

Song of Solomon Quizlet MC Questions developed by Claude, NIV and Ted Hildebrandt

Song of Songs 1

According to Song of Songs 1:1, whose song is this? A) Solomon's B) David's C) Asaph's D) Moses' A) Solomon's

According to Song of Songs 1:2, the beloved's love is more delightful than what? A) Honey B) Wine C) Gold D) Perfume B) Wine

According to Song of Songs 1:3, the beloved's name is like what? A) A strong tower B) Morning dew C) Perfume poured out D) A royal crown C) Perfume poured out

According to Song of Songs 1:4, into what does the speaker ask the king to bring her? A) His vineyard B) His garden C) His city D) His chambers D) His chambers

According to Song of Songs 1:5, to whom does the woman say, "Dark am I, yet lovely"? A) The daughters of Jerusalem B) The king C) Her mother D) The shepherds A) The daughters of Jerusalem

According to Song of Songs 1:5, she is dark like the tents of where? A) Egypt B) Kedar C) Sheba D) Lebanon B) Kedar

According to Song of Songs 1:6, why is the woman darkened? A) From working in the fields at night B) From sickness C) By the sun D) From mourning C) By the sun

According to Song of Songs 1:6, what did her mother's sons make her take care of? A) The sheep B) The house C) The olive groves D) The vineyards D) The vineyards

According to Song of Songs 1:7, what does the woman ask her beloved to tell her? A) Where he grazes his flock and rests his sheep at midday B) When he will return C) Why he left D) Who his friends are A) Where he grazes his flock and rests his sheep at midday

According to Song of Songs 1:8, what is the woman told to follow if she does not know? A) The river B) The tracks of the sheep C) The stars D) The road to Jerusalem B) The tracks of the sheep

According to Song of Songs 1:9, to what does the beloved liken the woman? A) A dove in the clefts of the rock B) A lily among thorns C) A mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses D) A gazelle C) A mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses

According to Song of Songs 1:10, with what are the woman's cheeks beautiful? A) Roses B) Veils C) Ribbons D) Earrings

According to Song of Songs 1:11, what will be made for the woman? A) Earrings of gold, studded with silver B) A crown of jewels C) A robe of purple D) A necklace of pearls
A) Earrings of gold, studded with silver

According to Song of Songs 1:12, what spread its fragrance while the king was at his table? A) The flowers B) My perfume C) The incense D) The wine
B) My perfume

According to Song of Songs 1:14, from the vineyards of which place is the cluster of henna blossoms? A) Lebanon B) Sharon C) En Gedi D) Carmel
C) En Gedi

According to Song of Songs 1:15, what does the beloved say the woman's eyes are? A) Stars B) Pools C) Jewels D) Doves
D) Doves

According to Song of Songs 1:17, what are the beams of their house? A) Cedars B) Olive wood C) Oaks D) Palm trees
A) Cedars

Song of Songs 2

According to Song of Songs 2:1, what does the woman call herself? A) A rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys B) A cedar of Lebanon C) A dove of the desert D) A vine of En Gedi A) A rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys

According to Song of Songs 2:2, the darling among the young women is like what? A) A star in the sky B) A lily among thorns C) A pearl in the sea D) A palm in the desert B) A lily among thorns

According to Song of Songs 2:3, the beloved among the young men is like what? A) A cedar of Lebanon B) A strong lion C) An apple tree among the trees of the forest D) A mighty oak C) An apple tree among the trees of the forest

According to Song of Songs 2:4, what does the woman want to be over her? A) A canopy of gold B) A crown C) A veil D) His banner of love D) His banner of love

According to Song of Songs 2:5, why does the woman ask to be strengthened with raisins and refreshed with apples? A) For I am faint with love B) For I am hungry C) For I am sick D) For the journey is long A) For I am faint with love

According to Song of Songs 2:7, by what does the woman charge the daughters of Jerusalem? A) By the stars of heaven B) By the gazelles and by the does of the field C) By the king's throne D) By the temple B) By the gazelles and by the does of the field

