefit, not mine.

<sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be thrown out.

<sup>32</sup> And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."

<sup>34</sup> The crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever so how can you claim, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, "Yet a little while the light will be with you. Walk while you have the light, so that darkness does not overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

<sup>36</sup> While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, then he left and hid from them.

<sup>37</sup> Even though he had done so many signs in front of them, still they did not believe in him.

<sup>38</sup> This was so the word of Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled when he said, "Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

<sup>39</sup> For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah also said,

<sup>40</sup> "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts; so that they would not see with their eyes, understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them."

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things, because he saw his glory and spoke about him.

<sup>42</sup> Nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him; but because of the Pharisees they did not admit it publically, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue.

<sup>44</sup> Then Jesus cried out, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me.

<sup>45</sup> and whoever sees me sees him who sent me.

<sup>46</sup> I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.

<sup>47</sup> If anyone hears my sayings, and does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

<sup>48</sup> The one who rejects me, and does not receive my sayings, has one who judges him; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

<sup>49</sup> For I did not speak from myself; but the Father who sent me, he has given me a commandment about what I should say and what I should speak.

<sup>50</sup> I know that his commandment is life eternal. The things therefore which I speak, are just what the Father has told to me to say."

DASV: John 13

<sup>1</sup> Now just before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to his Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

<sup>2</sup> During supper, the devil had already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus, realizing that the Father had given all the things into his hands, and that he had come from God, and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup> rose from supper and laid aside his outer garments, took a towel and tied it around himself.

<sup>5</sup> Then he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them dry with the towel that he had wrapped around him.

<sup>6</sup> When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, "You don't understand what I'm doing now; but you will understand it later."

<sup>8</sup> Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, "One who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, to be totally clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you."

<sup>11</sup> For he knew who was going to betray him; which is why he said, "All of you are not clean."

<sup>12</sup> So when he had washed their feet, he put on his clothes, and sat down again. He said to them, "Do you realize what I have done to you?"

<sup>13</sup> You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and you are right; for that is what I am.

<sup>14</sup> If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

<sup>15</sup> For I have given you an example, that you should do just as I have done to you.

<sup>16</sup> I tell you the truth, a servant is not greater than his master; neither is a messenger sent greater than the one who sent him.

<sup>18</sup> I am not speaking about all of you; I know the ones I have chosen; but that the Scripture may be fulfilled that says: 'He who eats my bread has lifted up his heel against me.'

<sup>19</sup> I am telling you this before it happens, so that when it comes to pass, you may believe that I am he.

<sup>20</sup> I tell you the truth, anyone who receives whomever I send receives me; and he who receives me receives him who sent me."

<sup>21</sup> After Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

<sup>22</sup> The disciples looked at each other, wondering whom he was talking about.

<sup>25</sup> So he, leaning back next to Jesus, asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he took and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup> After Judas had taken the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you are going to do, do quickly."

<sup>28</sup> Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him.

<sup>29</sup> Some thought that because Judas had the moneybag, that Jesus said to him, "Buy whatever we need for the feast", or that he should give something to the poor.

<sup>30</sup> So after he had received the piece of bread he went out immediately. Now it was night.

<sup>31</sup> When therefore he had gone, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

<sup>32</sup> If God is glorified in him, he will glorify him in himself and will glorify him right away.

<sup>33</sup> Children, I will be with you just a little while longer. You will seek me and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go, you cannot come', so now I am telling you.

<sup>34</sup> A new commandment I am giving you, that you love one another; just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

<sup>35</sup> By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

<sup>36</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus replied, "Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you will follow afterward."

<sup>37</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

<sup>38</sup> Jesus replied, "Will you lay down your life for me? I tell you the truth, the rooster will not crow, until you have denied me three times."

DASV: John 14

<sup>1</sup> "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, believe also in me.

<sup>2</sup> In my Father's house are many dwellings. If it were not so, I would have told you; because I am going to prepare a place for you.

<sup>3</sup> And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and get you; that where I am, you may be also.

<sup>5</sup> Thomas asked him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup> Jesus replied, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father, except through me.

<sup>7</sup> If you had known me, you would have known my Father also; from now on you know him, and have seen him."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus replied, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you still don't know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How then can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

<sup>10</sup> Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak to you I speak not from myself, but the Father who lives in me does his works.

<sup>11</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me just because of the miraculous works' themselves.

<sup>12</sup> I tell you the truth, whoever believes on me, the works that I do he will do also; and he will do even greater works than these because I am going to the Father.

<sup>13</sup> Whatever you ask in my name, I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

<sup>14</sup> If you ask anything in my name, I will do it.

<sup>15</sup> If you love me, you will obey my commandments.

<sup>16</sup> And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, who will be with you forever;

<sup>17</sup> the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive; for it does not see him or know him. You know him; for he lives with you, and will be in you.

<sup>18</sup> I will not abandon you as orphans; I will come to you.

<sup>19</sup> In a little while, the world will see me no more; but you will see me; because I live, you too will live.

<sup>20</sup> In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I in you.

<sup>21</sup> The one who has my commandments, and obeys them, that one loves me and the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

<sup>22</sup> Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what has happened that you intend to manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "If someone loves me, he will obey my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our residence with him.

<sup>24</sup> The one who does not love me does not obey my words. The word you hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

<sup>25</sup> I have spoken these things to you, while I am still with you.

<sup>26</sup> But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance everything that I told you.

<sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I am not giving it to you as the world gives it. Don't let your heart be troubled or afraid.

<sup>28</sup> You heard how I said to you, I am going away, but I will come back to you. If you loved me, you would rejoice, because I go to the Father; because the Father is greater than I.

<sup>29</sup> Now I have told you before it happens, so that when it takes place, you may believe.

<sup>30</sup> I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of the world is coming. He has no power over me, <sup>31</sup> but I am doing what the Father commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Get up, let's get out of here."

DASV: John 15

- <sup>1</sup> "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener.
- <sup>2</sup> Every branch in me that bears not fruit, he cuts off; and every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, so that it will bear more fruit.
- <sup>3</sup> Already you are clean because of the word I have spoken to you.
- <sup>4</sup> Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, except it remain in the vine; neither can you, unless you remain in me.
- <sup>5</sup> I am the vine, you are the branches. The one who remains in me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for apart from me you can do nothing.
- <sup>6</sup> If a man does not remain in me, he is thrown away like a branch, and withers. They gather them up, and throw them into the fire and are burned up.
- <sup>7</sup> If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, ask whatever you want, and it will be done for you.
- <sup>8</sup> By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.
- <sup>9</sup> As the Father has loved me, I also have loved you; remain in my love.
- <sup>10</sup> If you obey my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commandments and remain in his love.
- <sup>11</sup> I have told you these things so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.
- <sup>12</sup> This is my commandment: love one another, just as I have loved you.
- <sup>13</sup> No one has greater love than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
- <sup>14</sup> You are my friends if you do what I command you.
- <sup>15</sup> No longer do I call you servants; for the servant does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you.
- <sup>16</sup> You did not choose me, but I chose you. I appointed you to go and bear fruit. Your fruit will last because whatever you will ask from the Father in my name, he will give it to you.
- <sup>17</sup> These things I command you, so that you will love one another.
- <sup>18</sup> If the world hates you, you know that it hated me before it hated you.
- <sup>19</sup> If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you do not belong to the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
- <sup>20</sup> Remember the word that I told you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you too. If they have obeyed my word, they will obey yours too.
- <sup>21</sup> But they will do all these things to you for my name's sake, because they do not know the one who sent me.
- <sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever hates me, also hates my Father.

<sup>24</sup> If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have sin. But now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.

<sup>26</sup> But when the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who comes from the Father, he will testify about me.

<sup>27</sup> You also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning."

DASV: John 16

<sup>1</sup> "I have spoken all these things to you, so that you will not fall away.

<sup>2</sup> They will put you out of the synagogues; yet the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is offering service to God.

<sup>3</sup> They will do these things, because they have not known the Father or me.

<sup>4</sup> But I am telling you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember how I told you about them. I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you.

<sup>5</sup> But now I am going to him who sent me; and none of you is asking me, 'Where are you going'?

<sup>6</sup> But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.

<sup>7</sup> Nevertheless I tell you the truth, it is beneficial for you that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

<sup>8</sup> When he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin, righteousness and judgment:

<sup>9</sup> of sin, because they do not believe in me;

<sup>10</sup> of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will no longer see me;

<sup>11</sup> of judgment, because the prince of this world has been condemned.

<sup>12</sup> I still have many things to tell you, but you cannot handle them now.

<sup>13</sup> However, when the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak on his own authority; but whatever he hears, he will speak; and he will tell you about what is to come.

<sup>14</sup> He will glorify me, for he will receive it from me, and will declare it to you.

<sup>15</sup> Everything that the Father has is mine; that is why I said that he will receive it from me, and declare it to you.

<sup>16</sup> A little while, and you will no longer see me; and again a little while, and you will see me."

<sup>17</sup> Then some of his disciples said to each other, "What does he mean, 'A little while, and you will not see me; and again in a little while, you will see me'; and 'because I am going to the Father'?"

<sup>18</sup> Then they said, "What does he mean, 'A little while'? We don't know what he is talking about."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, "Are you asking each other about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see me, and again a little while, and you will see me'?"

<sup>20</sup> I tell you the truth, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned to joy.

<sup>21</sup> When a woman is in labor she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she has given birth to her child, she does not remember the suffering, because of the joy that a baby has been born into the world.

<sup>22</sup> But you now have sorrow; but I will see you again, then your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

<sup>23</sup> In that day you will not ask me anything. I tell you the truth, if you will ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.

<sup>24</sup> So far you have not asked for anything in my name; ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made complete.

<sup>25</sup> I have told you these things in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in abstruse figures, but will tell you plainly about the Father.

<sup>26</sup> In that day you will ask in my name. I am not telling you that I will ask the Father on your behalf;

<sup>27</sup> for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from the Father.

<sup>28</sup> I came from the Father, and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."

<sup>30</sup> Now we know that you know all things, and do not need to have anyone ask you anything. Because of this we believe that you came from God."

<sup>32</sup> The hour is coming, indeed has come already, when you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and I will be left alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

<sup>33</sup> I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have trouble; but take courage, I have overcome the world."

DASV: John 17

<sup>1</sup> After having spoken these things, Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour is come; glorify your son, so that the son may glorify you,

<sup>2</sup> just as you gave him authority over all people, so that he may give eternal life to all those you have given him.

<sup>3</sup> This is life eternal, that they should know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

<sup>4</sup> I glorified you on the earth by finishing the work you gave me to do.

<sup>5</sup> Now, Father, glorify me beside you with the glory which I had with you before the world was made.

<sup>6</sup> I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me; and they have kept your word.

<sup>7</sup> Now they know that everything you have given me is from you,

<sup>8</sup> for the words which you gave me I have given to them; and they received them, and know for sure that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me.

<sup>9</sup> I pray for them. I pray not for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours.

<sup>10</sup> Everything that is mine is yours, and yours is mine, and I am glorified by them.

<sup>11</sup> I am no longer in the world, yet these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, by your name watch over those you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one.

<sup>12</sup> While I was with them, I watched over them by your name which you have given me. I guarded them so that not one of them was lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

<sup>13</sup> But now I am coming to you; and I am saying these things in the world, that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

<sup>14</sup> I have given them your word; and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

<sup>15</sup> I pray not that you should take them out the world, but that you should keep them from the evil one.

<sup>18</sup> Just as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world.

<sup>19</sup> And for their sakes I consecrate myself, that they also may be consecrated by the truth.

<sup>20</sup> I do not pray for these only, but also for those who will believe on me through their word, <sup>21</sup> that all of them may be one; just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they may also be in us; that the world may believe that you have sent me.

<sup>22</sup> The glory you have given me I have given them; that they may be one, just as we are one.

<sup>23</sup> I in them and you in me that they may be brought into perfect unity; that the world may know that you sent me, and love them, just as you love me.

<sup>24</sup> Father, I desire that those you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, that you have given me; for you loved me before the foundation of the world.

<sup>25</sup> O righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me.

<sup>26</sup> I have made known your name to them, and will make it known; so that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

DASV: John 18

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron Valley. He and his disciples entered the garden there.

<sup>2</sup> Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples.

<sup>3</sup> So Judas brought a band of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees. They approached with lanterns, torches and weapons.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus, who knew everything that was going to happen to him, went out, and asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

<sup>5</sup> They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus replied, "I am he." Judas who betrayed him was also standing with them.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they moved back and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Again he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If you are looking for me, let these others go."

<sup>9</sup> He said this so that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "I have not lost a single one of those whom you have given me."

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus told Peter, "Put your sword back into the sheath; must I not drink the cup the Father has given to me?"

<sup>12</sup> So the band of soldiers, the commander and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him.

<sup>13</sup> First they led him to Annas; for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

<sup>14</sup> Now Caiaphas was the one who gave counsel to the Jews that it was beneficial that one person should die for the people.

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Now the high priest knew that disciple, so he entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest.

<sup>16</sup> But Peter was standing outside the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the woman who kept the door, and brought Peter in.

<sup>17</sup> The servant girl who kept the door asked Peter, "You're not one of this man's disciples too, are you? He said, "No, I'm not."

<sup>18</sup> Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing there warming himself.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews gather. I have said nothing in secret.

<sup>21</sup> Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me, what I spoke to them. They know what I said."

<sup>22</sup> When he said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus' face, saying, "Is this how you answer the high priest?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "If I have said something wrong, testify proving it wrong. But if I spoke what was right, why did you slap me?"

<sup>26</sup> One of the high priest's servants, being a relative of the one whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter denied again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>28</sup> Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's palace, so that they would not become ritually defiled but be able to eat the Passover.

<sup>29</sup> Then Pilate went out to them, and said, "What accusation are you bringing against this man?"

<sup>30</sup> They replied, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

<sup>31</sup> Then Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." But the Jews replied, "It is not lawful for us to put someone to death."

<sup>32</sup> This fulfilled the word Jesus had spoken, indicating what kind of death he would die.

<sup>33</sup> Then Pilate entered again into the governor's palace, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, "Are you asking this for yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?"

<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from here."

<sup>37</sup> Then Pilate asked him, "Are you a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. This is why I was born, and for this reason I have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

<sup>38</sup> Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and told them, "I find no criminal charge against him."

<sup>39</sup> But you have a custom, that I should release a prisoner to you at the Passover. Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>3</sup> They came to him, and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They repeatedly struck him in the face.

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Look, I bring him out to you to let you know that I find no criminal charge against him."

<sup>6</sup> When the chief priests and officers saw him, they shouted out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate told them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him; for I find no criminal case against him."

<sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he claimed to be the Son of God."

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard this accusation, he was even more afraid.

<sup>9</sup> So he entered into the governor's palace again, and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

<sup>10</sup> Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not answer me? Don't you realize that I have power to release you and to crucify you?"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus replied, "You would have no power against me, except it were given to you from above. Therefore the one who has handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

<sup>12</sup> After this Pilate sought to release him; but the Jews shouted out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar."

<sup>13</sup> When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Stone Pavement (in Aramaic, Gabbatha).

<sup>14</sup> Now it was about noon on the day of the preparation for the Passover. And Pilate said to the Jews, "Look, your King!"

<sup>15</sup> Then they shouted out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

<sup>16</sup> Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

<sup>17</sup> So they took Jesus and carrying the cross by himself, he went to the place called "The Place of the Skull," or as it is called in Aramaic, Golgotha.

<sup>18</sup> There they crucified him, along with two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews."

<sup>20</sup> This inscription was read by many of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city and it was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek.

<sup>21</sup> Then the chief priests of the Jews complained to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but only that he claimed, 'I am King of the Jews'."

<sup>23</sup> Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier and also the robe. Now the robe was seamless, woven into a single piece.

<sup>24</sup> So they said to each other, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for who will get it." This was done that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "They parted my garments among them, and for my clothes they cast lots."

<sup>25</sup> So that is what the soldiers did. Now there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

<sup>26</sup> When Jesus saw his mother, and standing by her was the disciple whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, look, here is your son!"

<sup>27</sup> Then he said to the disciple, "Look, here is your mother!" From that hour on the disciple took her to his own home.

<sup>28</sup> After this Jesus knew that all things were now completed, and so that the Scripture might be fulfilled he said, "I thirst."

<sup>29</sup> There was a jar of sour wine there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop, and held it up to his mouth.

<sup>30</sup> When Jesus had received the wine, he said, "It is finished." Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup> Then, because it was the day of preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies to stay on the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a special high day. So they asked Pilate to have their legs broken and the bodies removed.

<sup>32</sup> Then soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, then the other that was crucified with him.

<sup>33</sup> When they came to Jesus, they saw that he was dead already, so they did not break his legs.

<sup>35</sup> The one who saw this has testified, and his witness is true and he knows that what he said is true, so that you also may believe.

<sup>38</sup> After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission so he came and took away his body.

<sup>39</sup> Nicodemus also came, who had first come to him at night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about seventy-five pounds.

<sup>40</sup> So they took the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the burial customs of the Jews.

<sup>41</sup> Now at the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden there was a new tomb where no one had ever been laid.

<sup>42</sup> Since it was the Jews' day of preparation, for the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

DASV: John 20

<sup>1</sup> Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw the stone taken away from the entrance.

<sup>2</sup> So she ran and came to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

<sup>3</sup> Then Peter and the other disciple went toward the tomb.

<sup>4</sup> They both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb.

<sup>5</sup> After stooping and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings lying there; but he did not go in.

<sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter also arrived, following him, and he entered the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, <sup>7</sup> and the face cloth, that was on his head, lying there but not with the linen wrappings, but rolled up in a separate place by itself.

<sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who came first to the tomb, also went in, and saw and believed.

<sup>9</sup> For they still did not understand the Scripture, that Jesus must rise from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> So the disciples went away again to their places of residence.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. As she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb.

<sup>12</sup> She saw two angels robed in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying.

<sup>13</sup> They asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She replied, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him."

<sup>14</sup> When she had said this, she turned back, and saw Jesus standing, but she didn't realize that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, assuming he was the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have taken him somewhere, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni," which means, "Teacher."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to her, "Don't cling to me; for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go to my brothers, and tell them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God."

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that he had said these things to her.

<sup>19</sup> When it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>20</sup> After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you."

<sup>22</sup> After he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>23</sup> If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven; if you retain anyone's sins, they are retained."

<sup>25</sup> So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the nail prints, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup> After eight days his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood among them, and said, "Peace be to you."

<sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands; and reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be faithless but believe."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and yet believed."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of the disciples, that are not written in this book.

<sup>31</sup> But these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in his name.

DASV: John 21

<sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas called Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples were together.

<sup>3</sup> Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They said to him, "We'll go with you." They went out and got into the boat. That night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup> But at day break, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus asked them, "Children, you don't have any fish, do you?" They replied, "No."

<sup>6</sup> He told them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some fish." So they cast the net and were not able to pull it in because of the amount of fish.

<sup>7</sup> Then that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he had nothing on under it), and jumped into the sea.

<sup>8</sup> But the other disciples came in the boat dragging the net full of fish in, for they were not far from land, only one hundred yards out.

<sup>9</sup> When they got to shore, they saw a charcoal fire there, and fish laid on it along with some bread.

<sup>11</sup> Then Simon Peter went up, and pulled the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three. There were so many yet the net did not break.

<sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come have some breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread, and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

<sup>14</sup> This was now the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples, after he had risen from the dead.

<sup>15</sup> So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He replied, "Yes, Lord; you know I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He replied, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" He replied, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

<sup>18</sup> I tell you the truth, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked wherever you wanted to, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."

<sup>19</sup> Now he said this indicating the kind of death by which Peter was going to glorify God. When he had said this, he told him, "Follow me."

<sup>20</sup> Peter, turning around, saw the disciple Jesus loved following; the one who also leaned back on Jesus at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is going to betray you?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, "If I want him to stay alive until I come back, what is that to you? You need to follow me."

<sup>23</sup> Because of this saying a rumor was spread among the brothers, that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not tell him that he would not die; but, "If I want him to stay alive until I come back, what is that to you?"

<sup>24</sup> This is the disciple who testifies of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup> Jesus did many other things which if they were all written down, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Acts 1

<sup>1</sup> In the first book, O Theophilus, I wrote about everything Jesus began to do and teach,

<sup>2</sup> until the day he was taken up to heaven; after he had given instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

<sup>3</sup> To them he also showed himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them over the space of forty days, and speaking about the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> Being assembled together with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, "which," he said, "you have heard from me.

<sup>5</sup> For John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit in just a few days."

<sup>6</sup> So when they were gathered together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> He replied, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has set by His own authority.

<sup>8</sup> But you will receive power, when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

<sup>9</sup> After he had said these things, as they were watching, he was lifted up and a cloud concealed him from their sight.

<sup>10</sup> While they were still gazing up into heaven while he was leaving, two men stood by them in white clothes.

<sup>11</sup> They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing gazing up into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

<sup>13</sup> When they had entered the city, they went to an upstairs room where they were staying: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.

<sup>14</sup> With one mind all these continued in prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with Jesus' brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In those days Peter stood up in the middle of the believers (there was a group of about 120 people gathered there), and said, <sup>16</sup> "Brothers, it was necessary to fulfill the Scripture, that the Holy Spirit spoke before through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was a guide to those who took Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> For he was numbered as one of us, and had his part in this ministry."

<sup>19</sup> It became known to all the residents of Jerusalem; so that in their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.

<sup>21</sup> Now then we must choose one of the men who has accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us,

<sup>22</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was taken up from us, one of these who must also have been a witness with us of his resurrection."

<sup>24</sup> They prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show us which of these two you have chosen

<sup>25</sup> to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned away, that he might go to his own place."

<sup>26</sup> They cast lots between them; and the lot fell on Matthias. So he was counted with the eleven apostles.

DASV: Acts 2

<sup>1</sup> When the day of Pentecost had now come, they were all together in one place.

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly there was a sound like the rushing of a violent wind from heaven, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

<sup>3</sup> Then tongues spreading out like flames of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them.

<sup>4</sup> They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave ability.

<sup>5</sup> Now there were living in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

<sup>6</sup> When this sound was heard, the crowd came together, and were mystified, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language.

<sup>7</sup> They were all amazed and astonished, saying, "Aren't all these who are speaking Galilaeans?"

<sup>8</sup> How is it that we each hear in our own native language?

<sup>10</sup> Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speaking in our own languages the mighty works of God."

<sup>12</sup> They were all astonished and perplexed, saying to each other, "What does this mean?"

<sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice, and spoke to them, "Men of Judea, and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words.

<sup>15</sup> For these people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine o'clock in the morning.

<sup>17</sup> 'In the last days, God says,

I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.

Your sons and your daughters will prophesy,

and your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> Even on my male and female servants in those days I will I pour out of my Spirit;

and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup> I will display wonders in the heaven above, and miraculous signs on the earth below, blood, fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>20</sup> The sun will be turned to darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the day of the Lord comes,
that great and awesome day.

<sup>21</sup> Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>22</sup> You men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested by God to you by mighty works, wonders and miraculous signs which God did through him among you, as you yourselves are aware,

<sup>23</sup> this one, being delivered up by the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you, by the hand of lawless men, executed him nailing him to the cross.

<sup>24</sup> God raised him up, having released him from the pains of death because it was impossible that he could be held in its grip.

<sup>25</sup> For David said concerning him,
'I saw the Lord always before my face;
for he was at my right hand,
so that I will not be shaken.

<sup>26</sup> therefore my heart was glad,
and my tongue rejoiced;
yet my body also will live in hope,

<sup>27</sup> because you will not leave my soul in Hades, neither will you allow your Holy One to see corruption.

<sup>28</sup> You made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness in your presence.'

<sup>29</sup> Brothers, I tell you confidently concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore since he was a prophet, and knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne,

<sup>31</sup> David foreseeing this spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, that he was not left in Hades, nor did his body see corruption.

<sup>32</sup> This Jesus God raised up, and we are all witnesses of this.

Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, that you now see and hear.

<sup>34</sup> For David did not ascend into heaven; but he said,

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit on my right hand,

<sup>35</sup> until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet.'"

<sup>36</sup> Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain, that God has made this Jesus whom you have crucified both Lord and Messiah."

<sup>37</sup> Now when they heard this, they were pierced in their hearts, and asked Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

<sup>38</sup> Peter replied, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>39</sup> For this promise is for you and your children, and to all who are afar off, everyone who the Lord our God will call to himself."

<sup>41</sup> They who accepted his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand people were added.

<sup>42</sup> They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, and to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

<sup>43</sup> Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles.

<sup>45</sup> They sold their possessions and goods, and shared the proceeds with everyone, as anyone had need.

<sup>46</sup> Each day they met together in the temple, broke bread at home and ate their food with gladness and generosity of heart, <sup>47</sup> praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to them day by day those who were being saved.

DASV: Acts 3

<sup>1</sup> Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>3</sup> When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them for a donation.

<sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold; but what I have, I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk."

<sup>7</sup> Then Peter took him by the right hand, and pulled him up. Immediately his feet and his ankles became strong.

<sup>8</sup> Leaping up, he stood and began to walk. He entered into the temple with them, walking, leaping and praising God.

<sup>10</sup> They recognized him, that he was the one who sat begging for donations at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

<sup>11</sup> As he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's Portico, absolutely astonished.

<sup>12</sup> When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us, as though we, by our own power or godliness, made him walk?"

<sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our forefathers, has glorified his servant Jesus; whom you handed over and rejected before Pilate, when he had decided to release him.

<sup>14</sup> But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One, and asked instead for a murderer to be released to you.

<sup>15</sup> You killed the author of life; whom God raised from the dead. We are witnesses of it.

<sup>16</sup> By faith in his name, just as his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through Jesus has given him this total healing in the presence of all of you.

<sup>17</sup> Now, brothers, I know that you did it in ignorance, as your rulers did also.

<sup>18</sup> But the things which God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer, he has fulfilled.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore repent and turn back to God so that your sins may be blotted out. Then times of refreshment may come from the presence of the Lord, <sup>20</sup> and so that he may send the Messiah who has been appointed for you, even Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> He must remain in heaven until the time of the restoration of all things, which God announced through the mouth of His holy prophets long ago.

<sup>22</sup> Moses indeed said, 'A prophet will the Lord God raise up for you from among your brothers, like me. You must listen to everything he tells you.

<sup>23</sup> Anyone who does not listen to that prophet, will be totally destroyed from among the people.'

<sup>25</sup> You are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant God made with your forefathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your descendants all the families of the earth will be blessed.'

<sup>26</sup> God raised up his servant and sent him to bless you first, by turning every one of you from your wicked ways."

DASV: Acts 4

<sup>1</sup> While they were speaking to the people, the priests, the commander of the temple and the Sadducees came to them,

<sup>2</sup> greatly disturbed because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>3</sup> They arrested them, and took them into custody until the next day, for it was already evening.

<sup>4</sup> But many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

<sup>5</sup> On the next day, their rulers, elders and religious scholars were gathered together in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> Annas the high priest was there with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others who were relatives of the high priest.

<sup>7</sup> When they had set them in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, did you do this?"

<sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders,

<sup>9</sup> if we are on trial this day concerning a good deed done to a sick man, by what means this man is healed,

<sup>10</sup> let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by him this man stands here before you cured.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, he has become the chief cornerstone.

<sup>12</sup> There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven, given among humans, by which we must be saved."

<sup>13</sup> Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they were amazed and realized that they had been with Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> So they ordered them to leave the council. Then they conferred with each other,

<sup>16</sup> saying, "What should we do to these men? For truly they have performed a notable miracle as is apparent to all who live in Jerusalem. We cannot deny it.

<sup>17</sup> But so that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them not to speak any more to anyone in this name."

<sup>18</sup> So they called them, and ordered them not to speak at all or teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> But Peter and John replied, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge;

<sup>20</sup> for it is impossible for us not to speak the things which we have seen and heard."

<sup>21</sup> After they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for all of them were praising God for what was done.

<sup>22</sup> The man was more than forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

<sup>23</sup> Being released, they went back to their friends and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

<sup>24</sup> When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God together, and said, "O Lord, you who made the heaven, the earth and the sea, and all that is in them,

<sup>25</sup> you said by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our forefather David your servant,       'Why do the Gentiles rage, and the peoples make foolish plots?

<sup>26</sup>       The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers gathered together, against the Lord,
  and against his Anointed.'

<sup>27</sup> For in fact in this city both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, <sup>28</sup> to do whatever your hand and your council determined beforehand to come to pass.

<sup>29</sup> Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to your servants the ability to speak your word with all boldness,

<sup>30</sup> while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup> After they had prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

<sup>32</sup> The community of believers were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed that anything which he possessed was his own; but they shared all things in common.

<sup>33</sup> With great power the apostles testified about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace was on them all.

<sup>34</sup> For no one among them lacked anything; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds from the things that were sold,

<sup>35</sup> and laid them at the apostles' feet. The proceeds were then distributed to each, according to their need.

<sup>36</sup> Joseph, a Levite, from Cyprus, who was surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which means, "son of encouragement"), <sup>37</sup> having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>3</sup> Now Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the proceeds from the sale of the land?"

<sup>4</sup> While it remained unsold, did it not belong to you? Even after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? How did you ever devise this scam in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God."

<sup>5</sup> When Ananias heard these words, he fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard about it.

<sup>6</sup> The young men came, wrapped him up, then carried him out and buried him.

<sup>8</sup> Peter asked her, "Tell me, did you and your husband sell the land for this much?" She replied, "Yes, for that much."

<sup>9</sup> Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you both agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out too."

<sup>10</sup> Immediately she fell down at his feet, and died. Then the young men came in and found her dead, so they carried her out and buried her by her husband.

<sup>11</sup> Great fear came on the whole church, and on all who heard these things.

<sup>12</sup> Now through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were performed among the people. They were all together in Solomon's Portico.

<sup>13</sup> But none of the rest dared join them, although the people held them in high regard.

<sup>14</sup> Yet more and more believers were added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women.

<sup>15</sup> So much so that they even carried the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and mats, so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.

<sup>16</sup> Crowds also came together from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits; and every one of them was healed.

<sup>17</sup> But the high priest rose up, and all they who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy.

<sup>20</sup> "Go, stand and proclaim in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

<sup>21</sup> After hearing this they entered the temple at daybreak and began teaching. Now the high priest came, and those who were with him convened the Sanhedrin, and the full assembly of the people of Israel, and sent to the jail to have them brought out.

<sup>22</sup> But the officers who came did not find them in the prison; so they returned, and reported,

<sup>23</sup> "We found the jail locked shut, and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside."

<sup>24</sup> Now when the commander of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed concerning them wondering what was going on.

<sup>25</sup> Then someone came and told them, "Look, the men you put in the jail are standing in the temple and teaching the people."

<sup>26</sup> Then the commander went with the officers, and brought them in, but without violence; for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

<sup>27</sup> When they had brought them in, they set them before the council. The high priest asked them,

<sup>28</sup> "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to hold us responsible for this man's blood."

<sup>29</sup> But Peter and the apostles replied, "We must obey God rather than men.

<sup>30</sup> The God of our forefathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree.

<sup>31</sup> God exalted him at his right hand to be a Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

<sup>32</sup> We are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

<sup>33</sup> But when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and were determined to kill them.

<sup>34</sup> But one in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, who was respected by all the people, stood up and ordered the apostles to be put outside for a little while.

<sup>35</sup> Then he addressed the council, "You men of Israel, be careful what you propose to do to these men.

<sup>36</sup> For a while ago Theudas rose up claiming to be somebody important. About 400 men joined him, and he was killed and all who followed him were dispersed and nothing came of it.

<sup>37</sup> After him, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away some people to follow him. He also perished, and everyone who followed him was scattered.

<sup>38</sup> Now I tell to you, stay away from these men and leave them alone, for if their plotting or this undertaking is from men, then it will be overthrown;

<sup>39</sup> but if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or you may even be found to be fighting against God."

<sup>40</sup> So he convinced them. Then they called the apostles back to them, they beat them and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

<sup>41</sup> So they left the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

<sup>42</sup> Every day, in the temple and at home, they did not stop teaching and proclaiming that Jesus was the Messiah.

DASV: Acts 6

<sup>1</sup> Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was increasing, there arose a complaint from the Grecian Jews against the Hebrew oriented Jews, because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food.

<sup>2</sup> The twelve called the crowd of the disciples to them, and said, "It is not right that we should neglect the word of God, to serve tables.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, brothers, select seven men of good reputation from among you, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this business.

<sup>4</sup> But we will devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.

<sup>5</sup> The suggestion pleased the whole community and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

<sup>7</sup> The word of God continued spreading and the number of the disciples greatly increased in Jerusalem, including a great group of priests who became obedient to the faith.

<sup>8</sup> Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and miraculous signs among the people.

<sup>9</sup> But there arose some from the synagogue which was called the Freedmen, both Cyrenians and Alexandrians along with some from Cilicia and Asia, who argued with Stephen.

<sup>10</sup> But they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

<sup>11</sup> Then they secretly incited some men, who claimed, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."

<sup>12</sup> So they stirred up the people, along with the elders and scribes. Then they accosted Stephen, arrested him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin.

<sup>13</sup> They set up false witnesses, who claimed, "This man never stops saying things against this holy place and the law.

<sup>14</sup> For we heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

<sup>2</sup> Stephen replied, "Brothers and fathers, listen, the God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran.

<sup>3</sup> He told him, 'Leave your country and your relatives, and go to the land that I will show you.'

<sup>4</sup> Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. From there, after his father died, God had him move into this land where you are now living.

<sup>5</sup> He did not give him any of it for an inheritance, not even enough to set his foot down on. God promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him, even when he was childless.

<sup>6</sup> God spoke concerning this, that his descendants would sojourn in a foreign land, and that residents there would enslave and oppress them for four hundred years.

<sup>7</sup> 'The nation that they will be in bondage to I will judge,' God said, 'and after that they will come out and serve me in this place.'

<sup>8</sup> Then he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. So he became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Then Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup> The patriarchs, being jealous of Joseph, sold him to Egypt, but God was with him.

<sup>10</sup> He rescued him out of all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt including his whole household.

<sup>11</sup> Now there was a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, causing great misery, and our forefathers could find no food.

<sup>12</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers the first time.

<sup>13</sup> On their second trip Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, and Joseph's family background became known to Pharaoh.

<sup>14</sup> Then Joseph sent and called for Jacob his father, and all his relatives, totaling seventy-five people.

<sup>15</sup> So Jacob went down to Egypt, and he died there as did our forefathers.

<sup>16</sup> Later they were carried back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham had purchased for some silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup> But as the time for the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> He dealt shrewdly with our people, and mistreated our forefathers, forcing them to expose their babies so that they would not live.

<sup>20</sup> At that time Moses was born, and was beautiful to God. He was taken care of for three months in his father's house.

<sup>22</sup> So Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and deeds.

<sup>23</sup> But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his relatives, the children of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> After seeing one of them being treated unjustly, he defended him, and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian.

<sup>25</sup> Now he assumed that his brothers would have understood that God was rescuing them by his hand, but they did not understand.

<sup>26</sup> The next day he came across two of them fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why are you hurting each other?'

<sup>27</sup> But he who was harming his neighbor pushed Moses away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?'

<sup>28</sup> Are you going to kill me, like you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'

<sup>29</sup> Hearing this Moses fled, and became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he had two sons.

<sup>30</sup> After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush.

<sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight, and as he approached to take a closer look, there came a voice from the Lord, <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.' Moses trembled, and did not dare to look.

<sup>33</sup> Then the Lord said to him, 'Take the sandals off your feet, for the place you are standing is holy ground.

<sup>34</sup> I have surely seen the oppression of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to rescue them. Now come for I will send you into Egypt.'

<sup>35</sup> God sent this Moses whom they refused, objecting, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' to be both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

<sup>36</sup> This one led them forth, having performed wonders and miraculous signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>37</sup> This is that Moses, who said to the people of Israel, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.'

<sup>38</sup> This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, along with our forefathers. He received living oracles to give to us.

<sup>39</sup> Our forefathers refused to obey, but pushed him aside, and in their hearts, turned back to Egypt.

<sup>40</sup> They told Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us. As for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him.'

<sup>41</sup> In those days they made a calf, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in this, the work of their hands.

<sup>42</sup> But God turned away and gave them up to serve the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets, 'Did you offer me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

<sup>43</sup> No, you took along the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of the god Rephan, and the idols you made to worship them. So I will deport you beyond Babylon.'

<sup>44</sup> Our forefathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, just as God, who spoke to Moses, directed him to make it, according to the pattern he had seen.

<sup>45</sup> Our forefathers in turn, brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations that God drove out before the face of our forefathers. It was there until the days of David.

<sup>46</sup> He found favor in the sight of God, and asked to build a dwelling for the God of Jacob.

<sup>48</sup> Yet the Most High does not live in houses made with hands. As the prophet says, <sup>49</sup> 'Heaven is my throne, and the earth is the footstool for my feet. What kind of house will you build for me?' says the Lord, 'Or what is the place of my rest?

<sup>51</sup> You are stubborn and uncircumcised in heart and ears. You always resist the Holy Spirit, just like your forefathers did.

<sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets did your forefathers not persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One; of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers.

<sup>53</sup> You received the law as it was given by angels, but you have not kept it."

<sup>54</sup> Now when they heard these things, they were furious, and they gnashed their teeth at him.

<sup>55</sup> But Stephen, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadily into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God.

<sup>56</sup> He exclaimed, "Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God."

<sup>60</sup> Then he knelt down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he fell asleep.

DASV: Acts 8

<sup>1</sup> Now Saul consented to his execution. That day a great persecution began against the church in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

<sup>3</sup> But Saul wasted the church, entering into every house, and dragging off both men and women, incarcerating them in prison.

<sup>5</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed the Messiah to them.

<sup>6</sup> The crowds with one accord paid careful attention to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the miraculous signs he did.

<sup>7</sup> For many of those who had unclean spirits, when they came out, shrieked loudly and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed.

<sup>8</sup> So there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> But there was a certain man named Simon, who previously used sorcery in that city. He amazed the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great.

<sup>11</sup> They paid him respect, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.

<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip who was proclaiming the good news concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized.

<sup>13</sup> Simon himself believed too, and after being baptized, he stayed by Philip; and as he watched the signs and great miracles being performed, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

<sup>15</sup> They went down and prayed for them, so that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>16</sup> For it had not come on any of them because they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> Then laid they their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> Now when Simon observed that the Holy Spirit came through the laying on of apostles' hands, he offered them money,

<sup>19</sup> saying, "Give me this power too, that on whomever I lay my hands, they will receive the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup> But Peter said to him, "Your silver perish with you, because you have thought you could purchase the gift of God with money.

<sup>21</sup> You have neither part or portion in this for your heart is not right before God.

<sup>22</sup> Repent therefore of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord, that perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.

<sup>23</sup> For I see that you are bitterly jealous and chained by your sin."

<sup>24</sup> Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you said will happen to me."

<sup>25</sup> After they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, and proclaimed the good news to many Samaritan villages.

<sup>26</sup> Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Get up and go south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, the desert road.

<sup>27</sup> So he got up and went. An Ethiopian eunuch, a court official under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasury, had come to Jerusalem to worship.

<sup>30</sup> So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

<sup>31</sup> He said, "How can I, except someone guides me?" Then he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> Now the passage of the Scripture he was reading was this:

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter;
and like a lamb before his shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup> In his humiliation he was denied justice.

His generation who will declare?
For his life was taken from the earth."

<sup>34</sup> Then the eunuch asked Philip, "Please tell me, was the prophet speaking about himself or some else?"

