Ironically Google's NotebookLM would not process this document. It seems to be refusing to prepare Study Guides etc. because this topic was unacceptable to the AI and hence cancelled by NotebookLM. Sad.

1. Abstract of Keener, Romans, Session 3, Romans 1:2-17, Biblicalelearning.org, BeL

This lecture by Dr. Craig Keener explains Romans 1:18-32, focusing on Paul's argument that both Gentiles and Jews are in need of the gospel. He contrasts God's revealed righteousness in the gospel with humanity's unrighteousness, manifested in suppressing the truth through idolatry and immorality. Keener highlights Paul's rhetorical strategy, comparing it to similar passages in Amos and the Wisdom of Solomon, to show that all people, regardless of background, are subject to God's judgment. The lecture further explores the consequences of rejecting God's revealed truth, emphasizing the concepts of moral responsibility and the distortion of God's image.