According to Song of Songs 2:7, what does the woman charge the daughters of Jerusalem not to do? A) Leave the city B) Follow her C) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires D) Tell the king C) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires

According to Song of Songs 2:8, how does the beloved come? A) Riding a chariot B) Walking slowly C) Sailing across the sea D) Leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills D) Leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills

According to Song of Songs 2:9, to what is the beloved compared? A) A gazelle or a young stag B) An eagle C) A lion D) A horse A) A gazelle or a young stag

According to Song of Songs 2:10, what does the beloved say to the woman? A) "Stay where you are" B) "Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, come with me" C) "Wait for me" D) "Go back home" B) "Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, come with me"

According to Song of Songs 2:11, what season is past? A) Summer B) Spring C) Winter D) Harvest C) Winter

According to Song of Songs 2:12, what has appeared on the earth? A) Snow B) Locusts C) Dust D) Flowers

According to Song of Songs 2:12, what sound is heard in the land? A) The cooing of doves B) The roar of lions C) The sound of trumpets D) The rush of rivers

According to Song of Songs 2:13, what does the fig tree form? A) Leaves only B) Its early fruit C) Blossoms of gold D) Thorns

According to Song of Songs 2:14, where is "my dove"? A) In the temple B) On the rooftop C) In the clefts of the rock D) By the river

According to Song of Songs 2:15, what ruin the vineyards that are in bloom? A) The locusts B) The wild boars C) The birds D) The little foxes According to Song of Songs 2:16, what does the woman say about her beloved? A) "My beloved is mine and I am his" B) "My beloved has left me" C) "My beloved is a king" D) "My beloved is far away"

Song of Songs 3

According to Song of Songs 3:1, when did the woman look for the one her heart loves on her bed? A) All night long B) At noon C) At dawn D) At sunset A) All night long

According to Song of Songs 3:2, where did the woman go to search for the one her heart loves? A) The fields B) Through the city's streets and squares C) The temple D) The vineyards B) Through the city's streets and squares

According to Song of Songs 3:3, who found the woman as they made their rounds in the city? A) The shepherds B) The daughters of Jerusalem C) The watchmen D) Her brothers C) The watchmen

According to Song of Songs 3:4, to where did the woman bring the one her heart loves? A) The king's palace B) The vineyard C) The temple D) Her mother's house D) Her mother's house

According to Song of Songs 3:5, what does the woman charge the daughters of Jerusalem not to do? A) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires B) Follow her C) Tell the watchmen D) Leave the city A) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires

According to Song of Songs 3:6, from where is someone coming up like a column of smoke? A) The sea B) The wilderness C) The mountains D) The city B) The wilderness

According to Song of Songs 3:7, whose carriage is it? A) Pharaoh's B) The queen of Sheba's C) Solomon's D) David's C) Solomon's

According to Song of Songs 3:7, how many warriors escorted the carriage? A) Twelve B) Thirty C) A hundred D) Sixty D) Sixty

According to Song of Songs 3:9, from what wood did King Solomon make the carriage? A) Wood from Lebanon B) Olive wood C) Acacia wood D) Algumwood from Ophir A) Wood from Lebanon

According to Song of Songs 3:10, of what did Solomon make the carriage's posts? A) Gold B) Silver C) Bronze D) Ivory B) Silver

According to Song of Songs 3:11, when did Solomon's mother crown him? A) On the day he became king B) On his birthday C) On the day of his wedding D) After a battle C) On the day of his wedding

Song of Songs 4

According to Song of Songs 4:1, what are the woman's eyes behind her veil? A) Doves B) Stars C) Jewels D) Pools A) Doves

According to Song of Songs 4:1, the woman's hair is like a flock of goats descending from the hills of where? A) Lebanon B) Gilead C) Carmel D) Bashan B) Gilead