<sup>35</sup> Philip opened his mouth, and starting with this Scripture, proclaimed the good news about Jesus to him.

<sup>36</sup> As they traveled down the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Look, here's some water; what prevents me from being baptized?"

<sup>37</sup> [Some late manuscripts have: Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart you may. He answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."]

<sup>38</sup> He ordered to stop the chariot and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; and the eunuch did not see him anymore, and he went on his way rejoicing.

<sup>40</sup> But Philip found himself at Azotus, and while he was passing through he proclaimed the good news to all the towns, until he came to Caesarea.

DASV: Acts 9

<sup>2</sup> He asked him for letters addressed to the Damascus synagogues, that if he found anyone who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Now as he traveled, he approached Damascus when suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

<sup>4</sup> He fell to the ground, and heard a voice asking him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

<sup>5</sup> He said, "Who are you, Lord?" The voice replied, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

<sup>6</sup> But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you must do."

<sup>8</sup> Saul got up from the ground and when his eyes were opened, he could not see a thing. So they led him by the hand and brought him to Damascus.

<sup>9</sup> He had no sight for three days and did not eat or drink.

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He replied, "Here I am, Lord."

<sup>11</sup> Then the Lord said to him, "Get up and go to Straight Street, and ask in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For he is praying.

<sup>12</sup> He has seen a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight."

<sup>13</sup> But Ananias objected, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> Even here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen instrument to bring my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the people of Israel, <sup>16</sup> for I will show him how much he must suffer for my name's sake."

<sup>17</sup> Then Ananias left, and entered the house, and laying his hands on him said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, so that you may regain your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> Immediately something like scales fell off his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized, <sup>19</sup> and after receiving some food he was strengthened. He stayed there a few days with the disciples who were in Damascus.

<sup>21</sup> All who heard him were amazed, and asked, "Is not this the one who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? Didn't he even come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?"

<sup>22</sup> But Saul became increasingly more effective and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

<sup>24</sup> But their plot was exposed to Saul. They were even watching the gates day and night so that they might kill him.

<sup>25</sup> But his disciples took him by night, and let him down through a hole in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

<sup>26</sup> When he arrived at Jerusalem, he tried to join with the disciples but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was actually a disciple.

<sup>27</sup> But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and how he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.

<sup>28</sup> So he stayed with them going in and out of Jerusalem, <sup>29</sup> speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. He spoke and argued against the Grecian Jews; but they were trying to kill him.

<sup>30</sup> When the brothers found out, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup> So the church throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria had peace, being built up living in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, increased in numbers.

<sup>32</sup> Now as Peter went through all regions, he came down to the saints who lived at Lydda.

<sup>33</sup> There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been confined to his mat for eight years, for he was paralyzed.

<sup>34</sup> Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed." Immediately he got up.

<sup>35</sup> All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> Now there was at Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas; this woman was full of good works and acts of charity.

<sup>37</sup> In those days, she fell sick, and died. After they had washed her, they laid her in an upstairs room.

<sup>38</sup> As Lydda was near to Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, "Please come to us without delay."

<sup>39</sup> So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the upstairs room and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and clothes Dorcas had made, while she was with them.

<sup>40</sup> But Peter put them all out, kneeled down and prayed. Then turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

<sup>2</sup> He was a devout man, and one who feared God with his entire household. He gave donations generously to the people, and prayed regularly to God.

<sup>3</sup> One afternoon about three o'clock he clearly saw in a vision of an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius."

<sup>4</sup> He stared at him and was afraid. He asked, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your donations to the poor have gone up as a memorial before God.

<sup>7</sup> After the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his servants, and a devout soldier from those who waited on him continually.

<sup>9</sup> Now on the next day about noon, as they were on their journey and approached the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray.

<sup>10</sup> He became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing the meal, he fell into a trance.

<sup>11</sup> He saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet descending, lowered by its four corners to the ground.

<sup>12</sup> On it were all kinds of four-footed animals, reptiles of the earth and birds of the heaven.

<sup>16</sup> This was done three times and immediately the object was taken back up into heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Now while Peter was very puzzled over the meaning of the vision which he had seen, the men who were sent by Cornelius had inquired about Simon's house and stood at the gate.

<sup>19</sup> While Peter thought about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Three men are looking for you.

<sup>22</sup> They replied, "Cornelius a centurion, a righteous and God fearing man, well spoken of by the whole nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for you to come his house, and to hear what you have to say."

<sup>23</sup> So he invited them in and gave them a place to stay. On the next day he got up and went with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

<sup>27</sup> As he talked with him, he went in, and found many gathered together.

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "You yourselves know that it is unlawful for a Jew to associate himself or visit one of another nation; but God has shown me that I should never call anyone defiled or unclean.

<sup>29</sup> That is why I came without any objection, when I was sent for. May I ask, why you sent for me?"

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius said, "Four days ago at this time, I was praying at three o'clock in my house; when a man stood before me in shining clothes.

<sup>31</sup> He said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your donations to the poor have been remembered in the sight of God.

<sup>32</sup> Now send to Joppa, and call to you Simon, who is called Peter; he is staying in the house of a leather tanner named Simon by the sea.'

<sup>33</sup> So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now we are all present in the sight of God, to hear all things that the Lord has commanded you to tell us."

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter opened his mouth and said, "Truly I now understand that God does not show favoritism <sup>35</sup> but in every nation whoever fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

<sup>36</sup> You know the message which he sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the good news of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all).

<sup>37</sup> It was published throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John preached, <sup>38</sup> how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for God was with him.

<sup>39</sup> We are witnesses of everything he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they killed, by hanging him on a tree.

<sup>40</sup> But God raised him up on the third day, and permitted him to appear,

<sup>41</sup> not to all the people, but to us as witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

<sup>42</sup> He ordered us to preach to the people, and to testify that it was he who was ordained by God to be the judge of the living and the dead.

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.

<sup>45</sup> Those circumcised who had come with Peter who believed were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the Gentiles,

<sup>46</sup> for they heard them speak with tongues, and praising God. Then Peter asked,

<sup>47</sup> "Can anyone forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just like we did?"

<sup>48</sup> So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay there for a few days.

DASV: Acts 11

<sup>1</sup> Now the apostles and brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

<sup>2</sup> So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, they who were circumcised criticized him, <sup>3</sup> saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them."

<sup>4</sup> But Peter began to explain to them the way it happened, saying,

<sup>5</sup> "I was in the city of Joppa praying and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain object descending, it was like a large sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me.

<sup>6</sup> I stared at it carefully observing four-footed animals of the earth and wild animals and reptiles and birds of the heaven.

<sup>7</sup> Then I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.'

<sup>8</sup> But I said, 'No way, Lord; for nothing defiled or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.'

<sup>9</sup> But the voice spoke a second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, you must not call profane.'

<sup>10</sup> This happened three times then everything was drawn back up to heaven.

<sup>11</sup> At that moment three men stood in front of the house where we were, having been sent to me from Caesarea.

<sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to go with them without any discrimination. These six brothers also accompanied me and we entered into the man's house.

<sup>13</sup> He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, saying, 'Send to Joppa, and get Simon, who is called Peter.

<sup>14</sup> He will speak to you words, whereby you will be saved, you and your whole household.'

<sup>15</sup> As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as it had on us at the beginning.

<sup>16</sup> Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized with water; but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>17</sup> If then God gave to them the same gift he gave to us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could hinder God?"

<sup>18</sup> When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, "God has also granted repentance that leads to life to the Gentiles."

<sup>19</sup> Now those who were scattered abroad as a result of the trouble that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews.

<sup>20</sup> But there were some men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, after coming to Antioch, spoke to the Greeks too, preaching the good news of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> When the report about this came to the ears of the church at Jerusalem, they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup> When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged all of them to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast hearts.

<sup>24</sup> He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and many people were brought to the Lord.

<sup>26</sup> When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For that entire year they gathered with the church and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

<sup>28</sup> One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine over all the world. This actually took place in the days of Claudius.

<sup>29</sup> The disciples, everyone according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers living in Judea.

<sup>30</sup> They did this sending their support to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

<sup>1</sup> Now about that time King Herod Agrippa laid hands on some of the church to persecute them.

<sup>3</sup> When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter too. This happened during the days of the feast of Unleavened Bread.

<sup>4</sup> When he had seized him, he put him in prison, and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people.

<sup>5</sup> So Peter was kept in the prison, but the church prayed earnestly to God for him.

<sup>6</sup> On the night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter was sleeping bound with two chains between two soldiers. The guards kept watch at the door of the prison.

<sup>7</sup> Suddenly an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison cell and he tapped Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly," and his chains fell off his wrists.

<sup>8</sup> Then the angel told him, "Get dressed, and put on your sandals." So he did it. Then he told him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

<sup>9</sup> So Peter went out and followed. He did not know whether what was being done by the angel was actually happening but thought he was seeing a vision.

<sup>10</sup> When they were past the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that led into the city. It opened to them on its own and they went out, and passed down one street, and suddenly the angel left him.

<sup>11</sup> When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent his angel and delivered me from the hand of Herod, and from all that the people of the Jews were expecting to happen."

<sup>12</sup> When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, who was called Mark, where many had gathered and were praying.

<sup>13</sup> When he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.

<sup>14</sup> When she recognized Peter's voice, she did not even open the gate for joy, but ran in, and announced that Peter was standing at the gate.

<sup>15</sup> They said to her, "Are you crazy?" But she confidently insisted that it was so. They continued saying, "It is his angel."

<sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking. When they opened the door, they saw him and were astonished.

<sup>17</sup> But he, motioning to them with his hand to be quiet, told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." Then he left and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> Now at daybreak, there was no small commotion among the soldiers, over what had become of Peter.

<sup>19</sup> When Herod searched for him and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they should be put to death. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

<sup>20</sup> Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came as a group to him, having won the favor of Blastus the king's personal assistant; they asked for peace, because their country was dependent on the king's country for their food.

<sup>21</sup> On a set day Herod dressed himself in royal robes, and sat on the throne, and delivered a public speech to them.

<sup>23</sup> Immediately an angel from the Lord smote him down, because he did not give God the glory. He was eaten of worms and died.

DASV: Acts 13

<sup>1</sup> Now in the church at Antioch, there were prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon also called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen a close friend of Herod Antipas the tetrarch, and Saul.

<sup>2</sup> As they worshipped the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work that I have called them to."

<sup>3</sup> Then, after they had fasted, prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them on their way.

<sup>4</sup> So Barnabas and Saul being sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

<sup>5</sup> When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John as their assistant.

<sup>6</sup> When they had gone across the whole island over to Paphos, they met a sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The proconsul summoned Barnabas and Saul, and asked to hear the word of God.

<sup>8</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for that was the translation of his name) opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

<sup>9</sup> But Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, stared straight at him,

<sup>10</sup> and said, "O you who are all full of deceit and an absolute fraud, you are a son of the devil, you are an enemy of all righteousness; will you not stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord?"

<sup>11</sup> Now, look, the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a time." Immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

<sup>12</sup> When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Now Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia.

There John left them and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> But they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. There they went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down.

<sup>15</sup> After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent them a message, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it."

<sup>17</sup> The God of this people Israel chose our forefathers, and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm he led them out of there.

<sup>20</sup> After these things he gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet.

<sup>21</sup> After that they asked for a king, so God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years.

<sup>22</sup> After removing Saul, he raised up David to be their king. He testified concerning him and said, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do everything I want him to.'

<sup>25</sup> As John was finishing his mission, he said, "Who do you think I am? I am not he. But look, there is one coming after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.

<sup>26</sup> Brothers, descendants of the family of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, this message of salvation has been sent to us.

<sup>27</sup> For those who lived in Jerusalem and their rulers, because they did not recognize him, fulfilled the utterances of the prophets that are read every Sabbath by condemning him.

<sup>28</sup> Though they found no reason for a death sentence in him, yet they asked Pilate to have him executed.

<sup>29</sup> When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup> But God raised him from the dead.

<sup>31</sup> He was seen for many days by those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the people.

<sup>32</sup> We bring you good news of the promise made to the forefathers,

<sup>33</sup> that God has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus; as also it is written in the second Psalm,

'You are my Son,

this day I have become your father.'

<sup>34</sup> As concerning the fact that he raised him from the dead, now never to return to corruption, he has spoken in this way,

'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'

<sup>35</sup> Because he said also in another psalm,

'You will not allow your Holy One to experience corruption.'

<sup>36</sup> For David, after he had in his own generation served the purpose of God, fell asleep and was buried with his forefathers, and did experience corruption.

<sup>37</sup> But he whom God raised up did not experience corruption.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore let it be known to you, brothers, that through this man the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you.

<sup>39</sup> By him everyone who believes is justified from everything that you could not be justified from by the law of Moses.

<sup>40</sup> Beware therefore, so that what was spoken in the prophets does not come on you.

<sup>41</sup> 'Look, you scoffers, be amazed and perish;
for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will never believe even if someone tells you."

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas went out, the people urged them to speak about these matters the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> Now when the synagogue meeting had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke with them convincing them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup> The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of God.

<sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things Paul was saying by berating him.

<sup>46</sup> Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. But seeing you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we are turning to the Gentiles.

<sup>47</sup> For so has the Lord commanded us, saying,
'I have set you for a light of the Gentiles, so that you might bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

<sup>48</sup> When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed.

<sup>50</sup> But the Jews incited the devout upper-class women and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their territory.

<sup>51</sup> But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and went on to Iconium.

DASV: Acts 14

<sup>1</sup> Now the same thing happened in Iconium where Paul and Barnabas entered into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a manner that a large number of both Jews and Greeks believed.

<sup>3</sup> So they stayed there for quite some time speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the word of his grace by granting miraculous signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

<sup>4</sup> But the people of the city were divided. Some sided with the Jews, and others sided with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup> When there was a plot of both the Gentiles and the Jews along with their rulers, to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup> they learned about it and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding region.

<sup>8</sup> At Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was cripple from his mother's womb and had never walked.

<sup>9</sup> This fellow heard Paul speaking. Paul looked straight at him and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, <sup>10</sup> said loudly, "Stand upright on your feet." He leaped up and began walking.

<sup>11</sup> When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the dialect of the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form."

<sup>13</sup> The priest of Zeus, whose temple was located just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and they along with the crowd wanted to sacrifice to them.

<sup>14</sup> But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard about it, they tore their clothes, and rushed out among the crowd, crying out

<sup>15</sup> "Sirs, why are you doing these things? We also are men the same as you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn away from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven, earth and the sea, and all that is in them.

<sup>16</sup> In the past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways.

<sup>17</sup> But yet He did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, providing you with food and filling your hearts with gladness."

<sup>18</sup> Even saying these things they could scarcely restrain the crowd from sacrificing to them.

<sup>19</sup> But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium; and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, assuming that he was dead.

<sup>20</sup> But as the disciples stood around him, he got up and entered into the city. Then on the next day he went with Barnabas to Derbe.

<sup>21</sup> After they had proclaimed the good news to that city, and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch.

<sup>22</sup> They strengthened the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, saying, "We must suffer many hardships to enter into the kingdom of God."

<sup>23</sup> After they had appointed elders in every church, with prayer and fasting, they commended them to the Lord, in whom they had believed.

<sup>26</sup> There they sailed to Antioch in Syria, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

<sup>27</sup> When they arrived and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

DASV: Acts 15

<sup>1</sup> Now some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Except you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

<sup>2</sup> When Paul and Barnabas had no small disagreement and debate with them, the brothers decided that Paul and Barnabas, and some of the others, should go up to Jerusalem to consult with the apostles and elders about this issue.

<sup>3</sup> So they, being sent on their way by the church, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, reporting about the conversion of the Gentiles which caused great joy to all the brothers.

<sup>4</sup> When they had arrived at Jerusalem, they were received by the church, apostles and elders. They rehearsed all things that God had done through them.

<sup>5</sup> But there rose up some believers who belonged to a sect of the Pharisees, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to observe the law of Moses."

<sup>7</sup> After there had been much debate, Peter got up, and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the good news and believe.

<sup>8</sup> God, who knows the heart, confirmed it by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us.

<sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.

<sup>10</sup> Now why are you testing God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

<sup>11</sup> To the contrary, we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way that they are."

<sup>12</sup> All the crowd kept silent and they listened to Barnabas and Paul narrating what miraculous signs and wonders God had performed among the Gentiles through them.

<sup>13</sup> After they had held their peace, James replied, "Brothers, listen to me, <sup>14</sup> Simon has described how God first visited the Gentiles, to take from among them a people for his name.

<sup>15</sup> The words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written,

<sup>16</sup> 'After these things I will return, and I will rebuild the fallen tent of David,
and I will build again its ruins,
and I will restore it.

<sup>17</sup> that the rest of humanity may seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by my name,

<sup>18</sup> says the Lord, who accomplishes these things,

Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those Gentiles who turn to God, <sup>20</sup> but we should write to them, that they abstain from things polluted by idols, and from sexual immorality and from eating meat that has been strangled and from consuming blood.

<sup>22</sup> So it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose delegates from among them, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. So they sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers.

<sup>23</sup> They wrote the following: "From your brothers, the apostles and the elders, to the brothers who are Gentiles in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia, greetings.

<sup>24</sup> Since we have heard that some who went out from us, although they had no orders from us, have troubled and upset your minds with what they said,

<sup>26</sup> These men have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup> So we have sent Judas and Silas, who themselves also will tell you the same things by word of mouth.

<sup>28</sup> For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, not to impose on any a greater burden than these essential things:

<sup>30</sup> So they, after being sent, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.

<sup>31</sup> When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement.

<sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words.

<sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time there, they were sent in peace from the brothers back to those who had originally sent them.

<sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others also taught and proclaimed the word of the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's return now and visit the brothers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."

<sup>38</sup> But Paul did not think it good to take him with them because he deserted them in Pamphylia, and had not accompanied them in the work.

<sup>39</sup> There arose such a sharp disagreement that they split up. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus.

<sup>40</sup> Paul choose Silas, and set out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord.

DASV: Acts 16

<sup>1</sup> Paul also went to Derbe and Lystra. A disciple named Timothy was there whose mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek.

<sup>2</sup> He was recommended by the brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium.

<sup>3</sup> Paul wanted Timothy to go with him; so he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, because they all knew that his father was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> As they went on their way through the towns, they informed them of the decisions that had been reached by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and daily increased in number.

<sup>6</sup> They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in the province of Asia.

<sup>7</sup> When they came to Mysia, they tried to go to Bithynia; but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them to.

<sup>8</sup> So they passed by Mysia, and went down to Troas.

<sup>9</sup> During the night Paul had a vision. There was a man from Macedonia standing, urging him, "Come over to Macedonia, and help us."

<sup>10</sup> After Paul had seen the vision, immediately we attempted to go over into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

<sup>11</sup> So we sailed from Troas, and set a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day on to Neapolis.

<sup>12</sup> From there we went to Philippi, which is a leading city in Macedonia, and a Roman colony. We stayed in this city several days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath we went out through the gate to the river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer. We sat down, and spoke to the women who had gathered there.

<sup>14</sup> Now a woman named Lydia, a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us, and the Lord had opened her heart to respond to the things which were spoken by Paul.

<sup>15</sup> When she and her household were baptized, she invited us, saying, "If you judge me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house, and stay there." She convinced us.

<sup>16</sup> One time as we were going to the place of prayer, a slave-girl met us who had a spirit of divination. She brought her masters much gain by her fortune-telling.

<sup>17</sup> She followed behind Paul and us crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation."

<sup>18</sup> She did this for many days. But Paul got really annoyed and turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." So it came out that same hour.

<sup>19</sup> But when her masters realized that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.

<sup>20</sup> After bringing them to the magistrates, they complained, "These men are Jews, who are disturbing our city, <sup>21</sup> and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us to accept or observe, being Romans."

<sup>23</sup> When they had given them many lashes, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailor to keep them secure.

<sup>24</sup> Having received such orders, he threw them into the inner prison, and locked their feet down in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup> About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

<sup>26</sup> Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately, all the doors were opened and everyone's chains came loose.

<sup>27</sup> The jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, assuming that the prisoners had escaped.

<sup>30</sup> He brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup> They replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

<sup>32</sup> Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to everyone in his house.

<sup>33</sup> He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds; and was immediately baptized, he and all his family.

<sup>34</sup> He brought them up to his house, and set food before them; he and his entire family rejoiced greatly because of having believed in God.

<sup>36</sup> The jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; so now come out, and go in peace."

<sup>37</sup> But Paul objected, "They have publicly beaten us, uncondemned Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now they are attempting to send us away secretly? No way. Let them come and bring us out themselves."

<sup>38</sup> The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens.

<sup>39</sup> So they came and apologized to them. When they brought them out, they asked them to leave the city.

DASV: Acts 17

<sup>1</sup> Now when Paul and Silas had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

<sup>2</sup> Paul, as was his custom, went in to them and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures.

<sup>3</sup> He explained and demonstrated that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise again from the dead. He declared, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Messiah."

<sup>5</sup> But the Jews became jealous, recruited some troublemakers and formed a mob, and set the city into an uproar. They attacked Jason's house, seeking to bring Paul and Silas out to the people.

<sup>6</sup> When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city authorities, yelling, "These people who have turned the world upside down have now come here too.

<sup>7</sup> Jason has welcomed them and all of them are acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, claiming that there is another king named Jesus."

<sup>8</sup> When they heard these things, the crowd and city authorities were troubled.

<sup>9</sup> After they had gotten bail from Jason and the others, they let them go.

<sup>10</sup> The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away at night to Berea. When they arrived there they went into the Jewish synagogue.

<sup>11</sup> Now these people were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they eagerly received the word and examined the Scriptures daily, to see whether these things were true.

<sup>12</sup> Many of them therefore believed, along with a number of high ranking Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica found out that the word of God was being proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there too, agitating and stirring up the crowds.

<sup>14</sup> Then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to the seacoast while Silas and Timothy stayed behind in Berea.

<sup>15</sup> Those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Then they left with instructions for Silas and Timothy that they should come to him as soon as possible.

<sup>16</sup> Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was perturbed within him as he saw the city was full of idols.

<sup>17</sup> So he reasoned in the synagogue with Jews and devout Gentiles, and daily in the marketplace with whomever happened to be there.

<sup>18</sup> Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers debated with him. Some said, "What does this babbling man want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods," because he proclaimed the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup> They took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we learn about this new teaching that you are presenting?"

<sup>20</sup> For you are bringing some strange things to our ears, so we want to know what these things mean."

<sup>21</sup> (Now all the Athenians and the foreigners staying there spend their time doing nothing else but telling or hearing something new.)

<sup>22</sup> Paul stood in front of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I see that you are very religious.

<sup>23</sup> For as I went around and observed your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription, 'To an Unknown God.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this is what I proclaim to you.

<sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by human hands, <sup>25</sup> nor is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives everyone life and breath, and all things.

<sup>26</sup> He made from one person every nation of humanity to dwell on the entire face of the earth. He determined their set times and the boundaries of where they would live, <sup>27</sup> so that they would seek for God, if perhaps they might grope around for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us.

<sup>28</sup> For 'in him we live, and move, and have our being,' as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'

<sup>29</sup> Since we are God's offspring, we should not think of God like gold, silver or stone fashioned by craftsmen and human imagination.

<sup>30</sup> Although God has overlooked the times of ignorance, now he is commanding all people everywhere that they should repent

<sup>31</sup> because he has set a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has appointed. He has given proof to all men, by raising him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup> Now when they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, but others said, "We would like to hear you again about this."

<sup>34</sup> But some men joined him and believed. Among them were Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, as well as others with them.

<sup>2</sup> There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus. He and his wife Priscilla had recently come from Italy, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them

<sup>3</sup> and, because he had the same trade, he stayed and worked with them, for they were tentmakers by trade.

<sup>5</sup> But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul totally focused on proclaiming the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah.

<sup>6</sup> When they opposed and berated him, he shook out his clothes and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads; I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

<sup>7</sup> So he left there, and went into the house of a man named Titus Justus, one who worshipped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

<sup>8</sup> Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with his whole household. Many of the Corinthians who heard believed and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup> In a night vision the Lord said to Paul, "Do not be afraid, but speak out and do not be silent;

<sup>10</sup> for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

<sup>11</sup> So he stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>13</sup> saying, "This man persuades people to worship God contrary to the law."

<sup>14</sup> But just when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of a wrongdoing or serious crime, Jews, I would be justified in hearing your complaint, <sup>15</sup> but since it is just an issue over questions about words and names and your own law, take care of it yourselves. I am unwilling to be a judge of these types of matters."

<sup>18</sup> Paul, having stayed for sometime longer, said good-bye and left the brothers, and sailed for Syria, along with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchrrea because of the vow he had made.

<sup>19</sup> They came to Ephesus, and he left them there, but he himself entered the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

<sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay longer, he declined.

<sup>21</sup> But as he was saying farewell, he said, "I will come back to you, if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup> When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the Jerusalem church, then went down to Antioch.

<sup>24</sup> Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, and well-versed in the Scriptures.

<sup>25</sup> He had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and spoke with enthusiasm and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, but he knew only about the baptism of John.

<sup>26</sup> He began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>27</sup> When Apollos had decided to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he arrived there he greatly aided those who had believed by grace, <sup>28</sup> for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating by means of the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

DASV: Acts 19

<sup>1</sup> While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the interior of the country, came to Ephesus and found some disciples.

<sup>2</sup> He asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They replied, "No, we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

<sup>3</sup> So he asked, "Into what then were you baptized?" They replied, "Into John's baptism."

<sup>5</sup> When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> When Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied.

<sup>8</sup> He entered into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God.

<sup>10</sup> This continued for about two years; so that all who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>12</sup> so that handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were placed on the sick, and they were cured and the evil spirits went out of them.

<sup>13</sup> But some itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to invoke name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I warn you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims."

<sup>14</sup> There were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who were doing this.

<sup>15</sup> The evil spirit answered and said to them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?"

<sup>16</sup> The man with the evil spirit leaped on them, overpowered both of them and beat them so badly that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup> This became known to everyone, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in Ephesus. Fear fell on all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was praised.

<sup>18</sup> Many also of those who had believed came, confessing and exposing their evil deeds.

Jerusalem, after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

<sup>25</sup> He gathered them together, along with the workers of those in similar trades, and said, "Sirs, you know that we prosper because of this business.

<sup>26</sup> You see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout the entire province of Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that hand-made gods are not gods at all.

<sup>27</sup> Not only is there danger that this our trade will fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be regarded as worthless, and that she, whom all Asia and the world worship, should even be deprived of her magnificence."

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this they were filled with rage, and shouted out, saying, "Great is Artemis of Ephesus!"

<sup>29</sup> The city was filled with the confusion and united they rushed into the theatre, dragging along the Macedonians, Gaius and Aristarchus, who were Paul's fellow travelers.

<sup>30</sup> When Paul wanted to enter the assembly, the disciples would not let him.

<sup>31</sup> Even some of the provincial governors, who were Paul's friends, sent to him and urged him not to venture into the theatre.

<sup>32</sup> Now some were shouting one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in total confusion, and most of them did not even know why they had come together.

<sup>34</sup> But when they realized that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>35</sup> When the town clerk had finally quieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what person is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, whose image fell out of heaven?"

<sup>36</sup> Since these things are irrefutable, you ought to quiet down and not do anything rash.

<sup>37</sup> For you have brought these men here, who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

<sup>38</sup> If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have an issue against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them go there to bring charges against one another.

<sup>39</sup> But if you want to bring anything about other matters, it must be settled in the regular assembly.

<sup>40</sup> For we are in danger of being accused regarding today's riot, since there is no justification for this commotion."

<sup>2</sup> When he had gone through those regions and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece,

<sup>3</sup> where he spent three months. The Jews made a plot against him as he was about to set sail for Syria, so he decided to return through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup> There he was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, by Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, by Gaius from Derbe, and by Timothy along with Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.

<sup>5</sup> But these had gone on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas.

<sup>6</sup> We sailed from Philippi after the days of the feast of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul was reasoning with them, intending to leave the next day, and he continued talking until midnight.

<sup>8</sup> There were many lights in the upstairs room where we had gathered.

<sup>9</sup> A young man named Eutychus who sat in the window sank into a deep sleep and as Paul kept on talking even longer. Sound asleep he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead.

<sup>10</sup> Paul went down and bent over him, and put his arms around him, and said, "Don't get upset; for he is still alive."

<sup>12</sup> They took the boy away alive, and were greatly comforted.

<sup>13</sup> But we going before by ship set sail for Assos, there intending to take Paul aboard, as he had arranged. Paul himself intended to go by land.

<sup>14</sup> When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and went to Mitylene.

<sup>15</sup> Sailing from there, on the next day we arrived off Chios. The next day we reached Samos; and the day after that we came to Miletus.

<sup>16</sup> For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in the province of Asia; for he was hurrying to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup> From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to meet with the elders of the church.

<sup>18</sup> When they arrived, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in the province of Asia, how I lived with you that whole time, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility of mind and with tears, and with trials that happened to me by the plots of the Jews.

<sup>20</sup> I did not shrink back from declaring to you anything beneficial to you, and taught you publicly as well as from house to house.

<sup>21</sup> I testified both to Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>22</sup> And now, I am compelled by the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, <sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit keeps warning me in every city that chains and persecutions await me.

<sup>24</sup> But I do not consider my life of any value to me, if only I may accomplish my mission and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify about the good news of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup> Now, I realize that none of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will see my face again.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore I testify to you this day, that I am innocent of the blood of all of you.

<sup>27</sup> For I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.

<sup>28</sup> Guard yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of the Lord that he purchased with his own blood.

<sup>29</sup> I know that after I'm gone vicious wolves will come among you, not sparing the flock.

<sup>30</sup> Even from some of your own group men will arise, speaking perverted things, to draw away the disciples after them.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore watch out for yourselves, remembering that for three years I never stopped warning every one of you day and night with tears.

<sup>32</sup> Now I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, that is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

<sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that with these hands of mine I provided for my own personal needs and also for those who were with me.

<sup>35</sup> In all things I gave you an example, that by working like this you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

<sup>36</sup> When he had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.

<sup>38</sup> They were saddened the most because of what he had said, that they would never see him again. Then they escorted him to the ship.

DASV: Acts 21

<sup>1</sup> After parting from them we set sail and sailed a straight course to Cos. The next day we came to Rhodes, and from there on to Patara.

<sup>2</sup> We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, so we got aboard and set sail.

<sup>3</sup> When we came within sight of Cyprus, leaving it on our left, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for the ship was to unload her cargo there.

<sup>4</sup> After finding the disciples, we stayed there seven days, and these told Paul through the Spirit that he should not set foot in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> When we had finished our days there, we left and continued our journey; and all of them with their wives and children escorted us on our way out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.

<sup>6</sup> We said farewell to each other and then we boarded the ship, but they returned home.

<sup>7</sup> We continued our voyage from Tyre, arriving at Ptolemais; and we greeted the brothers, and stayed with them for one day.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day we left and came to Caesarea. There we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven. We stayed with him.

<sup>11</sup> He approached us and took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says, 'This is how the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man that owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

<sup>12</sup> When we heard these things, both we and the people of that place pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Then Paul replied, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>14</sup> When it was clear he would not be persuaded, we stopped, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

<sup>15</sup> After these days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> Now some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us. They brought us to the house of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

<sup>17</sup> When we had arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly.

<sup>18</sup> The next day Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present.

<sup>19</sup> When he had greeted them, he rehearsed one by one the things God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup> When they heard it, they praised God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews; and they are all zealous for the law."

<sup>21</sup> They have been informed about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to walk according to our customs.

<sup>22</sup> What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup> So do what we tell you. We have four men who have made a vow.

<sup>24</sup> Take them and purify yourself along with them, and pay for them to shave their heads. Then everyone will know that there is no truth in the rumors that they have been told concerning you, but that you yourself walk in conformity with observing the law.

<sup>25</sup> But as for the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote, giving judgment that they should keep themselves from food sacrificed to idols, from consuming blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality."

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the men, and the next day purified himself along with them. He entered the temple, declaring the completion of the days of purification, at which time the offering would be offered for each one of them.

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from the province of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, incited all the crowd and they seized him.

<sup>28</sup> They yelled out, "Men of Israel, help! This man teaches everyone everywhere against our people, the law, and this place. Furthermore he even brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place."

<sup>29</sup> For they previously had seen him in the city with Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.

<sup>30</sup> All the city was moved, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut.

<sup>31</sup> While they were attempting to kill him, news reached the chief officer of the Roman soldiers, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

<sup>32</sup> He quickly called out the soldiers and centurions, and ran down on the crowd. When they saw the chief officer and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup> Then the chief officer approached and arrested him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. The officer inquired who he was, and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup> Some of the crowd shouted one thing, some another. When he could not determine for certain the cause of the uproar, he commanded Paul to be brought into the barracks.

<sup>35</sup> When Paul came to the stairs, because of the violence of the mob, he had to be carried by the soldiers.

<sup>37</sup> As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the chief commander, "May I speak with you?" He asked, "Do you know Greek?"

<sup>38</sup> Aren't you the Egyptian, who started a revolt and led 4,000 of these 'Assassins' out into the wilderness?"

<sup>39</sup> But Paul replied, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of a significant city. Please allow me to speak to the people."

<sup>40</sup> When he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, motioning with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

DASV: Acts 22

<sup>2</sup> When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they became even more quiet. Paul said, <sup>3</sup> "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, educated in a strict manner in the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today.

<sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and putting them into prisons, both men and women, <sup>5</sup> as the high priest and whole council of the elders can confirm. I even received letters from them to the Jewish brothers in Damascus. I was on my way there in order to bring them back to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> As I was on my way, and drew near to Damascus about noon, suddenly a great light shone from heaven around me.

<sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

<sup>8</sup> I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' He replied, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'

<sup>9</sup> Those who were with me saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the one who spoke to me.

<sup>10</sup> Then I asked, 'What should I do, Lord?' And the Lord replied, 'Get up, and go into Damascus, there you will be told all the things that are appointed for you to do.'

<sup>11</sup> Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand of those who were with me and came to Damascus.

<sup>12</sup> Someone named Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, <sup>13</sup> came to me and stood next to me and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' At that precise moment I looked up at him.

<sup>14</sup> He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth, <sup>15</sup> for you will be his witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.

<sup>18</sup> I saw the Lord saying to me, 'Hurry up and quickly get out of Jerusalem; because they will not accept your testimony concerning me.'

<sup>19</sup> I replied, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you.'

<sup>20</sup> When the blood of Stephen your witness was shed, I also was standing by, approving and keeping the clothes of those who killed him.

<sup>21</sup> Then he told me, 'Go, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.'

<sup>22</sup> The crowd had listened up to this point, then they lifted up their voices shouting, "Remove such a fellow from the earth. For he is not fit to live."

<sup>24</sup> The chief officer commanded Paul be brought into the barracks, ordering that he should be interrogated by beating him with whips, so that he might find out why they shouted against him this way.

<sup>25</sup> When they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, "Is it lawful for you to flog a man who is a Roman citizen and uncondemned?"

<sup>27</sup> The chief commander came and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" He replied, "Yes."

<sup>28</sup> Then the chief officer answered, "I acquired this citizenship for a large amount of money." Paul replied, "But I was born a Roman citizen."

<sup>29</sup> Then those who were about to interrogate him immediately withdrew from him. The chief officer also was afraid when he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had had him bound.

<sup>30</sup> But on the next day, desiring to know for certain why Paul was accused by the Jews, the commanding officer released him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to assemble. He brought Paul down and set him before them.

DASV: Acts 23

<sup>2</sup> Then the high priest Ananias ordered those who stood by Paul to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall. Do you sit judging me according to the law, and yet you order me to be struck contrary to the law?"

<sup>4</sup> Then those who stood by asked, "How dare you insult God's high priest?"

<sup>5</sup> Paul said, "I didn't realize, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"

<sup>6</sup> But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted out in the council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am being put on trial because of the hope and resurrection of the dead."

<sup>7</sup> When he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was split.

<sup>8</sup> For the Sadducees claim that there is no resurrection, angels, or spirits; but the Pharisees acknowledge all of them.

<sup>9</sup> There arose a great uproar with some of the legal scholars on the Pharisees' side standing and arguing, "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or angel actually has spoken to him?"

<sup>10</sup> When the dissension grew violent, the chief commander, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> That night the Lord stood by him, and said, "Take courage for as you have testified concerning me in Jerusalem, so must you bear witness also in Rome."

<sup>14</sup> They came to the chief priests and the elders, and announced, "We have bound ourselves with a great curse, to taste no food until we have killed Paul.

<sup>15</sup> Now therefore the council should request the chief commander that he bring Paul down to you, under the pretext that you would like to examine his case more thoroughly. Then before he gets near here, we will kill him."

<sup>16</sup> But Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, and he came, entered the barracks and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup> Paul then called to one of the centurions, and requested, "Bring this young man to the chief commander for he has something to tell him."

<sup>18</sup> So he took him and brought him to the chief commander, and said, "The prisoner Paul called me, and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you."

<sup>19</sup> So the chief commander took him by the hand, and drew him aside and asked him privately, "What is it you have to tell me?"

<sup>20</sup> He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to the council, as though they would inquire more thoroughly concerning him.

<sup>21</sup> Do not be persuaded by them, for they have set an ambush for him with more than forty men, who have bound themselves by a curse, neither to eat or to drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, expecting you will grant their request."

<sup>22</sup> So the chief commander let the young man go, charging him, "Don't tell anyone that you have informed me of these things."

<sup>27</sup> This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I arrived with my troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.

<sup>28</sup> Because I wanted to know the charge they were accusing him with, I brought him down to their council.

<sup>29</sup> I found out that he was accused regarding questions about their law, but he was charged with nothing worthy of death or imprisonment.

<sup>30</sup> When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, directing his accusers also to make their accusations against him before you."

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers, according to their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

<sup>32</sup> But the next day they let the horsemen go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.

<sup>33</sup> After they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul to him.

<sup>34</sup> When he had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he discovered that he was of Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> he said, "I will hear you when your accusers arrive." He ordered him to be kept in Herod's palace.

DASV: Acts 24

<sup>1</sup> Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney named Tertullus. They presented their case to the governor against Paul.

<sup>2</sup> When Paul was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Because of your rule we have enjoyed much peace, and reforms have been made for this nation as a result of your foresight.

<sup>3</sup> We, in every place and in every way acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, with much gratitude.

<sup>4</sup> But, so that I will not weary you further, I beg you give us a brief hearing with your customary graciousness.

<sup>5</sup> For we have found this man to be a troublemaker, one who incites insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

<sup>6</sup> He even attempted to desecrate the temple, so we arrested him.

<sup>7</sup> [Some manuscripts have: and wanted to judge him according to our law. But the chief commander Lysias came, and with great violence took him out of our hands and ordered his accusers to come before you.]

<sup>8</sup> By examining him yourself you will become aware of all these things that we are accusing him of."

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the attack, alleging that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup> When the governor had motioned for him to speak, Paul replied, "Realizing that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I am happy to make my defense.

<sup>11</sup> As you can verify for yourself, it has not been more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> They did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd in the temple, or in the synagogues, or in the city.

<sup>13</sup> Neither can they prove to you the things they are accusing me of.

<sup>14</sup> But this I do confess to you: I do serve the God of our fathers according to the Way, which they label a sect, believing everything according to the law and that is written in the prophets.

<sup>15</sup> I have hope in God, a hope which they themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous.

<sup>16</sup> This is why I do my best always to maintain a clear conscience before God and people.

<sup>17</sup> Now after several years I have come to bring alms to my nation and present offerings, <sup>18</sup> which is what I was doing when they found me ritually purified in the temple. There was no crowd or disturbance.

