

Getting Started with OT History, Literature, and Theology (BCM101)

4 week intensive

Email: ted.hildebrandt@gordon.edu

Purpose: We will learn the basic content, history, theology of the Old Testament and its significance for our lives today focusing on the role it plays in pointing to Jesus Christ.

What you need:

Internet connection – browser (IE, Firefox, Chrome etc) that will play Flash videos, read Acrobat files and even a device that will play mp3 audios.

Before class check: 1) Youtube lecture videos play, 2) Bible Quizzer works/Quizlet.com works, 3) Canvas works.

Where online?

Old Testament Literature \(Four week version\) – Biblical eLearning or just Google: “biblicalelearning.org” Pull down menu: Old Testament → 4 week version). Or just work off Canvas version.

What’s there? 1) Syllabus, 2) DASV Bible, 3) Daily Assignments, 4) Getting Started with Genesis, Exodus etc. introductory articles, 4) Bible Quizzer / Quizlet.com links, 5) Course video links For the text materials there is text in MS Word (.docx) and Acrobat (.pdf) formats as well as audio for all the readings (*.mp3 audio). There is also full text and audio for all the video lectures as well as interactive quizzers built off and embedded in the interactive lecture videos.

Course flow and rhythm

Quizzes every MWF: Quizzes are over the readings of the Bible and the “Getting Started with...” articles. The Bible Quizzer/Quizlet.com “Beginning” level will quiz you over listed stories you are to learn in detail. The quizzes will be built off the questions from that Bible Quizzer or Quizlet.com. This will be asynchronous: you can take it any time M/W/F before 2:00 AM that evening (which is actually the next morning).

Exams: Saturday exams will be over the interactive video lectures. The exams will be drawn from the questions in the lectures. Exams will be timed and must be completed before 2:00AM that Saturday night (actually will be Sunday morning).

Organization: What’s on the web and what’s in Canvas?

Canvas will be used for: 1) grade listing, 2) quizzes/exams taken there, and 3) Links to Youtube and Quizlet and other course materials.

–Make sure Canvas works before the course. A copy of the syllabus is Online: Syllabus, course documents, DASV Bible, Bible Quizzer, Getting Started with, Daily Assignments, Quizzes and Exams. Before the course starts make sure

1) your Youtube lecture videos will work, and 2) Quizlet.com works. Be able to download audio, read Acrobat [.pdf] or MS Word files [.docx/*.doc].

Hopefully this will be a great experience and we’ll learn much of the OT together at our own place, at our own pace, at our own time and in our own way. Behasdo (in His steadfast love), Ted Hildebrandt
