1. Abstract of Vannoy, Genesis, Session 12, Fall – Process of Surrender, Initial Results, Biblicalelearning.org, BeL

This lecture excerpt from Robert Vannoy's Old Testament History course analyzes Genesis 3, focusing on the "fall" of humanity. Vannoy details six stages in Eve's surrender to temptation, highlighting the injection of doubt, sharpening of God's prohibition, and Satan's mixture of truth and falsehood. He then examines the immediate consequences, specifically the sudden awareness of shame and nakedness, arguing that this signifies a distorted relationship between Adam and Eve and all humanity. Finally, Vannoy discusses the complexities of shame, suggesting it's a reflex to guilt yet also a blessing that protects against exploitation, particularly within sexual relationships. The lecture concludes by emphasizing the profound alienation between humanity and God resulting from the fall.