<sup>19</sup> But there were some Jews from the province of Asia who really should be here before you to make the accusation, if they have anything against me.

<sup>20</sup> Let these men themselves tell you what crime they discovered in me when I stood before the council,

<sup>21</sup> except it is for this one thing, that I cried out while standing among them, 'I am on trial before you today concerning the resurrection of the dead.'"

<sup>22</sup> But Felix, who was well informed concerning the Way, adjourned the hearings, saying, "When Lysias the chief commander comes down, I will decide your case."

<sup>23</sup> He gave orders to the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some liberty and not restrict any of his friends from taking care of his needs.

<sup>24</sup> A few days later, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and listened to him speak concerning faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> While Paul was discussing righteousness, self-control and the judgment to come, Felix was frightened, and said, "Go your way for now; and when there is an opportunity, I will send for you."

<sup>26</sup> At the same time Felix was hoping Paul would give him money. This was the reason he sent for him so often and talked with him.

DASV: Acts 25

<sup>1</sup> Now three days after Festus had arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

<sup>2</sup> The chief priests and the leaders of the Jews presented formal charges against Paul. They urged Festus, <sup>3</sup> asking for a favor against Paul, that he would send and bring him to Jerusalem. They were planning to ambush and kill him on the way.

<sup>4</sup> Festus replied that Paul was being held in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly.

<sup>5</sup> "Let them," he said, "who are leaders among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong with the man, they can bring their charges against him there."

<sup>6</sup> When he had stayed with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. The next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought in.

<sup>7</sup> When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him that they could not prove,

<sup>8</sup> while Paul argued in his defense, "I have not committed any crime against the law of the Jews, or against the temple, or against Caesar."

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, "Will you go up to Jerusalem, and be tried there before me on these charges?"

<sup>10</sup> But Paul objected, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, which is where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you know very well.

<sup>11</sup> If then I am in the wrong and have committed anything worthy of death, I am not refusing to die; but if none of their charges that they accuse me of is true, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to Caesar."

<sup>15</sup> When I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me about him, asking for a sentence condemning him.

<sup>16</sup> I told them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand any one over before the accused had met his accusers face to face, and had been given an opportunity to make his defense concerning the charges brought against him.

<sup>17</sup> So when they traveled back here, I did not delay, but the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought in.

<sup>18</sup> When his accusers stood up, they brought no charge of the wrong doing of the kind that I had expected.

<sup>19</sup> Rather they had certain objections against him concerning their own religion, and about someone named Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul alleged to be alive.

<sup>20</sup> Since I was perplexed about how to investigate these matters, I asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges.

<sup>21</sup> But when Paul appealed to be kept in custody requesting a decision from the emperor, I ordered him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

<sup>22</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

<sup>23</sup> So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had arrived with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the chief commanders and leading men of the city, then Festus ordered that Paul be brought in.

<sup>24</sup> Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom the entire Jewish people have petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

<sup>25</sup> But I found that he has committed nothing worthy of death; and as he himself appealed to His Majesty the Emperor I have decided to send him there.

<sup>26</sup> But I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that after this interrogation I may have something to write.

<sup>27</sup> For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner to the Emperor without indicating the charges against him."

DASV: Acts 26

<sup>1</sup> Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense:

<sup>2</sup> "I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that I am able to make my defense before you today against all the accusations I am accused of by the Jews, <sup>3</sup> especially because you are expert in all customs and controversies of the Jews. Therefore I beg your patience as you listen to me.

<sup>4</sup> All the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> They have known me for a long time, if they are willing to admit it, that I lived according to the strictest sect of our religion as a Pharisee.

<sup>6</sup> Now I stand here to be judged for my hope in the promise made by God to our forefathers, <sup>7</sup> to the promise our twelve tribes hope to attain as they earnestly worship God day and night. It is concerning this hope that I am accused by the Jews, O king!

<sup>8</sup> Why is it considered incredible to any of you, that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup> Truly I myself thought that I ought to do many things against the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

<sup>10</sup> And that is exactly what I did in Jerusalem. I both locked up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests. I cast my vote against them when they were being sentenced to death.

<sup>11</sup> I often punished them in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and being in a furious rage against them, I persecuted them even in foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup> It was for that reason I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests;

<sup>13</sup> at midday, O king, I saw on the road a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my traveling companions.

<sup>14</sup> When we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

<sup>15</sup> I replied, 'Who are you, Lord?' The Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.'

<sup>16</sup> But get up and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this reason, to appoint you both as a minister and a witness of the things you have seen of me and what I will show you.

<sup>17</sup> I will rescue you from your people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you

<sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

<sup>20</sup> but declared first to those of Damascus and then at Jerusalem, and throughout all Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing works worthy of repentance.

<sup>21</sup> For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore having obtained help from God, I stand here today testifying to both small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses predicted was going to happen:

<sup>23</sup> how that the Messiah must suffer, and that he would be the first to rise from the dead to proclaim light to both the Jewish people and the Gentiles."

<sup>24</sup> As he was making his defense, Festus shouted, "Paul, you are out of your mind; your great learning is driving you crazy."

<sup>25</sup> But Paul said, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus; but speak words of truth and soberness.

<sup>26</sup> For the king knows about these things, so I am able to speak freely with him. For I am persuaded that none of these things has been hidden from him; for this has not been done in a corner.

<sup>28</sup> Agrippa said to Paul, "In such a short time are you able to persuade me to become a Christian?"

<sup>29</sup> Paul replied, "I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become like I am, except for these chains."

<sup>30</sup> Then the king got up, along with the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them.

<sup>31</sup> When they had withdrawn, they spoke to each other, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or imprisonment."

<sup>32</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar."

DASV: Acts 27

<sup>1</sup> When it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they transferred Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named Julius of the Augustan military cohort.

<sup>2</sup> Embarking in a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the places on the coast of the province of Asia, we put out to sea with Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica with us.

<sup>3</sup> The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, allowing him to go to his friends who took care of him.

<sup>4</sup> Putting out to sea from there, we sailed on the sheltered north side of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.

<sup>5</sup> After we had sailed across the open sea which is off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia.

<sup>6</sup> There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy; and he put us on board.

<sup>7</sup> We sailed slowly for many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus; as the wind would not permit us to proceed, we sailed under the sheltered southern side of Crete, off Salmone.

<sup>8</sup> Sailing past it with difficulty we came to a place called Fair Havens; that was near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> Since substantial time had been lost, and the voyage was now dangerous, because it was now after the Day of Atonement fast, Paul warned them,

<sup>10</sup> "Men, I can see that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

<sup>11</sup> But the centurion was more convinced by the master and the owner of the ship, than by what Paul said.

<sup>12</sup> Because the harbor was not a suitable place to winter, the majority decided to put out by sea from there. They were hoping they could reach Phoenix, and winter there. It is a harbor of Crete which faces northwest and southwest.

<sup>13</sup> When a gentle south wind blew, they thought they could reach their objective, so they weighed anchor and sailed along close to the southern shore of Crete.

<sup>15</sup> When the ship was caught in it and could not head into the gale, we gave way to it, and were driven along.

<sup>16</sup> Running under the sheltered side of a small island called Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the trailing lifeboat.

<sup>17</sup> When they had hoisted it up, they used ropes to hold the whole ship together; fearing they would be run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the anchor, and so were driven along.

<sup>18</sup> The next day we were battered by the gale; they began to throw the cargo overboard.

<sup>20</sup> When neither sun or stars had appeared for many days and the intense storm raged unabated, we at last abandoned all hope of being saved.

<sup>21</sup> When they had been a long time without food, Paul stood up among them, and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and avoided this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup> Now I urge you to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only the ship.

<sup>23</sup> For last night an angel from God to whom I belong and whom I serve, stood by me,

<sup>24</sup> saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar, indeed God has granted safety to you and all those who are sailing with you.'

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, men, keep up your courage, for I trust God, that it will turn out just as I have been told.

<sup>27</sup> But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven to and fro in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were drawing near to land.

<sup>28</sup> They took soundings, and found it 120 feet deep; and after going a little farther, they sounded again, and found it 90 feet deep.

<sup>29</sup> Fearing that we might run aground on a rocky coast, they let down four anchors from the stern, and prayed for daybreak.

<sup>30</sup> Then as the sailors were attempting to abandon ship, having lowered the lifeboat into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow of the ship,

<sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."

<sup>32</sup> So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat, and let it drift off.

<sup>33</sup> Just as the day was dawning, Paul urged them all to eat some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day you have been in suspense and have gone without food, having eaten nothing.

<sup>34</sup> Therefore I urge you to eat some food for this is for your survival, for none of you will lose a hair of your head."

<sup>35</sup> After he said this he took bread, gave thanks to God in the presence of all of them, and broke it and began to eat.

<sup>36</sup> Then they were all encouraged and took food themselves.

<sup>37</sup> There were 276 of us in all on the ship.

<sup>39</sup> When dawn broke, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach. They decided to see if they could drive the ship ashore there.

<sup>40</sup> So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea, at the same time loosed the ropes of the rudders, and hoisted the mainsail to the wind, as they made for the beach.

<sup>41</sup> But they hit a reef where the crosscurrents met. They ran the vessel aground and the bow stuck and remained unmovable, but the stern began to break up from the force of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers' advice was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim away and escape.

<sup>43</sup> But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from executing their plan; and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land.

<sup>44</sup> The rest were to follow on planks, and other pieces of the ship. This is how they all escaped safely to the land.

DASV: Acts 28

<sup>1</sup> When we reached safety, then we learned that the island was called Malta.

<sup>2</sup> The inhabitants showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire because it was rainy and cold and welcomed us all.

<sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and was putting them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened itself on his hand.

<sup>4</sup> When the inhabitants saw the serpent hanging from his hand, they said each other, "No doubt this man is a murderer, even though he escaped from the sea, yet justice has not permitted him to live."

<sup>6</sup> But they expected that he would swell up, or drop dead. But after they had waited a long time with nothing happening to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Now in the vicinity of that place were lands belonging to the chief official of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us three days hospitably.

<sup>8</sup> The father of Publius lay in bed sick from fever and dysentery. Paul entered and prayed for him, and laying his hands on him healed him.

<sup>9</sup> After this had happened, the rest of the people who had diseases on the island came and were cured.

<sup>10</sup> They bestowed many honors on us, and when we sailed, they put on board whatever provisions we needed.

<sup>11</sup> After three months we set sail in a ship from Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers.

<sup>12</sup> We landed at Syracuse, and spent three days there.

<sup>13</sup> From there we cast off and arrived at Rhegium. After one day the south wind blew and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

<sup>14</sup> There we found some brothers, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> From there the brothers, when they heard about us, came out to meet us as far as the Market of Appius and the Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup> When we entered into Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier who guarded him.

<sup>17</sup> After three days he called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people, or the customs of our fathers, yet I was handed over in Jerusalem as a prisoner to the Romans.

<sup>18</sup> After they had interrogated me, they desired to release me, because there was no crime worthy of death in me.

<sup>19</sup> But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar; although it was not my intention to bring any accusation against my nation.

<sup>20</sup> For this reason I asked to see and to speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

<sup>21</sup> They replied, "We have not received letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers here have reported or spoken anything bad about you.

<sup>22</sup> But we want to hear from you what you think; for as concerning this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere."

<sup>23</sup> When they scheduled a day to meet with him, they came to him at his lodging in great numbers. From morning until evening he explained the matter to them, testifying to the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> Some were convinced by what he said, but others refused to believe.

<sup>25</sup> When they could find no consensus among themselves, as they began to leave Paul made one final statement, "Well spoke the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet to your forefathers,

<sup>26</sup> saying,

'Go to this people, and say,

"You will hear but not understand;

you will see but not perceive.

<sup>27</sup> For this people's heart has become hard,

and their ears are dull of hearing, and they have closed their eyes;

so that they might not see with their eyes,

and hear with their ears,

and understand with their heart,

and should turn again,

and I should heal them."

<sup>28</sup> Therefore let it be known to you, that this salvation from God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen to it."

<sup>30</sup> He stayed two whole years in his own rented dwelling, and welcomed all who came to visit him, <sup>31</sup> proclaiming the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness without any restriction.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Romans 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

<sup>3</sup> concerning his Son, who was born a descendant of David according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup> who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Through him we have received grace and apostleship, to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles, for his name's sake.

<sup>6</sup> You also are among those who are called to be Jesus Christ's.

<sup>7</sup> To all those in Rome, loved by God, called to be holy:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.

<sup>9</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit by announcing the good news of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you in my prayers, <sup>10</sup> requesting if there is any way now at last, by the will of God, I may be successful in coming to you.

<sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be strengthened, <sup>12</sup> that is, so that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that often I intended to come to you (but was prevented until now), that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among the rest of the Gentiles.

<sup>14</sup> I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

<sup>15</sup> So, I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

<sup>17</sup> For in it a righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, as it is written, "The righteous will live by faith."

<sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth by their unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup> because what can be known about God is clear to them; for God has shown it to them.

<sup>20</sup> For since the creation of the world, his invisible attributes are clearly seen, even his everlasting power and divinity, being seen through the things that are made. So they are without excuse.

<sup>21</sup> For even though they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, or give thanks to him; but became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

<sup>23</sup> and exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for images resembling corruptible man, birds, four-footed animals and creeping things.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to dishonor their own bodies among themselves.

<sup>25</sup> They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>28</sup> Since they refused to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind, to do those things that should never be done.

<sup>29</sup> They are filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips,

<sup>32</sup> Although they know the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but also give approval to those who practice them.

DASV: Romans 2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore you are without excuse, whoever you are who judges others. For in your judgment of someone else, you condemn yourself; for you who judge do the very same things.

<sup>2</sup> Now we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.

<sup>3</sup> Do you think, whoever you are, who judges those who practice such things, and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?

<sup>4</sup> Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, tolerance and patience, not realizing that the goodness of God is meant to lead you to repentance?

<sup>5</sup> But because of your hard and unrepentant heart you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

<sup>6</sup> He will render to everyone according to their works:

<sup>7</sup> eternal life on those who by patience in doing good seek for glory, honor and immortality,

<sup>8</sup> but wrath and fury on those who are selfishly self-serving, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness.

<sup>9</sup> There will be tribulation and anguish on everyone who does evil, for the Jew first, and also for the Greek,

<sup>10</sup> but glory, honor and peace on everyone who does good, for the Jew first, and also for the Greek.

<sup>12</sup> For as many as have sinned apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and as many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

<sup>13</sup> For it is not the hearers of the law who are just before God, but the doers of the law will be justified.

<sup>14</sup> For when the Gentiles who do not have the law do by nature the requirements of the law, these who do not have the law, are a law to themselves.

<sup>15</sup> They show the work of the law is written in their hearts, for their conscience bears witness to this, and their conflicting thoughts accusing or else excusing them, <sup>16</sup> on the day when God will judge the secrets of everyone, according to my gospel, through Jesus Christ.

<sup>17</sup> But if you call yourself a Jew, and rely on the law, and boast of a special relationship to God,

<sup>18</sup> and know his will, and know the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law,

<sup>19</sup> and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light for those who are in darkness,

<sup>20</sup> a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth,

<sup>21</sup> you who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preaches against stealing, do you steal?

<sup>22</sup> You who say it is wrong to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

<sup>23</sup> You who boast in the law, do you through your breaking the law dishonor God?

<sup>24</sup> Just as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

<sup>25</sup> For circumcision is beneficial, if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

<sup>26</sup> If therefore one who is uncircumcised keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

<sup>27</sup> Will not those who are physically uncircumcised if they keep the law, judge you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law?

<sup>28</sup> For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is circumcision only that which is merely external in the flesh.

<sup>29</sup> But someone is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit not in the written code. Such a person does not receive praise from humans, but from God.

DASV: Romans 3

- <sup>1</sup> What advantage then has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?
- <sup>2</sup> Much, in every way. First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God.
- <sup>3</sup> What if some of them did not believe? Does their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God?
- <sup>4</sup> Certainly not! Let God be proven true and every human a liar. As it is written,
"so that you might be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged."
- <sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness proves the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous when he inflicts punishment on us? (I am speaking from a human perspective.)
- <sup>6</sup> Certainly not! For how then could God judge the world?
- <sup>7</sup> But if by my lie the truth of God emphasizes his glory, why am I also still condemned as a sinner?
- <sup>8</sup> Why not say, as some slanderously claim that we are saying, "Let us do evil, that good may result?" Their condemnation is deserved.
- <sup>9</sup> What then? Are we better than they are? Not at all, for we have before demonstrated that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin,
- <sup>10</sup> just as it is written,
"There is none righteous, not even one."
- <sup>11</sup> "There is no one who understands,
there is no one who seeks after God.
- <sup>12</sup> All have turned away, together they have become worthless.
There is no one who does good,
not even one.
- <sup>13</sup> Their throat is an open grave,
they use their tongues to deceive.
The poison of asps is under their lips."
- <sup>14</sup> "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."
- <sup>15</sup> "Their feet are swift to shed blood, <sup>16</sup> ruin and misery are in their paths, <sup>17</sup> the way of peace they have not known."
- <sup>18</sup> "There is no fear of God before their eyes."
- <sup>19</sup> Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and all the world may be accountable before God.
- <sup>20</sup> For by the works of the law no one will be justified in his sight, for through the law comes the awareness of sin.

<sup>21</sup> But now apart from the law, a righteousness from God has been revealed, which is attested by the law and the prophets, <sup>22</sup> the righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Christ to all those who believe. For there is no distinction.

<sup>23</sup> For all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God,

<sup>24</sup> and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

<sup>25</sup> whom God set forth as an atoning sacrifice by his blood, through faith. He did this to show his righteousness because in the forbearance of God he passed over the sins previously committed,

<sup>26</sup> demonstrating his righteousness at this present time, so that he might himself be just and the justifier of the one that has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> Where then is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By works? No, but by the law of faith.

<sup>28</sup> For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

<sup>29</sup> Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too.

<sup>30</sup> Since God is one, and he will justify those circumcised by faith, as well as those uncircumcised through faith, <sup>31</sup> do we then nullify the law through faith? Not a chance. Rather, we uphold the law.

DASV: Romans 4

<sup>1</sup> What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found regarding this?

<sup>2</sup> For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

<sup>3</sup> For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."

<sup>4</sup> Now to the one who works, the reward is not counted as a gift, but as something owed.

<sup>5</sup> But to the one who does not work, but believes on him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> Just as David also describes the blessing on the one, to whom God credits with righteousness apart from works:

<sup>7</sup> "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not count his sin."

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing then pronounced only on the circumcision, or on the uncircumcision as well? For we say, "Faith was counted to Abraham for righteousness."

<sup>10</sup> How then was it credited to him? When he was circumcised, or not? It was not when he was circumcised, but uncircumcised.

<sup>11</sup> He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was still uncircumcised; so that he might become the father of all those who believe, even though they had not been circumcised, so that righteousness might be counted to them as well.

<sup>12</sup> And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised, but who also walk in the steps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup> For the promise to Abraham and to his descendants that he would inherit the world did not come through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

<sup>14</sup> For if they became heirs by means of the law, then faith is worthless, and the promise negated.

<sup>15</sup> For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law, there is no violation.

<sup>16</sup> For this reason it is based on faith, that it may be according to grace, resulting in the promise being guaranteed to all his descendants; not only to those who are under the law, but also to those who have the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.

<sup>17</sup> As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the presence of God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead, and calls things into existence that were not, as though they existed.

<sup>18</sup> He believed hoping against hope that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what had been promised, "So will your descendants be."

<sup>19</sup> Without weakening in faith, even when he considered his own body as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb, <sup>20</sup> yet he did not waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God.

<sup>21</sup> He was fully convinced that what God had promised, he was able to do.

<sup>23</sup> Now the statement that "it was counted to him" was not written for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup> but also for our sake, to whom it will be counted, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

<sup>25</sup> He was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

DASV: Romans 5

<sup>1</sup> Therefore since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> through whom we have obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

<sup>3</sup> Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance;

<sup>5</sup> and hope does not disappoint; because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

<sup>6</sup> For while we were still weak, at exactly the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

<sup>7</sup> For rarely would anyone die for a righteous person, although someone might even die for a good person.

<sup>8</sup> But God showed his own love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup> How much more then, being now justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God.

<sup>10</sup> For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, being reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

<sup>11</sup> Even more than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death spread to everyone, because all sinned--

<sup>13</sup> for before the law was given sin was in the world; but sin is not counted as sin when there is no law.

<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the same way Adam transgressed, who is a paradigm of him who was to come.

<sup>15</sup> But the gracious gift is not like the trespass. For if many died by the trespass of the one person, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, multiply to many.

<sup>16</sup> The gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For the judgment resulting from one sin brought condemnation, but the free gift after many trespasses resulted in justification.

<sup>17</sup> For if, by the trespass of the one person, death reigned through that one; how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> So then just as one trespass resulted in the condemnation of all, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for everyone.

<sup>19</sup> For just as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of the one man many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup> Now the law came in so that the trespass might increase; but where sin increased, grace multiplied even more,

<sup>21</sup> so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

DASV: Romans 6

<sup>1</sup> What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, so that grace may abound?

<sup>2</sup> Certainly not! Since we have died to sin, how can we still live in it?

<sup>3</sup> Or do you not know that as many of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

<sup>4</sup> Therefore we were buried with him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life.

<sup>5</sup> For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be united in the likeness of his resurrection.

<sup>6</sup> We know this, that our old self was crucified with him, so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin.

<sup>7</sup> For the one who has died is freed from sin.

<sup>8</sup> But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

<sup>9</sup> We know that since Christ has been raised from the dead, never to die again, death has no more mastery over him.

<sup>10</sup> For the death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God.

<sup>11</sup> So you too consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore do not let sin to reign in your mortal body, so that you obey its lusts, <sup>13</sup> and do not present the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God, as those alive from the dead, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

<sup>14</sup> For sin will not have mastery over you; since you are not under law, but under grace.

<sup>15</sup> What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? Certainly not!

<sup>16</sup> Do you not realize that if you present yourselves to someone as slaves to obey, you are slaves to whomever you obey, either as a slave of sin to death, or as a slave of obedience which results in righteousness?

<sup>17</sup> But thank God, that although you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were entrusted.

<sup>18</sup> Then being set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> I speak in human terms because of the limits of your flesh. For just as you presented your body members as slaves to impurity and to increasing lawlessness, even so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness.

<sup>20</sup> For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> So what benefit did you get from those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

<sup>22</sup> But now you are free from sin and have become slaves of God, you have the benefit of holiness and the end result is eternal life.

<sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

DASV: Romans 7

<sup>1</sup> Or do you not realize, brothers (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over a person for as long as he lives?

<sup>2</sup> For a married woman who has a husband is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law with respect to her husband.

<sup>3</sup> So then, if she is joined to another man while the husband lives, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is not an adulteress even though she is joined to another man.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, my brothers, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, so that we might produce fruit to God.

<sup>5</sup> For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were aroused by the law, worked in our members to produce fruit to death.

<sup>6</sup> But now we have been released from the law, having died to what held us captive, so that we may serve in new life of the spirit, and not in oldness of the written code.

<sup>7</sup> What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not. Yet if it had not been for the law I would not have known what it is to covet, except the law had said, "You shall not covet."

<sup>8</sup> But sin, taking the opportunity, produced in me through the commandment all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law sin is dead.

<sup>9</sup> And I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came to life, and I died.

<sup>10</sup> So I found that the commandment, which was to bring life, in fact brought death.

<sup>11</sup> For sin, taking opportunity through the commandment deceived me, and through it killed me, <sup>12</sup> so that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, righteous, and good.

<sup>13</sup> Did that which is good then become death to me? Certainly not. But sin, so that it might be exposed to be sin, worked death in me through that which was good, so that through the commandment sin might become absolutely sinful.

<sup>14</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold into slavery to sin.

<sup>15</sup> For I do not really know what I am doing. For what I want to do, is what I do not do; but what I hate, is the very thing that I do.

<sup>16</sup> But if what I do not want to do, is what I do, then I agree that the law is good.

<sup>17</sup> So now it is no more I who do it, but sin that lives in me.

<sup>18</sup> For I know that in me lives no good thing, that is, in my flesh, for the desire to do what is good is in me, but I cannot actually do it.

<sup>19</sup> For the good that I want to do I do not do; but the evil that I do not want to do, is what I actually practice.

<sup>20</sup> But if what I do not want to do is what I do, it is no more I who do it, but sin that lives in me.

<sup>21</sup> I find then this principle: that when I want to do good, evil is present with me.

<sup>22</sup> For I delight in the law of God in my inner being.

<sup>23</sup> But I see a different law in my body members, making war against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin that is in my members.

<sup>24</sup> O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

<sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with my mind, I myself serve the law of God; but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

DASV: Romans 8

<sup>2</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

<sup>3</sup> For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh on account of sin; he condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> For those who live according to the flesh fix their minds on the things of the flesh; but those who live according to the Spirit fix their minds on the things of the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> For to fix one's mind on the flesh is death; but to fix one's mind on the Spirit is life and peace, <sup>7</sup> because the mind fixed on the flesh is enmity against God; for it does not submit to the law of God, nor indeed is it able to.

<sup>8</sup> Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God lives in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him.

<sup>10</sup> If Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin; the spirit is life because of righteousness.

<sup>11</sup> If the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead lives in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit that lives in you.

<sup>12</sup> So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.

<sup>13</sup> For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

<sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the children of God.

<sup>15</sup> For you did not receive the spirit of slavery resulting again in fear; but you received the spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba, Father."

<sup>16</sup> The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit, that we are children of God.

<sup>17</sup> And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, so that we may also be glorified with him.

<sup>18</sup> For I consider the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

<sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to futility, not by its own will, but by the will of him who subjected it, in hope

<sup>21</sup> that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

<sup>23</sup> Not only this, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, also groan within ourselves, eagerly awaiting our adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

<sup>24</sup> For in this hope we were saved, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he already sees?

<sup>25</sup> But if we hope for what we do not see, then we patiently wait for it.

<sup>26</sup> In the same way the Spirit also helps in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we should; but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings which are ineffable.

<sup>27</sup> The one who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because he intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

<sup>28</sup> We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose.

<sup>29</sup> For those he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

<sup>30</sup> And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

<sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how will he not also, along with him, freely give us all things?

<sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

<sup>34</sup> Who is he who condemns? It is Christ Jesus who died, yes and beyond that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

<sup>35</sup> Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

"For your sake we are killed all the day long;
we are regarded as sheep for the slaughter."

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

<sup>38</sup> For I am convinced, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

DASV: Romans 9

- <sup>1</sup> I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience confirms it in the Holy Spirit,
- <sup>2</sup> that I have great sorrow and unceasing grief in my heart.
- <sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for the sake of my people, my kindred according to the flesh,
- <sup>4</sup> who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple worship, and the promises.
- <sup>5</sup> To them belong the patriarchs, and from whom Christ came according to the flesh, who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.
- <sup>6</sup> But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all descended from Israel truly belong to Israel,
- <sup>7</sup> and not all of Abraham's descendants are his true descendants. Rather "in Isaac your descendants will be called."
- <sup>8</sup> That means that it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; but the children of the promise are counted as descendants.
- <sup>9</sup> For this is the word of promise, "In about a year I will return and Sarah will have a son."
- <sup>10</sup> And not only that, but Rebecca also having conceived by one man, our forefather Isaac --
- <sup>11</sup> for even before they were born and had done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of God in election might stand, not by works, but by him who calls,
- <sup>12</sup> it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."
- <sup>13</sup> Just as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."
- <sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? Certainly not.
- <sup>15</sup> For he said to Moses,
- "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."
- <sup>16</sup> So then it does not depend on human will or exertion, but on God who has mercy.
- <sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."
- <sup>18</sup> So then he has mercy on whomever he wants to, and he hardens whomever he wants to.
- <sup>19</sup> You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who is able to resist his will?"
- <sup>20</sup> But who do you think you are, O man, who talks back to God? Does the thing that is molded say to him who shaped it, "Why did you make me like this?"
- <sup>21</sup> Or does the potter not have a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one object for a special use, and another for dishonorable use?

<sup>22</sup> What if God, wanting to show his wrath, and to make his power known, has endured with much patience objects of wrath made for destruction?

<sup>23</sup> What if he did it to make known the riches of his glory on the objects of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory--

<sup>24</sup> even us, whom he also called, not only from the Jews, but also from the Gentiles?

<sup>25</sup> As he also says in Hosea,

"I will call those who were not my people, 'my people,' and her who was not loved, 'beloved.'"

<sup>26</sup> "And in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"

<sup>27</sup> Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel,

"If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea,
only a remnant will be saved,

<sup>28</sup> for the Lord will execute his sentence upon the earth, totally and quickly."

<sup>29</sup> Just as Isaiah predicted,

"Unless the Lord of hosts had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah."

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say then? Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained it, that is, the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>31</sup> but Israel, pursuing a righteousness based on law, did not achieve it.

<sup>32</sup> Why not? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

<sup>33</sup> just as it is written,

"See, I lay in Zion a stone that will make people stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in him will not be put to shame."

DASV: Romans 10

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved.

<sup>2</sup> For I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but not according to true knowledge.

<sup>3</sup> For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God.

<sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness to everyone who believes.

<sup>5</sup> For Moses writes about the righteousness that comes from the law, "the one who does these things will live by them."

<sup>6</sup> But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down)

<sup>7</sup> or, "'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)

<sup>8</sup> But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith, that we proclaim),

<sup>9</sup> because if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and will believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

<sup>10</sup> For with the heart one believes and so has righteousness; and with the mouth one confesses and so is saved.

<sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and generously blesses all who call on him.

<sup>13</sup> For, "Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>14</sup> How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe in him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without someone preaching to them?

<sup>15</sup> And how will they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the good news!"

<sup>16</sup> But not all have obeyed the good news. For Isaiah asked, "Lord, who has believed our message?"

<sup>17</sup> So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by the word of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I ask, did they not hear? Yes, of course,
"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

<sup>19</sup> But I ask, did Israel not know? First, Moses says,
"I will provoke you to jealousy with those who are not a nation, with a nation lacking understanding I will make you angry."

- <sup>20</sup> And Isaiah is very bold, and says,
"I was found by those who did not seek me;
I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me."
<sup>21</sup> But about Israel he says,
"All the day long I spread out my hands to a disobedient and rebellious people."

DASV: Romans 11

<sup>1</sup> I ask then, has God rejected his people? Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup> God did not reject his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says concerning Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel?

<sup>3</sup> "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have torn down your altars; and I am the only one left, and they are seeking my life."

<sup>4</sup> But what was God's response to him? "I have preserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

<sup>5</sup> So in that same way, at this present time, there is a remnant chosen by grace.

<sup>6</sup> But if it is by grace, it is no more by works; otherwise grace would no more longer be grace.

<sup>7</sup> What then? What Israel was seeking it failed to obtain. The elect obtained it but the rest were hardened,

<sup>8</sup> just as it is written,

"God gave them a spirit of deep sleep, eyes that they should not see,
and ears that they should not hear,
down to this very day."

<sup>9</sup> And David said,

"Let their table be made a snare and a trap,
and a stumbling block, giving them what they deserve.

<sup>10</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, so that they may not see,
and their backs be bent over forever."

<sup>11</sup> I ask then, Did they stumble into an unrecoverable fall? Certainly not. But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke Israel to jealousy.

<sup>12</sup> Now if their transgression results in riches for the world, and their loss results in riches for the Gentiles; what more will their restoration result in?

<sup>13</sup> But I speak to you who are Gentiles; inasmuch as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry

<sup>14</sup> if there is any way by which I may provoke to jealousy my own people, and so save some of them.

<sup>15</sup> For if their rejection results in the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

<sup>16</sup> If the first piece of dough offered is holy, then the whole batch is also holy, and if the root is holy, then so are the branches.

<sup>17</sup> But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them, and now share with them the rich root of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup> do not brag as being better than the branches. But if you do brag, remember it is not you that support the root, but the root supports you.

<sup>19</sup> You will claim then, "The branches were broken off, so that I might be grafted in."

<sup>20</sup> Well said. But they were broken off because of their unbelief, and you stand by faith. So do not be arrogant, but fear.

<sup>21</sup> For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.

<sup>22</sup> Take note of the kindness and severity of God: severity toward those who fell, but God's kindness toward you, if you continue in his kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

<sup>23</sup> And they also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted back in, for God is able to graft them in again.

<sup>24</sup> For if you were cut from what was by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup> For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you become conceited: a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.

<sup>26</sup> And so all Israel will be saved, just as it is written,

"There will come out of Zion the Deliverer;
he will remove ungodliness from Jacob.

when I take away their sins."

<sup>28</sup> In regard to the gospel, they are enemies for your sake, but in regard to election, they are beloved for the forefathers' sake.

<sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.

<sup>30</sup> For just as you were once disobedient to God, but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> so they also are now disobedient, in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now receive mercy.

<sup>32</sup> For God has consigned all to disobedience, in order that he might have mercy on all.

<sup>33</sup> O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God!

How unsearchable are his judgments, and how unfathomable are his ways!

<sup>34</sup> For who has known the mind of the Lord?

Or who has been his counselor?

<sup>35</sup> Or who has first given to God, so that he is obligated to repay him?

<sup>36</sup> For from him, and through him, and to him, are all things.

To him be the glory forever. Amen.

DASV: Romans 12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

<sup>2</sup> And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the good and pleasing and perfect will of God.

<sup>3</sup> For by the grace that was given me, I tell everyone among you, not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but so to think with sound judgment, each one as God has assigned a measure of faith.

<sup>4</sup> For just as we have many members in one body, and not all the members have the same function, <sup>5</sup> so we who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

<sup>6</sup> And we have different gifts according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, then use it in proportion to faith.

<sup>7</sup> If it is service, then use it to serve; if it is teaching, then teach;

<sup>8</sup> if it is exhortation, then exhort; if it is giving, do so generously; if it is ruling, then do it with diligence; if doing acts of mercy, do it with cheerfulness.

<sup>9</sup> Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil, cling to what is good.

<sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another. Do not be arrogant, but associate with the lowly.

Do not be wise in your own estimation.

<sup>17</sup> Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be concerned about things honorable in the sight of all.

<sup>18</sup> If it is possible, as much as it depends on you, be at peace with all.

<sup>19</sup> Never take revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God. For it is written, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord."

<sup>20</sup> But if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing this you will heap coals of fire on his head.

DASV: Romans 13

<sup>1</sup> Let everyone submit to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God; and those that exist have been instituted by God.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore whoever resists authority, resists what God has arranged and those who resist will incur judgment on themselves.

<sup>3</sup> For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to the bad. Do you want not to be afraid of authority? Do what is good, and you will receive its approval, <sup>4</sup> for it is God's servant to you for good. But if you do what is wrong, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword for nothing. It is a servant of God, an avenger who executes God's wrath on the one who does wrong.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore you need to submit, not only because of the authority's ability to punish, but also for conscience' sake.

<sup>6</sup> For this same reason pay your taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busily attentive to their governing.

<sup>7</sup> Pay everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; revenue to whom revenue is due; respect to whom respect is due; and honor to whom honor is due.

<sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for one who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

<sup>9</sup> For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>10</sup> Love does no wrong to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

<sup>11</sup> Do this, realizing what time it is that it is already the hour for you to wake up from sleep. For our salvation is now nearer than when we first believed.

<sup>12</sup> The night is almost over and the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light.

<sup>13</sup> Let us walk properly, as in the daytime; not in partying and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy.

<sup>14</sup> But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not make provision for the flesh, to satisfy its desires.

<sup>3</sup> The one who eats everything should not despise the one who does not eat; and the one who does not eat should not judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him.

<sup>4</sup> Who are you who judges the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls, and will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

<sup>5</sup> One man regards one day above another, while another regards every day the same. Each person should be fully convinced in his own mind.

<sup>6</sup> The one who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and the one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and the one who does not eat, does not eat to the Lord, and gives God thanks.

<sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself.

<sup>8</sup> If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason Christ died and came to life again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>10</sup> But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.

"As I live, says the Lord,

every knee will bow to me, and every tongue will give praise to God."

<sup>12</sup> So then each one of us will give account of himself to God.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore we must not pass judgment on each other anymore, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in a brother's way.

<sup>14</sup> I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but to one who thinks it is unclean, then for that person it is unclean.

<sup>15</sup> If your brother is upset by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy by your food one for whom Christ died.

<sup>16</sup> So do not let your good be spoken of as evil.

<sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> One who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by people.

<sup>19</sup> So then let us pursue things which make for peace and for building each other up.

<sup>20</sup> Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. For all things are clean, but it is wrong to make someone stumble because of what you eat.

<sup>21</sup> It is good not to eat meat, or to drink wine, or to do anything that causes your brother to stumble.

<sup>22</sup> The faith convictions you have, keep to yourself before God. Blessed is he who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

<sup>23</sup> But whoever doubts is condemned if he eats, because he is not eating from faith; for whatever is not from faith is sin.

DASV: Romans 15

<sup>1</sup> Now we who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak, and not please ourselves.

<sup>3</sup> For even Christ did not please himself; but, just as it is written, "The insults of those who insulted you fell on me."

<sup>4</sup> For whatever things were written in former times were written for our instruction, so that through the endurance and encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

<sup>5</sup> Now the God of endurance and encouragement grant you unity with each other in accordance with Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> so that with one mind you may with a single voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received you, to the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup> For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the forefathers,

<sup>9</sup> in order that the Gentiles might praise God for his mercy; as it is written,

"Therefore will I confess you among the Gentiles, and sing praises to your name."

<sup>10</sup> And again it says,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."

<sup>11</sup> And again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; and let all the peoples praise him."

<sup>12</sup> And again, Isaiah says,

"There will be the root of Jesse,
and he who rises to rule over the Gentiles,
in him will the Gentiles hope."

<sup>13</sup> Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> But I myself am convinced concerning you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and well able to correct one another.

<sup>15</sup> But I have written boldly to you on some matters, so as to remind you, because of the grace that was given me by God, <sup>16</sup> that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles may be an acceptable offering, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> I have, therefore, reason for being proud in Christ Jesus because of the things done for God.

<sup>18</sup> For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me, to lead the Gentiles to obedience, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> by the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

<sup>20</sup> I have made it my aim to preach the gospel where Christ has not already been named, so that I might not build on someone else's foundation,

<sup>21</sup> but, as it is written,

"Those who were never told about him will see him, and those who have never heard will understand."

<sup>22</sup> This is why I have so often been hindered from coming to you.

<sup>23</sup> But now, I have nothing more to keep me in these regions. For many years I have desired to come to you, <sup>24</sup> when I go to Spain. For I hope to see you on my journey and to be sent on my way there by you, after first enjoying your company for a while.

<sup>25</sup> But now, I am going to Jerusalem, to minister to the saints.

<sup>26</sup> For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor saints who are in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup> They were pleased to do it because they realize they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they owe it to them to minister to them in material things.

<sup>28</sup> So when I have accomplished this, and have delivered this contribution to them, I will head to Spain by way of you.

<sup>29</sup> I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

<sup>30</sup> Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you join in my struggle by your prayers to God on my behalf,

<sup>31</sup> that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my ministry in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, <sup>32</sup> so that I may come to you with joy by God's will, and be refreshed in your company.

<sup>33</sup> Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

DASV: Romans 16

<sup>1</sup> I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church at Cenchreae, <sup>2</sup> so that you may welcome her in the Lord, in a way worthy of the saints, and that you may assist her in whatever she needs from you, for she has been a benefactor of many, including me too.