According to Song of Songs 4:2, the woman's teeth are like what? A) Pearls B) Ivory C) A flock of sheep just shorn D) Snow C) A flock of sheep just shorn

According to Song of Songs 4:3, what are the woman's lips like? A) Honey B) Roses C) Wine D) A scarlet ribbon D) A scarlet ribbon

According to Song of Songs 4:4, the woman's neck is like what? A) The tower of David B) A pillar of marble C) A cedar of Lebanon D) An ivory tower A) The tower of David

According to Song of Songs 4:4, how many shields hang on the tower of David? A) A hundred B) A thousand C) Sixty D) Twelve B) A thousand

According to Song of Songs 4:6, to what mountain will the beloved go until the day breaks? A) Mount Zion B) Mount Hermon C) The mountain of myrrh D) Mount Carmel C) The mountain of myrrh According to Song of Songs 4:7, what does the beloved say about the woman? A) She is wise B) She is strong C) She is far away D) There is no flaw in you D) There is no flaw in you

According to Song of Songs 4:8, from where does the beloved call his bride to come with him? A) Lebanon B) Egypt C) Jerusalem D) Sharon A) Lebanon According to Song of Songs 4:9, with what has the bride stolen his heart? A) A song B) One glance of your eyes C) A gift of gold D) A kiss B) One glance of your eyes

According to Song of Songs 4:10, the bride's love is more pleasing than what? A) Gold B) Honey C) Wine D) Silver C) Wine

According to Song of Songs 4:11, the fragrance of her garments is like the fragrance of what? A) Roses B) The sea C) Incense D) Lebanon D) Lebanon

According to Song of Songs 4:12, what is the bride called? A) A garden locked up, a sealed fountain B) A vineyard in bloom C) A tower of ivory D) A city on a hill A) A garden locked up, a sealed fountain

According to Song of Songs 4:13, of what fruit is the orchard? A) Figs B) Pomegranates C) Olives D) Apples B) Pomegranates

According to Song of Songs 4:15, from where does the well of flowing water stream down? A) Hermon B) Zion C) Lebanon D) Gilead C) Lebanon

According to Song of Songs 4:16, which winds are called to blow on the garden? A) East wind and west wind B) Only the east wind C) Only the north wind D) North wind and south wind D) North wind and south wind

Song of Songs 5

According to Song of Songs 5:1, where has the beloved come? A) Into my garden B) Into the city C) Into the vineyard D) Into the palace A) Into my garden

According to Song of Songs 5:2, what was the beloved doing at the door? A) Singing B) Knocking C) Calling from the street D) Waiting silently B) Knocking

According to Song of Songs 5:2, with what was the beloved's head drenched? A) Oil B) Rain C) Dew D) Perfume C) Dew

According to Song of Songs 5:3, what had the woman already taken off? A) Her sandals B) Her veil C) Her necklace D) Her robe D) Her robe

According to Song of Songs 5:4, how did the woman's heart respond when her beloved put his hand through the latch-opening? A) It began to pound for him B) It grew cold C) It was afraid D) It was sad A) It began to pound for him

According to Song of Songs 5:5, with what did the woman's hands drip as she opened for her beloved? A) Honey B) Myrrh C) Oil D) Water B) Myrrh According to Song of Songs 5:6, what had happened when the woman opened the door? A) He was asleep B) He was singing C) He had left; he was gone D) He was waiting C) He had left; he was gone

According to Song of Songs 5:7, what did the watchmen take away from the woman? A) Her necklace B) Her sandals C) Her lamp D) Her cloak D) Her cloak

According to Song of Songs 5:8, what does the woman want the daughters of Jerusalem to tell her beloved? A) I am faint with love B) Come home quickly C) I am angry D) I have left the city A) I am faint with love

According to Song of Songs 5:9, what do the daughters of Jerusalem ask the woman? A) Where has your beloved gone? B) How is your beloved better than others? C) Why did you not open the door? D) What is his name? B) How is your beloved better than others?