<sup>4</sup> who risked their own necks for my life, for whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

<sup>5</sup> Greet the church that is in their house. Greet my good friend Epaenetus, who is the first convert to Christ in the province in Asia.

<sup>7</sup> Greet Andronicus and Junias, my Jewish compatriots and fellow prisoners, who are respected among the apostles, who also were in Christ before I was.

<sup>13</sup> Greet Rufus the chosen in the Lord, and his mother who was also a mother to me.

<sup>17</sup> Now I urge you, brothers, watch out for those who are causing the divisions and create obstacles for stumbling contrary to the teaching which you learned; avoid them.

<sup>18</sup> For these are the type who do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the naive.

<sup>19</sup> For your obedience is known to everyone which is why I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise in what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

<sup>20</sup> The God of peace will shortly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius who is my host and the whole church, greets you. Erastus the treasurer of the city greets you, along with our brother Quartus.

<sup>24</sup> [Some manuscripts have: May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.]

<sup>25</sup> Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that has been kept secret for long ages,

<sup>26</sup> but now is disclosed, and by the prophetic Scriptures has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith--

<sup>27</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever. Amen.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 1 Corinthians 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, along with Sosthenes, our brother,

<sup>2</sup> To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, along with all those in every place who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

<sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God always concerning you, for the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> For in everything you were enriched in him, in every kind of speech and all knowledge--

<sup>6</sup> just as the testimony of Christ has been confirmed among you--

<sup>7</sup> so that you are lacking in no spiritual gift, as you expectantly wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> He will also establish you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>10</sup> Now I urge you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you be in agreement with each other and that there be no divisions among you; and that you be perfectly united in the same mind and in the same purpose.

<sup>11</sup> For it has been reported to me by those who are members of Chloe's household, concerning you, my brothers, that there are quarrels among you.

<sup>12</sup> Now what I mean is this, that each of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," or "I am a follower of Apollos," or "I am a follower of Cephas," or "I am a follower of Christ."

<sup>13</sup> Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

<sup>14</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name.

<sup>16</sup> I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides those, I do not think I baptized anyone else.

<sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not in clever words, so that the cross of Christ would be emptied of its impact.

<sup>18</sup> For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who perish; but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

<sup>19</sup> For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the shrewdness of the intelligent I will negate."

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise? Where is the religious scholar? Where is the insightful debater of this age? Has God not made foolish the wisdom of the world?

<sup>21</sup> For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, he was pleased through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe.

<sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews a stumbling block, and to Gentiles foolishness;

<sup>24</sup> but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.

<sup>25</sup> For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom; and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

<sup>26</sup> Consider your own calling, brothers, that not many of you were wise when evaluated by human standards, not many mighty, and not many of noble birth.

<sup>28</sup> God chose the things considered low and despised by the world, even the things regarded as nothing, that he might bring to nothing the things considered to be something,

<sup>29</sup> so that no one would be able to boast before God.

<sup>30</sup> And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who was made for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

<sup>31</sup> so that, just as it is written,

"Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

DASV: 1 Corinthians 2

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with brilliant oratory or esoteric wisdom, when proclaiming to you the mystery of God.

<sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

<sup>3</sup> I was with you in weakness and in fear, and in much trembling.

<sup>4</sup> My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup> so that your faith should not be based on human wisdom but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup> We speak wisdom among those who are mature, but not a wisdom of this age, or of the rulers of this age, who are amounting to nothing.

<sup>7</sup> But we speak God's wisdom in a secret mystery, that God predetermined before the ages for our glory.

<sup>8</sup> None of the rulers of this age understood it, for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

<sup>9</sup> But, as it is written,

"What no eye has seen,
and no ear heard,
and no mind has imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love him."

<sup>10</sup> But God has revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

<sup>11</sup> For what human being knows a person's thoughts, except the spirit of the person which is in him? So too, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God; so that we may know the gifts God has freely given us.

<sup>13</sup> And we speak about these things, not in words taught by human wisdom, but those which the Spirit teaches; explaining spiritual matters to those who are spiritual.

<sup>14</sup> Now the natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are discerned spiritually.

<sup>15</sup> But the one who is spiritual discerns all things, yet he himself is judged by no one.

<sup>16</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?"

But we have the mind of Christ.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 3

<sup>1</sup> And I, brothers, could not speak to you as spiritual, but as fleshly people, as infants in Christ.

<sup>2</sup> I fed you with milk, not with solid food; for you were not yet ready for it, and even now are still not ready,

<sup>3</sup> for you are still under the influence of the flesh. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not under the influence of the flesh, and are you not walking in a manner typical of humans?

<sup>4</sup> For when someone says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another, "I am a follower of Apollos," are you not merely human?

<sup>5</sup> Really, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed; just as the Lord assigned to each of us.

<sup>7</sup> So then the one who plants is nothing special, nor does the one who waters really matter; but God who gives the growth.

<sup>8</sup> Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one, but each will receive his own wages according to the work he has done.

<sup>9</sup> For we are God's coworkers, you are God's garden, God's building.

<sup>10</sup> According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation; and someone else built on it. But each one must be careful how he builds on it.

<sup>11</sup> For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> But if anyone builds on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup> each builder's work will be revealed, for the Day will clarify it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test the kind of work each person has done.

<sup>14</sup> If anyone's work survives, he will receive a reward.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, yet he himself will be saved; but only as through fire.

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

<sup>17</sup> If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that one; for the temple of God is holy, which is what you all are.

<sup>18</sup> Do not be self-deceived. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," so that he may become wise.

<sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own cleverness,"

<sup>20</sup> and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise that they are futile."

<sup>22</sup> whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or the present, or the future; everything is yours, <sup>23</sup> and you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 4

<sup>1</sup> This is how you should think about us, as servants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

<sup>3</sup> But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.

<sup>4</sup> For I am not conscious of anything against myself; yet just because of that I am not necessarily acquitted. But it is the Lord who judges me.

<sup>5</sup> So judge nothing before the time, wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the things hidden in darkness, and will expose the motives of the heart. Then each one will have the appropriate commendation from God.

<sup>6</sup> Now these things, brothers, I have applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes; so that through us you might learn not to go beyond what is written; so that none of you will be puffed up by comparisons one against another.

<sup>7</sup> For what makes you so special? What do you have that you did not receive? But if you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?

<sup>8</sup> Already you are satisfied, already you are rich, you have become kings without us. I wish that you had in fact become kings, so that we also might reign with you.

<sup>9</sup> For, I think, God has exhibited us the apostles last of all, as men condemned to death, for we have become a spectacle to the world, both to humans and angels.

<sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are so wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are so strong. You are held up to such honor, but we are dishonored.

<sup>11</sup> Even to this present hour we are hungry and thirsty, clothed in rags, beaten up and homeless.

<sup>12</sup> We labor working with our own hands. When insulted, we bless; when persecuted, we endure it;

<sup>13</sup> when slandered, we answer affably, we are made the trash of the earth, the refuse of all things, even until now.

<sup>14</sup> I do not write these things to shame you, but to correct you as my beloved children.

<sup>15</sup> For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

<sup>16</sup> So I urge you, be imitators of me.

<sup>17</sup> This is why I sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will put you in remembrance of my ways in Christ, even as I teach them everywhere in every church.

<sup>18</sup> Now some of you have become arrogant, assuming that I was not coming to you.

<sup>19</sup> But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills; and I will find out not about their arrogant talk, but their power.

<sup>21</sup> What do you want? Shall I come to you with a disciplinary rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

DASV: 1 Corinthians 5

<sup>1</sup> It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such immorality that is not even practiced among the Gentiles, that someone has sex with his father's wife.

<sup>2</sup> And yet you are arrogant about it. Should you not have grieved instead, so that he who did this might be removed from among you?

<sup>3</sup> For though I am absent in body, I am present in spirit; I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this.

<sup>4</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are gathered together, and I am with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup> deliver this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Aren't you aware that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough?

<sup>7</sup> Clean out the old yeast, so that you may be a new batch of dough, as you already are without yeast. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore let us celebrate the feast, not with old yeast, with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote to you in my epistle not to associate with people who are sexually immoral--

<sup>10</sup> not at all meaning with the immoral people of this world, or greedy and swindlers or idolaters, otherwise you would have to depart from this world.

<sup>11</sup> But now I am writing to you not to associate, if anyone who is a brother is sexually immoral, or greedy, or an idolater, a slanderer, a drunkard, or a swindler. Don't even eat with someone like that.

<sup>12</sup> For what do I have to do with judging those who are outside? Yet isn't it your responsibility to judge those who are inside?

<sup>13</sup> But those who are outside God will judge. Remove the wicked person from among you.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 6

<sup>1</sup> When any of you has a legal grievance against someone, does he take it to court before the unrighteous rather than before the saints?

<sup>2</sup> Don't you realize that the saints will judge the world? Since you will judge the world, are you incompetent to judge trivial cases?

<sup>3</sup> Don't you realize that we will judge angels? How much more, then, issues dealing with this life.

<sup>4</sup> If then you have to judge ordinary lawsuits, should you appoint judges from those who have no standing in the church?

<sup>5</sup> I say this to shame you. Can there not be found among you one wise person who is able to settle disputes between his brothers?

<sup>6</sup> Does one brother go to court with another brother, and even do it before unbelievers?

<sup>7</sup> The fact that you have lawsuits with one another demonstrates that you are already defeated. Why not just suffer the wrong? Why not rather be cheated?

<sup>8</sup> But beyond that, you yourselves wrong and cheat, even your own brothers.

<sup>9</sup> Don't you realize that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, or practicing homosexuals, <sup>10</sup> thieves, greedy, drunkards, slanderers, or swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>11</sup> And this is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but all things are not beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the control of anything.

<sup>13</sup> "Food for the stomach, and the stomach for food," but God will do away with both of them. But the body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

<sup>14</sup> God both raised the Lord and will raise up us by his power.

<sup>15</sup> Don't you realize that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? Certainly not.

<sup>16</sup> Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, "The two will become one flesh."

<sup>18</sup> Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a person does is outside the body; but the one who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

<sup>19</sup> Don't you realize that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

<sup>20</sup> For you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 7

<sup>2</sup> But, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

<sup>4</sup> The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does, and likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

<sup>5</sup> Do not deprive one another, except it be by mutual consent for a set time, so that you may give yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

<sup>7</sup> Yet I wish that everyone was just as I am. However each person has their own gift from God, one after this kind, and another after that.

<sup>8</sup> But I say to the unmarried and to widows: it is good for them to remain even as I am.

<sup>9</sup> But if they do not have self-control, then let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with lust.

<sup>10</sup> But to the married I give this directive--not I, but the Lord--that the wife should not separate from her husband

<sup>11</sup> (but if she does separate, let her stay unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and the husband should not divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup> But to the rest I say--I, not the Lord--if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is willing to live with him, he should not divorce her.

<sup>13</sup> And if a woman has an unbelieving husband, and he is willing to live with her, she should not divorce him.

<sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; otherwise your children would be unclean; but now they are holy.

<sup>15</sup> Yet if the unbeliever leaves, let him leave; the believing brother or sister is not bound in such situations for God has called us to live in peace.

<sup>16</sup> For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

<sup>17</sup> Only let each person walk as the Lord has assigned them, as God has called each one. I give this guidance in all the churches.

<sup>18</sup> Was anyone called being circumcised? He should not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while being uncircumcised? He should not be circumcised.

<sup>19</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of the commandments of God is what matters.

<sup>20</sup> Let each person remain in that circumstance in which he was called.

<sup>21</sup> Were you a slave when you were called? Do not worry about it. But if you can gain your freedom, do it.

<sup>22</sup> For the one who was called in the Lord being a slave, is the Lord's freedman; likewise the one who was called being free, is Christ's slave.

<sup>24</sup> Brothers, let each person, in whatever situation he was called, remain there with God.

<sup>25</sup> Now concerning virgins I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my own opinion, as one who has received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy.

<sup>26</sup> I think that because of the present crisis, that it is good for a man to stay as he is.

<sup>27</sup> Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

<sup>28</sup> But if you decide to marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin decides to marry, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have trouble in this current situation and I want to spare you from that.

<sup>29</sup> But I tell you this, brothers, the time is short. From now on both those who have wives will be as though they had none;

<sup>30</sup> those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess it;

<sup>31</sup> and those who use the world, as though not using it to the full. For the present pattern of this world is passing away.

<sup>32</sup> But I want you to be free from such cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

<sup>33</sup> But he who is married is concerned for the things of the world, how he may please his wife,

<sup>34</sup> and his allegiances are divided. So also a woman who is unmarried or a virgin is concerned for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married is concerned for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

<sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your own benefit; not to impose a restriction on you, but to promote order and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

<sup>36</sup> But if anyone thinks that he behaves improperly toward his fiancé, if she is passing the marriageable age, and if necessity requires it, let him do what he wants; he has not sinned. Let them marry.

<sup>37</sup> But he who stands firm to the resolve in his heart, and there is no necessity, but has control of his own passion and has decided to keep her as a virgin, he will do well.

<sup>38</sup> So then both he who marries his fiancé does well; and he who does not marry her does even better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whomever she wants; only to someone in the Lord.

<sup>40</sup> But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my opinion--and I also think that I have the Spirit of God.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 8

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that "we all have knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

<sup>2</sup> If anyone thinks that he knows something, he does not yet know what he ought to know.

<sup>3</sup> But if anyone loves God, he is known by him.

<sup>4</sup> Now concerning the eating of food sacrificed to idols, we know that "an idol doesn't exist in the real world," and that "there is no God but one."

<sup>5</sup> For though there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many so-called gods, and many lords),

<sup>6</sup> yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we live for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through him we live.

<sup>7</sup> However not everyone has this knowledge. But some, even now are so accustomed to the idol, that they still eat food as something sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak, is defiled.

<sup>8</sup> But food will not bring us closer to God. We are no worse if we do not eat it, and no better off if we do eat it.

<sup>9</sup> But be careful so that this freedom of yours does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

<sup>10</sup> For if someone who has knowledge sees you eating food in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of the one who is weak be encouraged to eat things sacrificed to idols?

<sup>11</sup> So by your knowledge the one who is weak is destroyed, a brother for whose sake Christ died.

<sup>12</sup> So when you sin against the brothers, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you are actually sinning against Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause my brother to stumble.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 9

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

<sup>2</sup> If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you; for you are the guaranteeing seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup> This is my defense to those who examine me.

<sup>4</sup> Do we not have the right to eat and to drink?

<sup>5</sup> Do we not have the right to bring a believing wife along like the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

<sup>6</sup> Or do only Barnabas and I not have the right to stop working for a living?

<sup>7</sup> What soldier ever served paying his own expenses? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock, and does not consume any of its milk?

<sup>8</sup> Am I speaking these things from merely a human perspective? Does the law not say the same thing?

<sup>9</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." Is God concerned only about oxen?

<sup>10</sup> Or is he actually saying it for our sake? Certainly it was written for our sake, because the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes, ought to thresh with hope of getting part of the crop.

<sup>11</sup> If we sowed among you spiritual seed, is it too big a deal if we reap material benefits from you?

<sup>12</sup> If others have the right of support from you, do not we have even more? But we have not used this right; rather we bear everything that we may not cause any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Don't you realize that those who serve in the temple eat food from the temple, and they who serve at the altar have their share from the sacrifices offered on the altar?

<sup>14</sup> In the same way the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.

<sup>15</sup> But I have never used any of these rights. I am not writing these things so that it may be done so now in my case. I would rather die than that anyone should deprive me of my grounds for boasting.

<sup>16</sup> Yet if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of; for an obligation has been laid on me to do this. Woe to me, if I do not preach the gospel.

<sup>17</sup> For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if not willingly, I am still entrusted with a stewardship.

<sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel, I offer the gospel free of charge, so as not to use my full rights in the gospel.

<sup>19</sup> For though I am free from all, I have made myself a slave to all, that I might gain the more people.

<sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became like a Jew, that I might gain the Jews. To those who are under the law, I became like one under the law, though I am not actually under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law.

<sup>21</sup> To those who are without law, I became like one without law, although I am not free of God's law, but under law of Christ, that I might gain those who are without law.

<sup>22</sup> To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I may by all means save some.

<sup>23</sup> I do everything for the gospel's sake, that I may share in its benefits.

<sup>24</sup> Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? So run to win the prize.

<sup>25</sup> Every athlete in the games exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable crown; but we for an imperishable one.

<sup>26</sup> So I do not run aimlessly, or box like one merely beating the air, <sup>27</sup> but I discipline my body, bringing it under control, so that after I have preached to others, I myself might not be disqualified.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 10

<sup>1</sup> For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, <sup>2</sup> and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.

<sup>3</sup> All ate the same spiritual food

<sup>4</sup> and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.

<sup>5</sup> But God was not pleased with most of them, for their bodies were strewn about in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup> Now these things were examples for us, so that we would not crave after evil things, as they did.

<sup>7</sup> Do not become idolaters, as some of them were, as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."

<sup>8</sup> Let us not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell.

<sup>9</sup> Let us not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by snakes.

<sup>10</sup> Do not complain, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroying angel.

<sup>11</sup> Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our warning, on whom the end of the ages has come.

<sup>12</sup> So let the one who thinks that he stands secure, beware that he does not fall.

<sup>13</sup> No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to everyone, but God is faithful, who will not let you to be tempted beyond what you are able to handle; but with the temptation also provide a way of escape, so that you may be able to endure it.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.

<sup>15</sup> I speak to you as wise people; judge for yourselves what I say.

<sup>16</sup> Is not the cup of blessing we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is not the bread we break a sharing in the body of Christ?

<sup>17</sup> Because there is one loaf, though we are many, we are one body, for we are all partake of the one bread.

<sup>18</sup> Look at Israel after the flesh: Are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar?

<sup>19</sup> What am I saying? Am I implying that something sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

<sup>20</sup> No, what I mean is that what the pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I do not want you to become partners with demons.

<sup>21</sup> You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

<sup>22</sup> Or are we attempting to provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he is?

<sup>23</sup> "All things are lawful," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up.

<sup>27</sup> If an unbeliever invites you to dinner, and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience.

<sup>28</sup> But if anyone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice to idols," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience.

<sup>29</sup> I did not mean your conscience but the other person's. For why should my freedom be criticized by the conscience of someone else?

<sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why should I be criticized for what I give thanks for?

<sup>31</sup> So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all for the glory of God.

<sup>32</sup> Do not give offense to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup> just as I try to please everyone in all things, not seeking my own advantage, but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 11

<sup>1</sup> Be imitators of me, just as I am of Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Now I praise you that you remember me in everything, and keep the traditions, just as I handed them down to you.

<sup>3</sup> But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.

<sup>5</sup> But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered disgraces her head; for it is one and the same as if she had her head shaved.

<sup>6</sup> For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair be cut off. But if it is a shame to a woman to have her hair cut off or shaved, then she should cover her head.

<sup>7</sup> For a man should not have his head covered, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

<sup>8</sup> For the man did not come from the woman, but the woman from the man.

<sup>9</sup> And the man was not created for the woman, but the woman for the man.

<sup>10</sup> For this reason the woman should have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, in the Lord the woman is not independent of the man, nor is the man independent of the woman.

<sup>12</sup> For just as the woman came from the man, so man also comes through the woman; but all things come from God.

<sup>14</sup> Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair it is a disgrace to him?

<sup>15</sup> But if a woman has long hair it is her glory, for her hair is given to her for a covering.

<sup>16</sup> But if anyone wants to be contentious over this, we have no other custom, nor do the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup> But in giving you this instruction, I cannot praise you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.

<sup>18</sup> First of all, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and in part I believe it, <sup>19</sup> for there must be factions among you, so that those who are genuine may be recognized among you.

<sup>22</sup> Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who have nothing? What can I say to you? Should I praise you? On this I will certainly not praise you.

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread,

<sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, he also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

<sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

<sup>28</sup> But let a person examine himself, and then let him eat the bread and drink the cup.

<sup>29</sup> For anyone who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment on himself, if he does not carefully consider Christ's body.

<sup>30</sup> For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and some have even died.

<sup>31</sup> But if we would scrutinize ourselves, we would not be judged.

<sup>32</sup> But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world.

<sup>34</sup> If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you come together it will not result in judgment. I will give you instructions about other issues when I come.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 12

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I would not have you be uninformed.

<sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans you were led away and drawn to speechless idols.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Let Jesus be cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> Now there are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> There are a different kinds of ministries, but the same Lord.

<sup>6</sup> And there are various results, but the same God, who works all things in everyone.

<sup>7</sup> But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit to the benefit of all.

<sup>8</sup> For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit,

<sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> and to another the performing of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another discernment of spirits; to another different kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues.

<sup>11</sup> All of these are energized by the one and the same Spirit, distributing to each person as he decides.

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one, yet has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free; we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>15</sup> If the foot should say, "Because I am not the hand, I am not part of the body," it would not make it any less a part of the body.

<sup>16</sup> And if the ear should say, "Because I am not the eye, I am not part of the body," it would not make it any less a part of the body.

<sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing come from? If the whole body were just hearing, where would smelling come from?

<sup>18</sup> But as it is, God has put each part in the body just the way he wanted it.

<sup>19</sup> And if they were all one part, where would the body be?

<sup>20</sup> As it is there are many parts, but one body.

<sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you." Nor again can the head say to the feet, "I don't need you."

<sup>22</sup> On the contrary, those parts of the body which seem to be weaker are absolutely necessary.

<sup>23</sup> Those parts of the body that we consider to be less honorable we clothe with greater honor. Our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety,

<sup>24</sup> whereas our presentable parts get no special treatment. But God has so constructed the body giving greater honor to that part that lacked it, <sup>25</sup> that there should be no division in the body; but that the parts should have the same concern for one another.

<sup>26</sup> If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it. If one part is honored, all the parts rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ, and each of you is a part of it.

<sup>28</sup> God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then those who do miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administration, and various kinds of tongues.

<sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all performers of miracles?

<sup>30</sup> Do all have the gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

<sup>31</sup> But earnestly desire the greater gifts. But beyond that I will show you the most excellent way.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 13

<sup>1</sup> If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

<sup>2</sup> If I have prophetic gifts, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

<sup>3</sup> If I give away all my possessions to the poor, and if I even sacrifice my body, so that I could boast, yet do not have love, it benefits me nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind, love is not jealous. Love does not brag and is not arrogant.

<sup>5</sup> It is not rude, does not demand its own way, is not easily angered and keeps no record of wrongs.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But if there are prophecies, they will be done away with; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will pass away.

<sup>9</sup> For we know in part, and we prophesy in part,

<sup>10</sup> but when the perfect comes, that which is partial will pass away.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things.

<sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror, dimly; but then we will see face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known.

<sup>13</sup> So now these three remain: faith, hope, and love; but the greatest of these is love.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 14

<sup>1</sup> Pursue love and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.

<sup>2</sup> For the one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to humans, but to God; for no one understands, since he is speaking mysteries by the Spirit.

<sup>3</sup> But one who prophesies speaks to people to strengthen, encourage, and console them.

<sup>4</sup> The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself; but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

<sup>5</sup> Now I wish all of you spoke in tongues, but even more that you might prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up.

<sup>6</sup> But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I help you, unless I speak to you either some revelation, knowledge, prophecy or teaching?

<sup>7</sup> Even lifeless instruments that produce a sound like a flute or harp, if they do not play clear notes, how will the song on the flute or harp be recognized?

<sup>8</sup> For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?

<sup>9</sup> So it is for you, unless you speak clear, intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what is being said? You will just be talking into the air.

<sup>10</sup> There are undoubtedly many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without meaning.

<sup>11</sup> If then I do not know the meaning of a language, I am a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking is a foreigner to me.

<sup>12</sup> It is the same for you too; since you are eager for spiritual gifts, seek to have an abundance of those that build up the church.

<sup>13</sup> So let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret it.

<sup>14</sup> For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> What should I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind too. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with my mind too.

<sup>16</sup> Otherwise if you bless in the spirit, how can an outsider say the "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying?

<sup>17</sup> For you are certainly giving thanks, but the other people are not built up.

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you.

<sup>19</sup> However in the church I would rather speak five words with my mind that I might instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup> Brothers, do not be children in the way you think, but in evil be infants, but in thinking be mature.

<sup>21</sup> In the law it is written,

"By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners

I will speak to this people;

yet even then they will not listen to me," says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore tongues are a sign, not for those who believe, but for unbelievers. But prophecy is a sign for not unbelievers, but for those who believe.

<sup>23</sup> If, therefore, the whole church is assembled and everyone speaks in tongues, and someone uninformed or unbelieving comes in, will they not say that you are out of your minds?

<sup>24</sup> But if everyone is prophesying, and someone uninformed or unbelieving comes in, he will be convicted by all and called to account by all.

<sup>25</sup> After the secrets of his heart are exposed, and so falling on his face he will worship God, declaring, "God is really among you."

<sup>26</sup> What should be done then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Let all things be done to build up.

<sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, each in their turn; and someone should interpret.

<sup>28</sup> But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church; and let him speak only to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup> Let two or three prophets speak, then let the others evaluate it.

<sup>30</sup> But if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the person who is speaking should stop talking first.

<sup>31</sup> For you all can prophesy one at a time, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged.

<sup>33</sup> For God is not a God of disorder, but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup> women should keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak. But they should be in submission, just as the law says.

<sup>35</sup> And if they want to learn about something, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church.

<sup>36</sup> Did the word of God originate with you? Or did it come to you alone?

<sup>37</sup> If anyone claims to be a prophet or spiritual, he should acknowledge the things that I am writing to you are the commands of the Lord.

<sup>38</sup> But if anyone does not acknowledge this, he should not be acknowledged.

<sup>39</sup> Therefore, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

<sup>40</sup> But everything should be done decently and in order.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 15

<sup>1</sup> Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel which I preached to you, that you received and on which you also stand,

<sup>2</sup> by which you are also saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.

<sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you what was of primary importance that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures;

<sup>4</sup> and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the Twelve.

<sup>6</sup> Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, but some have fallen asleep.

<sup>7</sup> Then he appeared to James, and after that to all the apostles.

<sup>8</sup> Last of all, as to one born at the wrong time, he appeared to me too.

<sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy even to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

<sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been in vain. But I worked harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

<sup>11</sup> Whether then it was I or they, this is what we proclaim, and it is what you believed.

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you claim that there is no resurrection of the dead?

<sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised.

<sup>14</sup> If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is worthless, and your faith is worthless too.

<sup>15</sup> Beyond that, we are found to be false witnesses of God; because we testified that God raised Christ from the dead when in fact he did not raise him up, if in fact the dead are not raised.

<sup>16</sup> For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

<sup>17</sup> If Christ has not been raised, then your faith is worthless and you are still in your sins.

<sup>18</sup> Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

<sup>19</sup> For if we only have hope in Christ in this life, we are of all people most to be pitied.

<sup>20</sup> But now has Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

<sup>21</sup> For since death came through a man, so though a man came the resurrection of the dead.

<sup>22</sup> For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

<sup>23</sup> But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Then comes the end, when he will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power.

<sup>25</sup> For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

<sup>27</sup> For, "He has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "All things are put in subjection," it is obvious that this does not include the one who put all things in subjection to him.

<sup>28</sup> When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise what will those who are baptized for the dead do? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are they baptized for them?

<sup>30</sup> Why also would we put ourselves in danger every hour?

<sup>31</sup> Every day I face death. This is as certain as my boasting in you, brothers, which I make in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>32</sup> If I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, from a human perspective, how did it benefit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

<sup>34</sup> Get sober as is right and stop sinning. For some have no knowledge of God--I speak this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup> But someone may ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come back?"

<sup>37</sup> What you sow is not the body that will be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or some other seed.

<sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body just as he wants it, and to each kind of seed its own body.

<sup>39</sup> All flesh is not the same. There is one kind that is human flesh, and another flesh for animals, another flesh for birds, and another for fish.

<sup>40</sup> There are also heavenly bodies as well as earthly bodies. The glory of the heavenly body is of one type, and that of the earthly quite another.

<sup>41</sup> There is one type of glory from the sun, and another glory from the moon, and another glory from the stars; for one star differs from another star in its glory.

<sup>42</sup> So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, is raised imperishable.

<sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

<sup>44</sup> It is sown a physical body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup> So it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living being." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

<sup>46</sup> However the spiritual does not come first, but that which is physical; and then the spiritual.

<sup>48</sup> As the one is made from the dust, so too are those who are also made from the dust, and as is the heavenly one, so too are those who are heavenly.

<sup>49</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, so we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

<sup>50</sup> Now this is what I am saying, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

<sup>51</sup> Now I am telling you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the blink of an eye, at the last trump. For the trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

<sup>53</sup> For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.

<sup>54</sup> But when this perishable puts on imperishability, and this mortal puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will come to pass, "Death is swallowed up in victory."

<sup>55</sup> "O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?"

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law.

<sup>57</sup> But thank God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not vain.

DASV: 1 Corinthians 16

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the collection for the saints, you should follow the procedure I outlined for the churches of Galatia.

<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the week let each one of you put aside and save it, as each has prospered, so that no collections will need to be made when I come.

<sup>3</sup> When I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> If it seems appropriate for me to go too, they can accompany me.

<sup>5</sup> Now I will come to you, when I have passed through Macedonia, for I intend to travel through Macedonia.

<sup>6</sup> But I may stay with you, or even winter there, so that you may send me on my journey wherever I go.

<sup>7</sup> For I do not want to see you just in passing; for I hope to stay with you for a while, if the Lord permits.

<sup>8</sup> But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup> for a great door of opportunity has opened to me, but there are many adversaries.

<sup>10</sup> Now if Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you; for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am doing too.

<sup>11</sup> So let no one despise him. But send him on his journey in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup> But regarding our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to visit you with the brothers. He did not want to come now, but he will come as soon as he gets an opportunity.

<sup>15</sup> Now I urge you, brothers--you know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts of Achaia, and that they devoted themselves to the service of the saints--

<sup>16</sup> that you submit to people like them and to everyone who works and labors with them.

<sup>17</sup> I was glad when Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived for they supplied what was lacking on your part.

<sup>18</sup> For they refreshed my spirit and yours. So acknowledge such people.

<sup>19</sup> The churches of the province of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, along with the church that is in their house, send many greetings to you in the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come!

<sup>24</sup> My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 2 Corinthians 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints that are throughout Achaia:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort,

<sup>4</sup> who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

<sup>5</sup> For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow into us, so too our comfort overflows through Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Even if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we also suffer.

<sup>7</sup> Our hope for you is steadfast; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so too you will share in our comfort.

<sup>8</sup> For we do not want you unaware, brothers, concerning the affliction that happened to us in the province of Asia. For we were under tremendous pressure, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life.

<sup>9</sup> In fact we felt like we had received the sentence of death against us, so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead.

<sup>10</sup> He delivered us out of so great a danger of death, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that yet again he will deliver us.

<sup>11</sup> You also help us by your prayers, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the grace given to us through the prayers of so many.

<sup>12</sup> For this is our boast, even the testimony of our conscience: we have conducted ourselves in the world with holiness and godly sincerity, not by human wisdom but by the grace of God, and especially toward you.

<sup>13</sup> For we do not write you anything other than what you can read and understand, and I hope that you will understand it totally,

<sup>14</sup> just as you partially understood us, that you will be proud of us even as we are proud of you, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Because of this confidence I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a double benefit,

<sup>16</sup> by visiting you on the way to Macedonia, and then again coming back from Macedonia to you, then from you to be sent on my journey to Judea.

<sup>17</sup> When I was planning what to do, was I vacillating? Or do I make my plans according to human plans, so that I would say "Yes, yes" and then turn around and say "No, no"?

<sup>18</sup> But as God is faithful, our word to you has not been "Yes" and "No".

<sup>19</sup> For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, that is, by me, Silvanus and Timothy, was not "Yes" and "No", but it has always been "Yes" in him.

<sup>20</sup> For however many promises of God are in him, they are all "Yes." Therefore through him we say "Amen", to the glory to God expressed through us.

<sup>21</sup> Now God established us with you in Christ, and anointed us;

<sup>22</sup> he also sealed us, and gave us the Spirit as a down payment in our hearts.

<sup>23</sup> But I call God for a witness, that I did not come back to Corinth to spare you.

<sup>24</sup> Not that we have sovereign control over your faith; rather we are co-workers for your joy, for by faith you stand firm.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 2

<sup>1</sup> But I decided that I would not pay you another painful visit.

<sup>2</sup> For if I make you grieve, who then will there be to make me glad, but the one who I made to grieve?

<sup>3</sup> And I wrote to you about this very thing, so that when I come, I might not grieve over those who should have made me rejoice; for I am confident in all of you that you would share my joy.

<sup>4</sup> For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not to make you grieve, but that you might know the abundant love that I have for you.

<sup>5</sup> But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but to some extent, not to exaggerate, all of you.

<sup>7</sup> So now on the contrary you should forgive and comfort him, so that he may not be overwhelmed with his excessive grief.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup> For this is the reason I wrote to you, to prove whether you would be obedient in all things.

<sup>10</sup> But if you forgive anyone, I forgive them too. For what I have forgiven, if I have really forgiven anything, I did for your sakes in the presence of Christ, <sup>11</sup> so that Satan might not outsmart us; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup> Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and found a door opened to me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup> I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus. So I said good-bye to them and went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup> But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ, and through us spreads the fragrance of his knowledge everywhere.

<sup>15</sup> For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, <sup>16</sup> to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?

<sup>17</sup> For we are not like so many, peddling the word of God for profit, but we speak in Christ before God as people of sincerity, as people sent from God.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 3

<sup>1</sup> Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we really need, as do some, letters of recommendation to you or from you?

<sup>2</sup> You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by all.

<sup>3</sup> You show that you are a letter from Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts.

<sup>4</sup> And we have such confidence through Christ before God.

<sup>5</sup> Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything as having come from us; but our competence is from God.

<sup>6</sup> He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

<sup>7</sup> But if the ministry of death, etched in letters on stone tablets, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, a glory which faded away;

<sup>8</sup> how much more glorious will the ministry of the Spirit be?

<sup>9</sup> For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, how much more does the ministry of righteousness excel in glory.

<sup>10</sup> For indeed what had been glorious has no glory, when compared to the glory that surpasses it.

<sup>11</sup> For if that which was fading away came with glory, how much more has the permanent come with glory.

<sup>13</sup> We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face, so that the Israelites would not stare at the end of that which was fading away.

<sup>14</sup> But their minds were hardened. For until this very day when the old covenant is read the same veil remains, because only through Christ is it taken away.

<sup>15</sup> But to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts.

<sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

<sup>18</sup> But we all, with unveiled faces reflecting as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another, which comes from the Lord, who is Spirit.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore seeing we have this ministry, by God's mercy, we do not lose heart.

<sup>2</sup> We have renounced the hidden shameful deeds and underhanded practices, and handling God's word deceitfully, but by the open declaration of the truth we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God.

<sup>3</sup> But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing.

<sup>4</sup> In whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

<sup>5</sup> For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

<sup>6</sup> For it is God who said, "Let there be light shining out of darkness," who shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in jars of clay, that the extraordinary power may be from God, and not from us.

<sup>8</sup> We are afflicted on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to the point of despair;

<sup>9</sup> persecuted, but not forsaken; knocked down, but not destroyed;

<sup>10</sup> always carrying in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our bodies.

<sup>11</sup> For we who live are constantly being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our mortal flesh.

<sup>12</sup> So then death is at work in us, but life in you.

<sup>13</sup> But since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe and so we also speak.

<sup>14</sup> We know that he who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence.

<sup>15</sup> For all this is for your sakes, so that the grace, reaching more and more people, may result in thanksgiving being increased to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward body is wasting away, yet our inward being is renewed day by day.

<sup>17</sup> For our momentary and light suffering produces for us an eternal weight of glory beyond comparison,

DASV: 2 Corinthians 5

<sup>1</sup> For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

<sup>2</sup> For in this house we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, <sup>3</sup> if by being so clothed we will not be found naked.

<sup>4</sup> For while we are still in this tent we groan, being burdened; because we do not want to be unclothed, but clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

<sup>5</sup> Now he who prepared us for this very thing is God, who gave us the Spirit as a down payment.

<sup>6</sup> So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord

<sup>8</sup> We are absolutely confident, and we would rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore we make it our aim, that whether at home in the body or away, to be pleasing to him.

<sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be repaid for what was done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

<sup>11</sup> Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are well known to God; and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences.

<sup>12</sup> We are not trying to again commend ourselves to you, but giving you opportunity for boasting about us, that you may be able to answer those who boast in external appearance, rather than about what is in the heart.

<sup>13</sup> For if we are out of our minds, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

<sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded that one died for all, therefore all died.

<sup>15</sup> He died for all, so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for him who died and rose again for their sakes.

<sup>16</sup> From now on, then, we regard no one according to a human perspective; even though we have known Christ according to a human perspective, yet now we do not regard him like that anymore.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation, the old has passed away; look, the new has come.

<sup>18</sup> But all this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;

<sup>19</sup> that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and has entrusted the message of reconciliation to us.

<sup>20</sup> So we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God was making his appeal through us. We urge you on behalf of Christ: Be reconciled to God.

<sup>21</sup> God made him who knew no sin to be sin for our sake; so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 6

<sup>1</sup> Now as God's co-workers we urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain

<sup>2</sup> For he says,

"At an acceptable time I listened to you,
and in a day of salvation I helped you."

Look, now is the acceptable time. Look, now is the day of salvation.

<sup>3</sup> We are not giving anyone an occasion of stumbling in anything, so that our ministry might not be criticized.

<sup>4</sup> But as God's servants we commend ourselves in everything, with much endurance, in persecutions, in hardships, in distresses,

<sup>6</sup> by purity, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by genuine love,

<sup>7</sup> by the word of truth, by the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left,

<sup>8</sup> through honor and shame, through berating and good report; treated as impostors and yet true;

<sup>9</sup> as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and look, we are still alive; as punished, and yet not killed;

<sup>10</sup> as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

<sup>11</sup> We have spoken candidly to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open.

<sup>12</sup> You were not restricted in your access to our affection, but you were the ones who restricted your own affections.

<sup>13</sup> Now for a fair exchange, I speak as to children: open your hearts to us also.

<sup>14</sup> Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership do righteousness and iniquity have? Or what camaraderie does light have with darkness?

<sup>15</sup> What agreement does Christ share with Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?

<sup>16</sup> What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are a temple of the living God; just as God said,

"I will live in them,
and walk among them;
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people."

<sup>17</sup> "Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord;
do not touch anything unclean,
and I will receive you."

<sup>18</sup> "I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

DASV: 2 Corinthians 7

<sup>1</sup> Therefore since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

<sup>2</sup> Make room in your hearts for us; we have wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

<sup>3</sup> I say it not to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and live together.

<sup>4</sup> I have great confidence in you, I take great pride on your behalf, I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

<sup>5</sup> For even when we entered into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were afflicted from every side. There were conflicts outside and fears within.

<sup>6</sup> But God, who comforts the downcast, has comforted us by the coming of Titus, <sup>7</sup> and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted that he got from you. When he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, I rejoiced even more.

<sup>8</sup> For even if I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though I did regret it, for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though just briefly.

<sup>9</sup> I now rejoice, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led to repentance. For you were sorry with a godly sorrow, so that you were not harmed by us in anyway.

<sup>10</sup> For godly sorrow produces repentance that leads to salvation, which results in no regret, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

<sup>12</sup> So although I wrote to you, I wrote not on account of the one who did the wrong, or for the one who suffered the wrong, but that your eager care for us might be revealed to you in the sight of God.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore we have been comforted. And in addition to our comfort, we rejoiced even more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you.

<sup>14</sup> For if I have boasted about anything to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame. All the things we spoke about you were true, so our boasting to Titus has proven true.

<sup>15</sup> And his affection for you is even greater, when he remembers the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling.

<sup>16</sup> I rejoice because I have absolute confidence in you.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 8

<sup>1</sup> Now, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God that has been given to the churches of Macedonia,

<sup>3</sup> For I can testify that they gave according to their ability, and beyond their ability of their own free will,

<sup>4</sup> begging us, insisting for the privilege of sharing in the support of the saints.

<sup>5</sup> They did this, not just as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God.

<sup>6</sup> So we urged Titus, that as he already had begun before, that he should also complete this grace among you as well.

<sup>7</sup> But as you excel in everything--in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in love from us in you--be sure that you excel in this grace of generosity also.

<sup>8</sup> I am not ordering it as a command, but as a test of the genuineness of your love in comparison to the eagerness of others.

<sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you by his poverty might become rich.

<sup>10</sup> So here I offer my advice on this matter: for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do it, but also to desire to give.

<sup>11</sup> So now finish it, so that your eagerness may be matched by the finishing it out of what you have.

<sup>12</sup> For if the eagerness is there, then the gift is acceptable according what one has, not according what one does not have.

<sup>13</sup> For I do not say this that there should be relief for others and you be burdened, but as a matter of equality.

<sup>14</sup> Right now your abundance meets their need, that sometime their abundance may in turn meet your need; that there may be equality.

<sup>15</sup> As it is written,

"The one who gathered much had nothing left over;
and the one who gathered little did not have too little."

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God, who put the same concern I have for your care into the heart of Titus.

<sup>17</sup> For he not only accepted our appeal, but he himself being very eager is coming to you of his own accord.

<sup>18</sup> Now we are sending with him the brother who is praised in all the church for proclaiming the gospel.

<sup>19</sup> Not only that, but he was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in this act of grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to demonstrate our readiness to help.

<sup>20</sup> We take this precaution so that no one will blame us in the matter of administering this generous gift.

<sup>21</sup> For we are careful to do what is right, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

<sup>22</sup> We are also sending with them our brother, whom we have many times tested in many things and found him eager, but now much more eager, because of his great confidence in you.

<sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and my co-worker for you; as for our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore show them openly before the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 9

- <sup>1</sup> I do not need to write to you about the ministry to the saints, <sup>2</sup> for I know about your readiness, which I boast about you to those in Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been prepared since last year; and your zeal has stirred up many of them.
- <sup>3</sup> But I have sent the brothers, that our boasting on your behalf may not prove empty in this case; so that you may be prepared just as I said you would be.
- <sup>4</sup> Otherwise if any of those from Macedonia who come with me find you unprepared, we (to say nothing about you) would be put to shame by this confidence.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore I thought it necessary to urge the brothers, that they would go ahead to you, and arrange ahead of time for the generous gift you have promised, so that it might be ready as a generous gift and not a grudging obligation.
- <sup>6</sup> This is my point: The one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly; and the one who sows generously will also reap generously.
- <sup>7</sup> Each person should give as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly, or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
- <sup>8</sup> And God is able to provide all grace abundantly to you; so that you, always having everything you need, may abound in every good work.
- <sup>9</sup> As it is written,
    "He has scattered abroad,
        he has given to the poor;
            his righteousness endures forever."
- <sup>10</sup> Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the harvest of your righteousness.
- <sup>11</sup> You are being enriched in everything to be generous in every way, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us.
- <sup>12</sup> For the service of this ministry not only provides for the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanks to God.
- <sup>13</sup> Through the evidence of this service you glorify God because of your obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with everyone.
- <sup>14</sup> And in their prayers for you they themselves also long after you because of the outstanding grace of God in you.
- <sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 10

<sup>1</sup> Now I, Paul, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who allegedly in your presence is meek when among you, but when away I am bold toward you.

<sup>2</sup> Now I beg you that when I am present I may not have to show boldness with the confidence that I count on using against some who imagine that we are walking according to the flesh.

<sup>3</sup> For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.

<sup>4</sup> For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but God's mighty weapons for tearing down strongholds.

<sup>5</sup> We tear down ideas and every arrogant pretense that is raised up against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to render it obedient to Christ.

<sup>6</sup> We are ready to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is complete.

<sup>7</sup> You are only looking at the things staring you in the face. If anyone trusts that he belongs to Christ, he should remind himself of this: just as he belongs to Christ, so do we too.

<sup>8</sup> For even though I boast too much concerning our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of it.

<sup>9</sup> I do not want it to seem like I am frightening you through my letters.

<sup>10</sup> For they say, "His letters are heavy and forceful; but his physical presence is weak, and his speech repugnant."

<sup>11</sup> Let such a person realize this: what we say by letters when we are absent, we will also do when we are present.

<sup>12</sup> For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with those who recommend themselves. But when they measure themselves by themselves, and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise.

<sup>13</sup> But we will not boast beyond our limits, but only in the domain which God has appointed, to reach out even to you.

<sup>14</sup> For we are not overextending ourselves as though we did not reach you; for we came even as far as you with the gospel of Christ.

<sup>15</sup> We do not boast beyond our limits, that is, about the work done by others. Our hope is that, as your faith grows, the sphere of our work among you might also grow, <sup>16</sup> so that we may preach the gospel even in areas beyond you, and not boasting of work done in another's area of influence.

<sup>18</sup> For it is not the one who recommends himself that is approved, but those whom the Lord recommends.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 11

- <sup>1</sup> I want you to bear with me in a little foolishness, but do bear with me.
- <sup>2</sup> For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy, for I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.
- <sup>3</sup> But I am afraid that somehow just as the serpent beguiled Eve by his cunning, your minds may be corrupted from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.
- <sup>4</sup> For if anyone comes preaching another Jesus than the one whom we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one which you received, you put up with it well enough.
- <sup>5</sup> For I do not consider myself in the least inferior to these "super-apostles."
- <sup>6</sup> But though I am untrained in oratory, yet I am not untrained in knowledge. Indeed we have made this absolutely clear to you in every way possible.
- <sup>7</sup> Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God for free?
- <sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches, taking wages from them so that I might serve you.
- <sup>9</sup> And when I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden on anyone; for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed. I kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and I will continue to do so.
- <sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me boasting of this in the regions of Achaia.
- <sup>11</sup> Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do.
- <sup>12</sup> But what I am doing, I will continue to do, so that I may cut off any opportunity of those who desire a chance to boast that their work is just like ours.
- <sup>13</sup> For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.
- <sup>14</sup> And no wonder; for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.
- <sup>15</sup> It is no big deal then if his servants also disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness. Their end will match what their deeds deserve.
- <sup>16</sup> I say again: let no one think that I am a fool. But if you do, then receive me as you would a fool, that I also may boast a little.
- <sup>17</sup> What I am claiming in this boastful rant is not according to the Lord, but like a fool.
- <sup>18</sup> Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I will boast too.
- <sup>19</sup> For you gladly put up with the fools, since you are so wise.
- <sup>20</sup> For you put up with it even when someone enslaves you, or if he devours you, or if he takes advantage of you, or if he promotes himself, or if he slaps you on the face.
- <sup>21</sup> To my shame, I must say that we were too weak for that. But wherever anyone else boasts (I am talking like a fool), I also dare to boast about it.
- <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

<sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? (I am talking like someone out of their mind) I am more; working harder, in prisons more frequently, with countless beatings, facing death again and again.

<sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with rods, once was I stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a day and a night adrift in the open sea.

<sup>26</sup> I have been on many journeys often in danger of rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from the Gentiles, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger in the sea, in danger among false brothers;

<sup>27</sup> in toil and labor, with frequent sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold without proper clothing.

<sup>28</sup> Besides those things, there is the daily pressure of my anxiety for all the churches.

<sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

<sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

<sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed forever, knows that I do not lie.

<sup>32</sup> In Damascus, the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of Damascus in order to arrest me, <sup>33</sup> and I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped his hands.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 12

<sup>1</sup> I need to boast, though nothing will be gained from it; but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

<sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ, who fourteen years ago--whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, God knows--was caught up to the third heaven.

<sup>3</sup> And I know that this man--whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, God knows--

<sup>4</sup> was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable things, which that no human is allowed to speak.

<sup>5</sup> On behalf of such a person I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except about my weaknesses.

<sup>6</sup> For if I wanted to boast, I would not be a fool; for I would be telling the truth, but I refrain, lest anyone should think better of me than what he sees in me or hears from me, <sup>7</sup> because of the phenomenal nature of these revelations. So that I would not become conceited, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, so that I would not become conceited.

<sup>8</sup> I pleaded with the Lord three times about it, that it might taken away from me.

<sup>9</sup> But he told me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I am content with weaknesses, with insults, with hardships, with persecutions, with troubles for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong.

<sup>11</sup> I have acted like a fool but you forced me to do it. For I ought to have been commended by you. For I am not inferior to these "super-apostles," even though I am nothing.

<sup>12</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were performed among you with great perseverance, by signs, wonders and mighty works.

<sup>13</sup> For how were you treated worse than other churches, except I did not make myself a financial burden to you? Forgive me for this wrong.

<sup>14</sup> Look, I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not be a burden to you. For I do not want your things, but you. For the children should not have to save up for their parents, but the parents for the children.

<sup>15</sup> And I will be happy to spend and be spent for you. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

<sup>16</sup> Be that as it may, I did not burden you; but I assume you think that I was crafty, so I took you in by deceit.

<sup>17</sup> Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

<sup>18</sup> I urged Titus to go and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Did we not walk not in the same spirit? Did we not follow those same footprints?

<sup>19</sup> Were you thinking all this time that we were defending ourselves to you? We speak in the sight of God in Christ, and everything we do, beloved, is to build you up.

<sup>20</sup> For I fear that when I come, I may not find you as I want, and you may not find me as you want. I fear there may be strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance and chaos.

<sup>21</sup> I am afraid when I come again my God will humble me before you, and I will grieve for many of those who have previously sinned, and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality and sensuality which they have committed.

DASV: 2 Corinthians 13

<sup>1</sup> This is the third time I am visiting you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every charge must be established."

<sup>2</sup> I have already warned you before when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to those who have previously sinned, and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare them;

<sup>3</sup> since you are seeking a proof that Christ is speaking in me; who is not weak toward you, but is powerful in you.

<sup>4</sup> For he was crucified in weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you.

<sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this concerning yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? Unless, in fact, you fail the test.

<sup>6</sup> But I hope that you will acknowledge that we have not failed the test.

<sup>7</sup> Now we pray to God that you will not get anything wrong; not so that we may appear to have passed the test, but that you may get it right, even though we appear to have failed the test.

<sup>8</sup> For we cannot do anything against the truth, but for the truth.

<sup>9</sup> For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. This is what we pray for: that you will pass totally qualified.

<sup>10</sup> For this reason I write these things while absent, so that when present I may not have to act harshly when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup> Finally, brothers, rejoice, restore, encourage, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>12</sup> Greet each other with a holy kiss.

<sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Galatians 1

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle, sent not by a human source, neither by means of human agency, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Jesus from the dead;

<sup>2</sup> and all the brothers who are with me. To the Churches of Galatia:

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,

<sup>4</sup> who gave himself for our sins, in order to deliver us from this evil world, according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup> to whom be the glory forever and ever, Amen.

<sup>6</sup> I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you by grace, and are turning to a different gospel,

<sup>7</sup> which is really not another gospel at all, but a perversion of the gospel of Christ, by those who want to deceive you.

<sup>8</sup> But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a different gospel than the one which we first preached to you, let him be accursed.

<sup>9</sup> As we said before, so I say again, if any one preaches a gospel to you different than what you have already received, let him be accursed.

<sup>10</sup> For am I looking for human approval or for God's? Am I hoping to please people? If I was still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

<sup>11</sup> For I want you to know brothers, that the gospel which I preached was not man-made.

<sup>12</sup> For I did not get it from any human source, and I was not taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> You have heard how I used to live in Judaism, how I violently persecuted God's church, and tried to destroy it.

<sup>14</sup> I was advanced in Judaism beyond those of my same age, because I was so zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

<sup>15</sup> But when He, who set me apart before I was born and called me by his grace,

<sup>16</sup> was pleased to reveal his son to me, so that I could preach about him to the Gentiles, I did not consult with anyone else,

<sup>17</sup> or go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before me, but instead I went away to Arabia, and then returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him for fifteen days.

<sup>19</sup> But I did not see any of the other apostles except James, the brother of Jesus.

<sup>20</sup> What I am writing to you before God, I am not lying.

<sup>21</sup> Afterwards, I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia,

<sup>22</sup> and was still unknown personally by the churches of Judea, which were in Christ,

<sup>23</sup> but they received word saying "The one who used to persecute us is now preaching the same faith he once tried to destroy."

<sup>24</sup> And they praised God because of me.

DASV: Galatians 2

<sup>1</sup> Then, after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me.

<sup>2</sup> I went up in response to a revelation and placed before them the gospel which I proclaim among the Gentiles. But I met privately with those who were recognized leaders, lest by any means I should be running, or had run, in vain.

<sup>3</sup> But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was forced to be circumcised.

<sup>4</sup> This problem arose because some false brothers secretly infiltrated us, to spy on our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

<sup>5</sup> But we did not surrender to them even for an instant, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

<sup>6</sup> But from those who were reputed to be influential, whoever they were does not matter to me as God shows no favoritism. Those influential ones added nothing to me.

<sup>7</sup> On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter was to the circumcision, <sup>8</sup> for he who worked in Peter making him an apostle to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles.

<sup>9</sup> When James, Cephas and John, who were accepted to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.

<sup>10</sup> They asked only that we should remember the poor, which was exactly what I had wanted to do anyway.

<sup>11</sup> But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he should have been corrected.

<sup>12</sup> For before certain men came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who belonged to the circumcision.

<sup>13</sup> The rest of the Jews joined in his hypocrisy as well, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they did not walk in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles, and not as a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

<sup>15</sup> We who are Jews by birth, and not Gentile sinners,

<sup>16</sup> know that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. We believe on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no one will be justified.

<sup>17</sup> But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is Christ causing us to sin? Absolutely not!

<sup>18</sup> For if I rebuild those things which I once destroyed, I prove that I myself am a violator.

<sup>19</sup> For through the law I died to the law, that I might live to God.

<sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ living in me. So the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

<sup>21</sup> I do not nullify the grace of God, because if righteousness could come by means of the law, then Christ died for nothing!

DASV: Galatians 3

<sup>1</sup> You foolish Galatians! Who bewitched you? Was it not before your eyes that Jesus Christ was openly crucified?

<sup>2</sup> There is only one thing I want to ask you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by believing what you heard?

<sup>3</sup> Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect in the flesh?

<sup>4</sup> Have you suffered all these things for nothing? --if it really was for nothing.

<sup>5</sup> Does He, who gives you the Spirit and works miracles among you, do it by your doing works of the law or by believing what you heard?

<sup>6</sup> Just as Abraham believed God and it was counted to him as righteousness, <sup>7</sup> know that those who believe are the sons of Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> The Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, when it proclaimed the gospel to Abraham saying "All nations will be blessed in you."

<sup>9</sup> So those who believe are blessed along with Abraham, who believed.

<sup>10</sup> For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse, for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not keep doing everything written in the book of the law."

<sup>11</sup> Now obviously no one is justified before God by the law, because "The one who is righteous will live by faith."

<sup>12</sup> But the law is not based on faith; but the one who does works will live by them.

<sup>13</sup> Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, by becoming a curse for us; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"

<sup>14</sup> so that the blessing of Abraham by Christ Jesus might come to the Gentiles and so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit by faith.

<sup>16</sup> Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say "And to your descendents," as of many; but as of one, "and to your descendent," who is Christ.

<sup>17</sup> This is my point: The law, which came four hundred and thirty years later, does not cancel a covenant ratified beforehand by God, so as to nullify the promise.

<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance depends on the law, it is no more just a promise, but God has granted it to Abraham by a promise.

<sup>19</sup> Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions, until the descendent should come to whom the promise had been made. It was implemented through angels by the hand of a mediator.

<sup>21</sup> Is the law then opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given which could give life, then righteousness would have been by the law.

<sup>22</sup> But the Scriptures imprisoned everything under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

<sup>23</sup> But before faith came, we were locked up under the law, imprisoned until faith could be revealed.

<sup>24</sup> So that the law became our tutor until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith.

<sup>25</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

<sup>26</sup> For you are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

<sup>28</sup> There is no longer Jew or Greek, bond or free, male or female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

<sup>29</sup> If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, heirs according to the promise.

DASV: Galatians 4

<sup>1</sup> But I say that the heir as long as he is a child is no different than if he were a slave, though he is still owner of everything.

<sup>2</sup> He lives under guardians and managers until the time set by his father.

<sup>3</sup> We also, when children, were in slavery under the elementary principles of the world.

<sup>4</sup> But when the right time came, God sent his son, born of a woman, born under the law, <sup>5</sup> to redeem those enslaved under the law, so that we might be adopted as his children.

<sup>6</sup> Because we are sons, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the spirit that calls out, "Abba, Father."

<sup>7</sup> So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then God has made you an heir.

<sup>8</sup> Previously, when you did not know God, you were slaves to things that are not gods.

<sup>9</sup> But now that you have come to know God, or rather are known by God, how can you ever turn back to weak and worthless elementary principles of the world? Do you want to be slaves again?

<sup>11</sup> I am afraid for you, that maybe my efforts for you have been for nothing.

<sup>12</sup> I beg you, brothers, be like me, because I also am becoming like you. You did me no wrong.

<sup>13</sup> As you know it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to you,

<sup>14</sup> and even though my illness was a trial for you, you did not despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, or even Jesus himself.

<sup>15</sup> What happened to your joy now? For I witnessed that, if possible, you would have gouged out your eyes and given them to me.

<sup>16</sup> Have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup> They eagerly want your favor, but for no good. They want to shut you off from us, so you can be zealous for them.

<sup>18</sup> But it is good if someone is eager to do good things for you, let them do it all the time, and not just when I am with you.

<sup>19</sup> My dear children, I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you.

<sup>20</sup> I wish I could be there with you now, and could change the tone of my voice; because I am perplexed about you.

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who want to be under the law, do you know what the law actually says?

<sup>22</sup> It is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman.

<sup>23</sup> The son of the slave woman was born by the flesh, but the son of the free woman was born by the promise.

<sup>29</sup> Just as back then, the one who was born of the flesh persecuted the one who was born of the Spirit, and that is how it is now also.

<sup>30</sup> What then does the Scripture say? "Throw out the servant and her son, because the son of your servant will not inherit the share with the son of the free woman."

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman but of the free woman.

DASV: Galatians 5

<sup>1</sup> For freedom Christ has set us free, so stand firm, and do not be again tied into a yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup> Listen, I Paul tell you, that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, I say it again, to every man that let's himself be circumcised, he is obligated to keep the whole law.

<sup>4</sup> You who are trying to be justified by the law are cut off from Christ, you have fallen away from grace.

<sup>5</sup> For by faith, through the Spirit, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything; but only faith working through love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running so well, who hindered you from obeying the truth?

<sup>8</sup> This false teaching does not come from him who called you.

<sup>10</sup> I have confidence in the Lord that you will be not be persuaded otherwise. But the one who troubles you will pay the penalty, whoever he is.

<sup>11</sup> But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross would have been removed.

<sup>12</sup> I wish that those troublemakers would go ahead and castrate themselves.

<sup>13</sup> For you, brothers, were called to freedom. Only do not use your freedom for an opportunity to indulge the flesh, but through love serve one another.

<sup>14</sup> For the whole law is summed up in a single command: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>15</sup> But if you bite and devour one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup> But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the evil desires of the flesh.

<sup>17</sup> For the desires of the flesh are opposed to the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another; that you cannot do the things that you want to.

<sup>18</sup> But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

<sup>21</sup> envy, drunkenness, carousing, and such things; of which I forewarn you, even as I warned you before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

<sup>24</sup> Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

<sup>25</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk guided by the Spirit.

<sup>26</sup> Let us not become conceited, provoke one another, or become jealous of one another.

DASV: Galatians 6

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, if someone is overcome by some sin, you who are spiritual, restore him in a spirit of gentleness, guarding yourself that you are not also tempted.

<sup>3</sup> For if anyone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

<sup>4</sup> Let each person examine his own work. Then he can take pride in himself alone, without comparing himself to anyone else.

<sup>6</sup> But let the one who is taught in the word share all good things with the one who teaches.

<sup>7</sup> Be not deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever a person sows, that will he also reap.

<sup>8</sup> For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

<sup>9</sup> Let us not be weary in well-doing, for in due time we will reap if we do not give up.

<sup>10</sup> So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good toward all, and especially toward those who are of the family of faith.

<sup>11</sup> See what large letters I write to you with my own hand.

<sup>12</sup> Those who want to impress in the flesh, are trying to compel you to be circumcised; so that they may avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For not even those who are circumcised keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.

<sup>14</sup> But may I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

<sup>15</sup> For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but the new creation is all that matters.

<sup>16</sup> All who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup> From now on, let no one make trouble for me, for I bear branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Ephesians 1

- <sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints that are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus.
- <sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- <sup>3</sup> Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.
- <sup>4</sup> For he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish before him in love.
- <sup>5</sup> He decided ahead of time to adopt us as his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,
- <sup>6</sup> to the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely granted to us in the Beloved.
- <sup>7</sup> In him we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace,
- <sup>8</sup> that he lavished on us along with all wisdom and prudence.
- <sup>9</sup> He did this when he made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he set forth in Christ,
- <sup>10</sup> as a plan for the fullness of the time, to unite all things in Christ, everything in heaven and on earth.
- <sup>11</sup> In him also we obtained an inheritance, being chosen beforehand according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will.
- <sup>12</sup> To the end that we who had before hoped in Christ, should live for the praise of his glory.
- <sup>13</sup> In him you also, when you heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, also believed. You were marked with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit,
- <sup>14</sup> who is the down payment of our inheritance, until our redemption, as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.
- <sup>15</sup> For this reason, I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints,
- <sup>16</sup> do not cease to give thanks for you, praying for you continually.
- <sup>17</sup> I ask that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.
- <sup>18</sup> I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, that you may know the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
- <sup>19</sup> and what is the incomparable greatness of his power toward us who believe. This working of his tremendous strength

<sup>20</sup> which he exercised in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,

<sup>21</sup> far above every ruler and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in the one to come.

<sup>22</sup> He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup> which is his body, the fullness of him that fills all in all.

DASV: Ephesians 2

- <sup>1</sup> You were dead through your transgressions and sins, <sup>2</sup> in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the sons of disobedience, <sup>3</sup> among whom we also all once lived in the passion of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and mind, and were by nature children under God's wrath, just like the rest.
<sup>4</sup> But God, being rich in mercy, because of his great love by which he loved us, <sup>5</sup> even when we were dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ--by grace you have been saved.
<sup>6</sup> He raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup> that in the ages to come he might display the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.
<sup>8</sup> For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God, <sup>9</sup> not by works, so that no one can boast.
<sup>10</sup> For we are his work of art, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared in advance that we should walk in them.
- <sup>11</sup> For that reason remember, that once you Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "Uncircumcised" by those who are called "Circumcision," in the flesh, made by human hands, <sup>12</sup> were at that time without Christ, alienated from the citizenship of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
<sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are brought near by the blood of Christ.
<sup>14</sup> For he is our peace, who made both groups into one, and broke down the dividing wall of hostility,
<sup>15</sup> having abolished in his flesh, the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself from the two one new man, thus making peace, <sup>16</sup> to reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having thereby slain the hostility.
<sup>17</sup> He came and preached peace to you who were far off, and peace to those who were near,
<sup>18</sup> for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.
<sup>19</sup> So then you are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of the household of God.
<sup>20</sup> You are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone.

<sup>21</sup> In whom the whole building is joined together becoming a holy temple in the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> In whom also you are built together into a dwelling of God by the Spirit.

DASV: Ephesians 3

<sup>1</sup> For this reason I, Paul, am a prisoner of Christ Jesus in behalf of you Gentiles, -- <sup>2</sup> assuming that you have heard of the special commission of God's grace that was given to me for you;
<sup>3</sup> how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote before briefly.
<sup>4</sup> When you read this, you will gain understanding into the mystery of Christ.
<sup>5</sup> It was not made known in other generations to human beings, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit.
<sup>6</sup> This mystery, is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
<sup>7</sup> I was made a minister of this gospel, according to the gift of God's grace which was given me according to the working of his power.
<sup>8</sup> To me, who is less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup> and to make everyone see the plan of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God who created all things.
<sup>10</sup> The intent was that now it might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God to rulers and powers in the heavenly places.
<sup>11</sup> This was according to the eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup> in whom we have boldness and confident access through our faith in him.
<sup>13</sup> Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

<sup>14</sup> For this cause I kneel before the Father, <sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.
<sup>16</sup> I pray he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man, <sup>17</sup> that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, so that you, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup> may be strong to comprehend with all the saints what the breadth and length and height and depth is,
<sup>19</sup> and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.
<sup>20</sup> Now unto him that is able to do vastly more than all we can ask or think, according to the power that works in us, <sup>21</sup> to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

DASV: Ephesians 4

- <sup>1</sup> I, therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, implore you to walk worthily of the calling you have received,
- <sup>2</sup> with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love.
- <sup>3</sup> Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
- <sup>4</sup> There is one body, and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling,
- <sup>5</sup> one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
- <sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.
- <sup>7</sup> But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
- <sup>8</sup> This is why it says, “When he ascended on high, he led a crowd of captives, and gave gifts to men.”
- <sup>9</sup> Note how it said this: “He ascended.” What does it mean except he also descended into the lower parts of the earth?
- <sup>10</sup> He who descended is the same also who ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.
- <sup>11</sup> He gave some to be apostles, and some to be prophets, and some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers,
- <sup>12</sup> for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, to build up the body of Christ,
- <sup>13</sup> until we all attain the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a mature person measuring up to the stature of the fullness of Christ,
- <sup>14</sup> so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the human trickery, in craftiness, after their deceitful scams.
- <sup>15</sup> But speaking truth in love, we will grow up in all things into him, who is the head, even Christ.
- <sup>16</sup> From him all the body, perfectly joined and held together by every joint with each one doing its part, making the body grow as it builds itself up in love.
- <sup>17</sup> So I say this, and insist in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the Gentiles, in the futility of their mind.
- <sup>18</sup> They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their heart.
- <sup>19</sup> They are callous giving themselves up to sensuality, to do every kind of uncleanness with greediness.
- <sup>20</sup> This is not the way you learned about Christ,
- <sup>21</sup> assuming that you heard about him, and were taught in him, just as truth is in Jesus.
- <sup>22</sup> Put away, your former manner of life, the old self, which grew in corruption and deception by its lusts.

<sup>24</sup> Put on the new self, which was created in God's image in true righteousness and holiness.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, putting away falsehood, tell the truth to your neighbor, for we are members one of another.

<sup>26</sup> Be angry yet do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your wrath.

<sup>28</sup> Let those who stole steal no more, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands so that he may have something to give to the one who has need.

<sup>29</sup> Let no corrupt speech come out of your mouth, but only what is good for building up the one in need, that it may give grace to those who hear.

<sup>30</sup> Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup> Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, quarreling, and slander, be put away from you, along with all malice.

<sup>32</sup> Instead be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also forgave you in Christ.

DASV: Ephesians 5

- <sup>1</sup> Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children, <sup>2</sup> and walk in love, just as Christ also loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.
<sup>3</sup> But let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you, as these are not appropriate for saints.
<sup>4</sup> Neither should there be any foolish talk or crude jesting, which are not proper but rather giving thanks.
<sup>5</sup> Be sure of this, that no one who is sexually immoral, or impure, or greedy--who is an idolater--has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.
<sup>6</sup> Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.
<sup>8</sup> For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light-- <sup>9</sup> for the fruit of the light is found in all goodness, righteousness and truth.
<sup>12</sup> For the things which they do in secret are shameful even to speak of.
<sup>13</sup> But all things when they are exposed by the light, are made visible.
<sup>14</sup> Therefore it is said, "Awake, you who are sleeping, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."
<sup>15</sup> Look, be careful how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise.
<sup>16</sup> Make the most of the time, because the days are evil.
<sup>17</sup> Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.
<sup>18</sup> Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> speaking to one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your heart to the Lord,
<sup>20</sup> always giving thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> submitting yourselves to each other out of reverence for Christ.
- <sup>22</sup> Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
<sup>23</sup> For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is also the head of the church. He himself is the savior of the body.
<sup>24</sup> As the church submits to Christ, so let wives also submit to their husbands in everything.
<sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church, and gave himself up for it,
<sup>26</sup> that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water by the word,

<sup>27</sup> that he might present the church to himself as glorious, not having a stain, wrinkle or any blemish, but that it should be holy and without blame.

<sup>28</sup> Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.

<sup>29</sup> For no one ever hated his own flesh, but feeds and takes care of it, even as Christ also does for the church,

<sup>31</sup> For this reason a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.

<sup>32</sup> This is a great mystery, but I am talking about Christ and the church.

<sup>33</sup> Nevertheless, each one of you should love his wife as himself, and let the wife respect her husband.

<sup>3</sup> “that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”

<sup>4</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Servants, obey your human masters, with fear and trembling, with sincerity of heart, as you would serve Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Not just when they are looking, as people pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

<sup>7</sup> Do your service enthusiastically, as to the Lord, and not just to humans.

<sup>8</sup> You know that whatever good each one does, he will receive in return the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

<sup>9</sup> Masters, do the same for your servants. Stop threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

<sup>10</sup> Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in his mighty strength.

<sup>11</sup> Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.

<sup>12</sup> For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against powers, against rulers of this darkness, against spiritual powers of wickedness in the heavenly places.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore take up the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand your ground in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

<sup>14</sup> Stand therefore, having the belt of truth around your waist, putting on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup> and having shoes on your feet with the preparation of the good news of peace.

<sup>16</sup> In addition, pick up the shield of faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the fiery arrows of the evil one.

<sup>17</sup> Take also the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup> With every prayer and supplication, pray at all times in the Spirit, and be alert with all perseverance and requests for all the saints.

<sup>19</sup> Pray on my behalf, that a message may be given to me when I open my mouth, that I may make known with confidence the mystery of the gospel, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>21</sup> Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will tell you everything so that you may know how I am doing.

<sup>22</sup> I sent him to you for this very reason, that you may know our situation, and that he may encourage your hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Philippians 1

<sup>1</sup> From Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus that are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God every time I remember you.

<sup>4</sup> When I pray for you, I pray with joy in my heart

<sup>6</sup> I am certain of this, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> It is right for me to feel this way about you, because I have you in my heart; for whether I am chained in prison or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me.

<sup>8</sup> For God is my witness, how I long after you with the compassion of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> I pray this, that your love may grow more and more in knowledge and all discernment;

<sup>10</sup> so that you may be able to determine what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

<sup>11</sup> being filled with the fruits of righteousness that come through Jesus Christ – to bring glory and praise to God.

<sup>12</sup> Now I would have you know, brothers, that what has happened to me has only furthered the spread of the Good News;

<sup>13</sup> so that it was known throughout the whole palace guard, and to everyone else, that I am in chains for Christ.

<sup>14</sup> Most of the brothers in the Lord, being encouraged by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word of God without fear.

<sup>15</sup> Some preach about Christ out of jealousy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.

<sup>16</sup> The latter do so in love, knowing that I am here for the defense of the gospel;

<sup>17</sup> but the others proclaim Christ for selfish ambition, not sincerely, trying to stir up trouble for me in prison.

<sup>18</sup> But it doesn't matter. The important thing is that in every way, whether with right or wrong intentions, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice – yes, and will rejoice.

<sup>19</sup> For I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, this will turn out for my deliverance.

<sup>20</sup> I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but that I will have the courage now, as always, that Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

<sup>21</sup> For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

<sup>22</sup> But if I am to live in the flesh, this means more fruit from my work. What I shall choose? I do not know.

<sup>23</sup> I am torn between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for it is far better, <sup>24</sup> but you need me here in my body.

<sup>25</sup> Realizing this, I know that I will stay and will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup> that you may be proud in Christ Jesus because of me when I come to you again.

<sup>27</sup> Only conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then whether I come and visit you or am away from you, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving for the faith of the gospel, <sup>28</sup> without being frightened by those who oppose you, which is a sign that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved by God.

<sup>29</sup> For the privilege has been granted to you not only to believe on Christ, but also to suffer on his behalf, <sup>30</sup> having the same conflict which you saw me struggle with, and now hear that I still have.

DASV: Philippians 2

- <sup>1</sup> If there is, therefore, any encouragement in Christ, any consolation of love, any fellowship of the Spirit, any affection and compassions, <sup>2</sup> make my joy full and be of the same mind, by having the same love, being of one purpose and one mind.
<sup>3</sup> Do nothing based on selfishness or a desire to impress, but in humbleness of mind thinking of others better than yourselves.
<sup>4</sup> Do not look out just for your own interests, but each of you also for the interests of others.
<sup>5</sup> Have this attitude, which was also in Christ Jesus:
<sup>6</sup> who, existing in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped,
<sup>7</sup> but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. Being found in fashion as a man, <sup>8</sup> he humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death, even death on a cross.
<sup>9</sup> Consequently God highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name, <sup>10</sup> so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven, on earth and under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
- <sup>12</sup> So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup> for it is God who works in you both to desire and to work, for the sake of his good pleasure.
<sup>14</sup> Do everything without grumbling and arguing,
<sup>15</sup> that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world.
<sup>16</sup> Holding tight onto the word of life, so that I may be proud in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.
<sup>17</sup> If I am poured out as a sacrifice and offering for your faith, I am glad, and rejoice with you all,
<sup>18</sup> and in the same way you should also be glad and rejoice with me.
- <sup>19</sup> I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be encouraged when I find out how you are doing.
<sup>20</sup> For I have no one like him, who will truly care for your welfare.
<sup>21</sup> For they care only about themselves and not about the interests of Jesus Christ.

<sup>22</sup> But you know his qualifications, that as a child serves a father, so he served with me in the spreading of the gospel.

<sup>23</sup> I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I find out how my situation goes,

<sup>24</sup> though I trust in the Lord that I myself will come to you soon.

<sup>25</sup> But I thought it necessary to send Epaphroditus to you, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger to minister to my need.

<sup>26</sup> He has been wanting to see you, and was troubled, because you had heard that he was sick.

<sup>27</sup> Indeed he was so sick, he nearly died, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow.

<sup>28</sup> I have sent him therefore more eagerly, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be less anxious.

<sup>29</sup> Welcome him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold people like him in honor, <sup>30</sup> since it was for the work of Christ that he nearly died, risking his life to make up that which was lacking in your service toward me.

DASV: Philippians 3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, is not a problem for me, but for you it is safe.

<sup>3</sup> For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and boast in Christ Jesus, and put no confidence in the flesh,

<sup>4</sup> though I might have confidence even in the flesh. If any one thinks he has reason to have confidence in the flesh, I have more:

<sup>5</sup> circumcised the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee.

<sup>6</sup> Concerning zeal, I persecuted the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, I was blameless.

<sup>8</sup> Even beyond that, I count all things as worthless for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but garbage, so that I can gain Christ, <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that comes from the law, but one that is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith.

<sup>10</sup> My goal is to know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death.

<sup>11</sup> That by any means possible I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already attained this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on, to lay hold onto that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

<sup>13</sup> Brothers, I do not consider myself to have achieved this, but this one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind me, I reach for what is ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal to win the prize that God has called me to in Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> So let us have this mind; as many as are perfect. If in anything you deviate, God will reveal it to you.

<sup>16</sup> Just let us hold onto what we have already attained.

<sup>17</sup> Brothers, join in imitating me, and watch carefully those who live following this same example as you have seen in us.

<sup>18</sup> For as I told you before, and now tell you with tears, that many people are really enemies of the cross of Christ.

<sup>20</sup> But our citizenship is in heaven, from where we wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who will transform our weak bodies, that they may be conformed to the likeness of his glorious body, according to the working by which he is able to subject all things to himself.

DASV: Philippians 4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long to see, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord, my beloved.

<sup>2</sup> I urge Euodia, and I urge Syntyche, to agree in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, I ask you, loyal companion, help these women, for they labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.

<sup>6</sup> Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

<sup>7</sup> And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things.

<sup>9</sup> The things which you both learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things and the God of peace will be with you.

<sup>10</sup> I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have expressed your concern for me. You were indeed concerned, but you lacked opportunity.

<sup>11</sup> Not that I speak in respect of need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, there to be content.

<sup>12</sup> I have experienced both need and abundance. In everything and in all things have I learned the secret of contentment whether I am full or hungry, both in plenty and in want.

<sup>13</sup> I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

<sup>14</sup> Yet it was wonderful that you shared with me during my trouble.

<sup>15</sup> You Philippians also know, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church had shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone.

<sup>16</sup> For even in Thessalonica you sent more than once to my need.

<sup>17</sup> Not that I seek a donation, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your credit.

<sup>18</sup> But I have all things and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable, pleasing to God.

<sup>19</sup> My God will supply every one of your needs according to his riches in glory in Jesus Christ.

<sup>20</sup> Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>21</sup> Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers that are with me greet you.

<sup>22</sup> All the saints greet you, especially those that belong to Caesar's household.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Colossians 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup> to the saints, the faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colossae. Grace and peace to you from God our Father.

<sup>3</sup> We always give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when praying for you,

<sup>4</sup> since we heard about your faith in Christ Jesus, and the love which you have for all the saints, <sup>5</sup> which comes from the hope in what is laid up for you in heaven, which you heard before in the word of truth, the gospel.

<sup>6</sup> It has come to you; just as it is bearing fruit and growing in all the world, as it does also in you, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth.

<sup>7</sup> You learned the gospel from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf, <sup>8</sup> who also told us of your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason we also, since the day we heard about you, never stopped praying for you, requesting that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding.

<sup>10</sup> Then you may live a worthy life, pleasing to the Lord in every way, bearing fruit in every good work, and growing in the knowledge of God.

<sup>11</sup> May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, unto all patience and endurance with joy, <sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

<sup>13</sup> For he rescued us out of the power of darkness, and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, <sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

<sup>16</sup> For by him all things were created, in heaven and on the earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions, whether principalities or powers; all things have been created by him and for him.

<sup>17</sup> He is before all things, and all things are held together in him.

<sup>18</sup> He is the head of the body, the church, he is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead; so that in everything he might have the first place.

<sup>19</sup> For the Father was pleased that all his fullness should dwell in him;

<sup>20</sup> and through him to reconcile to himself all things, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

<sup>21</sup> You who were once alienated and enemies in your mind due to your evil actions,

<sup>22</sup> he has now reconciled you by the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, without blemish, and absolutely free from accusation before him;

<sup>23</sup> if you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, not moved away from the hope promised to you in the gospel that you heard. This is the gospel which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up my part that which is lacking in the sufferings of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church.

<sup>25</sup> I have become its servant since the time God commissioned me, which was given me for you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>26</sup> that is the mystery that has been hidden for ages and generations, but now has been revealed to his saints.

<sup>27</sup> God desired to make known to them the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

<sup>28</sup> We proclaim him, warning and teaching everyone in all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

<sup>29</sup> For this gospel I also labor, struggling with all his power, which works mightily in me.

DASV: Colossians 2

<sup>1</sup> For I want you to know how much I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for those who have not met me face to face.

<sup>2</sup> I want their hearts to be encouraged and united in love, and to have all riches of confident understanding, and know the mystery of God, namely Christ,

<sup>4</sup> I say this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive arguments.