According to Song of Songs 5:10, how is the beloved described among ten thousand? A) Unknown B) Ordinary C) Outstanding D) Last C) Outstanding

According to Song of Songs 5:11, what color is the beloved's hair? A) Golden B) Red C) White D) Black as a raven D) Black as a raven

According to Song of Songs 5:12, the beloved's eyes are like what? A) Doves by the water streams B) Stars in the night C) Burning coals D) Pools of Heshbon A) Doves by the water streams

According to Song of Songs 5:13, what are the beloved's lips like? A) Roses B) Lilies dripping with myrrh C) Scarlet ribbons D) Honeycomb B) Lilies dripping with myrrh

According to Song of Songs 5:15, the beloved's appearance is like what? A) The sun B) A king C) Lebanon, choice as its cedars D) A lion C) Lebanon, choice as its cedars

According to Song of Songs 5:16, what does the woman call her beloved to the daughters of Jerusalem? A) My king B) My shepherd C) My brother D) My friend D) My friend

Song of Songs 6

According to Song of Songs 6:1, what do the daughters of Jerusalem ask the woman? A) Where has your beloved gone? B) Why are you sad? C) What is his name? D) When will he return?
A) Where has your beloved gone?

According to Song of Songs 6:2, where has the beloved gone? A) To the city B) Down to his garden, to the beds of spices C) To the mountains D) To the king's palace
B) Down to his garden, to the beds of spices

According to Song of Songs 6:3, what does the woman say? A) "My beloved has left me" B) "I am searching for my beloved" C) "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine" D) "My beloved is a king"
C) "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine"

According to Song of Songs 6:4, the woman is as beautiful as which city? A) Damascus B) Samaria C) Hebron D) Tirzah
D) Tirzah

According to Song of Songs 6:5, what does the beloved ask the woman to turn from him? A) Her eyes B) Her face C) Her voice D) Her steps
A) Her eyes

According to Song of Songs 6:6, the woman's teeth are like a flock of what? A) Goats B) Sheep C) Doves D) Gazelles
B) Sheep

According to Song of Songs 6:7, what are the woman's temples behind her veil like? A) Doves B) Roses C) The halves of a pomegranate D) Ivory
C) The halves of a pomegranate

According to Song of Songs 6:8, how many queens are mentioned? A) Twelve B) Seven hundred C) Eighty D) Sixty
D) Sixty

According to Song of Songs 6:9, how is "my dove, my perfect one" described? A) Unique B) One of many C) A queen D) A shepherd girl
A) Unique

According to Song of Songs 6:10, the woman appears like what? A) The night B) The dawn C) A storm D) The sea
B) The dawn

According to Song of Songs 6:11, to what grove did the speaker go down? A) The olive grove B) The grove of palm trees C) The grove of nut trees D) The grove of fig trees
C) The grove of nut trees

According to Song of Songs 6:12, among what did the speaker's desire set her? A) The flocks B) The vineyards C) The daughters of Jerusalem D) The royal chariots of my people
D) The royal chariots of my people

According to Song of Songs 6:13, what is the woman called? A) The Shulammite B) The Moabitess C) The Ethiopian D) The queen of Sheba A) The Shulammite

Song of Songs 7

According to Song of Songs 7:1, how is the woman addressed? A) O prince's daughter B) O queen of Sheba C) O daughter of Jerusalem D) O Shulammite A) O prince's daughter

According to Song of Songs 7:1, what is said to be beautiful about the woman's feet? A) They are swift B) They are sandaled C) They are dancing D) They are washed B) They are sandaled

According to Song of Songs 7:4, the woman's neck is like what? A) The tower of David B) A marble pillar C) An ivory tower D) A cedar C) An ivory tower

According to Song of Songs 7:4, the woman's eyes are like the pools of which place? A) Siloam B) Gibeon C) Bethesda D) Heshbon D) Heshbon