<sup>5</sup> For though I am absent in body, I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing to see how well ordered you are, and the strength of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup> As you received Christ Jesus as Lord, so walk following him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in him, and firm in your faith, just as you were taught, overflowing with thankfulness.

<sup>8</sup> Make sure that no one deceives you through empty and deceitful philosophy, according to human tradition, from the spiritual powers of the world, and not from Christ.

<sup>10</sup> You are made full in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority.

<sup>11</sup> In him you also were circumcised, not with a circumcision of the flesh, but the putting off the body of flesh, by the spiritual circumcision done by Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Having been buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

<sup>13</sup> You, being dead through your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven all your sins;

<sup>14</sup> having dropped the charges written against us, which were contrary to us. He has taken it away by nailing it to the cross.

<sup>15</sup> Disarming the rulers and the authorities, he exposed them openly, triumphing over them by the cross.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore let no one condemn you over food or drink, or concerning the observing of a feast day, new moon or Sabbath days.

<sup>17</sup> These are only the shadow of the things to come, but the reality is Christ.

<sup>18</sup> Let no one judge you demanding pious self-denial and the worshipping of the angels, dwelling on visions, yet full of pride in their fleshly mind.

<sup>19</sup> He lost connection to the head, from whom the whole body is supported and united together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth that comes from God.

<sup>20</sup> If you died with Christ from the elemental spirits of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourself to regulations--

<sup>23</sup> While these things have an appearance of wisdom with self-imposed worship, false humility, and severe treatment of the body; but are not of any true value against the indulgence of the flesh.

<sup>1</sup> So if you were raised with Christ, seek things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

<sup>3</sup> for you have died, and your new life is hidden with Christ in God.

<sup>4</sup> When Christ, who is your life, is revealed, then you too will be revealed in glory with him.

<sup>5</sup> So put to death your earthly actions: sexual immorality, impurity, ungodly passion, evil desire, and greed, which is idolatry.

<sup>6</sup> Because of doing these sins, the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient.

<sup>7</sup> You also did these things when you lived among them.

<sup>8</sup> But now strip off anger, wrath, malice, and abusive language from your mouth.

<sup>9</sup> Do not lie to each other, since you have put off sinful practices reflective of that old, dead self

<sup>10</sup> and have put on the new self, that is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its Creator.

<sup>11</sup> So there is no Greek or Jew, circumcision or uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, freeman but Christ is all, and in all.

<sup>12</sup> Clothe yourselves, therefore, as God's chosen, holy and beloved, with a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

<sup>13</sup> Bear with one another, and forgive each other. If anyone has a complaint against anyone else, as the Lord forgave you, forgive them.

<sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ control your hearts. For you were called as part of one body to peace. And be thankful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and exhorting one another in all wisdom with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing with gratitude in your hearts to God.

<sup>17</sup> Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

<sup>18</sup> Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

<sup>19</sup> Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh to them.

<sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> Servants, obey your earthly masters in everything and not only when they are watching but seek to please them with a sincere heart, fearing the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> Whatever you do, work at it heartily, with enthusiasm as to the Lord, and not for men, <sup>24</sup> knowing that you will receive the reward as an inheritance from the Lord. Serve the Lord Christ.

<sup>25</sup> For the one who does wrong will be repaid for the wrong that he has done, and there are no exceptions.

DASV: Colossians 4

<sup>1</sup> Masters, treat your servants justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

<sup>3</sup> Pray for us also, that God may open a door for the word so that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains.

<sup>4</sup> Pray that I may proclaim the word as clearly as I should.

<sup>5</sup> Be wise how you act toward outsiders, making the most of every opportunity.

<sup>6</sup> Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone.

<sup>7</sup> Tychicus, a beloved brother, faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord, will make known all my affairs to you.

<sup>8</sup> I have sent him for this very purpose, that you may know how we are doing, and that he may encourage your hearts.

<sup>9</sup> I am also sending Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything going on here.

<sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are my only Jewish converts, fellow workers in the kingdom of God. They have been a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you. He earnestly prays for you, that you may stand perfect and confident in all the will of God.

<sup>13</sup> For I can assure you, that he has worked hard for you, and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.

<sup>15</sup> Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea and Nymphas, and the church that meets in her house.

<sup>16</sup> After this letter has been read to you, let it be read also by the church of the Laodiceans. You also read the letter from Laodicea.

<sup>17</sup> Tell Archippus, "Make sure you complete the ministry you received in the Lord."

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 1 Thessalonians 1

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace and peace to you.

<sup>2</sup> We always thank God for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers.

<sup>3</sup> We constantly remember before our God and Father, your work of faith, labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> We know, brothers, beloved by God, that he has chosen you,

<sup>5</sup> because our gospel did not come to you merely in words, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit with full assurance. You know what kind of people we showed ourselves to be for your sake.

<sup>6</sup> And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in great affliction, yet with the joy of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>7</sup> So you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

<sup>8</sup> For the word of the Lord rang out from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we do not need to say anything.

<sup>9</sup> For people everywhere report how you welcomed us, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, <sup>10</sup> and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, the one who rescues us from the wrath to come.

DASV: 1 Thessalonians 2

- <sup>1</sup> For yourselves know brothers about our coming to you, that it was not in vain.
- <sup>2</sup> But although we suffered before and were shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you well know, we had courage in our God to speak the gospel of God to you in spite of great opposition.
- <sup>3</sup> For our appeal does not come from error, impure motives or deceit,
- <sup>4</sup> but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak it; not to please people but God, who examines our hearts.
- <sup>5</sup> For we never came using flattering words as you well know, nor with a hidden agenda of greed, God is our witness.
- <sup>6</sup> Nor did we seek glory from people, neither from you nor from others,
- <sup>7</sup> though we could have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. Instead, we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother who tenderly cares for her own children.
- <sup>8</sup> So with such affection for you, we were delighted to impart to you, not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you had become so dear to us.
- <sup>9</sup> For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, we preached to you the gospel of God working night and day, that we might not burden any of you.
- <sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and so is God, how holy, righteous and blameless our conduct was toward you who believe.
- <sup>11</sup> As you well know, we treated each one of you as a father treats his own children,
- <sup>12</sup> pleading and encouraging you, and challenging you to the end that you should walk worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.
- <sup>13</sup> And for this we also constantly thank God, because when you received the word of God you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word, but as it truly is, the word of God, which also works in you who believe.
- <sup>14</sup> For you, brothers, became imitators of God's churches in Christ Jesus which are in Judea; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Jews.
- <sup>15</sup> They both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove out us. They displeased God, and opposed everyone.
- <sup>16</sup> They forbid us from speaking to the Gentiles that they may be saved. So they constantly piled up their sins but God's wrath has caught up to them at last.
- <sup>17</sup> But we, brothers, being separated from you for a little while--in person not in heart, became even more fervent in our desire to see your face.
- <sup>18</sup> For we wanted to come to you. I, Paul, tried over and over again, but Satan hindered us.
- <sup>19</sup> For who is our hope, joy, and crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you?
- <sup>20</sup> For you are our glory and joy!

DASV: 1 Thessalonians 3

<sup>1</sup> So when we could stand it no longer, we decided to stay behind at Athens alone.

<sup>2</sup> We sent Timothy, our brother and God's co-worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen you, and encourage you in your faith, <sup>3</sup> that no one be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are destined for them.

<sup>4</sup> For in fact even when we were with you, we told you ahead of time that we would suffer affliction; and so it has happened as you know full well.

<sup>5</sup> So when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith. I was afraid that somehow the tempter had tempted you, and our effort should prove to have been wasted.

<sup>6</sup> But now Timothy has come to us from you, and given us good news about your faith and love, and that you constantly have good memories of us, longing to see us, just as we also long to see you.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason, brothers, in all our distress and affliction, we were comforted about you because of your faith.

<sup>8</sup> For now we are alive again, since you are standing firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> For how can we thank God enough for you, for all the joy we feel for your sakes before our God.

<sup>10</sup> Night and day we pray earnestly that we may see you face to face, and fill up anything that is missing in your faith?

<sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you.

<sup>12</sup> May the Lord make you grow and overflow in love for one another, and for all men, just as we do for you.

<sup>13</sup> May he strengthen your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

DASV: 1 Thessalonians 4

<sup>1</sup> Finally brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that, as you received instruction from us on how you ought to walk and to please God, just as you are in fact living -- that you do so more and more.

<sup>3</sup> For this is God's will: that you be holy and abstain from sexual immorality,

<sup>4</sup> that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor,

<sup>5</sup> not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God.

<sup>6</sup> In this issue one should not cheat or wrong his brother, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, just as we also told and warned you before.

<sup>7</sup> For God did not call us to impurity, but to holiness.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore the one who rejects this, does not reject human instruction, but God's, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup> Now concerning brotherly love, you do not need anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.

<sup>10</sup> Indeed you show it toward all the brothers who are throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers, that you do so more and more.

<sup>11</sup> Make it your goal to live a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to work with your hands, just as we instructed you.

<sup>12</sup> Then you can live properly before outsiders, and will not be dependent on anyone.

<sup>13</sup> But we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep; so you will not grieve like the rest who have no hope.

<sup>14</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, then those who are fallen asleep in Jesus, God will bring with him.

<sup>15</sup> For we tell you this by the authority of the word of the Lord, that we who are left alive when the Lord comes, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.

<sup>16</sup> For the Lord himself will descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

<sup>17</sup> Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore comfort one another with these words.

DASV: 1 Thessalonians 5

<sup>1</sup> But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you do not need to have anything written to you.

<sup>2</sup> For yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night.

<sup>3</sup> When they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. There will be no way to escape.

<sup>4</sup> But you, brothers, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief.

<sup>5</sup> For you are all sons of light, and sons of the day. We are not of the night, nor of darkness.

<sup>6</sup> So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us stay alert and be sober.

<sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep in the night and those who are get drunk are drunk at night.

<sup>8</sup> But since we are of the day, let us be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

<sup>9</sup> For God did not destine us for wrath, but for the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup> who died for us, that whether we are awake or asleep, we should live together with him.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up, just as you already do.

<sup>12</sup> But we ask you, brothers, to acknowledge those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you.

<sup>14</sup> We urge you, brothers, admonish the lazy, encourage the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all.

<sup>15</sup> See that no one repays evil for evil; but always pursue that which is good for one another, and for all.

<sup>18</sup> in everything give thanks. For this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Now may the God of peace himself make you completely holy. May your spirit, soul and body be kept totally blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup> I command you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the brothers.

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, and rightly so, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of each one of you for one another is also increasing.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and afflictions which you are undergoing.

<sup>5</sup> This is the evidence of the righteous judgment of God; to the end that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer.

<sup>6</sup> For it is right for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

<sup>7</sup> and provide relief for you who are being afflicted, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels.

<sup>8</sup> With flaming fire he will inflict vengeance on those who do not know God, and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might.

<sup>10</sup> When he comes on that day, he will be glorified among his saints, and admired by all those who have believed, indeed you did believe our testimony to you.

<sup>11</sup> To this end we pray for you always, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill every good desire and work of faith, with power, <sup>12</sup> that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

DASV: 2 Thessalonians 2

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our being gathered to him, we ask you brothers

<sup>2</sup> not to be easily shaken in mind, or alarmed, either by a spirit, word, or a letter supposed to be from us, alleging that the day of the Lord has already come.

<sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come until the falling away comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the one destined to destruction.

<sup>4</sup> He opposes and exalts himself over every so-called god or object of worship; so that he will sit in the temple of God, setting himself up as God.

<sup>5</sup> Do you not recall that when I was still with you, I told you these things?

<sup>6</sup> Now you know what is restraining him, so that he will be revealed when his time comes.

<sup>7</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. However there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way.

<sup>8</sup> Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy with the breath of his mouth, and bring him to nothing by the splendor of his coming.

<sup>9</sup> The coming of the lawless one will be by the working of Satan with all power, signs and lying wonders and

<sup>10</sup> with every kind of wicked deception deceiving those who perish; because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

<sup>11</sup> Consequently God sends them a strong delusion, that they will believe a lie.

<sup>12</sup> So all who have not believed the truth, but enjoy evil will be condemned.

<sup>13</sup> But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and belief in the truth.

<sup>14</sup> To this he called you through our gospel, so you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold on to the traditions that you were taught, whether by our speech or letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup> encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

DASV: 2 Thessalonians 3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be honored, just as it was among you,

<sup>2</sup> and that we may be rescued from wicked and evil people. Not everyone has faith.

<sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you, and guard you from the evil one.

<sup>4</sup> We are confident in the Lord about you, that you are both doing and will continue to do the things that we commanded you.

<sup>5</sup> Now may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the endurance of Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who lives an idle life and not after the tradition they received from us.

<sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, for we were not idle when we were among you.

<sup>8</sup> We did not eat anyone's food without paying for it. Instead we labored and toiled, working day and night, so that we might not burden any of you.

<sup>9</sup> It was not because we had no right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us.

<sup>10</sup> For even when we were with you, we commanded you, "If anyone will not work, he should not eat."

<sup>11</sup> For we hear of some of you are walking in idleness, refusing to work, yet are busybodies.

<sup>12</sup> Now such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ, that they work quietly and make their own living.

<sup>14</sup> If anyone does not obey our word by this letter, take note of that person, do not associate with him, in order that he may be ashamed.

<sup>15</sup> Do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter. This is how I write.

<sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 1 Timothy 1

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God, our Savior, and Christ Jesus, our hope.

<sup>2</sup> To Timothy, my true child in the faith. Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> As I urged you when I left for Macedonia, stay at Ephesus, that you may instruct certain people there not to teach false doctrine, <sup>4</sup> or to waste time on myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculation, rather than God's redemptive plan which is by faith.

<sup>5</sup> But the goal of my instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience and a sincere faith.

<sup>7</sup> They desire to be teachers of the law, but they do not understand what they are saying, or what they so confidently affirm.

<sup>8</sup> But we know that the law is good, if a person uses it legitimately.

<sup>9</sup> We know this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their fathers and mothers, for murderers,

<sup>10</sup> for sexually immoral, for practicing homosexuals, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching,

<sup>11</sup> in accord with the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

<sup>12</sup> I thank him who enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to his service;

<sup>13</sup> even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man. But I received mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief, <sup>14</sup> and the grace of our Lord overflowed on me with faith and love that come from Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> This is a trustworthy saying, and deserves full acceptance: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners,"--of whom I am the worst.

<sup>16</sup> This is why I obtained mercy, that in me, as the worst, Jesus Christ might show forth the extent of his patience, as an example for those who are going to believe on him and receive eternal life.

<sup>17</sup> Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>18</sup> I commit this charge to you, Timothy, my child, according to the prophecies spoken about you, that by them you may fight the good fight, <sup>19</sup> grasping firmly on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected causing their faith to shipwreck.

<sup>20</sup> Among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

DASV: 1 Timothy 2

<sup>1</sup> I urge, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanks be made for all people;

<sup>2</sup> for kings and all that are in high positions; that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

<sup>4</sup> who wants all people to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth.

<sup>5</sup> For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humans, Christ Jesus, who himself was truly human.

<sup>6</sup> He gave himself a ransom for all, this was attested at just the right time.

<sup>7</sup> For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup> I want men to pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without anger or disputing.

<sup>9</sup> Similarly, women should dress in appropriate clothing, with modesty and propriety; not with braided hair, gold, pearls or expensive clothes,

<sup>12</sup> But I do not allow a woman to teach, or to have authority over a man. She is rather to remain quiet.

<sup>14</sup> Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived fell into transgression.

<sup>15</sup> But she will be saved through her childbearing, if she continues in faith, love and holiness with modesty.

<sup>5</sup> For if one does not know how to manage his own home, how can he take care of the church of God?

<sup>6</sup> He should not be a new believer, or he may fall into the condemnation caused by the devil.

<sup>7</sup> Moreover he must be well thought of by those who are outside the community of faith; so he will not fall into disgrace and the snare of the devil.

<sup>8</sup> Deacons, likewise must be respected, not two-faced, not heavy drinkers or greedy for money,

<sup>10</sup> Let these also first be tested, and then let them serve as deacons, if they prove blameless.

<sup>13</sup> For those who have served well as deacons gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> These things write I to you, hoping to come to you soon,

<sup>15</sup> but if I get delayed, I write that you may know how people ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

<sup>16</sup> There is no question this is a great mystery of our religion: He appeared in the flesh, was vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

DASV: 1 Timothy 4

<sup>1</sup> But the Spirit says clearly, that in later times some will turn away from the faith, devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons,

<sup>3</sup> They forbid marriage, and command abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

<sup>4</sup> For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving.

<sup>5</sup> For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

<sup>6</sup> If you point out these things to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith and of the good teaching which you have followed.

<sup>7</sup> But have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales. Instead train yourself for godliness.

<sup>8</sup> For "physical training has some value; but godliness is valuable for all things. It holds promise for the present life, and for that which is to come."

<sup>10</sup> For to this end we work hard and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of everyone, especially of those who believe.

<sup>12</sup> Let no one despise you because you are young; but set an example to those who believe, in speech, conduct, love, faithfulness, and purity.

<sup>13</sup> Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, and to teaching.

<sup>14</sup> Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands by the council of elders.

<sup>15</sup> Pay attention to these things, give yourself totally to them, so that your progress may be apparent to everyone.

<sup>16</sup> Keep a close watch on yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.

DASV: 1 Timothy 5

- <sup>1</sup> Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but appeal to him as a father. Talk to younger men as brothers,
- <sup>2</sup> to older women as mothers, and to the younger women as sisters, with all purity.
- <sup>3</sup> Honor widows who are truly in need.
- <sup>4</sup> But if a widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show their religious duty towards their own family and repay their parents. For this is pleasing in the sight of God.
- <sup>5</sup> Now a widow who is truly in need and left all alone, has her hope set on God, and continues making requests and prayers night and day.
- <sup>6</sup> But the widow who lives only for her own pleasure is dead even while she lives.
- <sup>7</sup> Give these instructions so that they may be above criticism.
- <sup>8</sup> But if anyone does not provide for his own family, and especially his own immediate family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
- <sup>9</sup> Let a widow be put on the list only if she is over sixty years old, having been a faithful wife.
- <sup>10</sup> She should be known for good deeds, as one who has raised children, shown hospitality, washed the feet of saints, cared for the afflicted and has devoted herself to all kinds of good works.
- <sup>11</sup> But refuse to put younger widows on the list, for their sensual desires may lead them away from Christ and they will want to marry.
- <sup>12</sup> They incur condemnation because they have broken their first pledge.
- <sup>13</sup> Besides that, they may learn to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but gossips and busybodies, saying things they ought not to.
- <sup>14</sup> I desire, therefore, that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage their homes so as to give no opportunity to the adversary for slander.
- <sup>15</sup> For some have already turned aside to follow Satan.
- <sup>16</sup> If any believing woman has widows in her own family, let her help them, and let not the church be burdened; so that it may help those who are truly needy widows.
- <sup>17</sup> Let the elders that rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work in preaching and teaching.
- <sup>18</sup> For the scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain." And, "The laborer deserves his pay."
- <sup>19</sup> Do not receive an accusation against an elder unless it is supported by two or three witnesses.
- <sup>20</sup> Those who sin should be rebuked in the sight of all so that the rest also may be warned by it.
- <sup>21</sup> I charge you in the sight of God, Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that you observe these instructions without partiality, doing nothing by favoritism.
- <sup>22</sup> Do not ordain anyone hastily, or partake in another's sins. Keep yourself pure.
- <sup>23</sup> Do not drink just water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent illnesses.

<sup>25</sup> In like manner also there are good works that are obvious; and those that cannot be hidden very long.

DASV: 1 Timothy 6

<sup>1</sup> Let as many as are under the yoke of slavery regard their own masters worthy of full honor, that the name of God and the teaching be not defamed.

<sup>2</sup> Those who have believing masters, should not respect them less because they are brothers. Instead they should serve them all the more, because those who benefit from their service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these things.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone teaches differently, and does not agree with sound words, that is, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching which promotes godliness;

<sup>4</sup> he is conceited and knows nothing. Such a person has an unhealthy interest in questionings and disputes over words, which give rise to envy, strife, slander and evil suspicions.

<sup>5</sup> The wranglings of those who are of a corrupt mind and bereft of the truth, lead them to imagine godliness is a way to wealth.

<sup>7</sup> For we brought nothing into the world and so we cannot carry anything out.

<sup>8</sup> But if we have food and clothing let us be content.

<sup>9</sup> But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts that plunge people into destruction and ruin.

<sup>10</sup> For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some craving it have wandered away from the faith, and have pierced themselves with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup> But you, man of God, flee these things. Instead pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness.

<sup>12</sup> Fight the good fight of the faith. Grasp tightly onto eternal life, to which you were called, and make a good confession in the sight of many witnesses.

<sup>13</sup> I charge you in the sight of God, who gives life to all things, and Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate made his good confession.

<sup>14</sup> Obey the commandment, without fault or blame, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup> which he, who is the blessed and only ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords, will reveal at just the right time.

<sup>16</sup> He alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no human has seen, nor can see. To him be honor and power, forever! Amen.

<sup>17</sup> Charge those who are rich in this present world, not to be arrogant, or to have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who gives us richly all things for our enjoyment.

<sup>18</sup> Direct them to do good, that they be rich in good works; to be generous and willing to share with others.

<sup>19</sup> By doing this they will store up treasure for themselves as a solid foundation for the future, that they may lay hold onto true life.

<sup>20</sup> O Timothy, guard that which has been entrusted to you. Avoid godless babblings and absurdities of their falsely labeled “knowledge,”

<sup>21</sup> which some have professed wandering from the faith. Grace be with all of you.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 2 Timothy 1

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of the life that is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, with a pure conscience whom I serve, just as my forefathers did, when day and night I constantly remember you in my prayers.

<sup>4</sup> I long to see you, remembering your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

<sup>5</sup> I am reminded of your genuine faith; which first lived in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice; and, I am convinced, is now in you too.

<sup>6</sup> Because of this I remind you that you fan into flames the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

<sup>7</sup> For God did not give us not a spirit of fear; but of power, love and self-control.

<sup>8</sup> So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, or of me, his prisoner, but suffer hardship for the gospel by to the power of God.

<sup>9</sup> He saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not because of our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time begin.

<sup>10</sup> But it has now been made visible by the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus. He has destroyed death, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

<sup>11</sup> For this Good News I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher.

<sup>12</sup> Because of this I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, because I know the one in whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him until that day.

<sup>13</sup> Hold to the standard sound teaching which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> Guard that good deposit which was entrusted unto you through the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

<sup>15</sup> You know, that everyone in the province of Asia deserted me; including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the family of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chains.

<sup>17</sup> But, when he was in Rome, he vigorously searched for and found me.

<sup>18</sup> May the Lord grant that he find mercy from the Lord on that day. Now you know full well how much he helped me at Ephesus.

DASV: 2 Timothy 2

- <sup>1</sup> You then, my dear child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
- <sup>2</sup> And the things which you have heard me say in front of many witnesses, entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.
- <sup>3</sup> Receive your share of suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.
- <sup>4</sup> No soldier in military service entangles himself in the affairs of everyday life, so that he may please the one who recruited him.
- <sup>5</sup> Anyone who competes as an athlete is not crowned, unless he follows the rules.
- <sup>6</sup> The farmer that works hard should be the first one to receive his share of the crops.
- <sup>7</sup> Think about what I am saying; for the Lord will give you understanding in all this.
- <sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendent of David—this is my gospel,
- <sup>9</sup> for which I suffer hardship even to the point of being bound with chains as a criminal; but the word of God is not bound.
- <sup>10</sup> So I endure all things for the sake of the chosen, that they too may obtain salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
- <sup>11</sup> This saying is trustworthy: “For if we died with him, we shall also live with him.
- <sup>12</sup> If we endure, we shall also reign with him, if we deny him, he will also deny us,
- <sup>13</sup> if we are unfaithful, he will remain faithful; because he cannot deny himself.”
- <sup>14</sup> Remind them these things, warn them in the sight of the Lord, not to quarrel over words. It is worthless and only ruins those who listen.
- <sup>15</sup> Do your best to present yourself approved to God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.
- <sup>16</sup> But avoid profane babblings, for it will only lead one further into ungodliness.
- <sup>17</sup> Their talk will spread like gangrene. Hymenaeus and Philetus are examples of this.
- <sup>18</sup> They have strayed from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already happened, and the faith of some has been destroyed.
- <sup>19</sup> However, God’s solid foundation stands firm, having this seal inscribed, “The Lord knows those who are his,” and, “Let everyone who confesses the name of the Lord turn away from wickedness.”
- <sup>20</sup> Now in an expensive house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay; and some are for honorable uses, and others are for ignoble.
- <sup>21</sup> If anyone purge himself of these, he will be a vessel of honor, special, fit for the master’s use, prepared for every good work.
- <sup>22</sup> But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.
- <sup>23</sup> But reject foolish and ignorant questions, knowing that they only breed strife.

<sup>25</sup> in meekness correcting opponents, if there is a chance that God may grant them repentance unto the knowledge of the truth, <sup>26</sup> that they may rescue themselves from of the trap of the devil, having been held captive by him in order to do his will.

DASV: 2 Timothy 3

<sup>1</sup> But know this, that in the last days distressing times will come.

<sup>2</sup> For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

<sup>5</sup> They maintain an outward form of godliness, but have denied its power. Avoid these kind of people.

<sup>6</sup> For these are the kind that creep into houses, and take captive vulnerable women overwhelmed with sins, led astray by all kinds of passions.

<sup>7</sup> Such women are always following some new teaching but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

<sup>8</sup> Just as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these men also withstand the truth. They have warped minds and are disqualified concerning the faith.

<sup>9</sup> But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be obvious to everyone, just like it was for those two men.

<sup>10</sup> But you have followed my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, <sup>11</sup> persecutions, sufferings, that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured. And the Lord delivered me from them all.

<sup>12</sup> Yes, and all who would live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

<sup>13</sup> But evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived themselves.

<sup>14</sup> But as for you, continue in the things which you have learned and are convinced of, knowing from whom you learned them.

<sup>15</sup> And that from early childhood have known the Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>16</sup> All scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> So that the man of God may be competent, completely equipped for every good work.

DASV: 2 Timothy 4

<sup>1</sup> I solemnly charge you in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom:

<sup>2</sup> Preach the word; be ready in season and out; reprove, rebuke, exhort with total patience and good teaching.

<sup>3</sup> For there will come a time when people will not tolerate sound teaching. But, they will heap up for themselves teachers compatible with their own lusts, having itching ears.

<sup>4</sup> And they will turn their ears away from the truth, turning instead to myths.

<sup>5</sup> But be self-controlled in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out as an offering, and the time of my departure is come.

<sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith.

<sup>8</sup> Now there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who long for his appearing.

<sup>9</sup> Do your best to come to me soon.

<sup>10</sup> For Demas deserted me, having loved this present world. He went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you; for he is helpful to me in my ministry.

<sup>13</sup> When you come, bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup> Alexander the coppersmith did me great evil. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>15</sup> You must beware of him also; for he greatly opposed our words.

<sup>16</sup> At my first defense no one took my side, but they all deserted me, may they not be held accountable for it.

<sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, so that through me the message would be fully proclaimed for all the Gentiles to hear. And I was delivered out of the lion's mouth.

<sup>18</sup> The Lord will deliver me from every evil attack, and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Titus 1

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness, <sup>2</sup> in hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the ages began.

<sup>3</sup> But at the right time he revealed his word through the preaching with which I was entrusted, according to the command of God our Savior.

<sup>4</sup> To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

<sup>5</sup> The reason I left you in Crete, was so that you might put in order what was unfinished there and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

<sup>6</sup> If anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of debauchery or being rebellious.

<sup>7</sup> For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward. He must not be arrogant, not quick to anger, not a drunkard, violent, or greedy for gain.

<sup>8</sup> Instead he must be hospitable, a lover of good, prudent, just, devout, and self-controlled.

<sup>9</sup> He must hold firmly to the faithful word he was taught so that he will be able both to give instruction in the sound doctrine, and to refute those who contradict it.

<sup>10</sup> For there are many rebellious people, idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group, <sup>11</sup> Their mouths must be stopped; for they mislead whole families, teaching for dishonest gain things which they ought not to.

<sup>13</sup> This testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, that they may become sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup> not paying attention to Jewish myths, and commands of people who turn away from the truth.

<sup>15</sup> To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are corrupt and unbelieving nothing is pure, but both their minds and their consciences are corrupt.

<sup>16</sup> They profess that they know God; but by their deeds they deny him. They are detestable and disobedient, and unfit for doing any good work.

DASV: Titus 2

<sup>2</sup> Teach older men to be temperate, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in endurance.

<sup>3</sup> Similarly teach older women to be reverent in demeanor, not slanderers or addicted to much wine, but teachers of that which is good,

<sup>4</sup> that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup> to be self-controlled, pure, workers in their homes, kind, being subject to their husbands, that the word of God not be criticized.

<sup>7</sup> In all things showing yourself to be an example of good works. In you teaching show integrity, seriousness, <sup>8</sup> sound speech, that cannot be condemned, so that any opponent may be put to shame having nothing evil to say against us.

<sup>9</sup> Servants are to be subject to their masters, and try to please them in everything. They should not talk back, <sup>10</sup> or steal, but show themselves trustworthy, then they may make the doctrine of God our Savior attractive in everything.

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all.

<sup>12</sup> It instructs us, to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, that we should live self-controlled, righteous and godly lives in this present world, <sup>13</sup> while we wait for the blessed hope and appearing of to glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup> He gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for himself, ones who are eager to do good works.

DASV: Titus 3

<sup>1</sup> Remind them to submit to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, ready to do what is good.

<sup>3</sup> For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another.

<sup>4</sup> But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared,

<sup>5</sup> he saved us, not because of works of righteousness, which we had done, but according to his mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>6</sup> whom he richly poured out upon us, through Jesus Christ our Savior;

<sup>7</sup> so that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

<sup>8</sup> This saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things so that those who have believed God may be careful to do good works. These things are excellent and profitable for all.

<sup>9</sup> But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, arguments, and quarrels about the law; for they are unprofitable and worthless.

<sup>10</sup> After giving a first and second warning to a divisive person, have nothing to do with him.

<sup>11</sup> Know that such a person is perverted, and sinful, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup> When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> Do everything you can to speed Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their way. Give them everything they need.

<sup>14</sup> And let our people devote themselves to do good works to meet any urgent needs and not live unproductive lives.

<sup>15</sup> All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with all of you.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Philemon

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother; To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker, <sup>2</sup> to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house.

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> because I hear of your love for all the saints, and your faith which you have for the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing we have in Christ.

<sup>7</sup> For I had great joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

<sup>8</sup> So, even though I have all confidence in Christ to order you to do what you ought to,

<sup>9</sup> yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you, I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner for Christ Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> I appeal to you for my child, Onesimus, who has become my son while I was imprisoned.

<sup>11</sup> He was once useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup> I have sent him back to you--he who is my very heart.

<sup>13</sup> I wanted to keep him with me, that in your place he might minister to me while I am imprisoned for the gospel.

<sup>14</sup> But I do not want to do anything without your consent; that your goodness should not be out of compulsion, but from your own free will.

<sup>15</sup> For perhaps it was because of that he was separated from you for a while, that you should have him back for ever,

<sup>16</sup> no longer as a servant, but more than a servant, as a beloved brother. So he is, especially to me, and even much more now to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> If you regard me as a partner, receive him as you would me.

<sup>18</sup> But if he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge it to my account.

<sup>19</sup> I, Paul write this with my own hand, I will repay it. I could say to you that you owe me your very self.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, please do me this favor in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

<sup>21</sup> I am confident in your obedience. I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I ask.

<sup>22</sup> One more thing, prepare a place for me to stay, for I hope that through your prayers, I will return to you.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Hebrews 1

<sup>1</sup> Long ago God spoke at many times and in various ways to our forefathers by the prophets.

<sup>2</sup> In these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the world.

<sup>3</sup> He is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his essence, and he sustains everything by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, <sup>4</sup> having become as much better than the angels as the name that he inherited is more excellent than theirs.

<sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels did God ever say,

"You are my Son,
today I have I have fathered you"?

and again,

"I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son"?

<sup>6</sup> And again, when he brought his firstborn into the world, he said,

"Let all the angels of God worship him."

<sup>7</sup> And regarding the angels he says,

"Who makes his angels spirits, and his servants a flame of fire."

<sup>8</sup> But about the Son he says,

"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
and the scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> You have loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you over your companions with the oil of gladness."

<sup>10</sup> And,

"You, Lord, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands.

<sup>11</sup> They will perish, but you remain,

they will all get old like a garment;

<sup>12</sup> like a cloak you will roll them up, like a garment they will be changed.

But you are the same,

and your years will not end."

<sup>13</sup> But about which of the angels did God ever say,

"Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet"?

<sup>14</sup> Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to serve in behalf of those who will inherit salvation?

DASV: Hebrews 2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore we must pay closer attention to the things we have heard, so we do not drift away from them.

<sup>2</sup> For if the message spoken through angels proved certain, and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty;

<sup>3</sup> how will we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation? It was first announced through the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard him.

<sup>4</sup> God also confirmed their testimony by signs, wonders and various miracles, along with gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his own will.

<sup>5</sup> For he did not subject the world to come, about which we are speaking, to angels.

<sup>6</sup> But one has testified somewhere, saying,

"What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you should care for him?"

<sup>7</sup> You made him a little lower than the angels;

you crowned him with glory and honor,

For when he put everything under his control, he left nothing outside his control.

But currently we do not see everything under his control.

<sup>9</sup> But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for a little while, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

<sup>10</sup> For it is appropriate for him, for whom are all things and through whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

<sup>11</sup> For both he who makes holy and they who are made holy are all from the same Father, for that reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers,

<sup>12</sup> saying,

"I will declare your name to my brothers, in the midst of the congregation will I sing your praise."

<sup>13</sup> And again,

"I will put my trust in him."

And again,

"Here I am, and the children whom God has given me."

<sup>14</sup> Since then the children share in flesh and blood, he too shared in the same; so that through death he might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup> and free those who were enslaved all their lives by the fear of death.

<sup>16</sup> For surely he did not help the angels, but he helped the descendants of Abraham.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore it was necessary for him in everything to be made like his brothers, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make an atonement for the sins of the people.

<sup>18</sup> Since he himself has suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

DASV: Hebrews 3

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, holy brothers, partners in a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> He was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses was also in all God's house.

<sup>3</sup> For he deserves more glory than Moses, just as the one who builds the house deserves more honor than the house itself.

<sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone; but God is the one who built everything.

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify of those things that would be spoken later.

<sup>6</sup> But Christ, is faithful as a son over God's house; whose house we are, if we hold on tight to our courage and the confidence of our hope.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says,

<sup>8</sup>           "Today, if you will hear his voice,
              do not harden your hearts,
                          as in the rebellion,
                          in the day of the trial in the wilderness,

<sup>9</sup>           where your fathers tested and tried me, and saw my works for forty years.

<sup>10</sup>          Therefore I was provoked by this generation, and said, 'Their hearts always wander,
                          but they have not known my ways.'

<sup>11</sup>          So I swore in my wrath,
              'They will not enter into my rest.'"

<sup>12</sup> Take care, brothers, that none of you has an evil and unbelieving heart, that turns away from the living God.

<sup>13</sup> But exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "Today," so that none of you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

<sup>14</sup> For we have become partners with Christ, if we hold on tight to the beginning of our confidence to the end.

<sup>15</sup> As it says,
              "Today if you will hear his voice,
                          do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

<sup>16</sup> For who were those who heard and rebelled? Was it not all those who came out of Egypt through Moses' leadership?

<sup>17</sup> And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

<sup>18</sup> To whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient?

<sup>19</sup> So we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

DASV: Hebrews 4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore while the promise of entering into his rest still remains, let us fear that anyone of you may seem to have failed to reach it.

<sup>2</sup> For we had good news preached to us, just as they did. But the message they heard was of no benefit to them, because they did not connect by faith with those who listened.

<sup>3</sup> For we who have believed can enter into that rest; even as he has said,

"As I swore in my wrath,

"They will not enter into my rest,"

although his works were finished from the foundation of the world.

<sup>4</sup> For he has spoken somewhere about the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works."

<sup>5</sup> And again in the passage cited above, "They will not enter into my rest."

<sup>6</sup> Therefore it remains for some to enter it, yet those to whom the good news was preached previously failed to enter because of disobedience.

<sup>7</sup> He again set up a certain day, "Today," saying through David some time later just as quoted before,

"Today, if you will hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts."

<sup>8</sup> For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken later about another day.

<sup>9</sup> There remains, therefore, a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

<sup>10</sup> For the one who enters into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God did from his.

<sup>11</sup> Let us, therefore, endeavor to enter into that rest, that no one fall by following that same example of disobedience.

<sup>12</sup> For the word of God is living, and effective, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, and between the joints and marrow, and is able to judge between the thoughts and motives of the heart.

<sup>13</sup> Now there is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and exposed before the eyes of him before whom we must give an account.

<sup>14</sup> Since then we have such a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold on tight to our confession.

<sup>15</sup> For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses; but one who has been tempted in all points like we are, and yet without sin.

<sup>16</sup> Let us therefore confidently approach the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace when we need help.

DASV: Hebrews 5

<sup>1</sup> For every high priest is taken from among the people and appointed to represent people in things pertaining to God, so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

<sup>2</sup> He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and erring, since he himself also is prone to weakness.

<sup>3</sup> This is the reason he is required to offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as for the people.

<sup>4</sup> No one takes this honor on himself, but only when he is called by God, just as Aaron was.

<sup>5</sup> So too Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest, but was glorified by him who said to him,

"You are my Son,
this day have I fathered you."

<sup>6</sup> as he also said in another place,

"You are a priest forever
after the order of Melchizedek."

<sup>7</sup> In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and was heard because of his godly devotion.

<sup>8</sup> Although he was a Son, yet he learned obedience by the things which he suffered.

<sup>9</sup> Having been made perfect, he became to all those who obey him the source of eternal salvation.

<sup>10</sup> So he was designated by God as high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup> Concerning whom we have many things to say, and it is difficult to explain, since you have become hard of hearing.

<sup>12</sup> For by this time you ought to be teachers, yet you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, and not solid food.

<sup>13</sup> For everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness; for he is still an infant.

<sup>14</sup> But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their senses trained to discern between good and evil.

DASV: Hebrews 6

<sup>1</sup> Therefore let us leave the basic teachings of Christ, and press on to maturity; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith in God, <sup>2</sup> teaching about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

<sup>3</sup> And we will do this, if God permits.

<sup>4</sup> For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and become partakers of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>5</sup> and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come,

<sup>6</sup> and then fall away, to bring them back again to repentance; since they are crucifying for themselves the Son of God all over again, and hold him up to public shame.

<sup>7</sup> For the ground, drinking in the rain that falls frequently on it, and brings forth crops useful for those who farmed it, receives a blessing from God.

<sup>8</sup> But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and ready for a curse, and it ends up being burned.

<sup>9</sup> But, beloved, we are convinced of better things about you, things related to salvation, even though we speak this way.

<sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust to forget your work and the love which you have shown for his name, in your service to the saints as you still serve them.

<sup>11</sup> And we desire each one of you to show the same diligence to the fulfillment of your hope to the end, <sup>12</sup> so that you may not become sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup> For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself,

<sup>14</sup> saying, "Surely I will greatly bless you and multiply you."

<sup>16</sup> For people swear by someone who is the greater than themselves and all disputes are brought to an end by an oath of confirmation.