According to Song of Songs 7:4, toward which city does the tower of Lebanon look? A) Damascus B) Jerusalem C) Tyre D) Samaria A) Damascus

According to Song of Songs 7:5, the woman's head crowns her like which mountain? A) Mount Hermon B) Mount Carmel C) Mount Zion D) Mount Gilead B) Mount Carmel

According to Song of Songs 7:5, who is held captive by the woman's tresses? A) The watchmen B) The shepherds C) The king D) The daughters of Jerusalem C) The king

According to Song of Songs 7:6, what does the beloved say about the woman? A) "You are far away" B) "You are a shepherdess" C) "You are wise" D) "How beautiful you are and how pleasing" D) "How beautiful you are and how pleasing"

According to Song of Songs 7:7, the woman's stature is like that of what tree? A) The palm B) The cedar C) The olive D) The fig A) The palm

According to Song of Songs 7:9, the woman's mouth is like what? A) Honey B) The best wine C) Milk D) A pomegranate B) The best wine

According to Song of Songs 7:10, what does the woman say? A) "My beloved has gone" B) "I am searching for him" C) "I belong to my beloved, and his desire is for me" D) "I am faint with love" C) "I belong to my beloved, and his desire is for me"

According to Song of Songs 7:11, where does the woman invite her beloved to go? A) To Jerusalem B) To the temple C) To the king's palace D) To the countryside and the villages D) To the countryside and the villages

According to Song of Songs 7:13, what plants send out their fragrance? A) The mandrakes B) The lilies C) The roses D) The henna blossoms A) The mandrakes

Song of Songs 8

According to Song of Songs 8:1, the woman wishes her beloved were to her like what? A) A brother B) A king C) A shepherd D) A friend A) A brother

According to Song of Songs 8:2, where would the woman bring her beloved? A) To the king's palace B) To her mother's house C) To the vineyard D) To the temple B) To her mother's house

According to Song of Songs 8:4, what does the woman charge the daughters of Jerusalem not to do? A) Follow her B) Tell the watchmen C) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires D) Leave the city C) Arouse or awaken love until it so desires

According to Song of Songs 8:5, how is the woman coming up from the wilderness? A) Riding a chariot B) Alone C) Carrying a lamp D) Leaning on her beloved D) Leaning on her beloved

According to Song of Songs 8:5, under what tree did the woman rouse her beloved? A) The apple tree B) The fig tree C) The palm tree D) The olive tree A) The apple tree

According to Song of Songs 8:6, where does the woman ask to be placed like a seal? A) On your forehead B) Over your heart C) On your crown D) On your door B) Over your heart

According to Song of Songs 8:6, love is as strong as what? A) A lion B) The sea C) Death D) A mountain C) Death

According to Song of Songs 8:6, love burns like what? A) The sun B) A candle C) The desert D) Blazing fire, like a mighty flame D) Blazing fire, like a mighty flame

According to Song of Songs 8:7, what cannot quench love? A) Many waters B) Strong wine C) Great wealth D) Harsh words A) Many waters

According to Song of Songs 8:7, what would happen if one gave all the wealth of one's house for love? A) Love would be bought B) It would be utterly scorned C) It would be accepted D) It would be returned B) It would be utterly scorned

According to Song of Songs 8:9, what will be built on the little sister if she is a wall? A) Gates of bronze B) Walls of cedar C) Towers of silver D) A tower of gold C) Towers of silver

According to Song of Songs 8:11, where did Solomon have a vineyard? A) En Gedi B) Lebanon C) Carmel D) Baal Hamon D) Baal Hamon

According to Song of Songs 8:12, how many shekels are for Solomon? A) A thousand B) Two hundred C) Fifty D) Six hundred A) A thousand

According to Song of Songs 8:14, what does the woman ask her beloved to be like on the spice-laden mountains? A) An eagle B) A gazelle or a young stag C) A lion D) A dove B) A gazelle or a young stag