<sup>17</sup> In the same way God, being determined to show more clearly to the heirs of the promise that his purpose was unchangeable, confirmed it by an oath,

<sup>18</sup> so that by two unchangeable things, since it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to him for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold on tight to the hope set before us.

<sup>19</sup> We have this sure and steadfast hope as an anchor of the soul, that enters the place behind the sanctuary curtain, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus as a forerunner entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

DASV: Hebrews 7

<sup>1</sup> For this Melchizedek was king of Salem, priest of God Most High, the one who met Abraham as he returned from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him.

<sup>2</sup> To him, Abraham also apportioned a tenth part of all the plunder. His name first means, "king of righteousness," and then also he is called "king of Salem," that is "king of peace."

<sup>3</sup> He is without recorded father, mother, and genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but is like the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.

<sup>4</sup> Now consider how great this man was to whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth of his plunder.

<sup>5</sup> And those who are the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment according to the law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, although they too are the descendants of Abraham.

<sup>6</sup> But this man who does not have their ancestry received tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who had received the promises.

<sup>7</sup> But it is beyond question that the less is blessed by the superior.

<sup>8</sup> In one case the tithes are received by men who die, but in the other, by one who is attested to be alive.

<sup>9</sup> It could even be said that Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, <sup>10</sup> for he was still in his father's loins when Melchizedek met him.

<sup>11</sup> Now if perfection was possible through the levitical priesthood, for under that priesthood the people had received the law, what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one designated as after the order of Aaron?

<sup>12</sup> For when the priesthood changes, there is of necessity a change in the law too.

<sup>13</sup> For the one of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.

<sup>14</sup> For it is obvious that our Lord came from Judah, concerning which tribe Moses said nothing regarding priests.

<sup>15</sup> It is even more obvious, if another priest arises after the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup> who has been made a priest, not according to the law of physical descent, but by the power of an indestructible life.

<sup>17</sup> For it is testified about him,

"You are a priest forever,
after the order of Melchizedek."

<sup>18</sup> For on the one hand, there is a setting aside of the foregoing commandment because it was weak and useless--

<sup>19</sup> for the law never made anything perfect. On the other hand, a better hope was introduced through which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup> This was affirmed by an oath; for others who became priests previously became priests without taking an oath.

<sup>21</sup> But Jesus became a priest with an oath by the one who said of him,

"The Lord swore and will not change his mind:

'You are a priest forever.'"

<sup>23</sup> There are many who have been made priests, because death prevented them from continuing as priests.

<sup>24</sup> But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood permanently.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore he is able to save forever those who draw near to God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup> For such a high priest is appropriate for us, one who is holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted higher than the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> He does not need to daily offer up sacrifices, like other high priests, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people; for he did this once for all, when he offered up himself.

<sup>28</sup> For the law appoints men high priests who have weakness; but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

DASV: Hebrews 8

<sup>1</sup> Now the main point we are saying is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

<sup>2</sup> a minister in the sanctuary and the true tabernacle, that the Lord set up, not man.

<sup>3</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

<sup>4</sup> Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are already those who offer the gifts according to the law.

<sup>5</sup> They serve in a place that is a copy and shadow of the heavenly sanctuary, just as Moses was warned when he was about to complete setting up the tabernacle. For God said, "Be sure that you make everything according to the pattern that you were shown on the mountain."

<sup>6</sup> But now Jesus has obtained a superior ministry, as he is the mediator of a better covenant and enacted on better promises.

<sup>7</sup> For if that first covenant had been faultless, then there would be no need to seek for a second one.

<sup>8</sup> But finding fault with them, God says,
     "Look, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel
         and with the house of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> It will not be like the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant,
         so I turned away from them, says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
     after those days, says the Lord;
     I will put my laws in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts,
     and I will be their God,
     and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup> Then there will be no need for anyone to teach his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,'
     for everyone will know me,
     from the least to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup> For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and their sins I will remember no more."

<sup>13</sup> When he talks about a "new" covenant he makes the first obsolete. But that which is obsolete and growing old is close to vanishing away.

DASV: Hebrews 9

<sup>2</sup> For a tabernacle was prepared, in the outer area there was the candlestick, the table, and the bread of the Presence. This was called the Holy Place.

<sup>3</sup> Behind the second curtain of the tabernacle was the area which was called the Holy of Holies.

<sup>4</sup> In it were the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant was overlaid on all sides with gold. In the ark was a golden urn holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>5</sup> Above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. We cannot speak of these things in detail now.

<sup>6</sup> Having made preparations like this, the priests regularly entered into the first part of the tabernacle to perform their duties for worship.

<sup>7</sup> But only the high priest could go into the second part, once a year, and not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for sins the people committed in ignorance.

<sup>8</sup> By this the Holy Spirit was indicating that the way into the most holy place had not yet been revealed, as long as the first tabernacle was still standing.

<sup>9</sup> This is a symbol pointing to this present time; when both gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the conscience of the worshipper.

<sup>10</sup> They only deal with meats and drinks and various ritual washings, regulations for the body imposed until the time of the new order.

<sup>11</sup> But Christ having come as a high priest of the good things to come, entered through a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this creation.

<sup>12</sup> He entered once for all into the most holy place but not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thereby securing eternal redemption.

<sup>13</sup> For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who had been defiled, could purify their flesh,

<sup>14</sup> then how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our consciences from dead works to worship the living God?

<sup>15</sup> Because of this he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who have been called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred to redeem them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant.

<sup>16</sup> For where there is a will, there must of necessity be the death of the one who made it.

<sup>17</sup> For a will is invoked only when there has been death, for it does not take effect when the one who made it is still alive.

<sup>18</sup> That is why not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood.

<sup>19</sup> For when every commandment had been announced by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

<sup>20</sup> saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that God commanded you to observe.

<sup>21</sup> Likewise the tabernacle and all the vessels used for worship he sprinkled with blood.

<sup>22</sup> According to the law, almost everything was cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

<sup>23</sup> So it was necessary that the copies of the things in heaven be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves need better sacrifices than these.

<sup>24</sup> For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with hands, like a copy of the true one; but into heaven itself, now to appear in God's presence for us.

<sup>25</sup> Yet he did not offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters into the most holy place year after year with blood not his own,

<sup>26</sup> for then he would had to have suffered again and again since the foundation of the world. But now once, at the end of the ages, he has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

<sup>27</sup> And just as it is appointed for people to die once, and after that the judgment, <sup>28</sup> so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to bear sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

DASV: Hebrews 10

<sup>1</sup> For since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come, not the true form of these things, it can never with the same sacrifices offered continually year after year, make perfect those who approach for worship.

<sup>2</sup> Otherwise would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshippers, having been cleansed once for all, would have had no more consciousness of sins?

<sup>3</sup> But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year after year.

<sup>4</sup> For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore when he came into the world, he said,

"You did not desire sacrifice and offering,

but a body you have prepared for me,

<sup>6</sup> You take no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, 'Here I am (it is written about me in the scroll of the book)
I have come to do your will, O God.'"

<sup>8</sup> When he says above, "You did not desire sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin, neither do you take pleasure in them" (even though they are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup> then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He does away with the first, that he may establish the second.

<sup>10</sup> By his will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup> Now every priest stands day after day serving and offering over and over the same sacrifices, that can never take away sins.

<sup>12</sup> But when this one offered a single sacrifice for sins for all time, he sat down at the right hand of God,

<sup>14</sup> For by a single offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified.

<sup>15</sup> The Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

<sup>16</sup> "This is the covenant I will make with them

after those days, says the Lord,

I will put my laws on their heart, and on their minds I will write them."

<sup>17</sup> Then he says,

"Their sins and their lawless deeds

I will remember no more."

<sup>18</sup> Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no more offering for sin.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, brothers, having confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

<sup>20</sup> by the new and living way that he opened up for us, through the curtain, that is, his flesh,

- <sup>21</sup> and since we have such a great priest over the house of God;
- <sup>22</sup> let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water.
- <sup>23</sup> Let us hold tight to the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who made the promise is faithful.
- <sup>24</sup> Let us consider how to motivate one another to love and good works.
- <sup>25</sup> Not neglecting our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging each other all the more as you see the day drawing near.
- <sup>26</sup> For if we sin deliberately after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there is no more sacrifice for sins left for us,
- <sup>27</sup> but only a certain dreadful expectation of judgment, and a furious fire that will devour the enemies.
- <sup>28</sup> Anyone who rejected the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.
- <sup>29</sup> How much worse punishment do you think someone deserves who has walked all over the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?
- <sup>30</sup> For we know him who said, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge his people."
- <sup>31</sup> It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
- <sup>32</sup> But recall the former days, when you were enlightened, you endured a great conflict with sufferings.
- <sup>33</sup> Sometimes you were publically exposed to insults and persecutions; and sometimes sharing with those who were treated that way.
- <sup>34</sup> For you showed sympathy on those who were in bonds, and joyfully accepted the plundering of you possessions, knowing that you had a better and more lasting possession.
- <sup>35</sup> Therefore do not throw away your confidence, it results in a rich reward.
- <sup>36</sup> For you need endurance, so that having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.
- <sup>37</sup> For "in just a little while, the one coming will come, and will not delay.
- <sup>38</sup> But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I take no pleasure in him."
- <sup>39</sup> But we are not among those who shrink back and perish; but among those who have faith to the preserving of their souls.

<sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that the worlds were formed by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain. Through this he was commended as being righteous, God gave his approval by accepting his gifts, and through his faith, although he is dead, he still speaks.

<sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken up so that he did not see death; and he was not found, because God took him. Now before he was taken up he was commended as being pleasing to God.

<sup>6</sup> Now without faith it is impossible to please him; for one who comes to God must believe that he is, and that he rewards those who seek him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, with reverent obedience, built an ark to save his family; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham obeyed, when he was called to go to a place he was to receive as an inheritance. He went not knowing where he was going.

<sup>9</sup> By faith he lived as a foreigner in the promised land, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of that same promise.

<sup>10</sup> For he was looking forward to a city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

<sup>11</sup> By faith Sarah received power to conceive a child even though she was too old, because she regarded him faithful who made the promise.

<sup>12</sup> So there sprang from one person, when he was good as dead, descendants as many as the stars of heaven, and as innumerable as the grains of sand by the seashore.

<sup>13</sup> These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but saw and welcomed them from a distance, and acknowledged that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth.

<sup>14</sup> For people who talk like this make it clear that they are seeking for a homeland.

<sup>15</sup> If in fact they had been thinking of the country they left, they would have had opportunity to return.

<sup>16</sup> But as it was they desired a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. He who had received only the promises was ready to offer up his one and only son,

<sup>18</sup> even though God had told him, "Through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name."

<sup>19</sup> He figured that God was even able to raise him from the dead; from there as a symbolic sign, he did receive him back.

<sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshipped, while leaning on his staff.

<sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph, when his life was at an end, made mention of the exodus of the children of Israel and gave directions concerning his bones.

<sup>23</sup> By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

<sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, <sup>25</sup> choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

<sup>26</sup> He considered suffering for Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking forward to the reward.

<sup>27</sup> By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's rage, for he persisted as though he could see him who is invisible.

<sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them.

<sup>29</sup> By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if on dry ground, which when the Egyptians attempted it, they were drowned.

<sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been circled for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she welcomed the spies with peace.

<sup>32</sup> And what more need I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets.

<sup>35</sup> Women received their dead back by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept the terms of release so that they might obtain a better resurrection.

<sup>37</sup> They were stoned, sawed in two, and killed by the sword. They went around in sheepskins and goatskins; they were destitute, persecuted, and abused.

<sup>38</sup> The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains and hid in caves and the holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup> All these were commended for their faith, yet did not receive what was promised.

<sup>40</sup> God had provided something better for us, so that they would not be made perfect without us.

DASV: Hebrews 12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, we need to lay aside every weight, and the sin that so easily trips us up, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

<sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus the leader and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

<sup>3</sup> Consider him who endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you do not grow weary and give up.

<sup>4</sup> In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed.

<sup>5</sup> Have you forgotten the exhortation that addressed you as sons?

"My son, do not dismiss the discipline of the Lord, or faint when he corrects you,

<sup>6</sup> For the Lord disciplines those he loves, and punishes every son whom he accepts."

<sup>7</sup> Endure it as discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

<sup>8</sup> But if you are not disciplined, which all sons get their fair share of, then you are illegitimate and not really sons.

<sup>9</sup> Besides, we had human fathers to discipline us, and we gave them respect.

Should we not all the more submit to the Father of spirits and live?

<sup>10</sup> For they for a short time disciplined us as they thought best; but he does it for our benefit, that we may share in his holiness.

<sup>11</sup> All discipline seems painful and certainly not joyful at the moment. But later it produces the fruit of peace and righteousness for those who have been trained by it.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore strengthen your flaccid arms and the weak knees, <sup>13</sup> and make straight paths for your feet, so what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather healed.

<sup>14</sup> Pursue peace with everyone and holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> Make sure no one falls short of the grace of God; so that no bitter root springs up causing trouble, and by it many become defiled.

<sup>16</sup> Make sure that no one becomes like Esau who was an immoral and godless person, who for just one meal sold his own birthright.

<sup>17</sup> For you know that later when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no opportunity to repent, even though he sought it with tears.

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched, to a burning fire and to darkness and gloom and a whirlwind, <sup>19</sup> along with the sound of a trumpet, and the voice whose words made those who heard them beg that nothing further be spoken to them.

<sup>20</sup> For they could not endure that which was ordered, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death."

<sup>21</sup> The scenario was so frightening that Moses said, "I tremble with terror."

<sup>22</sup> But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels gathered for festival,

<sup>23</sup> to the congregation of the firstborn, who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous who have now been made perfect,

<sup>24</sup> and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks of something better than the blood of Abel.

<sup>25</sup> Be careful you do not refuse the one who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape who turn away from the one who warns from heaven?

<sup>26</sup> Then his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven."

<sup>27</sup> This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removing of those things that are shaken, that is, the things created, so that those things that are not shaken may remain.

<sup>28</sup> Since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, so that we may offer worship pleasing to God with reverence and awe.

<sup>29</sup> For our God is a consuming fire.

<sup>1</sup> Let brotherly love continue.

<sup>2</sup> Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing this some have entertained angels without being aware of it.

<sup>3</sup> Remember those who are in prison, as if you were imprisoned with them and those who are mistreated, as if you yourselves felt their pain.

<sup>4</sup> Let marriage be held in honor by all, and the marriage bed undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

<sup>5</sup> Be free from the love of money; be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you."

<sup>6</sup> So we can say with confidence,
    "The Lord is my helper;
        I will not be afraid.

        What can man do to me?"

<sup>7</sup> Remember those who rule over you and those who spoke the word of God to you. Think about the impact of their lives and imitate their faith.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be swept away by all kinds of strange teachings. For it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace; not by rules about food, which is of little benefit to those who keep them.

<sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.

<sup>11</sup> For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> So too Jesus, that he might make the people holy through his own blood, suffered outside the city gate.

<sup>13</sup> Let us then go to him outside the camp, bearing the abuse he suffered.

<sup>14</sup> For we do not have here a permanent city, but we are seeking a city that is to come.

<sup>15</sup> Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name.

<sup>16</sup> But do not neglect to do good and to share with the needy, for God is pleased with such sacrifices.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your life, and they will give account for what they do. Let them do this with joy and not grief for that would not be beneficial to you.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us, for we are confident that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things.

<sup>19</sup> I especially encourage you to pray that I may be restored to you very soon.

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep by the blood of an eternal covenant, <sup>21</sup> equip you with every good thing to do his will, working in us what is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup> But I urge you, brothers, bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

<sup>23</sup> You should know that our brother Timothy has been set free; if he comes shortly, he will be with me when I see you.

<sup>24</sup> Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who are from Italy send you their greetings.

<sup>25</sup> Grace be with you all.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: James 1

<sup>1</sup> From James, a servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes dispersed among the nations. Greetings.

<sup>2</sup> Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you experience all sorts of trials;

<sup>4</sup> Let endurance have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

<sup>5</sup> But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without any rebuke for asking, and it will be given to him.

<sup>6</sup> But let the one who asks, ask in faith without doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed around by the wind.

<sup>7</sup> Do not let that person think that he will receive anything from the Lord;

<sup>8</sup> since his loyalties are divided. He is unstable in all his ways.

<sup>10</sup> But the rich should take pride in God's humbling, because as the flower of the field, he will pass away.

<sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with the scorching heat, and the grass withers, and the flower drops off and its beauty fades. So also will the rich fade away.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the one who endures testing; for when he has passed the test, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord promised to those who love him.

<sup>13</sup> Let no one say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil and he himself tempts no one.

<sup>14</sup> But each one is tempted, when he is lured away and enticed by his own desires.

<sup>15</sup> Then desire, when it conceives gives birth to sin, and sin, when it is mature, gives birth to death.

<sup>18</sup> By his own will he gave us birth through the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

<sup>19</sup> Know this, my beloved brothers. Let everyone be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger, <sup>20</sup> for sinful human anger does not produce the righteousness of God.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which will save your souls.

<sup>23</sup> For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a person looking at his reflection in the mirror.

<sup>24</sup> He sees himself, and then goes away immediately forgetting what he looked like.

<sup>25</sup> But the one who looks into the perfect law of liberty and perseveres, acting not as a hearer who forgets but a doer who works, this one will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>26</sup> If anyone thinks he is religious, yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless.

<sup>27</sup> Pure and undefiled religion before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

DASV: James 2

<sup>1</sup> My brothers, do not show favoritism, if you possess faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> For if someone with a gold ring and fine clothing enters your synagogue, and then a poor person comes in with ragged clothing, <sup>3</sup> do you pay attention to the one wearing fine clothing, and say, "Sit you here in a good place," but say to the poor person, "Stand over there," or "Sit on the floor"?

<sup>4</sup> Are you not discriminating among yourselves, and creating prejudices with evil thoughts?

<sup>5</sup> Listen, my beloved brothers! Did not God choose the poor of the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him?

<sup>6</sup> But you have dishonored the poor! Are not the rich the ones who oppress you and drag you into court?

<sup>7</sup> Do they not blaspheme the honorable name by which you were called?

<sup>8</sup> But if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.

<sup>9</sup> But if you show favoritism, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as lawbreakers.

<sup>10</sup> For whoever obeys the whole law, yet stumbles in one point, is guilty of all.

<sup>11</sup> For he that said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you are still a violator of the law.

<sup>12</sup> So you must speak and live as those who will be judged by the law of liberty.

<sup>13</sup> For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, my brothers, if someone claims he has faith, but does not have works? Can that faith save him?

<sup>15</sup> If a brother or sister lacks food or clothing,

<sup>16</sup> and one of you say to them, "Go in peace, keep warm and be fed," and yet you do not give them either food or clothing, what good is it?

<sup>17</sup> Even so faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.

<sup>18</sup> Someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

<sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one, great; even the demons believe that and tremble.

<sup>20</sup> But do you not know, O foolish one, that faith without works is fruitless?

<sup>21</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar?

<sup>23</sup> The Scripture was fulfilled which said, "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteous," and he was called God's friend.

<sup>24</sup> You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, when she was visited by messengers and sent them out another way?

<sup>26</sup> For as the body without spirit is dead, even so faith without works is dead.

DASV: James 3

<sup>1</sup> Not many of you should be teachers, my brothers, because teachers will receive stricter judgment.

<sup>2</sup> We all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is perfect, able also to control his whole body.

<sup>3</sup> If we put bridles in horses' mouths to make them obey us, then we can control the rest of their bodies as well.

<sup>4</sup> Look, it is the same with ships too. Though ships are large and driven by strong winds, yet they are controlled by a small rudder to go wherever the pilot wants to.

<sup>5</sup> The tongue is also a small part of the body, but it boasts of big things. Look how a great forest is destroyed by a small fire!

<sup>6</sup> The tongue is a fire! The tongue creates a world of evil, defiling the whole body and setting a person's whole life on fire. The tongue is set on fire by hell.

<sup>7</sup> For every kind of land animal, bird, reptile and sea creature, is tamed and has been tamed by humans.

<sup>8</sup> But no one can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

<sup>9</sup> With it we bless the Lord and Father; and with the same tongue we curse people, who are made in the likeness of God.

<sup>10</sup> Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, this should not be.

<sup>12</sup> Can a fig tree produce olives, or a vine figs, my brothers? Neither can salt water produce fresh.

<sup>13</sup> Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show this by his good life with humility that comes from wisdom.

<sup>14</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast or deny the truth.

<sup>16</sup> For where jealousy and selfishness are, there is disorder and all sorts of evil deeds.

<sup>17</sup> But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, willing to accommodate, full of mercy and goodness, unbiased and sincere.

<sup>18</sup> The harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

DASV: James 4

<sup>1</sup> Where do fights and quarrels among you come from? Do they not come from your passions that war within you?

<sup>2</sup> You desire and do not have. You murder and are jealous and cannot have what you want, so you argue and fight. You do not have because you do not ask.

<sup>3</sup> You ask and do not receive because you ask for the wrong reasons, that you may squander it on your own pleasures.

<sup>4</sup> Adulterers, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility against God? Therefore, whoever befriends the world makes himself God's enemy.

<sup>5</sup> Do you think the Scripture speaks for nothing, when it says "God yearns jealously for the spirit he put inside of us"?

<sup>6</sup> But he gives more grace. Because the Scripture says "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

<sup>7</sup> So submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

<sup>8</sup> Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands you sinners, and purify your hearts you with divided loyalties.

<sup>9</sup> Grieve, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into sorrow.

<sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

<sup>11</sup> Do not speak against each other, brothers. He who speaks against a brother, or judges his brother, speaks against the law, and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but its judge.

<sup>12</sup> There is only one lawgiver and judge, one who is able to save and destroy. But who are you that you judge your neighbor?

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you that say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into this or that town, and spend a year there, and trade, and get wealth."

<sup>14</sup> You do not know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while, and then vanishes away.

<sup>15</sup> You ought to say, "If the Lord wills it, we will live and do this or that."

<sup>16</sup> But now you boast in your arrogance. All such bragging is evil.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, whoever knows what is right and does not do it, is guilty of sin.

<sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver are corroded, and this corrosion will be proof against you. It will devour your flesh like fire.

<sup>4</sup> Look, the payment you kept from the workers who plowed your fields by fraud, cries out against you. The cries of the workers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> You have lived in luxury and self-indulgence on earth, you have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter.

<sup>6</sup> You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous who did not resist you.

<sup>8</sup> You also should be patient, strengthen your hearts for the Lord's coming is near.

<sup>9</sup> Do not grumble against each other, brothers, so that you will not be judged.

Look, the judge stands at the door.

<sup>10</sup> Brothers, take as an example the suffering and patience of the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup> Look, we consider those who stood firm blessed. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

<sup>12</sup> But above all, my brothers, do not swear, not by heaven or by earth, or by any other oath. But let your "yes" mean yes and your "no" mean no, so that you will not be judged for it.

<sup>14</sup> Is anyone sick? Let him call for the elders of the church and have them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> A prayer of faith will save the sick and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins he will be forgiven.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, confess your sins to each other, and pray for each other, that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

<sup>17</sup> Elijah was a person like us. He prayed fervently for it not to rain and it did not rain on earth for three years and six months.

<sup>18</sup> He prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced fruit.

<sup>19</sup> My brothers, if any of you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup> let him know that he who turns a sinner from his wandering ways will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 1 Peter 1

<sup>1</sup> From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ; to the sojourners scattered in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, the chosen <sup>2</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, sanctified by the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy has given us new birth to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

<sup>4</sup> to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and does not fade away. It is reserved in heaven for you,

<sup>5</sup> who by the power of God are protected through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

<sup>6</sup> In this you have joy, although now, for a little while, you have had to suffer in various trials,

<sup>7</sup> so that the genuineness of your faith, being more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire, may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

<sup>8</sup> Though you have not seen him, you love him; you do not see him, yet you believe in him, rejoicing greatly with joy unspeakable and filled with glory.

<sup>9</sup> You are receiving the result of your faith--the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup> Concerning this salvation the prophets, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you, sought and searched diligently.

<sup>11</sup> They searched for what person and time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was pointing to when it testified beforehand about the sufferings of Christ and the glories that should follow.

<sup>12</sup> It was revealed to them, that they were not serving themselves, but you, things which now have been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which even angels are eager to look.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, prepare your minds, be sober and set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed.

<sup>15</sup> But as he who chose you is holy, be holy yourselves in every area of life,

<sup>16</sup> for it is written, "You shall be holy; because I am holy."

<sup>17</sup> If you call on him as Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, live the time of your sojourning in reverential fear.

<sup>18</sup> You know that you were ransomed not with corruptible things, like silver or gold from your futile ways of life handed down from your forefathers,

<sup>19</sup> but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of an unblemished and spotless lamb.

<sup>20</sup> He was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end of times for your sake.

<sup>21</sup> Through him you are now believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

<sup>22</sup> You have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love. Love one another fervently from a pure heart.

<sup>23</sup> You have been born again, not from perishable seed, but from imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

<sup>24</sup> For,

"All flesh is like grass,
and all its glory like the flower of grass.

The grass withers,
and the flower falls off,

<sup>25</sup> but the word of the Lord endures forever.

This is the good news which was proclaimed to you.

DASV: 1 Peter 2

<sup>2</sup> Like newborn babies long for the spiritual milk which is pure, so by it you may grow up to salvation;

<sup>3</sup> if you have tasted that the Lord is good.

<sup>4</sup> As you come to him, a living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God, and precious to him.

<sup>5</sup> You yourselves are like living stones, built up into spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

<sup>6</sup> For it says in the Scriptures,

“Look, I lay in Zion a stone,
a chosen and precious cornerstone.

And the one who believes on him will never be put to shame.”

<sup>7</sup> For you therefore that believe he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

“The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.”

<sup>8</sup> and

"he has become a stumbling-block, and a rock that trips them up."

They stumble because they disobey the word, just as they were destined to do.

<sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of God's own possession, that you may proclaim the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

<sup>10</sup> You, who in time past were not a people, but now are the people of God. You who had not received mercy, but now have received mercy.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles, to abstain from fleshly lusts that war against the soul.

<sup>12</sup> Live honorably among the Gentiles, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good works, and glorify God on the day he comes to visit.

<sup>14</sup> or to governors, as sent by him to punish evildoers and to praise those who do good.

<sup>15</sup> For it is the will of God, that by doing good you should silence the ignorance of the foolish.

<sup>16</sup> Live as free even though you are bondservants of God. Do not use your freedom as a pretext for doing evil.

<sup>17</sup> Honor everyone. Love those in the family of faith. Fear God. Honor the king.

<sup>18</sup> Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also those who are nasty.

<sup>19</sup> For this is commendable, if, because of one's conscience toward God, one endures grief, suffering unjustly.

<sup>20</sup> For what credit is it, if, when you sin, you are beaten and endure it patiently? But if, when you do good, and suffer and take it patiently, this is commendable before God.

<sup>21</sup> For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps,

<sup>23</sup> When he was abused, he did not return the abuse; when he suffered he did not make threats, but committed himself to God who judges justly.

<sup>24</sup> He himself bore our sins in his body upon the tree, that we might die to sins, and live to righteousness. By his wounds you were healed.

<sup>25</sup> For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

DASV: 1 Peter 3

<sup>1</sup> In the same way, wives, be subject to your own husbands. Then, even if any do not obey the word, they may, without a word, be won over by the behavior of their wives,

<sup>3</sup> Let not your beauty just be external with special hair styling, and wearing golden jewels, or fine clothes;

<sup>4</sup> but let the inner person from the heart, be adorned with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

<sup>5</sup> For in the same way the holy women of old who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being subject to their own husbands.

<sup>6</sup> Sarah, for example, obeyed Abraham, calling him “lord,” and you are her children if you do good, and are not intimidated by fear.

<sup>7</sup> Husbands, in the same way, treat your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the women as to a fragile vessel, considering them as joint-heirs of the grace of life. So that your prayers are not hindered.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you be agreeable, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, and humble.

<sup>9</sup> Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead return a blessing; for that is why you were called, so that you should inherit a blessing.

the one who loves life,
and wants to see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil,
and his lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>11</sup> Let him turn away from evil, and do good;

let him seek peace, and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears open to their request.

But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

<sup>13</sup> Who is the one who will harm you if you are zealous for that which is good?

<sup>14</sup> But even if you do suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. Do not fear or be troubled by them.

<sup>15</sup> But in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always ready to give answer to every one that asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you.

<sup>16</sup> Respond with gentleness and respect, with a good conscience; so that, whoever accuses you may be put to shame when slandering your good manner of life in Christ.

<sup>17</sup> For it is better, if God should so will, that you suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing.

<sup>18</sup> Because Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit.

<sup>19</sup> So then he went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup> that were before disobedient, when God patiently waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being built. There were few, only eight souls, that were saved through water.

<sup>21</sup> This was a likeness of baptism which now saves you, not by the washing away of the filth of the flesh, but the pledge of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ;

<sup>22</sup> who, having gone to heaven sits at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities and powers being made subject to him.

DASV: 1 Peter 4

<sup>1</sup> Since Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, for he who has suffered in the flesh has finished with sin

<sup>2</sup> that he no longer should live the rest of his time concerned about human lusts, but the will of God.

<sup>3</sup> For the time past was sufficient for you to have done what the pagans desire and to have walked in sensuality, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and despicable idolatries.

<sup>4</sup> They think it strange that you do not join them in the same flood of wickedness, so they slander you.

<sup>5</sup> They will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

<sup>6</sup> For to this end was the gospel preached even to the ones who are now dead, that they might be judged in the flesh by human standards, but live by the Spirit according to God.

<sup>7</sup> For the end of all things is near. Be therefore clear headed and disciplined in prayer.

<sup>8</sup> Above all be fervent in your love for one another; for love covers a multitude of sins.

<sup>10</sup> Just as each one has received a gift, serve each other, as good stewards of the diverse grace of God.

<sup>11</sup> If any one speaks, let it be the words of God; if any one ministers, do it with the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, do not be surprised concerning the trial by fire happening among you, as though something strange has happened to you.

<sup>13</sup> But rejoice in as much as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that at the revelation of his glory you may rejoice and be glad.

<sup>14</sup> If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, rests upon you.

<sup>15</sup> Let none of you suffer as a murderer, thief, criminal, or as one who meddles in other peoples' affairs.

<sup>16</sup> But if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed; but glorify God that you bear this name.

<sup>17</sup> For the time is come for judgment to begin, starting at the house of God. If it begins first with us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

<sup>18</sup> If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to the ungodly and sinner?

<sup>19</sup> So then let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to a faithful Creator by doing good.

DASV: 1 Peter 5

<sup>1</sup> Now as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and as one who also is a partaker of the glory that will be revealed, I urge the elders among you:

<sup>2</sup> Tend the flock of God which is among you, exercising oversight, not because you are forced to, but willingly, as God would want you to, not for greed of money, but eagerly.

<sup>3</sup> Do not lord it over those under your charge, but be examples to the flock.

<sup>4</sup> And when the chief Shepherd appears you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

<sup>5</sup> Likewise, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to serve one another, for

"God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble."

<sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

<sup>7</sup> Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.

<sup>8</sup> Be sober, stay alert. Your adversary the devil, like a roaring lion, prowls around, seeking whom he may devour.

<sup>9</sup> Resist him, being steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers all over the world face the same sufferings.

<sup>10</sup> And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself perfect, establish, and strengthen you.

<sup>11</sup> To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> By Silvanus, whom I regard as a faithful brother. I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

<sup>13</sup> Your sister church that is in Babylon, elect together with you, greets you; and so does my son Mark.

<sup>14</sup> Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to all of you who are in Christ.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 2 Peter 1

<sup>1</sup> From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ; to those who have been granted a like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> By his divine power God has granted to us everything necessary for life and godliness, through the knowledge of the one who called us by his own glory and virtue.

<sup>4</sup> By these he has granted to us his precious and exceeding great promises; so that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, after having escaped from the corruption that is in that world by evil desire.

<sup>5</sup> For this very reason make every effort to add to your faith, virtue; and to your virtue, knowledge;

<sup>6</sup> to your knowledge, self-control; and to your self-control, perseverance; and to your perseverance, godliness;

<sup>7</sup> and to your godliness, brotherly kindness; and to your brotherly kindness, love.

<sup>8</sup> For if these things are yours and increasing they will keep you from becoming ineffective and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> For anyone who lacks these things is near-sighted and blind, since he has forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.

<sup>10</sup> Wherefore, brothers, give all the more diligence to make your calling and election sure, for if you do these things, you will never stumble.

<sup>11</sup> For in this way your entrance into the eternal kingdom will be richly provided by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will always be ready to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the truth that you have.

<sup>13</sup> I think it right, as long as I am in this tent of my body, to stir you up by way of reminding you.

<sup>14</sup> Since I know that the putting off of my bodily tent is coming soon, even as our Lord Jesus Christ revealed to me.

<sup>15</sup> Yes, I will make every effort so that after my departure you will always be able to recall these things.

<sup>16</sup> For we did not follow cleverly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

<sup>17</sup> For he received honor and glory from God the Father, when a voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

<sup>18</sup> We ourselves heard this voice straight out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount.

<sup>19</sup> And even more certain, we have the word of prophecy. You do well to pay attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the morning-star arises in your hearts.

<sup>20</sup> You must know this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one’s own private interpretation.

<sup>21</sup> for no prophecy ever came by human will, but men spoke from God, being carried along by the Holy Spirit.

DASV: 2 Peter 2

<sup>1</sup> But false prophets arose also among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them--bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

<sup>2</sup> Many will follow their sensual ways. Because of them the way of the truth will be slandered.

<sup>3</sup> In greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation, announced long ago, will not delay, and their destruction is not asleep.

<sup>4</sup> For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but threw them down to hell, and held them in pits of darkness to be there until the judgment;

<sup>5</sup> and if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the ungodly world;

<sup>6</sup> and if he turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes when he condemned them to destruction, having made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly;

<sup>7</sup> and if he delivered righteous Lot, who was deeply distressed by the immoral conduct of the wicked

<sup>8</sup> (for that righteous man dwelt among them day after day, his righteous soul was tormented by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds),

<sup>9</sup> then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and reserve the unrighteous for punishment unto the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup> especially those who indulge their flesh with defiling lust, and despise authority. Brash and arrogant, they do not fear slandering heavenly beings.

<sup>11</sup> Even angels, who are greater in might and power, do not bring slanderous judgment against them before the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> But these men, like irrational animals, born as mere animals to be caught and destroyed, are slanderous concerning matters of which they are ignorant, as a result in their destruction, they themselves will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> They will suffer harm as the payment for their wrong doing. They count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are spots and blemishes, delighting in their deceptions even while they feast with you.

<sup>14</sup> Their eyes are full of adultery, unable to cease from sinning. They entice those who are unstable. Their hearts are trained in greed. They are accursed children.

<sup>15</sup> By forsaking the right way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of doing wrong.

<sup>16</sup> But he was rebuked for his own transgression. A dumb donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

<sup>17</sup> These men are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved.

<sup>18</sup> For by speaking great swelling nonsense, they entice by sensual passions, those who are barely escaping from those who live in error.

<sup>19</sup> They promise them freedom, while they themselves are enslaved to immorality. For a person is a slave to whatever masters them.

<sup>20</sup> For if after they have escaped the filth of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they again get entangled and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than their first.

<sup>21</sup> For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment that had been delivered to them.

DASV: 2 Peter 3

<sup>1</sup> Beloved, this is now, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I am attempting to stir up your pure mind by way of reminding you.

<sup>2</sup> Remember the words which were predicted by the holy prophets, and the commandments of the Lord and Savior through your apostles.

<sup>3</sup> Knowing this first of all that in the last days mockers will come with mockery, walking after their evil desires.

<sup>4</sup> They will say, "Where is his promised coming? For, from the day that our ancestors fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

<sup>5</sup> For they have deliberately forgotten, that by the word of God the heavens from of old and an earth were formed out of water and in the midst of water.

<sup>6</sup> By these means the world that was then, perished being flooded with water.

<sup>7</sup> But by the same word the heavens that now are, and the earth, have been stored up for fire, being reserved for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

<sup>8</sup> Now do not forget this one thing, beloved, that one day with the Lord is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some think about slowness; but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

<sup>10</sup> But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. When it comes the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt down in blazing heat, and the earth and the deeds done on it will be exposed.

<sup>11</sup> Seeing all these things are going to be dissolved, what sort of persons should you be, living in all holiness and godliness, <sup>12</sup> looking forward to and hurrying along the coming of the day of God? Because of this the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the elements will melt with blazing heat.

<sup>13</sup> But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, strive to be found in peace, without spot and blameless in his sight.

<sup>15</sup> Think about the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him,

<sup>16</sup> speaking in his letters of these things. In them are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own secure position.

<sup>18</sup> But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: 1 John 1

<sup>1</sup> We proclaim to you that which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our own eyes, that which we looked at, and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life.

<sup>2</sup> The life was revealed, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us.

<sup>3</sup> That which we have seen and heard we proclaim to you too, that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> We write these things, so that our joy may be complete.

<sup>5</sup> This is the message we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

<sup>6</sup> If we claim that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

<sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we claim that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

<sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

<sup>10</sup> If we claim that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

DASV: 1 John 2

<sup>1</sup> My dear children, I write these things to you so that you will not sin. But if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

<sup>2</sup> He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

<sup>3</sup> By this we know that we know him, if we obey his commandments.

<sup>4</sup> When someone claims "I know him," but does not obey his commandments, he is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

<sup>5</sup> But whoever obeys his word, in him the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in him.

<sup>6</sup> The one who claims to abide in him ought also to walk even as he walked.

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning, the old commandment is the word which you already heard.

<sup>8</sup> Yet, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup> The one who claims he is in the light and hates his brother, is still in the darkness even until now.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause of stumbling in him.

<sup>11</sup> But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup> I write to you, my dear children, because your sins are forgiven because of his name.

<sup>13</sup> I write to you, fathers,
because you know him who has been from the beginning.

I write to you, young people,
because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children,
because you know the Father.

<sup>14</sup> I write to you, fathers,
because you know him who has been from the beginning.

I write to you, young people,
because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you,
and you have overcome the evil one.

<sup>15</sup> Do not love the world, or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

<sup>16</sup> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the arrogance based on possessions, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

<sup>17</sup> Now the world is passing away, and its lusts, but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

<sup>18</sup> Little children, it is the last hour, and as you heard the antichrist is coming. Even now many antichrists have already arisen. This is how we know that it is the last hour.

<sup>19</sup> They went out from us, but they were not really of us, for if they had been part of us, they would have continued with us. But they left us proving that they did not belong with us.

<sup>20</sup> But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge.

<sup>21</sup> I have not written to you because you do not know not the truth, but because you know it, and you know no lie comes from the truth.

<sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Messiah? This is the antichrist: the one who denies the Father and the Son.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever denies the Son, does not have the Father. Whoever confesses the Son also has the Father.

<sup>24</sup> As for you, let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides, in you, you also will abide in the Son, and in the Father.

<sup>26</sup> These things have I written to you concerning those who would lead you astray.

<sup>27</sup> Now as for you, the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you. But his anointing teaches you about all things, and is true, and is not a lie. Just as you were taught, abide in him.

<sup>28</sup> And now, my dear children, abide in him, so that when he appears, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

<sup>29</sup> If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone who does righteousness has been born of him.

DASV: 1 John 3

<sup>1</sup> See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children. And so we are! For this reason the world does not know us because it did not know him.

<sup>2</sup> Dear friends, now we are God's children, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that, when he appears we will be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

<sup>3</sup> Everyone that has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure.

<sup>5</sup> You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.

<sup>6</sup> Whoever abides in him does not continue sinning, whoever sins has not seen him or known him.

<sup>7</sup> My dear children, let no one deceive you. Whoever does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

<sup>8</sup> The one who practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever is born of God will not continue sinning, because God's seed abides in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

<sup>10</sup> By this the children of God and the children of the devil are revealed, whoever does not do righteousness or love his brother is not of God.

<sup>11</sup> For this is the message which you heard from the beginning: we should love one another.

<sup>12</sup> Not as Cain who was from the evil one, and murdered his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

<sup>13</sup> Do not be surprised brothers, if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup> We know that we have crossed over from death to life, because we love our brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death.

<sup>15</sup> Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

<sup>16</sup> This is how we know love: he laid down his life for us. So we also ought to lay down our lives for each other.

<sup>17</sup> But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts off his compassion from him, how does the love of God abide in such a one?

<sup>18</sup> My dear children, let us not love in word, or with the tongue, but in deed and truth.

<sup>19</sup> By this we will know that we are of the truth, and will assure our hearts when we stand before him.

<sup>20</sup> Even if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows everything.

<sup>21</sup> Dear friends, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God, <sup>22</sup> and we will receive from him whatever we ask for, because we obey his commandments and do the things that please him.

<sup>23</sup> This is his commandment: that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us.

<sup>24</sup> Whoever keeps God's commandments abides in him, and he in him. By this we know that he abides in us, because of the Spirit which he gave us.

DASV: 1 John 4

<sup>1</sup> Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

<sup>2</sup> By this you will know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is from God, <sup>3</sup> and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and is now already in the world.

<sup>4</sup> You are from God, my dear children, and have conquered them, because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.

<sup>5</sup> They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world's perspective, and the world listens to them.

<sup>6</sup> We are from God. The one who knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of deception.

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God; and every one that loves is born of God, and knows God.

<sup>8</sup> Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

<sup>9</sup> By this the love of God was revealed in us, that God sent his only Son into the world that we might live through him.

<sup>10</sup> This is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

<sup>11</sup> Dear friends, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

<sup>12</sup> No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and his love is perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup> By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us his Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> And we have seen and bear witness that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

<sup>15</sup> Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

<sup>16</sup> We have come to know and believe the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

<sup>17</sup> By this is love made perfect among us, that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because just as Jesus is, so we also are in this world.

<sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love. But perfect love casts out fear, because fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been made perfect in love.

<sup>19</sup> We love because he first loved us.

<sup>20</sup> If anyone claims, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar, because the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.

<sup>21</sup> This commandment have we from him: that he who loves God must also love his brother.

DASV: 1 John 5

<sup>1</sup> Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father also loves the one who is born from him.

<sup>2</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

<sup>3</sup> For this is the love of God: that we keep his commandments--and his commandments are not burdensome.

<sup>4</sup> Whoever is born of God conquers the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith.

<sup>5</sup> Who is the one who conquered the world? The one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup> This is he who came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. It is the Spirit that testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

<sup>7</sup> For there are three who bear witness:

<sup>8</sup> the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and the three are in agreement.

<sup>9</sup> If we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is greater, for the testimony of God is what he has testified concerning his Son.

<sup>10</sup> He who believes on the Son of God has the testimony in him. He who does not believe God makes him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.

<sup>11</sup> The testimony is this: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

<sup>12</sup> He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

<sup>13</sup> These things I have written to you, that you who believe on the name of the Son of God may know that you have eternal life.

<sup>14</sup> This is the confidence which we have before him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us.

<sup>15</sup> If we know that he listens to us for whatever we ask, then we know that we have the requests which we have asked for from him.

<sup>16</sup> If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and God will give him life for the one whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I do not say that one should make request concerning this.

<sup>17</sup> All unrighteousness is sin. But there is a sin that does not lead to death.

<sup>18</sup> We know that whoever is born of God does not practice sin; but God protects the one from God, and the evil one cannot touch him.

<sup>19</sup> We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies under the control of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup> We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding, that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This one is the true God and eternal life.

<sup>21</sup> My dear children, guard yourselves from idols.

<sup>1</sup> From the elder; To the elect lady and her children, whom I truly love; and not only I, but also all those who know the truth;

<sup>2</sup> for the truth that abides in us, will be with us forever.

<sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup> I rejoice greatly because I have found some of your children walking in truth, just as the Father commanded us.

<sup>5</sup> Now I beseech you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but one we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

<sup>6</sup> Now this is love: that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, so you should walk in it.

<sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, they who do not confess that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

<sup>8</sup> Watch yourselves, that you do not lose the things which we have worked for, but that you receive a full reward.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever goes ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. The one who abides in the teaching, that one has both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup> If any one comes to you, and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not give him a greeting,

<sup>12</sup> Although I have many things to write to you, I do not want to write them with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that your joy may be made complete.

<sup>13</sup> The children of your elect sister greet you.

<sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that in all things you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

<sup>3</sup> For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and bore witness to your truth, just as you walk in truth.

<sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, you are faithful in whatever you do toward the brothers, even though they are strangers.

<sup>6</sup> They are a witness of your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a way worthy of God.

<sup>8</sup> We therefore ought to support such people, that we may be coworkers with the truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to put himself first among them, did not receive us.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, if I come, I will point out the deeds that he does, prating against us with wicked words, and not content with that, he refuses to receive the brothers, and those who do, he stops and throws them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is from God. The one who does evil has not seen God.

<sup>12</sup> Demetrius has the witness of everyone, and even the truth itself. Yes, we also bear witness, and you know that our witness is true.

<sup>13</sup> I have many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write them to you with pen and ink.

<sup>14</sup> But I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.

<sup>15</sup> Peace be to you. The friends here greet you. Greet by name the friends there.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Jude

<sup>1</sup> From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James; to those who are called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Beloved, while I was eager to write to you of our common salvation, I felt it necessity to write to you urging you to contend earnestly for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints.

<sup>4</sup> For certain men have secretly crept in who were long ago designated for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into sensuality, and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now I desire to remind you, though you once knew these things, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

<sup>7</sup> Just as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, so these have indulged themselves in immorality pursuing unnatural passion, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

<sup>8</sup> Yet, in this same way, these even in their dreams defile the flesh, and reject authority, and berate supernatural beings.

<sup>9</sup> But Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, disputing about the body of Moses, did not bring against him a slanderous judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you."

<sup>10</sup> But these people scoff at things they do not understand, and what they do understand naturally, like the animals without reason, by these things they are destroyed.

<sup>11</sup> Woe to them! For they have followed the way of Cain, they have run wildly after the error of Balaam for gain, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

<sup>12</sup> These people are submerged hidden rocks in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who feed only themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots.

<sup>13</sup> They are rogue waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.

<sup>14</sup> Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, about these people saying, "Look, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of his holy ones, <sup>15</sup> to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds which they have done, and of all the insulting things ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

<sup>16</sup> These people are murmurers, complainers, walking guided by their lusts (and their mouths speak great boastings), flattering people for their own benefit.

<sup>17</sup> But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> For they told you, "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly passions."

<sup>20</sup> But you, beloved, by building up yourselves in your most holy faith, and by praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup> keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ leading to eternal life.

<sup>22</sup> Have mercy on those who are in doubt.

<sup>23</sup> Save some, snatching them out of the fire; and have mercy on others with fear; hating even the clothes spotted by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup> Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you in the presence of his glory without blemish in exceeding joy, <sup>25</sup> to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, authority and power, before all time, now, and forever. Amen.

DASV: Digital American Standard Version*DASV: Revelation 1

<sup>1</sup> The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants, what must happen soon. He sent his angel to make it known to his servant John,
<sup>2</sup> who bore witness about everything he saw regarding the word of God and of the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is near.

to the seven churches that are in the province of Asia:

Grace and peace to you, from him who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven spirits that are before his throne,

<sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, <sup>6</sup> and he has constituted us to be a kingdom, as priests serving his God and Father; to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Look! He is coming with the clouds; and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him. Yes, this is what will be! Amen.

<sup>8</sup> "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

<sup>9</sup> I, John, your brother and partner with you in persecution, kingdom and patience that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos, because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice like a trumpet

<sup>11</sup> saying, "What you see, write on a scroll and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup> I turned to see whose voice was talking to me. After turning, I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup> and in the middle of the lampstands was one like the Son of Man. He was clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, with a golden sash around his chest.

<sup>14</sup> His head and hair were white as wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were like a flame of fire.

<sup>15</sup> His feet were like polished bronze, refined in a furnace; and his voice like the roar of many waters.

<sup>16</sup> He had in his right hand seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword, and his face shone like the sun at its brightest.

<sup>17</sup> When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last,

<sup>18</sup> the Living One. I was dead, but see, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and Hades.

<sup>19</sup> Write therefore what you have seen, what is, and what is yet to take place after these things.

<sup>20</sup> This is the mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are for seven churches."

DASV: Revelation 2

These things says the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the middle of the seven golden lampstands.

<sup>2</sup> I know your works, your toil and your endurance, and that you cannot tolerate evil. You have scrutinized those who claim to be apostles but are not, and you have found them to be false.

<sup>3</sup> I also realize that you have endured patiently and suffered for my name's sake, and have not grown weary.

<sup>5</sup> Remember therefore where you have fallen from. Repent and do the works you did at first. But if not I will come to you and remove your lampstand out from its place, unless you repent.

<sup>6</sup> But this you have in your favor, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

<sup>7</sup> The one who has an ear needs to hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who is victorious, I will allow him to eat from the tree of life that is in the Paradise of God."

<sup>8</sup> "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

These things says the first and the last,
the one who was dead and came back to life.

<sup>9</sup> I know your troubles and your poverty (but you are rich). I am aware of the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

<sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid of the things you are about to suffer. The devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you may be tested and you will have trouble for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup> The one who has an ear needs to hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who is victorious will not be hurt by the second death."

<sup>12</sup> "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

These things says he who has the sharp two-edged sword.

<sup>13</sup> I know where you live, it is where Satan's throne is, yet you are holding tight to my name, and did not deny your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

<sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against you: You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put up a stumbling block in front of the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.

<sup>15</sup> Similarly you also have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

<sup>16</sup> Repent therefore. If not, I will come to you quickly and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup> The one who has an ear needs to hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who is victorious, I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone will be written a new name, that no one knows except the one who receives it."

These things says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire and feet like polished bronze.

<sup>19</sup> I know your works--your love, faith, your service and patience. I am aware that your last works are greater than the first.

<sup>20</sup> But I have this against you: you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

<sup>21</sup> I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality.

<sup>22</sup> Look, I am throwing her into bed, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly, unless they repent of her deeds.

<sup>23</sup> I will put her children to death, and all the churches will know that I am the one who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your works.

<sup>24</sup> But I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not followed the so called "deep things of Satan," I do not put on you any other burden.

<sup>26</sup> The one who is victorious, and continues in my works to the end, to that one I will give authority over the nations.

<sup>27</sup> He will rule them with a rod of iron, like clay pots they will be shattered. Just as I also have received from my Father, <sup>28</sup> I will give them the morning star.

<sup>29</sup> The one who has ears needs to hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

These things says he who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.

<sup>2</sup> Wake up, and strengthen what remains which is about ready to die, for I have not found your works complete before my God.

<sup>3</sup> Remember therefore what you have received and heard; and hold it tight and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come against you.

<sup>4</sup> But you have a few names in Sardis who have not defiled their garments. They will walk with me in white because they are worthy.

<sup>5</sup> The one who is victorious will be clothed like them in white garments; and I will not blot his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels.

These things says the holy one, the true one, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens.

<sup>8</sup> I know your works. Look, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut. You have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

<sup>9</sup> Look, I will make those from the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews but are not, but lie, come and bow down at your feet, and they will know that I have loved you.

<sup>10</sup> Because you kept my word of patient endurance, I also will keep you from the hour of trial, that is coming on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> I am coming quickly. Hold tight to what you have, so that no one may take your crown.

<sup>12</sup> The one who is victorious, I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never have to leave and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God--the new Jerusalem, that is coming down out of heaven from my God--and also my own new name.

These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God's creation.

<sup>15</sup> I know your works, that you are neither cold or hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot.

<sup>16</sup> So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot or cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup> Because you claim, 'I am rich, I have acquired riches and I need nothing.' Yet you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked.

<sup>18</sup> I advise you to buy gold refined by fire from me, so that you may in fact become rich. Buy white garments so that you may dress yourself, and so that the shame of your nakedness will not be exposed, and buy salve to put on your eyes, so that you may see.

<sup>19</sup> Those whom I love, I correct and discipline. So be eager and repent.

<sup>20</sup> Look, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will have dinner with him, and he with me.

<sup>21</sup> The one who is victorious, I will give permission to sit down with me on my throne, as I also was victorious, and sat down with my Father on his throne.

<sup>22</sup> The one who has ears needs to hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

DASV: Revelation 4

<sup>1</sup> After these things I looked and there was a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must come to pass after these things."

<sup>2</sup> Instantly I was in the Spirit, and there was a throne in heaven, and one sitting on the throne.

<sup>3</sup> The one who was sitting on it looked like jasper and carnelian, and there was a rainbow around the throne that looked like an emerald.

<sup>4</sup> Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. I saw twenty-four elders sitting on the thrones, dressed in white robes, and on their heads were crowns of gold.

<sup>5</sup> Out of the throne lightning flashed and thunder rumbled. There were seven flaming torches before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

<sup>6</sup> Before the throne, there was something like a sea of glass that looked like crystal. In the center around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes both in the front and back.

<sup>7</sup> The first living creature was like a lion, the second creature like an ox, the third creature had a human face, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

<sup>8</sup> Each of the four living creatures had six wings full of eyes all around and within. They never rest day or night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come."

<sup>9</sup> Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever,

<sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

<sup>11</sup> "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive the glory, honor, and power; for you created all things, and because of your will they exist and were created."

DASV: Revelation 5

<sup>1</sup> Now I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a scroll written on the front and back, sealed with seven seals.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw a mighty angel announcing with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?"

<sup>3</sup> But no one in the heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look in it.

<sup>4</sup> So I wept bitterly, because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look in it.

<sup>5</sup> Then one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping. Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has been victorious. He can open the scroll and its seven seals."

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw in between the throne and the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slaughtered. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

<sup>7</sup> He came and took it out of the right hand of the one sitting on the throne.

<sup>8</sup> When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and with your blood you purchased for God people from every tribe and language, people and nation.

<sup>10</sup> You made them to be a kingdom and priests to our God; and they will reign on the earth."

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked and heard a voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands,

<sup>12</sup> saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered to receive power and riches, and wisdom, and might and honor, and glory, and blessing."

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard every created thing in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and in the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To the one seated on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, forever and ever."

<sup>14</sup> Then the four living creatures said, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshipped.

DASV: Revelation 6

<sup>1</sup> Then I watched as the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice of thunder, "Come."

<sup>2</sup> So I looked, and there was a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him and he rode out as a conqueror to conquer.

<sup>3</sup> When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come."

<sup>4</sup> Another horse, bright red came out, and to him who sat on it was granted permission to take peace from the earth, so that they would slaughter one another, and he was given a great sword.

<sup>5</sup> When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come." Then I looked, a black horse and he who sat on it had a balance scale in his hand.

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard something like a voice from the middle of the four living creatures say, "A quart of wheat for a day's wage, and three quarts of barley for a day's wage, but do not harm the olive oil and the wine."

<sup>7</sup> When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come."

<sup>8</sup> Then I looked, a pale green horse was there, and he who sat on it, was named Death; and Hades followed behind him. They were given authority over a fourth of the earth to kill with sword, famine, plague, and by the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they had.

<sup>10</sup> They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, before you judge and avenge our blood on those who live on the earth?"

<sup>11</sup> Each of them was given a white robe. They were told that they should rest a little longer, until the full number would be reached of their fellow servants and their brothers, who were about to be killed just like they were.

<sup>12</sup> I looked when he opened the sixth seal, there was a great earthquake. The sun became as black as goat hair sackcloth, and the full moon became blood red,

<sup>13</sup> and the stars of the sky fell to the earth like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a strong wind.

<sup>14</sup> The sky receded like a scroll when it is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved from their places.

<sup>15</sup> Then the kings of the earth, important people, commanders, the rich and powerful, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and rocks of the mountains.

<sup>16</sup> They called to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of the one sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>17</sup> for the great day of their wrath is come, and who is able to survive it?"

DASV: Revelation 7

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw another angel ascend from where the sun rises, having the seal of the living God. He called with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,

<sup>3</sup> saying, "Do not harm the earth, or the sea, or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard the number of those who were sealed, 144,000. They were sealed from every tribe of the children of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> From the tribe of Judah, 12,000 were sealed;

from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000;

from the tribe of Gad, 12,000;

<sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Asher, 12,000;

from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000;

from the tribe of Manasseh, 12,000;

<sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Simeon, 12,000;

from the tribe of Levi, 12,000;

from the tribe of Issachar, 12,000;

<sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000;

from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000;

from the tribe of Benjamin, 12,000 were sealed.

<sup>9</sup> After these things I looked, and there was a huge crowd that no one could number, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.

<sup>10</sup> Then they cried out with a loud voice, "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

<sup>11</sup> All the angels who were standing around the throne, and around the elders and the four living creatures, fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,

<sup>12</sup> saying, "Amen, praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God, forever and ever. Amen."

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders asked me, "These dressed in white robes, who are they and where did they come from?"

<sup>14</sup> I replied, "My lord, you know." He answered, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore they are before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple. And he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

<sup>16</sup> They will never be hungry or thirsty anymore; neither will the sun beat down on them, or any scorching heat.

<sup>17</sup> For the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of living water and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

DASV: Revelation 8

<sup>1</sup> When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about a half an hour.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

<sup>3</sup> Now another angel having a golden censer came and stood at the altar, and a sizeable amount of incense was given to him, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that is before the throne.

<sup>4</sup> The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God from the angel's hand.

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire from the altar, and threw it down upon the earth. There followed crashes of thunder, rumblings, lightning, and an earthquake.

<sup>6</sup> The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

<sup>7</sup> The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire came mixed with blood, and they were thrown down upon the earth resulting in a third of the earth being burnt up, and the third part of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

<sup>8</sup> The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood.

<sup>9</sup> A third of the creatures living in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> The name of the star was called Wormwood. A third of the waters became bitter [that is, wormwood]; and many men died from the water because it had become bitter poison.

<sup>12</sup> The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars; so that a third of them was darkened, and a third of the day did not have light, and the night was darkened the same way.

<sup>13</sup> Then I looked and I heard an eagle flying overhead, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe, for those who live on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet from the three final angels who are yet to blow their trumpets."

DASV: Revelation 9

<sup>1</sup> Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth and it was given the key to the bottomless pit.

<sup>2</sup> It opened the bottomless pit and smoke rose out of the pit, like the smoke from a great furnace. The sun and air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

<sup>3</sup> Then out of the smoke came locusts onto the earth; and they were given power like scorpions of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, anything green, or any tree, but only the people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup> They were permitted to torture them for five months but not to kill them, and their torture was like the pain of a scorpion when it stings someone.

<sup>6</sup> In those days people will seek death, but will be unable to find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them.

<sup>7</sup> The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were what looked like gold crowns, and their faces were like human faces.

<sup>9</sup> They had breastplates like iron breastplates; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots drawn by horses rushing into battle.

<sup>10</sup> They had tails and stingers like scorpions, and in their tails was their power to harm people for five months.

<sup>11</sup> The king over them was the angel of the Abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon [meaning, the Destroyer].

<sup>12</sup> The first woe has past. Look there are still two more woes to come.

<sup>13</sup> The sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar that is before God.

<sup>14</sup> It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels that are bound at the great river Euphrates."

<sup>15</sup> So the four angels were released, who prepared for this hour, day, month, and year, so that they could kill a third of humankind.

<sup>16</sup> I heard the number of troops mounted on horseback was 200 million.

<sup>17</sup> Now this is what the horses I saw in the vision looked like. The riders wore breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue and sulfur yellow. The horses' heads looked like lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.

<sup>18</sup> By these three plagues a third of humankind was killed--by the fire, smoke, and sulfur that came out of their mouths.

<sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses was in their mouth and tails. Their tails are like snakes that have heads by which they inflict damage.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of humankind, who were not killed with these plagues, refused to repent of the works of their hands or to give up worshipping demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood; which cannot see, hear, or walk.

<sup>21</sup> They refused to repent of their murders, or their sorceries, or their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

DASV: Revelation 10

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw another mighty angel coming down out of heaven, wrapped with a cloud; and a rainbow was over his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire.

<sup>3</sup> Then he shouted out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. When he shouted out, the seven thunders rang out their sound.

<sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up the things that the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them down."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven,

<sup>6</sup> and swore by the one who lives forever and ever, who created the heaven and what is in it, and the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, saying, "There will be no further delay.

<sup>7</sup> But in the days when the seventh angel is about to blow his trumpet, then the mystery of God will be completed, just as he declared to his servants the prophets."

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice I heard from heaven, spoke again to me, saying, "Go, take the open scroll that is in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

<sup>9</sup> So I went to the angel, and asked him to give me the little scroll. He told me, "Take and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but it will be sweet as honey in your mouth."

<sup>10</sup> So I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

<sup>11</sup> Then they said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings."

DASV: Revelation 11

<sup>1</sup> Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff and I was told, "Get up and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship in it.

<sup>2</sup> But do not measure the outer courtyard of the temple, for it has been given to the nations, and they will trample on the holy city for forty-two months.

<sup>3</sup> I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth."

<sup>4</sup> These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the Lord of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> If anyone tries to hurt them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone tries to hurt them this is how they will die.

<sup>6</sup> These two have the power to shut heaven, so that it does not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they wish.

<sup>7</sup> When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, conquer and kill them.

<sup>8</sup> Their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which symbolically is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

<sup>9</sup> For three and a half days those from various peoples, tribes, languages and nations will stare at their dead bodies refusing to bury them.

<sup>10</sup> The inhabitants of the earth will rejoice over them, and celebrate and send gifts to each other, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> But after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet. Those who saw it were terrified.

<sup>12</sup> Then they heard a loud voice from heaven telling them, "Come up here." So they went up into heaven in the cloud while their enemies watched them.

<sup>13</sup> At that very hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet and there were loud voices in heaven, saying,
"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever."

<sup>16</sup> Then the twenty-four elders, who sit before God on their thrones, fell on their faces and worshipped God,

<sup>17</sup> saying,
"We thank you, O Lord God Almighty, who is and who was,
because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.

18 The nations raged, and your wrath came,
and the time for the dead to be judged has arrived,
as well as the time to reward your servants
the prophets and the saints, and those who fear your name,
both the small and the great and to destroy those who destroy the earth." 19 Then the temple of God that is in heaven was opened; and the ark of the covenant was seen in his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, rumblings and crashes of thunder, and an earthquake, along with a great hailstorm.

DASV: Revelation 12

<sup>1</sup> Now a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars.

<sup>3</sup> Another sign appeared in heaven: a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven diadems.

<sup>4</sup> His tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that as soon as she delivered he might devour her child.

<sup>5</sup> She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God and to his throne.

<sup>6</sup> The woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

<sup>7</sup> Now there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back.

<sup>8</sup> But the dragon was not strong enough to win, and there was no longer found any place in heaven for them.

<sup>9</sup> So the great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the one deceiving the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth and his angels were thrown down with him.

<sup>10</sup> Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,

"Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers is thrown down, the one who accused them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup> They conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony;
and they did not love their own lives even at the point of death.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you that inhabit them.

But woe to the earth and sea,

because the devil is come down to you.

He is furious because he knows that his time is short."

<sup>13</sup> When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child.

<sup>14</sup> But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly away into the wilderness to a place prepared for her. There she would be taken care of for a time, times, and half a time, away from the face of the serpent.

<sup>15</sup> So the serpent spewed out of his mouth water like a river after the woman, attempting to sweep her away with a flood.

<sup>16</sup> But the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth.

<sup>17</sup> Then the dragon became furious with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus.

DASV: Revelation 13

<sup>1</sup> Then the dragon stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, with ten horns and seven heads and on his horns were ten diadems, and on its heads were blasphemous names.

<sup>2</sup> The beast that I saw was like a leopard, and its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority.

<sup>3</sup> One of its heads seemed to have a fatal wound and its mortal wound was healed, and the whole earth was amazed and followed the beast.

<sup>4</sup> They worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast and they also worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast?" And "Who is able to wage war against it?"

<sup>5</sup> Now the beast was given a mouth speaking arrogant words and blasphemies. It was granted authority for forty-two months.

<sup>6</sup> It opened its mouth to blaspheme God, to blaspheme his name, his dwelling which is those who dwell in heaven.

<sup>7</sup> It was also permitted to make war against the saints and to conquer them. It was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation.

<sup>8</sup> All who live on the earth will worship it, every one whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain.

<sup>9</sup> If anyone has an ear, he needs to listen.

<sup>10</sup> If anyone is destined for captivity, into captivity he will go.

If anyone kills with the sword,
with the sword he must be killed.

This requires patience and faith from the saints.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon.

<sup>12</sup> It exercised all the authority of the first beast in its presence. It made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

<sup>13</sup> It performed great signs, even making fire come down out of heaven on the earth in the sight of humankind.

<sup>14</sup> It deceived those who live on the earth by the signs that it was given to perform on behalf of the beast; telling those who live on the earth to make an image of the beast who had been wounded by the sword and lived.

<sup>15</sup> It was empowered to give breath to this image of the first beast, so that the image of the first beast could speak, and cause anyone who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

<sup>16</sup> It also forced all, both great and small, rich and poor, bond and free, to be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead.

<sup>17</sup> This was so that no one would be able to buy or sell, unless he had the mark of the beast, that is his name or number.

<sup>18</sup> This calls for wisdom. Let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man. Its number is 666.

DASV: Revelation 14

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and there was the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 having his name and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.

<sup>2</sup> I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like many harpists playing their harps.

<sup>3</sup> They were singing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been purchased from the earth.

<sup>4</sup> These are the ones who had not defiled themselves with women; for they are virgins. These follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were purchased from among humankind to be the firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying overhead, having the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language and people.

<sup>7</sup> He called out with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven and the earth and sea and springs of waters."

<sup>8</sup> Then a second angel followed, saying, "Fallen, Babylon the great is fallen. She made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

<sup>10</sup> he will also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured full strength into the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

<sup>11</sup> The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. Those who worship the beast and his image and whoever receives the mark of his name will have no rest day and night."

<sup>12</sup> Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write this: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them."

<sup>14</sup> Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and on the cloud I saw one sitting like the Son of Man, having on his head a golden crown, and a sharp sickle in his hand.

<sup>15</sup> Another angel came out from the temple, calling with a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, "Swing your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe."

<sup>16</sup> So the one who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup> Then another angel came out from the temple in heaven; he also had a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup> Another angel who was in charge of the fire came from the altar, and called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, "Swing your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine from the earth; for its grapes are fully ripe."

<sup>19</sup> So the angel swung his sickle over the earth, and gathered the grapes from the earth, and threw them into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

<sup>20</sup> Then the winepress was stomped outside the city. Blood flowed out of the winepress, as high as the horses' bridles and as far as 180 miles.

DASV: Revelation 15

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and astonishing: seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is finished.

<sup>2</sup> I saw something like a glass sea mixed with fire, and those who had been victorious over the beast and its image and the number of his name, standing by the glass sea, holding harps given to them by God.

<sup>3</sup> They sang the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and awesome are your works, O Lord God Almighty, righteous and true are your ways, King of the ages.

<sup>4</sup> Who will not fear you, O Lord, and glorify your name?
for you alone are holy;
for all the nations will come and worship before you;
for your righteous acts have been revealed."

<sup>5</sup> After these things I looked, and the temple in heaven, that is, the tabernacle of the testimony, was opened.

<sup>6</sup> The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in clean bright linen with gold sashes wrapped around their chests.

<sup>7</sup> Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup> The temple was filled with smoke from the glory and power of God; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

DASV: Revelation 16

<sup>1</sup> Then I heard a loud voice from the temple, telling the seven angels, "Go, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth."

<sup>2</sup> The first went and poured out his bowl on the earth. It became a terrible and painful sore on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshipped his image.

<sup>3</sup> The second poured out his bowl on the sea. It became blood like that of a corpse and everything living in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup> The third poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of the waters and they became blood.

<sup>5</sup> Then I heard the angel of the waters saying,

"You are just, O Holy One,
you who are and was,
because you have made these judgments.

<sup>6</sup> Because they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink,
they got what they deserved."

<sup>7</sup> Then I heard the altar reply,

"Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and just are your judgments."

<sup>8</sup> Then the fourth poured out his bowl on the sun. It was given the ability to scorch people with fire.

<sup>9</sup> So people were scorched with fierce heat and they blasphemed the name of God who had authority over these plagues, but they did not repent and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup> Then the fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. His kingdom was darkened and they gnawed their tongues in pain.

<sup>11</sup> They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; but they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup> The sixth poured out his bowl on the great Euphrates River. Its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings of the east.

<sup>13</sup> Then I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

<sup>14</sup> For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them together for the battle of the great day of God, the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup> (Look, I will come like a thief. Blessed is the one who expectantly watches and keeps his clothes ready, so he does not have to walk around naked and expose his shame.)

<sup>16</sup> So they gathered the kings together to the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup> Then the seventh poured out his bowl on the air. A loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying, "It is done."

<sup>18</sup> There were flashes of lightning, rumblings and thundering, and a great earthquake, such as has not been since there were humans on the earth, so great was this mighty earthquake.

<sup>19</sup> The great city was split into three sections and the cities of the nations fell. Then God remembered Babylon the great giving her the cup of the wine of the fury of his wrath.

<sup>21</sup> Huge hail, with each one weighing about 100 pounds, fell from the sky on humans. But the people blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague was so disastrous.

DASV: Revelation 17

<sup>1</sup> Then one of the seven angels that had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters,

<sup>2</sup> with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who live on the earth were made drunk by the wine of her immorality."

<sup>3</sup> So he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of names of blasphemy and having seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, decked with gold, precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and unclean things of her immorality.

<sup>5</sup> A mysterious name was written on her forehead: "Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes and the abominations of the earth."

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I was absolutely amazed.

<sup>7</sup> So the angel said to me, "Why are you so amazed? I will tell you about the mystery of the woman, and about the beast with the seven heads and the ten horns that carry her.

<sup>8</sup> The beast you saw was, and is not; but is about to come up out of the bottomless pit and go to destruction. Those who live on the earth whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will be amazed when they see the beast, how it was, and is not, but will come again.

<sup>9</sup> This calls for a mind that has wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits.

<sup>10</sup> They are also seven kings--five have fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain just a little while.

<sup>11</sup> Now the beast that was and is not, is itself also an eighth king. It belongs with the seven and it too is going to destruction.

<sup>12</sup> The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom. But they will receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

<sup>13</sup> These have a single purpose, that they might give their power and authority to the beast.

<sup>14</sup> These will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and those who are with him are called and chosen and faithful."

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.

<sup>16</sup> The ten horns you saw and the beast hate the prostitute. They will lay her waste and strip her naked. They will eat her flesh and burn her up with fire.

<sup>17</sup> For God has put into their hearts to do his plan, by deciding together to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are accomplished.

<sup>18</sup> The woman whom you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth."

DASV: Revelation 18

<sup>1</sup> After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was brightened by his glory.

<sup>2</sup> He shouted out with a mighty voice:

"Fallen, Babylon the great is fallen,
and is become a dwelling place for demons, and a haunt for every unclean spirit and every unclean and disgusting beast.

<sup>3</sup> All the nations have fallen because of the wine of the passion of her immorality.
The kings of the earth have had sex with her,
and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from her extravagant luxury."

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice from heaven, saying,
"Come out of her, my people,
so that you have no share in her sins,
and so that you do not receive her plagues.

<sup>5</sup> For her sins have reached as high as heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

<sup>6</sup> Pay her back just as she has repaid others.
Repay her double for her deeds.
In the cup she mixed for others,
mix double for her.

<sup>7</sup> However much she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give that much torment and grief to her.
Since she tells herself, 'I rule as a queen.
I am no widow.

I will never have to grieve.'

<sup>8</sup> Therefore in just one day plagues will overcome her-- death, mourning, and famine.
She will be totally burned down;
for the Lord God who judges her is mighty."

<sup>9</sup> Then the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they look on the smoke of her being burnt up.

<sup>10</sup> They will stand at a distance because they are afraid of her torment, saying,
"Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the mighty city!
For in just one hour your judgment has come."

<sup>11</sup> Then the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one will buy their merchandise anymore--

<sup>12</sup> merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet; all types of citron wood, all kinds of ivory objects, and all kinds of objects made of expensive wood, bronze, iron, marble;

<sup>13</sup> and cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses and chariots and slaves, that is, human beings.

<sup>14</sup> The fruits you desired are gone from you, and all luxury and splendor are lost from you, never ever to be found.

<sup>15</sup> The merchants selling these things, who got rich from her, will stand at a distance for the fear of her torment. They will weep and mourn,

<sup>16</sup> saying,

"Woe, woe, the great city,
the one dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet clothes, and decked out with gold, precious stones and pearls!

Every ship captain, and all sailors and as many as earn their living from sea, stood at a distance,

<sup>19</sup> Then they threw dust on their heads, and crying out, weeping and mourning, saying,

"Woe, woe, the great city,
in which all who had their ships in the sea had become rich from her wealth!

For in just one hour she has been laid waste.

<sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints, apostles, and prophets;
for God has rendered judgment on her on your behalf."

<sup>21</sup> Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

"This is how Babylon, the great city will violently be thrown down, and will never be found again.

<sup>22</sup> The sound of harpists, musicians, flute players and trumpeters will never again be heard in you.

No craftsman, of any kind of trade, will ever be found in you.

The sound of the mill will never again be heard in you.

<sup>23</sup> The light of a lamp will never again shine in you.

The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will never again be heard in you.

For your merchants were the greatest on the earth;
and all the nations were deceived by your magic.

<sup>24</sup> And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, along with all who had been slain on the earth."

DASV: Revelation 19

<sup>1</sup> After these things I heard what sounded like a loud clamor of a great multitude in heaven, saying,

<sup>2</sup> "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for his judgments are true and just.

For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged on her the blood of his servants."

<sup>3</sup> A second time they exclaimed,

"Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever."

<sup>4</sup> Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne, saying,

"Amen! Hallelujah!"

<sup>5</sup> A voice came from the throne, saying,

"Give praise to our God, all his servants, you who fear him, great and small."

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard what sounded like a loud clamor of a great multitude, and like the roar of many waters, and like the rumblings of mighty thunder, saying,

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

<sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and be happy, and let us give the glory to him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come,

and his bride has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup> She was allowed to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and pure."

For the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, "Write this: Blessed are they who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." He said to me, "These are true words of God."

<sup>10</sup> I fell down before his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Don't do that. I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw the heaven open and there was white horse. He who rode on it was called Faithful and True, and he judges and makes war with righteousness.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems. He has a name written which no one knows except himself.

<sup>13</sup> He is dressed in a garment sprinkled with blood, and his name is called, The Word of God.

<sup>14</sup> The armies in heaven clothed in fine linen, white and pure, followed him on white horses.

<sup>15</sup> Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it he might strike the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron, and he treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty.

<sup>16</sup> He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written:

King of kings, and Lord of lords.

<sup>17</sup> Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice telling all the birds that fly high overhead, "Come and be gathered together to the great supper of God,

<sup>18</sup> so that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of generals, and the flesh of the mighty, and the flesh of horses and those who ride on them, and the flesh of everyone, both slave and free, and both small and great.

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth along with their armies, gathered together to make war against him who rode on the horse and against his army.

<sup>20</sup> But the beast was caught along with the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.

<sup>21</sup> The rest were killed with the sword of him who rode on the horse, by the sword that came out of his mouth. All the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

DASV: Revelation 20

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw an angel coming down out of heaven having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

<sup>3</sup> He threw him into the bottomless pit, then shut and locked it up over him, so that he could not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were finished. After that he must be released for a little while.

<sup>4</sup> Then I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony for Jesus and for the word of God. They had not worshipped the beast, or his image, or received the mark on their forehead or on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years was finished. This is the first resurrection.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy is anyone who has part in the first resurrection. Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup> When the thousand years are finished, Satan will be released from his prison.

<sup>8</sup> He will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for battle. Their number was like the sand of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> They marched up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Then fire came down out of heaven and devoured them.

<sup>10</sup> The devil, who had deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were too. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw a great white throne and him who sat on it, from whose presence the earth and heaven fled away and there was no place found for them.

<sup>12</sup> I saw the dead, both great and small, standing before the throne. The books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life and the dead were judged according to their works from the things written in the books.

<sup>13</sup> The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them. They too were judged, each person according to their works.

<sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

DASV: Revelation 21

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and there was no more sea.

<sup>2</sup> I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

<sup>3</sup> Then I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look, the dwelling place of God is among humankind. He will live with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.

<sup>4</sup> He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death, nor will there be any more mourning, crying, or pain. The former things have passed away."

<sup>5</sup> Now he who sits on the throne said, "Look, I am making all things new." He said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

<sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give free water to the one who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life.

<sup>7</sup> The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son.

<sup>8</sup> But to the cowardly, unbelieving, corrupt, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their fate will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

<sup>9</sup> Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who had the seven last plagues came and told me, "Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

<sup>10</sup> So he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

<sup>11</sup> It has the glory of God, her brilliance was like a rare jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal.

<sup>12</sup> It had a thick and high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> There were three gates on the east, and three gates on the north, and three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

<sup>14</sup> The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, and its gates and the walls.

<sup>16</sup> The city was a square, with its length the same as its width. He measured the city with the rod. It was 1400 miles with the length and width and the height all being equal.

<sup>17</sup> He also measured its wall, which was 216 feet thick by human measurement, which was also the angel's standard.

<sup>18</sup> The wall was built of jasper, and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

<sup>19</sup> The foundations of the wall of the city was embedded with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup> the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup> The twelve gates were made of twelve pearls. Each gate was a single pearl. The street of the city was pure gold as transparent as glass.

<sup>22</sup> Now I saw no temple there, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

<sup>23</sup> The city has no need of the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God illuminates it and the Lamb is its lamp.

<sup>24</sup> The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

<sup>25</sup> Its gates will never be closed during day (and there will be no night there).

<sup>26</sup> They will bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.

<sup>27</sup> But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is abominable or tells lies; but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

DASV: Revelation 22

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life, crystal clear, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb,

<sup>2</sup> flowing down the middle of its street. On both sides of the river was the tree of life, with twelve types of fruit, producing its fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

<sup>3</sup> There will no longer be any curse and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him.

<sup>4</sup> They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup> There will be no more night. They will not need any light from a lamp, nor light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. They will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> Then he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true, for the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angels to show to his servants the things that must soon take place.

<sup>7</sup> Look, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>8</sup> I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, "Don't do it. I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

<sup>10</sup> Then he told me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

<sup>11</sup> Let the evildoer continue to do evil, and the filthy continue to be filthy and the righteous continue to be righteous and the holy continue to be holy.

<sup>12</sup> Look, I am coming soon, bringing my reward with me, to repay to each person according to what he has done.

<sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

<sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city.

<sup>15</sup> Outside are the dogs, sorcerers, sexually immoral, murderers, idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices deception.

<sup>16</sup> "I Jesus have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let anyone who hears say, "Come." Let anyone who is thirsty come, anyone who wants, let him take the water of life freely.

<sup>18</sup> I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book.

<sup>19</sup> If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life, and in the holy city, which are recorded in this book.

<sup>20</sup> He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus.
